Mother's Day

Tomorrow, throughout the United States Mother's Day is observed. This praiseworthy movement to set aside a special day in honor of our mothers is one of recent years. The new celebration quickly captivated the heart of everyone until it has become an event of widespread proportions. Individual Catholics as well as Catholic organizations have been among the first to align themselves with this movement.

But certain interests have commercialized Mother's Day from its beginning. To inject this fleeting motive alone which endures for a day is unworthy of the honor and praise due to our mothers. It is perfectly right and just that we remember them by means of some token of affection as for example a card, a bouquet of flowers, or a present.

Catholics, however, through the Fourth Commandment, "Honor thy father and thy mother" are taught to honor both parents every day of the year! And the effect of its observance is far more lasting than any gift money could buy. Mothers derive great joy and satisfaction from the knowledge that their sons and daughters show them the love, respect and obedience which they so richly deserve.

Above all, those of you who observe Mother's Day should impart to its celebration a religious motive. Strive on this day to make your mother happy by giving her a spiritual bouquet, a bouquet of Masses, Holy Communion and prayers. Such a bouquet is the only lasting kind. It will be much more appreciated than an elaborate cluster of the rarest and finest flowers.

Mother's Day Program

In keeping with the outward observance of this day, the school children at St. Christine's will present an excellent program in honor of their mothers. Their rehearsals give promise of an interesting and entertaining evening. They will participate in a program consisting of songs, declamations and playlets, some in Slovenian others in English. This rich presentation has been mapped out under the capable direction of the Sisters of St. Francis, who during the past weeks, have been working tirelessly to ensure its success.

- The program follows:
1. Welcome, Mothers!
  2. Little Housekeepers. — Song and dialogue.
  3. Vsem materam. — Declamation.
  4. Dve pesmi materam.
  5. A red Parasol. — One-act comedy.
  6. Voščilo.
  7. Mother! — Song.
  8. Dva gluha. — One-act farce.
  9. A Present for Mother. — Playlet.
  10. Materinska ljubezen. — Two-act play.
  11. Balloon Dance.
  12. Orphan's Radio. — Song.
  13. Clown Land.

This entertainment is being presented by our school children as a sign of appreciation and love to their own mothers, and to mothers in general. Our duty is clear: to attend this affair in full numbers as a means of encouragement to the children, in recognition for the Sisters' labors and in honor of our mothers!

Come yourself and invite your friends to join our social circle for an enjoyable evening of entertainment. The Mother's Day Program will be followed by a dance. Admission "bids" are only 35c. The performance begins at 7:30 p. m. Well, folks, we hope to see you there tomorrow evening!

Holy Name Meeting

The date for the regular monthly meeting, which was erroneously announced as May 7 (woe is me!), will be this coming Thursday night. How about having a full attendance for a change? In the past, the Holy Name members have been appearing at alternate meetings in two separate shifts. We would like to have both shifts present at every meeting. Yes?

Communion Sunday

As a fitting tribute to their mothers it is not more than right that the Holy H. N. Juniors will have indoor Jrs. communicate in a body at the 9:45 Mass on Sunday, May 10.

Baseball

The Holy Name Juniors will have indoor baseball practice on Tuesday and Thursday nights at 5:30. We are still in need of some backers for the team. Any merchant wishing to help us in this respect in return for advertising can do so by calling Rev. J. Celesnik.

Dashes

Plans are being discussed for the race of the century between Johnny Jamnik's new Plymouth and Rev. J. Celesnik's Dodge — well, Johnny, he'll leave you so far behind it'll take a telegram to notify you of his whereabouts! — why, his brother Frank had trouble even starting the "Ply Mouth" — so what can you expect? — Chi Sigma Kappa has its third new treasury head in a year — the keeper of the "carbana" is Miss Mary Coprich — here's hoping! — at last — a Plymouth — taken out of the moth balls — How come? — new owner, of course — Who? Our friend John Cimperman, the boy scout master — now we can go places! — Lenny "Red" Grubb has a way of renaming streets — Waterloo Rd. is Napoleon Street to him — he ought to get a job with the Highway Dept. — the famous battery of Ernest and Frank Mance is warming up for the coming season — pun (just for fun?): they ought to have their battery recharged — how about it, fellas? — believe it or not — no nicks or scratches on Rev. Celesnik's new Dodge as yet — he's out to set a record of some kind — but you can never tell — They say "Gentlemen prefer blonds" — Ed Gabrenja has a preference for redheads — therefore he's no gentleman — how's that for logic? — Spring is here — and with it flowers, birds, sunshine, blue sky — the gentle zephyrs are blowing — aw hertz!

St. Mary's Spectator and Commentator

Station YLS is back again with some very interesting bits of news it wishes to impart to you. — At our last session the atmosphere was electric — just charged with great portent of impending events. — With a great deal of buzzing and fuss the meeting was at last called to order by our Prexy.

Minor business was taken care of in a hurry — more static. — Then, Mother's Day and its meaning to all Sodalists, was the chief topic of discussion for a while. The main idea of celebration decided upon was a tribute to Our Heavenly Queen and then an afternoon of entertainment for all our Sodalists' Mothers. The admission is small, only 20 cents. All will remember last Mother's Day and its beautiful memories. Let's make it bigger and better for after all who can solace you in all your troubles, and who else is more interested in all your joys and sorrows than Mother? Let's show our appreciation this Sunday, May 10th.

Our Sodality is already set for its social activities for the summer months. We're starting off with a Bangup Picnic. The day is May 31, but more about that in a later issue — only please reserve that date — you won't be sorry if some of the plans that were buzzing about in the minds of the entertainment committee come through — and that's something.

And now ladies and gentlemen! To the one and only Spring Frolic — I know we have kept you in suspense for a long time, but now you shall see! — We have been laboring to such fruitful ends! — Our gala affair shall be held at the Beach Log Cabin and the most popular artist shall dish out the engaging and toe-tickling melodies. In other words Ed Guenther! Isn't tha the last word? We want to reassure all the hesitating damsels and backward lads: You shall find the hostesses quite genial and declare that you will really enjoy yourselves. You won't regret it. We know! The admission is only 35c. We cordially invite you to share with us a very delightful evening, June 9. — Please keep this date in mind.

Now for a bit of refreshing tid-bits. Girls, you should have been here with Mary Prince cutting in with her "Yes, I know, but..." — Father Kuznik's patient smile and satisfying explanations. — Our heated and open "disintegrating" of "cliques." — If you want to be in at the "death of the above" be sure to come to our next meeting and watch the fireworks. — We're sure there shall be plenty of "sparks." — Thus we are learning Lesson 1 in the great Social world into which we have been cast. — All members of the organization are begged to come and lay their cards on our table, for we are striving towards Unity and greater accomplishments to our obligations to all and sundry. — We're all errors and hope to be true. Now it is up to you, so come and do your duty!

We adjourned rather late but no one left before refreshments were served — tea and cookies — I can still feel my mouth puckering at the very thought of all the lemons that went the rounds at the close!

Do you know — Jean Benevol, Mary Chapic, Jo Dolgan and Jo Kocin, our vice president were seen at the Rink. You looked as if you enjoyed yourselves. I hope we can join at some future time if you aren't too sore!

Have You Heard?

A little bit of nonsense now and then is relished by the best of men.

A young naval student was being put through the paces by an old sea captain.

"What would you do if a sudden storm sprang up on the starboard?"

"Throw out an anchor, Sir."

"What would you do if another storm sprang up aft?"

"Throw out another anchor, Sir."

"And if a terrible storm sprang up forward, what would you do?"

"Throw out another anchor, Sir."

"Hold on," said the captain. "Where are you getting all your anchors from?"

"From the same place you're getting your storms, Sir."

A SURVEY reveals that United States consumes less cheese than any other country, but nothing was said about baloney.

The average woman is said to be most comfortable when working at a bench or table 37 inches high. The average man is most comfortable when not working.

A New York scientist has developed a new and superior race of bees. Boston baseball fans hope theirs are of this variety.

It would seem that the only thing farmers in the flood area would have much success in raising this year would be navy beans.

Catholic Charities

During the week of May 10 the Catholic Charities will hold their campaign for the year 1936. Though generously aided by the Community Fund, the Catholic Charities find it necessary to seek additional aid in order to continue their work.

Some of the various institutions which are partially or as in some cases wholly supported by the Catholic Charities are, the Good Shepherd Home, St. Anthony's Home and the Rose Marie Home for crippled children. Besides these various hospitals receive aid as well as the St. Vincent DePaul Society.

Therefore some time this week a worker from the parish will appear at your home. This worker will explain further all the needs of the Catholic Charities organization and the details of the campaign. He will also explain the part you must play in order to make this drive a success.

"Tri sestre"

Last Sunday, May 3, the well known Slovene lodge A. M. Slomšek No. 16 SDZ presented a play in the school hall. This play, "Tri sestre," a Slovene comedy in three acts, received the unreserved applause of a capacity audience of 350 people.

However the main features which surprised the onlookers were the elaborate stage effects and settings. These effects combined with the masterly presentations of the actors and the witty dialogue of the play provided an enjoyable evening for every person present.

Mothers Club

Tomorrow May 10, Mother's Day, the Mothers Club of St. Vitus parish will present a variety program in the school hall. Assisting them in the presentation will be the children of St. Vitus school. Due to the fact that there has been a very large advance sale, two performances will be held. One at 2:30 in the afternoon, the other at 7:30 in the evening.

Baseball

A baseball meeting for players and managers will be held

Tuesday, May 12 at 7:15 in the parish house basement. Every Holy Name member who is interested in baseball is expected to be present as the rules and regulations for the coming season will be discussed.
