

MASQUERADE DANCE NEW ERA 572, SNPJ. J. D. N. HALL, W. 130th and McGowan Ave., Cleveland, Ohio Saturday, October 29th, 1927 8:00 P.M.

The Young S. N. P. J.

BADGERS, WE MUST DO IT!

Milwaukee, Wisconsin.—We must have 100 members in our lodge by New Year! Such was the statement made by our "President" Monsieur Joe Radel. "Oh," I gasped. "No 'oh' about it! It can be done," he replied. "Well, there were no more 'ohs' muttered by "Yours truly." But when I thought about it, I fully agreed with him, (that doesn't always happen).

RADIUM DUST

Cleveland, Ohio.—We had it Saturday, October 8th. Oh boy! oh joy! that it certainly was a grand success. It was estimated that the Comrades drew the largest crowd that gathered at any affair held in the lower hall of the S. N. Auditorium.

is as good as sold. They were good and let no one tell you differently. Well now that this dance is over, we'll have to start on our next one, no rest for the wicked. This next dance will be held Thanksgiving Eve, November 3rd.

RIP VAN WINKLE OF NEW ERA

Cleveland, O.—"Boy, it surely does feel good to be wide awake, Joe; ready to face anything. I think I must have been playing Rip Van Winkle these last few weeks."

Get Busy, Strugglers!

Now, that the Strugglers' dance is over, we must get down to brass tacks and that is, "The call for new members and many of them." You all know that we are in need of new members, every young girl and boy should become a member of the Young S. N. P. J. Get them to join the Strugglers!

FLASHES

"Strudel," originally a German word, will be officially translated into Slovene Friday, October 21st, at the Pioneer meeting. Sisters Antonia Zaverznik and Mary Novak will prepare unlimited quantities of this delicacy for us.

"JUS PRIMAE NOCTIS"

It is very easy, as far as I am concerned at least, to write about a play or a concert and pass judgment on it when its presentation and production is generally accepted as satisfactory.

TIMELY TOPICS

Victor Hugo, the great French writer, tells us in his masterpiece called Les Miserables, that Jean Valjean one day stole a loaf of bread for his starving family.

REWARD-DEAD OR ALIVE!

$5.00 in Cold-Blooded Cash will be offered to the person who gets the most members for our lodge. (Signed) BADGERS.

THE RECORD-BREAKERS.

Cleveland, Ohio.—Well, it happened again for the second time in succession this year that the English speaking lodges of the SNBS in Cleveland broke dance records.

LITTLE FORT HALLOWEEN DANCE

Waukegan-North Chicago.—Unexpected thrills and chills add zest to the Halloween party. You will get them a plenty when first you behold the grinning ghosts waiting to join you at the Little Fort Halloween dance on October 29!

BADGERS' COO-COO CORNER!

Here are a few jokes and wise cracks, which, we hope, your readers will not take seriously, because we are merely two saps.

CLASSIFIED ADS.

Organizers in demand.—Many towns have possibilities for English locals of SNPJ. You can secure information and details at headquarters.

LITTLE FORT LODGE SCANDAL CORNER

Members, wherever you go and no matter what else you have to do, do not forget that the most important part of your conversation must be "The Witches' Spooning Night."

Famous People of Little Fort.

Do you know:—There is a certain young man in our lodge who has held many responsible positions among which were, being a milkman, selling washing machines, ladies' and children's hats and now holds the position of truck driver for Aunt Lou's Bakery.

KEEP MOVING

"There is little choice, from the standpoint of health, between the constipated fellow and the one who takes his cathartics regularly. One moves slowly and the other thinks slowly, or he would not depend upon cathartics," says Dr. Herman N. Bundesen in his bulletin, entitled "Keep Moving."
