Zakaj verujemo v Sv. Trojico?

Danes obhajamo najbolj vzvišeno skrivnost naše vere, skrivnost, ki je izvir vsega in v katero se vrača vse, kar obstaja - to je skrivnost Svete Trojice. Sv. Avguštin je zapisal: Redke so tiste duše, ki vedo, o čem govorijo, ko govorijo o Sveti Trojici, saj gre pri tem za enako brezupno prizadevanje, kakor je poskus otroka, ki bi rad s školjko celo morje preлил v posodo. Tako je bilo Avguštinu razodeto v sanjah.

Krščanska vera je vera v enega Boga v treh osebah. Trinitarični monoteizem je najgloblja od vseh novosti, ki jih je prineslo krščanstvo. Po tem se razlikuje tako od judovske vere (en sam Bog) kot tudi od verovanja poganov (več bogov). Še danes to velja za posebnost krščanstva v primerjavi z vsemi drugimi verstvi sveta in za eno najbolj prepričljivih znamenj presežnosti krščanske skrivnosti. Obstoj Trojice ne moremo dokazati; sami, se pravi brez razodetja, ne bi nikoli spoznali te skrivnosti. A ko smo jo enkrat spoznali iz razodetja Jezusa Kristusa, uvidevamo tole: če Bog obstaja, ne more obstajati drugače kot Trojica, eden in trojen, objekt in subjekt, hkrati oseben in neoseben. A če je trinitarična skrivnost najizvirnejša struktura krščanske vere, mora biti tudi njen kriterij ali merilo. Z drugimi besedami: vse v krščanstvu mora biti na neki način »trinitarično«, vse mora nositi pečat Trojice, saj vse iz nje izvira in vanjo vodi. Na prvem mestu velja to za molitev, ki je v svoji najpristnejši in najgloblji obliki vedno prošnja, ki se obrača na Očeta po Kristusu v Svetem Duhu.

Veriozpoved in evharistija imata trinitarično strukturo. Tudi milost ima trinitarični značaj; to se pokaže zlasti pri krščevanju, ko so »vpletene« vse tri božje osebe. O tem govori današnji evangelij: Krščujte jih v ime Očeta in Sina in Svetega Duha. Poleg tega vzpostavlja krst poseben odnos krščenca z vsako od božjih oseb: postane namreč božji otrok, Kristusov brat in tempelj Svetega Duha. Duh pričuje našemu duhu, da smo božji otroci ... in sodediči s Kristusom. Skrivnost Trojice torej ni izginila iz življenja Cerkve. Treba je le odstraniti nekaj plasti peska in načrt zgradbe naše vere bo spet zasijal v polni luči.

Dear Friends,

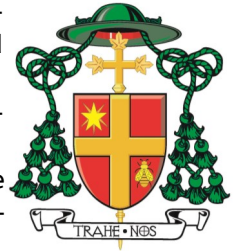

In the past months, there has been much attention on the federal government's refusal to provide summer jobs funding to organizations who will not attest to their support for, among other things, the right to abortion. Much has been said already of the many ways this policy is wrong and dangerous. There is the simple and unavoidable fact — which seems lost on the Prime Minister and the federal government — that abortion rights are, in fact, nowhere to be found in the Charter. There is also the sad irony that the Charter actually does guarantee the rights of conscience, religion, thought, belief, and opinion — protections designed to defend against the very type of government intrusion on display here. Many have pointed, rightly, to the profound danger of attempts to demonize and punish beliefs contrary to those the government deems acceptable.

What has received less attention is the practical outcome of this decision, which will be experienced most poignantly by those who rely on the programs that will not operate without this funding. An example here is illustrative. Since the early 1940's, Camp Brebeuf in Rockwood, Ontario, has welcomed children to experience the outdoors, meet new friends, gain valuable life and leadership lessons, and grow in their faith and service of others. More recently, Camp Marydale also follows this proud tradition. This Camp is known especially for their "one-to-one" program, which offers children with spina bifida, cerebral palsy, scoliosis, downs syndrome, autism, and hearing, visual and various other challenges the chance to experience summer camp like other children. Having seen the faces of these children at camp, having heard their laughter and joyful screams, and having listened to the moving testimony of their families and caregivers, it is clear that the dignity afforded by an experience away at camp makes a profound and lasting difference in their lives.

However, the federal government's insistence on this ideological test for summer jobs funding has put these programs, and many others, at risk. Imagine a disabled child being told they will not be going to summer camp — all because the government cannot abide that some dare to believe that life is worthy of defense at all stages.

We do not believe that those who rely on these programs should suffer because of the government's decision. To this end, I am calling for a special collection to be taken up in each of our parishes on Sunday, June 3. The funds raised from this collection will be distributed to Catholic charities whose programs are at risk as a result of their inability to attest to what the government demands.

The Church's history provides us a litany of witnesses who have held to our faith in the face of political pressure. From the Christians of the early Church in Rome, to St. Thomas More, to the Japanese martyrs, to Archbishop Oscar Romero in more recent times, attempting to force Christians to bow to political pressure is nothing new. Now as before, we will serve all those in need. But the only one to whom we will bow in the process is the one whose kingdom is not of this world.

Sincerely in Christ and Mary Immaculate,

*(Most Rev.) Douglas Crosby, OMI
Bishop of Hamilton*

LIPA PARK - DAN ODPRTIH VRAT

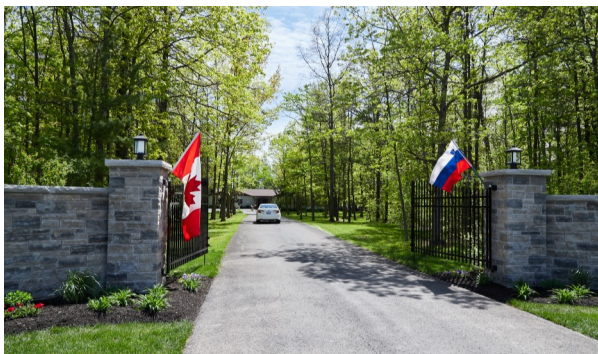

V ponedeljek, 21. maja 2018 so pri društvu Lipa Park imeli »DAN ODPRTIH VRAT«. V okolici St. Cathaniesa društva raznih narodnosti vsako leto izberejo svoje »Abmasadorje«. To so pri društvu Lipa Park storili koncem meseca aprila, kos so obhajali tudi Materinski dan. Letos je bila za društvo Lipa Park izbrana (predlagana) Kate Emond.

Letošnji »dan odprith vrat« je bilo zelo dobro obiskan, blizu 1000 obiskovalcev se je zvrstilo v popoldanskem času. K temu je pripomoglo tudi zelo lepo in primerno vreme, pa tudi dolgoletna tradicija, saj privabi ne samo slovence ampak tudi člane sosednjih društev, ki se v mesecu maju obiskujejo. Na prireditvev je prišlo tudi 14 ambasadorjev sosednjih društev, ki so se popoldne tudi na kratko predstavili. Popoldanski program je popestrila plesna skupina Mladi Glas iz Toronta, tudi nekaj mlajših. Kar trikrat so odplesali svoj program. Vmes pa so domači harmonikarji - "Niagara Button Boxers" - raztegnili svoje mehove. Po zadnjem nastopu plesne skupine je zabavo nadaljeval ansambel »Golden Keys«.

Tudi za otroke je bilo poskrbljeno, saj so se po mili volji naskakali v »napihnjenem« gradu. Nihče pa ni ostal brez dobre slovenske hrane. Zunaj so na različnih spekli odojke in jagnjeta, tako, da so lahko vsi ljubitelji te hrane prišli na svoj račun. Ostali pa so se postavili v vrsto pri kuhinjskem »okencu« in ta vrsta se celo popoldne ni skrajšala - vedno je bilo dovolj lačnih. Še dobro, da so kuharice predvidele in pripravile dovolj hrane. Prav tako so dobro založili tudi bar. Prijetno razpoloženje je trajalo celo popoldne in kaj hitro je sonce zašlo, množica pa se je počasi odpravila proti domu, saj je bil za mnoge torek delovni dan dan.

Priznanje gre vsem, ki so pripravili vse, kar je bilo potrebno, da je dan tekel nemoteno. Tako tistim, ki so pri vhodu sprejeli goste, vsem, ki so skrbeli za program pa kuharicam v kuhinji, možem pri baru in tistim, ki so že od ranega jutra »vrtili in mazali vse kar je bilo na različnih«.

On a beautifully sunny day, Lipa Park participated in its 50th "Open House" in the Niagara Folks Arts Festival! It was a day of celebrating Slovenian music (by the Niagara Button Boxers and Golden Keys); food (BBQ pork, lamb, schnitzel & sausage) and dance (Mladi Glas, Toronto). There was plenty of cold beer and warm strudel.

While a record crowd enjoyed the festivities outside, we also had a wonderful display of Slovenian cultural items inside. Thanks to all the ladies who brought in Slovenian home-made pastries for guests to taste or take home. They sold out quickly.

We are grateful to the small, but dedicated group of Lipa Park volunteers who work so tirelessly to make our park look so beautiful and our Lipa Park events so successful.

NASTOP SLUŽBE INŠPEKTORJA MARKA KOŠNIKA

Na praznik Marije Pomočnice je mag. Marko Košnik prevzel vodenje Inšpektorije sv. Cirila in Metoda kot 14. inšpektor.

Pred slovesnim bogoslužjem je bila v svetišču Marije Pomočnice na Rakovniku Marijanska akademija. Pevski zbor župnije Ljubljana Rakovnik je pod vodstvom Iztoka Petriča ubrano prepeval skladbe v čast Božji Materi Mariji in litanije njej v čast; na orglah je zbor spremljal Andrej Benedik, ravnatelj Glasbene šole Rakovnik.

Pri slovesni sveti maši je bil navzoč tudi Tadeusz Rozmus kot zastopnik vrhovnega predstojnika, ki je kot njegova uradna priča sprejel izpoved vere novega inšpektorja mag. Marka Košnika. Na ta način je g. Marko sprejel vodenje inšpektorije od mag. Janeza Potočnika, ki je inšpektorijo SLO vodil v letih 2012-2018.

Pri sveti maši je ubrano prepeval priložnostni mladinski pevski zbor pod vodstvom Tadeja Zalarja.

Po sveti maši je SKALA, mladinska ulična vzgoja na dvorišču Salezijanskega zavoda Rakovnik pripravila kratek program, ki ga izvaja v okviru svojega programa Cirkuška Pedagogika.

Ob nastopu službe novega inšpektorja je inšpektorjev vikar Peter Končan v imenu vseh sobratov izrekel zahvalo dosedanjemu inšpektorju Janezu in voščil novemu, Marku.

Sestra Mojca Šimenc HMP pa je obema spregovorila v imenu družbe hčera Marije Pomočnice in v imenu vseh vej salezijanske družine, ki delujejo v Sloveniji.

PENTECOST SUNDAY

Response:

Blessed the people the Lord has chosen as his heritage.

First Reading Deuteronomy 4:32-34. 39-40

Moses exhorts the people to remain faithful to the one true God, so that they may prosper and have a rich life.

Second Reading Romans 8:14-17

God gives us the Holy Spirit, to make us God's sons and daughters, able to inherit the glory of God's Son.

Gospel Matthew 28:16-20

Jesus' final command: go out to make disciples of all nations. He promises to be with his followers to the end of time.

"In the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit."

Illustration

Twitter is a social media tool used by millions of people worldwide. It's a powerful way of broadcasting short messages across the globe to anyone who will listen. Pop stars and businesses, presidents and celebrities, even Pope Francis all "tweet". The rules are simple: your message must be to the point – no more than 140 characters. The most successful users have millions of "followers". One feature of a Twitter account is the short biography people use to describe themselves. This can be simply factual or very funny, such as: "A mum and a wife with a really good day job"; "Bald, unreliable and easily distracted..."; "I'm not smart, I just wear glasses"; "My hobbies are breakfast, lunch and dinner." Clearly, these are not intended to be a full biography, just a hook to entice people to become followers.

Gospel Teaching

Today we celebrate the feast of the Most Holy Trinity – our Christian belief that the one God is Father, Son and Holy Spirit. Although this doctrine was formulated centuries ago, long before Twitter, it can be understood as God's biography – it acts as a short summary of what we believe God has revealed to us of God's self. Christians have always struggled to find ways to reconcile the core belief of the Old Testament that God is one – "he and no other" – with the understanding that God is also in some way three.

That is because what we celebrate today is not so much a doctrine as an experience. The threeness of the one God is how Christians throughout the centuries have come to know and love God. Jesus' final command to his followers is to "make disciples of all the nations; baptise them in the name of the Father and of the Son and of the Holy Spirit". "In the name of" is important: it expresses the idea of relationship. We are baptised not simply to wash away our sins but in the name of God, which means that we are immersed into the very life of God who is above all a relationship of love. Through our baptism we share in God's life. Jesus himself explained that the Father sent his Son into the world so that we might be saved – so that we might have life in all its fullness. And speaking to the first Christians in Rome, Paul states that we have the Spirit of God living in us, praying in us, leading us to share the glory of the risen Christ. Our baptism in the name of the Trinity means that we are called to participate in the life of God, to enter into an intimate relationship with God, to join in the circle of love which is God. This is how Christians experience God: the Father who creates and sustains us; the Son who is our saviour, who gives himself completely for us; the Spirit who lives within us, animates, guides and directs us in our daily lives.

Application

The Christian experience is that God is beyond us, and one with us, and within us: Father, Son and Spirit. The content of this “mini biography of God” is fleshed out more fully in the scriptures – in Jesus’ relationship with the Father and his promise to send the Spirit to continue his work. But that biography of God is also meant to be fleshed out – literally enfleshed – in the lives of Christians.

Because we have been immersed in the life of God, God continues to act, speak and reveal God’s self in the world today through us. God’s biography becomes our biography, our pattern for life. The life of God transforms us and flows out through us, helping us to be like the Father – to create, not to destroy, to build up, sustain and care for God’s world, especially for God’s children. It means we are called to continue the saving work of the Son – to serve, to bring healing and wholeness into the lives of people who are wounded, marginalised or in need. And it means we become channels of the Holy Spirit – to encourage, to bring strength to those who are weak, to help people rejoice in their blessings, to console people who are sad and suffering, to speak out courageously against the evils of this world and to act to change them. Our deep, personal relationship with God – Father, Son and Spirit – means that our experience of God becomes our blueprint for living and our pathway to the fullness of life.
