REV. FR. BANDI TO SING FIRST MASS IN CLEVELAND SUNDAY

Cleveland, Ohio—
The Rev. Bonaventure Bandi, O. S. B., who was known in our neighborhood as Lawrence R. Bandi, will sing his first Solemn High Mass in St. Vitus Church on Sunday, May 31.

Father Bandi is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Bandi, 1017 E. 72nd Pl.

He was born in Brooklyn, N. Y., on April 26, 1914. When he was two years old, the family moved to Cleveland. He was graduated from St. Vitus School in 1928. He graduated from Cathedral Latin High School in 1932. After attending John Carroll University for two years, he was forced by the depression to seek factory work. After working about two years, he entered the novitiate of the Benedictine Order in the Holy Cross Abbey in Canon City, Colorado. He entered the novitiate on June 5, 1936.

During the last six years at the Abbey he has taught in high school and has led the boys in sports during the summer months.

He completed his novitiate in 1938 and then made the Simple Vows. In 1941 he made his Solemn Vows and was made a deacon last December. He was ordained to the priesthood last Saturday at Canon City, Colorado. He will sing his first Solemn High Mass in St. Vitus Church next Sunday, May 31, at 10:00 a.m.

There will be a dinner in his honor at 12:30 p.m. that day in our church hall.

FERDINAND HALL WILL BE DEDICATED IN JOLIET PARISH NEXT SUNDAY

Joliet, Ill. — Next Sunday, May 31, the Old School of St. Joseph's parish will be rededicated as Ferdinand Hall and all members of St. Francis de Sales Society, No. 29, are asked to participate in the program by joining in the procession preceding the 8 o'clock Mass. Members who intend to take part in this event should meet at 7:30 in the New School.

Our next regular monthly meeting will be held on Sunday, June 7, and since this will be one of the most important meetings of the year, all members are urged to attend. The election of delegates and alternates to the XX convention will take place, and it is your duty as a member to elect men capable and willing to represent your society at the convention, so make it a point to be present at the next meeting.

Picnic time is here once again and as a reminder the entertainment committee announces that we will have our annual picnic on Sunday, June 28, at St. Joseph's Park on Raynor Ave. Make your plans now to attend, for a good time is assured everyone.

Remember the date of the next meeting, June 7.

KEEP 'EM ROLLING!

ASKS FOR ATTENDANCE AT MEETINGS

Rockdale, Ill. — The last meeting of the Blessed Virgin of Help Society, No. 119, was not very well attended. It is very difficult to hold a discussion with so few present. As this was one of our important meetings, we had election of a delegate to the coming convention. As this is the first time our lodge will send a delegate, Mrs. Agnes Wolz was elected and Mrs. Rose C. Dernule is alternate.

We will sponsor a card party some time in the month of September. Every member, adult and juvenile, will be on the committee as we must raise over $200. Each member will be given a certain amount to sell.

The following mothers of our society who had their sons home on furlough are: Mrs. Johanna Bostjancic, Mrs. Amelia Akilitis, and our vice president's son and member of our lodge, Joseph Zupancic.

On the sick list we have our secretary, Mrs. Mary Kovacic, Mrs. Stella Siefert, Mrs. Catherine Colaric, Mrs. Mollie Neiswender, and Albenna Mockevic. We wish them a speedy recovery.

Our meetings will be held the third Monday of each month, starting at 7 p. m. in the Church parlors.

Mrs. Rose C. Dernule.

BARAGITES TO PARTY

Milwaukee, Wis. — FLASH! Uhh-uh uh uh! don't go in that door on North Tenth Street off of Juneau that I have been telling you about lately, where the beer party is to be held. I have been informed that the entrance is on Juneau — 915 West Juneau, to be specific.

Don't say that I didn't warn you in time, if you are going to be called a party crasher . . . because that entrance is for another party. So please remind the others when you see them. I am blushing all over because of this blunder—"forgive me." (With apologies to Ben Bernie.) Of course, the date is the same, June 5, at 7:45 p. m.

This scribe will not attend the above party, as I shall be somewhere in the Ozark Hills of Arkansas along about the time the rest of you will be reveling at Mr. Pabst's expense. Prost! Joe Matzelle will "m. e." the event.

The latest report is that Ensign Frank Slatinshek is studying at Abbott Hall, on the near northside of Chicago's Northwestern University Campus. Wish I were going to Northwestern.

Agnes Jenich.

LOSE FRIEND

Brooklyn, N. Y. — Many friends in Brooklyn and vicinity, lost a good friend, Louis Yess, who died recently of a heart attack at Highland, N. Y. The deceased came to this country 36 years ago. The first 16 years he spent in Brooklyn, and then moved to a farm where he spent the last twenty years. Surviving are the widow, sons, Michael and Louis, and daughter Mamie Yess Pishkur, and two grandchildren, Jack Pishkur, Jr., and Mary Ann Pishkur. In Vipava, Yugoslavia, where the deceased was born, surviving him is a brother. His departure from this world has caused among his friends a sadness and bereavement in the loss of a very dear friend. We extend our sincere sympathy to the family in their hour of bereavement. May God grant him everlasting peace and rest, and may the everlasting light forever shine upon him.

Joseph J. Klun, reporter.

ST. JOSEPH CADETS TO CELEBRATE WITH GALA DEBUT PROGRAM

The St. Joseph Cadets, No. 169, KSKJ, are planning a whole day's program, to which we hope that our Slovenian nationality will wholeheartedly respond.

The program will include a parade from the Slovenian Hall on Holmes Ave. to St. Mary's Church where the new banner will be blessed. Following the parade the public is invited to attend the program at the Slovenian Hall. At 7 p.m. a banquet and dance will take place in the upper hall. Admission is $1.00. This admission ticket will also admit you to the lower hall where the Cadets will for the second time this season hold their "Golden Blue-ettes Dance." Record attendance of the young generation prove that you are in for an enjoyable evening. As previously, Johnny Pecon and his Orchestra will give their interpretations of the latest musical hits. Tickets are also on sale for those who wish to attend the Dance only. Admission will be 40 cents. Dancing will begin at 8 p. m.

So, remember June 7th, that is when every Tom, Dick and Harry will be in Collinwood.

In case you'd like to meet some new faces, here's your chance. Many out-of-towners are coming to Cleveland. Let's show them what we can do.

STRABANE LODGES UNITE TO GIVE AID, FORM ORGANIZATION

Strabane, Pa. — In order that sufficient aid can be given to the mother country of many of our parents, the Strabane Allied Lodges composed of seven-teen organizations have combined themselves into a Jugoslav Relief unit whose plans are fast being formulated for future activity. The local branch will be known as unit 27 and the officers of the organization are John Bevec, president; John Boles, secretary; John Troha, treasurer, and Frances Mahoric, recording secretary. National organizations represented are KSKJ, SNPJ, AFU, Ladies Union, and all affiliated branches of these units.

As its first step in raising funds for the relief setup, a dance will be held at St. Jerome's Home on May 30th starting at 8 p. m. Music will be furnished by Jackie Martincic's band and will supply those good old Slovene tunes. Already over 500 tickets have been sold and the sale is still going on. During the latter part of June, plans are being formulated to hold a tag day in Canonsburg for this purpose. All fraternal units will also be contacted.

At this time the local unit takes this means of inviting our many friends in Western Pennsylvania to attend this affair which will be one of the largest gatherings yet planned. So come and help the country, which has showed itself to be a real defeat to the would-be dictators of this world.

VEN. SISTER FERDINAND TAUGHT SCHOOL IN JOLIET FOR 39 YEARS

Joliet, Ill. — Sister Ferdinand, in whose honor the old St. Joseph's School will be rededicated Sunday, May 31st, taught school at St. Joseph's for 39 years. Sister Ferdinand was born in Chicago in 1867. Her family name was Stalzer. Sister Ferdinand entered the Order of St. Francis in 1888. She was the first Slovenian girl to enter upon the religious life in America. Her first assignment found her working in the northern corners of Wisconsin, among the Indians whom the saintly Bishop Baraga, also a Slovenian, converted about 50 years before her arrival. In 1895 she was sent to teach the newly organized St. Joseph's School in Joliet, Ill. That year began the long period of loyal service and self sacrifice for the school and parish. During these years, she served at various times as Superior, Principal and Director of the Sodality. When she passed away January 21, 1936, the parish lost not only a teacher and a principal but a real mother, who will always be remembered with veneration.

Ferdinand Hall dedication ceremony will begin with a Solemn High Mass for the repose of the soul of Sister Ferdinand, Sunday, May 31, at 8 o'clock. The celebrant of the Mass will be the Rev. Joseph Stukel, a pupil of Sister Ferdinand. Rev. Father Stukel will also preach the sermon on this occasion. The parish Sodality and the fraternal societies will take part in the procession preceding the Mass as will also the school children and the Boy Scouts. The music for the procession will be furnished by the School Band. All of the parish will receive Holy Communion at this Mass for Sister Ferdinand. The afternoon services will begin with the May Devotions at 2 o'clock. The Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality and the St. Agnes Sodality will take part in the closing of the May procession. This procession will lead the way to Ferdinand Hall. Upon arriving at the Hall, the building will be blessed by the Rev. M. J. Butala, another pupil of Sister Ferdinand. The band will play the "Star Spangled with veneration."
