AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

Current Thought.

ENGLISH-SPEAKING REPRESENTATION

English-conducted lodges will be represented by 12 delegates at the 14th regular convention of our SSCU to take place at Indianapolis this month. The 12 elected spokesmen come from principal states with the largest concentration of members. Minnesota and Ohio lead with three delegates each, followed by Pennsylvania, with two delegates; New York, Illinois, Colorado and Wyoming have one delegate apiece.

Five of these delegates were elected from both the Slovene and English-conducted lodges that united for the purpose of electing a common delegate, as follows:

- James Palcic, Gowanda, N. Y.—Nos. 89 and 222.
- Joseph Hiti, Barberton, O.—Nos. 41, 155 and 195.
- George Oswerk, Walsenburg, Colo.—Nos. 101, 118 and 216.
- Frank Jenko Jr., Rock Springs, Wyo.—Nos. 134 and 202.
- Frank Centa Jr., Chisholm, Minn.—Nos. 153, 164 and 215.

Seven were elected from English-speaking groups only, as follows:

- Louis M. Kolar, Cleveland, O.—No. 180.
- Joseph Koschak, Ely, Minn.—No. 184.
- John Dreshar, Gilbert, Minn.—Nos. 156 and 192.
- George Kovitch, Cleveland, O.—Nos. 186 and 188.
- Andrew Spolar, Chicago, Ill.—Nos. 193, 211 and 220.
- Louis J. Kompare, Pittsburgh, Pa.—Nos. 196 and 221.
- Louis Pulaski Jr., Canonsburg, Pa.—Nos. 205, 213 and 218.

As it may seem, candidates from English-conducted lodges combined with senior branches were elected delegates in a majority of cases in preference to the senior candidates. In three instances was it reversed.

At the last convention held in 1928 at Ely, Minn., but three lodges represented the English-conducted lodges, there being three such lodges in existence. At that time the prevailing rule called for a minimum of 25 members in each lodge and it was eligible to elect a delegate, in contrast to the present required minimum of 75 members for each branch.

When all factors into consideration—economic reversal, unemployment, apathetic youth, suspension of sport fund—English-speaking units will have a fair representation at the high tribunal within our organization, although our young men and women could have shown a little more diligence in lodge work in the past four years. In the majority of such instances the lodge was indifferent in taking to heart the work of our SSCU.

LAST THREE YEARS PROMISING

However, within the past three years a marked increase in interest displayed was noticed among our English-conducted lodges, especially in those groups sponsoring athletic teams. The suspension of our sport fund did not hamper their forward march to recognition as active units.

Perhaps the biggest problem confronting our younger members will be solved when they realize fully the significance of a good organization like our SSCU. Sick, death, disability and funeral benefits for a small monthly premium is not appreciated by them, because so few are actually in danger of receiving such compensations. But as the years go on and young people marry, produce offsprings that are dependent upon them for existence, then fraternal insurance assumes full significance in their eyes.

Not inasmuch as we must recruit youth in our Union, we must serve youth, and enroll them in our organization with inducements. Sport fund has served such a purpose in the past and will continue to do so in the future, even though its original purpose for which it was created has been applied through other channels. Aiding destitute members has made an indelible impression among our boys and girls and will not be forgotten, even though it meant a sacrifice on their part. Perhaps the last move woke up many of our indifferent members to the many possibilities of receiving assistance from our grand

Betsy Ross Edge Pioneers in 12th Inning

Cleveland, O.—Two rivals in years gone by fought their battles in the city major league again strutted Friday evening at Gordon Brauer, pitching for the Betsy Ross club, and Miljenovic, hurling for the Pioneers. The latter had chalked up another win over his erstwhile rival, Miljenovic, the Betsy Ross winning from the Pioneers in a thrilling 12-inning game by a score of 2 to 1.

Effectiveness in the pinches Brauer to victory over the Pioneers. He allowed six runs, fanned 11 and issued one walk on balls. Miljenovic paced the willowmen through three hits out of five trips to the plate. Kuhel connected for a home run and a double in the eighth trip to the plate. Brauer hit a double and a single on four trips to the plate, while Miljenovic and Korosec each got a single.

Notice, Rangers!

Ely, Minn.—As prearranged, all members of the C. and M. Rangers, Lodge No. 1, SSCU, are kindly invited to attend the next regular meeting at Sandy Point, July 17, at 1:30 p. m. Those who are not able to provide for their own transportation will meet at the Community Center before 1:30, and they will be accommodated.

We all anticipate a good time, but we also must participate and make it a success. Our entertainment committee promises a number of surprises, as has been gleaned from unknown sources.

Our "cats" committee has a menu well chosen, we can be assured. We hope that all will be obliging and show their appreciation by attending this gala event.

Remember, July 17, 1:30 in the afternoon, at Sandy Point.

BRIEFS

Anne Govednik, 15, aquatic marvel and holder of world's women's 100-yard breast stroke record, came first in the 220-yard event held in Chicago recently in the Illinois Women's Athletic Club invitational meet. Her time was 3:19 even for the 220-yard event. Although this is not fast time for Miss Govednik, still it was good enough to take first place. On Friday and Saturday of this week Anne will compete in the Olympic tryouts held in New York City, and if successful will travel to Los Angeles to represent the U. S. team in the Olympic games.

Plans for a gigantic inter-lodge field day are now under way and it is to be held under the auspices of Inter-Lodge League of Cleveland, O., on Aug. 14, at Mervar's farm. Various field events will be scheduled on the program, as well as dancing and serving of refreshments to round out a wholesome day of recreation. Further particulars on I. L. Field Day will appear in subsequent issues.

All delegates from Pennsylvania and eastern states to the SSCU convention are requested by the secretary of Western United Lodges of Pennsylvania to gather at Pittsburgh on Saturday evening, July 23, or Sunday morning, July 24, until 6:30 o'clock, so that arrangements can be made to travel in a group to Indianapolis.

Betsy Ross Lodge, No. 186, SSCU, of Cleveland, O., will hold a special meeting Thursday, July 14, at the home of Victor Jazbec, 18003 Neff Rd. All members must be present, as absentees will be assessed a fine of 50 cents.

A visitor in the person of Joseph Pogacar Jr. dropped into the New Era office last week. Bro. Pogacar is a member of Pittsburgher Lodge, No. 196, SSCU, of Pittsburgh, Pa., and is presently employed in West Dover, O. He is the son of Mr. Joseph Pogacar Sr., secretary of St. Stephen's Lodge, No. 26, SSCU.

Members of George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, of Cleveland, O., are again urged to be present at the next meeting to be held Thursday, July 14, at the St. Clair Bathhouse. A large attendance is anticipated.

Miss Julia Ivancic, popular and well known among the Slovene circles of Cleveland, O., was rushed to Huron Road Hospital last Saturday, July 9, to undergo an operation for acute appendicitis. She is convalescing at the hospital, where friends may visit her. Miss Ivancic is particularly known for her lodge work, being secretary of Spartans (SSPZ) and

G. W.'s in First Place Opalek to the Rescue

Cleveland, O.—In the final clash of the first official round of the Inter-Lodge League, the Joseph Zele & Sons-George Washingtons moved into first place by nipping the S. Y. M. C., 8 to 7.

Tony Jarkewitz, G. W. hurler, was picked for mound duty, and after allowing the S. Y. M. C.'s six runs, six hits and one base on balls in the second inning, Manager Bill Kubilus permitted Tony to finish the inning, and in the beginning of the third he put in "Pugs" Opalek. During the seven innings that "Pugs" hurled he allowed the S. Y. M. C.'s one run, five hits, three bases on balls and fanned nine men.

The S. Y. M. C.'s collected their runs in the second and sixth innings, while the Joseph Zele & Sons-George Washingtons got their eight runs in the first three innings.

"Wieners" Kubilus, G. W.'s lead-off man, was the heavy hitter, connecting for two singles and one home run. Zalokar and Manager Bill Kubilus each connected for two hits apiece.

"Pugs" Opalek hurled neatly and proved to be a real "saver of the day."

Anne Govednik on Way to New York City for Olympic Tryouts

Residents of Chisholm, Minn., are very proud of their 15-year-old Anne Govednik, who holds the official breast stroke record of 1:18.9. She has recently competed in an invitational meet in Chicago, and from there will continue to New York, where she will try for the U. S. Olympic swimming team on July 15-16. Anne is a juvenile member of our SSCU, and we, too, are proud of her and wish her success in the finals at New York, so that she may take part at the Olympic meet in Los Angeles July 30 to Aug. 6.

So interested were the people of Minnesota in Anne that much was done to contribute toward the fund for her traveling expenses. A band donated its pay from a concert which it held. She is called the Chisholm sensation. A sensation she has certainly proven herself, for she has been on the high school team but two years and has only learned how to swim in the last four years.

On July 21 she will be 16 and become eligible as a member of our senior group, but that does not mean that our juveniles should forget her. No doubt Anne Govednik put her heart and soul into her work and attained high honors through her own efforts. Our juveniles should follow her example and work as diligently toward their goals.

For instance, juveniles should make themselves more known to their elders by expressing their opinions on matters which interest them. What do they think of having juvenile baseball teams or other sport activities? Would they like to take part in monthly meetings? Wake up, juveniles, the convention takes place week of July 25; now is the time to make requests for your wants as a junior member of our SSCU!

Below Anne expresses her gratitude to all who have been so good to her. (This appeared in the Tribune-Herald of Chisholm, Minn., and is a reprint.)

THANK YOU

I wish to express my sincere thanks to those who have contributed toward sending me to the Olympic tryouts, and wish to particularly express my appreciation to Mr. Casey and the Commercial Club, business men, municipal band, Cosmopolites high school faculty and students, and all those who have taken such a sincere and personal interest in my tryout for the United States Olympic team.

I earnestly hope that I can fulfill all expectations and win a place on the U. S. team for Chisholm.

ANNE GOVEDNIK.

City Tennis Tournament Attracts Many

Cleveland, O.—Close to 225 entries for the national public parks tennis qualifier have been registered with municipal directors, Recreation Commissioner Dan Duffy announced. The deadline for the entry list was the Fourth of July, and competition in the various divisions opened on Wednesday, July 6.

Recreation Commissioner Duffy has predicted that the competition will be much stronger this year than in any other Cleveland qualifier ever held. He bases this prediction on the fact that the number of entrants surpass last year's figure by 103, and on the fact that well-known stars will be in the race, which, after all, may go to a dark horse player.

Harold Bartel, local champ in the singles and doubles of the national qualifier last year, is out on the courts to defend his right to go to the national meet at Louisville, Ky., again this year. In this same position is Irene David, holding the same titles in last year's meet.

Nate Ganger, former Ohio scholastic singles champion and a member of the University of Pittsburgh tennis team, is one of those players who hope to outsmart the present champs. Others hoping to do big things in this meet are Walter Smiegel, Ohio Conference doubles champ; Ann Slatmyer, munny tourney singles winner, and Stan Cooper, munny tourney men's singles champ.

Six Feet Tall

Only about one American man out of 200 is six feet or more in height.

Picnic Is Huge Success

Cleveland, O.—Well, well! Here I am again, and I want to tell you all about it. About what? Why, about our last picnic. Whose picnic? The Betsy Ross picnic. Close your ears, folks—here goes!

'Twas on the day of June 26, 1932! Remember the date well, my lads, for some day it shall go down in history titled "Betsy Ross picnic." What a day! What a night! I entered the picnic grounds full of smiles, expecting to see a crowd of people. The time was 10 a. m. when I arrived. My smiles soon vanished at the sight of empty grounds. But I took the blow bravely, for "ain't" I a true vegetarian? Far be it for me to be a deserter. I was as nervous as the Lindberghs! Twelve bells and all is well. With reliable J. Benko and C. Skufca stationed as icemen; Wagner, T. Skufca, A. Perdan and myself, "Vic," as soft drink bartenders. If you don't believe that they were soft, just ask Godec, why, he was so soft that you could bend him in any position. Hm-m-m. Mrs. Riddle, A. Vidmar, Frank Korosec, Lunka, D. Jazbec and T. Skufca as chip sellers and, sa-a-y, will somebody please tell me what Karda was doing?

Twelve-thirty, and no one here! I paced the ground. One o'clock, I was in despair. One-thirty, I dashed for the barroom—I mean, kitchen—shouting, "They're here, they're here!" Skufca hid behind the bar, thinking it was a raid. Ed Wagner wrapped himself around a pillar, shouting, "Get the guns, get the guns!" He thought it was the Chinese. Daniel Jazbec and Lunka threw the money in the ice box, thinking it was a robbery, and hid behind the kitchen girls. After giving each one a cup of coffee, we finally brought them back to life and convinced them it was only a crowd of people.

The picnic goes on. We were glad to see so many members from George Washington, S. Y. M. C., Collinwood Boosters and Holy Name. After a riot of fun it was all over at 12 p. m., and another event was added to the Betsy Ross list of good times. What a day! What a night! My time is up now, folks, and let this be a lesson to you—that Betsy Ross is a Betsy Ross.

Mary Perdan and Victor Jazbec, No. 186, SSCU.

P. S.: We were very much pleased to see Mayor Charles Ely and his friends as our guests.

EDITOR'S NOTE

A number of contributing articles were omitted in this issue due to lack of space, and will appear next week. Once a month a section of the Nova Doba is reserved for juveniles, which curtails the regular English section, as happened in this issue.

MOUNTAIN SPRINGS

Springs on the actual summits of mountains are very rare. When they do occur they are caused by the pressure of gases in the mountain which forces the water upward. As a rule, springs on mountains are some distance from the top. They are the result of the surface water soaking into the porous upper soil and continuing downward until it is intercepted by an impervious stratum, along which it runs until the layer crops out on the mountain slope.

DOPISI

(Nadaljevanje iz 7. strani)
tudi izvrstna postrežba v jedi in pijači. Za plesoželjne bodo pa skrbeli najboljši muzikanti. Torej pridimo na prireditev 17. julija zvečer vsi, da vidimo in slišimo, kaj znajo, in jim damo priznanje.

Louis Balant.

Lorain, O.

Neki večer sedim in čitam razne časopise v čitalnici Slovenskega Narodnega Doma. In ko sem tako zatopljen v čtivo, kar naenkrat začujem zvonki glas slovenske pesmi. Prisluhnem, kajti melodija mi je bila znana, da bi izvedel, kje se nahaja pevec. Ni mi bilo treba dolgo poizvedovati, kajti doznal sem, da so bile tisti večer pevske vaje slovenskega pevskega društva "Naš Dom," in da so se ravno na isti večer vadili spevo-igro "Kovačev študent."

Ni mi bilo obznan v čitalnici, da bi nadaljeval s čtivom, kajti želja, da bi bolje slišal krasne speve "Kovačevega študenta" me je gnala v zgoraj dvorano Slovenskega Narodnega Doma, kjer so se vadili pevci pod vodstvom svojega učitelja Mr. Semeta.

Ko dospem v dvorano, se vsedem zadaj in tako neopažen poslušam in se divim lepoti slovenske pesmi, čeprav je bila peta po pevca-amaterju. Obslome me je veselje, kajti skrita želja, da bi enkrat slišal peti kako slovensko opereto na odru našega lorainskega Narodnega Doma, je bila skoro izpolnjena in bo izpolnjena, kakor sem doznal, na nedeljo večer, 17. julija, ko bo izvajan koncert slovenskega pevskega društva "Naš Dom." Poleg operete "Kovačev študent," bo tudi posamezno nastopil mešani in moški zbor ter zapel razne slovenske, hrvatske in angleške pesmi. Tudi ženski zbor bo nastopil in priredil lepo in mišno spevo-igro "Ob potoku." Ves program je izvrstno napravljen, tako da bo vsak, ki bo navzoč, imel priliko zadovoljiti vsaj muzikalni posluš.

Zatorej ob tej priliki vabim vse Slovence iz Loraina, Clevelanda in drugih bližnjih slovenskih naselbin, da se udeležijo te prireditve in tako s svoje prisotnostjo navdušijo pevce in pevke in njih učitelja, ker se se tako vztrajno in pridno učili ter vadili za ta krasni koncert slovenske pesmi.

Spevo-igra "Kovačev študent" je polna krasnih in melodičnih spevov in arij. Vem, da se marsikateri izmed slovenskih naseljencev spominja študentov v starem kraynu. No, pa vsaj je imela skoro vsaka vas enega ali pa več takih fantov, ki so si belili glave in trgali hlače po ljubljanskih ali kakih drugih šolah, in ob raznih praznikih domov hodili na "vakance." "bledi in zeleni od samega učenja," kakor pravi Jurčič v svoji povesti "Doktor Zober." No, "Kovačev študent" ni ne bled in ne zelen od samega učenja, ampak rdeč, rdeč pa je, ker ga dosti raje "pocuka" iz kozarca, kot pa znanost iz kakih dolgočasnih knjig. In zapesti zna, da ga je veselje poslušati, in to je tudi glavno, saj vsak Slovenec rad sliši lepo pesem. No, pa naj bo dovolj od tega. Saj ga itak boste videli in slišali na koncertu v nedeljo, dne 17. julija, ob polosmih zvečer. Pridite vsi, kajti povabljeni ste vsi in za vse bo prav dobro preskrbljeno.

Vrnil sem se v Lorain pred enim mesecem iz zapada, kjer sem se nahajal devet mesecev. Ali resnično povem, da čeprav sem tu že en mesec, še vedno sem začuden nad tako velikim in lepim napredkom, ki so ga lorainski Slovenci napravili na kulturnem polju v tem času. Vredni so pohvale in priznanja za njih vztrajnost in delo za povzdigo slovenske kulture v tujini. Le tako naprej in z slogo, vztrajnostjo in delom bomo lahko napravili našo lepo lorainsko naselbino za vzgled, kaj se še vse lahko napravi za slovensko izobrazbo, ako smo slezni in voljni delati.

Imamo čitalnico, Slovensko šolo, dramatični klub, pevsko društvo in krasen Dom, v katerem lahko prirejamo naše prireditve in zabave. Imamo tudi dobre domače talente, bodisi v petju, godbi ali dramatik, in tudi ljudi, ki so pri volji pomagati in podpirati te naše kulturne ustanove. Zatorej pridržimo, kar smo s tako težkim trudom dosegli, in z vztrajnostjo in slogo delujmo v bodočnosti še za večji in lepši napredek. — S pozdravom,

Joseph L. Mihelich,
član društva št. 6 JSKU.

IZOGIBANJE DAVKOV

Vsak se rad izogne plačevanju davkov, če le more, toda to ni nič novega. Starinoslovci so nam šli napisano na žganih opekah, da so se bogati meščani mesta Seleucia v Mesopotamiji pred dva tisoč leti skušali izogniti plačevanju davkov, kadar so le mogli.
