20-letnica "Naprednih Slovencev"

Cleveland, Ohio.—Dne 1. novembra praznuje naše društvo "Napredne Slovence" št. 137 SNPJ svojo dvajsetletnico. To izredno priliko je umestno, da proslavimo v skupnem krožku, zato bomo omenjenega dne predreli velik banket, na katerem želimo in hodemo, da je vsaka članica navzoča. Upam, da mi ne bo potrebno napisati, da se vsaka članica mora udeležiti, ker vsaka, ki se zaveda in ji je znano kolikor se za članstvo založi za gotove naklade iz društvene blagajne, bo z veseljeno in brez ugovora prišla in še posagitirala med svojimi prijatelji, cam za večjo udeležbo.

Drugi pa društvo želi, da je vse članstvo skupaj zbrano, da spoznamo vse naše ustanoviteljice in organizatorkice našega tako uglednega društva. Delujmo nadalje ravnotakto in še bolj skupno, ker je v skupnosti jo moč in uspeh.

Razposlane so bile vstopnice. Prejeti bi jo morsala vsaka članica; v slučaju pa, da je ni, naj se zglaši pri društveni tajnički in dobila jo bo, ker od vsake se bo zahtevalo, da jo plača.

Zelenč velikega upeha društva, sestarsko pozdravljamo vse članstvo! — Anna Erste, predsednica.

Novo društvo v Peansi

W. Aliquippa, Pa.—F. Strubel, taj. društva št. 122 SNPJ, in podpisani avta se dogovorila, da bi bilo možno v naši naselbini ustanoviti angleško govoreče društvo SNPJ. Dogovorjeno in tudi storjeno!

Tako na prvem sestanku se je mladina z idejo v celoti strinjala. Izvolili so začasni odbor, kateri je bil na drugi seji v celoti potrjen. Izbrali so si imenovanje novo društvo, namreč "Excelsiors."

Tako je bilo novo društvo formalno ustanovljeno, ki steje ob ustanovitvi okoli 30 starih in novih članov. To je lepo število za pricetek, ako upoštevamo našo malo slovensko naselbino s še ne 30 slovenskimi družinami.

Na skupni seji starega in novega društva dne 19. okt. sta se na povabilo odzvala organizatorka angleško govorečih društev za zapadno Penno, John Kutch in Avgust Raska. S svojimi govoroma sta napravila zelo dober vtis na navzočo. Temu dokaz je bilo veliko odobravanje. Udeležba je bila povoljno obila in naša mladina je pazno sledila govornikoma. Zeleti je, da bodo upoštevali izražene dobre nasvetne od naših naprednih mladeničev.

V imenu članstva obec tukajnjih društev SNPJ se zahvaljuje našim ter izrekam priznanje obema govornikoma za njihovo aktivnost pri agitaciji novih društev SNPJ. Na tej seji je članstvo novega društva soglasno sklenilo, da se udeleži kampanje, katera je razpisana za pridobivanje novih članov v mlašinsko društvo. Upati je, da bo povoljen uspeh.

Mesto Aliquippa Boro šteje preko 27,000 prebivalcev raznih narodnosti; od posameznih narodnosti inozemcev je menda največ iz dežele Musaelinija, nato je poleg Slovencev mnogo Hrvatov, Srbov, Poljakov in Slovakov. Ker je vseh pet narodnosti slovanskega pokolenja, zato so vse dobrodošli v novo društvo. Raditega bo agitacija za novo društvo lahko voditi. Pojasnite jim, da tu je dvojna korist, prvič društvo, osromna jednota, dobi nove člane, in drugo je, da bo društvo dobiti nagrado. Čim več članov pod 30. letom starosti boste dobili, lepiš bo nagrada za društvo, ki se udeleži te kampanje. Zapomnite si tudi to, da vsak član ali članica poleg skupne nagrade dobi vstopenje en dolar za vsakega pod 3. letom starosti pridobljenega novega člana v novo društvo.

Član novega društva, pojrite takoj na delo vsi, in na vsaki seji boste imeli nekaj novih kandidatov za pristop, in v šestih mesecih (do zadnjega dne v marcu prihodnje leto) bo uspeh zadovoljiv. Vsi na agitacijo za večje društvo "Excelsiore"! — Geo. Smrekar.

Novo društvo v Duluthu

Duluth, Minn.—Angleško posluje društvo za New Duluth in Gary je sedaj realnost. V soboto, 18. okt. zvečer je imelo društvo "Leo Tolstoj" št. 205 SNPJ skupno zabavo, na katero je bila povabljenja mladina. Udeležba je bila precej povoljna. Tajnik društva brat J. M. Borich je pozval navzoče k redu ter pojasnil v angleškem pomen stanka. Nato je pisek teh vrstic v slovenškem jeziku apeliral na starše, naj spodbudijo mladino, da si ustanovi svoje društvo, kjer bo imelo svoje shajahalce ter vodilo društvo po svojem okusu.

Zgledalo je, da se starši zanimalo in da odobravajo ustanovitev, pa tudi med mladino se je opazilo željo za ta korak. Bilo je precej mladih, ki se niso članji jednote; med temi se je na zavabi agitiralo. Vse kaže, da bo imelo novo društvo veliko polja za pridobivanje novih članov. Ne bom se čudil, da bo v kontekstu tak član ali članica od novega društva dobil ali dobila prvo nagrado.

Ustanovitev društva se je vrila prihodnji dan, to je v nedeljo 19. okt. takoj po redni seji društva št. 205. Navzočih je bilo devet članov in članic, izmed katerih so si izvolili začasni odbor, ki je: Anna Balich, predsednica, John M. Borich, tajnik, in Alice Balich, blagajnica. Prihodnja seja se bo vrila ko hitro tajniki dobi iz gl. urada charter in druge potrebe liste. Takrat se bo volil začlen.

Mislim, da največ zasluge pri tem gre bratu Johnu M. Borichu. Deloval je že precej časa, da se ustanovi angleško poslujejo društvo. On sam rojen takoj v Z. D. je torej naravnou, da stremi za tem, da zbere mladino okrog sebe v društvo, katero bo v čast naši mladini in staršem. Videl sem tudi, da imajo naši mladi bratje in sestre zmožnost, da voditi seje, kar se je pokazalo pri volitvi začasnega odbora.

Pisec teh vrstic je dal nekoliko navodil ter raztolmačil svobodomislino, na kateri podlagli SNPJ stoji; vzpodobil je mlade člane, naj delajo v harmoniji in da v složnosti jim je napredok zagotovljen.

Prihodnja seja bo najbrže bolj živahnja. Odbrali si bodo ime in čas zborovanja ter izvolili odbor.—J. Kobi.

20-letnica društva št. 158

Eufida, O.—Dne 9. nov. občaj društvo št. 158 jubilej svojega 20-letnega obstoja. Društvo je ustanovil naš umrl sočibr Anton Kos, ki ne sme biti pozabljena med nami nikdar. V naši naselbini je on oral ledino. Dal je prostore brezplačno na razpolago. Tudi njegova žena je pripomogla veliko in žrtvovala mnogo, da je on zamogel izpeljati svoj cilj, ustanoviti društvo in ga ohraniti močnega. Zato bodi njej izredena stopnja ob prilikl 20-letnici našega društva, pokojniku pa časten spomin.

V dobi 20 let smo izgubili veliko članov; nekateri so se izselili, drugi pa so odšli v vočnemu počitku. Naša sejfa ob tej prilikl je, da se vsi člani in članice zberi skupaj na naši jubilejni proslavni dne 9. nov. Naše društvo vodno budi zavest med svojimi člani, kajti po krvi smo vse bratje in sestre, kar nas je našega naroda. Zato se udeležimo te proslave v obližnji številki in pokazimo, da dobi pravico in svobodo, in ko po dolgem boju in trpljenju tega ni dosegla, je menita popolnoma obupala, da bi časi so res slab, toda tudi sedaj nas mora pripeljati skupaj vse, da obhajamo 20-letnico našega društva, kar je gotovo redka stvar za vsako društvo. Če 20 let veliko izmed nas ne bo več tlačilo zemlje. Pridimo skupaj in potivimo naše delo, da bomo pustili našim potomcem vzorno društvo ter da bomo storili svojo dolžnost in čast tistim, ki so si največ prizadevali, da je naše društvo to kar je.

Najdi je bil sedaj dozdevno popolnoma in od vseh zapuščen in misli: je že, da je zakopan v dosmrtno ječo, iz katere ne pride nikdar več. Toda motil se je, bili so tu njegovi društveni bratje in ti niso pozabili na njega. Svetovali so mu, da poskuša in mogoče najde pomoci pri svojih podpornih organizacijah, kar je stopil. Obrnil se je najprej na HBZ, in ker ni dobil zahtevnega odgovora, je misli, da se je mogoče biti nič in začel se je soper obupno udajati krivični usodi.

Ampak Naglič je bil osamijen v njegovem društvenem bratje niso obupali in mirovali, posebno br. Mat. Otoničar ne. Videli so še eno pot obrazložili in zaupili so ta članostu slučaj gl. predsedniku SNPJ V. Cainkarju.

Veselica društva Lincolnites Springfield, Ill.—Mlašinsko društvo Lincolnites priredil maseradno veselico v soboto 1. novembra zvečer v Slovenskem domu. Ker so bili in so še danes tudi Slovenci s tem imenom, je pomota ragumljiva.

Neki rojak nam celo piše, da bi se Nagliča mogode dočasno obvezodobiti, toda napot so bile velike legaine in druge ovire, in da je treba precej finančnih sredstev, da se vse te ovire premaga. Videl je, da se ne te ne da dosegci drugače kot z druženimi močmi, zato je predelil stvar gl. upravnemu odboru, da mu dovoli apelirati na članstvo SNPJ in zbrati za Naljivočev reditev potreben denar, kar je bilo dovoljeno.

Stvar se je moralna vršiti bolj trajno, kajti se bi se skrejka, ki jo je podvzel gl. predsednik, obolela na veliki javni zvon, bi se spustile tudi sile, ki so Nagliča pogone po krivici v dosmrtno ječo in poskušale bi soper obupiti sovrašno ljudsko mnenje proti njemu in vsemu našemu narodu, kajtor so ob priliki obnavljanje, in tako soper preprečiti njegovo osvoboditev. Članstvo je dobro razumejo apel za pomoč, odzvalo so se društva in posamezniki in tako je bilo omogočeno, da se je lahko začelo z legalnim delom in izvajanjem načrta za rešitev in naši skupni akciji pod skriljem SNPJ se je sam izdal za Slovenca. Kdor bi to storil, je velik tepec. Mr. Lampen ni nikoli pisal besedice Prosvetit in on je najmanj odgovoren za pomoč. Odgovorni smo mi s poročevalcem vred. Rojški v Minnesoti, ki se zanimajo za Lamperovo kandidaturo, bodo razumeli.

ARTHUR LAMPE NI SLOVENE

Zadnjo sredo je bila v Prosveti vest iz Minnesoti, da kandidira za okrajnega šolskega nadzornika Arthur Lampe, "slovenski učitelj in sin slovenskih staršev". Zadnje besede so pomota, ki je nastala v uredu, deloma je pa krov naš poročevalcev v Duluthu, ki ni poročal, katera našnosti je omenjeni progrevni kandidati. Pravice in dolžnosti

Kjer so pravice, tam morajo biti tudi dolžnosti. Delavec, ki zahteva svoje politične, ekonomske in socialne pravice, mora biti tudi pravljjen na svoje politične, ekonomske in socialne dolžnosti.

Član podporne ali katerekoli druge organizacije, ki se sklicuje na svoje pravice, ne sme pozabiti svojih dolžnosti, ce hoče kaj doseči. Kajti brez dolžnosti ni pravice!

Cim večje so pravice, tem večje morajo biti dolžnosti in odgovornosti vsakega posameznika. To si moramo dobro zapomniti vse, ki se borimo za take in take pravice. Kdor odklanja dolžnosti, ni vreden pravice!

Kadar delavec govorji o svobodi in svobodilih, rad pozabi na dejstvo, da vsaka svobodačina, vsaka pravica, ki je mogoča v danih ramarah, je prazna pena, ako ljudje ne izvrše svojih dolžnosti, ki so jima naložene. Na primer volitve. Ako se ne pobriga, da bo volil in volil pravilno, ne pričakuj zase kakih koristil. Ali jednota. Ako ne izvrši dolžnosti, ki so predpisane v pravilih, ne išči podpori in drugih pravice!

Nova družba, za katero se borimo, bo imela za posameznika veliko več pravic kakor sedanja družba, zato pa bo zahtevala veliko več dolžnosti. Kdor misli, da se bodo pravice zastonj dleli, se grdo moti. Osnovno socialnoetično pravilo "brez dela ni jača" bo pomenilo veliko več. Tista nebesa perfektne sreče brez vsakega truda so mogoča le na tistem svetu, ki ga nikjer ni! Zato jih ne najdete nikjer v življenju in oblikovala so samo po smrti, ko vsakdo perfektno molči in ne pošije nobenega pisma in nobene fotografije o svoji sreči! . . .

Dolžnosti posameznika gredo na račun takovane osebne svobode. Z osebno svobodo se uganji veliko demagoštvu pri nevednih delavcih. Največ osebne svobode ima divjak, toda kdo hoče zamenjati življenje civiliziranega človeka z divjakom? Cim višja je civilizacija, tem več mora človek žrtvovati za skupnost — tem bolj mora biti socialen. In socialen človek ima dolgo vrsto dolžnosti, ki jih ne pozna kanibal. Ce pa človek dobro premisli, je vesel svojih novih dolžnosti in prav rad žrtvuje nekaj svoje osebne svobode na ta račun.

Človek ne bo nikdar absolutno svoden! Kajti absolutne svobode sploh ni kakor ni absolute pravice in absolute sreče! To so abstraktnosti, ki v življenju ne pomenijo nič. Glavno je, da posameznik uživa vse sodobne pogoje obstanka in za to pravico je vredno izvršiti vse dolžnosti, ki se zahtevajo od njega. Te dolžnosti bodo socialnemu človeku pravi užitek.

Kako se ne pomaga kampanji

Polemika med nekaterimi mladimi člani angleško poslujočih društev SNPJ, ki jo vodijo v angleški sekciji Prosvete že nekaj tednov, ni najboljše atrakcija za nove člane teh društva, za katere je zdaj kampanja v teku. Kampanja je za dobavo novih članov in pomnožitev članstva, ne pa za odbijanje članov — in take polemike, ki se v glavnem sušejo le okoli osebnosti, prej odbijajo kakor privabljajo nove člane.

Mladi bratje imajo vso pravico, da se malo pokavajo, če nimajo drugega dela, ampak zdaj, ko je kampanja v teku pri njihovih društih, ne bi smelo biti časa za kavos; ves prosti čas in vsa energija bi morala biti porabljena za kampanjo.

Te vrstice se ne smejo smatrati kot vmesovanje urednika v njihove sporne zadeve. Urednik se ne briga za te spornosti, toda glasilo je tukaj za vse člane in za vso javnost — in kavsojajo dopise čitalo, ce hočejo, tudi proaktivni kandidati za člane SNPJ.

To je mnenje starih članov, ki so pri jednoti od začetka in imajo skupščin. Stari člani pravijo, da je bila zdaj, ko imajo kampanjo za nove člane, zelo slaba prilika za preprije v glasilo. In celo preprije za celo senco!

Think it over, boys!

Predsednik Hoover bo moral kmalu pisati proklamacijo k zahvalnemu prazniku. Ubogi inženir! To bo vratila naloga. Pomislite, pozivati ljudstvo, da se zahvali Bogu za demorepublikansko prosperitet, ki je šla k vragu! Morda pa se bo treba zahvaliti, da ni slabec.

položaja mu odgovori: "Da mi besede ne črhnec o tem in če bi tudi videl na lastne oči, da sem ti ženo zapeljaval." Sledi napetostna situacija, v kateri Velej podleže. Lenta, prvi ljubek Veleje, postane žrtev intrig. Bogatinovo početje se mu studi, tako pretregrajo vse stike z njim. Velej skuša spraviti z nožem, toda prepozna.

Bogatin grozi tudi Velejevi materi. V svoji naivnosti ona prosi Veleja, naj prepreči prodajo koče. Veleja se zakrohoti — sklep je storjen. Sledi prvi sestanek z bogatinom, postane njegova priležica, toda on ji je prestar, ozira se po mladih. V svoje mreže vjemajo mladega milnjarja Petra. Ne brani se niti razuzdanih starevcov Davese in Sibe, postane apatična, piše iz časa ljubezni do skrajnosti. Veleja se pogresa nižje in nižje. V zganju uteši svojo bolest. V krasnih dialogih nam slika svoj duševni boj, na primer: "Tu je črv, ki me gloda. Velik je velik, dolge kreplje imajo v grabi, stiska, žre, žre . Ni boga . . . Žemlja je buča in v oju plava. Moja žena je pu vlačuga — kadar se zmrači, si namaže lica in hodi po cesti gori in doli . . . Pa jo sreča Kristus in jo vpraša: 'Kam greš, Magdalena? Kam greš, Magdalena?' Jaz pa sem po svetu hodil. — Tam stoji tisti črni tempelj in težki milinski kamni so v njem. Jaz sem bil v tistem črnom templju. Med milinske kamne sem začel. Nič ni bolelo . . . Ko pa sem bil zunaj, sem bil mehak kakor tečno."

Pa se Velej začmili in mu pravi: "S teboj pojdem kamor hočeš, samo ne pli." Dejalo bom, za tebe bom skrbela in stregla ti bom. Prosim te, lepo te prosim!" Toda njegova bujna fantazija se razvija: "Beži od mena, da se ne okuši. Ne ves, da imam mozole na možganju? Ne ves, da gnijem na živem telusu . . . Adijo ti črni templji, moji! Si mi kri izpla, fabriko kosti mi obrala. Pa zakaj je to tako? Zakaj?"

Drama vsebuje poleg tragedije tudi mnogo humorja, za katerega skribta Daves in Siba. Karakterizira jo tudi krasno petje. Dramatiziral jo je Anton Novačan po Albert Kramarjevi rešnični zgodbili. Vloge so dobro naštudirane.

Vstopnina je z ozirom na krizo samo 50c. (Prihodnja predstava "Rodoljub iz Amerike" se vrši 1. jan. 1931). — Cenem.

Opereta "Adam Ravbar" v Colliwoodu. Uprizori jo pevski zbor "Jadrani" dne 2. novembra Collinwood, O.—V nedeljo, dne 2. novembra, uprizori tukajnji pevski zbor "Jadrani" zanimalivo slovensko opereto "Adam Ravbar" v Slovenskem delavskem domu na Waterloo rd. Opereta ima tri dejanja in še ni bila uprizorjena na nobenem ameriškem odrusu. Povzeta je iz leta 1929 in se delno vrši v Ljubljani, delno na Krumperškem gradu.

Bili so se ljeti boji pri Sisku in Turki, in graščak Adam Ravbar je drage volje zbral svoje vojaške ter jih poslal na pomoci Sisku, kateri je bil pred padcem, kar bi bila posledica, da bi po zmagi Turki zlahka udrli na Slovensko. Opisanih bi slovenski kraje in naše ljudi odpreli v sušnjost.

Da bodo tudi rojaki po drugih državah imeli priliko pouziti kaj našega "rojanega kolača", smo aranžirali tudi radioprogram. "Veleja" v Detroitu

Detroit, Mich.—Prosvetni klub SDD uprizori v nedeljo 2. nov. ob 3. uri pop. v Slov. del. domu pretresljivo drama s petjem v treh dejanjih "Veleja."

Pred nami se pojavi mlada in zapeljiva žena, ki je v življenju doživel marsikatero razočaranje. Njen mož Velej se je pravkar povrnil iz tujine, zlomljen duševno in fizično. Hudobni jeziki govore, da mu je Veleja postal nezvesta. Bogatin, star odruber, zalezuje Veleje, zavrača ga, on ji pa grozi z rubčenjem. Tedaj nastopi Velej in pravi: "Ti si tisti, ki si moje ženo zapeljal in na moje žulje pljuva. Taka pokvaka si je upala"— itd. Bogatin avest si svojega stale zborove moći nastopijo v skupinah.

Na veselo svidetje v Slovenskem delavskem domu dne 2. novembra ob 7 zvečer!

"Strah z dolgo roko"

West Allis, Wis.—Novoustovnjeni dramski živiljenja in veliko, dvajset let ob obstanku pevskega zborpa je dosti. V tem času se pri naših kulturnih društvih marsikaj spremeni in marsikaj izumre. Porajajo se novi pevski zbori; nekaj časa žive, potem pričnejo životariti in končno zaspeli. Ostane le kar je zasejanega na rodovitna tla, in to še takrat, če je seme pravno.

Bogatin grozi tudi Velejevi materi. V svoji naivnosti ona prosi Veleja, naj prepreči prodajo koče. Veleja se zakrohoti — sklep je storjen. Sledi prvi sestanek z bogatinom, postane njegova priležica, toda on ji je prestar, ozira se po mladih. V svoje mreže vjemajo mladega milnjarja Petra. Ne brani se niti razuzdanih starevcov Davese in Sibe, postane apatična, piše iz časa ljubezni do skrajnosti. Veleja se pogresa nižje in nižje. V zganju uteši svojo bolest. V krasnih dialogih nam slika svoj duševni boj, na primer: "Tu je črv, ki me gloda. Velik je velik, dolge kreplje imajo v grabi, stiska, žre, žre . Ni boga . . . Žemlja je buča in v oju plava. Moja žena je pu vlačuga — kadar se zmrači, si namaže lica in hodi po cesti gori in doli . . . Pa jo sreča Kristus in jo vpraša: 'Kam greš, Magdalena? Kam greš, Magdalena?' Jaz pa sem po svetu hodil. — Tam stoji tisti črni tempelj in težki milinski kamni so v njem. Jaz sem bil v tistem črnom templju. Med milinske kamne sem začel. Nič ni bolelo . . . Ko pa sem bil zunaj, sem bil mehak kakor tečno."

Pa se Velej začmili in mu pravi: "S teboj pojdem kamor hočeš, samo ne pli." Dejalo bom, za tebe bom skrbela in stregla ti bom. Prosim te, lepo te prosim!" Toda njegova bujna fantazija se razvija: "Beži od mena, da se ne okuši. Ne ves, da imam mozole na možganju? Ne ves, da gnijem na živem telusu . . . Adijo ti črni templji, moji! Si mi kri izpla, fabriko kosti mi obrala. Pa zakaj je to tako? Zakaj?"

Da bo koncert prvočas, je sedaj potrjena stvar. Program je razložen tako spremno, da bo vsakemu vseč in duševni užitek je vsakemu garantiran kdor nas poseti. Ena izmed najbolj zanimivih pesmi bo "Razbita čaša", katere poje Prešernov kvartet.

Ta je pol igre, je bila izvrstno narejena. Zakop pod zemljo, stopnice z nizkim vhodom v jarek, postelje, slike nagih žensk, svede v poletni, nizek strop iz brun; daleje dnevna svetloba, ki je producirala skozi vhod, nočno bliskatno strelov, pokanje topov in dravje strojnic v ozadju — vse to je delalo vtič realnosti. Uniforme in druge opreme se je temeljito ujemala. Kakor sem informiran, je bilo na odru nekaj predmetov, ki so bili resnično na fronti, samo ne na angleški: častnikov dnevnik, identifikacijska knjižnica in officirska mapa.

Stanhope je igral Charles Pogorelec, kako dobro. Carli je na odru večkrat "clumay", takole neravn, ampak topot je bil urein in pristojen, ampak topot je bil urein in pristojen. Uniforma se mu je dobro podala in v momentih pijačnosti ni pretirala. — Andrew Mikko, naša starša igrala moč, se je tudi dobro uživel v vlogu nadporočnika Osborna, "strčka" v zakopu, flegmatičnega moža, ki je vedno trezen in čuječ. John Kochevar, ki je igral Raleigha, je še novinec na odru in vrheta rojen v Ameriki in nevajen slovenske, kijub temu je pokazal dober talent. Videle se mu je, da se je zelo trudil, da bi se navadil v pravilne slovenske govorice in to je hvalevodljivo. V svojih kretanjih je bil malo negotov in počasen, vendar je v glavnem zadovoljil gledalca. — Jakob Zupančič v logi je bil pravilni, kakor branjeva.

Resultat dveh let pjetiletke je ogromen. Nove stanovanjske hiše in pisarniške poslopja vstopata v mestih in bližu tovarne. Nova vladna palača v Moskvi je že dosegla štirinajst nadstropje in še vedno raste. Tudi na delu v Turkestanu je bila zgrajena nova železnica.

Ostali igralci — Anton Andres kot poročnik Hibbert, Peter Bernik kot poročnik Trotter, Anton Garden kot stotnik Hardy, Louis Beniger kot narednik itd. — so primerno pogodili dotične karakterje. Zlasti kuhan Mason, ki je igral John Hujan, je izbran.

Druga stran slike pa kaže, kako narod plačuje, da more vse to rasti in rasti. Vse je posredano dol to minimum, samo da pjetiletka lahko živi. Začne se s hrano.

PROSVETA (ENGLISH SECTION)

Dedicated to the interests of the English speaking members of the Slovane National Benefit Society and the American youth. The English Section of the Prosveta presents them with suitable reading matter and gives them an opportunity to develop their ability for writing, by submitting lodges notices, articles, stories, etc.

To Our Contributors

If you desire an article you have written, or selected, to appear in Prosveta, you must send it to the Main Office in time, so that it will reach the editor not later than Saturday or Monday preceding the date of issue. The same applies to notices and announcements. There is one other matter we beg you to observe when writing for Prosveta—be brief. The present space allotted for English reading matter is sufficient for a variety of articles besides the usual lodge material; it consists usually of twenty-one columns. The editor endeavors to make the best of it, but he needs cooperation, as put by a colleague, so—

If you have a tale to tell,

Boil it down!

Write it out and write it well,

Being careful how you spell;

Send the kernel, keep the shell;

Boil it down! Boil it down!

Please revise and study your manuscript. Do not use superfluous words. Do not say, "On the twentieth day of October," instead of "October 20." And do not write, "I desire to say"—just say it. Watch out for those extra, superfluous words that are not necessary; do not use them.

While, on the other hand, if you don't leave such words out, we'll cut them out, for—

When all is done, you send it in,

We'll boil it down.

Where you end there we begin;

This is our besetting sin!"

With a scowl or a grin,

We'll boil it down! Boil it down.

Strugglers' Membership Drive

Collinwood, O.—Lately, an observant person will notice, there is a stir in the activities of the SNPJ lodges. It's noticeable in the members' faces and in their talk. The great race for the honors has begun.

The Strugglers have started as well as prepared to fight for their share of honors. Our slogan is "Every member get a new member," reinforced with the splendid cooperation of our officials and members and a smart plan on experiment to encourage and boost the drive.

We have the pledge for the best coordination among all and no doubt we will reach our goal unmolested by the lack of spirit, I'm positive.

Strugglers, your work done, as expected, will not be in vain, but well rewarded.

Anthony Zaveri, (Pub. Com.)

Comet Flashes

Universal, Pa.—Again I wish to announce that the Comets offer their picturesque entertainment in the way of a Masque Ball, the first of its kind ever sponsored by the Lodge, which will be held in the Slovenian Hall on Saturday night, Nov. 1. Regardless of the size, shape, or color of the costumes I'm positive there will be fun for all. Good prizes shall be awarded, so come with your father's overalls or your mother's apron and I'm sure it will be well worth anyone's time to make an effort for the prizes. Music will be furnished by the peppy Ambassadors who receive their latest hits of waltzes and Fox-trots direct from Broadway. Of course there will be refreshments for the hungry and thirsty. To add to the hilarity the fair sex will be in charge of the hall for that occasion.

Let us all impress our minds on the campaign drive which is now under way. In regards to the ball, even Comet will have an opportunity to capture those young, refine, healthy friends (non-members) who are still at large and place them into a fraternal organization, the SNPJ, where they can have and be protected for a life time. Trying for the goal there is nothing to lose and everything to gain. Remember that cooperation is the backbone of everything, and if we can achieve it, I'm sure we will be able to capture some of those wonderful prizes offered by the Supreme Lodge.

Bear in mind the Masque Ball on Nov. 1.

Joseph Caesar.

Mrs and Thers with Comrades

Cleveland, O.—Our last monthly meeting was very well attended. It was lengthy but, nevertheless, interesting due to the fact that a greater number of those present expressed their opinions on the difficult topics brought up for discussion. As the presiding chairman, I have always given anyone who had an opinion, a chance to express it and was glad to see so many taking an active interest. One of the most important, although not the most outstanding things voted upon was new dues books. These new due books, which will be introduced with the beginning of the new year, will save much time and effort on the part of the secretary. The members are to be congratulated in passing favorably upon this innovation.

The campaign team captains received their lists and will get busy at once by getting in touch with the members of their teams. It was decided that the winning team would be presented with a large cup upon which the names of the entire team would be engraved. Some points which can be elaborated upon in getting a friend or a relative to join the Lodge are: insurance for sickness or death, social activities, entertainments, participation in sports of various kinds and contact with splendid young men and women. Let's get into the race and get some of the numerous prizes offered.

The girls' basketball team, according to reports by coach Rudolph Turk, promises to be larger and better this year. The team is to get a new ball so that it may get in a sufficient amount of practice before the opening date of the Inter-Frat league on Dec. 3. The team will also have the benefit of an assistant coach, Frank Pohar, who has consented to assist in forming a more powerful quintet.

The Comrades' pinsters won two more games last Sunday from lodge Cleveland, No. 9, thereby going into a triple tie for third place in the Inter-lodge league. A "B" league is to be formed soon. Fellows interested in bowling are asked to get in touch with Frank Pifolt.

Another enthusiastic response was made when an even dozen Pioneer girls responded to the first call sent out by Alice Artach for basketball practice. They will have a couch who knows basketball thru and thru and this should bring our girls to the top again. The boys were out too, wearing off some of the surplus avoidups annexed during the summer.

The Chicago District SNPJ Federation held its monthly meeting last Thursday. Blas Novak reported that satisfactory arrangements have been made to allow us to use Sunday, Dec. 21, for the annual Juvenile Xmas party. A Bohemian organization had originally been given the date a long time back, but Novak used good diplomacy in having them switch to the Sunday prior. Lodge 39 Nardoni Vitezsi have signified of their intention to participate in the Xmas festivities.

A noteworthy step was made when the Federation authorized the raising of a special fund, from which it will try to help the needy Slovanes during the oncoming winter which in all probability will be a trying one. Lodges and lodge officers are asked to notify the secretary of our federation.

Integrity Ramblings

Chicago, Ill.—Boooooo, the goblins will get you if you don't attend the Hallowe'en dance, November 1, given by Integrity Lodge No. 631 at 1619 N. Clybourn ave. Integrity Royal Six will pull strains of sweet melodies to keep the dancing public in action. Integrity's lodge spirit was shown by attending both of our sister lodges' affairs in full number. The cabaret entertainment was wonderful.

We wish to thank the "Spirits" and also Mr. and Mrs. Kausec for the wonderful hospitality that was shown us at our last visit in St. Louis.

Rambling Joe.

Chicago, Ill.—It gives me much pleasure to place on record my good appreciation for the Integrity of which I am a member since last January. It is one of the best and most interesting lodges I have ever met with. I have had the pleasure since of making numerous acquaintances as fine friends. I wish the Integrity much success and that it grows stronger and of continued interest in years to come. See you at the dance November 1. If any members of the SNPJ are interested in corresponding club members, write for details to Michael Fleischacker, 2338 Altgeld st., Chicago, Ill.

You wouldn't do it. I can't do it, but WE can do it. Do what? Initiate several thousand new members in the next six months.

As our dance was a great moral success, it ought to pop our

Beer-Suds, "Inc."

By Check and Double-check

Milwaukee.—The Badgers request that all their friends keep Nov. 15 open for one of the finest get-togethers parties we've had thus far. Our Domada Zahava is to be held that evening at Tamae's Hall, and you may rest assured that we, the Badgers, will do all we can to see to it that everybody will have a rip-roaring good time. We invite all our neighboring lodges to share this wonderful evening, and we feel sure that no one will ever regret coming to Tamae's on Nov. 15.

We congratulate Mr. and Mrs. Anton Lenko on their first wedding anniversary. Before her marriage to Mr. Lenko, Frances Magister Lenko occupied a little niche all her own in the gang. Continued happiness and success!

On Thursday evening, Oct. 30, at 10:15 p. m., we shall have the pleasure of listening to Mr. Anton Subelj, our baritone, and the Naprej Singing club present a radio program entitled "A Bouquet of Folk Songs from a Slovenian Village." This wonderful program will be presented over Station WTMJ. Don't forget to send in your comments on the program to the station, and perhaps we'll hear them in a series of programs. Would that be wonderful?

Naprej's concert at S. S. Turn Hall on November 21. The club is celebrating its 20th anniversary, and they are putting on a program that is quite out of the ordinary. Subelj will sing some of the best loved of the Slovene songs; also duets, quartets, and a mixed chorus composed of the members of Naprej. The operetta "Kovacev Student" will also be given. We earnestly request our members to be present.

Don't forget, members, that our campaign for new members is now in full swing. Who'll be the one to bring in the most new members? The person that one can win will be wonderful and worth working for. Don't forget the slogan is "Every Member Get A New Member." Let's see if we can live up to that. It would mean that our lodge standing would be boosted from fifth place to . . . ?

Are you all getting your prospects lined up for our Theatre Party? We've got that to work for, too, and that's going to take up quite a little of everybody's time and effort. Remember, it's up to each and every one of the members to do his particular share. Let's put this over with a bang; what do you say?

FLASHES

By Banjo-pats

Our Chicago bowlers finally started to roll. In the first night's pairing the team of Doctors Furian and Zavrtank annexed two of three games from the Ham Bone Chewers, while Putz's Florists, captained by Stanis Zale, took all three away from a combination Sunglare-Integrity-Kolar team. It was pleasing to see at least ten Pioneer girls under Helen Arko getting in shape. Thursday night has been definitely set as our bowling night.

It's only two weeks off. The 25th Anniversary Celebration of Lodge 8 SNPJ and the Pioneers are again reminded that Oscar Godina has the tickets for the event. A ticket entitles purchaser to a drawing for a radio receiving set, in addition to being the admission pass. On Nov. 16 therefore you must come to South Chicago.

Not much action, because the play did not require it, but emotional, and every word properly exemplified, meant much. In "Konec Poti" members of the Dramatic Club No. 1 JSF undertook a hard job. Yet they have done well and a good sized audience was satisfied. Between the second and third acts Geo. Koop, candidate for U. S. Senator from Illinois, spoke. The people listened with eagerness to learn what Koop had to say. Koop did very well. Josko Owen and Donald Lotrich also spoke. John Kochevar's orchestra played.

What has become of the Unholy Three? Where are the writers of "Revealing the Revelers"? You had good write-ups in the paper before. Get down to business and show you are still in existence.

Similarly, in the SNPJ spirit,

The Revelers' Column

Ambridge, Pa.—Quite a few questions have arisen concerning bowling. Though the sport has gone over with a bang, there are still many things to straighten out and settle. Lately some of the members have signified a desire to join in the games which they have neglected doing when the league was first organized. Those wishing to play in the games must be accepted. Whatever action that may be seen fit to follow must take place at the meeting. Arrangements should be made to accommodate new bowlers. Furthermore, a definite schedule must be adopted and whether or not to halve the season. Should there be prizes and awards to the winners and leading bowlers it should be made known as soon as possible so as to stimulate each one's game. A competent board should have charge of league rulings and disputes.

On Sun., Nov. 2, the Revelers will hold their monthly meeting in Workman's Hall at 10:30 a. m. Every member is requested to be present. Visitors are welcome, especially the "Excelsior" of Aliquippa.

Brother John Uherik was severely injured in his right foot while working at a local mill. It is hoped he will soon recover and be able to resume his duties in the near future.

Nat Dom Lodge No. 33 of Ambridge is busy, preparing for its 25th anniversary celebration. Great interest is being shown by the local Slovanes as the day draws nearer—Thanksgiving Day, Nov. 27. A large number of visitors from other SNPJ lodges is bound to be present. It promises to be a gala occasion, and a day long to be remembered. On the day's program are listed prominent speakers for the afternoon, also a play to be presented by the Canonsburg dramatic society, and in the evening dancing. A fine spirit of cooperation for this celebration is being shown by the Revelers. They have refrained from holding public social affairs so as not to detract attention from Nat Dom doing this fall. The Revelers are due to put in a 100% appearance for the celebration.

Truly it can be said that a fine spirit of unity exists between the Revelers and Nat Dom members. May it be ever so!

Soon the lodge nominations and elections will occur. Put those members in office who will do their work honestly and faithfully. Let no favoritism rule your vote, nor allow personal prejudice to get the best of you.

What has become of the Unholy Three? Where are the writers of "Revealing the Revelers"? You had good write-ups in the paper before. Get down to business and show you are still in existence.

Similarly, in the SNPJ spirit,

It's a pleasure to see "Little Fort" as one of the "Big Ten." Let's see if we can't oust the Badgers from the fifth place in this membership Drive.—With the venture of Fanny Cuden into the seat of matrimony we have hopes that Joe Umek will not only be a newly acquired husband, but a new member for Little Fort.

The Socialist Club opened their fall season with the presentation of an operetta and a play on Oct. 12th. The operetta, "Smash," was quite an amusing performance. It was very well acted and the singing was good.

Paul Sifler, one of our most talented young musicians, accompanied and played during intermissions.—The play "What Price Coal" was an one act tragedy. Frank Penca as Jack Smith, a young miner, did very well.

Louise Zelenak, as his sweetheart, Mary, appealed to me most in the tragic moments of the catastrophe. But Mary Hodnik, as Jack's mother, injected the right tragic appeal of the price paid. She had the audience keyed to a tense pitch of impending tragedy which terminated in a flow of tears as the play came to a close.

—The supporting cast, Frances Meese, Frances Kira, John Machnick Jr., and Miles Milivoje offered the sympathetic touch needed to end the play. There were several visitors, among them Joseph Owen, who addressed the audience, and Charles Pogore.

The next play is to be held in honor of Clinton's Anniversary. Frances Hrovatin and Pinky are cast in it. It is a fistic and is called "Viva Bellanca." The date is Sunday, November 16. Dancing will follow in the evening. The Strugglers' Four Harmony Aces will make your toes tickle. All local and out-of-town lodges are invited to give our small lodge a big hand. Comrades, Strugglers, Loyalties, Boosters, Progressives, New Eras and Gold-eagles.

The J. O. M. have decided to help the Beacons in their way of entertainment. Let's see results, girls.

The Beacons showed some spirit at their last meeting. As a start, they brought in five new members. They are Sisters Josephine Sill, Anna Zaitz, Mildred Zaitz, Verne Hamill, and Josephine Dadek. These girls have helped the Beacons on the sidewalk before and are now ready to help lift the burdens of the lodges.

Where are the ones that Bro. Alrik was supposed to bring in after his non-stop flight? As there is a race among the New Eras, Beacons, and Beacons, make the Beacons come out on top. Beacons, you know you can do it. Let's go!

Don't forget the big membership campaign. Let's show the SNPJ world who is responsible for the GRIT in Integrity! Meyash.

CALUMET SENTINELS

So, Chicago, Ill.—At the regular meeting of the Calumet Sentinels, Lodge 610, October 20, fifteen members were present out of thirty eight. What in the world is the matter with the Sentinels? That is the question I would like to ask each and every member of the Calumet Sentinels, who do not attend the meetings regularly. The Lodge itself can not grow without your little bit of help. We will have to make a motion at our next meeting that all members absent each month will be fined so much.

We had one new member, Agnes Dernovich. Good luck; we hope that she will be glad to be with us and be one of the active members.

Have we forgotten about the membership campaign? You had better put your thinking caps on and remember our motto: Every member bring in at least one new member.

After all the odds and ends put together, we finally decided to have another hard time party next month, November 26, the night before Thanksgiving day, at the Calumet Field House. Further details will be given later.—Tony.

VERONA VIEWS

Verona, Pa.—November 8, Veronians' Big Fall Dance. This little sentence covers a lot of territory when you think of it in the terms of a good time, enjoyable dancing, and wonderful music. That is exactly just what it means. A very popular well-known orchestra has been engaged to furnish the music for this occasion. To our many old friends it is not necessary to go into detail, and to our numerous new friends, if you really wish to enjoy a good evening's entertainment of dancing and music, then do not miss the Veronians' Big Fall Dance on November 8, held at the Costa Hall, Front Street, Verona, Pa. Our invitation is cordially extended to all of our neighboring lodges.

Enthusiasm and spirit again ran high this week in the SNPJ Bowling League. There was another banner turnout. It has brought out the fact that Veronians, Comets and Ramblers possess some brilliant bowlers. Some of the girls bowled like experienced veterans. When it is taken into consideration that some of the girls had never thrown a ball before, their scores were commendable.

SUNFLOWER SEEDS

Pittsburg, Kans.—Fife Sunflowers made another trip, which was to the "Hearts" Anniversary Dance, Oct. 18. We wonder why more didn't make this trip. Four of the members journeyed there in a "Dodge coupe" and I had the "flying" all to myself. That's not all. The Hearts were at the depot with two new autos to give us transportation to the Slovenian-Croatian National Home, but fortunately, I was the only one who arrived by train. Thanks for the accommodations.

After arriving at the Hall we had the pleasure of sampling the refreshments. They were good. Besides sampling the "refreshments," we were greeting the former Sunflowers and Hearts members, until dance time.

We'll say that they are "Loving Hearts." The dance approximately lasted until 2:30 a. m. The farewell sure was grand. We Sunflowers will remember this trip a long time. At 5:30 we departed from Kansas City.

One of the Party.

FRIENDLY CITY HALLOWEEN DANCE

Conemaugh, Pa.—Get your costumes out and come to the big blowout at the Franklin Hall, November 1. There will be three prizes given. This is our first affair since our anniversary and you can count on it being a big success. Hot music will make everyone dance.

Our meeting was 100% in fun, but not in attendance. Too bad so many of our fellows have to work nights.

I hope the bowling teams get to work soon. We have plenty of strong girls in the Lodge.

The Friendly City is very proud of its place in the "Big Ton." We will strive during this campaign to gain 1st or 2nd place.—Committee.

NOTICE, YOUNG AMERICANS

A Successful Celebration

Kansas City, Kans.—I have never written to the Prosveska, but the success of the tenth anniversary dance of the lodge "Future" inspired me to do so. Never before did the Croatian-Slovene National Home witness such an affair. Never did any dance of the lodge "Future" have such a great attendance.

Bro. Joe Horsen, one of the first members of the lodge "Future," gave a very interesting talk on the things the lodge had done in its ten years of existence. Bro. Frank Bratkovich, organizer of the lodge "Future," gave a few points about the struggle he had in organizing the lodge and the struggle the members are yet to go through before the lodge can achieve the things that all of the members of this organization are looking forward to. Bros. Horsen and Bratkovich spoke in the Slovene tongue. Bro. Valentine Kress went more into detail about the lodge and about the SNPJ. He spoke in the Croatian tongue.

Bro. Stanley Salich of the "Hearts of America" spoke about both lodges, the lodge "Future" and "The Hearts of America." All of these speakers tried very hard to get the idea over to the people that they should all organize under the great head, the SNPJ.

Members of the Dramatic Club "Svoboda" who participated in the drama "The Victim," did very nicely and also the work of their director must be remembered. The declamation of "The Song of the Prisoner" by Mary Paster received much applause.

After all the good speeches and the wonderful drama, was another of the great events of the evening, the music, furnished by the "Little German Band." I know that all the people who attended this dance would be willing to highly recommend the "Little German Band" to play for any "blowout" that any lodge may happen to have.

We all know that without the speakers, members of the Dramatic Club "Svoboda" and their director, Mary Paster, and the "Little German Band," the tenth anniversary dance of the lodge "Future" would not have been a success, but we also know that if it had not been for the committee in charge, namely, Joe Horsen, Mary Horsen, August Sabin, Antonia Bratkovich, and Richard Spacek, it could not have been the success it was. This committee didn't spare time, work, nor money in their efforts to make this affair a success, and we all know that their efforts were not in vain. It could not have been a greater success. But we must not forget the work of our president, Bro. John Oremik, and all the other members.

It is plain to everyone that if members of lodges "Future" and "Hearts of America" would settle their family affairs elsewhere, instead of at the tenth anniversary dance of their organization, that it would have been a greater success than it was.

Anionette Spacek.

OUR TRIP TO ST. LOUIS

Chicago.—A group of SNPJ Chicagoans attended the "Spirits" Lodge 659, SNPJ, dance at St. Louis, Mo., Oct. 18, at the Slovene National Home, and we all had a wonderful time. After the dance we were invited to a private party with a Slovene family, where we made whoopee till morning. —Sincere thanks to one and all the Spirits for the splendid hospitality and good time shown us. Hope to see them soon.

"LITTLE SLOVENE VILLAGE"

Milwaukee, Wis.—Folks! It's the Twentieth Anniversary of the Singing Club Naprej, and we'll celebrate the event over WTMJ Thursday night at 10:15 to 10:45. The Singing Club Naprej and A. Subelj will sing.

Nuff sed!—Antoinette Donner.

The Socialist Remedy

Latrobe, Pa.—I presume that all questions asked by Bro. Schemmister were answered clearly by many of our young Sisters and Brothers, and I hope that they will meet his satisfaction. Nevertheless I shall endeavor to write a more definite explanation to the steps that the Socialists would take to remedy the unemployment evil, one of the grim things that blast the life of labor under capitalism.

We would reduce the hours of work, and the age of those entering industry would be raised from 16 to 18. Children

CITY CHAMPS

Springfield, Ill.—It sure is a grand and glorious feeling to sit comfortably in an easy chair, listening to the radio, and think of our past diamond ball season, which we closed recently in winning the city championship in this sport.

We entered the Independent league with three other teams and played our first game with Odd Fellows' lodge team June 18, we winning 20-8. It was very good and very poor competition in this league that we had and our boys won all but our last game—8 wins and one loss. This one we lost to Kelvinator Cubes 6 to 4. Thus we won Independent league championship.

The Kappa Alpha Pi team and our first league game with them I won't forget very soon. We beat them 47-8. Lincolnites gathering 40 hits in the seven innings as play ruled in this pastime. In the first inning our boys gathered 16 runs. Of course we felt fine about this until one of our opponents said, "That's nothing. Kelvinators garnered 26 runs off of us in the first inning once before."

We played the Industrial 12-team league champs for city title, two out of three, beginning on September 28. We beat this team, the Pillsbury Mill, 16-4. Following Sunday we lost, 15-15. And on the Sunday morning following, October 12, the day we were staging our Annual Dance, we just had to win, the gang thought. And sure enough we did, walking away with the game 24-4. Thus we are now the CITY CHAMPS.

This year was our first year in this sport, yet the boys played like veterans. Really, it was the first year of this sport for the city, speaking of it in a broader way. And it took the city by storm. One game was played under giant flood lights and was such a success that next year a goodly number of these games will be played at night under lights.

The Lincolniters had a remarkable team! They excelled in every department of play, fielding, base running, pitching, and their hitting was sensational. The team average for this season was .494. Castlemere had the boys in hitting, averaging .420. The writer led from the other end with .335.

And now we dive into what undoubtedly will be our best basketball season—Joe G. Brinocar.

PIONEER GIRL BASKETEERS

Chicago.—As a weather man foretells weather by different signs in the air, though he may be right or wrong, we too can predict so early in the season that our team will be one of the fore-runners in this season's girls basketball tournament by the showing of ability and enthusiasm of our girls at practice, and by the captainship of our coach.

Practice is held every Friday evening at Franklin park gymnasium, 14th and Kedvale ave., from 6 o'clock on. Every girl who wishes to play, report for practice Friday, Nov. 7, as this coming Friday in Hallowe'en and practice will be had Wednesday instead. Come on girls, try out for the teams, you may surprise yourself. If we have enough girls turn out for practice, we may have a league of our own.—Alice Artach.

Protective Tariff and The Farmer

(Contributed by A. L. Zavertnik.)

In the past age, the primary function of tariff was to raise money for revenue. It is stipulated in our Constitution, that Congress shall have power to lay, collect tax duties on imports etc., shall have power to regulate commerce between foreign nations. Nowhere in the Constitution is stated that the policy of high protective tariff shall be promulgated. Therefore, the supporters of high protective tariff policy have no constitutional power to press their case. Inasmuch as they lack the necessary legal grounds for action, the protectionist resorted to what is now the old time argument, that a protective tariff is beneficial because it increases the wages and living conditions.

The usual procedure after giving this deep profound statement is to bring from dark archives long, especially constructed tables of figures carefully comparing the wage earner in England and in the United States. Here, with enraptured glee the protectionists joyfully exhibit a low wage earning report for England and a comparably high wage earning for the laborer in the United States. He now logically constructs his proofless theory of argument that England has free trade, England has low wages, therefore free trade brings low wages. Then with equally brilliant logic he shows the following argument: The United States has protection. The United States has high wages, therefore protection produces high wages, thus I assure you, gentlemen, that the mode of reasoning is simple, simple indeed. Therefore, we can equally argue on the same basis. England has dogs, England has low wages, therefore dogs produce low wages. Furthermore, we can improve the argument more admirably by this method, the United States has politicians, the United States has high wages, therefore politicians produce high wages. Immediately the protectionist jumps up and yells, this is nonsense. Exactly, I agree with him, it is as nonsensical as his protection argument in relation to high wages, for they do not attempt to prove but assert their arguments. The assertion lies in the fact that free trade produces low wages and protection high wages. Why don't the protectionist compare England with other civilized nations, France and Germany, for instance, both have lower wage earnings per capita than England, both have protection, both enforce the rule native products for native consumption. England is more prosperous than the two, yet our fanatics will try to stuff down our throats free trade, beware of free trade, it brings low wages and disasters.

On further investigation of the argument that protection betters living conditions, we find that if the theory is true, every single soul in the nation must be benefitted by protection, the moment we find one single person not benefitted by this act we know the argument to be false.

The first step in the application of this theory is to have proper results by protection, all rates must be raised to a standard that it would make it possible for domestic producers to undersell their foreign competitors; next all industries, regardless of character, must be protected equally, if this is not done, cheaper foreign products can be easily purchased in the American market, thereby protection becomes a one-sided affair and is not beneficial to everyone and does not produce the desired results.

The protectionists, in their haste to prove their theories, somehow forgot or deliberately evaded certain economic truths. There are the laws of supply and demand, production costs of commodities and the purposes of marketing. In every commodity produced the largest costs are labor and raw materials; both are essential, one is used for the construction of the finished product, the other is converted into the finished product. Then, if we have on hand a greater supply of labor or raw materials than the demand calls for, the prices of these items reduce themselves automatically and if on the other hand a vice versa situation is presented, that is a greater demand for labor or raw materials than can be supplied, the cost of these articles is raised. Therefore we can conclude that no legislative act can or will regulate the costs of production of labor. Since it now becomes to the employers' best interest to secure the lowest producing cost for his manufactured articles, it also is profitable to him to secure the highest price for his commodities. Therefore tariff laws act as price stabilizers and secure for the industrialist a constant price for his article while raw material and labor values fluctuate at will. Next the tariff acts elevated the value of article to such a height as to prevent foreign commodities from coming into our domestic markets and creating an oversupply. Then, after costs have been deducted, a profit has been attached to the commodity, the tariff further increases the manufacturing range of profit due to the fact that a flat rate and ad valorem duty is added to the original sales price. Let me clarify this statement by an illustration. For instance if the cost of production of a thousand feet of lumber is eight dollars and the net profit is two dollars, then the sales price of the lumber is ten dollars. Let us add to this price the flat rate of duty of one and twenty-five cents per thousand feet of lumber and the ad valorem duty of twenty-five percent of two dollars and fifty cents per one mile feet, then our tariff on the lumber is three dollars and seventy-five cents. Add this to the original sales price of the lumber, we then find the actual price of the lumber is thirteen dollars and seventy-five cents. Deduct the eight dollars from this and your profit shall now be five dollars and seventy-five cents or three dollars and seventy-five cents more for the offers of our protected industrialist. Therefore if the tariff did not have the effort to raise prices, the manufacturer would not care for it; as the tariff would not have been of any benefit to him.

Therefore in the marketing of the commodities, the burden of paying these enormous prices fall upon the consumer. Who is your consumer? He is the wage earner and the farmer. Yet these same agrarians are our greatest producers. For all the material they produce are used directly or indirectly in the process of manufacturers. Thus it is true if you do not have the food produced to feed the millhand; industries in urban centers cannot develop, or goods manufactured. Therefore it is the production of these farm products that enables the growth of large urban centers. But when the time comes to ask for a protective tariff rate on these same raw materials, immediately the protectionist throws up his hands and exclaims: "This will increase the cost of production and the cost of living will be increased in proportionate ratio." Therefore, our dear industrialist cannot compete with foreign merchandise due to the fact that agriculture will be paying higher wages than we will and labor will be attracted to farm work thus decreasing our supply of labor. Therefore as for a result of such a condition we must pay higher wages for labor, pay greater sums for raw materials all increasing the costs of our operations and thus on this basis we cannot compete with foreign products. In other words we are told that a duty on raw materials will increase costs while a duty on manufactured products will lower costs. Then if we ask a reduction of duties, the cry now becomes that we are lowering the wages and high standards of living. In other words the protectionist tells that two and two make four when applied to the farmer, but when using the formula two and two in his own case, he says it makes twenty-two. In the name of fairness what are the answers to this inconsistencies?

There can be only one answer and that is that protection is farce and that tariff laws are one-sided and not a mutual benefit. Tariff legislation only protects the industrialist at the expense of the farmer and worker. It is the wage earner and the farmer who buys the finished products. It is he who converts these raw materials into finished products through process of manufacturing. Moreover, it is the farmer who competes with the foreign trade.

Therefore it is time to state the cause agricola. Since the Civil war we had been promised tariff revisions. What did we receive? Nothing. The settling of the land played an important part in the history of the development of our country. In the name of fairness what are the answers to this inconsistencies?

There can be only one answer and that is that protection is farce and that tariff laws are one-sided and not a mutual benefit. Tariff legislation only protects the industrialist at the expense of the farmer and worker. It is the wage earner and the farmer who buys the finished products. Our official guests were introduced to us by our president. They were Honorable Judge Skeel of Municipal court, and former state senator Arthur Day, who is running for county prosecutor. Both paid high gratitude to the Strugglers.

The Strugglers wish to thank the following merchants who helped make this affair a success: Dietrich's Men's Furnishing Shoppe (E. 106 and Waterloo rd.), Anton Ogrin's Furnishing store in Slov. Home, and Mandel's Haw. and Drug Co., 15704 Waterloo rd.
