Contributions from our Junior Members

Editor: I am transferred to membership department. I want to inscribe a letter in the "New Era." I shall tell you all about my school. I attend the Office Training (Business School) at ... Pa., and shall go all summer, too, that means vacation for me at all. I like this is a very good one for any body. It isn't difficult to get a good position after getting through it. Courses, which other students take up are Secretarial Business Course, Stenographic Course, and the Commercial Course. I take the Commercial and is harder than any I would recommend a school to anyone because it is worth while getting into it. I tell you all about a Pittsburgh. Mother and I see Mrs. Mesnar. She confirms as she says. Besides we saw Mr. Mesnar's Dorothy and Sophie (Dorothy has already graduated from a business school and the rest of the evening, Dorothy, and I took a stroll along the street. We reached the office of the Supreme President and we walked in, but I was distressed. I don't know me. I thought I was to know every young man of S. S. C. U. I told her who I am. We shook hands and introduction and were introduced to each other. I don't all of you members if all of you should go to the office of the President of this organization? I wish I could. Well, I hope he may see me the next time we were I was to be transferred. I tried to get more people to enroll in our White Valley and succeeded in getting. But I am not sure, they will pass the documentation. If I ever have another chance to go out, I will try to get a more new members, to make this organization bigger. I like to see some of you members to do the same. The letter is stretching. I will close with my regards to all young men, as this is my last writing to Juvenile Department. I will ask our dear to give this inscription attention and not be into the waste basket. This is my first and the last to write. I will say: every one of you members, forever and Try to build up this organization and win! Hedvika Cyrilla Skerly (16), Lodge 116 S. S. C. U.

A PRESENT
My birthday approached, packages and parcels were wrapped neatly, others were wrapped more carelessly. A particular box was wrapped in foreign paper and wrapping. A piano was wrapped in foreign paper and the postmark showed it was from Ely. A red tag and "Fragile" were open until the last. That made me wondering and curious. Packages could it be? Packages to be opened after supper. I could hardly wait for it to be over. It was at last. Everyone applauded with their "Oho" as I opened each one. It was twelve o'clock I started to open the last, them in my garden. A small garden is nice to take care of. We have many strawberries in our garden, they get ripe in the month of June. Oh, boy, the strawberries jam is good. Early in the mornings many birds come flying around our place and they sing beautiful. Gee I like to hear birds sing. My brother put a bird house in our trees. So some blue birds made a nest in it. One day he said, there was five young birds in the nest. So he went to see the birds many times, then one morning he went to see if the young birds are still in, then he saw that they flew out. A little later I saw that our cat had one in his mouth. I then quick told that to my brother, and he did get angry at the cat, he was so angry and just wanted to kill him. One day I saw in the Nova Doba that a man saw a big nest and he thought of breaking it so he did. And you would be surprised what he found between the wires of the nest, a twenty dollar bill. Boy, wasn't he lucky!

I think this is all for this time. I will try to write more the next time.
Hoping this letter don't go into the waste paper basket.
Best regards to all the members of the J. S. K. J.

THE STORY OF AN UMBRELLA
I am an umbrella. I have a home with some polite people who handle me very carefully. I go out on rainy days and the rain beats me very hard. Once in a while I am taken out on hot days to be used as a sun umbrella. This I like much better than being out in the rain.
I am kept in a clothes closet. Sometimes I am knocked down.
Once a lady came over to borrow me. I wasn't much pleased to go with her for I was afraid she wouldn't treat me very well. I soon found out that she was a very cruel lady for she let the children play with me. They didn't handle me nicely at all. In a few hours I was broken. The lady brought me to a shop where I was mended, but I don't look very nice now. I am now a mended umbrella.

Dear Editor:
This is my first letter to the Nova Doba, and I hope you will be pleased with it and not to throw it in the waste basket. My story is as follows:
"Betty's Reward."
Betty was a little girl about six years old and her brother was eight.
Tom found a dollar, but would not give it to his mother, nor to his sister, because he was jealous.
One day as they were walking home from school just as usual, she told Tom to walk ahead slowly, because she saw something. She pick it up and called Tom to help her. He did as she told him and helped her carry it home.
They showed it to their mother, Betty's mother said she was going to return it. The next day Betty and her mother went to the owner. He offered Betty $500. He said that there were lot of precious metals in the purse.

Lorain, O.
Slovenci v Lorainu nismo imeli nobene zabave skupaj na 4. julija, samo nekaj ipavskih družin se je zbralo na Kusovi farmi in mislim da so se dobro imeli. Kakšnih osemnajst družin je šlo pa v gozd pri "Pearl Ave," z luncnom in tistim, kar morajo imeti moški, da veseli postanejo. Zabavali smo se jako fino, godbo smo imeli tudi, in smo na travi plesali. Moški so baseball igrali, kedaj se bodo pa z našim C. in M. skušali niso povedali. Tudi "Duck on a rock" so igrali. To je bilo dosti za smejeti se. Fantje in dekleta smo žogali, da me je zjutraj vse bolelo. Slike smo tudi vzeli in so vse dobre. Ne samo to, pa "fire crackers" so tudi pokali. Vsi so bili zadovoljni in so rekli da bo spet kmalu treba imeti tak piknik.

Zvečer na 4. julija smo imeli še več "firecrackers" doma na naši cesti, je bilo dosti luči, "skYROCKETS" so lepe in gredo v zrak. "Roman candles" so tudi lepi in "sparkets," firecrackers" pa najbolj treskajo, da gre kar skozi ušesa. Rada bi videla v parkih ko spuščajo "fireworks," tisto mora biti lepo.
Ne vem, če sem že kaj povedala, da imamo zdaj v Lorainu tudi veliko gledališče, kakor v Clevelandu Kiehl's Palace. Naš "Palace" je jako lep, ampak manjši. Ali imate v Clevelandu "Vitaphone?" Tukaj smo ga imeli prvičkrat v nedeljo 15. julija. Ali ste vi, člani mladinskega oddelka J. S. K. J. kaj interesirani v volitve predsednika? Le pazite, bo fino to leto. Med Smithom in Hooverjem bo zanimiv "fight." Naj bo, bomo že videli kdo bo zmagal.
Pozdrav vsem članom J. S. K. Jednote!
Vida A. Kumše.

GEORGE KOZJAK
pile and not very long thereafter his son was standing upon the wall.
"Can you see the horse stable," asked the father, from below the wall.
"I do, and I also see my mother in the yard," replied the lad upon the wall.
"I want you to go into that stable and to take out one of the horses and bring her to the gate. You must do this very quietly. If you make a failure in this undertaking, you had better look out." Thus the old man whispered to his son upon the wall. However, the lad did not seem to listen to all that the old man had said, but swiftly disappeared from the wall into the Lord's yard.
Just as the lad entered the yard, the old gypsy woman began to divert the attention of the servants at the rear of the horse stable. At first she talked to only a few men, but these men began calling the other servants to come over, so that the old woman soon obtained a large audience.
The gypsy woman was an interesting talker. All the servants listened to her stories very attentively and thought her to be a wonderfully learned woman.
After listening to her a while one of the servants finally asked her: "Where are you gypsies from, anyhow?"
"We have come here from the Egyptian lands, which are far away from here," said the gypsy woman, glancing sideways toward the horse stable. "From the Egyptian lands," she continued, "and I suppose you all know where that country is."
"Well, I have heard that country mentioned in sermons and that's all," said an old servant. "In the past I have had the opportunity of being in a great many places throughout the world. I have been in several places in Germany. When our army, under the command of our late Lord, went to war to Croatia and to Bohemia, I also had the opportunity of visiting a great many places in those countries. But I must frankly confess that I have not yet been in Egypt."
"I presume Egypt must be beyond the ninth ocean," interposed a third servant.
"You are right," replied the gypsy woman. "At one time, St. Joseph and St. Mary, with their child, Jesus, roamed to Egypt. I suppose all you men have heard about that. Upon their arrival in Egypt they looked for a shelter where they might rest after their long and tedious journey, and it was our forefathers who refused the Holy Family a lodging. As a punishment for the sin committed by our forefathers we must roam about the world for seven long years."
"Do you mean to say that you must roam about the world seven years only?" remarked one of the servants, and then continued. "If that's the case, then it is about time that you should be driven out of the country, because you have not roamed about the world only seven years, but you have been around here ever since I have had my teeth in my mouth."
Hearing this remark by one of their numbers, the servants in the crowd began to laugh loudly.
"Will you kindly have patience with me and allow me to proceed," said the woman. "Do you think for a single moment that we should not like to go home if we could. Certainly we would if we could, but there are several obstacles which prevent us from leaving this country. My friend, I doubt very much as to whether or not you thoroughly comprehend what I am telling you."
"Say," interposed the fifth servant. "You pretend to know more than any one of us here? Perhaps you are one of those wonderfully learned persons like our Lord" . . . in uttering the last word, he paused for a moment and looked around to see whether there was anyone around whom he would not want to overhear him, and then continued: "I meant our Lord, Peter, who is so wonderfully learned, that he even knows how to read and he also understands the stars." (From this story we can readily see how ignorant were the Slovenes in those days. Only aristocrats knew how to read and write; other people were illiterate.—Translator.)
"My friend," said the old woman, "I wish you would give me your palm so that I may tell you all about your past and your future life."

RAZPRAVE O PRAVILIH (Nadaljevanje iz 6. strani)

kakor jo je imelo po zadni konvenciji. Ko je glavni odbor poveril službo uredniku in se je moralo dati točko na splošno glasovanje...

Sedaj naj se glotaknem še jednotinega imena. Naše društvo je glasovalo, da ostane staro ime. Prav tako je naš delegat glasoval z njim...

H koncu pozdravim glavne uradnike, delegate in delegatke 13. redne konvencije in želim velikega uspeha za procvit organizacije.

Chicago, Ill. PAR OPAZK K JEDNOTINIM PRAVILOM —

Kdor kolikor toliko pazno zasleduje sedanje razpravljane o pravilih naše Jednote, mora priznati kar brez vsakršnih ovinkov in oklevanj...

V razpravnih dopisih je bilo doslej opaziti nebroj nasvetov predvsem za bolniški sistem v naši organizaciji.

Tudi drugih važnejših točk so se dopisniki lotili, a jim to ni šlo nič kaj izpod rok.

de naj tudi urad gl. blagajnika za neizplačane posmrtnine. Člen, ki govori o pravicah in dolžnostih posameznih gl. odbornikov...

Osemnajsti člen govori o konvencnem poverljivem odseku, kateremu je posvečena kar cela stran v pravilih.

O organizatorjih imamo v pravilih poseben člen, kar se pa meni ne zdi pravilno umestno. Morebiti so bile tiste točke nekaj potrebne.

V 21. členu se mi zdi določba glede ženskih društev popolnoma nedemokratična. Kajti nobenega tehtnega vzroka ni, zakaj bi ne smela ženska v mešano društvo tam, kjer je poleg moškega tudi žensko društvo.

Člen XXII je zelo nejasen in dvoumen. Popraviti ga je treba temeljito. In če noče Jednota izgubiti poslovnic v državi Pennsylvania, naj izpusti z njem 6. točko.

Člen, ki govori o obtožbah in prizivih pa pritožbah, je tudi jako pomanjkljiv. Temeljito mora biti predelan in izpopolnjen.

Določbe za društveno reprezentacijo se mi ne zde nič kaj posebno demokratične. Če je najhno društvo, ki šteje manj kakor 25 članov, dobro Jednoti za odrajtovanje mesečnih prispevkov in izenačevanje skupnih bremen pa izpolnjevanje vseh drugih dolžnosti, potem bi ne bilo nič kakor prav, če bi melo v slučaju, da mu to priuščajo denarne razmere, prakdo do zastopstva in glasu na njenih konvencijah...

Gl. upravni odsek bi se morai shajati po enkrat na mesec. Nadzorni odsek naj pregleda računske knjige vsako leto dvakrat, in sicer tako, da more podatki poročilo o svojem do-gnanju na dotični mesečni seji upravnega odseka.

bilo, če bi morala n. pr. konvencija dogmati in utgoviti pri vsakem predlogu, kateri delegatje in gl. odborniki imajo pravico glasovati...

Glede bolniškega sklada in sistema ne maram izgubljati dosti besed. Članstvo je že toliko pisalo in čitalo o tem naj-kočljivejšem vprašanju v naših pravilih...

Ko je zvezni kongres omejil imigracijo ali priseljevanje v to deželo, so jelo naše podporne organizacije misliti na to, kako navezati mladino nase.

In tako sem pred par tedni čital v našem glasilu, da bi bilo prav, če bi začela naša Jednota navezati mladino že v zgodnji mladosti nase s tem, da bi imela ta mladina tudi svojja društva.
