

Gala Benefit Dance To Introduce
U. S. A. Y. of Cleveland ---
Tonight at S. N. H.

As previously announced, a group of young men and women have recently organized the United Slovene Youth of Cleveland. The purpose of this group is to better acquaint the youths of Cleveland with the Slav peoples.

After considering the problems of Jugoslavia, it was decided that the group would, as their first gesture, sponsor a benefit dance, from which all proceeds would be donated towards the children's hospital in Jugoslavia, to represent Youth of Cleveland. The spacious Slovene National Home at 6417 St. Clair Avenue was obtained for this affair which will be held this evening, October 11th.

Music will be furnished by that ever popular Collinwood lad — Johnnie Vadnal — and his boys. A grand time is being assured all. Dancing will begin at the usual 8:00 p. m. and will last till 1 a. m. The entertainment committee has been busy with plans, so that there will be plenty refreshments on hand.

Highlight of the evening will be a "life sized doll", dressed in Slovene costume, which will be given to some lucky person. Girls from the club will be attired in Slovene costume to lend the correct atmosphere to this gala event.

It is anticipated that a large crowd will be on hand. Boys and girls of Detroit, Michigan Youth Club are expected in town to help towards our worthy cause. Remember — be on hand this evening to join with the United Slovene Youth of Cleveland.

NEIGHBORHOOD GOSSIP

Yes folks it is really and truly me. What on earth ever really made me sit down and actually write a column is beyond me. But I get that way every once in awhile so — One of the biggest and most important reason for writing this time is to give a certain male a little note but I'll let that ride for a little while.

The real cute couple none other than Tillie Bolek and Don Boyd showing and letting everyone know how happy they really are. That's the way, kids. Keep it up! And loads of luck to you on your engagement. And some diamond, Tillie! Huba!

That certain note I said I'd mention, is to Frankie Kosten. "Please, Frankie, if you're flat broke let me know. Will be more than glad to help you."

It's impolite to refuse a young lady a stick of gum telling her you only have one stick and then after the poor little gal goes all over the hall begging for a stick and she finally gets one, you pop up with ten sticks. Oh well, we all must learn to be gentleman, sometime. That certain gal wants to thank Dick Banko with all her heart for giving her that stick of gum. You're her friend forever, Dick.

And now to make up my column, the first after our Fall Dance last Sat. nite. It was evident that everyone had the best time ever, and altho it is impossible for me to mention everyone who attended, I will attempt here to outline as best a picture as I can. If it happens that I missed some important event, or personage, during the course of the evening, I'd appreciate a call to my home (KE, 6382) and it will surely appear in next week's column.

ICE CAPADES SHOW FOR ENTIRE FAMILY

Whenever wise showmen get together to talk over their favorite topic the conversation is bound to get around to the astounding popularity of ice shows. The skating extravaganzas are comparative "babies" in the entertainment world, yet the four touring shows draw more paid customers than the 16 major league baseball clubs.

The Ice Capades of 1947 offers a wide choice of entertainment running the gamut from hilarious comedy to serious work of difficult and beautiful figure skating. Somewhere in the talent-packed program any spectator will find much to his liking. This is a grand show for the entire family running through Oct. 13th at Cleveland Arena. Matinee on Sunday.

Series tickets for the six concerts are now available at Severance Hall. Tickets for individual concerts will go on sale October 21.
