rodčina, neke iz Italije, toda vojaški rod, in v vojaščini se živi od počasne plače in mošnja ni nikoli polna. In mi smo razen moje plače imeli samo dva tisoč zlatnikov premoženja, pa še od teh smo dali tisoč pod ključ, naj cekini čakajo, ko se sestra poroči. Moja sestra! Bog nebeški! Prelepo je bilo to zlatolasa dekle, ko vrtinca, ko zvezda, ko angel!... Ime ji je bilo Karlota. In tako sramežljiva, tako ljubka in mila — ah! Saj nisem pesnik, da bi vam jo pošteno opisal.

JUVENILE CHORUS (M.P.Z.) IN SPRING CONCERT SUNDAY

Florence Siskovich, student of Boston Conservatory of Music, guest singer

The stage of the Slovene Workmen's Home at 15335 Waterloo Rd. will be the scene of the Spring Concert and Variety Program to be presented by the Juvenile Chorus (Mladinski pevski zbor) on Sunday, April 11th.

This Juvenile Chorus is composed of youngsters, ranging in age from 6 years to 15 years and it is the only such chorus among the Slovene population in the United States. Some 25 years ago, a goodly number of children's choruses flourished in Cleveland and other Slovene settlements in Pennsylvania, Illinois and elsewhere.

Through the efforts of a number of men and women, whose ambition and desire to instill in the hearts of the second and third generation a love for the fine cultural achievements of their forefathers, the Collinwood Juvenile Chorus survived and will by all indications celebrate its silver jubilee next year.

Sunday's repertoire will feature some novel presentations. Vocal numbers will be presented by the mixed chorus, boys' and girls' choruses, soloists, duets, etc. A few musical numbers will be included as the group boasts of several talented musicians. Mr. Joseph Gregurinc will direct the concert, with Miss J. Tercek at the piano.

The appearance of Miss Florence Siskovich, currently a student at the Boston Conservatory of Music, will add zest to the performance. Miss Siskovich herself emerged from this chorus, where she sang and performed while still in elementary school. She possesses a fine clear soprano, which has won her a number of favorable comments by distinguished critics of music. Recently she was the recipient of a scholarship to the Conservatory of Music in Ljubljana, Yugoslavia, which can claim as its students some of the most renowned world singers. Zinka Milanov, a noted Metropolitan Opera star, to name just one. This will be Florence's last appearance before our public prior to her sojourn to the native country of her parents.

After the performance dancing will follow in the lower hall with music by the Pavli-Tomsic orchestra. Supper will also be served for a nominal sum.

With the Cleveland Indians

While there have been many encouraging developments at the Cleveland Indians' spring training sessions, the most heartening discovery of the 1954 pre-season schedule seems to be the fact that the Tribe's long search for a left handed pitcher capable of handling starting assignments is ended.

Dick Tomaneck and Don Mossi, promoted from the Cleveland farm system, and the veteran Hal Newhouser, now making what appears to be a successful comeback, all have been very impressive this spring and Manager Al Lopez seems confident that he now has good southpaw pitching to go along with such formidable righthanders as Bob Lemon, Mike Garcia, Early Wynn, Bob Feller and Art Houtteman.

It is a generally accepted fact in baseball that most pennant-winning clubs usually have an effective lefthander on their pitching staffs. The New York Yankees of recent years have had Eddie Lopat and Whitey Ford and the Bronx Bombers of the 1930's and 1940's boasted of Lefty Gomez and Joe Page. Brooklyn has its Preacher Roe, the St. Louis Cardinals had Harry Brecheen and so on down the line of pennant winners.

Camp Cheerful Open House

It will be Open House at the Society for Crippled Children's Camp Cheerful on Sunday afternoon, April 11 from 2 to 5 p. m.

The Easter Seal News which came in the mail along with the 1954 Easter Seals invited Greater Clevelanders to see their contributions in action as they tour the camp grounds and inspect the new building, Great Hall. This unique structure was designed especially to accommodate handicapped boys and girls, for it is entirely one story, and stretches to 172 feet in length. It contains a recreation center with fireplace, cafeteria, outside dining porch, auditorium, and staff quarters. The central heating system will allow camping to continue into the spring and fall months.

During 1953-1954, over 500 handicapped campers enjoyed an outdoor experience at Camp Cheerful, made possible by Easter Seal gifts. This year's goal is $225,000.

Camp Cheerful is located 17 miles from Public Square on Howe Road in Strongsville. Visitors should follow route 82 which leads directly to the Camp.

Another Investigation—Charge Santa Claus With Favoritism

The demand for Santa Claus to make his appearance in countless number of places in United States staggers the imagination. Protests everywhere are flooding in why the St. Clair neighborhood should be favored. Kids too, are especially concerned over Santa's health in a warm climate this time of the year, and are fearful he may not get well by December. So—instead of Santa—a delegation of businessmen will handle his job.

It's a comparatively pleasant job just passing out certificate awards for a variety of FREE merchandise.

ALL-SLOVENE THEME INCLUDES "JEPHTHAH'S OATH"

Slovenia's poet Simon Gregoric reached into the book of Judges XI—XII and secured the colorful plot of Jephthah for his masterful prose.

P. Hugolin Sattner composed the music and from this combination there emerged a biblical cantata well-established in Slovene classicism.

Jephthah, a chieftain and judge of Israel, led his Gileadite brethren against the Ammonites. Before making his assault, Jephthah vowed that if victorious he will sacrifice and offer to God the first thing he meets upon his return home.

His victorious, triumphant reception ended as his only daughter rushed into the arms of her heroic father. Remembering his oath, the terror-stricken Jephthah placed his slain daughter on the altar of sacrifice!

Glasbena Matica presents this cantata in its spring concert on Sunday, April 11, 1954 at four in the afternoon at the Slovenian National Home, 6417 St. Clair Ave.

The entire Slovene program will bring to light many Slovenian compositions by F. S. Vilhar, Dr. A. Schwab, Matija Tomc, Emil Adamic, and Josip Pavlic. These men have produced memorable music.

With a high degree of interest and diligence Glasbena Matica presents more of its versatile, vocal artistry. Attend another great Glasbena Matica performance!
