THEN — NOW

On a cold, bleak December night on the hills of Bethlehem, a group of shepherds were tending their flocks. The long nocturnal watch of their sheep had tired them. Wrapping themselves in the skins of animals, they lay down beside their night fires to catch a little sleep.

All was calm and quiet save the flickering of the fire. The shepherds lay asleep. Suddenly the stillness of the night was rent asunder by the sound of voices singing, "Gloria in Excelsis Deo." Roused by the sound of heavenly music on these desolate plains, the shepherds quickly arose. Lo! They beheld a choir of heavenly choristers. The angels brought tidings of great joy, for a Savior was born in Bethlehem.

The shepherds, leaving their fires, hastened over the hills of snow to Bethlehem. A star guided them. The star stood still over the manger. The shepherds entered. For the first time, they looked at that Little Baby Boy that lay in a crib of straw. They knelt and adored Him. That was the scene of the first Christmas over 1900 years ago.

The priest says, "This is My Body, This is My Blood," the heavens open and that same Little Baby Boy of Bethlehem comes down upon the altar; is born again not indeed in that virginal bosom of His Mother, but in the consecrated hands of His priest. He is laid in the manger, in the tabernacle and again those same heavenly messengers, the angels, surround the altar and adore Him.

Thousands leave their flickering fires. Led by the star of faith, they hasten during the dark morning hours to the stable of Christ, the Church.

And as the shepherds of 1900 years ago knelt and adored the Infant Christ, so, too, do the "shepherds" of today kneel and adore the "Little Baby Boy of Bethlehem."

Spirit of Christmas

By La Sallita

Nineteen hundred years ago a Babe was born. A manger sufficed for His birthplace.

Christmas Day! From dawn's early breaking to eastward of Pacific isles till dusk closes over our remotest westland, civilization, whether at church or banquet hall, will harken for the joyous strains of this song of hope, "Peace to Men of Good Will."

Christmas is the season of generosity. It is the one time on the long yearly calendar when every person seems to wish to do something for both family and friend. It is the season of giving, and it is well at this particular time of the year to remember the old saying "he gives not best that gives most, but he gives most who gives best."

To my way of thinking, whatever we receive on Christmas morning possesses the same beautiful significance—from a pair of hose to a Packard car. Even a trifling gift, if it comes from the hand of a friend we love, has a value no mortal wealth can measure. The heart of the giver makes the gift dear and precious.

Personally, the manner of giving is worth more than the gift, and if we would only try to keep the spirit of Christmas, with its contagious thought of wishing, to do things for other people right through the 12 months of the year, we would not fail to discover the true art of giving freely of ourselves—which, after all is said and done, is the greatest of all earthly gifts.

Just a bit of cardboard, a Christmas card, brings cheer to a friend, who at least knows that he is not forgotten.

On this, my third Christmas as a contributor to Our Page, I extend my choicest greetings to its readers and to all other members of the grand old K. S. K. J. "Peace to men of Good Will." May this song of Bethlehem fill your hearts with gladness and real peace. May your heartstrings reverberate their undertone of love that it may be caught up by other hearts and, passing all barriers, fill the world about with its enduring melody of peace.

Once again, a very merry Christmas in its true spirit.

Christmas Eve

On a cold and dreary evening
In the town of Bethlehem,
Came a holy Virgin beaming
With her guarding gentleman.

There they both made every effort
In the quest to shelter One,
Who to them would be all comfort
And the only charming Son.

Yet, to Joseph's bitter sorrow,
Could he find no tender heart
Who would give them 'til the morrow
Just a nook near some warm hearth.

Finally Joseph saw a cavern
Through the misty clouds of snow,
"That," said he, "will be our tavern,
And, to it, let's quickly go."

In a distant frozen valley
Were some shepherds wide awake,
Who at midnight heard a rally
Of the songs the joyous make.

"Glory be to Him, the highest
Who to you is born this day;
And to men on earth of good will,
Peace that cannot pass away."

Passed they onward to the stable
Led by stellar gleams of light,
And their eyes were scarcely able
To behold the precious sight.

There they saw, within the manger
Joseph and God's Mother, too,
Beaming on the little Child
Who was born for love of you.

CHICAGO SODALITY

Dec. 8, the feast of the Immaculate Conception was a red-letter day in the annals of the Sodality of St. Stephen's Parish, Chicago, Ill. On this beautiful feastday of the Blessed Virgin, 18 young ladies were received into the Sodality at a very impressive ceremony.

The celebration of this inspiring event was preceded by a triduum, preached by the Rev. Paschal Esser O. F. M., pastor of St. Roch's Church, La Salle, Ill.

The ceremony of reception was made the more impressive by the assistance of three priests, the Rev. Paschal Esser, celebrant, assisted by the Rev. Edward Gabrenya O. F. M., and the Rev. Thomas Hoge O. F. M. as deacon and subdeacon, respectively.

Father Paschal preached an inspiring sermon on this occasion, admonishing the candidates of the great honor conferred on them and of their duty to be faithful to their heavenly Patroness.

The ceremony in church was followed by an enjoyable banquet in honor of the new members; about 80 members of the Sodality being present. The entire evening's ceremony was pronounced a grand success, and we hope that this annual affair shall always be as impressive as was this year's.

Sodality Girl.

HOLD ANNUAL MEETING

The yearly meeting of St. Ann's Society was held on Sunday, Dec. 11, in St. Roch's Hall, La Salle, Ill.

Business matters were discussed and dues collected, after which the election of officers for the ensuing year took place. No change was made in the officials for 1933, the same officials having been re-elected.

MERRY CHRISTMAS

By Amateur Reporter

Enter your heart into the spirit of Christmas,
Help others to make it merry and gay;

All you must do is extend a greeting,
Appropriate and cheering for a holiday:
Merry Christmas.

Need you be moody when
The air rings with an ever merry call?
Can't you respond to that inner voice
And shout to the world—to one and all:
Merry Christmas.

So when you use a greeting,
Let the whole wide world know
That you say it and mean it;
For you utter it smiling, and so
"a Merry Christmas"

Becomes lovely and happy—
Much brighter and merry—
For it isn't what, nor to whom you say it,
It's why—and particularly how you say it:
Merry, Merry Christmas to all!

It is hoped that all the patrons of this feature shall again be with us. The tempting music shall again be furnished by Johnny Kochevar and his Merrymakers. We are all acquainted with the great quality of Johnny's music and are looking forward to some new features, which Johnny might have up in his own sleeve. So remember, every Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock, St. Stephen's Hall, 22d and Lincoln Sts., Chicago, Ill. Admission, ladies 15 cents, men 25 cents.

WHICH CHRISTMAS IS NEARER GOD?

Tonight, as I gaze from my window, I cannot but contrast the Christmas of 1932 with that of 1927.

Then fathers asked for gilt-edged bonds, that would make them rich over night. Mothers asked for extravagant gifts, electric refrigerators, strings of costly pearls. Big brothers asked for a new roadster to use for the college prom, the deluxe theater, and the night club. Big sisters asked for a more expensive seal coat, a dozen new gowns and costly jewelry. Little brothers wanted an electric train, a fireman's outfit, a bicycle, and a new sled. Little sisters wanted a doll house that would contain furnished rooms for their dolls. They also wanted a dozen games and anything else that they could think of.

Everyone asked much and received lavishly. But through it all, men forgot to place the Crib beneath the tree; they forgot that they could adore Christ as the shepherds adored Him on that first Christmas night.

They were too busy for God; they did not need Him. On Christmas day, as on every other day, they politely asked God to withdraw from their midst.

Christmas morning dawns again in 1932.

But fathers no longer ask for gilt-edged bonds, for they have found that their value has been written down in vanishing ink. Fathers are glad that they have a job and a simple home. Mothers are happy to be able to give their children a good Christmas dinner; they no longer ask for extravagant gifts. Big sisters are happy to receive a box of chocolates. Little brothers and little sisters are content with cheap, inexpensive toys, nuts, and candy.

Everyone asks for little or nothing and is content with little. In the happy home there is a Crib beneath the tree. The family goes to the church, the stable of Bethlehem, kneels and adores the Infant. Christ is a Friend of theirs. Politely, He is invited to be "the Head of their home; the unseen Guest at every meal, the silent listener of every conversation."

Which Christmas is nearer to God—1927 or 1932?

GREETINGS

As Joseph was a walking,
he heard an angel sing,
"This night shall be the birth time,
of Christ, the heav'nly King.
He neither shall be born
in house nor in hall
Nor in the place of paradise,
but in an ox's stall."

As Joseph was a walking,
there did an angel sing,
And Mary's child at midnight,
was born to be our King.
Then be ye glad, good people,
this night of all the year,
And light ye up your candles,
for his star it shineth clear.

Wishing you all a very, very Merry Christmas!

Knights of Trinity.

DEADLINE

Deadline for next issue is Friday, Dec. 23.

Joliet Sodality Girl.

GREETINGS!

The year 1932 has not been without its trials, and our organization as well as others, was obliged to cope with conditions that tested the mettle and perseverance of our people.

The individual members, subordinate lodge officers and my fellow-Supreme Officers, however, gave unstintingly of their co-operation and concentrated their efforts in executing the purposes of our Union. KSKJ youth in whom we have so much confidence and faith, and who will be delegated in future years to carry on the work of their fathers and mothers, has this year manifested that dauntless spirit of "Carry On!" regardless of the cloud of discouragement prevailing over the world.

It is gratifying to know that the membership of our Union is mindful of the goal of the organization—the practice of fraternalism, truly the spirit of Christmas extended over the entire year.

Thanking all for the generous co-operation extended, wishing you a Christmas season rich in spirit and hoping that the new year brings us all happier days than we have had in the past.

Frank Opeka, Supreme President.

Steelton Jays Win Opener

Highspire Pros Drop 27 to 19 Tilt to Jay Net Men

Steelton, Pa.—In a nip and tuck battle, the Kay Jay Club representing St. Aloysius Lodge opened its basketball season by tripping the Highspire Professionals, 27 to 19, at Highspire.

With the exception of the first quarter, the Jays had the edge over their down-river rivals, leading 15 to 10 at half time and outscoring their opponents, 12 to 9 in the final half.

The Steelton passing attack kept the ball in the opponent's territory three fourths of the time.

Billy Stefanie, with six field goals led the Jay scoring.

The Jays played in mid-season form, and are now ready to meet all opposition.

Although the squad includes a formidable group of ball tossers and versatile performers, new men are trying out for the team, and it is likely that there will be keen competition in the battle for positions.

Athletic Chairman Guest of South Chicago

In answer to an invitation, I had the pleasure to visit the Boosters of South Chicago, Ill. It was easy to feel at home amidst these young and enthusiastic K. S. K. Jers.

It was also my pleasure to congratulate them for winning the Midwest KSKJ Baseball League pennant and to compliment them on their conduct during the season. At the same time, it was explained to them that the championship prize was not to be as big as they had expected of a misunderstanding. But it was also explained that the board will hereafter do everything possible to avoid such misunderstanding.

In keeping with the spirit that the boys have shown throughout the season, they accepted the explanations as satisfactory, and promised to make every effort to again win the championship. On behalf of the board, I compliment them for their sportsmanship shown and wish them the good luck which they deserve because of their loyalty to the KSKJ.

It is my pleasant duty, as chairman of the Athletic Board, to also advise that the prizes emblematic of the KSKJ baseball championships of the respective leagues have been awarded. It is especially gratifying to be able to say that this is the only duty which the Athletic Board has been asked to discharge in relation to either league. In the absence of even the slightest protest, I deem it safe to say that the past season was an exceptionally successful one; it also proves that their victories were well deserved.

While the prizes were not large as it was hoped, they would be, yet, I hope that they will serve to further inspire their efforts to greater deeds and greater victories under the auspices of the KSKJ.

Frank Banich, Chairman, KSKJ Athletic Board.

EDITOR'S NOTE

Reporters and contributors will please be so kind as to note that the deadline for the Jan. 3 issue of Our Page will be 8 a. m. Friday, Dec. 30.

Please mail all contributions for that issue early in order to insure publication. The courtesy will be appreciated.

Please, Again!

Only one questionnaire is outstanding and hinders the compilation of a general report on the 1932 KSKJ baseball season.

The lone manager who has not as yet returned the questionnaire is kindly asked to do so at his earliest convenience, and thereby make it a 100 per cent response. To date, 16 of the 17 questionnaires have been returned.

MINNESOTA SCHEDULE COMPLETED

Minnesota Kay Jays are ready for a merry race for basketball honors, following the completion of the circuit schedule.

Although the complete schedule was drawn up recently, several games have been played already. Aurora met Ely and Soudan, while Eveleth tangled with Soudan.

The northern league is composed of Aurora, Chisholm, Ely, Eveleth and Soudan, Ely being the new entrant to the wheel.

Soudan won the flag last season, with Aurora placing in the second position.

The race this year, according to early season reports, will be close and interesting.

Five Jay Teams in Waukegan Church League

The Mother of God Parish of Waukegan, Ill., has recently formed a girls' and boys' basketball league, known as the Mother of God Athletic Club in which four girls' teams and six boys' teams are entered.

In order that the leagues may function smoothly with regard to finance, a dance is being given by the club Sunday, Jan. 15.

The committee in charge, composed of John Gerchar, Chuck Nemanich, Frank Ogrin, Millie Gerchar, Marie Grom and Agnes Ivantic, is hard at work now to see that the dance goes over with a bang.

It is hoped that our young K. S. K. Jers will patronize this dance to the nth degree, as five K. S. K. J. teams are entered in this league.

Remember the date, Jan. 15, Mother of God Auditorium, at 8:30 p. m. Music by Frankie Cuden and his orchestra.

Frank Ogrin.

Ely Kay Jays Elect Officers

Louis Prushek, president; Alex Debeltz, vice president; Josephine Stupnik, secretary; Matt Zeleznik Jr., treasurer.

Math Zgone was re-elected manager of the basketball team. Pauline Vertnik was appointed chairman of the entertainment committee and Mary Marn, chairman of the publicity committee.

All members are requested to attend future meetings.

Watch for further notices! Mary Marn.

NOTICE OF MEETING

The next meeting of the St. Genevieve Lodge, No. 108, Joliet, Ill., will be held Jan. 2, at 2 p. m., in Slovenia Hall.

Installation of officers will be in order.

Sports Tripped in Final Stanza

St. Joes Click in Style; Drop Opener After Leading

After holding the lead to the final minutes of play, the St. Joseph Sports weakened, and the Clairwoods won 32 to 24, in the bill lifting the Cleveland Interlodge League curtain.

The Jays started the scoring and held the lead to the final stanza when Joe Jenc, lanky Clairwood center, added a few markers to give him a total evening's tally of 12 points, and the lead that sent the St. Joes down to defeat. Debenjak topped the St. Joe scorers with a total of nine points.

The score indicates a decisive victory, but the Clairwoodites, who went into the fray as favorites to win, were pressed to the limit by a fast-passing, stocky and aggressive group of Jays.

About 450 fans witnessed the opening tilts.

In the other games of the card, the Modern Crusaders toppled the Serbian A. C., 29 to 19. The Progressives vs. Eastern Star tilt found the former with the long end of a 20 to 19 final. The Pioneers tallied 35 to the Loyalties' 19.

The schedule for Dec. 21, on the league home court, St. Clair Bathhouse:

Clairwoods vs. Modern Crusaders, 6:45.

Loyalties vs. Serbian A. C., 7:30.

St. Joseph Sports vs. Commodores, 8:15.

Pioneers vs. Progressives, 9: Eastern Stars, bye.

Aurora Rallies in Second Half

Chisholm, Minn.—Chisholm Kay Jays met defeat in their first game of the season when they were trounced by the Aurora Kay Jays by a score of 32 to 13.

The first period ended 6 to 3 in favor of the home team. The half ended with a tie score, 6 to 6.

In the second half the Aurora boys came out very strong, and in the third period made 18 points, bringing their total to 24, and Chisholm five points for a total of 11.

The final canto was another rampage for the Aurorians, and ended 32 to 13.

Aurora displayed a very good passing and floor work team.

The high scorers for the visitors were Kmet, center, and Simonich, guard. Chisholm's high men were Baraga, forward, and Champa, forward. Chisholm did not show out very well. Chisholm will play Aurora Dec. 23 in a return game at Aurora.

Others are selfish; you are merely economical.

The best jokes are always on someone else.

GREETINGS!

May the Christmas spirit bring with it a renewal of our pledge to fulfill the ideals and purposes of our Union, and may health, happiness and contentment accompany the New Year, so that we can continue in the fraternal purpose, the significant characteristic of the KSKJ membership.

Joseph Zalar, Supreme Secretary.

Brooklyn Knights' Reception Success Despite Weather

The second annual reception, sponsored by the Brooklyn Knights of Trinity, Dec. 10, was greeted by the first snow storm of the year. Although traveling on that particular evening was very difficult, the Knights accumulated a crowd that was very satisfactory as well as surprising to them. The streets were so icily slippery, that traveling by automobile was practically impossible. The few cars that were seen on the streets crept along like funeral hearses.

The reception was a huge success in spite of the (I think I'll stay home) weather. There was a large number of people who purchased tickets and had already paid for them that did not appear.

It was very pleasing and heart tickling for the members to see the crowd enjoying itself as it did. The boys and girls enjoyed themselves to their hearts' content. When an array of evening gowns. Somebody would think it was a first night premiere in Hollywood, the way the seemingly endless line of girls poured into the ballroom, hatless, with gorgeous coats and coatees adorned over their beautiful gowns.

There were quite a few men in tuxedos besides the members. A number of the latter never sported a tux in their lives, it was evidently noticeable the way they paraded around the ballroom, with pride and glee showing on their happy faces.

The ten-piece orchestra, headed by Frank Kelly, played exceedingly well. Of course, the more the dancers applauded the more were they inspired. When closing time arrived, the crowd simply did not wish to leave, so the Knights obliged the people by ordering the orchestra to play an hour overtime with the permission of the management. As the hands of the clock pointed closing time, it seemed that another extension of time would have to be sought. The management, though, could not permit it

Flashes Win Two

The fast-stepping, versatile St. Joseph Flashes of Cleveland added two victories to their record last week, and made the annexation by large scores.

In a game played Friday the Jay lassies buried the Heiber-Zimmer Funerals with a tally of 36 to 7, practically every member of the team contributing to the score. Red Garrett was the luminary with a total of 18 points.

The Czech Sokol girls were given a 22 to 7 trouncing in a carnival game played last Sunday. The Jay girls were never in danger and romped easily to the victory.

The girls play boys' rules, but the playing time is limited to seven-minute quarters, making any score over 28 a point per minute.

The undefeated Mariners will oppose the Flashes Wednesday, Dec. 21, 7:15 p. m., in the Clark Ave. gym.

without violating the police permit, so the Knights and the friends were obliged to listen to the sorrowful strains of "Home, sweet home."

Although old man winter gave us a slight licking, we are very happy that things turned out so successful. Everybody complimented the beautiful journal which was also a big success. The trades-people were well satisfied with their ads.

To those who gave us a helping hand, we extend our sincere thanks.

Brooklyn Knight.

GREETINGS!

The co-operation of all the reporters, correspondents, contributors, Athletic Board and Booster Club officials, as likewise, the executive officials of the Union, when viewed at Christmas time, constitutes a marvelous gift to Our Page and its staff.

The Our Page recognizes and appreciates the whole-hearted co-operation extended by the contributors, and extends to them the kind reception given to the Page by the readers.

The New Year is in the future. We may, however, face the new days with confidence, for the young people of our Union have distinguished themselves by a display of enthusiasm and action, a fore-runner of continued progress.

Wishing you all the best the Christmas season can bring, and hoping that happiness will find its way to your heart.
