Praznik sv. Rešnjega telesa in krvi

V ne tako davni preteklosti je bil praznik sv. Rešnjega telesa in krvi obdan z velikim sijajem. Vse cerkve so bile bogato okrašene. Dolge procesije vernikov so se pojoč vile med cvetočimi polji. Danes tega ne vidimo več povsod.

Naj nam božja beseda danes pomaga razložiti to veliko skrivnost. Danes nam Jezus v božji besedi govori o kruhu, ki se spremeni v njegovo telo. Apostol Pavel pa govori o Cerkvi, ki je prav tako Kristusovo telo. Kakšno je razmerje med obojim? Kakšen odnos je med nami, ki smo Cerkev, in evharistijo, ki jo obhajamo?

Sv. Avguštin daje na to naslednji odgovor: »Odkar ste postali Kristusovo telo in njegovi udje, se na Gospodovem oltarju obhaja skrivnost vas samih. Vašo skrivnost prejimate in z besedo Amen! pritrjujete temu, kar ste. Ko tako odgovarjate, sprejemate to skrivnost. Rečeno vam je: Kristusovo telo! in na to odgovorite: Amen! Bodi ud Kristusovega telesa, da bo tako tvoj Amen ustrezal resnici« (Ser. 272; PL 38, 1246).

Na oltarju sta torej navzoči resnično Kristusovo telo kot tudi njegovo skrivnostno telo, ki je Cerkev. Hkratna navzočnost Kristusovega telesa ali Cerkve na oltarju se še posebej lepo izraža pri darovanju, pri posvečenju in pri obhajilu. Pri darovanju Kristusovo skrivnostno telo postane navzoče, ko se po zgledu Kristusa, svoje Glave, daruje Očetu. Kruh, ki se daruje, je »sad zemlje in dela človeških rok«. V darovanju postavlja Cerkev pred Boga celotno človeško bivanje v vsej njegovi konkretnosti, kakor ga je od učlovečenja dalje živel tudi Jezus Kristus, ki je njena Glava. Ko duhovnik vlije nekaj kapljic vode v kelih, moli: »Po skrivnosti te vode in vina naj bomo deležni božje narave Kristusa, ki je postal deležen naše človeške narave.«

V polnosti dojeti vrednost darovanja pri sv. maši pomeni spoznati to bogastvo vsebin, se jih zavedeti in jih prevajati v življenje. To se zgodi, če tudi sami osebno pridružimo Gospodovemu kelihu naše »kaplje vode«, to pomeni naše napore, preizkušnje, veselje, načrte in upe.

V soboto, 2. junija je bil zadnji dan Slovenske šole v šolskem letu 2017-18. Ob devetih zjutraj smo se z učiteljicama, Lorie in Matejo, nekaterimi otroci in starši, zbrali pri daritvi svete maše, potem pa so vsi odhiteli k »Flying Squirrel«, kjer so vzeli paket »The Bounce Party« - dobri dve uri in pol skakanja ... pa še pizza, od 10:30 do 1:00 popoldne, ko so jih starši prišli iskat.

Soboto, 26. maj, so tisti, ki so se prijaviли za kuharski tečaj imeli nepozaben dan, saj so se naučili kako pravilno zameisti KROFE in jih speči tako lepo in dobro, da so vsi imeli lep bel »krancelj«. Tečaj je vodila Jožica Vegelj ob pomoči Sonye Podrabarac in Elke Peršin. Lepa skupina se je zbrala in na kocu so bile vse vesele, saj so šle domov z dobrimi zlatorumenimi krofi.

PRVO SV. OBHAJILO IN SV. BIRMA

V nedeljo, 28. maja 2018, je bilo v naši župniji zopet slovesno. Osem prvoobhajancev je prejelo sv. obhajilo in osem birmancev je prejelo zakrament sv. birme po rokah hamiltonskega škofa v pokoju, Anthonyja F. Tonnosa. Praznovanje smo začeli pri kipu Marije Pomočnice. Tam so prvoobhajanci položili pred Marijo sveče in rože, vsi pa smo se posvetili Mariji s posvetilno molitvijo, potem pa se v procesiji podali v župnijsko cerkev, kjer smo nadaljevali s sveto mašo. Sodelovala sta tako mešani pevski zbor, kakor tudi angleški zbor. Na začetku maše je Clark Novak, v imenu župnijskega sveta, pozdravil škofa. Prvo berilo je v angleščini prebrala Rosemary Balažič, drugo v slovenščini pa Andreja Jamnik. Po evangeliju je župnik najprej predstavil birmance, potem pa je škof nagovoril tako prvoobhajance kot tudi birmance. Po uvodni molitvi in pesmi angleškega zbora so birmanci s svojimi botri stopili pred škofa, da jih je mazilil s krizmo. Nekateri so si izbrali birmanska imena, drugi so bili birmanci z krstnimi imeni. Birmanci so nato prebrali prošnje, družina Davis pa je prinesla darove. Srednji del maše je pel angleški zbor. K svetemu obhajilu so najprej pristopili prvoobhajanci z družino, potem pa birmanci in ostali. Prvoobhajanci so pripravili lepe zahvale za po obhajilo, pa jih zaradi župnikov »pozabljenosti« niso naglas povedali - so pa ostale v njihovih srcih. Na koncu maše se je birmanka Anna Marie Horvat zahvalila škofu, župniku in učiteljicama Lorie in Mateji, ki sta pomagale pri prapravi prvoobhajancev in birmancev. Po zaključni pesmi, Marija skoz življenje, smo še ovekovečili dogodek s kamerami. - Iskrena zahvala vsem, ki ste sodelovali pri pripravi dogodka: pevcem, čistilkam cerkve, Olgi Glavač, ki je zelo lepo okrasila cerkev in pripravila oltarček pri Mariji; Mateji in Lorie, hvala za vse priprave; obema zboroma, Carlu in Ivanu za igranje. Hvala vsem, ki ste se tako ali drugače pripomogli, da je bil to res lep dogodek za župnijo.

CORPUS CHRISTI

Response:

I will lift up the cup of salvation, and call on the name of the Lord.

First Reading Deuteronomy 4:32-34. 39-40

Moses exhorts the people to remain faithful to the one true God, so that they may prosper and have a rich life.

First Reading Exodus 24:3-8

Worship is a matter of obedience, because only God can reveal God.

Second Reading Hebrews 9:11-15

In Christ death, which was the end, becomes the way to eternal life.

Gospel Mark 14:12-16. 22-26

Old wine for new wine. Old lives for new lives. That is the kingdom.

“Make the preparations for us there.”

Illustration

A book by a Dutch Dominican theologian confronts a question often posed to Christians by those who do not believe in life after death. They ask us if we do not see that believing in a life after death makes this life seem trivial. The Dominican gives an answer based on a story about two boys who are playing with footballs. One is told that if he loses his ball, he will never receive another one. The other boy is told that if he loses his ball, he will be given another one in its place. The question he asks is, which boy will make best use of his ball? Wouldn't the boy who thinks this is the last football he will ever see be afraid to do anything with his ball, other than hug it to himself? The other boy will kick his ball high into the air, bounce it against any amount of walls and in general will go wild.

It is a good analogy but, in the Eucharist, Jesus goes further than that. The Eucharist is the transformation of our bodily life. It is a pledge that we will not just get our old bodies back, but will receive them in the resurrection as a transfigured body, a body transfigured in Christ. The Eucharist here on earth is not just a sign of this; it is the presence of the new heaven and new earth.

Gospel Teaching

A common complaint against the Catholic doctrine of the Eucharist is that we believe that Christ can be present in every tabernacle throughout the world. How can he be in so many places? We could reply that God is everywhere, but God is present to all things as the creator. God is not in everywhere but God is present to everywhere, by causing it to be. In the Eucharist, Jesus is present in his humanity. Yet many Christians believe that when they pray to

Our Lord, they are heard by a human ear; that our prayers enter into his human heart; and that his compassion is both human and divine. If we believe that, then we are already committed to a Christ who is extended in time and space, able to be present to all the human beings who call on him. How this can be is beyond our understanding while we live on earth. Yet how we are to make use of this great mystery is very simple. St John Vianney, that great nineteenth-century priest and pastor also known as the Curé d’Ars, used to simply say over and over again, “He is there; he is there.” That is all we need to know.

In the Gospel, at the Last Supper Jesus says he will not drink from the branch of the vine until the day comes when he will drink it new in the kingdom of God. This may not be quite the translation that we hear in the Mass, but it is important to understand that Christ does not just drink new wine in the kingdom, he makes the new wine that he drinks with us because when we share in the body and blood of Christ we are receiving something altogether new. The resurrection has transformed the body of Christ into a new wine, for all to share.

Application

We too, if we live in Christ, share in this extension of the self. This is not so strange as it might sound. We may pray for people all over the world, we may pray for the dead, and pray for those who are yet to be born in this world. Our prayer is more than just an extension of our goodwill. Prayer is sharing in the power of the risen Christ. If it is sincere prayer, then it will bring us beyond ourselves and lead us to be healers with him. In heaven, through Christ, all the redeemed will be in a continual presence to each other and to all creation. We cannot understand how this is to be, but in our prayer before Christ in the Eucharist, we can already begin to perceive the reality of this. Jesus departs from this life through his death on the cross, but he assures us, in the concluding words of Matthew’s Gospel, that “I am with you always; yes, to the end of time.”
