

A FLY ON THE MENU

WOULD YOU HAVE A FLY FOR LUNCH?

PROBABLY NOT.
BUT SOME FISH
SIMPLY ADORE FLIES.

FISHERMEN KNOW THIS
AND LIKE TO TEMPT FISH
WITH THEIR FAVOURITE FLIES.

IN ORDER TO PROVIDE EXACTLY THEIR FAVOURITE FLY, FISHERMEN MAKE THE FLIES THEMSELVES. THESE CLEVER IMITATIONS ARE CALLED ARTIFICIAL FLIES.

LISTEN AND WORK OUT
WHAT THE FISHERMAN IS DOING.

HE IS FISHING WITH AN ARTIFICIAL FLY.
THIS IS CALLED FLY-FISHING.

YOU CAN SEE AN IMPRESSIVE
COLLECTION OF FISHING FLIES
IN THE TECHNICAL MUSEUM OF SLOVENIA.

LET THE WORK BE HEARD

A FLY ON THE MENU

Text: Irena Marušič, Mojca Slapar

Illustrations: Matjaž Dekleva

Expert consultants: Boris Brovinsky, Estera Cerar,
Milojka Čepon, Romana Erhatic Širnik,
Irena Marušič, Mojca Slapar, Vladimir Vilman

English translation: Melita Silič

Book design: Maša Kozjek

Logotype design: Faculty of Architecture

Preparation of e-book: Urša Vodopivec

Technical Museum of Slovenia, 2015

Director: Natalija Polenec

CIP - Kataložni zapis o publikaciji
Narodna in univerzitetna knjižnica, Ljubljana

799.1(02.053.2)(0.034.2)
087.5(0.034.2)

MARUŠIČ, Irena

A fly on the menu [Elektronski vir] / [text Irena Marušič, Mojca Slapar ; illustrations Matjaž Dekleva ; English translation Melita Silič]. - Ljubljana : Tehniški muzej Slovenije, 2015. - (Let the work be heard)

Način dostopa (URL): http://www.tms.si/fck_files/file/Naj_se_slisi_delo/Knjizica13.pdf

ISBN 978-961-6464-39-0 (pdf)
1. Gl. stv. nasl. 2. Slapar, Mojca
280353024