Jugoslovanski zastopniki za svetovno razstavo v New Yorku

Dne 10. marca so dospeli s parnikom Queen Mary v New York Ernest Weisman, Sveta Popovič in Janko Hranilović, oficijelni jugoslovanski zastopniki za svetovno razstavo v New Yorku.

Ernest Weisman je eden najbolj znanih jugoslovanskih arhitektov. Dasi je star šele 35 let, je že zaslovel po vsej Evropi. Ko je završil univerzo v Zagrebu, je odpotoval v Pariz, kjer je bil deset let v zvezi s slavim francoskim arhitektom Le Corbusier-om.

Jugoslovanska vlada mu je poverila odgovorno nalogo nadzorovanje gradnje jugoslovanskega pavilijona na razstavišču.

Jugoslovanski pavilijon bo odprt dne 30. aprila, torej istega dne, kakor svetovna razstava. Upamo, da bo pri otvoritvi navzoč dr. Fotić, jugoslovanski poslanik v Washingtonu.

Janko Hranilović, voditelj Capitol hotela in restavrant v Zagrebu, bo vodil na razstavišču jugoslovanski restavrant. Doslej ni bilo še na nobeni svetovni razstavi jugoslovanske restavracije. Podjetje bo v vseh pogledih jugoslovansko, posebno, kar se tiče pijače, jedil in zabave. Mr. Hranilović bo pozneje dobil iz Jugoslavije pevski zbor Ciril in Metodove cerkve v Zagrebu. Zbor ima 40 pevcev ter velja za enega najboljših v Evropi.

Sveta Popovič, ki je dospel v spremstvu svoje žene, bo zastopala Jugoslovansko-Ameriško Eksportno in Importno Društvo, ki ima svoj sedež v Beogradu. Načeloval bo trgovinskemu departamentu v jugoslovanskem pavilijonu. Njegov namen je seznaniti ameriško javnost z jugoslovanskimi izdelki. Razstavljene bodo razbarije, vezanine ter razni drugi predmeti. Po mnenju Mr. Popoviča se bodo s to razstavo ojašile trgovinske vezi med Jugoslavijo in Združenimi državami. Upati je, da bo mnogo Jugoslovancev iz Združenih držav in Kanade obiskalo razstavo. S tem se bodo ojašili odnosi med jugoslovanskim narodom in ameriškim prebivalstvom.

OTOK BREZ ŽENSK

Iz Sidneja poročajo: Na skupini otokov v Tihem oceanu je ženskam prepovedano bivati. To so kokosovi otoki, kjer biva zdaj deset belih mož, ki so čuvarji na svetilniku in brznojavi uslužbenci. Tu je važna kabelska postaja, ki jo vodi nekaj inženjerjev. Avstralski in angleški častniki, ki živijo tu, imajo trideset Kitajcev in Hindov za postrežbo. Ženske pa na teh otokih ne smejo bivati.

Davki meščanov

Neki statistik v New Yorku je nedavno izračunal, da je prišlo leta 1937 na vsako osebo po večjih mestih na leto $197.72 davka, ali 7.9 odstotkov od njenih dohodkov ali zaslužka. Ta svota je bila vporabljena za državni in mestni davek.

JOLIET READY TO WELCOME BOWLERS, FANS

575 Jays to Bowl in Banner Midwest Bowling Tournament

BOWLING OFFICIALS ELATED OVER STAGE SETTING FOR THREE-DAY MEET

Chicago, Ill.—Take all the synonyms for the word "best," tie them up with an extra-large blue ribbon, and you will have the label for the 12th annual Midwest KSKJ bowling tournament to be held in Joliet, Ill., April 21, 22 and 23. Such is the feeling of the Midwest KSKJ Bowling Association, voiced through its secretary, Frank P. Kosmach, at the time of release of the official entry list last week.

All team entry records have been shattered with the staggering total of 115 quintets entered, 130 doubles and 255 individuals. The heavy entry, as previously announced, will necessitate an early start and the first squad will take to the alleys at 6 p. m. Friday, April 21, and continue through Sunday. Squads will also line up at 8 p. m. and 10 p. m., and bowling will be resumed Saturday at 2 p. m., the last squad billed for 10 p. m.

The Sunday roll-offs, starting at 8:30 a. m., will carry a bit of formality, for a supreme officers five will open the session.

In addition to watching the ace teams bowl them over, and the ladies and past-40 quintets mow them down, two teams will semi-highlight the tourney: the Mervar sister team of Sheboygan, Wis., and the Ramuta brother team of Joliet, Ill.

The prize list, $1,074, in addition to medals, will be sought by teams from the following communities: Aurora, Chicago, South Chicago, Elmhurst, Joliet, Waukegan, North Chicago, La Salle, all of Illinois; Cleveland, O.; Eveleth, Minn.; Indianapolis, Ind.; Milwaukee and Sheboygan, Wis.

"The Midwest Association is thankful to all communities and lodges who have helped to make this forthcoming tourney an outstanding event," said Mr. Kosmach.

"Joliet is ready to again treat Kay Jays in the real Kay Jay fashion at this annual sports gathering of good-fellowship. The association officials are ready to welcome all bowlers and are at their service.

"To those who do not bowl an invitation is extended to witness the tourney and root for their favorite teams, as well as to meet and greet KSKJ members from all parts."

The tournament will be held at the modern Jahneke Bros. Alleys, 110 E. Webster St., Joliet, Ill.

WELCOME

This coming week-end, April 21, 22 and 23, Joliet, Ill., will be the center of attraction for the KSKJ world, for on those dates the 12th annual Midwest KSKJ bowling tournament will be held here.

It will be the annual manifestation of good-fellowship on the part of bowlers and fans. This year's tournament, according to reports, promises to surpass all previous events, an indication that interest in the Union is mounting.

As the tournament will be held in Joliet, Ill., the birthplace of the KSKJ, I extend in the name of the Supreme Board and myself a cordial welcome to all bowlers and friends and invite all to visit the new KSKJ Home Office.

May all participants and visitors have a most pleasant time in our community, and may the good-fellowship spirit which will be manifested permeate throughout the organization and serve as an inspiration for all future promotions of the Union.

MIDWEST SCORES WITH RECORD-BREAKER; PRIZE LIST HITS $1,074

Joliet, Ill.—The KSKJ has had some grand bowling successes in previous years, but just when it seems that the peak has been reached the new tournaments excel those of former years. This is very much so the case this year.

Joliet this year will be host to 115 teams. There will be 77 five-man teams, 8 past-40 five-man teams and 30 ladies' teams. No other tournament has seen as large a representation of KSKJ bowlers. There are 12 communities represented. Joliet leads with 33 teams. To this is to be added a team from neighboring Rockdale, which makes the Joliet total 34. The Joliet St. Joes have an entry of 10 teams. St. Francis de Sales, is close on their heels with 7 men's and 2 women's teams. The Joliet ladies are well represented by 5 additional teams in St. Genevieve's Society.

Other towns represented are: Milwaukee, 9 teams; South Chicago, 8 teams; Cleveland, 7 teams; Sheboygan, 7 teams; Indianapolis, 5 teams; La Salle, 3 teams, and Aurora, Elmhurst, Ill., and Eveleth, Minn., with one team each.

Cleveland, Indianapolis and Eveleth are especially to be congratulated, for they are coming the greatest distance. The money to be divided in prizes also exceeds that of any previous tournament—$1,074 will be distributed.

Last year's champions who will be defending their titles in this tourney are:

23 QUINTS TO CARRY BANNER FOR WAUKEGAN

Waukegan, Ill. — Twenty-three local teams will participate in the Midwest KSKJ tourney to be held at Joliet this week-end, with the St. Joes, No. 53, contributing 14 teams, St. Mary's, No. 79, five teams and St. Anne's, No. 127, four teams.

The Waukegan-North Chicago quintets and rosters and boosters will be on hand with flying colors, full of the good old KSKJ spirit and pep. Among the teams will be the past-40, regulars, ladies and juveniles, all doing their best to set new championship records in this grand kegling event in the KSKJ 1939 cavalcade of sports and recreation.

KSKJ. Paid Over $7,000,000 in Benefits

BROTHERS ALL TO BOWL FOR JOLIET

Sharing spotlight honors with the Mervar sisters of Sheboygan, Wis., will be the Ramuta brothers, who will also bowl in the Midwest KSKJ bowling tournament billed for Joliet, Ill., this week-end.

The boys recently won the C. Y. O. championship for St. Joseph's Parish and will offer keen competition to all high-score bowlers in the forthcoming tourney.

The entrance of the brother and sister quintets in the tournament is an indication that the KSKJ is truly an organization for the family. There are many potential brother and sister quintets in the Union.

KORENCHAN GROCERS STEAL SHOW AS CHICAGO STEVES' SEASON CLOSURES

Chicago, I.—Parkview Laundry finished six games in front of the second-place Monarch Beers in the final checkup of the Steves' pin league. Third place was taken by Tomazin Tavern, Perko's Inn finished fourth, Korenchan Grocers fifth and Jerin Butchers in the cellar.

Team high-three games was taken by Jerin Butchers with 2639, followed by the Tavern team with 2638, one pin behind the winners. Team high-single game also went to the Butchers with 967 and Tomazin Taverns hit 964 for second high. "Red" Grill, with 644, took high series, while John Zefran, with 641, was second high. Arbanas won high game with 268 and John Zefran again finishing second with 258.

In the final sets the Laundrymen took two games from the Butchers, Bicek hitting 614 for the winners, John Zefran facing the victims with 512.

Perko's Inn won two games from the Monarch Beers. Louie Oblak led the winners with 552, while Kochevar's 527 and Johnny Terselich's 521 were high for the Beers.

Tomazin Tavern won two games from the Korenchan Grocers as "Butch" Kremesec hit 586 and Arbanas came next with 565. "Red" Grill led the losers with 528.

John Korenchan, boss of the Grocers, dressed his four bowlers as clerks, with short aprons, last Tuesday. The aprons had the name of Korenchan Grocers on the front, so that the aprons would really show their meaning.

ADULT DEPARTMENT RATES 119.80% SOLVENCY; JUVENILE LISTED 343.80%

From all indications, the current year is destined to be a memorable one in the history of the Union. Added to the fact that the Union is celebrating its 45th jubilee this year, is the announcement published in last week's Slovenian section that from the date of organization to Feb. 28, 1939, the KSKJ has paid in total benefits $7,033,636.

This huge sum of payments in benefits is evidence that the organization is doing a tremendous good in the fraternal field. The announcement comes at the time of completion of the new KSKJ Home Office Building in Joliet, which stands as a record of the Union's progress and at the same time offers inspiration and assurance that the KSKJ will march on.

Recent figures issued by headquarters reveal that the Adult Department of the Union has a solvency of 119.80 per cent, the highest in the history of the organization; the Juvenile Department is rated with a solvency of 343.80 per cent. The assets of the Union as of Feb. 28, 1939, are about $4,250,000.

The foregoing figures are facts that should be utilized on every occasion in explaining prospective members the status of the Union. These facts are especially significant, because they appear at a time when the organization is in the midst of a huge membership drive—the KSKJ Building Campaign.

BRIDGEPORT JAYS' SOCIAL SEASON OPENS WITH HOP

Bridgeport, O. — Another grand, merry time has been planned for April 22, at which time the Bridgeport Kay Jay Booster Club will hold its first post-Easter dance in the Boyds-ville Hall.

L. Sendoski will strike up the music at 8 p. m., and from then on it will be one pleasant Kay Jay time. All local Kay Jays and all the Pennsylvania boosters are cordially invited. Arrangements for the dance are being made by a committee headed by Frances Grecher, chairman, and Joseph Sherrell.

ON with the Tournaments with the Membership Drive.

PROPOSE SOFTBALL CIRCUIT FOR CLEVELAND KSKJ JUNIORS

Cleveland, O.—A fast junior softball league in this district can be made a reality for all local KSKJ lodges, is the belief of the St. Vitus' Booster Club, No. 25.

The club is desirous of forming a league which would be open to all local KSKJ lodges, and only boys 18 years of age or under would be eligible to play.

This proposal to form a league is directed to the following lodges: St. Lawrence, No. 63; St. Joseph, No. 146; St. Joseph, No. 169; SS. Cyril and Methodius, No. 191; Holy Family, No. 207; Holy Cross, No. 214; St. Stephen, No. 224; Christ the King, No. 226; St. George, No. 248; St. Anthony de Padua, No. 251, and all lodges in the vicinity of Cleveland. Girl teams are also invited.

Those interested are asked to get in touch with Anthony Strnisa Jr., Cleveland District Athletic Board member, 14704 Thames Ave., as soon as possible.

EAST MEET ENTRIES MOUNT, PLEASE OFFICIALS; PRIZES ARE DISPLAYED

Lorain, O.—The ever increasing number of entrants for the coming KSKJ bowling tournament to be held here April 28, 29 and 30, is indeed gratifying to the tournament officials. Entries received from distant cities, and from cities that had no representation at previous meets clearly indicate the keen interest in the forthcoming tournament. It is pleasing to report that Youngstown and Canonsburg are sending teams to the tourney, and indications point that other cities have already formed their teams.

Prizes at Hand

One of the most pleasing developments of the past week was the receipt of the trophies for the winners of the five-man event for both the women and men. The co-operation that the Athletic Board officials are giving to the tourney is indeed heartening and gives the various committeemen an added incentive to work. To the winner of the men's five-man event, the prize is a golden replica of a bowling ball. It is, without a question, one of the most beautiful trophies. The golden ball measures 10 inches in diameter and is mounted on a beautiful base.

To the winner of the women's five-woman event, the prize is a golden statue of a woman bowler, who is in the act of making a delivery on the alleys. The winners of this trophy will certainly be proud to display it in their lodge rooms. In addition to the two prizes mentioned there are nu-

CHICAGO STEVES TO BID STRONG FOR MIDWEST HONORS WITH 12 QUINTS

Chicago, Ill.—St. Stephen's Society will send 12 teams to compete in the 12th Midwest bowling tournament to be held this coming week-end in Joliet. It is reported that many bowling fans will take in this great annual bowling classic to cheer for their favorite local team. A few of these teams have a grand opportunity to finish in the prize money, as there are many fine bowlers who will carry the hope of winning a championship for their great lodge.

Forties Strong

The past-40 team has one of the strongest quintets yet to partake in any KSKJ meet. "Bill" Arbanas is expected to carry the burden for the old gents as will "U. S." Strohen, for he has been a consistent bowler all season. The other boys on the team are John Kochevar, captain of the team, John "Mac" Terselich, always a good tournament bowler, and John "Lefty" Kramarich, also a good man to have when needed. The Chicago fans are expecting this team to take the honors in their class.

Strong Quint

Parkview Laundry will send Frank Bicek, Frank Grill, Frank Kosmach, John Zefran and Vic Kremesec to make a strong bid for the title in the five-man regular division. This all-star team has an average of 864. The men picked on this team are the best in the St. Stephen's bowling league.

Speeders in Lineup

The Five Speed Kings must be given some consideration as they have a well balanced team that should perform in great style this coming week-end. Along with Captain Joe Zefran, the Speed Kings have Henry Basco, Johnny Terselich, Anthony Darovic and Ed
