LETO (VOLUME) XXII.

VESTI IZ SLOVENSKIH NASELBIN

Rev. Francis Turk, slovenski župnik v San Franciscu, Cal., ki ga je pred kratkim zadel mrtvoud v desno roko med mašo, se je sedaj vrnil iz bolnišnice. Stanje se mu je toliko izboljšalo, da zopet lahko opravlja cerkvena opravila.

Kot razvidno iz zapisnika glavnega odbora JSKJ, je položil resignacijo kot pomožni tajnik Louis Kompare iz Pittsburgha, Pa. Na njegovo mesto je bil nastavljen Louis Bavdek iz Pennsylvanije, ki je dobil na zadnji konvenciji za Komparetom največ glasov.

V soboto 22. febr. sta obhajala v Milwaukee srebrno poroko Mr. in Mrs. Frank in Elizabeta Lah. Istočasno pa se je tudi vršila poroka njune hčerke Lydije z Rudy Starcem. Obe družini sti v naselbini zelo poznani.

V Towerju, Minn., kandidirajo za razne občinske urade rojaki Tony Zalar, Steve Brula in Anton Jenavtič. Volitve bodo 10. marca.

Pred okrožnim častnim sodiščem v Aurori, Minn., je prejel odklikovanje več oseb za razne zasluge. Med temi so bili tudi sledeči rojaki: Robert Prosen, William Kraker, Henry Zganjar, John Tušar, Joe Regina in Edvard Kobe.

V Aurori, Minn., je umrla žena Frank Campe, stara 60 let, ki zapušta moža in štiri sinove. Mary Progar, bivajoča v Fin-

Nemiri v Tokiju

Dne 26. februarja so vojaški pučisti v Tokiju na Japonskem hoteli strmoglaviti vladu in uvesti vojaško diktaturo. Okrog 900 upornih vojakov in nekaj mladih častnikov je napadlo ministrsko palačo in umorilo finančnega ministra Takekashija, admirala Mekoto Sasta in generala Watanabe. Sprva se je mislilo, da je tudi ministrski predsednik Okada umorjen; pa je bil to njegov svak Natsuo. Tri dni je bilo proglašeno nad mestom vojno stanje. Uporniki so se končno udali ker jim je cesar Hirohito odjubil, da ne bodo kaznovani, izvzemši častnikov. Ti bodo prisiljeni izvršiti "harakiri" (razparanje trebuha), ki je častna smrt na Japonskem.

Pozor avtomobilisti v Ohio!

Z večerajšnjim dnem, 2. marca se je začelo prodajati nove licenčne tablice za lastnike avtov v državi Ohio ker bo veljavnost starih tablic potekla 1. aprila t. l. Stroški ali pristojbina istih znaša sledeče: Za avte z do 25 konjskih sil močnim motorjem $7.00; od 25 do 31, $10.00; za večje motorje pa $16.

eyville, Pa., je prejela žalostno vest, da sti v Kamnici pri Novem mestu umrli v teku dobrih dveh tednov njena teta in njena mati Marija Burkar.

John Špetič, Barberton, Ohio, je dobil v tovarni hudo poškodbo. Več ton težko železo je zdrsnilo in ga pritisnilo na stopalo in mu tudi odtrgalo palec.

V Barbertonu je umrl tudi poznani rojak Frank Grbec, ki je bil zadnjih 15 let pravi siromak. Pred leti je imel očesno bolezen in naposled mu je vid skoraj popolnoma opešal, da je le s težavo lezel okoli. Tam zapušta vdovo, sina in hčer. Doma je bil nekje od Iga.

V Pueblo, Colo., je umrl rojak Anton Peček star 41 let, doma iz Krke na Dolenjskem. Zapušta ženo in tri otroke.

V Barbertonu je preminula Ana Smuk, stara 59 let, doma iz Kamnika pri Preserju blizu Ljubljane. V Ameriki je bila 36 let in zapušta družino.

Na Coleraine, Minn., je umrla Ana Murnik, stara 63 let. Zapustila je hčer in sina. Murnikova družina se je priselila v Minnesoto že leta 1893. Stari Murnik je bil šaljiv gojenec ter je vedel dosti povedati o starih časih. Pred mnogimi leti je družini ubilo sina v rudniku, njegov brat John pa je imel svoje šase obširno trgovino na Evelatih.

Družinska tragedija v slovenski naselbini

Willard, Wis. — Kakor blisk se je raznesla v torek 18. febr. vest po tukajšnji naselbini, da je isti dan v zgodnjih jutranjih urah zadal rojak Frank Lajkovič smrtonosen strel svoji lastni ženi Agati in svojemu triletnemu sinku Evgenu.

Lajkovič star 56 let, je zadnja leta več ali manj kazal znake zmedenosti. Vsled njegovih praznih domišljanj je morala uboga žena večkrat iskati zavetja pri drugih ljudeh. Poleg zmedenega moža je bilo nje-ovo življenje prava križevna pot, katero pa je iz ljubezni do svoje družine vdano hodila, trpela in molčala. Težke slutnje so ji bile vedno pred očmi, dobro se zavedajoč, kaj vse se lahko pripeti. Le žal, da jo slutnje niso varale, ker zgoraj omenjenega dne je postala s svojim sinčkom vred žrtev strašne družinske tragedije. Mož se nahaja sedaj v okrajnem zaporu.

Pokojna je bila stara 46 let, doma od Loškega potoka pri Ribnici. Zapušta osem otrok v starosti od 7 mesecev do 24 let. Spadala je k Materinemu društvu in k društvu Marije Pomagaj št. 174, KSKJ. — Pogreb obeh žrtev se je vršil v petek 21. februarja s sv. mašo. Pokopana je bila na farno pokopališče sv. Družine.

PRISSELJEVANJE IZ JUGOSLAVIJE

Kako težko je dandanes dobiti priseljeniško viso, je najbolj razvidno iz priseljeniških podatkov za fiskalno leto, ki se je končalo 30. junija 1935. Docim skupne kvote raznih dežel znašajo 153,774, le 17,291 kvotnih viz je bilo izdanih, kar je le 11 proc. razpoložljivega števila. Povrh teh kvotnih viz pa je bilo izdanih 20,855 izvenkvotnih viz za žene in otroke ameriških državljanov.

Kvota za Jugoslavijo znaša 845, na račun katere kvote pa je bilo izdanih 246 viz, 29 proc. Izvenkvotnih viz za Jugoslavo- ne pa je bilo 258.

Pri tem pa se je vzgal prvi naboj z groznim učinkom. Mlademu gospodarju Petku Janezu iz Lazov št. 5 je zdrobilo levo nogo, levo roko raztrgalo in mu prizadelo hude poškodbe po obrazu in očeh. Njegovemu svaku Maroltu Francetu z Brega pri Stari cerkvi, ki mu je prišel pomagat, pa je zdrobilo desno oko, levo pa ranilo. Prvo pomoč je ponesrečenemu nudil ribniški zdravnik dr. Kožuh. GLAVNE POSTOJANKE NAŠE JEDNOTE

Marljiv in skrben farmar se kaj rad poda kako poletno delo popoldne gledat kako mu na polju setev kaže, keke sadove objubuje drevesa v sadovnjaku, ali kako kažejo trte v gostih brajdah.

Tako je tudi ponosen na krepka in močna drevesa v svojem sadovnjaku, katera je že pred toliko leti sam zasadil in vcepil.

Kakor ta kmetič, tako je tudi naša podporna mati (KSKJ) vesela in ponosna na svoje velike njive in sadna drevesa, saj deluje že 42 let na društvenem polju v korist svojega članstva.

V tem oziru bi lahko rekli, da ima naša Jednota 186 vrto, nji ali dreves, manjših, srednjih in večjih. Vsaka njivica in njiva ji je draga, toda posebno je pa ponosna na sledečih sedem društev, katera smatra za svoje glavne postojanke.

Table listing youth branches (Mladinski oddelek) with names and member counts: Društvo sv. Jožefa št. 169 Cleveland, O. (585 čl.), Društvo sv. Franciška št. 29, Joliet, Ill. (380 čl.), etc.

Teh pet društev šteje skupaj 3398 članov odraslega oddelka. Vseh gornjih 7 društev šteje v obeh oddelkih 5216 članov, ali dobro šestino celokupnega Jednotinega članstva.

Seveda krono vseh drugih nosi prvo društvo, sv. Jožefa št. 169 ker je šlo 1. jan. t. l. 1411 skupnega članstva. To društvo je skoro trikrat tako veliko kolikršna je bila naša Jednota 1. junija 1894, ko je začela posloovati s 533 člani, spadajočim k 12 društvom.

MLEČNE JEDI POMAGAJO ZDRAVJU

Mleko in mlečni produkti bi morali tvoriti velik del dnevne prehrane odraslih oseb in otrok, kajti ne le vsebujejo mnogo izmed vitaminov, bistveno potrebnih za zdravje, marveč so bogati na drugih zdravonosnih snoveh.

Privaditi se k pitju mleka je dobro za mlade in stare. Gospodinja, ki servira mlečne jedi, prispeva k zdravju svoje družine. Mlečni produkti vsebujejo mleko, maslo in vsako vrsto sira.

Mleko in mlečni produkti preskrbujejo telo z mnogovrednimi protejini v taki obliki, ki se posebno podaja za potrebe telesa. Otroci bi morali ponajveč dobivati kvart mleka vsak dan ali enakovredno količino.

Zdravniki smatrajo večino mleka kot najpopolnejše hranilo.

Farmerica pred Washingtonom spomenikom v Washingtonu, D. C. kaži potu: "Kako je pa to da ste kazalec na desni roki izgubili?"

ZADNJI MISIJONI IN SLOVO

(Ponatis iz ljubanskega Slovenca)

Na parniku "Bremen" 6. januarja 1936. — Pol ure po polnoči, 4. jan., je zapustil nemški parnik "Bremen" newyorški pristan. Slovenci so me spremlili na parnik in vztrajali do odhoda na obali, da smo si še zadnjič pomigali in vzkliknili v slovo.

V nedeljo, 22. dec., je bil sklep misijona v župniji sv. Lovrenca, ki jo vodi moj neprekosljivi spremljevalec župnik Oman. Ob polosmih sem imel misijonsko pridigo pri sv. Lovrencu.

23. december je bil dan počitka. Potreben sem ga bil. — Ogledal sem si clevelandsko bogoslovje. Je novo, enonadstropno poslopje z zelo temnimi hodniki, da jih bogoslovci imenujejo "katakombe".

BOŽIČ V AMERIKI

Božič v Združenih državah je dokaj različen od našega doma. Okna hiš okrasijo z vencic, lučkami in božičnimi drevesci. Pri mnogih hišah stoji bogato razsvetljena božična drevesca pred vratmi.

Na praznik sv. Stefana zjutraj sva z gospodom Omanom obiskala še Slovence v Indianapolisu. Naseljenih je 93 družin. Imajo svojo cerkev in solumo, ki jo je blagoslovil leta 1926 prevz. nadškof dr. Jeglič.

SLOVO OD CLEVELANDA

27. decembra zvečer sem bil zopet v Clevelandu, da sem za slovo še Kočevarjem pridigal v njihovi lepi cerkvi sv. Petra.

Udobnost ameriških vlakov je res velika. Z g. Julčtom sva bila namenjena v Scranton, zato sva morala v Buffalo čakati na zvezo od 5 do polde-redil banket, katerega je spetno vodil g. Dolčič iz Dev. Marije v Polju. Ravateljstvo usnjarne je med kosilom oddajalo na radio poseben poluren program v počast mojega obiska.

Le prehitro je minil čas med prijaznimi girardskimi rojaki. Obdarovan s srebrno kupo, katero so mi izročili v spomin na slovensko pridigo pri njih, smo se morali vrniti v Cleveland, da sem imel ob pol sedmih zvečer zaključno misijonsko pridigo pri sv. Lovrencu.

23. december je bil dan počitka. Potreben sem ga bil. — Ogledal sem si clevelandsko bogoslovje. Je novo, enonadstropno poslopje z zelo temnimi hodniki, da jih bogoslovci imenujejo "katakombe".

V New Yorku je mnogo znamenitosti. Ogledal sem si samo dve: Empire State Bldg., najvišje poslopje, ki ima 102 nadstropja. Z vrha je lep razgled čez ves New York.

27. decembra zvečer sem bil zopet v Clevelandu, da sem za slovo še Kočevarjem pridigal v njihovi lepi cerkvi sv. Petra. Ob tej priliki sem se seznanil z novim clevelandskim županom Burtonom.

lepo cerkev. Znan je po vsej Ameriki in še čez. Ni pa bilo toliko časa, da bi mogel obiskati v bližini se nahajajoče niagararske slapove, mudilo se je v Forest City, kjer me je s svojimi verniki pričakoval g. župnik Jevnik.

ZADNJI MISIJON

Že na postaji v Scrantonu so me čakali cerkveni odborniki in zastopniki društev ter me spremlili v Forest City skozi velike rudnike najboljšega ameriškega (antracit) premoga. Le žal, da je prav za novo leto došla vest, da ostane eden največjih premogovnikov v Forest City zaprt, s tem je izgubilo tudi kakih dvesto slovenskih družin kruh in bo moralo iti drugam iskat dela in zaslužka.

V NEW YORKU

Že ob 7. zjutraj sem s svojim spremljevalcem zasedel avto, da sem prišel ob poldesetih v New York k slovenski cerkvi sv. Cirila, kjer je bila ob 10 prilig in slovesna sv. maša; zvečer ob pol osmih zopet pridiga, pete litanije in potem poslovljni koncert v cerkveni dvorani.

V PARIZU

Pariz, 10. januarja. Za poldrug dan sem se ustavil še v Parizu, da izpolnim razgledovanje od septembra. — V spremstvu našega bogoslovca Staneta Natlačena sem si ogledal delovanje farne patronaže in katoliških skavtov.

Tudi francosko KTD "Maison de la Bonne Presse" sem si ogledal in njeno veliko tiskarno. Vodijo jo asumpcionisti. Stavci v tiskarni so same ženske pod vodstvom redovnic.

nik Jevnik, ki me je ob mojem prihodu v New York prvi povabil, a prišel je zadnji na vrsto. Sem pač prišel v Ameriko ljudi obiskat, ne pa naravnih čudežev gledat.

Ponoči ni bilo miru. Opolnoči zazvonijo vsi zvonovi, zatulijo vse tovarniške sirene, ljudje streljajo, ropotajo, pojo po ulicah: tako sprejmejo novo leto.

Kako sodim o Slovencih v Ameriki? I. Jasno je, da slovensčine ne bodo mogli obdržati v polni meri. A slovenskega duha morejo in bodo obdržali, če bo stik s staro domovino in njeno kulturo vedno dovolj živahen.

7 zlitino najrazličnejših narodnosti, iz katerih se sestavlja ameriški narod. Cital sem govorniki odličnega Amerikanca Marshalla (ali je senator ali guverner, se ne spomnim več), v katerem je izrazil sledeče mnenje: Noben Amerikanec naj ne pozabi, kakšnega rodu in narodnosti so bili njegovi predniki.

2. V verskem oziru so ameriški Slovenci mnogo boljši, kakor pa jih v starem kraju sodimo. Seveda je nekaj nilega sadu tudi na slovenskem drevesu v Ameriki, prav kakor doma.

OČETOVA KRIVDA

Povest. Spisal F.—t.

"Saj vem, jutri na vse zgo- daj bo že potrkal na vrata, po- tem bo povedal, kaj ga je za- držalo; čemu naj si belim glavo in visim pokoncu," se potolaži naposled žena in leže v poste- ljo. Po bliskovo se je raznesla po Javorju novica o krvavih sledih pri bukvi in o krvavem slamniku. Tudi k Mlinarjevim je dospela. Čez pol ure stoji okoli ubi- tega Mlinarja cela gruča Javorčanov. Sled se je le predo- bro poznala in ni ga bilo težko najti; ropar je zavlekel mrtve- ca kakih trideset metrov s po- ti v goščavo. Tudi grčat, težek jesenov kol je ležal nedaleč v praproti. Mlinarica bolešno lihti, otroci jokajo na glas in sosedje in znanci s strahom in solznimi očmi zmagujejo z gla- vami. Listnice ni, mošnje, v kateri je imel včeraj precej drobiža, kot je pravil sosed, s katerim sta bila skupaj v pro- dajalni, tudi ne, ure ni, še no- daj se niso dobili pri njem. Molek leži poleg njega v mokrem vres- ju. Glava je strašno razbita. "Kdo ga je?" se povprašujejo prestrašeni Javorčani.

ganov. Kuril in kuhali so cell dan in tudi nočili ondi, drugo jutro pa odšli. Kam, tega ni vedel nihče; kdo se pač meni za cigane, glavna stvar je, da gredo naprej in daleč proč, čim prej, tem bolje. Javorčanom in tudi sodnji se je takoj vcepila misel in vobče so govorili: ciga- ni so ga.

Tolpo ciganov so čez nekaj dni res zasačili, a dokazalo se je, da so bili ob času umora v devet ur oddaljeni vasi, in iz- pustili so jih. Vsa vas je žalovala za Mlinarjem. Domači so hodili po- trti in žalost se je naselila v njihov dom. Gospodarilo se je sicer po starem tiru naprej, a njega, ki je poprej vse vodil, ni bilo. Prav občutno je zadelo mater in vso hišo, ko je moral jeseni Janez v vojake. Dobili so hlapca in delali in gospoda- rili naprej, kakor so pač vedeli in znali.

Francoska bukev je dobila znamenje. Z živimi barvami je naslikal domač umetnik, Žni- darjev Pepe iz sosedne vasi, po poklicu ne urar, ne brivec-ne klepar, ne slikar, vendar vse to v eni in isti osebi, na štiriogla- to desko na tleh v krivi ležeče- ga moža; ropar s širokokraj- nim, zmečkanim in na oči po- tegnutim klobukom ter z dol- gim nožem v roki pa beži v goščavo. Na vsej sliki je bila francoska bukev še najbolj za- deta, ker je bila — zelena. Kdor je šel mimo znamenja, se je odkril in prekrizal, in ta in oni je zmollil še očenaš za dušo ne- srečnega pokojnika. Zvečer so hodili mimo le pogumnejši mo- že, a še tem so se ježili lasje, in vsakdo je pospešil korake, ko je imel bukev za sabo. Počasi so pozabljali na umor, le nekaka mora je ležala še dalj časa nad vasjo. Čas sicer cel- rane, a Mlinarjevim jih je cel- lil počasi, počasi. Svetna pra- vica ni mogla kaznovati krivca- ker ga ni dobila. Bode li res ušel zasluženi kazni?

III. Stajerjev Jurij je živel kot poprej le na dneve ni hodil več. Popravljal je svojo kočo, ker se je bil namenil na zimo v Sla- vonijo med drvjarje ter hotel ondi ostati nekaj let, da si kaj zasluži. Postal je nekako zam- išljen in samovoj; kaj čuda, če hoče človek zapustiti svoj domači, rodni kraj ter se po- dati v tuj, nepoznan svet, kjer ga čakajo neznane nevarnosti; kaj ne bi bil zamišljen?

Koncem vinotoka se odpravi na pot. Mati ga prekriza in po- kropi z blagoslovljeno vodo, kot ga je kropila in križala tedaj, ko je šel v vojake, in še po- prej kot malega otroke. De- bele solzne kaplje polze dobri starki po velem licu, ko ga pro- si, naj ne pozabi Boga, ko mu naroča, katere molitvice naj mo- li vsak dan zjutraj, katere zve- čer. Daje mu nauke kako naj varčuje, kako se ogiblje slabi- tovaršiji, — revica, ki sama ni poznala prav nič tujega sveta, saj ni bila še dalje iz Javorja, kot na božji poti na Brezjah. Nanjo naj nikar čisto ne poza- bi, saj bo molila zanj; da ji pošlje le kak goldinar, potrebu- je itak ne dosti, le za malo ka- ve in sladkorja naj ji pošlje, saj tako ne bo več dolgo.

Jurij je nemo zrl v tla in ki- mal, da bode. Poda ji roko in nestrpno stopi čez domači prag. Pri sosedih in znancih se ni bil poslovil nikoder. Z veliko culo v roki koraka skozi vas ter hiti proti mestu. Na potu dojde potovok. Zgo- vorna ženica ga kmalu zaplete v pogovor, da nehoti stopa po- časneje ž njo. Pri francoski bukvi se potovka Jera prekriza in na glas moli očenaš za ranje- ga Mlinarja; tudi Jurij se od- krije in moli.

"Poglej, Jurij," pravi na to Jera, "rada molim, v cerkev ra- da hodim, verujem, da je Bog včlen, vsega vedem, milostiv in vse, vse lastnosti božje, a da bi bil tako pravičen, kakor pravijo naš gospod župnik, vendar ne morem verjeti. Zakaj ne kaznuje morilca, zakaj ga ne pokaže, da ga obesimo? Zakaj? Oh, pri spovedi me bodo gospod župnik zopet kregali, kot so me zadnjič, ko sem povedala, da se vedno jezim na Evo, ki nam je zaprla raj, in da to ni prav, da moramo vsi trpeti zaradi njenega jabolka; kaj pa je to, če je snedla to ali ono jabolko? Pa so rekli gospod, da je Bog že vedel, kaj dela, in da je prav tako, kot je naredil, pa da se ne sme nikoli reči, da to ni prav, kar On stori. In danes sem zopet rekla, da Bog ne de- la prav. O, pa že ve, kaj dela! Ne bode mu ušel, ropar grdi, naj še je skril kamorkoli. On ga dobi! Poslej bom pristavila vselej še po en očenaš, ko poj- dem mimo znamenja, da bi Bog roparja kmalu pokazal, da ga prej zapro ali obesimo. Koli- krat mi je ranjki napil s kozar- cem mošta, in največ pisem sem znosila njemu, in največ kraj- carjev dobila od njega. Kako so že rekli zadnjič gospod žup- nik, še tedaj ko so pravili o tistem bogatinu, ki je jedel na veliki petek meso in se norče- val iz Boga, kaj ne: 'Bog ne plačuje vsake sobote, a dolžan nikomur ne ostane.'

Interest Mounts in Pennsy Circles; See New Teams Lined Up At Coming Bowling Meet

Canonsburg, Pa.—The forthcoming biggest duckpin tournament in the KSKJ is gradually stirring some latent spirit in KSKJ circles of western Pennsylvania. Word has already been received from many of the lodges and among them are many newcomers. It is hoped that this spirit and desired interest in the coming tourney in Pittsburgh the week-end of April 18 and 19 will continue, if for no other reason than to keep the name of KSKJ before the Slavic race in this country.

The 32-team record of last year is expected to be shattered this year and should exceed well over 40 teams. One of the worthy features of the coming tournament is the immense effort that is being put forth by the athletic directors in this section of country. With the help of "Tammy" Sumic and Frances Lokar, a well planned program is being arranged. The spirit shown by them is probably unequalled and every effort of KSKJ members should help these directors of the Athletic Board to put over the best bowling tournament in KSKJ's history.

The attitude taken by the Supreme Board and the editor of Our Page should also not be forgotten. Without their assistance no athletic program can be a success. The co-operative spirit shown by these officials is certainly very encouraging to the Associated Booster Clubs of Western Pennsylvania. This feature of the program is greatly appreciated, and may it continue to even greater proportions.

MIDWEST CAGE TOURNEY NOW HISTORY WILL REMAIN AS PLEASANT MEMORY FOR YEARS

Waukegan, Ill.—The third midwest KSKJ basketball tournament is now history, but its memory lingers on and will continue to linger on in years to come. New history has been made not only in the fact that it was the first KSKJ basketball tourney in South Chicago, but also in the successful completion of the tourney and splendid hospitality of South Chicago, and new history in the new champs, the St. Marys of Waukegan, girls, and the St. Michaels of South Chicago, and new history in the third successful victory of the St. Florian's lights, a record that may stand forever.

The tourney was well attended in spite of the unfavorable weather. True enough the two days were much warmer than what we had during the days of the zero spell, but the streets were still so icy and slushy that traveling by automobile was possible only to those in the near neighborhood.

The largest attendance of all was from Waukegan. Besides the six teams entered there were many others, so that approximately 100 Waukeganites took in the tourney. Outstanding among these was the supreme president of the KSKJ, Mr. Frank Opeka. The secretary of the league, Miss Mary Grom of Waukegan, was very much on the job, transcribing scores and taking care of the business of the association. Other supreme officers were Mr. Joseph Zalar, the supreme secretary; Steve Vertin, assistant secretary; Louis Zeleznikar, supreme treasurer, and Mrs. Likovich of the Board of Trustees.

The clergy were likewise very well represented. The spiritual director, the Rev. John Plevnik, was there in person, accompanied by his assistant, the Rev. George Kuzma. The new Chicago pastor, the Rev. Fr. Muren, came to view his very first basketball game in the St. Florian-St. Michael heavyweight game. Of course, yours truly was likewise there, but all the arrangements had been so carefully planned by the St. Florians and the conduction of the games was run off so smoothly that his business there resolved itself in to that of a spectator.

The Athletic Board had a good representation. Mr. Frank Banich, chairman, was present from the very beginning and stayed to the very end. Other members of the board were Miss Pauline Treven of Waukegan, Miss Josephine Ramuta of Joliet, Mr. John Starcevic of South Chicago. Another not

THE YOUNG LADY AND MAN OF TODAY

It is the young lady and man who do not know and realize that God will reward the good in heaven and punish the wicked in hell.

No doubt your parents have thought and planned for your future. They are wondering what you are going to be in the commercial world. But are they wondering what is absolutely essential to lead a Christian life in this world?

This child moreover is in constant danger of being carried off and devoured by the evil spirit who is forever roaming through this wilderness of a world savagely seeking them.

There are ever so many cases of parents who claim there is no necessity of their daughter's or son's joining the Young Ladies' Sodality or the Young Men's Holy Name Society.

The lukewarm parents usually say: My son or daughter are just as good as those belonging to sodalities. Would you hold back that Spouse of our Lord and let him stray? Would you not rather introduce him to the flock of the One Who is the Way, the Truth and the Light, and direct them to the rich pasture provided for them by their Divine Shepherd?

These moral principles must be taught and directed first in the lives of our parents. Then only we can expect ideal Christian young ladies and men in our parish sodalities.

ERROR BRINGS IN MAIL

Cleveland, O.—A KSKJ tournament, regardless of what type or in what part of the country, always brings in a stack of mail to Our Page.

With all the tourneys out of the way, it was strange last week that the correspondence reached a new peak, all to the delight of the editor. But, pshaw! Bah! And whatnot! It all turned out to be reminders that a streamer headline in last week's issue had an error in spelling. For those who did not see it, the word campaign was spelled capmaign.

The error (and maybe we did it on purpose to fix the campaign in the reader's mind) proves that quite a few people read the Our Page. It also proved that if a doctor makes a mistake, as the saying goes, he buries it. If a dentist makes a mistake, he can always jerk a few more teeth until he finds the right one. If the baker makes a mistake you'll eat potica instead of bread, or vice versa. If the butcher makes a mistake in the weight, he'll add his thumb the next time, etc., etc. etc. But when an editor makes a mistake, the whole world knows about it, and what's more, it doesn't lose any time in telling him about it.

Now, dear reader, it's up to you to figure it out. Was the error intentional or not?

JOLIET HEADS INSTALLED BY SUPREME OFFICER

Joliet, Ill.—With Supreme Secretary Joseph Zalar acting as installing officer, the Joliet KSKJ Booster Club introduced its 1936 officers in the installation program held Sunday, Feb. 24.

The new officers are: Martin Videtich, president; Joseph Ursich, vice president; Josephine Ramuta, financial secretary; Anton Golobitsh, recording secretary; Julius Skedel, treasurer; William Perush, sergeant-at-arms; Joseph Terlep and William Petan, trustees; Rose C. Miss Bernice Skrinar was recently admitted and is happy to be the newest booster in the club.

The next meeting, on March 30, will be controlled and managed by Chairman John Churnovich and a committee composed of Lud Kuhar, Mary Gorsich, Frederick Horvath, Joseph Terlep, Margaret Terlep, Ann Ramutta, Helen Skrinar, Ann Shray and Mary Schultz. Refreshments will be served, a fact that should assure a large attendance.

STEPHENS WILL SUPPORT PIN MEET

Chicago, Ill.—The ninth annual tournament of the Midwest KSKJ Bowling Association which will be held in Chicago on Saturday, April 25, and Sunday, April 26, got off to a flying start when the local committee held its first meeting on Tuesday, Feb. 25.

If the enthusiasm shown at this session means anything, it looks like this will be the greatest tournament in the history of the association.

The lodges represented at this meeting were St. Stephen's, No. 1; St. Aloysius', No. 47, and St. Mary's, No. 78. The committee is composed of John Terselich Sr., chairman, Frank Grill Sr., Anton Bogolin, Edward Sinkovec, John Kochevar, Urban Strahan, of St. Stephen's; Peter Chamazar, Frank Kozek Sr., Joseph Kremesec Sr., Joseph Korenchan, Frank Ribich, Leo Mladic Jr., of St. Aloysius'; Mrs. Caroline Pichman, Mrs. Pauline Kobal, Mrs. Lillian Kozek, Mrs. Mary Starc and Miss Elsie Wencel, of St. Mary's. Frank Banich, athletic commissioner of the KSKJ, was also in attendance. The committee, as selected, is composed of members who have previously given up their time to aid in all undertakings of the KSKJ, but they, by themselves, without the support and help of all individual members can accomplish nothing.

The whole-hearted co-operation of all is necessary to bring the tournament to a successful conclusion and to assure all visitors to Chicago that their every requisite will be taken care of. This is no small undertaking, and any member wishing to assist can do so by contacting the chairman or any members of the committee. Tourney Booster.

PIN NOT SAME AS PEN

Cleveland, O.—When an Our Page reporter goes out to get a story, he gets nosy at all costs.

Reports come pouring into the Our Page office that the Mary Magdalene bowlers were cutting all kinds of figures on the bowling alleys in preparation for the eastern KSKJ bowling meet to be held in Cleveland May 2 and 3.

To get the story, the reporter had to sign up to bowl with the ladies, and he did. Now, as every bowler knows, form is an asset. But our hard working scribe, bent in two because of tedious pen-pushing and typewriter pounding, was lagging in the score as if he had been struck by a truck. Honors are honors, and no O. P. reporter, especially a sports reporter, is supposed to be versatile in all sports. This particular reporter knows a little about bowling and he dared to bowl with the ladies. The contest turned out to be a race between him and Mrs. Helen Mally, president of the Mary Magdalene Society, ace booster and one of the peppiest ladies this reporter has ever seen.

Speaking of noses and form, this reporter heard that it was a good idea to bend a little when the delivery was made. He did. Mrs. Mally, age 62, kept setting the pace; the reporter kept bending until he scraped the alley with his nose. The more that the scribe's nose polished the alleys the more Mrs. Mally kept on registering strikes. She tallied five strikes to beat the reporter, 120 to 115.

Other bowlerets tallied the following: Mrs. Tanko 500, Molly Gornik 454, Mrs. Harold Lausche 437, Mrs. J. Slapnik 412, Mrs. Meglich 337, Mrs. Zupan 336 and Ann Zupan 255. The latter scores are for three games.

The O. P. reporter lined up for the first game and checked out—because his nose was too sore.

EASTER DUTY

Cleveland, O.—The women members of St. Joseph's Society, No. 169, will perform their Easter duty this week-end. Confessions will be heard Saturday afternoon and evening, March 7. The members are to receive Holy Communion at the 8 o'clock Mass Sunday, March 8, in St. Mary's Church, Holmes Ave.

THANK YOU

The basketball players of the St. Mary's, No. 79, heavyweight, lightweight and girls' teams take this opportunity to thank the good people of South Chicago who opened their homes to us during the recent midwest KSKJ basketball tournament.

We appreciate every consideration and the congenial hospitality shown us during our stay in their city.

We also extend congratulations to all the champions: the St. Michael heavyweights, the St. Florian lights and the St. Mary's girls.

Manager St. Mary's Basketball Team.

9th Midwest Pin Meet on Way; Committees Prep; Chicago Societies Combine to Aid

Chicago, Ill.—The ninth midwest KSKJ bowling tournament to be held here April 25 and 26 will be given full support by the young and old bowlers of St. Stephen's Society.

The young members know that promoting this tournament will be for their success in baseball and basketball. While the elder members cannot get a great deal from sports, they like to see the youngsters advance and succeed in all sports. The old members have always extended a helping hand to the young members and will do likewise in the coming tourney. Don't forget, when this tournament comes bowling along, we expect to see a large crowd representing St. Stephen's Society, No. 1 KSKJ.

It has been rumored that the

CELEBRATION HUGE SUCCESS

Girard, O.—The anniversary dance of St. Patrick's Society, No. 250, held recently, was a huge success, and now the formerly depleted treasury has been refilled.

The society is grateful to Mr. Leksan for the wonderful co-operation he and his bus load of Barberton Kay Jays extended. Thanks is also due to our new friends from Massillon, O.; Bessemer, Pa.; Youngstown, Niles, Warren, Cleveland, and Wheatland, Pa., for attending our anniversary celebration.

The crowd was well pleased with the music played by the Kristoff Brothers from Cleveland. It was a crowd—and no maybe about it—the hall was packed.

Sincere thanks is extended to the committee who worked hard to make this dance a success. Any group that worked as hard as our committee deserves the praise of any chairman.

Now that the big event is over, it does not mean that the local society will fall asleep. The society intends to go forward until it is the biggest and best society in this vicinity.

In the name of the committee and myself, I thank Mr. Leksan, his Barbertonians and all who in any way aided in our success. It is our hope that our editor will recuperate to be with us at our future affairs.

Knight Tours Big City to Get News of Members

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Happiness reigns supreme in the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Ribic with the arrival of a bundle of pink happiness. The stork paid this perfect couple a visit during the past week and made John and Olga the proud daddy and mother of a cute baby girl. As you all know, John is and has been for the past five years the financial secretary of the Knights of Trinity.

John Supancic, the bashful member of the Knights, finally got up enough courage to pop the question. His future better half, Josephine Gerbec, answered yes, and so we have another member who will in the near future join the quartet of married members of the lodge. More power to you, John, and when the great day comes, I'm sure that we'll be on hand to tie a can or an old shoe on the back of your limousine.

Whenever or wherever you meet Fred Arko, these days, the conversation will sooner or later turn to the Golden Gloves tournament. Why? Shhh! It's a secret. Freddie has joined the fighting game as a second, and if he uses the same tactics as he uses in running the Knights of Trinity Society, as president, how can his fighters help but win? I'm sure that if Fred sticks to the game he will some day become popular and famous as a second. Right now he is attached to the Catholic Boys' Club, where he is being coached along by some good handlers, and when he learns the ropes I'm sure, in fact I know, he'll make good. Anytime I have a fight, Freddie, I want no one but you in my corner.

The knights are not forgetting Frank Gasperic, who is at the present time in St. Anthony's Hospital. Every week-end one or two of the boys are on hand to cheer him up. Frank was taken sick while at a CCC camp, but from the latest reports he is getting better, and soon he will be able to join the knights in their various enterprises. The knights, to a man, are all wishing him a speedy recovery.

PLAN TO ATTEND—BOOST KSKJ SPORTS.

A WILL — A WAY WITH PRACTICE

Cleveland, O.—It takes some people a lifetime to smash a bowling record, and some people never ring up a record, but such is not the case of Mrs. Harold Lausche, bowler on the Mary Magdalene team.

Last Tuesday night, the regular ladies' night on the Norwood alleys, Mrs. Lausche cut down the pins in true champion style for a total of 631 for three games, and set a new ladies' high three for the alleys. Her counts were 201, 227 and 203.

Mrs. Lausche is a regular bowler on the Mary Magdalene team that will be entered in the eastern KSKJ tournament.

The booster's accomplishment may be a consolation to other lady bowlers who are a bit timid because of their low scores. Mrs. Lausche has been bowling for eight months only. Perhaps her instructor, Harold, one of the proprietors of the alleys and a star bowler on the St. Vitus KSKJ team, is partly responsible for her good performance on the alleys.

TOURNEY TATTLER

Aside from the regular routine of a basketball tournament there is also the social aspect of a junior gathering, for the midwest basketball tournament is becoming, in reality, a second junior convention. The social side was the success that every South Chicago tournament has been in the past—a very happy commingling among the brothers and sisters of our KSKJ.

The ladies' teams put on a brilliant showing, playing a swift game all through the tournament. The attractive suits worn by the St. Mary's girls of Waukegan were quite classy as was the keen basket shooting of that cute little blond athlete on the team.

A topic of interest and some excitement was the mysterious girl who appeared at the tourney with Frank Tushek, deputy county clerk of Will County.

There was quite an impromptu gathering at Kucic's Saturday evening after the festivities in St. George's Hall. Games were played, with the Pretzel King and Queen winning all events. A close second came Love and Kisses Finnegan. Trailing along were the creamy snow balls decorating the wall over a certain booth. No! There wasn't a directory in it either!

Chick Kuzma and Lud Kuhar were enjoying themselves immensely. Chick tried to originate a new game and the gang wondered how it all came out. (Wonder where you had to blow?) Maybe the final ending came at the Exchange.

Lillian Kochevar of Joliet was interested in the basketball game, but more interested in the gentleman who appeared at the tournament in her company. She left Saturday night (alone?).

The clergy was very well represented at this tournament, including the Rev. John Plevnik, spiritual director of the KSKJ; the Rev. M. J. Butala, president of the Midwest Basketball Association; the Rev. George Kuzma of Joliet and the Rev. Anselm Murn, pastor of St. George's Parish in South Chicago.

In conclusion was the sad adieu on Sunday evening when midwest boosters said "goodby and toodle-oo" until the time of the midwest bowling tournament, to be staged April 25 and 26, and to which the St. Stephen's Boosters will be the hosts.

PLAN TWO-DAY EVENT TO MARK 35TH JUBILEE OF BROOKLYN SOCIETY

Brooklyn, N. Y.—The St. Joseph's Society, No. 57, will celebrate its 35th anniversary with a two-day celebration, April 18 and 19 of this year. In commemoration of this event we will have a journal printed.

All members are hereby urged to solicit a few ads. All information such as the cost of the ads, etc., is given on the contact forms, which were mailed to every member last month. If you have none, write to the secretary and he will gladly send you some. You are also asked to solicit the names of your friends and acquaintances to be printed in the journal as boosters of our lodge, at the cost of 5 cents per name. If any more detailed information is desired, kindly communicate with the secretary. To date we have heard from six members regarding the ads, so, members, get on the job and don't let the same few persons do all the work. Do your share and get at least one ad, a few boosters, and get on the honor roll for this journal.

KNIGHTS PREPARE FOR EASTERN BOWLING MEET

Brooklyn, N. Y.—With the proposed match game with Forest City, Pa., as their objective and the coming bowling tournament in Cleveland as their goal, the Knights of Trinity are burning up the alleys.

Bowling is still the chief athletic sport and the boys are on hand every Tuesday night at the Slovenian Auditorium.

The tournament in Cleveland will be the Knights' first try at KSKJ competition, and they want to be sure of making a half-way decent showing. More particulars on the proposed trip to the Lake Erie city will be announced later.

GIVES AIDS FOR PIN MEETS

While the K. S. K. J. bowling tournaments are just around the corner, it wouldn't seem a bit too opportune to bring forward a few points for consideration — a few necessities that seem to be advisable — items that have come up from year to year as these tournaments have been held.

One of the most important that the groups sponsoring the tournaments should take notice of is the delay on the last day of the tournament. Whatever program is planned for that last evening is always delayed because of a delay on the bowling alleys, a slow up among the bowlers who have to wait for a change in alleys.

Several of the larger bowling enterprises that have taken place in the last few years have remedied this condition by allowing the bowlers to bowl three games on the first two alleys that are allotted them. No one knows until the bowling day what alleys they are to bowl on. This method was carried out quite proficiently in the 1935 Chicago Evening American Bowling Tournament and achieved so great a success in saving time that it has been deemed advisable to follow the same plan for 1936.

Considering the social element connected with a K. S. K. J. bowling tournament and the cry for time saving on Sunday, it is quite probable that a plan could be worked out where the ads; Joseph Klun, 10; Jack Zagar, 5; Matthew Curl, 2; Joseph Zagar, 2, and Vincent Stempel, 1. Now, come on, members, let's have more for the next time. We have 116 members in the lodge and everybody should be on this honor roll. Bring your ads and boosters to our next meeting Saturday, March 7, at 8 p. m.

All members behind with their monthly assessments are asked to make payment as soon as possible. The society will not pay your dues. Because the lodge has not been very strict on the subject of prompt payments, more attention will be devoted to the payment of assessments because it has reached a point of interest. Pay your dues and be free from suspension. Joseph J. Klun,

Meeting Notice

Brooklyn, N. Y.—Members of Blessed Virgin of Help Society, No. 184, are reminded that our next regular meeting will be held Sunday, March 8, in the American Slovenian Auditorium at 3 p. m. sharp.

All members in arrears with their monthly assessments are urged to pay up as soon as possible. The society will not pay dues for any member. As you know, the lodge has been very lenient in the past, but things have come to a crisis, and stricter measures will have to be applied. The law of the KSKJ is: if you do not pay your dues, you are automatically suspended from the Union, and if the society paid your dues for you a certain length of time, you cannot become a member of any society in the KSKJ until you have paid up what you owe to the society to which you belonged.

So please pay your dues on time, and let us do NO suspending. The members who have not paid for their books do so at the next meeting. Members who have not received the new assessment books are asked to attend the meeting and obtain one. Anna Klun, Sec'y.

3D BASKETBALL MEET DEFINITELY DECIDES CAGE KINGS, QUEENS

Waukegan, Ill.—The midwest basketball meet successfully ended with three championships definitely decided.

The first championship laurel was bestowed on the St. Mary's girls of Waukegan, who were victorious in defeating Joliet's St. Mary's quintet, 30 to 12, in a fast, tumbling game. The exhibition of fine offensive and defensive playing on the part of the Waukegan lassies resulted in their triumph over the Joliet girls.

In the lightweight final contest Joliet opened fast, but their opponents, St. Florians, determined to cop at least one championship, came back faster with a determination that can not be denied. The stress of the game seemed to make Joliet nervous. Their shooting became erratic, while St. Florians continued to add to their lead. The 17 to 7 score at the

Chicago, Ill.—When the St. Stephen's heavies played their game in the basketball tourney the spectators thought that the Steves had a galloping ghost on their teams after seeing "Bids" Mladich dribble the length of the floor in a few seconds. Louie Rabetz, member of the Steves heavies took a street car ride the opposite direction. "Old-Time" Anzel also went the opposite direction, when leaving the dance hall. Both lads went south instead of going north. After arriving at the car barns they transferred to a southbound car which carried them to 115th St. Although they did get home before daylight, the boys were not pleased with the result of losing their way during the night hours, so they returned the following day to see whether they could find their way home when the sun was shining. Joe Piber also had the time of his life trying to find a tire on 22d St. and Wentworth.

MIDWEST TOURNEY NOW HISTORY

Even those not present had their hearts in South Chicago as witness this telegram:

Calumet Park Gym, 98th St. & Lake Michigan—Pozdravljamo ni vsi igralkice na 3 ti basket ball tekmi zelimo mnogo uspeha in bratske luberzmi in da zanaprej se boly delujete za korist svojih druste kakor tudi za KSKJ Jednota.

Dn. Marije Pomagaj St. 79 KSKJ.

John Cankar, president

Ignac Grom, secretary

John Hladnik, treasurer.

The tournament presented many surprises. The greatest surprise of all was the speed and ability of the new champs, the St. Michaels. Their scoring spree of 60, 48 and 50 points made against such strong opponents as St. Marys of Waukegan, St. Florians and Joliet, respectively, is a record which will not be surpassed for quite awhile unless they do it themselves. There was no doubt that they were the class of the tourney. It is to be regretted that the St. Florians did not have all the playing strength which they displayed the last two tourneys, for they alone could have given the new champs the true test. The second most outstanding development of the tourney was the great improvement of the Milwaukee team. Had they more weight and height their sparkling play would have perhaps half in favor of the Florians became 29 to 13 at the close of the third period, and the final tally, 37 to 20, gave the Florians honor and privilege of claiming the lightweight championship award.

Lights Repeat

The St. Michael's hoopsters of South Chicago were picked to wind up victors in the second tournament, but the eligibility rule prevented them in using the players they intended to present. In a year's time there was no question or problem of eligibility before them, so this year St. Michael's team came forth to put on the display of playing ability for which they are reputed.

Mikes Favorites

A close contest was expected in their first game with St. Marys of Waukegan, but the speed and shooting technique of the South Chicagoans proved a revelation. The St. Mary's team, finalists in the last two contests, succumbed to a 60 to 23 score.

Speed Aids Waukeganites

The St. Florians appeared before their strong contenders in two tussles. The second battle proved to be the fiercest of the entire carnival. St. Florians put on a game exhibition, but were outclassed by the St. Michaels, and their championship of the last two years gave way to the new contenders for the highest of KSKJ basketball honors.

The final game of the tourney gave further proof that the St. Michaels are the class of the midwest KSKJ cagers. In their game with Joliet, they claimed a 19-point lead at the close of the half. The third period opened with Joliet making a more determined effort to stay in the game, but the new victors were not to be denied. The final whistle ended the game with the Mikes leading 50 to 26.

FIVE OF A KIND BUT NOT BROTHERS

Ambridge, Pa.—KSKJ athletic teams are apparently family affairs, if writeups in Our Page are a standard. That means that Pa, Ma, Brother and Sis all play on the team; or at times there are all sisters on a team, or all brothers.

Spiritually, all members of a team are brothers in the KSKJ, but they need not necessarily eat at the same table or sleep in the same house. Mr. Ripley of the you-can-believe-it facts undoubtedly will be informed of a case uncovered by Percy H. Dougherty, local sports editor, who saw the significance of five Rosenbergers on the Ambridge KSKJ lineup when the locals met the Pitt Jays—not one of them brothers. They are Rudy, Eddie, Gussie, Joe and Johnny, related and all live in different houses within a square of Second St. and Maplewood Ave.

To make the fact a doubleheader, the team would still retain its record had not Jimmie, another Rosenberger, the sixth member of the squad, and not a brother, given up the game.
