(Continued from page 3) operate. Mrs. Mollie Zalar, secretary of Queen of Holy Rosary Lodge, volunteered to assist. Expressions of congratulations and praise were made to Western Star No. 16 for their fine work in the Crusade. While we hoped to retain the Trophy, it was taken away from us by No. 16 at Pueblo. Good work! Our handclasp of friendship is extended, but with it a challenge that we will be out to get the Trophy back in this year.

Sister Martha Popovich was elected as our Juvenile Supervisor for the United Comrades' Juv. Branch. Parent and juveniles are requested to give her support and cooperation in our juvenile activities and progress.

Brother John Gerbec, one of our loyal members who has been active from the time he was president of the United Comrades and in our lodge ever since, was given a sendoff as he will shortly leave for the U. S. Army. Well wishes were extended to our faithful Johnnie.

Reported on the sick list were Elizabeth Shire, Elvira Yakick and Austin Joyce. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yurko and Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Tezak each received a "bundle from Heaven"—each a bouncing baby boy. Congratulations!

The wife of one of our officers is sporting a gorgeous fur coat. "What do you suppose I went rabbit hunting for so much this winter," said this officer. And did you notice one of our members wearing a sparkling diamond ring on "that certain finger?" She doesn't say so, but we surmise the wedding bells will ring in June.

Our greetings and best wishes are extended to our good friend, Mr. Matt J. Kochevar, who is confined in the Park View Hospital, Pueblo, Colorado. In conclusion, the writer makes a patriotic appeal to all Trail Blazers, and readers of this page, to BUY A SHARE IN AMERICA. Your dimes and quarters and dollars will help win the war. Let's keep "Our America" free by buying Defense Bonds and Stamps.

UNITED COMRADES JUVENILE BRANCH NO. 1

Denver, Colo. February 22nd, Washington's Birthday, will be the date of your next meeting. We advise all you kiddies in Denver belonging to the WSA to be at the Slovenian Hall, 4468 Wash. St., at 1:30 in the afternoon. Your new officers will be installed, and since it will be the 12th Anniversary of your Branch, the Supervisors may have something special for you to enjoy.

"Gee, today is Wednesday! Boy, how this week is going fast"—that was a familiar saying during our week's stay in Chicago. Yes, it was Wednesday and we were headed for another great day. After recess of the adult convention, we got out and had pictures taken. Pictures galore! Photos, Snapshots, Movies! Yee Gods, you should see them. And, I wasn't sleeping on our big picture either, I was talking and the sun was in my eyes. (That's for those who insisted that I had my eyes closed.) Well, any way, we had a morning full of fun. Then after lunch, rather about 2:30 P. M. we all got ready to go on a sightseeing trip around Chicago. Boy, it was a trip. After what we saw (that, Kathy will tell you) we began to like Chicago all the more. As you will be informed, we all had a good time. After we got back from the trip about 5:30 P. M., we fooled around, then went home to get ready for our banquet. I can still picture you in that "Tux" Mr. Jurjovec, it was so becoming. While we were eating, Leo Jr. was the camera man. Then followed a fine program with many entertainers and speeches from our Supreme Officers. The program lasted till about 12:30 A. M. and then boy! oh boy! But here I'll have to censor myself abit, 'cause it would be telling. Well, anyway, we were all having a heck of a good time. After a while, Mr. Jersin came in and wanted the key to go home to bed. Mr. Jurjovec wanted to be naughty and started to tease him about having powder on his face. I still don't get it, but I guess it's alright. Mr. Jersin, who was sleepy and tired, so he claimed, finally got the key. After a while we all departed for home and then for bed.

The next morning, oh! Well you know what usually happens the day after. But I managed. During the morning we listened in on the last meeting of the adult convention and afterwards did various other things as Kathryn will tell you, then at 3:30 P. M. we had our last meeting. Our meetings, by the way, were held in St. Stephen's School, say, about the 2nd floor. While I'm on the subject, Mr. Jersin got in there and couldn't find the way out. That was a good one. Well anyway after the day was over and evening rolled by, we got ready for the Moonlight Skyline Cruise on Lake Michigan. Now we're headed for something and truly we were. After leaving the Hall about 8:00 P. M., we arrived at Navy Pier, and at 10:00 P. M. boarded the ship S. S. City of Grand Rapids. This was really a treat. On the ship there was dancing and many other activities, but Claire and I were out on deck taking in the skyline. The tall, lit up buildings, looked simply beautiful in the dark night, from way out on the lake. No kidding, it was too beautiful for words. We had a really wonderful time while it lasted and after we pulled to shore, we found ourselves shaking hands Goodbye to those delegates who were leaving in the morning. My heart began to sink to think that in a few days I too will be on my way home. We got back to the hall about 2:00 A. M. I went home to bed, 'cause the night before was just a little too much,—oh, don't get me wrong I can take it, but???

SLOVENIAN GARDENS AT DENVER, COLO.

The former M and F Buffet at 4464 Washington St. (Slovenian Home) is now known as the "Slovenian Gardens", owned and operated by the Slovenian Home, Inc. Mike Popovich, who recently moved from So. Chicago to make his permanent home in Denver, is the manager in charge. John Slavec, a well-known oldtimer, is his assistant.

The Slovenian Gardens will serve a large variety of "soft", "medium" and "hard" drinks. All kinds of foods, cigars, tobaccos, candies, and all such things usually found in places of this type are available.

Out-of-town visitors are invited to make the Slovenian Home their headquarters when stopping in Denver. Members of the eight local lodges belonging to the Slovenian Home, Inc., and their friends, are invited and urged to patronize their own business whenever possible.

St. Martins, Queen of Holy Rosary and Trail Blazers Lodges of the W. S. A. are shareholders in the Home. Approximately a dozen lodges, several unions and clubs meet in and use the Slovenian Hall for public and private functions. It is a popular spot of the community and the city.
