Ta amendentata pravico sprejeti v novem pravilu in postopek, ki bi regulirale industrije, postave, ki so prevedene ali regulirale v političnem delu. Med 50. in 59. letom pride na vrsto zgodovina ali filozofija; med 60. in 69. letom življepispi, po 80. letu pa spet poezija.

Dr. C. G. Abbot s Smithsonian instituta je znanstvenik, ki se bavi z vplivom sonca na vremenske izpomembe. V sončni gorkoti vidi neizčrpen vir energije, katere pa sedaj še ne znamo prav izkoristiti. Vsekakor je znanost v tem oziru že toliko napredovala, da je popolnoma upanje, da bo v dogledni bodočnosti mogoče izrabljati sončno gorkoto za proizvajanje energije. Po njegovem mnenju se bodo v bodočnosti narodi bojevali za suhe in puste puščave, kakor se sedaj bojujejo za oljna polja. Vroča puščave, kjer je vedno jasno vreme, bodo najboljši prostori za izrabljanje sončne energije.

Za bolezen imenovan "angina pectoris" je medicinska šola univerze v Marylandu iznašla dober lek. Neki drugi lek za omenjeno bolezen, ki je baje tudi zelo uspešen, je iznašel dr. James C. Munch v Philadelphia. Dotični lek se že uporablja v nekaterih bolnišnicah v New Yorku, Santa Barbari, Rochesteru in Philadelphiji.

BENJAMIN FRANKLIN

Prvi tukaj rojeni Američan, ki je dosegel svetovni slavenost, je bil Benjamin Franklin. Nobena zdvodina Amerike v 18. stoletju ni popolna brez večkratnega navajanja njegovega imena. O njem se je veliko pisalo v vseh jezikih sveta. Aliniti najbolj poveličevalni opis ne more govoriti boljše kot njegov enostavni životopis.

Rodil se je dne 17. januarja 1706 in umrl je več kot 84 let kasneje. Bil je najmlajši izmed sedemnajstih otrok bostonskega svečarja in postal je zaporedno tiskar, časnikar, diplomat, državnik in filozof, odličen na vsakem polju. Zaslovel je najprej kot tiskar in časnikar in velik je bil njegov vpliv. Potom svojih člankov v "Philadelphia Gazette" je uspel ustanoviti prvo gasilsko društvo, prvo javno knjižnico in visoko šolo, ki se je potem razvila v sedanjo University of Pennsylvania.

Ko je bil le 26 let star, je Franklin izdal svoj nesmrtni "Almanack" pod pseudonimom Richard Sanders ali "Poor Richard." Bila je to prva izdaja ameriškega tiska, ki je zaslovela v inczemstvu. Nikaka knjiga ni bila prevedena v toliko jezikov in uživala tako dolgotrajno popularnost kot Franklinov Almanah — le ena sama druga knjiga jo v tem prekaša, namreč biblija. Izdal je svoj Almanah vsako leto do svojega 52. leta, in veliko ljudi sveta je pričakovalo vsako leto to izdajo z večjo aktivnostjo mišic pa je "ataxia."

Nobena omenjenih bolezni ni prav paraliza.

Neizkušeni osebi se zdi paraliza neka nerednost mišic, v resnici pa je nerednost v živčni regulaciji mišic. Paraliza je vsled tega vedno vidna, dočim je vzrok iste vedno neviden. Živčna energija, ki kontrolira mišice, izvira iz živčnih celic v možganah, potuje od tam dolje po hrbitenicu in iz iste v živčnih razstraskih v mišicah. Ta živčna zveza se zamore poškodovati ali priti v nered kjerko na svoji črti. Poškodbe na različnih točkah povzročajo različnih vrst paralizo.

V resnici sta samo dve splačni vrsti paralize: ohlapna in krčevita. Krčevita paraliza se izraža v trdosti paraliziranega dela telesa, ki je trd in napet. Mišice so stalno v stanju skrenja in ne morejo popustiti ali odjenjati. Oseba s tako paralizo ima paralizirani del telesa v delni kontroli, v resnejših slučajih pa ga sploh ne more kontroliратi. Ohlapna paraliza pa je prej imenovana prav nasprotnega tipa. Mišice so pri tej paralizi v ohlapnem stanju in nimajo moči, da bi se skrčile. Paralizirani del telesa visi hrom in ohlapen.

Paraliza je vselej povzročena po kakšni poškodbi živčnega tkiva. Ta poškodboda lahko pride od infekcije, na primer pri vnetju možganske mrene ali pri tvorih. Dalje lahko pride od poškodovane lobanje ali hrbitenice; lahko izhaja iz kravativske pretrganja krvne žile pri visokem krvnem pritisku; more izhajati iz zastrupljenja s plinom ali alkoholom; lahko celo nastane vsled kakakega novega izrastka, na primer raka, v katerikoli obliki. Infekcija živčnega sistema dokazuje, da je bil napaden od bolezen povzročajočih bakterij, kakor na primer od jetike ali sifilida. Vsekakor se dobijo mnogi slučaji možganskih obolenj, pri katerih ni paralize.

Ko se je revolucionarna vojna razvijala, je Benjamin Franklin čim dalje bolj postavljal za ves svet simbol "novega sveta," stremecega po osvobodenju. Vsi borce za svobodo širok sveta — Francozi, Poljaki, Nemci, Škandinavci — prihajali so k njemu, da mu ponudijo svojo pomoč. Ravno njegovemu delovanju so se imele kolonije, boreče se proti tedanjim največjim velesili na svetu, zahvaliti, da je Francija in da so takci taki dobrovoljci, kot Pu-laski, Kosciusko, von Steuben in drugi, prišli Ameriki v pomoc.

Ko se je povrnil iz Francije,

PARALIZA ALI MRTVOUD

(Piše dr. F. J. Arch, vrhovni zdravnik J. S. K. Jednote)

Za večino ljudi ima izraz paraliza nedolgočen pomen. Nekaterim pomeni paraliza otrpenje dela roke ali noge ali obeh, drugim pomeni bolezni, ki pride kot epidemija, včasih z visokim krvnim pritiskom, včasih pa s počasnim razvojem. Zdravnikom je pa ta bolezen znamenje, da je nekaj pokvarjenega v živčnem sistemu.

Paralize je več vrst. Nekateri se v ljudskej jeziku označajo kot otroška paraliza, kapočna paraliza, splošna paraliza itd. Pri mnogih izmed navedenih oblik bolezni se ne more govoriti o pravi paralizi. Kadarkad zdravnik rabi izraz paraliza (paralysis) označa s tem neizmožnost gibanja kakih mišic ali skupine mišic. Kadarkad pa drugi ljudje govorijo o paralizi, ji večkrat priključijo druge znake živčnega obolenja. Pri zdravnikih je tresenje rok ali nog drgatalica (tremor), neobčutljivost konca uda je "hyperesthesia," šibkost ali popolna onemoglost je "paresis" pomanjkanje sodelovanja v aktivnosti mišic pa je "ataxia."

Nobena omenjenih bolezni ni prav paraliza. Zimsko krmiljenje ptic je v takem času na mestu in pripovedljivo. Ni treba, da se to krmiljenje vrši iz gole sentimentalnosti do drobnih krilatev, ki jih ima rad vsak povprečni človek. Tako krmiljenje producira tudi gotovo gospodarsko korist. Ptice se priljubijo kraj, kjer so v najhujši zimi mogle dobiti hrano, pa se jih držijo tudi spomladni in poleti. Tekom spomladni in poletja uničijo te ptice neštete tisoče škodljivih mrčesov, ki so največji sovražniki vrtov in farm. Posbeno dosti drobnega mrčesa uničijo ptice ob času pitanja mladičev, ki so vedno 'ačni.'

Pa tudi v zimskem času opravijo ptice marsikatero dobro delo na naših vrtovih s pobiranjem mrčesnih jajčec, ki so skriti v razpokah drevesnega lubja ali enostavno prilepljeni na vejice dreves, grmičja ali suhih stebel inoletnih rastlin. Ptice pozobljejo tudi mnogo sečenja razstraskih v mišicah. Ta živčna zveza se zamore poškodovati ali priti v nered kjerko na svoji črti. Poškodbe na različnih točkah povzročajo različnih vrst paralizo.

Sodišče ga je obsodilo na 10 mesecev strogega zapora, po odsluženem kazni pa bo izgnan iz Jugoslavije.

"Pa brez zamere" ... Nedavno je sedel na zatožni klopi 25 letni posestniški sin Jožef Kureš iz Škol, ker je meseca oktobra težko poškodoval posestniškega sina Stefana Bergleza. V neki gostilni so fantje pili. Radi zapitka so se spoprijeli, toda pozneje pobotali. Ko so zapuščali gostilno, je Stefan Berglez pri slovesu še dejal Josipu Kurešu "Pa brez zamere." Tedaj pa je Kureš, ki je bil z Berglezom v sovraštvu, oddal iz samokresa na Berglezova strelna. Berglez je obtičala krogla v prsnem košu, v mariborskem bolnišnici pa so mu rešili življenie.

Kureš je v svojem zagovoru navajal, da je pač streljal, ker je iz neke Berglezove kretnje domnevral, da ga hoče napasti. Senat je razpravio v svrhu zaslisanja nekaterih novih prič preložil.

O KRMLJENJU PTIC

(Piše dr. F. J. Arch, vrhovni zdravnik J. S. K. Jednote)

Zimskem času, ko sneg pokrije zemljo, pogine zaradi poškodovanja hrane mnogo ptic. Večina ptic se sicer iz naših krajev umakne zimski gori jug, toda nekatera vrste vztrajajo v svojih domovinskih krajevih in se morajo trdo boriti za eksistenco. Med njimi so tudi ptice, ki so za polja in vrtve zelo koristne.

Ta ptice si na en ali drugi način najdejo živež, dokler je izvor lesa iz Jugoslavije v Italijo ustavljen, izvor lesa iz Avstrije in Madžarske pa se je znatno povečal, ker se zadnjem enovcem držav v domovino zaradi bolezni. Etiopsko podnebje da je preostro za njegovo zdravje. Za zdravje tisočih italijanskih vojakov ni preostro le etiopski zrak, ampak so preostre tudi etiopske svinčenke, pa se reveži ne morejo izmazati iz službe s takimi izgovori.

V rajhenburško romarsko cerkev je lani v decembri s poslednjo ponarejenega ključa prišel 30-letni delavec Ludvik Blažič iz Zagreba, po rodnu v Trnovega, pristojen pa v Komenu na Krasu. Ukradel je dva zlata ciborija in veliko monštranco v skupni vrednosti 9 tisoč dinarjev. Orožnik pa ga je že drugi dan arretiral, ko je stopil na vlak na Vidmu. Vlomec je prej 12 let služil pri trapistih v Rajhenburgu in je bil končno preoblečen v brata. Ko se je naveličal samostanskega življenja, je pobegnil pred nekaj leti. Zdaj je hotel poznanje razmer v samostanu izrabiti s tatvino. Sodišče ga je obsodilo na 10 mesecev strogega zapora, po odsluženem kazni pa bo izgnan iz Jugoslavije.

Slovenči ameriški letalec Lindbergh se je podal v Anglijo, upajoč, da ga bodo ljudje tam pustili v miru. Samo razglasil naj, da je prišel izterjevati milijarde dolarjev, katere Anglija dolguje Zedinjenim državam iz za zadnje svetovne vojne, pa ga nečen pes ne bo povabil, Quozon, prvi predsednik Filipinov, ki je pred nekaj tedni prevzel vlado, bo imel težko stanje. Pred njim namreč ni bil nobenega predsednika, na katerega bi mogel zvrečati krivdo za razne neprilike mlade države.

V Clevelandu moramo biti veliki gresniki, ker nas že več mesecev ni sonce pošteno obsijošo. Vsekakor pa imajo brezsončni dnevi tudi svojo sončno oziroma dobro stran. Že več mesecev ni v našem mestu nikogar zadeba sončarica, pa tudi muhe in komarji nas ne nadležujejo.

Japonci in Italijani izjavljajo, da je njihova civilizacijska dolžnost okupirati dežele, kjer se ljudstva ne znajo sama vladati. Kdo ve, če ne mislijo zasesti tudi Amerike!

Moderna civilizacija je čudna reč. Izraža se s plačevanjem dolgov prejšnje generacije z izdajanjem bondov, katere bo plačevala bodoča generacija.

Italijanski poslanik v Parizu je baje dejal francoskemu ministru predsedniku, da Italija ne bi nasprotovala mednarodni komisiji, ki bi preiskala razmere v Etiopiji in sestavila mirovni načrt. To da misli, da so Italijani že do grla siti svoje afriške pustolovščine in ubijajo, kako bi se mogli na lep način izvleči iz vroče etiopske kaše.

Leta 1935 so ženske v Zedinjenih državah izdale 200 milijonov dolarjev za raznolikost. Ta denar je bil naravnost prečvrščen. Lepim ženskam ni treba lepotila, grdim pa ne pomaga.

Ameriška vlada je te dni potom Rekonstrukcijske finančne korporacije posodila dvema železniškima družbam čedno vstopito $5,000,000. Niti železniški niti finančni in drugi magnati niso proti temu protestirali, da drugače vedno vpijejo, da mora vlada držati roke proč od "biznesa." Kadar te roke sponzirajo denar v prazne blagajne

AMPLIFYING THE VOICE OF THE ENGLISH SPEAKING MEMBERS

CURRENT THOUGHT

A Momentous Year

In September of this year our Union shall hold its fifth regular quadrennial convention at Cleveland, Ohio. Delegates representing every lodge shall be in attendance to discuss and pass upon whatever changes shall be deemed necessary in our present by-laws, and to map out a policy to be pursued during the next four years. The year 1936 truly is a momentous one for our members. It shall be interesting to observe the number of English-speaking delegates present at the next convention, and what they shall offer on the convention floor. Although the discussions shall be conducted in the Slovene tongue sufficient interpretation shall be made if necessary, to acquaint all English-speaking members with the proceedings.

At the last national SSCU assembly held in Indianapolis, Ind., in 1932, the English-speaking delegates evidently were sufficiently versed in the Slovene tongue to understand the daily sessions, as no protests were registered to the contrary.

During the interval of some eight months which shall elapse between now and September, 1936 what shall be the attitude of our English-speaking members towards the convention? Will they discuss any proposed changes in our by-laws at their regular monthly meetings? Let us hope so.

Judging by the various contributing articles published in the English section of Nova Doba, the year 1936 shall witness a determined effort by several branches to reach new heights in the membership drive.

Electrons Lodge, No. 228, of Cheswick, Pa. inaugurated a novel campaign of its own to increase the number of enrolments. The Electrons expressed a hope that the present rewards offered by our SSCU for securing new members shall remain in effect during 1936.

Athletic programs to be pursued by individual lodges should help considerably in persuading promising candidates for membership; particularly since the sports fund is available to assist locals in promoting athletics and securing new members.

Some individual members are of the opinion that sports play a too prominent part in the lodge's program. They argue that more emphasis should be stressed on the lodge's primary purpose for existence: To promote a brotherly feeling among the members; to impress upon them the paternal insurance idea.

Such a contention is justified if the local members meet only with the expressed view of arranging programs of entertainment, including sports, and place in the background the underlying lodge idea.

However, where sports are engaged merely as an outside attraction, to indicate to the neighborhood that the local SSCU branch is wide awake and active, combined with sufficient discussions of general welfare to the lodge and union at the monthly meetings—then the program of diversified activity is an important element to the local branch.

Common sense teaches us that all members of the lodge cannot play on the basketball and baseball teams. Some are naturally fitted to play the game while others prefer to stand on the sidelines as spectators. Both members and member-spectators play an integral part in the athletic program, since the players need a boost from the spectators, and the latter need the team as a spectacle.

According to the supreme secretary's report published in last week's English section of Nova Doba, several new secretaries were elected for the year 1936. It may follow that perhaps several new faces shall also be seen behind the speaker's tables at the regular monthly lodge meetings.

Those elected to the lodge office for the first time especially shall appreciate the united co-operation of the members. Theirs is not a simple task, and those who have held offices realize the perplexing problems confronting even the experienced administrative board.

Faced with the many details which must be worked out each month, the administrative board appreciates the assistance rendered it by the individual members. And the latter, to their surprise, will find that serving on committees has its compensations in the form of becoming better acquainted with the individuals that make up the lodge.

For Enrolling New Members

Our SSCU offers the following cash awards for securing new members:

- $4.00 for each new member enrolled for a $2,000 death benefit.
- $3.50 for each new member enrolled for a $1,500 death benefit.
- $3.00 for each new member enrolled for a $1,000 death benefit.
- $1.50 for each new member enrolled for a $500 death benefit.
- $1.00 for each new member enrolled for a $250 death benefit.
- 50 cents for each new juvenile member.

School Days Are Here Again

Canonsburg, Pa. — That's what you'll think when you will attend the three-in-one party that is to be sponsored by the Jefferson Collegians Lodge, No. 205, SSCU. This gala affair is to take place on Sunday, Feb. 2, starting at 6:00 p. m. until ?? You can use your own judgement when you would like to go home.

The party will be held at the home of the writer, 504 Griffin Ave. The three doings to take place are as follows:

1—Card games such as euchre, pinochle and bridge will be played and suitable prizes will be awarded to the winner for each one of the games mentioned.

2—The main event of the evening will be the spelling bee contest. By the way has everyone who has heard of this looked into their little brothers or sisters spelling book so that they can brush up on their words and stand a good chance of going home with the title and prize as the party's best speller? There will be two prizes awarded, one for the ladies and one for the men.

3—Believe it or not, free beer will be served from the time the party commences until there is no more. (No awards for beer drinking.)

A delicious party plate will be served some time during the evening. There you have it, ladies and gentlemen, all three big offers for the price of one. The admission is fifty cents for the men and twenty-five cents for the women. A royal good time is in store for all that will be there and if you are not present, you will never forgive yourself for staying away.

Every member bring a friend or two and our motto is: Come one, Come all. I'll be seeing you.

Louis Polaski, Jr., Sec'y.

Searing Unnecessary

It is a long-standing belief that it is necessary to sear the dinner roast if the juices are to be kept in the meat. This is a mistaken idea, according to Eelle Lowe, cookery expert of Iowa State College. Just as moist meat is obtained when cooking is accomplished without searing. Roasts should be cooked uncovered at a temperature of from 300 to 350 degrees Fahrenheit. A higher temperature results in a greater loss of meat juices.

A Dream Come True

By Stan Progar, Pres.,
No. 228, SSCU

Springdale, Pa.—There are times in our life when we all dream of something big—gaining recognition and having people say, "There he goes. Yes, that's him." Oh, yes you have. We all are guilty of this offense. Even so, the determined superintendent of the Russellton coal mine, subsidiary of the Republic Iron and Steel Corp., Robert McVicker.

A Perfect Record

For some time his cherished dream was of completing a year's work with a perfect accident record. Impossible for a coal mine, you may say. No. Not to a determined superintendent. For years he strived to attain this goal. Making safe working conditions for his workers dwelled uppermost in his mind. Meetings held quietly were held throughout the years. Men were compelled to receive first aid training, and criticism for better safety was readily received. "Safety first, then clean coal," was his slogan. Yet as the years rolled by, Bob, as he is called by his employees, waited patiently for his dream to materialize. Little did he know that when the new year approached in 1935 this was to be his year. And when the night shift completed their toils the night of Dec. 31, 1935, without a major injury or fatal accident, the long hoped for time arrived. His dream came true. A perfect accident record.

Cold Coal Facts

During the year 1935, 780 men were on the pay roll. In the 236 work days, 1,236,540 man-hours were worked, which produced 931,832 tons of coal. This was the most coal ever mined at Russellton in a single year.

Only 1,092 man-hours were lost because of minor injuries, such as cuts, bruises and sprains. Of the 780 men, 22 minor injuries were recorded, each with a lost time average of seven days. For each minor accident that occurred, 42,356 tons of coal were mined.

The last fatal accident occurred Oct. 26, 1934. From that day until Jan. 1, 1,092,877 tons of coal were mined without a fatality or a major injury. Coal is still being mined which will undoubtedly heighten the record.

The Russellton mine is claiming an all-time safety record of all mines in the country and hopes to be so recognized by the U. S. government.

Safety Odds

When one stops to consider under what odds the coal miner works, he must take off his hat and salute this record. Every day the coal miner enters the mine under a 10 to 1 odds of coming out scratchless. Dangers lurking about are numerous, so all workers must be alert continuously. To complete a perfect work day, the Russellton mine operates under 7800 to 1 odds. Is it any wonder that we salute Robert McVicker and his co-workers for their marvelous record?

Hawkeye Air-Waves

Ely, Minn.—The St. Barbara's Hawkeyes No. 200, SSCU started the New Year with a bang at their meeting on Friday Jan. 17 at the Slovene home, Ely, Minn.

Reports show that the motion picture "Calm Yourself" sponsored by the Hawkeyes was a success and increased the bank account of the organization to a considerable extent. The revived Hawkeyes made a resolution to lead all SSCU lodges in Ely and probably the lodges of the entire Union on the basis of activity during the ensuing year. The Hawkeye membership deeply resents the rating of Little Stan, member of the Gophers of Ely. In an issue several weeks ago, he rated the Hawkeyes as being the least active of all Ely lodges. I think that we shall prove ourselves otherwise.

Another recording secretary was elected to take the place of Olga Poljance, who resigned the position because of her many various outside activities. Sister Poljance is a reporter for the Ely High Lites, a high school publication, and the Ely Miner, an Ely weekly newspaper, besides being connected with various school activities such as the debate team. Dorothy Merhar was elected to this office.

This makes the final slate of officers for the coming year as follows: Anton Zaverl, president, John Simonich, secretary, Anton Klemensich, treasurer, Dorothy Merhar, recording secretary.

An entertainment committee for the following three months was appointed. This committee consists of Mary Dragosh, chairman, Edward Dragosh, Joe Vidmar, Rose Golob and Elizabeth Mertel. This committee is composed of very active and talented members and we hope to have some fine entertainment at our next meeting and all succeeding ones.

Immediately after the meeting, dancing began to the music of two accordianists, Jerry Lenich and Frank Ezar. A delightful program was also presented. The outstanding features being an amateur night performance by the members and a crooner.

Mr. Jerry Schaefer, the crooner, from Chicago, Ill., rendered several popular hit tunes of the day in a very pleasing manner.

The features of the amateur show were as follows: John Simonich, the idyl of the air waves, also our star reporter, sang that well known ballad "How Dry I Am."

Frank Miklausich, a robust lad who made an attempt to imitate Amos and Andy.

John Stuckel with his splitting jokes would even shame such famous personalities as Eddie Cantor, Joe Penner, and Jack Benny.

We hope to have another of these amateur shows again. Refreshments were then served and dancing continued until Big Ben struck one.

In order to acquaint members of our Union with some of our members this commentator each week will present a short account of some members, activities etc. These articles will be alternated each week between the male and female members of our lodge. This week we will start off with our president, Anton Zaverl.

Anton Zaverl, president of the Hawkeyes, is one of our most prominent and active members. Brother Zaverl graduated from Ely high school in the class of 1933. He is donating his ability to the Hawkeye cause. Tony is a calm, good natured young fellow with a pleasing personality. A person with a great deal of ambition and originality. We think he is the ideal type to bring the Hawkeyes to prominence during this coming year.

Additional news by the sports reporter will also be found in this issue. The next monthly meeting will be held February 21 at the National home at 7:30 p. m. All members be sure to be there.

Dorothy Merhar, Rec. Sec'y.

Colorado Sunshine Dance,

Denver, Colo.—Our January monthly meeting was well attended, I am glad to announce. Above all, I'm pleased to say that all of the new and re-elected officers were present to take their oath. Now all is set for a big 1936 and a bigger Colorado Sunshine Lodge.

When this issue of Nova Doba reaches the Colorado readers it will be Feb. 1. I still have the opportunity to remind our readers of our big anniversary party and dance which will take place on the night of Feb. 1, commencing at 7:30 o'clock.

The committee in charge is carefully attending to everything that is necessary for such an affair. Also all of the members of our lodge are constantly on the job inviting friends personally.

This being a last day notice, we again wish to announce to those whom we may have overlooked that all you have to do is to see one of our members and you will be furnished with an invitation. Everyone must present an invitation before they will be admitted. Don't forget that it will start at 7:30 p. m., the address is 4464 Washington St. and that our date is Feb. 1.

We will be looking for you. Albin J. Petelin, Sec'y, No. 201, SSCU.

With the Pathfinders

Gowanda, N. Y.—On Saturday, Feb. 22, the Pathfinders will conduct a dance at the Slovane Hall in order to increase our sports treasury. We hope to become interested in all branches of sports during the coming year and we hope we can do this without asking for assistance from the Union's sport fund. Within another week we hope to announce the orchestra and other details of the dance. Inasmuch as this is for a very worthy cause, we know that all members of Pathfinders and St. Joseph's lodges will attend. It is rumored that we may possibly have some visitors from Cleveland and we hope this becomes a reality. We wonder if they could by any chance kidnap Frank Sodnikar, who works at the Enakopravost, for he always finds some excuse for not visiting our fair city.

Although winter let loose with all its fury in Gowanda, the Pathfinders went to Forestville for a private party that was fit for a king. This was held after the regular monthly meeting Tuesday, Jan. 21. The howling wind probably frightened many of the old reliable members, as only about thirty made the trip. Louis Andolsek was the last to leave the hall and he packed, pushed and picked 8 in his car. The snow drifts were so numerous that he finally picked out the biggest and landed in the midst. The eight passengers, however, picked up the car and the journey was resumed without further mishap.

Besides dancing to peppy music by Looch Klancer, we listened to speeches by Hobo Victor, Alabama Evans and Ann Strout, the barnyard chorus of Johnny Batchen, the unga dance by Doris Sternisha, and the singing of Jimmy Golcar. Hobo and Johnny had a swell time, they say, chasing Betty, the waitress, around tables, under them, across them and finally disappearing down the hall. We think Johnny must have made good, for he helped her carry the dishes to the kitchen later.

John: You mean that you are going to ride a sleigh all night?

Joe: Why no, John, that is just part of the party. The ride will only last for about two hours. After the ride you will have a nice warm chicken dinner with all the trimmings. After the dinner you have a choice of playing games or to dance.

John: I'll bet you sure can have a good time on one, can't you?

Joe: You bet you can, because we will have none other than Peppy Nanegar to play his trusty accordion for your dancing, and he sure can make it talk.

John: Do you mean that he can really make it talk?

Joe: Well, yes and no, but when you hear him play it, it seems that the words are coming right out from it.

John: Say, won't you tell a fellow when it's going to be? I sure don't want to miss it for the world.

Joe: I believe I will not only tell it to you, but to everyone that reads this paper. It's to be held at Sunshine Riding Academy.

John: You told me that once before.

Joe: Well, excuse me for repeating. The date is to be Feb. 8, at 8 p. m. The admission is 75 cents, and everyone is to meet at the home of Mr. Anton Laurich, 15702 Saranac Rd. Anyone interested please get in touch with any of the following persons: Mr. and Mrs. Anton Laurich, Mrs. Mary Lavrich or Ham and Eggs, for there are only a few reservations left open to your convenience.

John: Thanks, Joe, for the little episode of the coming party. It sure does sound like it will be a lot of fun for the girls and fellows that are going to be there.

Joe: I sure do wish to see it out on Wednesday evening to help the boys climb up the ladder of league standings.

Looking forward to the proposed bowling tournament, an equal chance should be given the girls to win the trophy now held by the George Washington Lodge. At least it is a suggestion in working out the plans for competition.

As a parting word, Pathfinders, be sure to talk about the sports dance to be held on Feb. 22.

Joe:
Jingle bells, jingle bells,
Jingle all the way;
Oh, what fun it is to ride,
On a one-horse open sleigh.

Only think of the fun on a two-horse sleigh.

John: I say, Joe, what is all this singing about a two-horse sleigh? Why, I never heard tell of it.

Joe: What! You didn't, well, you never saw the like of it.

John: What do you mean?

Joe: Now, John, confess and tell me, did you ever go on a sleigh ride with about fifteen couples or so?

John: Well, no, I didn't.

Joe: That sure does explain why you didn't know what I was singing about. Well, here is a brief sketch of one.

John: Come, come, don't have me get all flabbergasted about it. Tell me quick.

Joe: Well, the whole thing in the nutshell is that the Collinwood Boosters are going to hold a sleigh ride party at Sunshine Riding Academy.

John: You mean that you are going to ride a sleigh all night?

Joe: Why no, John, that is just part of the party. The ride will only last for about two hours. After the ride you will have a nice warm chicken dinner with all the trimmings. After the dinner you have a choice of playing games or to dance.

Something Different

Cleveland, O.—The Collinwood Boosters Lodge, No. 188, SSCU, who have not been heard of staging a social affair in the past few months, are coming through with a rather surprising and enjoyable event.

The affair, which was suggested by Rudy Agnich at our last meeting, is to be a sleigh ride. This was greatly approved by all the members present. Some of the invited guests came through with, "Where do you think you are, in Alaska?" To be sure, we looked forward to that before the remarks were made. In case we do not have a white blanket on the ground we will hitch a couple of Dobbins to the hay wagon and call it a hay ride.

The sleigh ride or hay ride (hoping it will be the former) will take place Saturday night, Feb. 8, at the Sunshine Riding Academy, where Rudy Agnich spent his summer pastime riding the horses. He claims it is more fun than shoveling black diamonds. The Sunshine Academy is located at the corner of SOM Center and White Roads, Gates Mill, O., which is approximately eleven miles from our starting place. The whole group shall meet at the home of Tony Laurich, corner E. 157th St. and Saranac Rd. The sleigh ride or hay ride will last two hours, after which refreshments will be served at the house following the ride and the dancing will take place until ???, with room aplenty.

Reservations to this affair must be taken care of before Monday, Feb. 3. Anyone wishing to share in the fun get in touch with acting secretary, Mary Lavrich, or the president, Tony Laurich.

Notices

We now state that we greatly missed the presence of our newly elected secretary, Alice Struna, at our last meeting. Sister Struna, a regular attendant at our meetings and a big help to all our social affairs, has been seriously ill for the past few weeks and is confined to her bed. Friends are invited to visit her at her home.

The Boosters as a group wish you a speedy recovery, Alice.

Received a card from Bro. John Kaplan and family stating that they arrived safely in San Diego, Cal., where he was called to his trade (aeronautics). Brother Kaplan is a member of good standing. Lots of luck, John.

We also wish to congratulate Brother John P. Lunka and Sister Marie Arko on their step to matrimonial life.

You'll be hearing from us again soon.

Say It or Write It

East Palestine, Ohio.—When the doctor leads us to a speedy recovery we usually have much to say in regard to his ability as a physician and so too, with the mechanic who has done a good job on our automobile. But sometimes we fail to show our appreciation towards individuals or bodies of individuals who have the influence which was utilized for our good.

How many of us have been benefited by the SSCU without ever even giving it a boost? Simply a favorable word, written or spoken, can prove our gratitude for what an institution of this type has done for us. There is no better advertisement for an institution than the unsolicited praise of its own clients. Don't merely think favorably of the SSCU, but let the rest of the members and new members know it through the medium of the spoken or written word.

Ancient Giant Forests

Nature doesn't usually do things by halves. It appears that when she creates a giant she surrounds him by giants. At least, this was true 120,000,000 years ago when North America swarmed with dinosaurs. A collection of fossilized cones from giant prehistoric trees now in possession of the Smithsonian Institution shows that when these massive reptiles swallowed in swamps where mountains now stand most of North America was covered with forests of towering sequoias such as are found only in California. During the ages that followed, however, mountains arose cutting off rain from certain sections and killing the redwoods there. Later great glaciers swept down from the north bringing cold that killed all the rest except those on the California coast.

Bury the Hatchet

Gowanda, N. Y.—As I recall it, a friendly argument was started sometime ago between Little Stan of Ely, Minn., and Stan Progar of good old Springdale, Pa. I believe that just in fun Little Stan praised the Minnesota football team, while Progar joined in the merriment by championing the Pittsburgh team. Neither one, I believe, intended to injure the feelings of the other or that they really thought their respective teams were unbeatable.

An article by John Somrock a short time ago assailed the one-sided arguments of Progar. Either Somrock did not join in the humor of the two writers or he skipped over the articles by Little Stan. If the latter is the case he should get back issues of the Nova Doba and enjoy them as I did. Whatever the reason, the article by Somrock in trying to stamp Progar as a poor writer was not good judgment. Nevertheless, as I, too, am an amateur writer, perhaps it is possible that I could not enjoy any writing except in my own class. Maybe I have wasted all my time laughing with Progar. When I read Progar's articles from now on possibly I should try to keep my face devoid of any trace of a smile and slip in a sneer or two.

When Somrock wrote his first article against Progar, I immediately prepared an article in defense of the Pennsylvania amateur. Maybe I shouldn't brag that I had at least a fair argument to upset Somrock. However, I thought that possibly in Somrock we might find another strong supporter of the SSCU. Thus I threw my article into the waste basket hoping that the whole thing would blow over. The result, however, seems to have aroused the ire of other writers.

The Nova Doba should be used to advance the interest in our SSCU and its membership. Far be it to the interest of our SSCU for any member to unfairly criticize another who has been one of its standard bearers. I admire Progar for being able to take it and still come back with the same enthusiasm. I would regret to see all this discourage Somrock, as I am looking forward to future articles by him.

Join with me in telling of the good things of others and passing over the faults unless unavoidable. Let us be cheerful and make others happy, too. This world and its depression has enough disappointments, so why not make the old moon smile when he gets a chance. Don't maliciously pick articles apart as mistakes can be found in anybody's work. Frank Progar, John Somrock, Stan Progar and Little Stan, bury the hatchet, no matter who is at fault, and let's all work for the betterment of our SSCU.
