One of the happiest days in the life of a S.W.U. young member is the day of her "coming out" party; when she is shown in all her beauty and grace. Such a day is soon coming for 8 young ladies of our societies in Cleveland, Ohio. On April 4th, the sixth Debutante Cotillion Ball will be held at the Slovenian Auditorium on St. Clair.

Special guest of the evening will be our National President, Mary Muller.

We salute the hard working committee, the S.W.U. Junior League members and their chairman Carol Globokar.

For information call Carol at 486–2012 or Frances Sietz, 261–2856.

Heartiest felicitations to our 1981 Debs in Cleveland!

First members to enroll as Debutantes are Barbara Harsh of Br. 47 and Gayle Delzoppo of Br. 50.

IMPORTANT NEWS

NO. 6, BARBERTON, OH

Please come to the April 5th meeting. It's very important. PLEASE COME!

We had no meetings in January or February due to bad weather. Please bring you dues books with you. We hope to straighten out the dues and plan for the year ahead.

We wish those who are ill a fast recovery.

Deepest sympathy to the family of Mary Lauter who passed away Jan. 19th. Mary was our Secretary in the early 1970's before our present secretary who is with us now since 1976. We will miss Mary. Our prayers go out to all our bereaved families of departed members. Let's say a prayer for them today.

Remember, the meeting is April 5th, 1981, 2 o'clock at the Slovene Center.

MITZI

In the month of March, the beginning of Lent should encourage us to do something nice for a sick friend, or help a shut-in, or perhaps, spell an overworked mother. With the feeling of inner joy, comes the satisfaction of bringing happiness to someone.

Some of our branches have new officers and I wish them well. They need all the support and good will you can give them.

Branch 38 in Chisholm, among others, is doing a splendid job of enrolling new members; this is the only way to keep our organization strong and our future secure. Also, make an effort to keep your youngsters when they reach age 18. Ann Hodnik is getting some interesting returns from her letters in ZARJA and looks for mail from many branches.

I read with interest the many-fund-raising projects some groups have and wonder that more of you do not get involved. This is what brings people together and binds them with a common interest; Branch 50 is a good example.

I want to wish health and happiness to our SENIOR members, many of them in their 80's and 90's, especially Branch 25. Some branches are paying dues for their over 80 members — what a generous thought!

Regarding our Conference in July, I have written our State Presidents asking them to act as coordinators of their areas. This will make it easier to formulate plans for travel and convenience. We are looking forward to greeting a large crowd of members and friends and promise you an interesting time, July being an ideal time to travel.

Best wish to birthday and anniversary celebrants; many years of health and happiness.

To those members and friends who are ailing, we wish better health; and for the deceased, our prayers are for eternal joy in heaven with God.

May God Walk With You.

NO. 10, CLEVELAND, OH

Hello, ladies! Our Mother of the Year is none other than Ann Stefancic. She is one of our faithful gals, always around to help when help is needed. More on her later. Our officers stayed the same for 1981, as follows:

Ann Markovich, President, Frances Zagar, Vice-President, Sophie Magayna, Secretary and Treasurer, Rezka Ferraccoli, Recording Secretary and Auditors are Mary Kokal and Frances Zagar. Everything else stayed the same. Meetings will be held January, March, May, June, (nothing in July and August), back in September, November and December. Last year was one of the better years for our branch. We lost only 6 members, thank the Lord for that.

Mary Muller

On the sick list we have Josephine Oberstar who at the present time is in Euclid General Hospital, Mrs. Kopac in Aliquippa, PA was also hospitalized and many of our ladies are ill at home. We wish them a speedy recovery.

This year we will have 2 or 3 ladies who will reach 90 years of age and 11 who will be 75 years of age.

For the holidays, instead of having a Christmas Party, we went out to eat and had a lovely time, sang and really enjoyed ourselves. These are the regular ladies who attend

Rev. Athanasius Lovrenčič, O.F.M .:

The Cross is a sign of hope

During the lenten season the cross will be even closer to our hearts and meditation than usual. It was on the cross that Christ atoned for our sins; it was on the cross that He did penance for all of us and paid the price so that we are free and have access to our heavenly Father. The Church is inviting us to meditate on Christ s suffering during the days of lent. But it is not enough just to meditate.

As we are thinking of Christ and His Cross, we start to realize how much He suffered for our redemption. And here is the point of our meditation: if we are serious when we say that we do penance, we must be prepared to suffer too; we must be willing to do what is hard, what is not pleasant to our nature. A few years back, when we heard the word "Lent", at once we had in mind fasting, giving things up. Now-a-days we do not fast much; and yet fasting was always considered by the Church as an excellent way of penance, an effective way to bring God's favor to the members of the Church. Some years back the bishops had to fast the day before they ordained new priests. If fasting was such a good way to obtain God's mercy in years gone by, then it is still a good way today. Here we have a problem: we have to give up something we like, and that hurts. It is here that we prove to ourselves how much are we concerned about our salvation.

Many times people fast because they have to, the doctor prescribes it for them. Here Christ is inviting you to do something that is hard, that you fast and so show God that you are serious about your salvation. No, we do not suggest that you starve or fast when you need strength for your work. On the other side, we all know that many times we eat too much, and to fast would be good not only for the soul but for the body as well.

On Good Friday during the veneration of the Cross you will come up to the altar and kiss the cross and maybe you will say: Thank you, Jesus, for your death on the cross. Wouldn't it be nice if on this occasion you would bring Him a few days when you really fasted and so be able to say:

This was just for you, because you loved me so much.

meetings. Maybe next year more of you can join us.

We will have a nice Mother's Day program and hope more of you can attend.

We surely miss Mary Komidar since she moved to Chesterland; she is pretty far away but has been a faithful member.

Ladies, it's that time of the year again when dues payments are to be made. Look in your book to see what your dues are. As for me collecting at the Slovenian Home, I will only do that four times a year, Jan. 25th, April 25th, July 25th and Sept. 25th. Most of you mail me your dues and I thank you for very much for the stamped addressed envelopes. Thank January's meeting wasn't as well attended as other meetings, but this was understandable with so many members and even officers out with the "flu" that has touched almost all of us for the past two months. We only wish that everyone comes through by March as we all miss seeing you. In February, we had a special treat planned, too.

We still have a good attendance for the most part and last month our meeting was opened with prayer in Slovenian by Frances Plesko. Reports were all read and accepted. The officers were all sworn in by Mary Evanich.

Our Card Party was discussed and prizes and donations will be appreciated. The Card Party will be held on Sunday afternoon at John's Hall, April 26th at two o'clock. We wish to see you and your friends there!

A picnic for the Junior Members was also requested again. There will be more discussion on this once our permit is granted. We are again requesting the same area at Jackson Park. All members are welcome but only the Juniors get the free lunch and games with prizes. If anyone is interested in being on the entertainment committee, please let us hear from you as we always welcome the help.

Mary Debelak, sister of Julia Pesec, is in West Allis Memorial Hospital and Pauline Schweigel is in St. Frances Hospital. I'm sure they would appreciate a visit from anyone of you. Our good wishes and prayers for their welfare are for them as well.

We wish you a happy time in our city and extend our warmest welcome to one and all!

Mary Kiel was not at the meeting so the future bus trips were postponed until she can discuss it with us as she is in charge and does a very good job.

Door prize was given and the numerous gifts donated by our usual generous members were welcome by the lucky winners. The meeting ended with the prayers in English by Stavia Dobersek. Coffee and baked goods were served after all the business was over and "Happy Birthday" was sung to Mary Potisk and Josephine Bertl who donated to the lunch.

Thanks go to Mary Starich, Olga Fredericks, Tillie Russ and Jo Wilhelm who always sees that we are served nicely and all the tables are taken care of, as well as Frances Plesko who usually handles the coffee.

We had more time to play our favorite game and we were all anxious to play as we missed the last month's game because of the Christmas party.

Remember to pray for Rose Potochnik and Mary Rajster who passed away last month. Our sympathy is extended to their families. Mary Bucovnik is the daughter of Mary Rajster.

Let's all try to enroll some new members. We need them.

BR. 13, CONT'D:

wonderful gathering and have Mary Jasina as our honored guest.

That happy look on Dora Simenec can only be attributed to the birth of her two wonderful granddaughters. Yes, daughter, Dorothy Fiynn of Pleasant Hills, is now Mamma of twin daughters, Annie and Katie, such happiness for all. Grandfather is the organist of our Church of the Nativity. This wonderful family are members of Branch No. 13 so we have watched them grow from childhood to becoming mothers. Also it is this close association that makes us all feel happy for this wonderful family. Margaret is now living in San Diego. We wish you all the best ever and happiness to all.

Katie Radovich is at this writing once again in the hospital. This sweet lady has had more than her share of problems; our only living charter member, we pray for her return to good health once again.

President, Jo Aiuto has many plans for this coming year, and asks for the cooperation of each and every member. Pot Luck Lunch will be our first (of course when you read this article our lunch will be but a memory and a good one). Jo has in the working plans for a trip to RENO. Another and successful Luncheon at the Bank. Yes, Jo works hard to keep you interested so let's get in and HELP.....!

Much excitement with the arrangements for our Mother of the Year Breakfast and Mass. Margaret Radosevich will be honored and rightfully so as the Mother of 10 with 2 deceased. She is really representative of this word MOTHER. She is close to her entire family and so willing to bake and cook for her brood; at any given time you can be sure going HOME to Margaret's house is a happy family time. Future information will be given on this happy day.

Happiness is the key to friendship, friendship the key to love. Love one another.

Due to the bad weather, our February 3rd meeting was sparsely attended, but nevertheless we had a fine meeting. Mary Strazisar chaired the meeting as Acting President in the absence of Pauline Krall. Mrs. Krall had an unfortunate accident and broke her hip when she fell on New Year's Eve. Pauline is now recuperating at home and mending well. Best wishes for a speedy recovery! Member Ann Kostrevec is also on the sick list with her knee in a cast after a bad fall. We all wish her a comfortable convalescence during the 5 weeks she'll have her cast, and wish her good health in the future.

Member Frances Streetz and her husband have reached an important milestone in their lives as they celebrated their 50th Golden Wedding Anniversary last September. Since wishes for many more years filled with health and happiness to you both. Congratulations!

We are saddened to report the death of member Amy Mayer, who is the niece of Charter member Molly Legat; condolences to Rose Fajdiga on the loss of her husband; member Ann Vehtelic and her husband Steve are mourning the loss of their grandson; and member Mary Dolsak suffered a personal loss in the sudden death of her brother. Sincerest condolences to the families of the deceased. May they rest in peace.

After this harsh winter, we're all anxiously looking forward to a bright spring. With the coming of the new season, we'll be celebrating 3 months of birthdays with cake and coffee at our March meeting. Hope to see all of our members there!

A short meeting was held. Mrs. Katherine Skul was selected as our Mother of the Year. She is our oldest member and on April 16th she will be 91 years young! Congratulations!

On our sick list was Mary Wolf and a sympathy card was sent to the family of Mary Ryan whom we lost Dec. 30th.

Plans were made for a dinner on May 3rd at 1:00 p.m. at the Hill Top Manor. Reservations must be made by calling 749-1881 or 741-1970. We hope to have a nice Mother's celebration at that time.

The members authorized contributions to the Eveleth Fitzgerald Hospital.

After the meeting, coffee — and was served. The next meeting is March 1st.

Come and celebrate St. Patrick's Day with us. Who knows? There might even be some Green Beer and Corned Beef and Cabbage! Surprise! Surprise!

At our January meeting the white elephant auction was loads of fun and laughter. Thanks to Father Dave who volunteered to be the auctioneer. We promise another, real soon.

Get Well Wishes to Jo Mlakar and Katherine Knez and to many members who are recovering from the flu.

Congratulations to all the Junior members who are actively contributing their talents to school and community. Our Junior Scholastic achievers on the St. Francis Academy 1st Honor Roll are: Ellen Smithberg, Valerie Ogary and Mary Lee Demick. Mary Lee is also president of the St. Agnes Sodality. At the St. Joseph's School Science Fair receiving "Outstanding" awards were Lorraine Ruth and Matt Busse. We certainly are proud of you.

Sympathies to Jo Tezak and Mary Jean on the death of their sister and aunt.

Lottie and John Jevitz traveled to Florida to witness the wedding of their granddaughter JoAnn Christensen and Frank Herrison. May love and happiness fill your life.

Busy these days are Olga Ancel, Mary Anzelc, Diane Govednik and Loretta Grzetich. With their husbands they are coordinating for the 4th year the Slovenian Room-named "Gostilna" for the Joliet Catholic High—St. Francis Academy money-maker known as JUBILATION. This affair is scheduled for the weekends of March 13—14 and March 20—21. We salute their efforts, in preserving Slovenian heritage, our traditions and basically promoting finer Catholic education.

Much success to Magda Simrayh, who has undertaken the overwhelming task as President of Branch No. 2. She is our former Slovenian dance instructress.

Three young mothers have accepted the challenge and hold office on the St. Joseph School Board. Mary Lou Golf, President, Pat Figuroski, Vice—President and Rosemary Konopek Enrollment. Good Luck!

We all rejoice in the freedom of the 52 hostages and President Reagan is included in our prayers.

Thanks to all of our members who continue to bring those delicious desserts to the meeting. We do appreciate it.

March 19, the feast of St. Joseph, is a very special day in Joliet. He is the patron saint of our church. His feast is marked with Pomp and Circumstance...closing of 40 hours devotion, procession, song and bells. To all Josephines, have a Happy Day.

NO. 23, ELY, MN

Winter in northeastern Minnesotawhat is more beautiful than fresh snow on a moon-lit night or frost on all the trees and surrounding areas-a virtual winter wonderland is Ely, Minnesota. Our weather this year has been so unpredictable - we've had balmy +40 degree weather at the end of January when we are usually experiencing r -20 or r -30below zero.

Since my last report in November, our branch has elected new officers, had a beautiful Christmas party, elected a Mother of the Year and are already forming committees to make plans for Minnesota Day to be held in Ely in Sept of 1981.

At the November meeting the following officers were elected for SWU No. 23.

Pre., Margie Preshiren

Vice. Pres., Rose Pucel

Sec., Angela Mobilia

Rec. Sec., Barbara Rosandich

Auditors, Mary Zgonc, Mary Deyak, Mary Starkovich

Reporter, Darlene Nemanich Sunshine Girl, Angela Skaľa The Dawn Club also elected new officers. They are:

Pres., Angela Mobilia Vice. Pres., Gen Erchul Sec., Julie Zgonc Tres., Sally Davidson Auditors, Emma Pucel and Molly Marolt

Sunshine Girl, Mary Starkovich

Ours was a very unique Christmas party. Although Christmas has come and gone, the whole evening was so special I just have to share it with all you fellow members.

It was planned that the program be presented before the Christmas dinner so as to set the mood for the evenings festivities.

A great program written with humorous, joyous and poignant moments, depicted the trip of a daughter's visit to her native Slovenia. The trip started as we sent the daughter off to Slovenia from the U.S. airport. When she arrived she was met by her mother (Mary Ann Skala) and sister (Darlene Nemanich). The daughter (Virgie Ivancich) was presented with red carnations from her relatives along with hugs, kisses and crying.

The story, expertly written by Bev. Lobe, followed the three women as they were re-acquainting themselves, attended a party in their honor with real live accordian music played by Mary Gotchnik, and their visit to the graves of relatives with pine green and candle in hand.

The highlight of the story was when the three walked to "O Come Ye Faithful" to Midnight Mass and as all in attendance sang "Silent Night" the curtain on the hall stage opened to find Rev. Father Paul Larson ready to say a special Christmas Mass for all 93 who attended the dinner.

The Mass was so beautifully done by Father Larson, that few in attendance were without true tears of joy and love.

We who were in the program had a great time doing it and to this day 1 still hear from ladies who were there saying what a great time they had -- 1 really can't describe the whole program fully, one just had to be there.

Before I get off this subject, a few thank yous. To Bev. Lobe, whose idea it was and for her writing and narrating the program; to Katherine Merhar, who played the piano throughout the program-without lovely Christmas songs there would be no meaning; and to Mary Gotchnik, for her polkas and festive accordian music, plus Mary Ann, Virgie and me and all the ladies, who made it fun for us. A special thanks After the program, the 93 ladies and Father Larson, our guest, enjoyed a lovely stuffed pork chop dinner.

Molly Zupancich was selected as this year's Mother of the Year, a worthy and well-deserving selection, Molly has dedicated herself to her branch activities and to her many volunteer efforts in the community. We congratulate her. (Will have a lot, lot more to say about Molly in the Mother's Day Edition of the Dawn in May).

Our sympathies to the families of members Mayme Stoll and Angela Miklaucic, who died recently and members Ann Miklavcich and Mary Starkovich, whose husbands passed away this winter.

Already the branch is working toward their Minnesota Day in Sept. 1981. Plans are already being made for a unique and special day for those people who will attend.

Until next time,

In my last article I referred to the weather and the fact that we were able to get about because we haven't had much snow. So what happens? The day of our January meeting was the only day with measurable snow in January and then the extreme cold that evening made for hazardous driving. Only five of us came out for the meeting so no business could be transacted. We visited for a while and then returned to the comfort of our homes. Our election was then to take place at our February meeting.

Ann Plantan had been recuperating at the home of her daughter, Marie Zandecki, after surgery in December but is now at her own home. Mary Piletic had major surgery in early January and is recuperating at home. Fannie Piletic developed pneumonia and spent some time in St. Margaret's Hospital. Jennie Herakovich is now at Turtle Creek Convalescent Center. It seems that every family has had members ill with flu and some people have had it more than once. We pray that all our members will be well and back with us soon.

Watch for details of our fundraising project. When Spring comes there will be a rash of garage, yard and basement sales. We'd like to be among the first. Our plan now is to hold a bake and rummage sale in the La Salle Catholic School Gym later this month. This will give you an opportunity to clean closets and drawers, etc. and donate unneeded items to your branch. We'll need a great deal of baked goods, noodles, etc. if this project is to be successful. We hope each member will do as much as possible to make our one project a financial success.

The penitent season of Lent is here. It is a time for sacrifice, fasting and prayer. We need this time to get some perspective of what our lives are all about. Our affluent society spoils us.

Our next meeting will be Thursday, March 19th, at 7:30 p.m. in the La Salle Catholic School Library. Please join us.

NO. 34, SOUDAN, MN

Having spring-like weather, Branch No. 34, Soudan, met on Wednesday, January 21, 1981, with 17 members attending, it was so good to see all of you! A letter of greetings for Christmas was read from the Home Office because we do not meet in December. The books are being audited by Sophie Zavodnick, Angela Planton and Mary Gornick. Our 1981 Mother of the Year, Sophie Spollar, responded to the honor by reciting a reading which had been composed by her, partly in Slovenian and partly in English -- to the delight of everyone there! It was beautiful, Sophie! She got a big hand by those present.

Preliminary plans were discussed over the possibility of having a pot luck supper in April, with a guest speaker. We remembered our deceased member, Barbara Verbon Johnson, who had just passed away. "Bara", as she was known to us, was a member of SWU since December 21, 1952 and was 78 years of age when she passed away. She came to our meetings when she was well enough, she attended our Minnesota Day banquet in September. A quiet person, she enjoyed playing cards at our meetings or playing "Cootie" with those of us who don't play cards. She is survived by a daughter, Betty Tezak of Duluth and a son, Donald, of Fridley and seven grandchildren. Her sister, Helen Chiabotti, and niece, Agnes Mesojedec, also belong to SWU. "Bara" had been ill recently and was hospitalized in Duluth. May she rest in peace!

It was passed that we have a mass said in May and in October for our deceased members, when all our members will be encouraged to attend.

Hostesses for our meeting were Adeline Mustonen and Marcella Rooney, the door prize was brought by Louise Chiabotti and won by Margaret Mesojedec. Winners during the social hour were Sophie Zavodnick, Margaret Mesojedec, Helen Adkisson and Anne Vesel.

Our next meeting was to be held on Wednesday February 18, 1981 with Victoria Bobence and Agnes Mesojedec as hostesses, the door prize brought by Mary Gornick. Let's continue to attend our meetings, they are so enjoyable -bring a prospective member with you next time!

Greetings! Here is Chisholm reporting again. We had a most successful January meeting. We welcomed Sister Marge Peterson as a new member to our branch and also installed the officers for 1981. A hearty thank you to Frances Zalec who gave up being Treasurer of our branch and a welcome to Kathy Knuth who is our new Treasurer from our entire group. The entire meeting was dedicated to plans for the May 1982 National Convention which will be held in Chisholm. Tentative program plans were laid out and fund raisers were discussed.

We started with a Valentine card party on Feb 12th which was open to the public. We also planned to be selling tickets which would be distributed for sale that same evening. The cash prizes will be given on April 15th.

We lost a beloved member of our branch in December. We lost sister, Frances Pierce. Condolences to her family.

We've started the year by celebrating birthdays of the month. Those attending the meeting with January birthdays were each presented with a dollar bill. Four members Sisters Florence _ Raymond, Mary Margo, Jo Zupancich and Lucille Palcich were our honored members. Sister Frances Setina (a young 91 year old) won the dollar dime bank. The meeting was great - the lunch delicious - so members plan on attending our next meeting!

God Bless you and have a good 1981.

She is survived by a daughter, Mrs. Merrilyn Farmen and several brothers. Her husband, Fred, passed away in 1969.

Frances Pavlovcic's brother, Rudolph Perkins passed away after several years of illness and George Mudrock, husband of member, Mary Mudrock, died suddenly at his home. Others surviving him are a son and a daughter. Our sincerest sympathy to all.

On our sick list are Helen Sekular, our president, Albina Uehlein and Matilda Struckley down in Florida. Hurry and get well -- and to our sick members, good health soon.

Our thanks to Mary Tomazic and Annette Ferlic for their generous contritutions to our lodge.

Since St. Patrick's Day will soon be here, I'll close with an old Irish Prayer:

May the road rise up to meet you.

May the wind be always at your back.

May the sun shine warm on your face.

The rains fall soft upon your fields.

And, until we meet again, may God hold you in the hollow of His hand. MARY PLOSZAJ

Our January meeting was fairly attended.. We can blame the weather partly, but not altogether. We hope that the coming of Spring, more of our members will attend. Our meetings are interesting because we find out a little about each other and what other Branches are doing. So mark your calendars, ladies, and join us at our next meeting, Tuesday, March 17th at one o'clock.

Our meeting was conducted by our genial President, Amalia Oswald.

She introduced us to our New Secretary, Justine Prhne. She is not new to most of us but a friend of long-standing. We know she will be efficient in her work as she has had previous experience. All she needs is our cooperation by being up-to-date with our dues.

We missed our Vice-President, Justine Girod, who was with her husband visiting their daughter in Phoenix, Arizona.

As we did not have a meeting in December, Christmas greetings were read from our National President Mary Muller, Past President Mary Bostian, Mary Novak, who is 90 years old and from Mary Prelogar who is recuperating from a long illness at the home of her daughter in Morton, Illinois. Our thanks to all! Mrs. Prelogar lived in Cleveland for 60 years and left many friends here who wish her well. How well we remember those delicious strudels she baked and brought to our meetings! Mrs. Novak is a long-time member. She has lived in the same house 56 years she told us in her note. God Bless both of these faithful members. In other business, Antonia Ogrinc will represent our Branch at the annual meeting of the Slovenian Workmen's Home.We also decided to have the roster of 1981 officers printed in Ameriška-Domovina every month.

Angela Bohinc was selected as our Mother-of-the Year. Mrs. Bohinc is a charter member of our Branch and we are happy to honor her with a Holy Mass at St. Mary's Church and a banquet following at Slovenian Workmen's Home. Be sure to make plans to attend this very nice function.

After adjournment, refreshments were served which were provided by Mrs. Oswald and Mrs. Wolf. Plenty of friendly conversation followed.. after all, this was the day our country inaugurated our 40th President, Ronald Reagan. May God grant him good health and strength of mind and body to guide our wonderful country for the good of all her people and all mankind.

With best wishes to all members of wishes to all. the Slovenian Women's Union,

I must take this time to thank our guest, Mary Spolarich, for entertaining us at our Christmas party held at Pine Beach. She played her accordian and Phyllis Povatich sang our old Slovenian songs, and all who knew them, sang along. We cannot thank the girls enough for showing us such a good time. Our bus was filled with about 32 passengers and we had some invited guests as well. The turn out was tremendous.

We hope it will be healed soon.

Wedding bells will be ringing for our president's son, Joe Kassan. He is engaged to be married in September. Joe's a swell fella.

THE IMMIGRANT

CHRISTINA FROM MOLINARA, ITALY

(Christine Meyer, a member of Branch No. 86, even though born in Italy, shows similar experiences in her story as the many Slovenian immigrants who crossed the Atlantic to create a new future for themselves.)

PARTI

FROM INFANCY TO MARRIAGE

Of the six children born to my parents, Felecia and Casimo Girolamo, I was the only one born in the little town of Molinara, Italy, on June 17, 1913. My sisters, Antoinette, Grace, Carmella, Dananio, and Mary, all younger, were born in America.

Large walls divided our town into three parts -- lower, central, and upper. A large road passed through the center of town, and another road led up the hill. Located in the central part of the city was a large church and the rectory which were fenced in with lovely grounds in the rear of the church, along with the homes of well-to-do people. We lived on the north side of town across the road from the wall. Next to the church was a large tree, approximately 50" high, which shaded the entire block. On the opposite corner directly across the road from the tree, was a tall lamp and a large fountain where the people drew their water. Between the fountain and tree, and crossing the road, were huge portal gates which were closed at dusk.

Our home was near the two factories, one for macaroni, and the other for the manufacture of olive oil. As a child, I would visit the factories frequently to watch them make macaroni and oil. Even though Molinara was a small town, we also had a cabaret where people were wined and dined; a school; small business establishments; and farms in the distance, past the city walls.

Italian houses were made of stone and rocks, whereas the ones in America are mostly constructed of lumber. Our home housed three different families. Our portion was a large room, which was adequate for us; down the hall my mother's step-mother had a large living room and a small bedroom. We ate our meals with her as she also took care of me when mother would go to work. An aunt occupied the upstairs which had a private entrance. The sidewalk was on a slant, so that the upper floor of the house was level with the sidewalk with only one step into her living quarters.

When I was two weeks old, my father, a miner, left Molinara and went to Naples to board the Victoria Emanuele III, a ship departing for the United States. My mother, originally a housekeeper, and I stayed in Italy for seven years. There were times when she worked in the fields beyond the village wall, from early morning to late night, earning only two or three cents a day. Many times she took me with her into the fields, until I entered school at the age of six.

For the two years and two months that I attended school our education was limited basically to reading and not much writing. Each student brought his own lunch to school which usually consisted of potatoes in jacket, bread, and some fruit. On a few occasions, I recall my step-grandmother taking me out of school so that she could visit relatives in the next town. We would be be gone all day, returning in the evening. She would take me with her, otherwise I would have come home after school with no one at home to care for me. It was such fun because Grandma would allow me to ride horseback, as it was difficult for me to keep up with her fast pace. We very seldom saw cars, buses, or trains. Transportation was customarily by foot, horse, or mule; ours was mostly walking.

Our meals were usually very simple and cooked in a fireplace as we didn't have a stove, running water, or indoor bathroom. Lighting consisted of oil lamps or candles; the street lights were carbon light which was ignited at sundown, or extinguished at dawn by the lamplighter.

Many fruits were grown in the area, such as plums, grapes, walnuts, pears, olives, and cherries. When they fell to the ground, no one picked them up; however, pigs were allowed out of their pens to feast upon them. Most of the children wore plain clothes and, because of the warm climate, were bare-footed most of the time. All in all, my life in Italy was simple, and consisted of going to school, playing, and getting in trouble like anyone else.

Finally, father sent for us to join him in America. In September of 1920, mother and I said good-bye to all of our relatives and friends, and left Molinara. We took a train to Naples (it was my first train ride) and boarded the Victoria Emmanuele III, the very same ship my father sailed on seven years before when he came to the U.S. Mother was sick the entire trip; therefore, I began to experience a sense of independence. I had the run of the ship, meeting many people, and playing on all the decks.

The passport picture taken February 25, 1920, shows Christine and her mother. The boat stopped at Palermo, Sicily, to pick up passengers and load fruit. It was fascinating to watch the sailors working below, through a hole on the deck, similar to port holes. I would have fallen below had it not been for one of the friends I had made who pulled me back as I slipped down through the hole.

In October, we arrived at Ellis Island, tired and dazed at the amount of activity and the number of people bustling about. There was no one to meet mother and me, so we were required to wait until customs contacted the Banca di Giovani Lorde (the bank which held the money deposited by my father for us). Finally, we were put on the train bound for Minnesota. The trip seemed long and strange. I recall the train passing through pitch-black tunnels, and being frightened with the flying sparks. That same evening we arrived in Duluth and were transferred to another train headed for Nashwauk, Minnesota.

On this portion of the trip, we met a Mr. DeBretto who had come to meet his wife in Duluth. He informed us that the train would only go as far as Virginia, Minnesota. We were apprehensive about the remaining portion of the trip. Our new friend, Mr. DeBretto, came to our aid and took us to friends in Virginia who accommodated us for the night. Surprisingsly, mother knew the Fragnito family from Italy; they were shirt-tail relations. We spent the night there, and in the morning father was contacted by phone and he came for us. Apparently we really looked like newly-arrived immigrants because he immediately took us downtown and purchased our first American made clothing. We were completely outfitted in the latest fashion of the early twenties. Father had a touring car, a 1918 Oakland, with four doors and curtains which had to be snapped on to keep out the wind and cold. It was such a luxury to ride in a car, rather than walk, or ride a mule. We arrived in Nashwauk during the evening and spent the next two weeks with the Louis DeNucci family, who were friends of father, until the shell of our house, next door to the DeNucci family, was finished. By winter, the house was completed.

The citizenry of Nashwauk, during the twenties, was composed of every nationality -- Jews, Greeks, Irish English, Polish, Slovenians, Italians, Germans, Finns, Swedes, and Danish. We lived among all of these ethnic groups, so my years at elementary school brought me into contact with many immigrant children. I was enrolled October 1920, and was very frightened since I did not know a word of English, and had no close friends. I was the prime target of the children who would harass me by teaching me bad words and how to do things incorrectly. It was difficult at first, but gradually, as I learned to speak English and write, I became more confident and graduated from grammar school, and then from Nashwauk High School in 1933. During these years, I also worked in the garden, spending at least two hours hoeing before and after school.

In school I was very fond of the other children with whom I played. The teachers were good to me, and assisted me as much as they could. I liked my teachers very much, and would have enjoyed furthering my education, but it was depression time and money was scarce. Father hadn't worked for two years, so continuing on to college was out of the question. Mother and the 26th. From Erskine we rode to Ogema with a father had stressed education since neither had any schooling. They enrolled in night school for three to five years in order to get their citizenship certificates.

In the fall of 1933, I met my future husband, Clarence Meyer, who was with a youth program called C.C.C. We were married April 7, 1934, and lived with my husband's parents helping on the farm for awhile, till fall when we moved into town. Clarence didn't have steady employment so he just worked at odd jobs until we decided to move to the western part of Minnesota in July of 1934. We left Nashwauk on the evening of July 25, taking the train from Grand Rapids and arriving in Erskine early on salesman friend of my husband, because buses didn't run regularly to those small towns. The population of Ogema, Minnesota totaled only about 350 people. We lived on a farm from July 26 to October 1, when we moved into town. Clarence worked at odd jobs such as making hay, bailing, sawing wood, working at the church. During this period my husband's family moved into White Earth Reservation, while we lived on the border ot it. Having family close to us eased the loneliness somewhat.

END PART I

NO. 55, GIRARD, OH

Hope you all had a wonderful Christmas and a Happy New Year.

Our meeting for January was cacelled due to the severe cold and snowy weather. The officers elected for the year of "81" are the same as last year. They are: Pres.-Maria Cvetnic, Vice Pres .- Mary Selak, Secy-Treas.-Mary Macek. Recording Secy .- Tillie Cigolle, auditors are Sophie Kren and Mary Selak. Reporter - Frances Hribar.

We had a great turnout at our Christmas Party with 39 in attendance and a few guests with us. A big thank you to our secretary, Mary Macek, who spent many hours in preparing this wonderful party, especially the dinner which was so delicious. Tillie Cigolle did a tremendous job in helping. Following our dinner, we exchanged gifts and games concluded the evening of fun. There were several lucky prize winners.

For our added entertainment, we had 2 of our members, Kay Sefcik and Delores DePietro play a few selections on their button box accordians. Kay and Delores are members of our ever popular Mahoning Valley Button Box Club. They entertain every Thursday at our Girard Slovenian Club.

Being that we had such a nice attendance we thought it was a very appropriate time to select a Motherof-the-Year for 1981. Chosen to reign is Mary Macek, who very well deserves the honor. She has been an officer for many years and never refused to take over the big tasks that come up. She does more than her share, no matter what the event may be.

Maria Cvetnic spent the holidays with her son, John, in Eden Prairie, Minn. Kay Sefcik spent the holidays in Florida visiting her son, Jim Sefcik, in Clearwater.

Mark Congratulations to Popovich (my grandson) who was recently confirmed at the St. Dominic's Church in Youngstown, Ohio.

NO. 57, NILES, OH

It was a surprise to see so many members brave the near zero weather and the knee high (well, half way up to the knee anyway) snow to attend the January meeting. Everyone seemed to have kept some of the jolly feeling left over from the holidays.

Dues were paid, some in advance and for those that haven't paid yet. please see that your dues are paid as soon as possible.

Fran Mollis was chosen as our Mother of the year and she is one gal that can not sit still. She is always involved in one volunteer project or another. Quite a gal to know.

A very nice lunch was served by Mary DeCapua and Phyllis Muccio and the door prizes were won by Mary Strah and Margaret Gulida. Since Virginia Zevkovich was unable to attend the meeting a birthday card was signed to be delivered to her, and Happy Birthday was sung to the other January birthday members.

The following had February birthdays, Fran Racher, Nancy Segretta, and Mary Spoljeric. Happy Birthday and may you have many more.

What God Hath Promised

God hath not promised skies always blue,

Flower-strewn pathways all your life through.

God hath not promised sun without rain,

Joy without sorrow, peace without pain.

But God hath promised strength for the day,

Rest for the labor, light for the day,

Grace for the trials, help from above,

Unfailing sympathy, undying love.

ANN PEASE, Reporter

Sorry to hear that one of our honorary members, Anna Umeck fell and broke her hip. She is in the Trumbull Hospital in Warren. She is 85 years young and it will be sometime before she can be up and around. It would be nice to remember her with a cheery card.

To all others who may be on the ailing list, a speedy recovery.

Ladies, try and come to our next meeting, and bring along a new member! FRANCES HRIBAR

NO. 71, STRABANE, PA

Hello to all members and a happy new year! A beautiful snowfall made the perfect atmosphere for the December meeting and annual Christmas party. Sixteen members braved the winter weather to share the Christmas spirit.

During the business meeting, presided over by Alice Stanizewski, ideas for fund-raising were discussed and the election of officers for 1981 held. Members chose Peggy Gricar as president, Sharon Bostjancic as vice-president, Marge Striner as recording secretary, Lucille Smith as secretary, and Agnes Bostjancic as treasurer. Elected as auditors for the coming year are Julia Cushma and Josephine Verholtz. Members honored special charities with donations and monetary gifts were presented to all juvenile members of our lodge.

Following the business meeting, a festive Christmas party was held. On the entertainment committee were Lucille Smith, Agnes Bostjancic and Sharon Bostjancic. They provided a delicious luncheon, door prizes and presents for all attending. Luckey winners of door prizes were Ruby Taylor and Mary Kocian. All had an enjoyable evening. In our Christmas prayers, Albina Novak was honored and all of our deceased members. God bless all of you!

It was wonderful to see so many new members present at our January meeting. We started out the new year by installing our new officers and honoring our past president Alice Stanizewski with a gift from the membership. Alice, thank you for your many years of fine service to our lodge. We will miss you. Alice relinquished her job as president due to illness in the family. Please stay as dedicated as you have been. God bless you! On the agenda for the new year, we are planning a bakeless bakesale and a project to raise money. Please be generous when called by our phone committee. Also, we are planning to have some kind of interesting entertainment following each meeting. Please come and participate.

We are proud to announce that Mary Kocian and Mary Tomsic will be honored by the lodge for more than 25 years of service. We congratulate them and wish them continued good health and much happiness! We were very sorry to hear that Josephine Cushma was hospitalized for a number of weeks, but I am so happy to report that she is recovering rapidly and will soon be back to join in our meetings. Josephine, we have missed you and hope your feeling well! Our prayers are with you!

Something new has been added to each meeting that we hope will become a tradition. During each meeting, a dedicated member will be honored with a vase and a red carnation from the membership. In January, Mary Progar, a lifelong member, was given the chance to be

HAPPY BIRTHDAY, MARY MIHELICH!

NO. 79, ENUMCLAW, WN

Dec. 7, 1980 was the date of Annual Christmas pot-luck and this year it was held at Sacred Heart Parish hall. Icy roads and freezing temperature did not dampen our spirits at all! There was an excellant turn out and a beautiful variety of excellent foods.

Highlight of the day was a visit from the man of the season, Santa Claus, and he paid tribute to our president of many years, Mary Mihelich, who turned 88 years young during the holidays. She welcomed our "Member of the Month". Mary is married, has two sons and enjoys baking and crocheting. Mary, thanks for being so dedicated!

The January luncheon committee was Sharon Bostjancic, Marge Striner and Alice Stanizewski. They provided a wonderful treat and prizes were given to ten lucky members.

One of our goals for the new year will be to get more of our members to attend our meetings. If you haven't been attending, please try to come to our next meeting on Thursday, March 12, 1981. We would like to see you there and have you become part of our activities. See you then.

PEGGY GRICAR

NO. 73, WARRENSVILLE HGTS., OH

Sister members, please keep in mind that our branch will celebrate our 45th Anniversary the Sunday after Easter — April 26, 1981, with a Mass at 10:30 A.M. at St. Jude's Church, Warrensville Heights, Ohio. We haven't decided as yet regarding a social event following Mass, but after our February meeting where a decision will be made, I shall then write about the plans for same.

Also, keep in mind that we are going to have a Bake & Rummage him with open arms and a special twinkle in her eyes!

The afternoon was filled with dancing to the welcome music of Gary Dime and friends. He is always so ready to share his talents and we, the members, want him to know just how much he is appreciated!!

We wish to announce that May 3rd is the date of our Spring Dance, the date selected due to hall availability.

As the year 1981 begins we wish for all the best and true peace that only the Lord can give.

D. SLEIGH, Reporter

Sale during the month of May, and we are advising you of this early enough so that when spring cleaning you can start getting your saleable articles ready to donate for same. It will also give you time to think of and price each article as only the owner of each article knows its original cost and saleable value. I will write the exact date and any further information regarding same as soon as the decisions necessary are made at our next meeting.

Election of officers took place at our Christmas Party and Pot Luck Dinner and they are as follows: Kay Yuratovac, President; Ann Fike, Vice President; Louise Epley, Travnik. Secretary: Frances Treasurer; Gloria Dusek, Recording Secretary; and Mildred Roberts, Reporting Secretary. At this time we sincerely and gratefully want to thank Agnes Walters who served as Treasurer for twenty-seven years. Agnes is still recuperating from a hospital stay and asked that her office be taken over by another member. Thank you, Frances Travnik, for accepting this office and feel that if Agnes had been at our Christmas Party when election of officers took place, she, too, would have joined us all in welcoming you as our next Treasurer.

Congratulations to Mr. and Mrs. Albert Modic (Ann) with the arrival of their second grandchild — Maura Ann — born January 5, 1981, parents Robert and Nancy Bydash. Also, congratulations to Angela Gliha who became a great Grandmother for the first time.

We'd like to send our best wishes and complete recovery thoughts to the following who had been hospitalized recently or are in the hospital at the present time: Helen Cergol; Casey Liska, husband of Louise Liska; Betty Simec; and also Louise Zabukovec's husband. May God bless all of you and everyone who has been ill that we were not informed about.

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Goga are vacationing in Florida at the present time and hope to visit some of our members who have moved to Florida making Florida their permanent homes.

Love and prayers

NO. 74, AMBRIDGE, PA

First of all I want to thank each and every member for paying 1981 dues on time. It makes my job much easier, and if there is anything I can do for you, just call.

We are not many in number these days, but we are loyal to our heritage and enjoy our "Zarja" each month. I hear so many favorable comments about the articles, "The Immigrant" and the page on "Learning Slovenian." The "Pots and Pans" page is also a favorite of mine and keep it for my recipe notebook.

We were saddened by the death of Sister Mary Habich on Dec. 30, 1980. She had been our secretary these many years. Our deepest sympathies go to her children, grandchildren, great grandchild and sister. We will all miss her.

I wish everyone who reads this health and happiness.

A couple years ago I clipped an item from the Chicago Tribune which reads: "There's one thing cookbook writers and editors will agree on — that there definitely are two highs to cookbook writing, the initial idea and the moment the finished book comes off the press. In between, it's the pits"! I don't agree entirely with that philosophy, but I now know what they mean.

A progress report on the new cookbook "Pots and Pans" is in order. To date (Jan. 30) 340 recipes have been sent to the Croatian Franciscan Press in Chicago with 80 more ready which totals about 2/3 of the book. This includes: 94 meat and meat dishes, 41 chicken, 8 game, 16 fish, 46 salads, 10 salad dressings, 12 drinks, 18 soups, 27 appetizers, 41 vegetables, 50 cakes and tortes and about 20 desserts. Dumplings, breads (including poticas, rolls, etc.), pastries, canning and 'miscellaneous'' are to follow.

My brother Ted, a designer, will sketch the cover and any additional art work including a map of Slovenia. He has drawn a miniature carnation (the Slovenian flower) to appear as a symbol opposite any typically or popular Slovenian recipe, 80 to date, (it seems better than separating them). Ted has been tremendous help getting the recipes which he receives from me to the printing company and there assists with the typographical layout and correcting and galleys.

According to our contract, we are allowed one colored photo and six black and white pictures. Corinne Leskovar is arranging for one of our scholarship winners, Naomi Trinko, to pose in native Slovenian costume for the colored picture.

Most of the recipes will be from the column, "Pots and Pans" which I have edited since March, 1963. Some will be selected from Woman's Glory—The Kitchen (still a popular seller) especially those which originated in "Pots and Pans" column and a few of its cherished, traditional recipes. Then there are those from friends, mostly in the Madison area, where I hope to also market the book.

Although I am going over each recipe at least three times for accuracy and clarity of instruction have tasted or retested oven 200 recipes this past year, two friends, Ann Rose and Myra Schultz, home economics, are also double-checking to give me confidence. Ann is a former food editor while Myra has taught cooking in the Madison school system.

A few suggestions are:

1. When adding sugar to egg whites, beat eggs until foamy (not stiff), for greatest volume, and then begin adding sugar, 1 tablespoon, at a time, beating after each addition until stiff and glossy.

2. When using a bundt, angel food or spring-form pan, use lower rack of oven when baking for better heat distribution.

3. When a recipe calls for buttermilk or sour milk, a new convenient product, now available in grocery stores, might be used: SACO's cultured buttermilk powder: 1/4 cup of the powder and 1 cup water replaces 1 cup of butter milk or sour milk.

4. Since cake flour is no longer always available, substitute with sifted all-purpose flour using 2 level tablespoons less per cup.

Professor Edward Gobetz of Willoughby Hills, Ohio, has prepared a scholarly article for the cookbook entitled "Our Heritage, The Art of Cooking and Multiculturalism". I'm sure you will find it as interesting as I have.

Thank you for your cooperation. This is an exciting, learning, interesting, sometimes frustrating, and challenging assignment. Thank you all for your cooperation.

EASY OVEN CHICKEN

Jane writes: "This is a very simple recipe which I occasionally use on very busy days".

4 to 6 portions of chicken parts

1 can (10 3/4 ounces) condensed cream of chicken soup

Here is some late news from our Branch. In November, we had a Bake Sale and thank you all for your donations. It was a big success. Our members voted to send a handkerchief in a Christmas Card to all members over the age of 75, that is, eleven of our members.

Congratulations to Lorraine Munson on her new baby boy. Helen Komater and Honorine Corpus won the door prizes. Barbara Sitar, our member, had a birthday. Refreshments were served by Lena Dawson, Frances Gorisek, Lorraine Munson and Betty Hamilton.

December 10th was our Christmas Party at Bek's Place in Peru, Ill. Honorine Corpus' daughter and husband own this restaurant. Frances Gorisek, Chaplain, said prayers before and after the meal. We were very happy with the service. All enjoyed the gift exchange and Slovenian and English Christmas Carol singing. There were 60 in attendance including some guests.

Frances Gorisek told us she would be leaving for England before Christmas and would be gone for 2 1/2 months. We are looking forward to having her tell us all about how the holidays were celebrated there.

Thank you notes were read from Magdalene Skoporc and Mary Dittle for the Christmas handkerchiefs received. New officers were introduced and the installation set for March 9th meeting.

We did not met in January and February because of the cold weather. We want to thank the December committee for the fine job they did with our Christmas Party. They were: Darlene Wasielewski, Irene Peterlin, Georgia Bima, Terri Essl, Barbara Sitar. In December, Lena Hobneck celebrated her birthday.

Our Slovenian, Gary Peterlin, of Oglesby, was elected for LaSalle County States Attorney at the November election. We are very proud of him. Congratulations go to Irene Peterlin, our member and past president and her family.

Our ladies are looking forward to the Bowling Tournament of the S.W.U. Branches in April. It will be in Sheboygan. Good luck, ladies.

Am getting your committee sheets ready for the March 9th meeting. Mary Kernz will be chairman. April chairman is Catherine Golick. Slides will be shown by Robert Nelson from our III. Valley Community Junior College. He is a teacher of Geography and Life Science and has traveled to many countries. You may invite a guest to join us for the meeting and program.

Hope all of you out there had a happy holiday. God bless you all.

First meeting of the year 1981 was held at the home of Bunnie Spritzer on the 20th of January. President, Margaret Depew opened the meeting with prayer and roll call by Frieda showed 11 members present and one guest, Loretta Szallar. Loretta joined our club later and now we all welcome her. Minutes were approved as read as was the treasurer's report. Rose and Ann audited the books and found them to be in order. We do have a treasurer that's on the ball altho yours truly is always teasing her. What is wrong with a little laughter once in a while?

Correspondence was a Christmas card from Ann Pachak in Pueblo. And, from Addie, we also received a message. We thank them both. Addie is not able to come to meetings often because of the weather and distance. She always sends us her home made items.

Our Sugar Plum was a great success. Thanks to all the ladies who helped to make it just that. Especially thanks to Frances who made the Afghan, which was won by Sharon Mills.

Election of officers was our new business and Frances made a motion that all officers keep their offices for another year and this motion was passed. Officers are: Margaret Depew, President, Fran Austin, Vice-President, Frieda Forcier, Secretary, Margaret Malensek, Treasurer and Fern White, Reporter. Frieda made and gave each member a booklet which we filled in with the program for 1981. Remember, dues are now to be paid for the year and Margaret, our Treasurer, will take care of that for you. Margaret then closed the meeting with a prayer after which we played cards. High winners were Margaret and Frances, Low. Elsie and Fern. Bunnie served cherry and blueberry dessert of which yours truly had two helpings! Thank you.

Our February meeting was to be on the 17th at the home of Frances Guerrieri. Making perfect attendance for 1980 were Frances Guerrieri, Frieda Forcier, Ann Malensek, Margaret Malensek and

The holidays are over; all the hustle, bustle and excitement have faded, and it's time to get back to work once again.

In past articles I have asked our members to try to attend our meetings, make your views known on anything that's bothering you about the way issues are being handled, I also would like to know if there would be someone who would be interested in planning new programs and events for the following year. Please come forward and let me know.

My message to all of you: You should never be lonely if you are a member of ours.

There was no meeting in January. 1 would still like to wish allour members who are ailing, a speedy recovery!

In conclusion: Birthday Greetings to the following in March: Catherine Alfirevich, Eva Starcevich, Harriet Isek, Helen Golich, Catherine Placzkowski, Ann Pave, Ann Granich, Mary Jurko, Virginia Pilarski, Manda Dosen, Josephine Zadro. Viola Spitz, Helen Repaich, Lucy Kopilash, Marie Zeffero, Ann Pearson, Kathleen Quinn, Kathy Hanson, Beverly Ann Krapenc, Mary Childs, Gertrude Grupka.

Don't forget, we will share any ideas and information on any topic that will come before us, we sincerely wish 1981 will be the best year you have ever had.

MILDRED JAMES

NO. 100, FONTANA, CA.

Our January meeting was well attended and truly enjoyable. We didn't have many business discussions as we were occupied with the installation of officers for the new year. Anna Kapel did so well on her first term as President that she was elected for another year in the same capacity. See, Anna? That's what happen when we like the manner of officiation, but, primarily, we like you!

Our other likeables are, dear Father Strancar, who remains our Spiritual Adviser, (one heck of a nice guy), Cecelia Horzen, Vice President and Auditor, Rose Mary Mlakar, Sec'y Treasurer (a heck of a nice gal) Marie Arnesan, Recording Sec'y and Auditor, Jean Kurilich, Slovenian Reporter, and then there's yours truly, English Reporter. We like our members, too. Oh! What the heck! I might as well go whole hog and say that we like everybody, everybody that has a heart full of compassion for his fellowman!

The Regional President of the Western States, Mary Jasina, called on me for the express purpose to relate the events of her visit to Br. No. 13 in San Francisco. She exhibited undisguised enthusiasm all the while she talked about Rose Skoff's hospitality and the warm welcome she received in her beautiful home; also the honor and deference that was extended to her by the officers and members as they met in the Slovene Hall where their meetings are conducted.

Discussions pertaining to our Union were held and tentative plans were conferred upon as to a state convention to take place here, in Fontana with all the Western branches of the S.W.U. in participation. That dream is Mary's and I hope it materializes. Mary was presented with a beautiful gold necklace that she will treasure and will be a lasting reminder of the gracious ladies of Br. No. 13.

Birthday felicitations are herewith conveyed to Cynthia Conley, Sheila Panattoni, Mary Ercek, Melissa Jasina, and to my good ol' pal and side kick, Julie Vlasic.

Anna Smerdu is wished a speedy recovery and we hope to see her before long in our midst.

Get well prayers are also sent across the miles to Christina Pierman and Elsie Melissa of Br. No. 2. As I write about Christina and Elsie, my mind invariably recalls the beautiful, carefree days when we all resided in the small coal mining town of Iselin, Pennsylvania. That seems like ages ago. We lived in Iselin until I was ten years old. Then to Chicago on 23rd St., where before long the families of Elsic and Christina followed. The lovely memories that I carry of my childhood makes me wealthy, and much of that wealth I lay upon the doorsteps of Elsie's mother, Johanna Telban, who sanctified grandmas the world over.

I am also in close relationship with yet another member of Br. No. 2, who makes her home in Florida.

Reference is made to Mary Galassini and I'm taking this opportunity to wish her continued good progress in her past operation. Also to her husband, Al, who has a heart problem.

You, ladies, who are members but do not attend our meetings, are missing out on a great deal of sociability and camaraderie. Come on out and join our gatherings and have fun in the process. You hear that, Agnes!

God look down upon all whose eyes fall upon these words and grant you, your fondest wishes.

See you next month, be He willing. Respectfully, submitted,

EDITH DRAWENEK

NO. 103, WASHINGTON, D.C.

Our January meeting was well represented. The first order of business was the formal installation of officers for the new year.

After the business meeting, we celebrated Antonia Cigale's name day. The table was very attractively arranged with candles, plus refreshments. The potica was indeed a treat!

We're experiencing one of our coldest winters here in the Washington area. Let's hope it won't stay with us for too long, and that everyone who is "under the weather" will regain their usual good health.

We hope you all had a very happy and safe holiday. Now that my mother is living here with my sister, it made my Christmas especially happy since she was able to enjoy the festivities with us, and I no longer had to worry about her being alone.

On January 20th, we watched the Inaugural proceedings on TV, as did the entire country. It's quite exciting being so close to the action.

We did not have a meeting in February due to uncertain weather conditions. So, until March, best wishes.

NO. 105, DETROIT, MI

After the hustle and bustle of the holidays, it's time to write again and bring everyone up-to-date on recent events in Detroit.

Our November meeting was held by Mary Jamsek (who has been selected as our 1981 Mother of the Year). Plans were finalized for our Christmas Dinner which was held at the Chambertin Restaurant. We had thirteen members and guests at our party and the food was delicious.

Gifts were exchanged and a good time was had by all. It was nice to visit with Frances Rovsek again. Come again, Frances.

There was no regular meeting during December so our next meeting was held by Catherine Musick and Patricia Emerson on January 10th. Election of officers was held and we are pleased to announce that Pauline Adamic is still our President; Patricia Emerson is our Secretary/Treasurer and yours truly is still your Reporter. While we have a membership of 34 adults, many of these members transferred from Branch 9, and due to their ages, are unable to participate actively in Branch affairs. We are trying to recruit more active members, but as most of you know, it is rather difficult.

We are pleased that Ann Pobanz is no longer on the sick list, but sorry to say that her sister, Katherine, presently is in the hospital for tests. Also on the sick list are Johanna Martel and Stephanie Hometz. Our prayers for your return to good health. Due to the uncertainties of our Michigan weather, there will be no regular meeting until March 28th at 2:00 when our hostesses will be Donna Medina and Alice Sheets. They recently moved to a lovely new home at 1683 Littlestone Road, Grosse Pointe Woods. You all are welcome to attend.

With best wishes for a happy, healthy and prosperous New Year from all the members of Branch No. 105.

"Pust, ti čas presneti"

Moji spomini gredo nazaj na moja otroška leta pred 60 leti na praznovanje takratnega pustnega časa - ali pustnega torka. Da sem imela bližje v šolo, me je imela pri sebi stara teta. V Škofji Loki je bilo tedaj versko življenje vsaj na zunaj na višku. Malo mestece je imelo kar tri cerkve, katere so bile ob nedeljah polne. Farna cerkev sv. Jakoba, kapucinska cerkev in cerkev uršulink, kamor sem hodila v šolo. V pustnih treh dneh so bile v farni cerkvi v popoldanskem času pobožnosti v zadoščenje, kakor so nam rekli. Na pustni torek sem slonela zdolgočaseno ob oknu. Pozornost mi vzbudi velik dir in-daj, trušč, smeh, vpitje na cesti. Srce mi je poskočilo v prsih, vedela sem, da so tam maškare. Nekatere so bile celo na konjih. Hotela sem leteti ven, pa nisem smela.

"Danes pa ne bom šla v cerkev, bom gledala maškare," nenadoma rečem.

"Pa boš šla; noben pameten človek ne gleda teh norcev. Moramo moliti in delati pokoro, ker se naredi toliko greha po svetu prav v pustnih dneh."

Seveda sem v cerkev šla, pa prav nerada in slabe volje. V mislih sem tuhtala: še maškare ne smem gledati in pokoro delati, le zakaj, pa jaz? Saj se učim. vsakega ubogam, se ne potepam — pokora za druge! Strogega pridigarja nisem poslušala, še manj razumela. Pa je prišla tolažba. Smela sem letiti pol ure daleč na svoj rojstni dom in vedela sem, kaj bo tam.

Večerje so bile na pustini torek po vseh domovih sila slovesne in obilne; goveja juha z rezanci, tri vrste mesa, pražen krompir, solate, krofi — rekli smo jim bobi — flancati in dober mošt; vina v naših krajih nismo imeli. Odrasli so se zabavali po svoje do polnoči, nas otroke so napodili spat. Ko smo vstali, smo prav na ušesa vlekli, kdaj in kje so maškare vlekle ploh, ali na katero streho in kateremu dekletu so na streho zavlekli slamnatega možica, ker se tisti predpust ni mogla omožiti. Vaščani so se krohotali, se posmehovali in norce brili. Jaz sem kmalu začutila, da je to prav odurna navada.

V tem času vsesplošnega norenja, zabave, smeha, plesa — pa tudi marsikaterih vraž (da bo večja sreča pri hiši) je bilo na Gorenjskem dokaj mirno: zdi se mi, da še našemljenih maškar ni bilo veliko. Cerkev nas je držala nazaj, češ to so same poganske navade iz davnih, davnih časov. Takrat so poganski ljudje z norenjem kazali veselje, da je prave zime konec in počasi prihaja pomlad. Na Slovenskem so se krepki in bučni pustni obićaji najdalj ohranili na Dravskem ali Ptujskem polju, menda trajajo še sedaj — kot slovenska posebnost. Po vaseh so se vlekli dolgi našemljeni sprevodi, sredi katerih je imel glavno vlogo pust ali kakor so ga klicali Kurent. Oblečen je bil v kosmat bel ali črn kožuh, na glavi je imel živalsko masko s prav velikimi rogmi, okrog pasu pa mnogo kravjih zvoncev. Staro in mlado je drvelo iz hiš, se smejalo in vriskalo. Gospodinje so metale darove v zato pripravljen koš, da bo ja sreča v hiši, na polju, pri živini. Še hudobec se mora bati tega Kurenta in bežati proč.

Kar po vsej Sloveniji teh vaških navad ni več. So pa ostale priljubljene pustne prireditve ali maškarade po dvoranah in dolgi pustni sprevodi po velikih evropskih mestih. Ohranili so plese v maskah. Plešejo z zakritimi obrazi in v pisanih, bleščečih kostimih. Mnogo veselja in zabave, ko pokažejo svoj pravi obraz! Posebno mladina mora imeti nekaj sproščenega veselja.

Cvili možek

Cvili možek, debel možek, ima hlače dopetače, a trebušček ves napet, da ne more z njim na led. Če za trebuh kdo ga stiska, glasno cvili, tenko piska skozi usta, skozi nos, zgoraj v suknji, spodaj bos; Še bi škornje rad imel, da na noge bi jih del, ako bi mu trebuh dal pripogniti se do tal.

Sodobna povest s hribov Mohorjev koledar: 1966, Celje.

Partizani so prihajali v hišo nekaj mesecev manj kot štiri leta. Po petdeset, po trideset! Dvanajstkrat po dvesto-petdeset. Nikoli niso vprašali: imate? Ali vam je morda tega ali onega zmanjkalo? No. shrambe so se spraznile in zopet napolnile z žitom in krompirjem. Iz hleva je romalo deset govedi. Da, rajonski sekretar si je to trikrat zapisal. Zapisal si je tudi brigadni in divizijski komisar. Menda so potem izgubili tiste papirje. Vse je mogoče v vojski, kakršna je bila. "Druge misli in drugo delo imajo tisti nekdanji obiskovalci". Kaj pa tisti nemški vojaki, ki so mu vzeli pet čebeljih panjev in popili v enem dnevu petsto litrov mošta. Rekli so, da so iz Saksonske dežele in da ima Gornik "gut" mošt in da naj bo vesel, da ga pustijo v gorah, ker vedo, da daje banditom hrano iz strahu in da je boljše, da še živi v gorah; če njega ne bi bilo, se tudi njihovi vojaki ne bi mogli napiti mošta in se ne bi trikrat najedli rženih žgancev. "Jaz ti ne bom požgal hiše, ker so tudi moji starši kmetje na Saksonskem," mu je rekel neki nemški oficir. Gornik ve, da je bil to edini Nemec, ki ga je slišal, da je govoril še kar pametno o gorskih kmetih. Pred lačnimi Nemci je bilo tudi treba skriti mast in meso, ajdovo moko in med. Zares, za Gornikovo domačijo težki časi.

ZARJA-THE DAWN

Pa so prišli zopet nekega sobotnega popoldneva nemški vojaki. Posedli so okrog hiše po vrtu. Postavili so mitraljeze. Rekli so, da bi radi jedli šunko ali klobase. "Seveda jih imaš, za nas nemške vojake jih nimaš, za bandite jih pa imaš." Da mu tam gori to ne bo odpuščeno, je še rekel in mu pokazal za vratom svetinjico Matere božje. Ko sta bila sama v sobi, je nemški oficir klel Hitlerja in vojsko. Tekal je po sobi kakor norec in rekel, da bodo Nemci vojno izgubili in da bodo zmago dobili Slovani in Amerikanci. "In da me ne boš ovadil policiji, ker sem ti to rekel." Nato je tisti nemški oficir stekel iz hiše, zavpil nekaj nad vojaki, ki so se hitro dvignili in odšli v dolino. Edino kravo so hoteli odgnati, pa je oficir rekel, naj kar ostane pri Gornikovih. Seveda, to je bilo dva meseca pred končano vojno.

In tisti partizanski ranjenci, ki so se zdravili pri Gornikovih. To je bilo stokanja in vzdihovanja. Vse noči je bila žena pokoncu, obračala jih je in jim kuhala. Ko so ozdraveli, so šli v dolino. Rekli so, da jih bodo zagotovo obiskali ob Binkoštih ali na veliki šmaren. Samo eden je obiskal Gornikovega Jaka. Še tisti je bil bolehen in nesrečen v zakonu. Napil se je mošta in rekel, da je sit doline in vsega, kar je doli. Pustil bo sitno ženo, ker nima otrok. Poiskal si bo gori v bližini Gornikovih dekle in živel z njo. Tretji dan je odšel molčeč in ves sključen od bolezni in neprespan...

Drugi niso utegnili obiskati Jaka in se z njim pogovoriti. Nekateri so se postarali, drugi so revmatični, tretje menda bole noge, nekaterim žene ne puste v gore. In ceste ni do Gornikovih. Sicer bi bila cesta polna ljudi in vozil kakor v dolini.

Kaj bo, če bo še kdaj vojska, si misli Jaka. Kdo me bo še obiskal? Star bom in nadležen. Sinov Jožeta in Zvonka ne bo. Še za Petra ni gotovo, če bo Ostal doma. Ja, če bo še kdaj tako hudo, ali bodo našli pri Gornikovih tako oskrbo, kakor so jo v <sup>zad</sup>nji vojni. Ne bo moških, ki bi redili živino. Morda bodo pa takratni vojščaki vse s seboj prinesli. Ne bi rad vojske! Mir naj bo! Bog ga daj! Jaka je stresel z glavo in krenil iz gozda na spodnje njive. Obstal je <sup>na</sup> njivi Rebenici. Trideset arov je imela. Njiva, da jo <sup>je</sup> bilo veselje orati. Še lepše je bilo, ko je Rebenica dajala po trideset mernikov pšenice. Hm, koliko dela je bilo z Rebenico. Z očetom sta skopala in <sup>zvo</sup>zila trideset voz kamenja. In koliko gnoja se je navózilo. Vol rjavec se je pretegnil na vožnjah, da ni bil za drugo kot za zakol. Nad njivo raste v zavetni dolinici oreh. Sadil ga je ded Jurij. Velik in košat <sup>oreh</sup> je. Deset mernikov orehov je dal zadnja leta velike vojske. Za Novo leto petinštiridesetega so jih trli domači in dvajset terencev. Natrli so jih mernik In pol. Štiri mernike so jih kurirji odnesli v bolnišnice za ranjence.

Pod tem orehom je družina južinala in malicala ob dnevih, ko so želi pšenico ali rž, proso ali ajdo. ali kadar so kopali krompir. Izpod oreha se je daleč videlo, kako se na veliki njivi svetijo kupi krompirja.

Kaj pa, če se sin Jože vrne domov? Kaj potem? Gornikovemu Jaku gloda po možganih. Da bi se kdaj zarasle te njive, to mu ne gre v glavo. Da bi se kdaj v bodočih rodovih sprehajale srne in jeleni po Gornikovini in bi veter tulil čez razpadle hiše in hlev. skedenj in kozolec, čebeljnjak in kolarnico. Ne. saj tega ne bo! Kje sta zdaj zgovorni rajonski sekretar in brigadni komisar? Sta sposobna pregovoriti mi sina Jožeta, da pusti žago in se vrne domov na dom Jaka, deda Jurija in pradedov, tja, do srednjeveških starih Gornikov? Na tramu v skednju je vžgana letnica 1725 in skedenį še stoji. Samo s slamo so ga prekrili vsakih 20 let. Čez dve leti bo treba zopet prekriti celo desno stran kozolca. Osemnajst češenj raste v ogradi, si misli Jaka. Kot kosi so jih obirali domači in tuji, partizani in Nemci, skrivači in terenci, ženske in otroci. Če bi imel Jaka hčere, bi dal češnje posekati in jih razžagati. Češnjevo pohištvo bi dal vsaki hčeri. Seveda, sin zahteva sto kubikov lesa, da si bo sezidal hišico v dolini. Doma ima hišo, veliko in lepo. Veliko kuhinjo za dve mestni. Sobam ni kaj reči. Trmast je Jože. Če bi ded še živel, bi rekel, da se Jožetu meša. Oba naj gresta v tovarno, če hočeta; Zvonko, ki se je že odtujil rodni hiši, in Peter, ki je z eno nogo že v dolini. Samo Jože naj bi se vrnil. Mora se vrniti. Če bi vedel, kje živi tisti rajonski sekretar, bi ga poiskal. da bi pregovoril Jožeta. Dal bi mu zato deset smrek in trideset kilogramov medu. In srce mu je bilo zelo težko.

Gornikov Jaka je krenil v hišo, da se pogovori z ženo. Ni se dosti pogovarjal z njo, ker je bila molčeča in mehka žena.

"Jaka, kje le hodiš tako dolgo? Peter te je iskal. Rekel je, da se je še on odločil, da bo šel za Jožetom na žago. Ljubi Bog, kako bova sama odbelovala vso to zemljo? Kaj pravzaprav mislijo ti najini otroci. Kaj jih je obsedlo, da so taki. Kaj ni nikjer nobene postave več, da bi pisalo, da mora êden moških ostati doma. Ni jim mar ne za hišo, za živino, ne za gozd in njive, Jože ni šel v hlev kakor ponavadi. Jezus, kaj bo iz tega. Menda v dolini ni tako dobro, kakor se govori. Komaj sta prišla Jože in Zvonko domov, že sta hotela jesti klobase in ajdove žgance. Mošt sta tako pila, kakor da bi bila ves teden brez vode. Jože je še včeraj rekel: kaj bi dal, da bi mogel četrtino hiše odnesti. Če bi imel pravo ženo, bi se oba vrnila domov. Še žal jima bo."

"Delala bova, kolikor bova zmogla. Kar bo, pa bo," je dejal Jaka in skomignil z rameni." Če pa Peter misli, da mu bom kaj dal. se moti. Tudi Zvonko se ne bo vozil z motornim kolesom za očetove hoje: če bo Jože ostal trmast in pri moji besedi mu bom moral dati sto kubikov lesa. Bo že videl, kako se zida hiša. Kaj se je ta smrkavec Peter spomnila?"

"Morda ga je Zvonko pregovoril."

"Tako je. Če že moram kaj dati, bom dal Jožetu; Zvonku in Petru pa figo. Preklet svet. da je tak." Planil je in krenil na vrt otresat tepke. Sam bom tresel, sam pobiral in tudi sam bom pil mošt, je mrmral Jaka. Šel je v shrambo in zbral vreče. Ves teden sta z ženo že otresala tepke in jabolka. Veliki kupi v veži in pred kletjo so pričali, da se pri Gornikovih pripravljajo na stiskanje mošta. Ko sta pobirala hruške-tepke, sta večidel molčala in mislila na sinove....

Naslednji dan je Peter brez slovesa izginil v dolino. Bal se je, da bi ga oče ozmerjal, pa je samo materi zašepetal, da gre na žago. Ko je bila vsa družina še doma, to je bilo smeha in veselja po vrtu, vriskanja in pesmi. To jesen pa, čeprav je sončna in lepa, je tako resno in tiho pri Gornikovih. Iznad košare se dvigne mati Gornika in ujame možev pogled. Te oči govorijo: sama bova ostala, vidiš, na tem širnem vrtu, ki je stotetja redil številno družino. In to polje nad hišo in gozd. Štirinajst ljudi je delalo in živelo v začetku tega stoletja. Da, takrat je živel in delal stric in babica, številni njegovi otroci, tete in še dva stara dobra sorodnika....

Morda se bo Jože le premislil, zdaj, ko je šel še Peter. "Pustiva nekaj tepk za nedeljo, ko se vrnejo sinovi. Naj jih oni otresejo in odnesejo v dolino. Ali naj jih pa odpeljejo z volmi. Dolinci imajo majhne vrtove-sadovnjake, pa vse odvečno sadje prodajo."

"Pa pustiva", odgovori žena in pogleda staro stoletno tepko, ki je bila polna kakor leskov grm v gmajni. Ptiči so se sprelatavali po drevju. Peli so lepemu dnevu in bogati letini. Gornikova sta bila tiste dni gluha za vse ptičje. Hitela sta z delom. Delo je klicalo v hlev in na polje, na vrt in gozd. Ostala sta za vse sama.

Bila je deževna oktoberska nedelja. Po gozdovih so se vlekle megle. Oblaki so viseli nizko in iz njih je enakomerno deževalo. Na vežnem pragu je stal Gornikov Jaka in gledal na gozd nad hišo, kjer so vršale plohe. "Kar pada naj. Ozimina je posejana. Sadje je obrano vse, razen treh tepk. Te naj obero ali otresejo sinovi. Če bo le preveč lilo, jih danes ne bo sem gor."

Živina je bila hitro opravljena. Jaka se je ravno odpravljal k britju, ko so se odprla vrata. Jože je prišel prvi in se vsedel za mizo. "Tako lije, da sem ves moker." Mati mu je hitro prinesla za preobleči.

"Jože, pojdi se preobleči v kamro, Medtem bom skuhala čaj in pripravila ajdove žgance. Da bi vsaj še onadva prišla." Obrnila se je, kakor da ima trideset let. Ko je Gornikov Jaka odložil brivsko orodje, se je pražnje oblekel. Vtem sta prišla še Zvonko in Peter, oba premočena. Mati jim je prinesla suho perilo in stare hlače. Zunaj je čedalje bolj lilo.

"Videl sem, da ste že posejali." je dejal Jože in odložil žlico. "Ali vama je kdo pomagal, da sta jo obdelala?" "Če vas treh ni bilo čez teden domov. si lahko misliš, da sva jo sama obdelala." "Tudi vrt sta obrala," je rekel Zvonko. "Tri tepke še stoje polne, da jih otresete in odnesete v dolino. Prav vam bodo prišle. No, Jože, kaj je rekla žena. Je ne bo k nam na obisk." je mirno. a z drhtečim glasom vprašal oče.

Vsi trije sinovi so se spogledali.

"Ne bo je, oče. Šla je z otrokom na obisk domov. Obljubili so ji, da bodo navozili peska in kamenja. Še temelje bodo pomagali kopati. Oče, ker se nisva v nedeljo dodobra pogovorila, bi se danes, kajne? Tistih sto kubikov bi mi dali. Naredite čimprej prošnjo za sečno dovoljenje. Ob sanincu bi zvozil v dolino. Tako sva sklenila z ženo."

"Ali boš res ostal v dolini in delal na žagi".

"Qče, rečem vam, da zdaj ni prijetno na žagi, ker

Pokora — delež kristjana

Navadno se razveselimo, ko pride postni čas, kajti stem pomlad ni daleč vstran. V pomladanskem času pride sprememba v naravi, novo življenje, narava se prerodi. A preden pride do novega življenja, v naravi nekako vse umre; mraz in sneg in led vladajo v deželi. A sončni zarki počasi a z gotovostjo prikličejo novo življenje na dan. Prav tako bi naj v naši duši zaživelo novo življenje prav v postnem času. Postni čas je bil, je in bo ostal kot čas pokore, čas ko gremo v svojo notranjost in se vprašamo, kaj smo do sedaj naredili za svoje zveličanje.

Ko gremo skozi vsakdanje življenje, veliko naredimo za svoje telesne potrebe, za potrebe naših družin. A ne pozabimo, da smo mi vsi na poti proti večnosti; vse kar delamo ali trpimo lahko naredimo zaslužno za nebesa. Cerkev nam v tem času znova kaže na Križ in na Njega, ki je umrl na Križu. Ne, ni bilo lahko za Jezusa, da nas je odrešil. Prav tako tudi za nas mnogokrat ne bo lahko, da ostanemo na ozki poti ki vodi proti večni sreči. Današnji človek se je kar odvadil doprinašati žrtve, zato besede kot odpoved, post se več ne slišijo po naših družinah. "Kdo pa se še posti dandanes", slišimo kot odgovor: In prav te stvari nas dvigajo proti Bogu. Zato je nujno, da se sprijaznemo z besedo pokora in jo vpeljemo v svoje vsakdanje življenje. A pokora ni samo odpoved določenim stvarem, post, trdo delo; predvsem je pokora sprememba v našem mišlenju, usmiritev naših prednostih, usmiritev naših misli proti večnosti, vse drugo bo potem sledilo v pravem redu. Koliko lažje se bo postit, če imamo pred sabo trpečega Jezusa, ki je šel preko Velikega Petka samo zato, da bi mu mi lahko sledili tudi v vstajenju. Ko se postiš, če misliš samo nato, kako je težko se odreči hrani. kako je ta ali ona dobra stvar - bo sploh nemogoče, da bi začeli post v pravem duhu. A koliko lažje bo, če misliš na sadove tvoje žrtve. Ko danšnji človek misli le na to, kar ga bo zadovoljilo, kar mu bo prineslo udobnost danes in jutri, v tem času je nujno, da vsi ki hočejo slediti Kristusu prisluhnejo, kaj On govori o pokori.

Post, žrtev, pokora, vse to se nam zdi tako težko, celo nemogoče. Da, za današnjega človeka je nemogoče, ker zavrača božjo milost. A Kristus kliče tebe, da mu slediš preko Kalvarije s svojim križem, da te bo tako lahko klical v veselje Velikonočnega jutra.

sem samo pomočnik pri žagarskem mojstru. Drugo leto bom že kvlificiran žagarski mojster in plača bo večja. Z ženo se razumeva. Veste, oče, ostal bom na žagi in v dolini. Tam se nihče ne zmeni za hribovce. Na sestanku sem povedal sekretarju, ki je nekdaj tako rad pil vaš mošt, da sem Gornikov, pa je samo zamahnil z roko. Mož je pozabil, da je jedel in pil pri vas."

Ko boste prejele to Zarjo, bomo že v lepi pomladi. V tem času radi delamo pri pravilu hiš. V marcu tudi slavimo lepo pobožnost sv. Jožefa, zavetnika naše župne cerkve. Naši otroci bodo v velikem številu v procesiji na čelu z našo duhovšćino; Msgr. Butala, naš župnik, Fr. Tadej Terpin, njegov pomočnik Fr. Krizolog Cimerman in naš tedenski gost Fr. Roger Kaffer.

V tem letu nas je že zapustila sestra FRANCES GASPICH, bivša gl. nadzornica in prejšnja tajnica št. 20. Pokojna je bila dobra pomočnica pri podružnici. S hčerko Jonito Ruth sva jo obiskale en teden pred njeno smrtjo in je bila zelo vesela našega obiska. Bila je že več tednov v domu za onemogle. Ko se je raznesla novica o njeni smrti, smo bile zelo žalostne. Njena nečakinja rada prihaja na seje. Clanice so v lepem številu kropile njeno krsto ter se udeležile njene zadnje poti. Naj ji Bog bogato poplača vsa njena dobra dela!

Mr. in Mrs. John in Lottie Jevitz sta se vrnila iz Floride, kjer sta se udeležila poroke njune vnukinje. Mlademu paru želimo mnogo sreče!

V bolnišnici so bile: Catherine Knez, Jo Mlakar in Joe Erjavec. Vsem smo poslale voščilne kartice za hitro ozdravljenje.

Naže seje se bodo odslej vršile vsako tretjo nedeljo zvečer ob sedmi uri. Prihodnja seja bo dne 17. marca. Imele bomo govornico za ta večer. Čestitam MARY MAROLT, ki je bila izvoljena za častno mater leta naše podružnice. Mary je gl. blagajničarka Zveze. Želimo ji še mnogo let dela pri SŽZ.

Zopet je čas, da se malo oglasim v našo lepo ZARJO, da ne boste mislili, da smo kar zaspali, ker ni bilo že dolgo nič dopisa od naše podružnice. Vsaka rajši bere kot pa piše.

Pri naši podr. je vse lepo in živo. Seje so prav dobro obiskane vsaki mesec. Na seje pride 40 do 50 članic vsak mesec. Za glavno ali letno seje je pa večja udeležba. Tudi na zadnji decemberski seji smo imele lepo udeležbo. Po kratki seji, so bile volitve odbora in je bila izvoljena mlada članica. Rozi Stekel, ki je prevzela mesto predsednice. Iz srca ji želimo vse najlepše, da bo srečno in polno napredka za našo podružnico. Ostali odbor je ostal po starem. Jaz sem vodila podružnico 30 let, zato je že bil čas, da odstopim in da mlade nadaljujejo. Hvala lepa vsem odbornicam, ki so bile vse tako dobre z menoj, da smo vedno delale za korist podr. in naše Zveze.

Sedaj v zimskem času nimamo sej, ker pride slabo vreme. Ravno sedaj ko to pišem, je zelo mrzlo in tudi dosti snega. Naša prva seja v tem letu bo dne 17. marca, kakor po navadi tretji torek v mesecu ob 7:30 zvečer.

Tudi smrt je že posegla v nase vrste. Zgubile smo dobro dolgoletno članico, Anno Berkopec. Bog ji daj večni mir in večna luč naj ji sveti. Družini naše globoko sožalje.

Imamo nekaj članic tudi zelo bolnih. Bog naj jim nakloni ljubo zdravje.

Prejmite lepe pozdrave vse naše članice in sestre po širni Ameriki in vse glavne odbornice. ANNA TRONTEL

Kakor sem že v zadnjem dopisu omenila, smo imele božični party v The Vogeu restavrantu, dobro smo bile postrežene in lepo smo se imele. Nato je bila v slovenskem klubu seja in volitve za odbor. Odbor je ostal vse po starem. To je predsednica Rosi Bradack, podpredsednica Jennie Mohrčić, tajnica — blagajničarka Frances Ulle, zapisnikarca Moly Južna, za pregled knjig - Auditors - Moly Južna, Kristina Ludvik, in Mary Gržely. Sargeant of Arms Kristina Ludvik, angleška poročevalka Ulle. Frances slovenska poročevalka Julka Klammer.

Iskrene častitke Jennie Mohorčič, ki je bila soglasno imenovana za letošnjo častno mater naše podružnice. Jennie je dobro poznana po njenih dobrih delih v naši podružnici. kakor tudi pri našem slov. klubu. Ona res zasluži to čast, zato smo vse z veseljem ji dale to priznanje.

Kot mali spomin na naše dve bolni članice za Božic je tajnica Fany Ulle, poslala malo darilo v denarju Jenny Lagina in Pepci Drobnič.

Mary Modic pa je odletela takoj po praznikih, v toplo, Californijo na obisk k družini svojega sina Franka za en mesec dni.

Kakor vsako zimo nas je tudi letos obiskala influenca in resno bolne ni bilo nebene v nevarnosti. Le gospod John Žužek, oče, naše članice Adeline Kutie je moral kar na hitro z ambulanco v bolnico, lahka srčna kap, vzrok je bil kidanje snega: in po dveh tednih, seje tudi že vrnil iz bolnice na okrevanje v dom svoje hčerke. Po njegovi aktivnosti mu človek nebi prisodil, da gre žev 87 leto.

V sredini meseca marca bomo, ko bo pismonoša nam dostavil naš mesečnik ZARJA, in bo še nekaj dni, do praznika Sv. Jožefa in želim vsem Jožicam, Pepcam in Jožetom, srečne godovne dneve. še posebno pa tistim ki imate rojstne dneve v tem mesecu.

Ko ta dopis pišem so naši ameriški talci — Hostages osvobojeni po 444 dneh nečloveškega mučenja po iranskih barbarjih, kot jih naš novi predsednik imenuje. ### GREETINGS FROM YOUR YOUTH DIRECTOR

I was so pleased to receive such instant response from Kathy Nusko of Br. No. 2 Chicago to my request from juniors for articles on junior activities, poems, letters or essays. She did such a fine job in reporting on the Christmas Party held by Br. No. 2. I hope that her article will be an inspiration for others to contribute to future issues.

For the May issue, I would like to suggest that you write a letter, poem or essay about mothers, grandmothers, aunts, or other special women who have been good to you or helped you in some way. Too often we don't take the time to tell these special people in our lives how much we appreciate what they do for us. It will also give us some insight into what kids really think is important to them. I must have these articles by March 15th so that I can get them in before the deadline. Again I offer cash awards, the amount depending on the response I receive.

I would like to commend Ann Gradishar and Phyllis Turk of Branch No. 35 on the fine job they are doing working with the youth dance group from our area. I've seen them perform and I can't tell who is enjoying it more the children who perform or the adults who watch, it involves a lot of time and work but I'm sure the end result makes it all worthwhile. Thank you ladies for helping to create interest in our young people in their Slovenian culture.

Slovenian Children Perform Songs and Dances

Tears of joy were evident among those who watched the East Range American Jugoslav Youth Dancers sing Slovenian songs, and perform native dances this fall and winter.

Ed Modetz, who helped organize an October Grape Festival in Aurora, Minnesota, recognized the need to preserve Slovenian traditions, and decided a children's dance group would be an excellent means to accomplish this end.

The children attend practice sessions prior to each performance under the watchful eyes of Phyllis Turk, Ann Gradishar, and Jim Karish. Appearances have been made at the Grape Festival, Slovenian Home in Chisholm, Aurora White Community Board and Care Center, Aurora Iron Gate Apartments, Range Polka Club Christmas Party in Biwabik, and at the Aurora talent show.

At each performance Jim acts as leader and accompanies the children on the button box. They soon become involved in a lively polka while singing such favorites as "Moja Dekla," and " 'Round and 'Round the 'Christmoos' Tree."

The dance group members include: Aurora: Amy Turk, Melissa Turk, Stacy Jasperson, Stephanie Jasperson, Cindy Kalar, Brent Kalar, Allan Karich, John Karich, Michelle Klander, and Nicole Klander. Biwabik: Michael Grivette, Ann Peterson, John Karish, Kim Karish, Kris Karish, Kari Karish, and Michael Karish. Hoyt Lakes: Scott Kulaczewicz and Sara Kulaczewicz.

Year 1 for the American Jugoslav Youth Dancers was an unqualified success, and additional performances are anticipated in 1581. There is only one minor problem. Alterations will have to be made from time to time in the costumes as the children continue to grow!

Life is for the birds!

Hi Boys and Girls,

This month's article is dedicated to our feathered friends, the birds. Did you ever just stop and watch them? They can be quite hilarious at times. (That is when they're unaware of your presence.) Besides being comical, they can also be mysterious

For example, for some reason unknown to man, the swallows always return to Capistrano on March 19th, St. Joseph's day. Not a day sooner or a day later. To some of you that may not be such a big deal, so consider this. They're returning from Africa, their winter migration place. Earlier, I mentioned they always return on St. Joseph's day, well let me correct myself as they did miss one year. It was during WW II. (Just between you and me, considering there was a giant of a war going on at the time. I think we can over look this one blunder.)

Also, I believe it's March 15th that the buzzards arrive at their home in Ohio. (I apologize to all my readers, especially those from Ohio, for not knowing the exact town and date.) The important thing, however, is that the buzzards like the swallows return to the same place at the same time each year.

Of course, not all birds pass navigation with honors. Like people, there's always the "class clown", who when the time comes to migrate either forgets to or somehow manages to get separate from the rest of the flock and lost. As was the case with the mallard we discovered in our backyard. Before I continue, I think it's only fair to mention that I live in the city, and not near any farmland.

I was upstairs in my bedroom, when my sisters called me to hurry downstairs. Looking out of the kitchen window, I saw a Mallard Duck flapping his wings and quacking up a storm. He then climbed the snow bank at the edge of our driveway and did a belly flop, head first into the puddle on the drive. Since the puddle was only an inch deep, I imagined it smarted some when he hit his head on the cement. He repeated this routine several times as he was bound and determined to go "underwater". Finally he got so disgusted that he just walked away.

The Scramble is on to decorate Easter Eggs

It's almost Easter time and Easter means decorating eggs.

No one knows just how the egg came to be part of this holiday.

Both the egg and the rabbit or bunny have become known as signs of the goddess of spring whose name was Eostre.

When you are decorating eggs at home your mother probably will be boiling them for you beforehand. If you wish to keep your egg she will have to boil it at least two hours, so be patient. If you plan to eat it on the holiday or afterwards be sure that none of your decorations are poisonous.

After your eggs are boiled you may wish to clean them in warm water and you may pat away any dirty spots with a soft cloth dipped in vinegar. Then you should handle them as little as possible.

You probably will be dipping them in Easter egg dyes or food coloring your mother has bought at the store. Be sure the egg is the same temperature as the room — not too cold.

There are all sorts of other materials you can use to decorate them — paper, decals, straw, flowers and seeds. You can also make designs on them with pencils, watercolor paint and felt-tipped pens.

But, once again, if what you use could be poisonous do not plan to eat the eggs later. The shell of the eggs takes whatever you are using into the inside of the egg that you would eat.

Some of the things you could draw on your eggs are flowers which mean love, the sun and stars which mean life, the cross which is a symbol of Christ and ribbons which mean everlasting life.

All in all, whatever you design on your eggs — and remember the Easter bunny brings them back to you on Easter Sunday — you're sure to find it's lots of fun.
