

Društvena naznanila

Društvo sv. Štefana, št. 1,
Chicago, Ill.

Redna seja našega društva se bo vrnila v soboto, 4. februarja, v navadnih prostorih. Prečetek ob 8. uri zvečer.

Nujno vabim, da se udeleži te seje celokupno članstvo brez izjeme, moški in ženske, kajti razpravljale se bodo na njej zadeve izredne važnosti, ki se morajo končno veljavno enkrat rešiti na tej seji. Zadeve, ki so bodo razmotrovane, bodo napravile sejo tudi nad vse zanimivo. Pridite torej vsi, ne glede, ali živite blizu alidaleč. Ženske opozarjam, da imajo pri društvu ravno take pravice kakor moški, in se jih naj torej poslužujejo. Tudi one naj pridejo vse na to sejo. Tudi tisti nikarte ostati doma, kateri ste mogoče v zaostanku z asementom zaradi revščine. Po odločbah društva imate do zdaj enake pravice kakor drugi. Tudi vi imate pravico, da uporabite svoj glas. Splošno vsi, kateri ste vpisani v članski knjigi društva sv. Štefana, vsi, brez izjeme, pridimo na to sejo.

Po seji namerava športni klub našega društva prirediti za članstvo Card party. Bo torej poleg vsega že razvedrolo.

Kakor navadno, bom pričel pobirati asesment ob pol sedmih (6:30). Prosim vse, naj pridejo plačat pred sejo, kajti med sejo bodo zadeve, ki se bodo obravnavale, zahtevale vso našo pozornost.

Bratski pozdrav,
P. Vidmar, tajnik.

Društvo sv. Janeza Krstnika, št. 13, Biwabik, Minn.

Cenjeno članstvo prosim ter vladljuno vabim, da se polnoštevilno udeleži seje v nedeljo, dne 5. februarja v cerkveni dvorani; pričetek točno ob dveh pooldne. Na tej seji imamo za ukreniti nekaj važnih stvari, in da bo mogoče to izvršiti, je treba, da pridemo vsi skupaj. Na kratko bomo tudi pogledali načaj o delovanju društva za preteklo leto.

Lahko rečem, da so bili vsled slabih časov hudo prizadeti vse naši člani brez izjeme, in vsakdo je bolj ali manj težko izvrševal svoje finančne dolžnosti napram društvu. Ravnov v takih časih pa se pokaže solidnost kakega društva. V takih časih pokaže članstvo, ali mu je društvo kaj pri srcu, ali se sploh kaj brigata za njegov dobrobit. V takih časih, ko se je treba žrtvovati, se pokaže pravilno član. Da, članstvo našega društva zasluži v tem oziru visoko pohvalo. Njegova zasluga je, da je naše društvo klub sedanjim težkim ter slabim časom bolj trdno kot kdajkoli za časa njegovega obstanka, in sicer v finančnem oziru. Lahko rečem, da naše članstvo ni samo na papirju, ampak je večina njih, ki so pripomogli, da je prišlo društvo na svojo najvišjo stopinjo.

V imenu vsega sedanjega odpora se torej na tem mestu najlepše zahvaljujem cenjenemu članstvu, ker v resnicu zaslubi pohvalo. Nekaj je tudi pri nas takih, ki ne zasluzijo nobene pohvale, ampak palico. Toda hvala Bogu, takih ni dosti; upam, da bodo tudi ti enkrat spregledali svoje napake. Zeleti je, da bi se naše delovanje izboljšalo v vseh ozirih, da bomo koncem tega leta zamogli beležiti še večje bratske uspehe. Torej cenjeno članstvo, zelite bi me vesilino, oki bi se v tekočem letu udeleževali v polnem številu mesečnih sej, ker le na ta način je pričakovati napredok pri društvu in Jednoti. Torej trdno upam, da bom v tem pogledu uslušan, za kar se vam že v naprej lepo zahvaljujem.

Društvo sv. Petar i Pavla, broj 64, Etna, Pa.

Stovana brači i sestre: Ovime se pozivate da nefaljeno dode na našu redovitnu sjednico, koja će se obdržavati na 5. februara točno u 2 sata posle pođene na 110 Bridge St.

Dalje opominje se svaki član, koji duguje tri mjeseca, neka nastoji, da svoju dugovinu podmiri, jerbo više društvo nemže čekati nikoga, pošto mi razporez moramo slati redovito svaki mjesec, a naša blagajna svakim danom sve, to jest manja. Pa stoga molim naše člane, da svaki član, koji duguje tri mjeseca i više, a ni mu moguće da plati, neka takovi dođe na sjednicu, i neka se posluži polakšicom, k oje naša slavna K. S. K. Jednota daje svomu članstvu. Ako li koji od takovih ne učini, je ču biti prisiljen, da svakog takovog člana suspendiram po pravilama.

Družgo: Svaki član mora da znade kakad mu njegova rezerva izlazi; prvo nego mu izajde, mora da dode na društvenu sjednicu, da mu se ponovno odobri, pošto tajnik nemože niko molbenicu ispuniti, dok mu sjednica ne odobri; to spašava svakoga onoga, koji več jest na rezervi, a istotako i onima, koji žele doći na rezervu, ako u slučaju nisu mogućni da platiju svoje mjesecne pristoje sada. Svi oni članovi, koji jesu na rezervi, dužnost jih veže, da platiju društvo za bolesnu potporu 70 centi na mjesec ako želi biti na istu osigurani. Svaki član, koji se javi na bolesnu potporu, a več je dužan od prošle godine tri mjeseca, nema pravo na bolesnu potporu; a dužan je platiti u društvenu blagajnu 10 centi za upravne troškove, to svi oni, koji ne platiju na bolesnu potporu.

Toliko do znanja i ravnanja članovima i članicama našeg društva. — Sa pozdravom, Stanko Skrbin, tajnik.

Društvo sv. Jožefa, št. 103, Milwaukee, Wis.

Tem potom opominjam vse člane in članice našega društva, da se polnoštevilno udeležite prihodnje seje dne 6. februarja v navadnih prostorih ob 7:30 zvečer. Na dnevnom redu bo več važnih točk za rešiti in se pričakuje vaše udeležbe, da ne bo potem kakega brezpotrebnega govorjenja.

Nadalje naznanjam, da naše društvo priredi plesno veselico dne 5. februarja v Labor dvorani na West Allis. Torej se prosi vse člane, da se blagovljijo udeležiti, kajti vstopnico bo moral plačati vsak član ali članica. Vabimo tudi naša bratska društva iz West Allisa in Milwaukee, kajt tudi vse rojake in rojakinje, da nas blagovljijo posetiti na zgoraj omenjeni dan. Za dobro postrežbo bo vsestransko poskrbljeno.

Z bratskim pozdravom,
Louis Sekula, tajnik.

Društvo sv. Cirila in Metoda, št. 144, Sheboygan, Wis.

Vabilo na sejo

Člani našega društva so vladljuno vabjeni, da se gotovo udeležijo prihodnje redne seje v nedeljo, dne 5. februarja.

Kakor se spominjate, je bilo predlagano od naših mlajših članov na glavni seji meseca decembra, da bi se priredilo kakor zabavo po društveni seji meseca februarja. Ta predlog je bilo odglasovan in sprejet z veliko večino. Torej ste vabjeni vse člani, katerim je le mogoče, da se udeležite te seje, ki bo kolikor mogoče kratka; po seji pa po Card party. Pričakujemo, da se boste vsi tisti gotovo udeležili te zabave, kateri ste zanj glasovali na zadnji glavni seji, kakor tudi drugi, katerim je le mogoče.

Sobralski pozdrav,

John Udovich, tajnik.

Vabilo na sejo in Card party

Članstvo našega društva je vladljuno prošeno ter vabljeno na prihodnjo sejo dne 5. februarja popoldne. Seja bo bolj kratka; takoj zatem pa sledi igranje na karte. Igralo se bo "66," "rummy," "Sheephead" in "skat." V tem namen bodo najboljši igralci razdeljene lepe nagrade.

Na razpolago bodo tudi okrepčila. Vabljeni so starci in mladi člani ter članice. Torej na vselej svidenje prihodnjo nedeljo!

John Stubler, predsednik zabavnega odbora.

Društvo Marija Pomoč Kristjanov, št. 165, West Allis, Wis.

Pri rastu našega mesta West Allis, tudi podpora društva niso izostala. Če pogledamo 15 let nazaj, ne najdemo tedaj še nobenega ženskega podpornega društva v naseljini, spadajočega h KSKJ.

Za ustanovitev začetnega društva se je tedaj zavzel naš agilni Jednotar sobrat Louis Sekula, 19-letni tajnik društva sv. Jožefa, št. 103 KSKJ. Brat Sekula se je podal takrat še po majhni slovenski naselbini z namenom ustanoviti novo društvo. Po velikem trudu se mu je posrečilo pridobiti 16 zavednih slovenskih žena ter deklet. Imena teh bomo pozneje naznali. Te rojakinje so na svojem prvem sestanku zahajale prvo našo društveno gredico ali vrtec, vanj zasadile prvo mladiko, iz katere je zrastlo naše društvo Marija Pomoč Kristjanov.

Društvo se je takoj ob ustanovitvi prikllopilo k naši močni in zaslužni K. S. K. Jednoti in dobilo št. 165. To društvo danes ni več slabotna mladika ali vejica, ampak močno drevo, ki svojim članicam v vsakem slučaju bolezni, nesreči in smrti radovljeno po sestrsko prihiti na pomoč.

Po sklepu zadnje glavne seje meseca decembra bo naše društvo proslavilo 15-letnico svojega obstanka dne 23. aprila, na Belo nedeljo v Labor dvorani, West Allis. Tozadnji pripravljeni vstopnici je bilo na delu, tako da bo na 15-letni jubilej vse potrebljeno urejeno. Cenjena bratska društva v naši naselbini so vladljuno prošena, da ne bi na goriomenjeni dan priredila kakor zabave ali veselice. Povabilo na vsa cenjena društva sledijo.

Na tem mestu prosim vladljuno vse naše članice, udeležujte se redno in številno društvenih sej; zlasti prihodnje seje, ker bo dosti važnih zadev za rešiti. Vprašujete ta moj poziv.

Zaključek zadnje seje se glasi, da se za nobeno članico ne bo več zaklatalo iz društvene blagajne več kakor dva meseca. Torej članica ne more vselej te dejstvo vladljuno vabiti vse potrebljeno v skribi, ki nas temeje. Vstopnica bo na vselej vladljuno vabiti vse potrebljeno v skribi, ki nas temeje. Vstopnica bo na vselej vladljuno vabiti vse potrebljeno v skribi, ki nas temeje.

V teku enega meseca so naše društvo za vladljuno vabimo tu-in se preselile v vladljuno dve naše članice: sestra Frances Zagor in sestra Amalija Berens.

Obe sta bili dobri članici našega društva, valed česar jih bomo zelo pogrešale. Naše društvo je obema pokojnicama na pravilo časten pogreb ob veliki udeležbi članic, sorodnikov, prijateljev in znancev. Prav lepa hvala vsem za udeležbo pri pogrebu. Hvala tudi pevskemu zboru Zarja KSKJ za žalostinike.

Nadalje vladljuno vabimo tu-di drugo občinstvo, posebno pa člane in članice naših bratskih društev. Hard Time Dance se vrši torej dne 5. februarja včer v Francelinovi dvorani. Prekrbljena bo najboljša godba. Torej na vselej svidenje! Povabilo!

Helen Yurchich, tajnica.

Društvo sv. Anton, broj 216, McKees Rocks, Pa.

Draga mi brača i sestre K. S. K. Jednote: Ne mislim sa ovim dopisom na pojedince, nega na cijelo organizaciju, K. S. K. Jednote. Zavolju našega članstva od prošle redovite sjednice 15. januara, u raspravi radi uplačivanja društvenog asesmenta ili posudjivanja od društva, ili glavnoga ureda, ovo zadaje neprilike jednim i drugim. Društvene blagajne jesu na slabom, ili prazne, a glavnih ureda nam kaže ogromne svote posudjenoga novca. Velim, društvene blagajne jesu slabe, osobito kod malih i mladih društava, koje ne postoje niti 10 godina. Davno je prošlo, da se nemogu prirediti nikakve društvene zabave kao: plesovi, izleti ili banke; a isto se nemože tjerati članstvo sa rasporezi, tako od nikuda novaca u društvenu blagajnu. Makar mora biti na umu svakome članu naše Jednote, da je bila plemenita činjenica glavnoga ureda, da se čim više uzdržimo pod okriljem naše majke K. S. K. Jednote, to jest, da se daje iz glavnega uređenja.

Vsi naši člani in članice, starci in mladi, so prošeni, da se udeležijo te zabave; pripeljite seboj svoje prijatelje, sorodnike, znance in sosedje, kajt začne v užitku bo dosti. Vstopnina znača 25 centov. Za vsako igralno mizo bodo določeni lepi dobitki.

Ta prireditev se vrši povodom osem-letnice ustanovitve našega društva, torej upam, da bo večer dvorana Slovenskega društvenega doma na Recher Ave. polna.

K sklepnu posim, da si zapomnite, da pobiram na svojem domu asesment dne 24. in 25. v mesecu. Vljudno vas prosim, da bi bili s plaćevanjem asesmenta bolj točni in redni.

Pozdrav,

Mary Vidmar, tajnica.

Društvo Marije Pomagaj, št. 196, Gilbert, Minn.

Letna seja našega društva se je tedaj zavzel naši člani, kajt vabljeno na 11. decembra. V odboru so bile izvoljene sledeče sestre: Kristina Kolar, predsednica; Mary Kosher, podpredsednica; Helen Yurchich, tajnica; Frances Potočnik, zapisnikarica; Josephine Ulcer, blagajničarka; Josephine Kramar, rediteljica; nadzornice: Anna Kukar, Mary Ulcer, Mary Ipanec.

Društvene seje se vrše vsako drugo nedeljo v mesecu ob dveh pooldne pri Mrs. Yurchich, tajnici.

Nadaj se je bilo sklenjeno, da priredimo plesno veselico v korist društvene blagajne. Ker je naša blagajna prazna, je dolžnost vsake članice, da stori svojo dolžnost in se veselice udeleži, ter pripeljite tudi svoje prijatelje, da se veselica tem bolje obnese in pomaga blagajni.

Nadaj se je bilo sklenjeno, da se oblečejo v najbolj revne ali slabe obleke. Imeli bomo posebne sodnike, ki bodo določili nagrade za najbolj slabo oblečene; dve nagrade bodo za ženske, dve pa za moške. Torej ne bo nikakog izgovora, da nimate primerne ali lepe obleke za to veselico; čim slabše boste oblečeni, tem bolj boste vredni ali deležni kakor nagrade. Vstopnina bo samo 25 centov za osebo; članice kupovili tikete, če se veselice udeležijo ali ne.

Po sklepu zadnje glavne seje meseca decembra bo naše društvo proslavilo 15-letnico svojega obstanka dne 23. aprila, na Belo nedeljo v Labor dvorani, West Allis.

Tozadnji pripravljeni vstopnici je bilo na delu, tako da bo na 15-letni jubilej vse potrebljeno urejeno.

Cenjena bratska društva v naši naselbini so vladljuno prošena, da ne bi na goriomenjeni dan priredila kakor zabave ali veselice.

Povabilo na vsa cenjena društva sledijo.

V blaghotno vpoštevanje

Na zadnji konvenciji v Waukeganu, Ill., je bilo debatirano, kako bi bilo mogoče znižati nekaj Jednotnih upravnih stroškov. V ta namen se je vpoštevalo dejstvo, da se nekaterim družinam posilja preveč iztisov Glasila, kar naravno stane demar. Nekateri družini prejemajo kar po pet, šest ali celo več številki Glasila.

Večina delegatov je bila mnenja, da naj bi v takih slučajih dva Glasila za eno družino popolnoma zadostovala. To pripričilo in ta nasvet je konvencija končno tudi odobrila.

Naravno, da velja ta določba samo za one družine, ki hočejo prostovoljno znižati ali opustiti nekaj številki Glasila, kajti naročnina je za vse članstvo brez razlike obvezna.

Za vsakih 100 manj tiskanih številki lista se lahko prihrani Jednoti tedensko $1.30, kar znača na leto že lepo sveto. Po naši sodbi bi se prav lahko znižalo število naročnikov še za 500, pa bi se letno prihranilo nad $300; to sveto bi se lahko za kako drugo dobro stvar porabilo.

Radi tega ponovno apeliramo na vse one družine, ki prejemo več Glasila, da naj število listov omejijo, kolikor jem drag in kolikor največ mogoče... V ta namen izrežite tu navedeni kupon in ga pošljite v kuverti na upravnštvo Glasila. Pri tem lahko rabite svinčnik... Pišite pa jasno in razločno.

LISTNICA UREDNISTVA

NOVA IGRICA ZA NAŠA DRUSTVA

V zadnji številki Glasila, dne 24. januarja je bila na 4. strani priobčena enodejanska šaloigra, oziroma šaljivi prizor pod naslovom "Izvanredna odborova seja." V prvi vrsti priporočamo vsem uradnikom in uradnicam društev naše Jednote, da naj to igro prečitajo; gotovo se bodo pri tem malo razvedrili in prisrčno smejni.

Ta šaloigra bi morala biti prvič vprizorjena na naš zadnji Jednotni dan v Clevelandu, toda je morala izostati vsled obolenosti enega igralca. Spisal jo je urednik Glasila.

Priporočamo jo našim krajevnim društvom ali na kaki meščni seji, ali na kaki veselici. Šaloigra bo gotovo povzročila dosti nedolžnega smeha tudi med članstvom in med občinstvom. Vprizori se jo lahko brez odras; rešiser pa naj izreže vloge za igralce iz Glasila.

NOVA KAMPANJSKA PESEM

Na našem Jednotinem dnevu v Clevelandu, dne 15. t. m. smo čuli v Grdinovih dvoranah prvič lepo, Jednotini hmn podobno pesem "Našim sejalcem," katero je zapel oktet Pevskega društva "Naš Dom," Lorain, O. pod vodstvom pevovodja brata Louis Seme-ta. Besedilo te pesmice je urednika Glasila, skomponiral ali uglasil jo je pa br. Seme.

Po nekaterih naselbinah, kjer imajo društva naše Jednote svoj pevski zbor, ali ondi, kjer je pri kakem pevskem društvu dosti naših članov-pevcev, bi bilo umestno s to novo pesmijo nastopiti, ker je v resnici krasno uglašena. Posebno je umestna za jubilejno kampanjo mladinskega oddelka, katero je morda gl. odbor na svoji januarski seji razpisal. Partitura te pesmi se dobi za 50c. pri bratu: Louis Seme, 1769 East 33rd St., Lorain, Ohio.

Da, predpustna razprodaja sloveninskih gramofonskih plošč traja samo do 15. februarja 1933. Prečitajte pazno tozadevni oglas v današnji številki "Glasila" in poslužite se prilike, ker tako nizkih cen gramofonskim ploščam ne bo več.

PODPORA BREZPOSELNIK

Warm Springs, Ga., 23. januarja. Tu sta obiskala novega predsednika Roosevelta nedovina republikanska senatorja LaFollette in Bronson Cutting, ki sta hotela pridobiti novega predsednika za načrt, da Kongres dovoli $500,000,000 podpore brezposelnim. Kot pripovedujeta, je Roosevelt simpatično poslušal njune predlog. Oba senatorja sta se po razgovoru z Rooseveltom izjavila, da bosta nemudoma vložila tozadevni predlog v senat, in če pri sedanjem zborovanju ne bo sprejet, pride na vrsto pri izvanrednem zborovanju, ki ga bo sklical novi predsednik. Oba senatorja, dasi sta republikanca, sta podpirali Roosevelta v zadnjih volitvah, in dejstvo, da sta ga prva obiskala na njegovem domu, skoraj garantira, da bo eden ali drugi imenovan za kabinetnega uradnika. Bronson bo mogoče imenovan za tajnika notranjih zadev. LaFollette kot Bronson se je izjavil, da način, kot se sedaj deli podpora, je popolnoma nezadosten in ne odgovarja današnjim razmeram.

Mokri zmagali

Columbus, O., 26. januarja. Denes je senat državne zbornice odglasoval s 25 glasov proti petim, da smejo sodniki odpustiti kazen, katero naložijo za kršnje prohibicije. Odpustiti smejo zaporno kazen in denarno globo, kar je bilo dosedaj izrecno prepovedano. Za vsak drug zločin smejo sodniki kazeni odpustiti, toda kazni za kršnje prohibicije niso smeli suspendirati. Računa se, da bo izpuščenih na stotine in stotine ljudi, ki so bili v zaporih radi prohibicije. Danes bo senat glasoval, da smejo zdravniki predpisati en pint žganja, namesto pol pinta kot dosej.

20. AMENDMENT

Washington, D. C., 23. januarja. — Senator Glass je že pred desetimi leti v zbornici stavil svoj predlog, ki naj bi bil kot

F. S. PAVLETOV:
Polakinca
Odlomek iz življenja

(Konec.)

Polakinca pa je preplašena izpustila kamenke in začudeno pogledala, kdo jo moti. Potem pa je zardela do dolgih, v solncu se svetlečih, kostanjevih las, je zno napela ustni in rekla:

"Nič! Pusti me!"

"Oho!" se je smejal lovec.

"Pusti me!"

Polakinca se je izkušala rešiti. A lovec jo je krepko držal za roko in se smejal njenemu brezuspešnemu naporu.

Tedaj pa ga je udarila z roko po licu, in lovec jo je izpustil, se obrnil in odhajal.

Ona pa nekaj trenutkov ni vedela, kaj bi storila. Pričakovala je, da jo bo pretepel s palico, pa nič. Kar odšel je, in molče. Potem pa je stekla za njim, ga privjela za komolec in rekla:

"Ti!"

A lovec je ni poslušal. Stopal je dalje.

"Ti! Ali si jezen?"

Tedaj pa se je hipno obrnil, nasmejal se tako poredno in prešerno, jo pogledal tako živo in nagajivo, da je zardela in pobesila oči.

"Ali si jezen?" je vprašala in zmedena mečkala predpasnik.

"Nisem!" je dejal in jo še ljubeznivejše pogledal. Potem pa se je obrnil in odšel v gozd.

Polakinca pa je še dolgo časa stala na mestu in gledala po stezi, kjer je lovec izginil med gozdnim zelenjem.

V.

Odslej se je lovec večkrat ustavil tam nad jezerom pri Polakinca. Ugajala mu je naivnost, preprostost in zaupnost zapsušene in od vseh zaničevane deklime. Ugajala — a nič več.

Polakinca pa je postajala zadnji čas popolnoma drugačna. Že prej boječa, sumljiva — je bila zdaj vse to še vedno bolj. Srečno, zadovoljno se je čutila, a sreča ji je večala nezaupnost do vseh — samo do loveca ne. Ljudi se je izogibala. Govorila je samo potrebno, kratko, včasih brez vasek zvez. In ljudje so se še bolj čudili. Ta in oni je pritrdil: Neumna je, nismo se motili.

Otroci so jo dražili, a Polakinca se ni menila zanje. Molče je stopala za živino mimo njih, kakor bi jih ne čula. Zrla je v tla, smehljaj ji je igral krog usten in v očeh ji je sijala v najskrajnejših kotičkih tih radiost. Vse njeni mišljenje se je vrtilo okoli jezera, okoli loveca. Ko je privgnala živino do jezera, je sedla na svoje navadno mesto, in njeni misli so se sukale samo okoli svetle postave — njegove. Nič ni bila na jasnom s svojimi čuvstvi do loveca. Ni vedela, kaj pomeni ta njena radost, kadar ga zazre, niti njena čudna otožnost, kadar ga ni. To bolestno-zadovoljno čustvo je popolnoma preobvladalo njeno občutljivo notranjost. Včasih se je zagledala v gladino jezera, zazrla svoj smehljajoči se obraz, tam zadaj za seboj je videla živino, drugo poleg druge, ki je mirno in brezbrinjo mulila travo; nad vso okolico pa se je dvigal temnozeleni gozd, tako ponosno, tako skrivenostno, kakor drag in mil prijatelj. Včasih zopet pa je nemirno hodila ob bregu semijnta, oči vprte v tla, roki ob telesu in s stisnjennimi ustnami.

Tedaj pa se je zaslišal strel, ledč gori v ozadju za jezerom, in potem še eden . . . To je on —. In njeni misli so zopet pohitile za njim, štele njegove stopinje, poslušale njegov glas, pomenvale se z njim.

Proti večeru je bilo.

Mrač je plaval po okolici, po jezeru, po zelenih golicih, tako tiko, tako veličastno-skrivenostno, kakor bi hodil po potih, kakor bi se zbal zbuditi cvetke ob robu grmičja. Tuintam je samotno zacrilkal muren — pa hipo umolknil, kakor bi se ustrabil svojega premočnega glasu, ki se je razlegal po večerni tišini.

Polakinca se je ravno napravljala, da bi gnala živino domov. Ko je tako Takrat pa sta prišla iz gozda dva delavska fanta in se pogovarjala med seboj. Polakinca nista videla, stala je za grmom ob poti.

"V nedeljo bo pri Fatudu, ne?"

"Mislim da, saj tako mi je rekel Fatudu sam. Vsa dekleta je povabil."

"In meni je lovec Pavle dejal, da pride tudi. Rad bi se zopet zasukal —"

Delavca sta odhajala naprej po poti in se razgovarjala dalje, Polakinca ju ni več slišala.

"Tudi on" — ji je šinilo na um. "Gotovo jo je hotel iznenaditi, zato ji še ni povedal. Moreč pride jutri in ji pove. — Če ne, ga pa sama opomni. O da, rada bi šla, na njegovi strani bi stala in gledala, kako se vse vrte in suče — Oj, to mora biti lepo! Skoda, da sama ne zna plesati! No, pa saj je dovolj, da je le zraven. Brez nje gotovo ne pojde. Zakaj bi bil sicer tako prijazen in dober, ko drugi niso? —"

V vasi se je oglasil zvon k zdravamarji. Tajinstveno in skrivenostno so se raznašali njegovi glasovi nad okolico v valovitih, pojemanjih in zopet nastajajočih tresljajih.

Polakinca je sklenila roki, poleknila h grmu in molila. Tako vroče, tako živo že dolgo, dolgo ni. Njena duša se je izlivala v koprnečo molitev, in srce se ji je širilo. Molila je tudi za Pavla . . .

Zivina pa je začela stopati proti domu —.

VI.

Drugo popoldne je Polakinca zopet pasla nad jezerom. Dopolne ni bila tam. Gospodar ji je zopet strogo prepovedal pasti vedno na onem mestu. Zivina je lačna, že vso travo je zmulila — samo naj poizkusí zopet, zapodil jo bo! In res, dopoldne ni gnala. Saj je bila prepričana, da dopolne ne bo prišel. Popoldne pa ji ni dalo miru. Bala se je gospodarjeve grožnje: če izve, jo spodi! — Če pa ne gre tja — ga ne bo dobila in potem v nedeljo ne bo mogla z njim na ples k Fatudu . . . Kaj naj storí? Dvom jo je mučil. Ugibala je — Kaj, ko bi gnala živino drugam — sama pa šla vseeno k jezeru? Tako na skrivenem, nihče ne bo izvedel. Da, tako naredi, najboljše bode. Samo, da bi gospodar ne izvedel!

A kako naj izve? Zivina bo prisila sramiti domov — Tja žene proti Ževšam za gozd — sama pa pojde ob gozdnem robu do onega mesta . . . Kaj bi sicer dejal, če je ne bo? —

Vroče je bilo. Solnce je priplakalo z vso močjo junijevega popoldneva. Zivina je ostala v grmovju, da se ubrani sitnih muh. Polakinca pa je stopala počasni in previdno ob gozdnem robu proti jezeru. Oj da, previdnosti je treba. Nihče je ne sme slišati, nihče opaziti . . . Premikala se je po prstih, vedno za grmovjem. Skrbno se je ozirala na okoli, pazila, da ni zbjugala prevelikega šuma in rahlo dvigala veje nad seboj, da je niso tolkile po obrazu.

Zivaha rdečica ji je barvala navadno rumenkasta, suhljata lica. Oči so ji žarele, kakor tedaj, ko je časih gori nad Peščenkem skakala po skali. Ruta ji je zbleza na tilnik, in kostanjevje lasje, lepi, veliki in bujni so se tuintam zasvetili, kadar jih je zadel solnčni žarez, ki se je radevno ukral skozi gosto veje —

Dolgo, dolgo je čakala tam na mestu, a ni sedela na skali, ampak stala je za grmepom. Bala se je, da bi je kdo ne videl in bi povedal gospodarju. Potem bi jo zapodil iz službe.

Solnce se je vedno bolj nagnalo k zatonu, "za božjo gnado," kakor pravijo. Sence grmičja in smrečja so se večale —

Nič! Polakinca je mirno žedela in čakala. O, pride, gotovo pride, saj je danes že tretji dan, odkar ga ni bilo. Prej pa je prihajal redno vsak drugi dan —. Prav lepo ga poprosi in vzamejo s seboj k Fantu. Saj ni nič hudega, če gre z njim — In oni tudi ne odreče. Ko je tako dober, tako prijazen. Ves druženec kakor drugi. — Ej, ne odreče jsi.

Solnce je zašlo. Nebes je žarel, kakor v nekončnem plamenu. Vmes so plavali oblački, vse goreči, kakor raztopljen zlato. Za njimi pa temni ton azura.

Polakinco je začelo skrbeti, kaj je z živino. Je li še vsa tam? In če je ni, kaj potem? . . . Nehoti se je stresla pri tej misli —

In vendar: saj mora priti —

Res je prišel gori iz vasi. Ob njegovi strani pa Fatudova dvajsetletna Rezika. Smejala sta se tako živahno, tako razposajeno.

Polakinca je začutila kakor močan udarec po glavi. Tako čudno jo je izpreletovalo po vsem životu. Neka groza, neki strah se je je loteval.

Onadva pa sta prihajala bliže.

Polakinca se je stisnila k delu. Žila na senci, ki je razbijala, srce ji je glasno tolko.

"Ti, Pavle!" je dejala Rezika.

"No, kaj bi rada vedela?"

"Vidiš, čreš mesec dni bo po roku, kakor smo se danes zmenili. Mislim, da mi ne zameriš, če te nekaj vprašam? . . . Kaj si imel s Polakinco? Ljudje so te večkrat videvali tukaj."

"Oh, s Polakinco!" se je zasmajal on, "s tisto noričico! — Za kratek čas sem jih hodil praviti, da bo ona moja nevesta — in sirot je, seve, verjela. Pojd, pojdi . . . Lovski kratek čas, nič druzge ni bilo — dušica!"

Zasmajal se je zopet, in Rezika mu je pomagala. Potem pa sta se ločila: on je odšel skozi pot proti domu, dekle nizdoli proti vasi.

Polakinca pa se je krčevito držala za smrek. Nohtovi so se ji zarili v drevesno kožo, brezizrazno je gledala predse, kakor bi iskala nečesa. Dolgo dolgo je klečala na mestu brezčutno, kakor mrtva. Ko je vstala, se je moraloprijeti, da ni padla.

Zivina pa je prišla tisti večer sama domov, brez Polakinice.

Leta so minevala v enoličnem teku in risala svoje znake ljudem in izmučene obrazne.

Polakinca je postala popolnoma molčeča, čudna ženska, brez življenja. Vse, kar je delala, je bilo tako čudno, nenačadno, rekel bi — mrtvo. Kadar je izpregorovila, se je čulo, kakor glas ubitega zvona. Nikdar ji ni smeh razvedril suhega, črnikačega lika, nikdar ji ni okoz začarel v življenju in iskrosti ter razposajenosti; kakor časih, ni bilo nikdar več . . .

Ljudje pa so jo pomilovali. "Čimdalje bolj je zmešana!" so govorili. "Da bi jo Bog preložil — celi soseski bi dobro storili . . .

Za njeno skrito, veliko bolečino v srcu pa niso znali . . .

Sheboyganites to Repeat Metropolitan Minstrels

Amid the crooning of darkie melodies and creative, colorful settings lending a Southern atmosphere, the Metropolitan Minstrels will again make their appearance, by popular demand, at the Sheboygan High School Wednesday, Feb. 8, at 8 p. m. by a cast of 50 members of the SS. Cyril and Methodius Church of Sheboygan for the Sheboygan Relief Fund.

Many requests have been received for another performance of the minstrels which appeared recently at the Van Der Vaart Theater to a capacity audience.

A complete change in program is being planned which will assure another full house at the high school, it is anticipated.

Sheboygan's local dramatic talent will again be featured, the highlights of the program comprised of Ralph Jelenc, piano-accordionist; Kathryn Japiec, little acrobatic dancer; the Bavarian Dancers; Silver String Serenaders; the ensemble chorus, mixed choir, soloists, duets, trios and quartets, all of which will tend to offer an evening of fun and merriment.

The end men, who proved to be highly entertaining funsters at the previous performance, will have a supply of new jokes to spring to the audience.

Free tickets for the performance may be obtained from any member of the cast or at any local downtown store, and a free-will offering will be taken, proceeds of which will be given to Sheboygan's needy.

Lawrence Ayers, Peter Gottsacker, John Stubler, Miss Stanza Skok and Louis Francis comprise the production committee. The public is invited to attend the minstrels, and only children who are accompanied by their parents will be admitted to the performance.

A special invitation is extended to the neighboring communities and cities: Joliet, Waukegan, South Chicago, Cleveland and Milwaukee.

TO MAKE LIFE MORE AGREEABLE

A little more PATIENCE—with that person with whom I must live and who is not in sympathy with me.

A little more FIRMNESS—to continue that work which duty imposes on me but which is not according to my wishes.

A little more HUMILITY—to remain in that place assigned me by God, but which does not agree with my plans and dreams.

A little more REASON—to take people as they are, not as I think and wish them to be.

A little more WISDOM—to concern myself as little as possible with the affairs of others, and not become excited about them.

A little more STRENGTH—to accept patiently this event that has so suddenly disturbed my peace.

A little more AMIABILITY—not to show that my feelings have been hurt.

And, about all, a little more PRAYER—to draw God down into my heart and to keep Him with me.

JOLIET SODALISTS NAME OFFICIALS

Mary Gaspich Re-elected Prefect; Next Meeting Feb. 12

Officers for the ensuing year of the Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality, Joliet, Ill., were elected at the Jan. 22 meeting of the sodality. Mary Gaspich was re-elected as prefect. Irene Bluth, former librarian, is now first assistant. Second assistant is Helen Zelko, former assistant librarian. Mary Ogulin was unanimously elected as secretary again, and the treasurer's position is now filled by Anne Mutz. The librarians will be appointed by the Sister Moderator at the next sodality meeting.

To the outgoing officers, Elizabeth Znidersich, Lillian Grayhack and Mary Stukel, the sodality extends its deepest appreciation and thanks for their splendid work during the past year. The sodality extends its best wishes for success to the new officers and assures them of continued co-operation in every sodality activity so that 1933 will be another banner year for the sodality.

The next get-together of the sodality will be Feb. 12 in Slovenia Hall at a surprise party. One hundred and sixty places will be reserved, and every place is expected to be occupied.

Nature's Job of Year to Be Concentrated in 75 Seconds

Nature's job of adding a year's growth to a twig of a tree will be concentrated into 75 seconds before the eyes of visitors to Chicago's 1933 World's Fair—A Century of Progress Exposition.

This unique spectacle will be presented by means of a magnified automatic model of a cross-section of a twig of basswood, three years old, which develops a complete fourth year of growth in one minute and fifteen seconds while the visitor looks on. The display will be a part of the biological exhibit presented in the Basic Science Section of the Hall of Science.

The model is 7½ feet in diameter, or 360 times as large as the ¼-inch cross-section of the twig which it represents. In the process of demonstrating the year's growth of the twig, the model increases 18 inches in diameter or to 9 feet.

A series of sliding plates and moving canvases on the face of the model expand and contract under the operation of a reversing electric motor. A chain drive connects the power unit with a large bronze gear, on the face of which a crown gear drives 32 pinions attached to spindles.

Each spindle carries threads of two different pitches. The outer or coarser thread controls a plate which represents the movement of inner bark, the vegetable tissues and the bark. The finer thread controls the movement of connective tissue.

When the model expands to its complete growth, the motion of the plates outward is automatically halted by an electrical contact. The motor is then thrown into reverse and the gigantic twig grows back to its original condition.

TOOTH TALKS

Dr. J. W. Mally

Breaking of Teeth

It is a common thing for teeth to break during the mastication of food. Usually you will note that such teeth are either dead teeth or they are teeth with large cavities or fillings in them. Though the teeth themselves are said to be able to withstand upward to 400 pounds pressure, they are not built to crack nuts or gnaw on bones.

Teeth with large fillings in them break very easily, because, in these cases, the supporting strength is gone. Dead teeth also fall into this category.

When the pulp of a tooth is removed, as is the case in all dead teeth, the chief sustenance of the tooth is removed, hence the tooth loses its strength, rapidly becoming brittle and weak.

Dead teeth cannot be depended to stand up under the forces of mastication. Your dentist cannot build solidly upon a weak foundation.

Dentists most often hear patients insist that they broke a particular tooth while chewing on a soft piece of bread or some other soft massy food. In most of these cases the patients are telling the truth.

A soft mass of food will break a weakened tooth quicker than a piece of tough beefsteak. This can be demonstrated and proven by mechanical principles.

A soft mass is very easily squeezed into the cracks or fissures in a tooth, and when force is applied by an opposing tooth, it exerts a much greater pressure within the fissure than a piece of food that is not wedged in any crack. The soft mass of food in the fissure of a tooth serves as a crowbar and any normal amount of pressure on it will make it exert a far greater amount than that applied in the process of mastication, thus causing an already weakened tooth to chip or break very easily.

People should be fair and considerate to their dentist, and not place the blame of every mishap to their teeth to his faulty workmanship.

A man is usually able to conceal his middle name while he lives, but it always crops out on his tombstone.

Resolution of Bishops on Use of Leisure Time

Dr. J. W. Mally

Breaking of Teeth

The complete text of the resolution adopted at the annual General Meeting of the Bishops of the United States in November, 1932, on the subject of the use of leisure time is as follows:

"Unemployment has imposed upon millions of men and women more leisure time. While we pray the scourge of unemployment be lifted, we cannot but fear that the lesser hours of labor for many will continue. The problem, therefore, of the use of leisure time becomes more and more acute. It is one of the gravest problems at present facing our country. The individual is easily demoralized by idleness and aimlessness. Yet the door to both is held open by circumstance to millions of our young and our adult.

"The public entertainments are therefore more widely patronized. Commercialism, which our Holy Father has named as the root of modern evils, practically controls the theater of today, the spoken drama and the screen. Apart from a very small number of worthy plays and moving pictures, the stage and the movie have abandoned all reserve, mocked every finer human feeling, every higher taste, and show themselves as the panaderers of this day and age.

"For those who are idle, the government—city, state or federal—has, unfortunately, small moral concern. Yet it is the duty of government to aid in the moral well-being of its citizens. Government oftentimes does not protect its idle citizens; it leaves them to be prey of the theater and movie house owner, who exhibits by virtue of government authority, by virtue of a government license. The nation is debauched through the sanction of government. That our citizens permit this is no encouraging sign for the future moral and mental stamina of the nation. Yet both will be required in abundance, if we are to weather the storm that no one now seems able to control.

"We earnestly appeal to the conscience of our country to rouse itself for the sake of the unemployed, for the sake of the entire nation, to a sense of, and to action on, this far-reaching public evil.

"Leisure time should be used only for wholesome enjoyment and entertainment, such as one

INSTALL OFFICIALS OF CHICAGO SODALITY

Anne Madic Leads Group; Announce Membership Campaign

The installation of the new officers of the Blessed Virgin Sodality of St. Stephen's Parish took place at the last meeting on Jan. 20, each officer making a short speech, pledging her best efforts for the new year and asking the co-operation of the rest of the members in making our sodality one of the best known and most active in the vicinity. The newly elected prefect, Anne Madic, made an inspiring talk and pledged her efforts in leading the sodality to new heights, and we are all convinced that she is capable of the task. But that this might be accomplished the good-will and work of all the members is indispensably needed. So get together and show your good will by good deeds.

"The public entertainments are therefore more widely patronized. Commercialism, which our Holy Father has named as the root of modern evils, practically controls the theater of today, the spoken drama and the screen. Apart from a very small number of worthy plays and moving pictures, the stage and the movie have abandoned all reserve, mocked every finer human feeling, every higher taste, and show themselves as the panaderers of this day and age.

"For those who are idle, the government—city, state or federal—has, unfortunately, small moral concern. Yet it is the duty of government to aid in the moral well-being of its citizens. Government oftentimes does not protect its idle citizens; it leaves them to be prey of the theater and movie house owner, who exhibits by virtue of a government license. The nation is debauched through the sanction of government. That our citizens permit this is no encouraging sign for the future moral and mental stamina of the nation. Yet both will be required in abundance, if we are to weather the storm that no one now seems able to control.

"To our own people we appeal that they should further resolve to use part at least of their leisure time in attendance at daily Mass: In frequenting the other services of the Church and endeavoring to acquaint themselves with the meaning and the message to them of the liturgical year. To our Catholic organizations, particularly to our St. Vincent de Paul Councils, we earnestly recommend a personal service, personal contact with the individual unemployed. He may be facing the crisis of his life. Personal encouragement, even when financial aid is impossible, is of the greatest value.

"In like manner, Catholics of professional training, such as doctors, nurses, might most worthily give of their free time in service to the sick poor. Such service is effectively done by orderly, local organization.

"Spiritual help, personal companionship are the human chords by which we are sustained and hopefully bound one to another. To pastors, under the Ordinary course, we recommend the holding of extra Church devotions that further opportunity be given to the unemployed to pass well their leisure time."

Stephens' Bowling Wheel Preps Pinsters for Meet

It will not be very long now before the first ball of the 1933 KSKJ bowling tournament will be sweeping down the shining hardwood alleys to start the pinsters off to new honors. And so a short report of the St. Stephen's Parish Bowling League would not be amiss at this time. Our league has been in operation since last October and the teams have now settled down to a real dog fight. The standing of the teams indicates the even ability of the various teams. True it is that the last two teams, the Braves and Dodgers, are somewhat behind, but are still battling hard for a better position. So before the season comes to a close we expect plenty of excitement and upsets.

COOKING SCHOOL By Frances Jancer

TOASTED CHEESE SANDWICHES

Cook in the double boiler 1 cup sweet milk, 1 tablespoon cornstarch wet with a little cold milk, 2 tablespoons butter, 1 raw egg, salt and paprika to suit the taste. When mixture begins to thicken remove from stove and stir in ½ cup grated cheese, the sharper the better. Spread hot between slices of white bread, buttered. Place in toaster and brown lightly.

HAM AND EGG SANDWICHES

Mince pieces of left-over, lean boiled or fried ham. Mix well with the mashed yolks and whites of hard-boiled eggs and 1 or 2 small mustard onions. Put between slices of whole-wheat or white bread.

S. D. Z. LODGE PRESENTS ALL-STAR PROGRAM

A program equalling that of any professional stage was the remark of the people attending the fifth anniversary bill of the Modern Crusaders in Collinwood last Sunday. The Kmet sisters, Vic, Alice and Vida, KSKJ members, who recently made their stage debut as vocalists, were well received. Other KSKJ members who also received a big hand were Mitzi Grdina, Agnes Mally and Louis Grdina. The KSKJ was also represented on the program by Dr. J. W. Mally and Matt J. Grdina, who served as director of the show.

Among the guests were Judge Frank J. Lausche, Frank Cerne, president of S. D. Z., Dr. F. J. Kern and Francis M. Surtz, police prosecutor.

CARD PARTY, SOCIAL TO FOLLOW MEETING

The next meeting of SS. Cyril and Methodius Lodge No. 191, Cleveland (Euclid), O., scheduled for Wednesday, Feb. 8, will commence at 6:30 p. m. to allow sufficient time for the card party and dance that is to follow the business session. Refreshments will be on hand, as well as lively music, all assuring a pleasant time to the members. Admission 25 cents.

Urge Young Men to Join Holy Name Society

Young men of St. Joseph's Parish, Joliet, attention!

On the programs used at the Jan. 15 performances of "The Masterful Monk" was the following notice:

"Every well organized parish should establish—besides the senior Holy Name society for its adult members—also a junior branch of the Holy Name society for the young members of the parish." This is the wish of the Cardinal Archbishop of Chicago.

"There is need of a junior Holy Name branch in St. Joseph's Parish and we call upon the young men of the parish to join this society in order to labor individually for the glory of God's name; never to pronounce disrespectfully the Holy Name of Jesus; to avoid blasphemy, perjury, profane and indecent language, to be knights of their Faith.

"Young men above sixteen years of St. Joseph's Parish, give your names to one of the priests of the parish and join the new junior branch of the Holy Name Society."

"How many of you young men have answered that notice? Don't delay! Act immediately! Just as soon as the Junior Holy Name Society is organized, the Junior Holy Name Society is organized, the sodality of the Blessed Virgin Mary expects to offer you men a little competition. We're going to be rivals—but friendly ones.

Windish Club Official Lauds Trinity Knights

Stephen Kovacs Says Knights Deserve to Be Ranked as Top-Notch, Live-Wire Unit in KSKJ Organization

Through the medium of Our Page I, as director of the Windish Fraternal Club of Bethlehem, wish to express the heartiest and sincerest thanks to the group of fine young gentlemen representing your Union as the Knights of Trinity of Brooklyn, N. Y., for their wholehearted, jolly efforts in making our stay on Jan. 22 with them that one red-letter day which will go down in the annals of history of both organizations as the greatest, and one which will never be forgotten.

Indeed, the Knights left nothing undone to make our stay delightful and chock-full of enjoyment, despite the inclement weather conditions. The hospitality accorded my boys could not be surpassed by any organization or, as a matter of fact, equalled. Through this medium I wish to express sincere gratitude to the Knights for all their arduous, tiresome endeavors to make our trip one that will not be forgotten for years to come, and may success be with you in all your undertakings to bring your organization in the lime-light of your Union as the most spirited group of real blazing youth.

Thankfully,

The graduate first saw the light of day Sept. 21, 1916, in Calumet, Mich., and has been living in Cleveland for the past seven years.

She graduated from St. Vitus' Parochial School at the age of 12 and facilitated her early graduation from high school by skipping the first grade.

The Knights must have combed the great metropolis for the best cooks, for the dinner was as delicious and appetizing as we have ever had. Anthony Staudohar, acting as toastmaster, seemed fitted for the job, for he performed his duties just as a veteran, supplying the diners with mirth and laughter with his witty sayings. During the course of the dinner everyone was called upon to make a short speech at different intervals and all our boys could say was "The greatest event of our young lives." The jolly band of Knights also entertained with songs, duets, trios, sketches, jokes and finally the hall just rocked with each club's cheers and different songs, by the entire audience.

The afternoon was taken up with different sightseeing parties, the Knights acting as escorts. I believe that they made it possible for us to see more in one day than others see in a week of the great metropolis.

Card Party Will Follow Sheboygan Jay Confab Feb. 5

Committee Promises Good Time to Members; Prizes to Be Awarded

A good time is in store for members of the Sheboygan Lodge No. 144 who attend the next regular monthly meeting on Sunday afternoon Feb. 5.

A card party is scheduled after a short business session for members and their friends. Games to be played will be 66, rummy, sheephead and skat. Prizes will be given to winners having high scores.

This will be the first of a series of social ventures planned by the society to get the young and old members together.

A committee, headed by John Stubler, has arranged for all the details and you members can rest assured that a real treat is in line. Refreshments will be served, and here is hoping that all you members turn out in force.

MEET YOUR FRIENDS!

Meet your old friends at old-time dance sponsored by St. Stephen's Catholic Social Club, Saturday evening, Feb. 11, in St. Stephen's lower school hall, 22d and Lincoln Streets, Chicago, Ill.

Music by Johnny and His Pals. Admission only 25 cents. Everybody is invited to attend. Refreshments of the best will be served.

Brooklyn Knights Lose, But Enjoy Entertaining Guests

What seemed to be a certain victory for the Knights of Trinity, turned out to be a disappointing defeat, when the final whistle blew the end of the return interstate basketball game between the Knights and the Windish F. C. of Bethlehem, Pa., Sunday evening, Jan. 22. The score was 23 to 22.

The Windish boys, 15 of them, arrived in Brooklyn Sunday morning at 10:30 by motor. They were met on the Brooklyn side of the Williamsburg Bridge by the welcome committee, namely, Fred Arko, Frank Erhardt and myself. They were escorted directly to the American Slovenian Auditorium, where the rest of the members gave them the glad hand of welcome. At 12:30 the visitors and the Knights were set around the table. Novel and smart decorations were made by the wives and mothers of the members, under a ceiling of colorful crepe paper put up by the boys the day before.

After partaking of the delicious meal prepared by Mrs. Max Supancic with the help of Mrs. John A. Ribic and Mrs. Fanny Staudohar, and following the speeches of welcome and thanks, one by Adam Kerchmar, supreme president of Windish benevolent societies of Bethlehem, the boys dis-

If you care to know what's going to happen, you had better be there.

The women are especially urged to attend this meeting. Publicity Committee.

Steelton Jays Drop Two Tilts

Steelton, Pa.—The St. Aloysius' Lodge No. 42 Booster Club varsity basketball team lost to its erstwhile opponents, the Dauphin Fire Co. quintet, by a score of 46 to 42. Although the speedy passing of the Kay Jays was very commendable, they still could not offset the defeat that overcame them.

The Jays also lost a hard-fought game at the hands of the St. John's C. C. The Jays attribute their defeat to the "breaks of the game" and an "off day." They used every ounce of their strength, but they somehow could not click and went down to defeat to the tune of 41 to 34.

The Kay Jay Juniors in like-wise manner lost two games, the first game to the Enhaut Polar Bears, 20 to 15, and the second to the Flying Dutchmen to the tune of 29 to 28.

If this is a sample of misfortune that is besetting the Kay Jays, we fear to draw the line of what the Saturday's outcome might be.

Not daunted, however, the Kay Jays are eagerly awaiting for the fray that is to take place between the Bethlehem Speedboys and the Kay Jays.

Brooklyn Knights Lose, But Enjoy Entertaining Guests

That was a hard pill to swallow, my friends.

With three minutes to go, John Staudohar was put out with five personal fouls, and from then on the visitors began to whoop it up. At one time our boys were leading, 22 to 14.

The boys from Bethlehem deserved their victory, for they never let up on their spirit. We lost by a few seconds, but we must take it in a sportsmanlike way, for after all it was a game between two clubs that always display good sportsmanship. We may win the next time.

Before and after the game the crowd danced to the music furnished by Jerry Koprivsek and his Starlight Orchestra.

The Knights wish to thank Mrs. Supancic most sincerely for the hard work that she underwent for us and also Mrs. Fanny and Mrs. Helen Staudohar, her helpers in the kitchen.

We also thank the waitresses: Mrs. John A. Ribic, Mrs. John P. Staudohar, Mrs. Anthony J. Staudohar, Miss Elsie Supancic, Miss Mary Orehek and Miss Frances Koprivsek.

Special mention to John A. Ribic, who planned and supervised this very successful affair, and to John Staudohar, who did his best to put the team in tip-top shape.

Pacers, Baragas Unite to Form Chisholm Jay Club

Consolidation Gives Membership of 100; Will Follow Baseball, Basketball, Bowling; Next Meeting Set for Feb. 13

Chisholm, Minn.—Following a joint meeting held Jan. 24, the Kay Jays of this vicinity anticipate a new era in lodge activity as a result of the merger of the Pacers of St. Anne's Lodge and the Kay Jays of Frederick Baraga Lodge.

The consolidation will combine the active Jays of the Chisholm community under the head of the Kay Jay Booster Club of Chisholm.

At the merger meeting the reorganized group started in full swing by electing the following to office: John Kordish, member of the Supreme KSKJ Athletic Board, as president; Rudolph Gazyoda, secretary; Stanley Bovitz, treasurer; Ber-

JO LAURICH HURT IN TILT

The St. Joseph Flashes, crack girls' basketball quintet, making a bid for honors in the Class B division of the Cleveland Muny League, will be greatly handicapped by the loss of the services of its diminutive captain, Jo Laurich, who carried the brunt of the scoring in the majority of Jay team's tilts.

Jo, a veteran player, versatile and carrying the honor of being named on the all-star teams of the local press sheets, sustained a sprained ankle that will hinder her from returning to the game for a period of at least three weeks.

of Slovenian lassies, won their first victory by defeating the Steelton Midgets, and left them holding the short end by a score of 28 to 7. The versatile performers in this game were Anna Brodnick, Josephine Hernjak and Amalia (Molly) Matrenic. The Slovenian Comets were fortunate in securing the valuable services of Vic Simonic, coach, who is the stellar performer and the backbone of the Kay Jay varsity.

The great thing in this world is not so much where we stand as in what direction we are moving.

The injury and incapacity of the Flash star comes at a crucial time, just as the Jay team is to make a bid for the first place in the Muny League. The misfortune came in the tilt played with the Independents, as the Flashes made their debut in the Slovenian neighborhood. The Jay lassies stepped out in front at the opening whistle and kept the lead, finishing the tilt with a 25 to 12 score.

Coaches Chauncey Dehler and Ray J. Grdina, now that their stellar player will be benched for a few weeks, will depend on the scoring powers of Vera Kushlan, floor wizard, and Helen Miller, former teammate of Stella Walsh, world's fastest lass runner.

The Flashes will again perform in the Slovenian community Thursday night, Feb. 2, when they meet the Mariners in a Muny League tilt. The game is scheduled for 7:15 o'clock.

Betting odds favor the Flashes to cop. A win will place the Jay team in a tie for first place now held by the Independents and Mariners.

That the Jay lassies have the punch is evidenced in their record of three wins out of four tries with the Independents, the lone loss to the leaders being granted only after three overtime periods, and that only by a margin of one point.

The Flashes will go out of their class and compete with a Class A outfit, the Blepp-Coombs girls, Feb. 25, in a carnival bill to be staged at the Jewish Center, E. 105th St.

Manager Frank Schneider is anxious to book a game or series of games with any KSKJ lass team. For particulars write the Pluth, Elsie Funtich and John Pustovar, trustees, and Louise Drubnick, sergeant-at-arms.

A large group was in attendance at the combined meeting. The Pacers will contribute a membership of 50, while the boys will add a similar number, all for a united Jay group that is expected to place Chisholm on the Jay map of activities.

The women will not participate in athletics, according to present plans, but will lend their hand in all social and business affairs. The young women will co-operate with the men as an experienced group in lodge circles, for their club has been functioning for the past three years. The boys, likewise, have a record of four years, and have made a strong bid in basketball and baseball circles. Their program has been recently augmented by turning to the pin game. It is not a possibility that they will be one of the first Northern groups to participate in the annual Jay bowling meet.

Meetings of the new group will be held every second and fourth Tuesdays of the month. The next confab is scheduled for Feb. 13 in the Community Building.

The club will also hold social meetings, however, all arrangements for the good times are to be made at the next meeting.

The consolidation is bound to result in bigger and better Jay activities in Chisholm. If you are a member of the KSKJ, residing in Chisholm, join this cracker-jack club and help push the program that will lead to stardom in the KSKJ realm. R. G.

ALL-STARS WIN

Pueblo, Colo.—The Zagar All-Stars doubled their score against their opponents Thursday, Jan. 26, by defeating the Eiler Mack's by a score of 49 to 19 at a well played game. Zagar was high point man.

The Zagar All-Stars are champs of the junior division in Pueblo, Colo.

VISITS CLEVELAND

Frank Ziherle, president of the St. Florian Boosters, was a visitor to Cleveland last weekend. The stop-over was made en route on a business trip to the East.

care of the manager, 6117 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, O.

If desirable, the St. Joseph Sport boys' team will co-book a game and travel with the Flashes.

"The Flashes," says Manager Schneider, "can easily be classed as the best in the KSKJ. Any community willing to sponsor a tilt with their local team and the Flashes is bound to receive a treat. Our girls have made a creditable showing in the best that Cleveland has to offer, and we would like to give other KSKJ communities an opportunity of seeing just what KSKJ girls can do.

"Our challenge is a standing one, and we will entertain an acceptance from any quarter of the KSKJ globe, be it from the East, West, South or North.

"It is not that we are anxious to put on a front, but we believe KSKJ fans of other communities would appreciate the same treat that we are experiencing."
