WAUKEGAN WELCOMES KSKJ BOWLERS, FANS

18th ANNUAL MIDWEST TOURNEY TO BE STAGED ON TWO SITES IN WAUKEGAN

Waukegan, Ill. — Well, boys and girls, the old Midwest KSKJ bowling tournament has really sneaked upon us all of a sudden. Yep, this is it! By the time you read today's Our Page, it'll be time to catch that train for the twin cities of Waukegan and North Chicago, to attend the 18th Midwest Bowling Tournament April 14 and 15.

Of course, you read in last week's issue on how to get to the alleys, so we won't repeat it again this time. We will mention this: Those who will want to leave the Mother of God hall for downtown may catch a bus on either corner of the school hall. All busses will take you to within a half block of the alleys. Anyone seeking information may inquire at the alleys or at the Mother of God hall in the basement where all good friends meet.

The committee asks that all bowlers be on time at the alleys, so that there is no delay in the schedule. Let's all try to make it as easy for the tourney officials as we can. When it's your time to bowl, please be prompt.

Just a short review: The tourney begins Saturday, April 14 with team events bowled at the Waukegan Recreation alleys, singles and doubles at the O'Farrell alleys. Dancing to Bob Langdon's orchestra from 8 to 12 at the Mother of God hall with refreshments downstairs to relieve that tired feeling. Admission with tax included is sixty cents.

Sunday morning we ALL go to church. Masses will be at 6, 8, 9:15, 10:30, and 11:30. Dinners will be served at the Mother of God hall from 12 to 2 P. M., while during the day light lunches will be available. The old refreshment stand will be open for your convenience. Sunday evening dancing will be to Joe Schussler's music from 8 to 12. We hope that you have sent in your reservation for over-night quarters. You know, we have warned you. The committee has worked hard to make plenty of private homes available to you. Check rooms at both alleys and at the hall will be run by the local committee.

This article closes my pre-tourney scribbling. I have not been very convincing, but come on out and see us anyway. Some team will need your support, so give it a cheer now and then. We want you one and all to know that you are WELCOME to the Twin Cities of Waukegan and North Chicago.

J. A. Cankar.

FROM AN ANONYMOUS SEABEE

So you're tired of working, Mister, and you think you'll rest a bit. You've been working pretty steady and you're getting sick of it. You think the war is ending, so you're slowing down the pace. That's what you may be thinking, Sir, but it just is not the case. Would you like it if because we're tired, we up and quit it, too? Well, we're flesh and blood and human, and we're just as tired as you.

Did you ever dig a foxhole and climb down deep inside, and wish it went to China, so

WAIT FOR ME

Wait for me: I will come.
Wait for me . . .
Forget the sadness and the pain,
The weeping of the dreary rain.

Wait for me:
Forget the voice that says,
"The light has gone out from your days;
He is gone; you wait in vain."

Wait for me: I will come
Through many deaths,
Knowing that you wait.

Those who do not wait
Cannot understand
That the hours you wait
Are like the reaching of a hand

Across a deathless time.
Wait . . . I will come.

URGES MEMBERS OF SMALL SOCIETIES TO BUILD UP SPIRIT, MEMBERSHIP OF K. S. K. J.

Pittsburgh, Pa. — I feel that time has come that we members of smaller societies begin to take some action in building up the spirit and membership of our great Union. The society of St. Ann, No. 232, had a very interesting meeting last Tuesday in March at the home of the president Frances Pecman.

First at that meeting we decided to go out and increase our membership, particularly at this campaign, known as, "Lodge Officers Campaign."

I appeal to all officers and members of St. Ann's, No. 232, to get at least ONE new member during this time; let us all go out and do our best, we are not only doing good for our society and the Union, but also building up good Catholic morale by introducing the YOUNG into a Catholic order and also giving them sick, accident and death insurance and protecting them in case

ONCE IN A WHILE

Once in a while I think of you—
Just remember, as people do,
Little happenings once again
That didn't seem so important then;
Think of the time we chanced to meet—
Thinking it over, it's mighty sweet;
Think of things, though I can't say why,
That made you happy, that made you sigh—
Once in a while.

Once in a while I think once more,
Think of things that I thought before,
For many a night I went to rest
Thinking of things you never guessed.
Oh, there were wonderful things I dreamed,
And not as foolish as once they seemed.

Yes, many a thing I think of now—
somehow—
I wish you had understood,
Once in a while.

Once in a while I think of you,
Hoping that you remember, too,
Something, maybe, I used to say,
Though it's long and many a day,
Something I said that made you glad,
Something I didn't I wish I had—
You've maybe guessed, for I guess you can,
I think of you lots oftener than
Once in a while.

WHO WILL SHARE IN FIRST DRIVE AWARDS?

The Society Officers Membership Campaign is under way. Last week's issue of Glasilo carried the full program and outline of the drive.

From the program it is evident that this year's membership drive offers very attractive prizes. It would be wise for all society officials to study the program and become familiar with the plan and the prizes.

Prizes in the campaign will commence to be awarded the first part of May. A total of 20 awards, amounting to $350 will be made at that time, and will be given for new insurance written from January 1, to April 30, 1945.

The question is: Which lodges will share in the aforementioned awards?

The answer is dependent on the activity of Society Officers!
JOSEPH ZALAR, Supreme Secretary.
