

BRAT KOPRIVSEK SE ZOPET OGLASIL

Monakovo, Nemčija, 21. avgusta 1945.

Cenjeni sobrat urednik! Najprvo pošiljam tem potom sobratski pozdrav iz znanega mesta Munich (Monakovo) na Bavarskem, Nemčija, Vam in vsemu članstvu društva sv. Jožefa št. 57 v Brooklynu, N. Y., zaenpa tudi moj novi naslov. Jaz sem še vedno v armadi, toda zelo sem vesel, ker je vojna končana.

Morda vas bo zanimalo, če omenim, da sem minuli teden tu, kaj poslušal slovenski radio program iz Ljubljane, to je bilo ob 11. zvečer monakovski čas. Najprvo je bilo čuti neko slovensko igro, potem pa petje "Domovina," moški zbor, in pesem "Moja kosa je križava." Ker nameravam ostati tukaj v Evropi še nekaj časa, toda ne predolgo, bom odpisal vsa prejeta pisma sarodnikov iz Amerike na naslove njih sorodnikov v starem kraju, ki so mi pisali na podlagi mojih pisem v Glasilu in Glas Naroda.

Ako želi še kdo drugi poizvedeti za svoje sorodnike in misli, da bi mu jaz lahko šel v tej zadevi na roke, da bi našel njih znanec med tujakšjnimi slovenskimi vojnimi ujetniki ali v Sloveniji, mi še lahko piše; skušal bom to najbolje izvršiti. S sobratskim pozdravom,

Jerry Koprivsek.

ZAHVALA

Barberton, O. — Moralj bi se že praj zahvaliti posetnikom prireditve Slovenskega dne v Barbertonu, pa smo šli na obisk v W. Va.

Slovenski dan, ki se je vršil v avgustu v prid stare domovine, je bil v vseh ozirih popoln uspeh. V imenu odbora SANS-ove podružnice se iskreno zahvaljujem povabljenim gostom in vsemu dobremu ljudstvu, ki se je udeležilo tega piknika. — Hvaležni smo govornikom dr. F. J. Kernu in odvetniku L. Kupsšanu za iskrene in resnične besede, ki sta jih izpregovorila, zahvaljujemo se vsem zunanjim posetnikom iz Clevelanda in iz Sharona, Pa., iz New Philadelphia, O., ip vsem iz barbertonske okolice.

Čisti dobiček te prireditve je bil $402.00. Posebni darovi na pikniku so znašali $37.00. Darovali so: Mr. in Mrs. Anton Ošaben $10.00; Mr. Okorn iz Clevelanda $5.00; Mr. J. Pollock, tudi iz Clevelanda, $5.00; Mr. in Mrs. Frank Steiner $5.00; Mrs. Lawrence Frank $5.00; Mr. in Mrs. Andrej Zeleznik $5.00; Mr. J. Wadnal $2.00. Od prireditve Slovenskega dne je skupnega dobička $337.00.

Ze prej so dobri ljudje darovali za SANSovo pomožno akcijo in za članarino $163.00, tako da smo poslali na SANSov urad v Chicago julija in avgusta skupaj: $602.00. Za ta denar, oziroma za blago, ki se bo kupilo zanj, bodo našli ljudje doma zelo hvaležni.

V imenu siromakov v domovini se zahvaljuje odbor vsem delavcem na pikniku in vsem, ki so prispevali za jestvine, pijačo in drugo, vsem, ki so se potrudili, da so pripeljali ljudi na prostor in domov. Vsi skupaj smo se zavedali, da smo prispevali denar za naše gladne in gole borce v naši lepi stari domovini, katere so hoteli popolnoma iztrebiti Nemci, Lahi in Madžari. Zraven teh pa še do mačji izdajalci, ki so se imenovali domobranci. Seveda, svoj dom so branili, sosedovega pa izdajali. Sedaj pa, ko je prišla pravična sodba nanje, pa tarnajo in bežijo z dežele. Jugoslovanski patriotje so jih imenovali Svabobranci. Svabe so branili, namesto svojih!

Torej izrekam ponovno zahvalo vsem, ki so kaj pripomogli k uspehu našega Slovenskega dneva.

Z rodoljubnim pozdravom,
Jennie Okolish,
blagajničarka SANS-ove podružnice št. 51.

Koroški Slovenci protestirajo

Ljubljana, 10. avgusta. — Zastopniki koroških Slovencev so pozvali voditelje Socialno-demokratske, Komunistične in Avstrijske narodne stranke na Koroškem, da ustanovijo združeno antifašistično fronto za borbo proti ostankom fašizma. Sprejeli so odgovor od vodstva avstrijske Narodne republikanske stranke, v katerem se priznava pravica koroških Slovencev za sodelovanje pri administraciji svoje pokrajine, obenem se pa odklanja njihova zahteva, da se slovenski del Koroške priključi k Jugoslaviji.

Pokrajinsko vodstvo avstrijske Narodne stranke smatra, da bodo zavezniki na mirovni konferenci priznali one avstrijske meje, ki so obstajale leta 1937., v smislu zaključkov glede Avstrije na krinski konferenci. V svojem odgovoru pravi vodstvo avstrijske Narodne stranke, da bo podpiralo vse narodne, gospodarske in politične zahteve koroških Slovencev v okvirju nerazdeljene Koroške v svobodni, neodvisni demokratični Avstriji.

Poznani koroški Slovenec dr. Julij Fellahar je pisal avstrijski Narodni stranki, v katerem je rekel: — "Avstrijska stranka se je izognila odgovora na poziv koroških Slovencev, ako je pripravljena sodelovati v enotni fronti vseh strank za iztrebljenje in uničenje fašizma na Koroškem. Niti ni omenila nacijskih zločinov na Koroškem ali pa prizadevanje koroških Slovencev proti fašizmu. V nesoglasju z Atlantskim Čarterm, v katerem zagotavljajo zavezniki vsem narodom pravico do samoodločbe, avstrijska Narodna stranka ne priznava te pravice koroškim Slovincem, toda obenem zahteva ločitev Koroške od nemškega rajha. To je pogled fašističnega imperijalizma. Koroški Slovenci so bili edini narod v Nemčiji, ki so ustanovili in več let podpirali oborožene odrede za ugonobitev fašizma in njegovega orožja ter so tako javno pokazali svojo voljo, da hočejo biti sami svoji gospodarji. Geslo o nerazdeljivi in svobodni Koroški, ki se ga naglašja v odgovoru avstrijske Narodne stranke, je geslo nemškega imperijalizma in pangermanizma. Z njim hočejo legalizirati prisiljeno ponemčenje koroških Slovencev in jim odkloniti pravico do samoodločbe.

Načrt za jugoslovansko zbornico

Pod predsednik jugoslovanske narodne vlade Edvard Kardelj je predložil v imenu vlade provizorični narodni skupščini načrt za ustavno skupščino ali konstituanto. Ustavna skupščina bo sestajala iz dveh zbornic: 1) Federativni parlament in 2) Narodna skupščina. Federativni parlament bo zastopal interese posameznih narodnosti (državnih edinic), vsaka izmed katerih bo upravičena do 25 poslancev. Te bo izvolila vsaka država zase. Poslance za narodno skupščino pa bodo volili vsi državljani brez razlike na meje in sicer za vsakih 40,000 prebivalcev enega.

Vsaka postava postane polnomočna, čim jo odobri obe zbornici. V slučaju nesporazuma izvoli vsaka zbornica enako število članov v koordinacijski komite in če ta komite ne bo mogel izravnavati navkrižja, ima ustavna skupščina razpisati nove volitve. Obe zbornici se snideja k skupnemu zborovanju, kadar gre za važne zadeve.

Volilna postava določa, da imajo volilno pravico vse osebe od 18. leta naprej brez razlike na spol, narodnost, vero, raso ali politično prepričanje. Isto pravico imajo tudi vojaki, toda brez razlike na starost. V stari Jugoslaviji ženske niso imele volilne pravice in ravnotako tudi ne vojaki. Vsaka stranka ima pravico postaviti svojo listo kandidatov, če predloži kandidat najmanj 150 podpisov polnomočnih volilcev, ki podpirajo njegovo knadituro. Volilne pravice nimajo osebe, ki so izgubile svoje državljanske pravice radi kolaboriranja s sovražnikom ali radi borbe proti narodu. Volitve se bodo vršile le-

"Mali trgovec"

Dobro ga poznate . . .

On živi v vaši sosesčini . . . zahaja v vašo cerkev. Je civilni voditelj . . . prijatelj.

Ime "Mali trgovec" si je dal sam na dan, ko je rekel "Prišel bom trgovino na svojo roko!"

On ima vodilno mesto v ameriški trgovini. O nje prožen.

On pozna intimno svoje odjemalce in njihove potrebe. Njegovo blago in postrežba se prilagodi natančno njihovim željam. Tipično je trgovanje Sohio razpečevalcev in Sohio distributorjev, to je trgovanje, ki pomaga do personalnosti marsikatere glavne ulice ali "Main Street"-a v Ohio.

Mi vsi smo odvisni od uspeha male trgovine. Kar se primeri malemu businessu je zelo važno za vse nas.

Kako se to nanaša na Sohio? Tako: Mi damo na razpolago svojih trgovcev in razpečevalcev vse naše velike izkušnje in informacije našega lastnega delovanja. Ta "drawing account" je tisti, ki je pomagal in bo še nadalje pomagal Sohio trgovcem in Sohio razpečevalcem vzdrževati visoko stopnjo uspeha.

Prilika za njihov uspeh je vsebovana v svobodni vporabi:

- dobrih Sohio raziskovanj
- vodstva trgovskega znanja, nakopičenega v 75 letih trgovanja
- prednosti naših vsakodnevnih izkušenj
- velike produkcije, ki omogoča zmerne cene in zmerne dobičke
- oglaševanja, trgovanja in vežbanja
- specializiranega programa za vporabo razpečevalcev

Pa tudi v drugih smereh so naši interesi povezani z malim businessom. Od njega mi namreč kupujemo ali jemljemo v najem zemljo, v kateri je olje. Mnogi izmed njih so delničarji Standard Oil družbe. Mali trgovci snujejo in gradijo ter dajejo poslužbo naših stvarj in opreme. To so naši odjemalci.

Z drugimi besedami: interesi vseh so neločljivo skupaj povezani. Kakor je res, da so "potrebni vsake vrste ljudje, da naredo svet," prav tako je potrebna vsake vrste trgovina, da se naredi boljši svet, na ameriški način.

Lodge No. 163	15.00
Lodge No. 169	10.00

As customary, in cases where lodges wrote similar amounts of new insurance, prizes were distributed in similar amounts.

Two lodges topped the field of workers in the past period. St. Francis, No. 29, and St. Lawrence, No. 63, each wrote $10,500.00 in new insurance.

Second honors were merited by St. Michael's Society, No. 163, Pittsburgh, Pa. Secretary Matt Brozenich signed up $9,000.00 in new insurance.

Third place honors went to St. Joseph's Society, No. 169, Cleveland, Ohio, which contributed $8,500.00 of new insurance. Close behind the Cleveland lodge was St. Anne Society, No. 156, Chisholm, Minn., which aided the drive with $8,000.00 in new insurance.

Not far behind the leaders was St. Joseph Society, No. 53, of Leadville, Colo., with $7,500.00. Also on the merit roll was the Mary Help of Christians Society, No. 165, which signed up $6,500.00 in new insurance.

To all the merit lodges, a hearty commendation and thanks! To those who aided, although they did not place on the honor roll, yet helped in gaining our grand total, a hearty thank you, too!

Thanks to all! Keep up the good work!

RED CROSS READY TO AID RETURNING SERVICEMEN, RELATIVES

"The Red Cross here in Greater Cleveland is ready to help any returning serviceman and his family," Albert M. Higley stated. The chairman of the local chapter explained that the Home Service workers will assist in solving personal or family problems that may stand in the way of the veteran's adjustment to civilian life.

"If the veteran did not file a claim at the time of his discharge, Home Service workers will help him with his application and in securing the necessary evidence in support of his claim.

"Whether the application for pension or other benefits was prepared before he left the separation point or hospital, or whether he is aided by our chapter after he arrives home, the chapter is responsible for helping him in developing the claim if he designates the American Red Cross as his representative. In giving this assistance the chapter works with the Red Cross field director stationed at the Veterans Administration office where the claim is filed.

"The field director, who has access to the man's official service records, is able to assist in the development of the claim by indicating the nature of the evidence needed. In ad-

JERRY KOPRIVSEK WRITES

Aug. 21, 1945.

Dear Editor:

Greetings from Munich, Germany. I wish to inform you and the St. Joseph's KSKJ Society through "Our Page" of my new military address which you will find below. I am still in the Army but happy to know that the war is over.

It may interest you to know that I heard a Slovene radio program last week. I believe it was from Ljubljana. The program was on about 11 p. m. Munich time. As I first heard it, it seemed as if they put on a Slovene play followed by Slovene songs. They sang "Moja kosa je križavna" and among other "Domovina," moški zbor.

Now that I may be in Europe for a while, but I hope not long, I will try to forward the letters of relatives from the States who have sent their letters to me through my articles in Glasilo and Glas Naroda. If there are any other Slovene people back in the States who feel I may be of help to them in contacting their relatives and friends, they are welcome to write to me. I will do my utmost to help them. My new military address is:

VISITS STIGMATIC, THERESE NEUMANN

Cleveland, O. — Some GI's, sweating it out in Europe, are making good use of their time. Like Pfc. Joseph J. Starc, for instance, who used a leave to go and see the famous stigmatic, Therese Neumann.

"I was surprised by her spryness and good humor," he writes his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph M. Starc, 1096 Norwood Road. "She looked the picture of health. She wore a sort of black habit that nuns wear at home and on her head she wore a sort of white scarf. We could see a scab the size of a spike head on the outside of each hand. She never showed the palm of her hands but she had a habit of clenching and unclenching her hands.

"She's about 47 years old. She can't talk English at all but she talked and joked a lot with one of the boys who spoke German."

About 20 American soldiers were in the group. "She lives in a real poor house, next door to the village church. We went right into her house and her personal doctor told us all about her. He'd been the priest's and her doctor for over 18 years.

"He told us that she hadn't eaten or drank a thing for over 17 years. He then showed us a photograph taken of her while she was undergoing the agonies that Christ went thru. In a way it was horrible to see."

The 79th Division veteran of D-Day and the ensuing campaign, is 25. He entered service in September, 1943. A brother, Pvt. Robert, was killed in January, 1944, on the Anzio beachhead.

JOHNSTOWN LODGE HAS NEW PREXY

Johnstown, Pa. — At a special meeting of St. Stephen's Society, No. 187, held Aug. 12, at which Bro. John Dechman, supreme juror, attended, Bro. Matt Klemensek resigned from the presidency, and the undersigned was appointed to the post to the end of the year.

I shall do all in my power to boost the lodge. However, I shall need the co-operation of every member of the lodge. We shall have our next meeting Oct. 14, in St. Theresa's church hall. Please attend!

I thank you in advance for the co-operation, I know that you faithful members will give me. Please attend the meeting, and let us plan for a bright future that certainly will be ours if we work together.

Mary Sevigle, pres.

MEETING NOTICE

Chicago, Ill. — The regular monthly meeting of Mary Help Society, No. 78, will be held on Thursday evening, Sept. 20, in the church hall. Meeting will be called to order at 7:30 p. m. and immediately after the meeting movies will be shown. Among other pictures Mr. Grdina has promised to send movies of the explosion which did so much damage in Cleveland last year. So come and invite your friends also. Admission will be 25c. The pictures will start about 8:15.

At the drawing for the monthly attendance award the name of Mary Piscetiello (Luzar) was drawn, but as she was not in attendance, the award will have to wait for this meeting.

Members in arrears are asked to take care of their assessment, either at the meeting or on Tuesday at my home.

I hope to be seeing you at the meeting and later at the movies.

P. Kobal, sec'y.

PITT KSKJ WOMEN'S BOWLING LEAGUE

Pittsburgh, Pa. — The Pitt K. S. K. J. Women's Bowling League is again under way to a grand season of bowling. Enthusiasm is great and we hope to have a large number on the first scheduled evening of bowling, SEPT. 18—7:30 p. m.—at the Lawrence Recreation Alleys, 53rd and Butler Street. It would be very easy to set up a schedule if everyone would turn out right from the start. We hope you will try to make it. We must start on time, because the alleys are scheduled for other teams later in the evening.

Again may I remind you that you not need be a member of any particular KSKJ lodge in order to bowl with us. If you are a member of KSKJ, all well and good, and then too, if you are a friend of a KSKJ member, we invite you to join us. The recreation is healthful and you will enjoy the evenings of bowling throughout the season.

We hope to see you at the alleys, Sept. 18 at 7:30 p. m. (Tuesday).

Frances Lokar.

A small trellis that will grow up in a year or so is a good means of camouflaging that garbage pail unless you have sunk it in the ground?

LET'S BOWL!

(Translation of an editorial in last week's Slovenian Section) Because of heat and seasonal reasons, bowling alleys have been closed. In the past few weeks, polish has been applied to the aisles, and it is just a matter of days, and the bowling season will again be on!

We are certain that this year will be a big year for bowling in the KSKJ, for we will have with us many released servicemen and former bowlers. Further, we who have been at home will not be subjected to long hours of war-work toil, and will find time to join our brothers in this great winter sport.

As usual, the communities that have kept the sport alive, have announced that they will again take to the aisles. We refer to Joliet, Ill., Chicago, Ill., Milwaukee, Wis., and Pittsburgh, Pa. We are looking forward to publishing results of these leagues, and certainly wish them all the luck in the world.

The Women's KSKJ Bowling League of Pittsburgh is to be complimented for its innovation of inviting non-members to bowl with them. We are certain that if non-members bowl with our members they will soon be convinced that Kay Jays are a grand lot, and it won't be long before these non-members join us.

We need not emphasize that bowling is a healthful sport, that it is a social sport—all Kay Jay bowlers know that! At the start of this year of bowling—which we predict will be a great year for Kay Jay bowling—we hope that every Kay Jay will hit a perfect score, or at least near it!

CHICAGO STEVES READY TO ROLL IN SAME OLD GROOVE, PLUS MORE

Chicago, Ill. — As of days of old, the recent Chi Steves' bowling meeting produced great results, and the circuit is a-raring to go. The Steves, one of the first lodges in the Union to make bowling a part of their program, and the big boosters who staged KSKJ's first bowling tournament, are all primed and ready to step to the foul line for another season of pin-blasting.

Secretary John Terselich, supreme officer, and known as "Mac" to all KSKJ boosters will have his usual ten-team league, ready to bowl for laurels.

The Steves will hoist the 1945-46 curtain on Sept. 18, at 8:30 p. m., at the Southwest Bowling alleys, third floor, and they expect a grand turnout of rooters for the opening night.

When we say, "As days of yore," we mean that a good number of our servicemen are expected back in our line-ups. The first, already signed up, is our Vic "Butch" Kremesec, recently discharged from service. The Chi Steve league will be a rolling snowball, this year, we hope. One by one, our boys will be coming back to bowl with us, all in preparation for our next Midwest K.

WE CERTAINLY WON'T!

We certainly won't forget our men and women in the service this Christmas! Which means that even at this time we are thinking as to what we will send them.

This year, thank the Lord, we are not sure that our loved ones will not be with us for that grand holiday marking the birth of the "Prince of Peace."

The chances that your loved one will be home with you for Christmas are great, so be patient. If you intend to send anything, be sure you have the latest address. We shall inform you of all latest announcements released by the Post Office.

OUR PAGE VICTORY KITCHEN

By FRANCIS JANCER
1110 Third St.
La Salle, Ill.

In victory as in war we are still going to be short on some products, namely, sugar. The government has warned us that sugar will be rationed for possibly another two years. Substitutes of honey, sirup and saccharine will still have to be used.

Walnut Ice Cream

1 cup maple syrup, 1 cup water, 1 pint heavy cream, 1 cup chopped walnuts, whites of 3 eggs.

Boil maple syrup and water for about one minute. Cool and add stiffly beaten egg whites. Whip cream until stiff, fold into mixture and add chopped walnuts. Pour into refrigerator tray to freeze. Stir occasionally to prevent settling.

Apple Dowdy

6 apples, 1 cup molasses, 1/2 cup dark corn sirup, 1 teaspoon nutmeg, 1 teaspoon cinnamon, pastry.

Pare apples and chop in small pieces. Place in baking dish and pour over them the molasses, corn sirup and spices. Cover with pie crust and bake in moderate oven for about 1 hour. Serve cool with whipped cream.

Cheese Cake

6 eggs, 1 qt. cottage cheese, 2 tablespoons flour, 3/4 cup honey, 1/2 teaspoon salt, 1 pint cream, juice of 1 lemon.

Beat eggs thoroughly, then combine with cheese, beating with silver fork. Add honey, mixed with lemon juice. Add flour and salt. Finally fold in cream. Mix well and strain through large strainer three times, pressing with a wooden spoon. Put mixture into spring pan, buttered and well floured. Have oven very hot 425 degrees and put cake in hot oven for fifteen minutes, then reduce heat to slow 250 degrees and continue baking for 45 minutes. Turn off heat and let cake cool in oven.

Lemon Sponge

1 tablespoon unflavored gelatine, 1/4 cup cold water, 3/4 cup boiling water, 4 eggs, 1/2 cup honey, 1/2 pint cream, 24 ladyfingers, grated rind and juice of 2 lemons.

Soak gelatine in cold water and add boiling water. Mix until dissolved. Beat egg yolks, add honey, lemon juice and grated rind. Mix with gelatine. Fold in stiffly beaten egg whites, and add cream, whipped stiff. Line large mold with halves of lady fingers, pour in lemon mixture and top with remaining lady finger halves. Let stand in refrigerator overnight.

Warning that the U. S. must maintain its sea power—both merchant marine and naval establishment—Admiral King, Commander in Chief of the U. S. Fleet, cited the lessons of two world wars when this country was twice caught without a proper force and said significantly, "But next time the penalty of forgetting may be the loss of America and liberty."

BELIEVE IT!

Believe it or not, the women are the stronger sex. Women live longer, by about five years, die less easily, and do not have as many accidents.

ANY BONDS TODAY?

Reveal I said, Pick me up a couple of bonds—War Bonds!

REMEMBER THE HOME FRONT VOCABULARY DURING THE WAR?

Remember Pearl Harbor? Who doesn't? But do you remember all that happened to America—even the civilians—between then and V-J day?

Can you remember America with red and blue ration tickets carefully doled out, mileages to figure, black markets to beat, war bonds, paper and tin drives, knitting for Britain and the America of . . .

Rosie the Riveter.
Airplane shoe stamps.
4F and 1-A.
Stage door canteens.
"Praise the Lord and Pass the Ammunition."
Meatless Tuesdays.
"Don't you know there's a war on?"
"Be kind to our clerks, they are harder to get than customers."
Gasless Sundays.
Manless dates and hen parties.
Baggy rayon hose.
"Can't get the parts."
"Wait till after the war."
"Get in line!"
"Cigarettes? Are you kidding?"
Furloughs, leaves and discharges.
WPB, WMC, OPA, ODT.
Frozen wages.
Curfews.
Blackouts, brownouts, and dimouts.
"Stand for the latest news."
"Move to the rear of the bus."
USO, OCD.
V-for-Victory!
Hoarders.
G.I.
Overseas boxes.
"This is My War."
"The War Department regrets . . ."
AAA-1 priorities.
Red Cross first-aid classes.
Honor rolls.
Identification badges.
Slips of availability.
Air raid sirens and wardens.
V-mail letters.
"Carry your own packages."
"Please don't ask to have it wrapped."
Spam.
Spearheads, beachheads,
D-days and blitzkriegs.
APO, alerted, maneuvers.
"The butcher's got meat!"
Victory tax, luxury tax and other taxes.
Blue star flags.
Absenteeism.
Buzz bombs.
Victory suits.
"Set the rising sun."
Unrationed play shoes.
"Don't ask for a second cup of coffee."
All-out war production.
"Caught in the draft."
"Buy a share in America."

"They give their lives, you loan your dollars."
"A slip of the lip will sink a ship."
Censors.
A, B and C gas stickers.
Victory butter.
"Greetings: The president of the United States . . ."

AND NOW— the post war era when everything that went out for the duration is coming back.

It's hard to remember America before Pearl Harbor, but the things you've been waiting for will soon return. Heading the list of pre-war dreams that are going to become realities are . . .

Men, God Bless them!
"Fill 'er up."
Two scoops of ice cream.
"Sorry, but I'm all dated up this week-end."
"Let's drive to New York this week-end."
Steak for dinner.
"I'm sending my grocery list, will you send the things over."
Bananas.
"Just deliver it, please."
"A ticket to St. Louis."
Fresh canned pineapple.
Nylons.
Candy bars.
Wrigley's Spearmint.
Lucky Strike Green and Lucky Strikes, Camels.
Golf balls and tennis balls.
Rubber bands.
Men's shorts and shirts.
The magic two-way stretch.
Refrigerators, washing machines, radios and telephones.
"I'll be down to get you in a helicopter, honey."
Bacon for breakfast.
Real wool.
Zippers.
Alarm clocks.
Fuel oil and coal.
Rubber erasers.
Soap flakes.
Christmas tree ornaments.
Pancakes and butter.
Banana splits with a whole banana.
Film and cameras.
Chocolate.
Beer in cans.
Elastic.
Clothespins.

DO YOU KNOW THAT . . .

Picnic hamburgers sometimes taste flat because they are mixed on the spot without seasoning? It's easy enough to mix them with a little curry powder and a grating of lemon rind along with the salt and pepper at home.

A big painted chest on your porch is a good place to keep your chair cushions to protect them from the dust!

RED CROSS READY TO AID

dition, the field director represents the veteran before the Veterans Administration rating board when the claim is considered," Mr. Higley stated.

In answer to the question, "How long will Red Cross services to veterans be needed?" the chapter chairman pointed out that the peak of the load from World War I has not yet been reached. The time has been estimated variously from 1947 to 1955. On the same basis, the peak load for World War II services to veterans can be expected sometime between 1974 and 1982.

The Greater Cleveland Chapter of the American Red Cross is equipped and ready to offer assistance to widows, children, and dependent parents in filing claims for death pensions due as a result of servicemen killed in action, Miss Cecile T. McKay, Home Service director, announced. Aid is also given in filing claims for back pay and allowances due an individual in the military service at the time of death.

A Federal act passed last December now makes it possible for widows and children of World War I veterans to be eligible for death pensions even if the veterans did not have a service-connected disability at the time of death, provided certain other conditions are met. Complete information regarding these conditions may be obtained at Greater Cleveland Chapter headquarters, at 1227 Prospect Ave., Cleveland. A Home Service worker will assist in filling out an application of this type.

Assistance is also given in obtaining specified, necessary evidence to substantiate claims filed with the Veterans Administration, such as marriage or birth certificates, divorce decrees, and proof of death.

Often a request by a widow or other dependent indicates to the Red Cross worker that these dependents are unaware that other rights or benefits are available. Thus the original request may lead to additional assistance from the Government.

It is through the combined resources of Home Service in the Greater Cleveland Chapter and the Red Cross field director in a Veterans Administration office that complete service is given, and the dependents of the deceased service person are assisted in obtaining rights and benefits under existing Federal legislation.

RANDOM THOUGHTS ON EDUCATION

It was pleasant this past week to hear again the voices of the school children raised in joyful song; to watch the amazement of the little ones in the First Grade as a new world was opened to them; to take part in the hustle and bustle of buying new books and pencils and tablets—all the familiar sights and sounds and scenes of the new school year.

For despite all the pretended woe of Jimmy and Jane, most children, if you could only get them to admit it, are really secretly pleased to be returning to school, to new teachers, to new and old friends, to the anticipation of adventure and another year of progress. Even swimming pools and baseball and games and going to the store can get monotonous, when you are very young.

And as we thought about these pleasant things and about the important place that school days take in the lives of all children, and of the responsibility that teachers have in directing these young minds, we began to reflect that after all, even during the school year, children spend much more time under the direction of parents than teachers and that even from the point of view of time alone then the parents have a much greater responsibility than school teachers. It's really elementary, when you devote a little thought to it, that the education of children begins in the home and continues in the home, and finds its true completion in the home.

It's obviously impossible in just a little space like this to really expand on this most important theme: that education is primarily the duty of parents and that no school, however excellent, can ever compensate for lack of training and example in the home. We can only urgently suggest that all parents devote a great deal of reflection to the most important part they play in the education of their children.—St. Aloysius Bulletin.

The finest dunking mixture for a center piece of such raw vegetables as carrots, beet sticks, cauliflower, scallions and fennel goes this way? Mix together mayonnaise, curry powder to taste, and add a dash or so of catsup or your own chili sauce and some chopped chives.

ON FURLOUGH

Cleveland, O. — Pfc. William F. Skully, home on a 30-day furlough from Europe where he served with the 91st Division, has been awarded the Bronze Star Medal.

"Courageously crawling forward along a route under severe enemy machine gun fire," his citation reads, "Pvt. Skully reached a point within 25 feet of the highway unobserved by the enemy. Although subjected to heavy fire, he refused to yield ground and continued his destructive fire until his ammunition was expended. He then fired his carbine and inflicted serious damage until heat from a burning vehicle forced his withdrawal."

Son of Mrs. Anna Skully, 6802 St. Clair Ave., he also wears a Presidential Unit Citation. Entering the Army 16 months ago, he went overseas last September. He saw service in Scotland, England, Italy and France. He is a former St. Aloysius parishioner.

FATS FOR LEATHER

Another place where used cooking fat substitutes for fats and oils we used to import! Used fats go into emulsified triglycerides, with which tanned leather is processed to make it soft and pliable. Here, Chief Tanning Chemist Clinton E. Retzsch, right, explain the process to Laboratory Assistant Shirley Weiss.
