Desetletna vojna med kitajskimi komunisti in nankinško centralno vlado je bila nočjo oficijelno končana. Komunisti in pripadniki centralne vlade vidijo, da jim preti danes skupen sovražnik, zato so pozabili svoje stare spore ter se združili. Na stran kitajske vlade je prešlo 100,000 komunistov.

JAPONCI RAČUNAJO Z DALJŠO VOJNO

TOKIO — Japonska politična javnost je pod globokim vtisom dosedanjih neuspehov japonske vojske pred Šanghajem in v severnih kitajskih delelah. Odklen odpor kitajske vojske je zbudil v vsej Japonski veliko pozornost in sedaj že splošno sodijo, da s Kitajci tokrat ne bo mogoče opraviti v tako kratkem času kakor pred 5 leti in da bo vojna trajala dolgo, morda celo več let. Adolf Hitler grozi sovjetski Rusiji

Na kongresu je pozival može in žene, naj postanejo bolj rodovitni, da si je sam samec in brez potomcev.

NUERNBERG, Nemčija, 10. septembra. — V tukašnjem mestu se vrši ogromen kongres nemške narodno socialistične stranke (naciji), na katerem je nočjo govoril nemški vodja Adolf Hitler. Nastopil je med sviranjem godb, bučnim trobitanjem fanfar in gromovitimi vzkliki zbranih nacijej. — Med drugim je Hitler izjavil, da Nemčija "ne bo nikoli več premagana, niti od znotraj, niti od zunaj."

"Naj bodo te besede svarilo onim v Moskvi, ki bi radi užgali svet", je grmel Hitler. "Vedno sem žalosten ob zaključku nuenberskega kongresa", je dejal Hitler, "ker me ti dnevi spominjajo starih bojnih dni, ko je bilo še nevarno, če se je kdo priznal za narodnega socialista. Takrat so nas zasmehovali in zasramovali, toda vi ste verovali vame. Danes ne pripada Nemčija nikomur razen nam — Nemcem!"

Dalje je Hitler, ki je še vedno samec, rotil nemške žene, naj rodijo več otrok. "Otroci so najvišja ambicija vsakega moža in žene," je izjavil.

Vohunstvo v tovarni motorjev za letala

Ker so se v tovarni pojavili vohuni, zahteva družba pravico, da postavi okrog tovarne ograjo iz bodoče žice.

PROTIJAPONSKI IZGREDI V LONDONU

LONDON. — Na Angleškem se je razpoloženje ljudskih množic proti Japoncem silno poostriilo. Neznanci so zažgali zabavišče Black Poole, ki je last Japoncev. Že pred dnevi so japonski podjetniki prejeli grozilno pismo, naj čim prej izginejo iz Anglije, ker se drugače lahko pripetijo, da bodo s svojimi objekti vred zleteli v zrak. Japonci so bili oškodovani za 10,000 funtov šterlingov.

Rusija je pripravljena kolektivno sodelovati, če pa bi bilo to neuspešno, bo v Sredozemlju sama branila svoje interese.

DEJAL JE, DA JE DANES VSEM NARODOM ZNANO, KDO SO PIRATJE.

NYON, Švica, 10. septembra. — Maksim Litvinov, sovjetski minister za zunanje zadeve, je ob otvoritvi tukašnje konference v imenu sovjetske vlade izjavil, da bo Rusija podvzela direktno akcijo za zaščito svojih ladij pred napadi piratskih podmornikov.

Dalje je Litvinov izjavil, da je Rusija pripravljena udeležiti se kolektivne akcije. Toda, je dejal, če se s kolektivno akcijo ničesar ne doseže, je Rusija pripravljena delati na svojo pest.

"Sovjetska vlada ne more nikomerk dovoliti, da bi uničeval rusko državno lastnino, katero Rusija mora in more ščititi."

Litvinov je dal na konferenci razumeti, da smatra Rusija Italijo za tisto državo, ki je kriva pomorskega razbojništva. Ne da bi imenoval Italijo po imenu, ker so ga angleški in francoski delegatje nujno prosili, naj ne stori tega, je Litvinov izjavil, da je danes vsem narodom znano, katera je tista država, ki se zateka k dejanjem piratstva, in je ponovil, da je sovjetska vlada pripravljena, udeležiti se proti piratom kolektivne akcije.

"Toda, sovjetska vlada ne more ostati neaktivna v upanju, da bodo druge države ščitile njene interese," je rekel Litvinov.

NYON, Švica, 10. septembra. — Tukašnje konference se je udeležilo deset evropskih držav oziroma njihovih zastopnikov, ki so se zavezali, da bodo postavili svoje mornarice v službo preganjanja piratskih podmornic, ki pogrežajo trgovske ladje v Sredozemskem morju.

Italija bo, kljub temu, da se ni udeležila konference, povabljena, da prevzame svoj delež pri preganjanju teh fantomskih podmornikov.

Angleški delegatje so izjavili, če Italija odpove svoje sodelovanje, bosta njeno mesto prevzeli Anglija in Francija s svojimi mornaricami, ki sta dovolj močni, da naredita konec pomorskemu razbojništvu. — Vsak podmornik, ki bo opažen v tej internacionalni zoni, bo smatran kot piratsko vozilo.

Mornarice, ki se bodo poleg Anglije in Francije še udeležile te strašne službe, so mornarice sledečih držav: Rusije, Turčije, Grške, Jugoslavije, Romunije, Bolgarije, Egipta in Albanije.

Te pomorske patrolje bodo streljale tudi na vsako letalo, ki bi skusilo napasti kako trgovsko ladjo.

Maksim Litvinov, sovjetski komisar, čigar besede, da bo Rusija delala na svojo pest, če se kaj konkretnega ne doseže, so učinkovale ko bomba na konferenci, je bil prvi, ki je odšel s seje, ko je bilo prvo posvetovanje končano. "V principu smo dosegli sporazum," je dejal častnikarjem ter dal razumeti, da je Rusija zadovoljna.

NAPAD NA ANGLEŠKI PARNIK

LONDON, 11. septembra — Angleški parnik Stamburbridge, ki je imel na krovu 1,000 beguncev, je bil včeraj v bližini Gijona bombardiran. Kapetan je brezčasno prosil pomoč bojnih ladij proti napadalcem, katerih identitete poročilo ne omenja.

NYON, Švica, 11. septembra. — Rusija, ki se je silovito uprla angleškemu in francoskemu načrtu patroliranja Sredozemskega morja, je izjavila, da bi dal tak načrt piratom vso svobodo operiranja pred očmi stražnih bojnih ladij.

Razjarjen od skrajnosti, je Maksim Litvinov, ruski komisar zunanjih zadev, izjavil, da bi francosko-angleški načrt ne pomenil samo, da se daje napadajočim podmornikom vso svobodo akcije, temveč bi ta načrt tudi pomenil priznanje španskih fašistov kot bojujoče se sile.

FAVSTA

ZGODOVINSKI ROMAN

Končati ni utegnil. Z razprostrtimi rokami je telebnil po tleh...

Favsta je stopila k njemu. Videl, da leži v omedlevici, ga je zaničljivo sunila z ного. Nato je odšla.

Ko se je menih prebudil iz nezavesti, je zagledal namestu pažežnje zalo mlado žensko, ki mu je pomagala na noge in ga je za roko odvela do spojnih vrat. Trenutek se in je bil spet pri "železni stiskalnici," sam ne vedoč, ali se vrača iz resničnosti ali iz sanj. Brez odlašanja je ostavil krčmo ter ubral pot proti samostanu...

Favsta je bila stopila v sosednjo sobo, kjer je čakala Marija de Montpensier.

"Tudaj me res ima za angele!" je vzkliknila vojvodinja in stopila Favsti naproti.

Princesa jo je poljubila na čelo.

"Uverjen je, in še kako! ... Ali mar nima prav?" je dejala. "Siromak!" se je zasmejala Marija de Montpensier. "Da povem po pravici: vsa ta komedija se mi vidi že kar bogokletna. Jaz — angel! ... Premislite! Strah bi me bilo, če bi se pogledala v zrcalu..."

"Saj je tudi čas, da opustite to vlogo," je rekla Favsta. "V Chartresu se ne boste več prikazali v podobi angela. Prava, živa Marija de Montpensier bo morala voditi meniha do cilja!"

"Bogme," je zamrmrala vojvodinja, "ljubim te bo! In ker se mladi človek žrtvuje, da mi poljubi Valoisevo glavo, zakaj ga ne bi nagradila?"

"Jacques Clement pojde v Chartres z veliko procesijo," je malomarno pripomnila Favsta. "To pomeni, da bom vso pot blizu njega; zakaj tudi jaz pojdem peš — le smejte se! Peš, v pokoro za svoje grehe... za bivanje in za bodoče..."

Vojvodinja je gibko priklesnila, poslovlila se in odšla skozi železna vrata. Favsta se je vrnila v sobo, ki je mejila ob krčmo pri "železni stiskalnici."

"Henrik III. je izgubljen!" je murmrala sama pri sebi. "Kocka je pala!..."

Zmotila jo je služkinja, ki je stopila v sobo in ji je tiho nekaj povedala. Favsta se je zdrznila.

"Privedi ga," je velela nato. "Privedi ga, Myrthis..."

Myrthis je kmalu pripeljala moškega, ki se je priklonil Favsti, ne da bi črnil besedo.

"Ni mogoče!" je vzkliknila Favsta s tisto posebno veselostjo, za katero se je pri njej navadno skrival najstrupenejši pogled. "Ali ste res vi, gospod de Maurevert? Mar vam naš blaženi kralj še ni odšel obljubljenih sto tisoč liver?"

"Pač, gospa..."

"Po tem takem bi morali biti v montmartskem samostanu. Zakaj niste tam?"

"Njegova Visokost vojvoda Guiski mi je izrečno prepovedal približati se Violetti; ljubosumnost mu ne da miru..."

"Oh!" je škrtnila Favsta. "In sem ji hotela podariti življenje! ... Tem slabše zanjo: tudi ona mora poginiti!..."

"Da nadaljujem, gospa," je povzel Maurevert z glasom, ki je drhtel od besnosti. "Lahko si mislite, da bi bil vzlic vojvodovi prepovedi že ugrabil svojo ženo in pobegnil z njo iz Pariza..."

Povest. Spisal Batog

Soseda

Kmalu zatem je prišel zdravnik in nato še sodnik s svojim pisarjem. Na postelji je ležal Peter bled, kakor novo pobeljena stena. Bil je miren, kajti potolažila ga je v zadnjih trenotkih tolažba sv. vere.

"Gospod sodnik," je govoril bolnik, "hočem vam pripovedati žalostno dogodbo svojega življenja, najgroznejšo, katero si mora izmisliti človek. Ne izprašujte me, temveč napišite, kar izpovem. — Daleč privede človeka pohlepnost, in pohlepnosti je bivala v meni velika mera. Nikdar nisem imel dovolj, vedno sem hotel imeti več. Začel sem z malim in ako ni šlo po pravici, pridobival sem vedno več z različnimi malimi in velikimi sleparijami in tako sem postal imovit. Marsikako solzo je izvabilo ubožcem moje ravnanje, marsikak vzdih je vpil proti nebu za maščevanje. Nekega dne mi šine v glavo, da bi začel neko podjetje s tujimi novci. Dasi sem imel denarja na obilo, izposodim si pri starem Dobniku štiri tisoč goldinarjev, nekaj tudi zato, da bi dal ljudem povod sklepati, da ni pri meni vse tako trdno, kakor se je dozdevalo. Dosegel sem to in zelo me je veselilo, kajti tudi to bi mi moralo postati v korist. Na kak način, to ne spada sem! — Nekega popoldne sem vrnil Janezu, sinu Dobnikovemu štiri tisoč goldinarjev. Težko sem mu jih vračal, prav roke so se mi tresle, ko sem jih odševal in zli duh me je obšel, da mora ta denar še moj biti. Janez mi je povedal, da ima tisti popoldan še dovolj opravila in da se bode težko pred desetimi vračal domov. Tedaj je naenkrat v meni sklep dozorel. Proti večeru sem se delal bolnega in povedal v hiši, da grem v posteljo ter naj me nihče ne moti. A ko se je stemnilo, sem odšel natihoma skozi stranska vrata po stezah do onega gozdiča. Srečo sem imel, sreča nisem nikogar in vse je šlo po volji. Ne vem prav, koliko je morala biti ura, ko sem zaslišal od daleč Janezov voz. Ko se približal gozdiču, kjer je cesta nekoliko v reber, je šel voz počasi. Tedaj skočim od zadi in zasadam nož Janezu v sence. Zavpil je še: "Jezus, Marija!" a potem ni bilo več glasu iz njega. Ker je konj hotel uteči, ustavim ga ter privežem za drevo. Nato sem pobral Janezu denar, odvezal konja in se peljal do bližnje križpoti, kjer sem ga spustil, kamor se mu je ljubilo. Jaz sem pa do..."

kozarec domače slivovke.

"Veš, Matija, moja pot sicer ni bila k tebi. Toda v vasi sem imel nujno opravilo in tedaj sem sklenil, da ti precej povem, kaj te je doletelo."

In birič je začel razkladati z vsvo proročeno mu zgovornostjo, včerajšnje dogodke na Kozjem Bolj ko je pripovedoval, bolj je žarelo lice Matiji. Ko je končal birič, pal je Matija na koleni in solze so mu začele padati po lici. Prav iz globočine svojega srca se vzdihnil: Kako sem srečen!

Veseljje je zavladalo v hiši. Matija se je obnašal kakor otrok in skoro ni vedel, kaj bi počel.

"Kaj ti nisem pravil, Matija?" izpregovori birič.

A Matija mu je donasal kozareček za kozarečkom, dokler biriču ni zlezla glava na prsi in je trdno zadremal.

In glej, vnovič se odpro vrata. Črez toliko časa stopi zopet črez prag — Barba. Brez vsake besede stopi k Matiji, poda mu desnico, a z levico si briše solzne oči.

"Ta-le je že vse povedal," dejala je nazadnje, kazoč biriča. "Ti, Matija, pa stopi k našemu očetu, želi te videti."

In ni se obotavljala Matija. Kmalu je bil pri Dobniku. Ta pa je položil roke na njegovo glavo umrl.

X.

Na žarnem se niso vedeli o smrti Petrovi. Vodebov Matija je drugega popoldne sedel na ognjišču ter popravljal koše. Otožno je zrl na svoje delo in žalostno ga je opazovala mati. Ni ga bilo več veselja v Vodebovi hiši in vedno je vladala v nji nekaka mrtvaška tišina.

Burja je tulila zunaj in to bučanje se je še najbolj jemalo z Matijevo notranostjo. Zar se vrata odpranejo in v hišo stopi birič Martin. Vsi se presrešajo, kajti takih obiskovov ni več, sela nobena kmetska hiša ni več, danes nimam nikogar nič slabega; veselo novico nam nosim! Matija, daj mi ga požirek; vem, da nisi brez njega! Zato ti pa jaz povem takin novico, da bodeš strmel."

Rekši se Martin useda na ognjišče, a Matija mu res prinese

in govoril z resnim glasom:

"Kaj ti nisem pravil, Matija? Ako si nedolžen, bode se izkazalo! Matija, namestuj mi sina! Vse je tvoje, kar imam."

"Ne, oče, ničesar ne vzamem. Sin vam hočem biti in vse delati za vas, a vzeti kaj, tega ne morem! Še manj bi mogel sprejeti to, kar mi je volil Peter."

In ni ga mogel Dobnik pripraviti, da bi se bil vdal.

Matija je sodnija prisodila del Petrovega premoženja, ali on ga je takoj razdelil ubožcem. Stari Dobnik je pa premišljal, kako bi Matijo pripravil, da bi vzel njegovo premoženje. Kaj stori? — Kmalu potem je Matija naprosil za roko Cejeve Franice in ni se branila. Tedaj je pa Dobnik izročil Franici vse kot ženitovanjsko darilo in res se Matija ni več branil.

I-L SERIES UNDER LIGHTS TUESDAY

ORELS WILL FIGHT TO WIN IN CHAMP SERIES AT GLENVIEW

Championship play between the Orels and the SSPZ Spartans for the title of the Inter-Lodge softball crown will be resumed Tuesday evening, September 14 at Glenview Park, foot of East 110 street. The game will start at 6:45 p. m., which should be noted by fans who attended the first game, which started later.

In the first game it was the Spartan man power at bat that won the close game for them. The score would have been much more lopsided had the Orels not displayed one of the brainiest and watchful teams in years.

Over 3000 people witnessed the first game two weeks ago, which was won by the Spartans 5 to 4. The game was a thriller with the verdict see-sawing until the last man was out.

The championship game was delayed by a week because of the Labor Day holidays and the fact that the SSPZ Spartans were busy playing in the organization's National Olympics.

The Orels may continue their work on the bases and with just some falling off of the Spartan slugging may win the game. Come out and see it! REMEMBER: Glenview Park, Tuesday, Sept. 14 at 6:45 p. m.

Glenview Park is at the foot of East 110 street. The St. Clair car stops at East 110 street and there is just a walk of 300 feet to the park. Admission will be free.

SLOVENE GIRL HAS CHANCE TO BE AUTO SHOW BRIDE

The distinction of being named the most typical Slovene bride awaits every reader of this page. The girl chosen will receive a handsome cash award and will participate in a spectacular revue called "The Brides of the Nation." This pageant will be staged by the Cleveland Automobile Show to be held in the Public Auditorium, November 13 to 20. Twenty-two other nationalities will be asked to participate in this pageant.

Every girl selected will represent the bride of her nationality, and will be garbed in her native costume, attended by the customary bridesmaids.

These costumes are especially designed by great artists, with the utmost care for authenticity, and some of them will be imported direct from the old country. This is the first time in the history of the Cleveland Automobile Show that such outstanding recognition has been given the international groups. It is expected that 150,000 people will view the automobile show of which "The Brides of the Nations" will be the center of attraction.

Twice each day a specific number of brides, representing the various countries, will appear on a specially built stage in a pantomime depicting a bridal procession in colorful native splendor of each of these European countries. During the performance a large symphony orchestra will play specially arranged music of the various countries fitting the occasion.

The Automobile Show management is asking us to help them find among our people the Slovene bride.

The columns of this paper will be open to those who wish to enter the contest. This is not a beauty contest. Nationality characteristics and personality will be most considered.

The American Yugoslavs

By Ivan Madineo

Yugoslav immigrants are recognized today as the pioneers in apple, grape and fishing industries of California and along the whole Pacific coast. It is recorded that one "Mark Rabasa, apple dealer," a native of Dalmatia in Yugoslavia, was the first man engaged in apple business in Watsonville, Pajaro Valley, in the late 70's. This date marks the beginning of this universally known industry.

Jack London (in his novel "The Valley of the Moon") describes at length and with great admiration the result of the "tenderness and love," which transformed the 12,000 acres of the Pajaro Valley into "one of the most wonderful demonstrations in the United States." He calls it "New Dalmatia" and credits "those first ragged Adriatic Slavs" for making it "Apple Paradise."

Others began to cultivate grapes, and fishing. Large fleet of fishing boats in San Pedro, in Monterey, and on the Columbia River are manned and owned by Yugoslav fishermen. A fleet of two hundred modern fishing boats on the Columbia River alone represent an investment of several millions of dollars and are the property of the Yugoslav immigrants. The largest sardine, tuna and mackerel canneries in California belongs to the Yugoslavs. Most famous restaurants in San Francisco, until recently were owned and operated by them.

Though New Orleans is the oldest existing Yugoslav settlement in the United States, their first organization, however, was formed in San Francisco in 1857, as "The Slavonian Mutual and Benevolent Society." Its purpose was social and beneficial, helping its members in times of illness and distress. The official languages were "English and Slavonian." These early settlers called their mother tongue by its general name — "Slavonian" (meaning Slavonic) and even today the Yugoslavs along the Pacific Coast and around the Gulf of Mexico are designated as "Slavonians." Only in 1874 the New Orleans Yugoslavs organized themselves in the "United Slavonian Benevolent Association of New Orleans." The father of the writer of these lines was one of its founders. This organization is this year celebrating its sixtieth anniversary.

The first organization on the Atlantic Coast was founded in New York in 1880, and is now known as "The First Croatian Benefit Society." Two years later the Slovenes organized their first association, "The Independent Society of St. Joseph," in Calumet, Mich. This was the first four organizations were established on the four extreme points of the United States. These pioneer associations, which still exist, can proudly point to five thousand of their offsprings in all sections of the Country.

Lose In Milwaukee

The Cleveland SNPJ Feds journeyed to Milwaukee over the Labor Day holidays to defend their National SNPJ softball title there. They went there although they were eliminated from participating in the Milwaukee tournament by their defeat in Cleveland a week previously by the Detroit Young Americans. The question of the eligibility of the Young American pitcher was disputed and the game re-played in Milwaukee. There they defeated the Young Americans 10 to 6, but lost to the La Salle Mohawks in the finals 4 to 3.

SSPZ Olympics Attract Visitors

Cleveland was the center for many visitors over the Labor Day holidays when several hundred mixed with other hundreds from Cleveland to participate in the SSPZ National Olympics.

The sports program began Saturday morning and ended Sunday. A dance Saturday, a picnic Sunday and a symposium and sports conference took up the social end of the meet. Large crowds attended all the affairs. The Bridgeville, (Pa.) Progressors won the senior softball title for the third consecutive time. The Ambridge (Pa.) Vrtec won the junior softball title.

Spartans of Cleveland won the balling title, with the Lunder-Adamic lodge of Cleveland runner-up.

The singles horseshoe title went to John Yereb of Strabane, Pa., and the doubles to Anthony Bolka and Charles Koman of Cleveland.

Trophies were presented champions at a banquet Monday night which concluded the three-day affair.

Examine Children Ready For School

Cleveland, O. — Throughout Greater Cleveland fathers whose sons and daughters will enter school for the first time in the fall are being reminded of preliminary responsibilities.

In 10,000 offices, factories, stores and other places of business, the Cleveland Health Council, cooperating with Health Commissioner Harold J. Knapp, is asking fathers to see that children are healthy, and as free as possible from physical defects, by the time schools open in September.

The message addressed to fathers is printed on a red, white and blue poster, and signed by Dr. Knapp. The Health Council, a Community Fund agency, provides a means whereby all local public and private health services may work together on the same health problems.

The posters read as follows: "TO FATHERS: School is your children's business. To get the most out of their education they must be healthy.

"This summer see that they have nourishing food and safe play. Have the following done for the little ones starting school in September:

"Vaccination against smallpox. Immunization against diphtheria. Complete physical check-up, including examination of teeth, tonsils, eyes, adenoids and ears.

"SEE YOUR DOCTOR AND DENTIST."

(Signed) Harold J. Knapp, Commissioner of Health, Cleveland

Howard Whipple Green, secretary of the Cleveland Health Council, emphasizing the importance of the message, said: "It is often true that both the mental and physical development of children in school is retarded and even endangered by neglect of some health defect that a physical examination will disclose. We want to keep such hazards as low as possible in Greater Cleveland."
