Umik ne pride v poštev

Vesti iz Bele hiše trdijo, da umik od ciljev v Vietnamu ne prihaja pri novonovnem ocenjevanju položaja v poncevanju položaja v poncevanju. I'čeejo le nova, boljše šota do postavljenih ciljev.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Vesti iz Bele hiše, predsednikove lastne izjave zadnjih dni, pa tudi izjave državnega tajnika Ruska kažejo, da odgovorni vodniki dežele ne mislijo na odstop od postavljenih ciljev v Vietnamu, ampak da iščejo dejansko le uspešnejša pota do njih. Jedro pretresanja položaja je v tehta-nju šibkih in močnih točk sedanjega vojskovanja, spremenjene taktike rdečih in poti, kako dobiti znova iniciativo, ki so jo zavezniške čete izgubile lansko jesen, posebno pa z rdečo ofenzivo v preteklem mesecu.

Predsednik hoče vedeti tudi, kolikšne so potrebe po vojaških ojačenjih in koliko bi ta stala. Njegovi svetovalci tehta-jo tudi vpliv takih ukrepov na ameriško javno mnenje, kar je razumljivo, če pomislimo, da je do volitev komaj še dobrega pol leta.

V svojih zadnjih govorih je predsednik L. B. Johnson znova poudarjal, da je cilj ameriškega posega v jugovzhodno Azijo "varovati šibke", da bodo dobili potreben čas za izgraditev lastnih obrambnih močnosti. Na stoproti rdeči osvajačnosti naj bi ustvaril temelj za trajnejši mr.

V razorožitveni komisiji vleče nov veter

ZENEVA, Sv. — V razorožitveni komisiji ZN vleče nov veter. Cela leta sta se tam pripravili Amerika in Rusija, sedaj sta pa Amerikanec Foster in Rus Roščin postala zaveznika v obrambi predloga za pogodbo o kontroli prometa z atomskim strelivom. Sta postala že tako prijatelja, da rabita iste besede, kadar branita skupne ameriško-ruske interese. To zavezništvo jima je potrebno, kajti sedanje besedilo pogodbe ne zadovoljuje vseh članov odbora. Veliko med njimi jih misli, da je besedilo preveč prirejeno ameriško-ruskim interesom in da se premalo ozira na interese držav, ki nimajo atomskega orožja.

Vremenski prerok pravi:

Oblačno, vetrovno, toplejše. Najvišja temperatura blizu 40. Na noč verjetnost dežja.

Na Kitajskem se trudijo za obnovo reda v šolstvu

HONG KONG. — Lajnja 1966 so mladi ljudje na Kitajskem zaostili učilnice in se organizirali v "rdeče garde" vrgli v boj za poživitev revolucionarnega duha, kot je to želel Mao. Reden pouk v srednjih in višjih šolah je prestal skoraj po vsej širni teželi. Ko so kitajski vodniki spoznali, da to povzroča deželni dvojno škodo, je Mao lani pozval mladino, naj se vrne v učilnice in pridno študira. Pozivu so se le delno pokorili, po nekaterih delih Kitajske pa se zanj sploh niso brigali in rdeče garde vodijo še dalje "kulturno revolucijo". Radio in časopisje pozivata sedaj oblasti, posebno armado, naj napravi red in poskrbi, da se bo mladina vrnila v šole.

Wisconsin je po površini le 81 kv. milj manjši od Iowe.

Kiesingerjev govor vznemiril Anglosaksonce

BONN, Nem. — Nemški kancler dr. Kiesinger je imel po dolgem času zopet velik političen govor pred nemškimi parlamentom. V njem je razlagal svoje poglede na svetovno politiko. Žkušal je stvarno gledati na mednarodni položaj in delati tudi stvarne zaključke. Omenili bi samo tiste, ki zanimajo ameriško javnost.

Nemčija se mora opirati še zmeraj na idejo o združenju Evrope, ki pa naj ne bo v okviru interesov NATO. To še ne pomeni, da bi bila taka Evropa proti Ameriki, ravno narobe, mora temeljiti tudi na prijateljstvu z njo. Samo taka "neodvisna združena Evropa, toda v prijateljski povezanosti z Ameriko", lahko pomaga postavljati most med Zahodom in Vzhodom.

Kiesingerjevo stališče se v tem močno razlikuje na primer od stališča znanega francoskega politika J. Monnetta, ki v evropsko varnost zavarovano le v povezanosti z Ameriko in Kanado. Dr. Kiesinger je dalje tudi

Dom se bo takoj lotil načrta civilnih pravic

Vodnik demokratske večine v Predstavniškem domu hoče senatov predlog načrta civilnih pravic predložiti v glasovanje.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Vodstvo demokratske večine hoče spraviti senatov predlog o civilnih pravicah na glasovanje brez predhodnih razprav v odborih. Tja bo šel šele, če ne bo mogoče dobiti za senatovo besedišče potrebne večine. Vodniki te akcije sodijo, da bo 150 do 160 demokratov glasovalo za predlog, preostale potrebne glasove pa upajo dobiti iz republikanskih vrst. Skupno je potrebno za izglasovanje 217 glasov, absolutna večina od 433 kongresnikov, če so seveda vsi navzoči.

Predlog za sprejem senatovega besedila je stalil včeraj kongresnik E. Celler, načelnik Demovnega pravosodnega odbora. Za sprejetje bi moral dobiti soglasje vsega doma, na kar pa dejansko ni nihče računal.

Nato je bila predložena resolucija, ki poziva Dom, naj sprejme senatovo besedilo. Resolucija mora priti najprej pred Demov odbor za pravila, ki ima svojo prvo prihodnjo sejo v torek. Načelnik tega odbora C. M. Colmer, demokrat iz države Mississippi, je znan nasprotnik uzakonjevanja civilnih pravic, zato utegne glasovanje zavlačevati. Predlog more dobiti v odboru večino le, če ga bodo podprli republikanski člani, kar pa ni gotovo. G. R. Ford, vodnik republikancev v Domu, je dejal, da senatovo besedilo ne bo šlo skozi Dom brez sprememb. Te spremembe ne nemara dogovorila konferenca Doma in Senata, če Dom senatovega besedila ne bo odobril v izglasovani obliki.

Polzvedovalni kotiček

G. Martin Razboršek, 73 Esslingen-Mettingen, Riesling Str 3, W. Germany, se zanima za svoje sorodnika Leopolda Razborška, rojenega okoli l. 1890 v vasi Torog, občina Laško pri Celju. Baje je umrl v Združenih državah okoli leta 1953. Kdor bi o njem kaj vedel, je proščen, da sporoči na gornji naslov.

Stalinisti se umikajo "na lastno pobudo"?

PRAGA, CSR. — Na Češkem se morajo goditi res čudne stvari. Vsek dan prinaša novice, ki bi jih ne pričakovali. Sedaj smo na primer zvedeli, da režim ne odpušča stalinistov in zakrknjenih birokratov, odhajajo kar sami pod pritiskom javnosti. Casopisi so namreč začeli kar imenoma napadati vse tovarise, ki so znani kot stebri režima predsednika Novotnega. Kogar pa danes napada češka javnost, mu je ura sojena. Je najbolje, da se umakne kar sam. Zato vsak dan kar "prostovoljno" odhajajo mnogi odlični češki komunisti s svojih položajev.

Včeraj je napravil samomorjen. V Janko, namestnik obrambnega ministra, ko se je pešlal v vladnem avtomobilu na sejo vlade odgovorjat, kako da je mogoče pobeigniti iz dežele gen. Jan Sejna, glavni politikomisar oboroženih sil.

Vse skunaj je pa začelo skrbeti tudi Moskvo. Po Pragi so se začele širiti vesti, da so prihili v češko prestolico zaupniki Krenlja in da pozvedujejo pri posameznih komunističnih strukcih, kam bo sedanji češki politični vrvež zašel, ako bo nanj zmeraj bolj vplivala ulica. Baje so dobili od liberalnih, naprednih in podobnih komunističnih struj zagotovilo, da češki komunisti prav nič ne mislijo spreminiti svojih stikov in simpatij do Moskve. Ali jim bodo pa v Kremlju tud verjeji?

De Gaulle reorganiziral francosko obrambo

PARIZ, Fr. — Ob pomenu na začetku bitke pri Dien Bien Phu so se tisti francoski politiki, ki se brigajo za narodno obrambo, spomnili tudi na veliko zaslugi, ki jo je De Gaulle napravil svoji domovini s tem, da je do dna reorganiziral vse francoske oborožene sile. Novo organizacijo je prilagodil novi tehniki vojskovanja, pa tudi novim ciljem francoske politike. Francija nima več kolonij, ima pa zato nekaj modernega orožja, pa še ne zadosti. Na drugi strani si je ravno v Vietnamu in Alžiriji nabrala skušnjo, kako se je treba vojskovati med sovražnim prebivalstvom.

OTOK MAURITIUS PLAČUJE NEODVISNOST

PORT LOUIS, Maurit. — Zopet smo dobili novo neodvisno državo. Otok Mauritius v Indijskem oceanu je postal 12. marca neodvisna republika. Njegova zgodovina ni ne dolga ne pestra. Nizozemci so ga odkrili v 17. stoletju, toda niso našli tam prebivalcev. Za njimi so prišli Francozje in tam naselili kreole iz Afrike. L. 1814 so otok dobili Angleži in tja pripeljali hindujske in muslimane iz Indije. Kreoli, hindujski in muslimani živijo torej tam že nad 150 let, toda niso se pomirili med seboj, akoravno jih je vseh na otoku le okoli 800.000.

V LONDONU SO ZA DANES UKINILI PRODAJO ZLATA

Zlata mrzlica, ki se je pretekli teden znova lotila sveta, je privedla do tega, da je Washington predložil Londonu, naj za danes prekine prodajo zlata, da bodo mogle Združene države in njihovi zavezniki in sodelavci celotno denarno krizo temeljito pretresti na za jutri sklicanem sestanku v Washingtonu in sprejeti potrebne sklepe.

LONDON, Vel. Brit. — Vlada je za danes objavila "bančne počitnice". Borza je zaprta, prodaja zlata prekinita do ponedeljka. Ta korak je bil storjen na predlog Združenih držav, ko zlata mrzlica, ki se je pretekli teden zolastila Evrope, ni hotela nupustiti in je začela ogrožati svetovni denarni sistem. Da bi rešili svobodni svet pred gospodarskimi stiskami in v zvezi z njimi grozečo depresijo, so odgovorni vodniki sveta sklenili celotno denarno vprašanje pretresti na posvetu v Washingtonu, sklicanem za jutri. Udeležili se ga bodo poleg Združenih držav in Velike Britanije tudi zastopniki Zahodne Nemčije, Italije, Švice, Belgije in Nizozemske. Francija je svoje sodelovanje odklonila.

Nezaupanje v dolar se je pojavilo v nevarni obliki lani, ko je morala Velika Britanija znižati vrednost svojega funta. Lastniki dolarjev so začeli te spreminjati v zlato in strahu, da bi utegnili biti zvišana cena zlata in bi s tem oni utrpeli izgubo, kot so jo utrpeli lastniki angleških funtov. Od tedaj pa do včeraj so Združene države za nad poldrug bilijon dolarjev plačale tužini v zlato. Zaloga zlata v Združenih državah so zato padle na okoli 11.6 bilijonov dolarjev po ceni $35 za unčo. Včeraj je senat izglasoval zakonski predlog, ki odpravlja 25% kritije dolarja v samih Združenih državah in že preje v Domu izglasovani predlog poslal v Belo hišo v podpis. Združene države imajo tako na razpolago za obrambo dolarja vse razpoložljivo zlato.

Sedanja zlata mrzlica po besedah gospodarskih strokovnjakov ne bo imela neposrednega vpliva na hranilne vloge, zaslužke in cene v Združenih državah, zato ni vzroka za neposredno vznemirjanje. Drugo je seveda vprašanje dolgoročnih posledic. Če mednarodnemu sodelovanju in skupnim naporom odgovornih vodnikov svobodnega sveta ne bo uspelo sedanje denarne krize rešiti, bo to privedlo do zastoja v mednarodni trgovini in do zastoja v celotnem svetovnem gospodarstvu, tudi v naši deželi.

Pomoč tujini v zagati v Senatu

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Zunanjepolitični odbor Senata je direktorju pomoči tujini W. S. Gaudu povedal, da tvega zavrnitev predsednikovega predloga za 3 bilijone dolarjev pomoči tujini, če ne bo poskrbel jamstva, da ne bodo v okviru te pomoči več kupovali in pošiljali v tujni razne nepotrebne luksuzne predmete, kot so kozarci za šampanjec, električni aparati za britje žensk itd. Posebno oster je bil republikanski senator J. J. Williams iz države Deaware. Oglasili pa so še tudi sen. S. Cooper in sen. K. Mund, oba republikanca, ter sen. F. J. Lausche, demokrat iz Ohia. Vsi so zahtevali strožji nadzor in predhodno odobritev blaga za pomoč tujini.

V Vzhodni Nemčiji postali nervozni

BONN, Zah. Nem. — Demonstracije in zahteve po liberalizaciji na Poljskem in Češkem povzročajo nervoznost in zaskrbenost v Vzhodni Nemčiji, kjer Walter Ulbricht še vedno vlada je manj slavil pomen neodvisnosti, kot tožil angleški dvor, da je pokvaril vse slovesnosti. Ko je nastopila tema, je na ulicah zavladal mir, le mladina se je zabavala na način, ki je imel malo zveze z neodvisnostjo, ki je pa nanj navajena. Angleški vojaki so pazili, da ni prišlo do nemirov, ki bi motili počitek 800.000 otočanom.

OTROŠKI KOTIČEK

Včasih so rekli: marčev sneg, beraški gnoj. Vse kaže, da bo še danes pognojeno, čeprav zdajje, ko škilim skoz šendino okence, pada le sodra. Pa se zna zgoditi, da bo iz tega res sneg. Proti Jožetu gremo, zima pa še opleta. Vendar moram povedati, da v mojem vrtniku za šendico že zvončklja prvi zvonček. Tako je lep, da ni moč povedati. Pomlad torej le prihaja in bo prišla.

Dragi Kotičkov stric! Ze dolgo sem si želela mucko in končno sem jo dobila od naših prijateljev. Ko smo jo prinesli domov, smo naredili zanjo posebno hišico, kjer je spala. Nekoga dne, ko je padal dež, je mucka odšla. Vsi smo bili zelo žalostni. Drugi dan smo jo našli. Tri ali štiri dni smo jo potem imeli v kleti. Peti dan smo jo pustili spet ven. Ponoči je odšla in ni prišla več nazaj. Te lepo pozdravlja

Marija Nemec

Draga Marija! Z mucki je velik križ, to že sam vem. Veliko skušenj imam. S prvim, ki mi je bil dolga leta dober prijatelj, sva se hitro poslovila. Drugi je bil filog prida. Pobeštal se je, kjer se mu je zdelo in sva bila brž vsaksebi. Zdaj imam že tretjega, tigrastega, hudo prijaznega, le igral in igral bi se kar naprej. Leti in gleda nazaj, če letim za njim. Pa kako bi letel pri teh letih. Ko vidi, da nisem več za igro, zleze k meni na pograd in prede. Ti, pišeš, nisi imela sreče. Poberal je po svetu. So mucki, ki imajo potepuško kri. Tvoj je moral biti te sorte. Nič se ne ženi, muckov je na tem svetu nič koliko. Druga dva dobiš. Pridna ostani, hvala za pisemce in lepo Te pozdravljam.

Dragi Kotičkov stric! Verjetno ste tudi Vi zasledovali Zimsko olimpijado. Devetnajstletna Peggy Fleming, prejšnja Clevelandkanka, je bila edina Amerikanka, ki je dobila zlato medaljo. Dobila je najboljšo oceno v umetnem drsanju na ledu. V nedeljo, 18. februarja, so plesali na ledu vsi tisti, ki so bili nagajeni z zlatimi medaljami. Peggy Fleming je plesala na ledu ob spremljavi pesmi: Ave Marija. Tako lepo je plesala, da mi je postal prinesel penzijoček, ki je bil za petdeset dolarčkov večji kot zadnji pot. Pa se sanje še nikoli niso uresničile. Veš, lepo je pa le, ko vsaj v sanjah cingljaš in zbiraš v trgovini. Tudi sanje so del človeškega življenja. Ko sem bil mlad, sem imel sanj nič koliko. Zdaj na stara leta jih pa ni in če so, so figo prida. Mlademu človeku se čez dan veliko suče po glavi, v sanjah pa nadaljuje. Staremu kvečjemu kakšen funeral home pride na misel in testament, če ima toliko, da ga je sploh vredno delati. Jaz ga ne bom, ker nič nimam. Ti kar sanjaj. Ni napak vsaj v sanjah imeti tisto, kar si želiš. Pridna mi ostani in lepo Te pozdravljam.

Martina Košnik

Draga Martina! Jaz pa Zimska olimpijada. Na ta je pa dobra. Še nikoli toliko nisem zvedel od nje kakor iz tvojega pisma. Jaz se dričam in smučam po pogradu brez medalj. Lepo je, da je mlad človek navdušen za šport. Zdravo je in lepo in kar si zapisala o tisti punčki — vsaka umetnost Boga hvali in časti. Tudi šport. Toda na moj kriv hrbet. Roženkranček ob peči, to je moj šport. O, ko sem bil mlad! V teku na dolge proge sem bil odličan. Sem lahko tekkel od Podbrezj do Zvirč in še nazaj in še sape nisem imel. Zdaj stopim malo po cesti pa že mislim na pograd. Človek se obleti kakor drevo na pozno jesen. Pa hvala za pisemce, obogatil sem svoje znanje. Lepo Te pozdravljam.

HEPOD STOLPA SVETEGA KRIŽA BRIDGEPORT, CONN.

Mislím, da je malo ljudi tako srečnih, da bi imeli kar dva poštna urada, Huntington in Shelton. Kljub temu pa prihaja Ameriška Domovina večkrat z dvodnevno zamudo. Ne vem, kje je krivda.

Mi živimo v Huntingtonu, medtem, ko se naša slovenska fara nahaja v Bridgeportu. Od nje smo oddaljeni kakih 15 milj, pa smo kljub temu njeni zvesti udje, četudi je angleška fara le 6 milj od tu.

Pri slovenski fari sv. Križa v Bridgeportu je vedno kaka dejavnost. Lansko leto je bil na pobudo župnika č. g. Hribška uveden pouk slovenščine. Starši morajo biti hvaležni gospodu župniku, da imajo njihovi otroci priliko naučiti se našega lepega milega jezika, ki je naša največja svetinja. V slovensko šolo se je vpisalo nad 20 učencev in učenk. Če bi bilo med našimi družinami malo več narodne zavesti, bi jih bilo lahko več. Po učujeta gospa Stella Klanchich in gščna Nuška Bizelj v dveh razredih. Učiteljicama gre vsa zahvala za veliko požrtvovalnost, saj poučujeta našo mladino brezplačno, gospodu župniku pa iskren Bog plačaj, da je dal na razpolago dvoran v župnišču, kjer se vrši pouk.

Pred Pustom sta bili v farni dvorani dve prireditvi. Na soboto, 17. februarja, so priredile naše faranke Valentinov ples. Udeležba je bila kar zadovoljiva. Na nedeljo, 25. februarja, smo se pa podali v New York na "Osmo" na koncert, katerega so priredili fantje tamkajšnje slovenske fare pod vodstvom pevovodje dr. Delaka. Napovedoval je g. Večerin. Dvorana je bila skoro premajhna. O tem koncertu je že g. Tone Osornik obširneje in točneje poročal. Za nas je bil omenjeni koncert veliko doživetje, posebno še, ker smo od New Yorka kar precej oddaljeni in nimamo vedno prilike udeležiti se raznih tamkajšnjih družabnih prireditev. Zahvala, da je koncert tako lepo uspel, gre prav gotovo gospodu pevovodji in slovenskim fantom, ki so se toliko žrtvovali za ta pevski nastop.

V soboto, 24. februarja, je bila v Bridgeportu druga plesna zabava, tudi dobro obiskana. Čisti dobiček je šel v korist slovenske šole. Zahvalo naj sprejmejo gospe, ki so spekle in podarile pevico in pomagale v kuhinji, ter točajki, ki so bile precej zaposlene. Posebna hvala pa velja godbenikom, ki so ves večer igrali brezplačno! Na tej veselici so hvaležni starši izročili učiteljicam slovenske šole vsaki po ducat rdečih nageljev.

Sedaj smo v postnem času, čeprav bi rekel, da posta skoraj ni, ker so ga zelo omilili. Zato pa je naša dolžnost, da si sami nalozimo post in da v ta namen darujemo vsak po svoji moči za Katoliške misijone. Prejel sem več pisem od č. g. misijonarja Obale iz Afrike, v katerih piše, v kako žalostnem stanju se nahaja in koliko mora prestopiti, ko pešači v zelo oddaljena naselja. Ljudje tam vse pričakujejo od misijonarja. Kje naj dobi potrebno hrano in vse drugo, kar potrebuje za življenje? Tudi č. g. Wolbang požrtvovalno dela za misijone po svetu. Je še več drugih katoliških ustanov, ki potrebujejo našo pomoč. Res je, da je veliko potreb in da je težko za dostiti vsem prošnjam, toda boljše je dajati kot prositi. Ko bomo odšli tja, od koder ni vrnitve, ne bomo mogli s seboj nesti drugega kot svoja dobra dela.

Lepo pozdravljam čitatelje Ameriške Domovine in vse njene sodelavce. Prijatelju Jelenu pa želim, da čimprej ozdravi in da mi kmalu napiše dolgo pismo. Fran Zele

Pismo slovenskega misijonarja iz Afrike

KATONDWE, Zamb. — Življensko stanje ljudi je zelo preprosto in primitivno. To se kaže zlasti v poljedelstvu, ki ga opravljajo le z rokami, oz. z neke vrste motikami. Glavni pridelek je koruza. Zato tudi dvakrat na dan jedo koruzno polento, ki je neslana. Za priboljšek imajo malo omake ali kuhanega sočivja. Kruha ne poznajo in žlic tudi še ne. Po vaseh se še dobijo ženske, zlasti starejše, ki od pasu navzgor nimajo na sebi nobene obleke, a se zaradi tega nihče ne pohujšuje in se jim zdi povsem naravno. Matere svoje otroke, dovoljke, hranijo kjerkoli, tudi med mašo ali krstom in tako ni jokanja in je mir pri hiši. Lep prizor je, ko pride mati s svojim otrokom, ki ga ima navezanega na hrbtno, k spovedi. Tedaj tak otroček zvedava gleda belega gospoda, prisluskuje materine grehe in zve za pokoro, ki jo je zanje dobila.

Rdeči upor v Kambodži se širi in zaostruje

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Poročila iz Kambodže govore o razširjanju in poglobljanju komunističnega upora v tej državi, ki skuša plavati uradno med obema taboroma dejavnosti na njena vlada pušča rdečim, da uporabljajo kambodžanska tla za svoja oporišča in oskrbovališča rdeči gverilci v Južnem Vietnamu. Predsednik države princ Sihanuk je v zadnjih dneh ponovno javno nastopil proti uporu in njegovim podpornikom v rdečem bloku. Namignil je celo, da mu ne bo preostalo drugega, kot prositi za ameriško pomoč, če bodo rdeči upor dalje širili in zaostrovali. Rdeče diktature v Evropi postajajo živčne

CLEVELAND, O. — Če kdo, bi morali rdeči diktatorji vedeti, da jih vsako pomlad čakajo demonstracije, izgredi, nemiri itd. in biti pripravljeni nanje. Gotovo so jih tudi letos pričakovali, toda do sedaj še niso pokazali tiste hladnokrvnosti, ki so jo imeli prejšnja leta. Poljski diktator Gomulka velja na primer za izredno in prebrisanega glavo, se le redkokdaj zaleti. Letos je pa postal živčen. Odpustil je na primer iz državne službe tri odlične tovariše, ker so njihovi sinovi šli v opozicijo in vodijo študentske poulične nemire v Varšavi.

Na podoben način se je iztiril vzhodnonemški diktator Ulbricht. V svoji domišljiji je začel pripisovati mali zahodnonemški "narodnodemokratski stranki" tak političen pomen, ki naj ogroža njegov rdeči režim v Vzhodni Nemčiji. Zato je s posebnim dekretom prepovedal članom te stranke rabo znane mednarodne avtomobilske ceste, ki veže Berlin z Zahodno Nemčijo. Proti Ulbrichtovemu odloku so takoj protestirale Nemčija, Amerika, Anglija in Francija, toda Ulbricht ga ni prekal, pa ga obenem tudi ne izvaja.

To so malenkosti, pa vendar dobro posvetijo v miselnost sodobnih rdečih diktatorjev, ki je postala od časa do časa res zelo omahljiva in zaletela.

Sir Arthur Conan Doyle:

IZGUBLJENI SVET

(THE LOST WORLD)

In Gladys — oh, moja Gladys, kateri na čast sem krstil skrivnostno jezero. Zdaj se zopet zove Sredinsko jezero in tvoje ime, o Gladys, nikoli ne bo nesmrtno po moji zaslugi. Mar že nisem poprej opazoval, da ima pretrd značaj? Mar nisem slutil že takrat, ko sem se z veseljem pokoril njenemu povelju, da je to prav za prav žalostna ljubezen, če ljubimca lahko pošilja naproti nevarnosti in smrti? Mar se niso že takrat budile v meni in se spet in spet povračale vedno zatirane srčne slutnje in mi pravile, da je skrita v globini njene duše kljub lepemu obrazu dvojna napaka, da je sebična in muhava? Ali je ljubila slikovito junaštvo radi njegove notranje plemenitosti, ali pa samo radi slave, katero bi z njim lahko pridobila brez vsakih naporov in žrtev? In ali niso slednjič vse te moje misli samo naknadno, jalovo modrovanje? Vsekakor je bil to zame jako težek udarec. Za trenutek sem obupal nad vsem plemenitim. Toda zdaj, ko to pišem, je pretekel že teden dni, imeli smo pomemben razgovor z lordom Johnom Roxtonom in, naposled, lahko bi se vse končalo še slabše.

Povem vse prav na kratko. V Southamptonu nisem dobil nobenega pisma ali brzojava in prispel sem ob desetih zvečer v malo vilo v Streathamu v mrzličnem razburjenju. Ali je bila živa, ali mrtva? Kam so se razpršile vse moje ponočne sanje o tem, da pohiti z odprtimi rokami, srečnim obrazom in beseda mi polnimi priznanja naproti človeku, ki je tvegval življenje na ljubo njeni vihravosti? Padel zgodilo. A priznati morate, da ni bilo vaše čustvo posebno globoko, če ste lahko odšli na kraj sveta pa me samo pustili tu. Saj niste name hudi, kaj ni res?" "Ne, ne, prav nič. Zdaj pa se moram posloviti." "Ali se nečete malo okrepčati?" je rekel človeček in dodal prijateljski: "Tako je pač vedno na svetu, saj veste? Drugače tudi ne more biti, če ne boste prestopili v poligamijo ali si pomagali na kak drug način; saj me razumete." Prav bedasto se je zasmel, medtem ko sem odkorakal jaz proti vratom.

Stopil sem že v vežo, ko me je nenadno prešinila čudna misel in me gnala zopet k srečnemu tekmeču, ki je nemirno ogledoval gumb električnega zvonca. "Ali mi hočete odgovoriti na neko vprašanje?" sem rekel. "Seveda, če to lahko storim," je odvrnil.

"Kako vam je to uspelo? Iskali ste morebiti zakopani zaklad, odkrili kak tečaj, upihili, luč pomorskemu razbojniku, preliv ali kaj? Odkod izvira vaš romantični sijaj? Kako vam je to uspelo?"

Obupno je zijal vame, tako da se mu je nagubančil dobrodušni, vsakdanji obrazek.

"Ali se vam ne zdi, da je to preveč osebno vprašanje?" je rekel.

"Naj bo. Pa še eno vprašanje," sem zaklical. "Kdo pa ste? Kakšen poklic imate?"

"Pisar sem pri odvetniku," je odgovoril. "Služim v pisarni Johnson in Merivale, Chancery Lane, številka 41."

"Lahko noč!" sem rekel in kakor vsi obupani junaki sem izgubil s potrtim srcem v temi, pa žalost, jeza in smeh, vse skupaj, je vrelo v meni kakor v kotlu.

Se zadnji prizor, pa bom končal. Nocoj smo vsi večerjali na stanovanju pri lordu Johnu Roxtonu in potem kakor dobri tovariši, obsedeli, kadili pa se memili o naših doživljajih. Čudno je bilo gledati v novi, popolnoma drugačni okolici prejšnje, dobro poznane poštake in obraze. Tu je bil Challenger s svojim zaničevalnim smehljajem, napol povešenimi vekami, ošabnimi očmi, izzivalno brado in mogočnimi prsmi, ki so globoko dihala, medtem ko je oblastno zavračal Summerleeja. Tu je sedel tudi Summerlee s svojo čedro iz rožnega lesa, ki mu je štrlela med tenkimi brki, s svojo sivo kozjo bradico, in pomolil vedno nekoliko naprej svoj utrujen obraz, če je od spora razvnet dvomil o Challengerjevih trditvah. Tu je bil naposled naš gospodar z ostrimi, orlovskimi potezami in mrzlimi, plavimi, ledenškimi očmi, na dnu katerih je vedno lesketala žaljiva porednost. To je zadnja slika mojih tovarišev, katero imam sedaj v spominu.

Po večerji, v gospodarjevem svetišču, rdečkasto razsvetljeni sobi z neštevilnimi lovskimi spomini, je rekel lord John Roxton, da nam mora nekaj povedati. Vzel je z omare staro škatlo od cigar in jo pred nami spustil na tizo.

"Tu imam neko stvar," je pridel, "o kateri bi vam že prej moral povedati, a hotel sem malo bolj natančno vedeti, kaj je na tem, ker se ne izplača buditi upanja in ga potem ne uresničiti. Zdaj pa, gospoda moja, je to dejstvo in ne upanje. Saj se spominjate onega dneva, ko smo odkrili pterodaktilovo gnezdišče sredi močvirja, kaj? No, zanimalo me je tam nekaj. Če morebiti tega niste opazili, takoj vse pojasnim. Kar me je zanimalo, je bilo ognjeniško žrelo, natrpno z plavo ilovico."

Profesorja sta prikimala. "No, pa sem naletel jaz poprej samo enkrat na slično ognjeniško žrelo s plavo ilovico. To je bilo v velikem de Beerovem diamantnem rudniku v Kimberleju (v Južni Afriki), razumete? Od onega časa so mi neprestano dia-manti hodili po glavi. Izumil sem način, da mi ne bi mogla smrdljiva golazen do živega, vzel lopato in imel v tem močvirju prav srečen dan. Glejte, kaj sem našel."

Odpri je svojo cigarno škatlo, jo obrnil in stresel iz nje na tizo kakih dvajset ali trideset nebrušenih kamenčkov različne velikosti: eni so bili kakor grah drobni, drugi pa zopet debeli kakor oreh.

"Morebiti vendar mislite, da bi vam to moral povedati. Saj bi to tudi storil, a znano mi je, kako lahko si človek pripravi razočaranje, če se dobro ne spozna na te stvari. Dragulji, če so še tako debeli, imajo vendar lahko prav majhno vrednost, če niso pravega sestava pa barve. Zato sem vse, kar sem našel, prinesel domov in takoj po povratku neseš en kamen znanemu draguljarju, Spinku tam nasproti, da ga obrust in oceni."

Dobil je iz žepa škatlico od pilul in vzel iz nje prekrasen lesketajoč se diamant, eden od najlepših draguljev, katere sem kdajkoli videl.

"Tukaj imate uspeh," je rekel. "Draguljar pravi, da so vredni vsi ti kamni skupaj najmanj dve sto tisoč funtov. Ta znesek moramo seveda razdeliti med seboj. Torej, Challenger, kaj boste počeli s svojimi petdeset tisoč funti?"

"Ce vztrajate res pri svoji velikodušni ponudbi," je odgovoril profesor, "ustanovil bom zasebni muzej, o katerem že dolgo sanjam."

"Pa vi, Summerlee?" "Pustim predavanja na univerzi, potem bom imel čas, da zaključim razvrstitev kostnih izkopanin kredne dobe."

"In jaz porabim svoj del," je rekel lord John Roxton, "da zberem in dobro opremim potrebne ljudi, potem pa pogledam zopet našo ljubo staro planoto. Pa vi, mladenič, vi porabite svoj del za ženičev?"

"Zdaj še ne," sem odgovoril in se skesano nasmehnil. "Rajši bi že šel z vami, če me le hočete vzeti s seboj."

Lord Roxton ni ničesar rekel, mi je stegnil preko mize svoj od solca rjavo roko.

AMERICAN HOME SLOVENIAN MORNING NEWSPAPER

Serve Something Different

Reputations for gourmet cooking are often based on the cook's knowing little tricks of seasoning—tricks that can help you make a quick meal into something special. For instance, a touch of coffee flavor does wonders for barbecue and spaghetti sauces, lamb gravy, beef stroganoff, and ham glazes. And it's so easy when you use instant quality coffee, which has a unique way of mellowing and blending flavors. In this Sweet and Sour Sauce, the traditional Oriental flavors of pineapple, tomato, and green pepper are delightfully blended with a hint of coffee. Try it with reheated frozen fried shrimp, and serve rice and strong coffee alongside. Another time, use the same sauce to dress up leftovers.

Sweet and Sour Sauce

- 1 teaspoon Instant Maxwell House Coffee
- 1/2 cup water
- 1/2 cup firmly packed brown sugar
- 1 tablespoon cornstarch
- 1/4 teaspoon salt
- Dash of pepper
- 1/2 cup vinegar
- 2 tablespoons catsup
- 1 can (8-3/4 oz.) pineapple tidbits undrained
- 1 medium tomato, cut into small wedges
- 1 medium green pepper, cut in small squares
- 1 tablespoon salad oil

Dissolve instant coffee in water. Mix sugar, cornstarch, salt, and pepper in a saucepan. Stir in coffee; then add vinegar, catsup, and pineapple. Cook and stir over medium heat until sauce is thickened. Lightly sauté tomato and green pepper in oil. Add to the thickened sauce. Serve with or over fried shrimp, roast pork, spareribs, or ham. Makes 1-1/2 cups sauce.

New Players Signed For Soccer

The Cleveland officer of the Stokers learned that Coach Norman Low has signed a young Portuguese player and two veterans of the Spanish League first division. They are Manuel Mendonza, 21, an outside right; Enrique Mateos, 31, an inside forward who played 3 years with the famous Real (Real) Madrid team; and Jesus Tartilan, 26, a seven-year veteran of Spanish football who plays wing halfback.

All three players have joined the Stokers at the New Brighton, England training camp.

Coach Low says "Mendonza is an exciting player who is very fast and clever and has tremendous energy. He should become a favorite of the fans."

Mendonza, a native of Portugal, started on the youth team of Atletico Madrid but couldn't sign a pro contract with them because of a Spanish League rule which requires Spanish citizenship for its players. He played last season with Rennes in the French first division.

Mateos is rated one of the most skillful players in Europe. Low signed him for his "brainy ball play and his potent scoring ability."

He began his career with Real Madrid when he was 18. During his eight years with that club, he played five European Cup competitions including the two times his club won the cup championship. He scored a goal in each of those victories teaming with one of the all-time great footballers, Ferenc Puskas.

Mateos played 11 times for Spain in international games and scored 20 goals in those games.

He was obtained by the Stokers from Seville of the Spanish first division.

Coach Low describes Tartilan as a "fast, keen tackler," and remarks that he plays good defense alongside Navarro, the Stokers star center halfback.

When he was 19, Tartilan signed with the Betes Seville of the Spanish first division. After serving two years in the army he played for Deportivo Espanol, another first division club. He has also toured Europe for Spain in international competition.

SHORTS on SPORTS

Mickey Wins Promotion; He's Air-Guard Sergeant

Lakeland, Fla. — Mickey Lolich keeps hoping April will be like last September when he finished the season for the Tigers with nearly 29 successive scoreless innings.

Disruptors in his life cropped up in March as he left spring training at Marchant Stadium for 18 days in the Michigan Air National Guard. Lolich reported with his company at Travis Air Force Base near Savannah, Ga.

"I'm a sergeant now," said Mickey brightly. "That means I have seven guys under me."

Lolich is assigned to a motor pool and he invariably spends 18 days in the summer driving military vehicles.

He really isn't choosy about what he drives. Last winter in Detroit, he drove a truck for a landscaping company.

"Pretty slick," he related. "The truck had a phone in it."

For several years, Lolich has kept the Detroit players reasonably well informed on the U.S. space program. He has led several one-day expeditions to Cape Kennedy from the spring base in Lakeland.

Cards Meet Senior Veep; His Name Is Stan Musial

St. Petersburg, Fla. — It was like introducing Jack Dempsey to a boxing glove, Everett Dirksen to an elocution teacher, Bob Hope to an audience and Jack Benny to his money. Stan Musial was presented to the Cardinals February 29.

The Leap Year gesture was part of a clubhouse get-acquainted session in which General Manager Bing Devine introduced front-office staff members, including Musial.

Referred to as the senior vice-president, Stan the Man winced and grinned.

"That 'senior,' he said, makes me feel old."

The next day, though the temperature was barely over 40 and winds gusting up to 30 miles an hour, Musial put on the famed uniform No. 6, for which he didn't have time when he was general manager a year ago, and worked out with the Redbirds.

"As always, I'm ready to help Red (Schoendienst) in any way he sees fit and any hitter who might ask for help," said the 47-year-old former seven-time batting champion, "but we've got a very good batting coach in Dick Sisler."

Hodges Already Discovers Ford Was Correct on Yogi

St. Petersburg, Fla.—Whitey Ford said it a long time ago: "If you want to know anything, ask Yogi. He knows everything."

Gil Hodges found that out for himself just recently. Gil was talking to his coaches about the fact that both Met first baseman, Ed Kranepool and Art Shamsky, are left-handed.

"I'd like to have someone who's right-handed to use in an emergency or if I take Kranepool or Shamsky out," Hodges was saying.

"Why don't you try Cleon Jones there? He played it in high school," Yogi offered.

"He did?" Hodges said with surprise. "I never knew that."

Neither did most other people with the Mets. But Yogi knew it.

March 31 Is Deadline For Medicare Decision

Mr. J. R. Pederson, District Manager of the Cleveland East Social Security office, states that the deadline for signing up for the voluntary medical insurance part of medicare for those people row 65 and older is just about here.

Those persons who originally turned the medical insurance down have an opportunity to reconsider their earlier decision but they must do it by March 31, 1968.

"Medical insurance helps pay doctor bills and other medical services not covered under the hospital insurance part of Medicare. Services of doctors are covered no matter where received — in the home, in the hospital, or the doctor's office. Up to 100 home health visits by nurses, therapists, and other health workers are also covered, as well as out-patient hospital diagnostic studies, lab tests, and various other medical services," Mr. Pederson explained.

For those persons over age 65 to be eligible for this valuable protection, a person must file for this insurance and he must do this by March 31, 1968. Mr. Pederson stated that he wanted to emphasize that for those who have not yet signed up, the time is short and March 31, 1968 is just around the corner.

WE MUST THINK BIG

In our free enterprise economy, the modern corporation has proven capable of drawing together the financial and material resources and the human talent necessary to undertake the complex and immense feats of research, production and distribution that are the material fabric of modern society. But, the accelerating pace of change and the challenge of solving problems that remain will demand even more from the corporation of tomorrow.

The head of a major industrial company, North American Rockwell Corporation, has said, "... that ten years from now three-fourths of the people employed in American industry will be turning out products that we here today don't even know about. Thus, the central problem we face in building the corporation of the future is building a commercially feasible organization that can master this change and harness it to the crucial problems of our society." To gain the talent in the many different fields of technology required to direct management, material and financial resources most effectively is the challenge facing business enterprise. Many firms have found that merging with other companies having experience in different related fields has given them a head start in meeting this challenge. Successful joining of two companies often facilitates development of new and better products and the realization of benefits to employees, stockholders, the consuming public and the national economy that would have otherwise been impossible.

Bigness for the purpose of taking monopolistic advantage in the marketplace is indefensible, but bigness for the purpose of fully realizing the potential of our economic system and the era in which we live is indispensable. Government alone cannot solve problems of hunger, air and water pollution, poverty, overcrowded and blighted areas. An energetic and productive free people can and the diversified corporation of tomorrow now being developed, with broad technical ability and the resources to utilize it, will play a vital role in raising the quality as well as the quantity of our national accomplishments.

EXTENSION OF EXCISE TAX ON AUTOMOBILES AND TELEPHONES. The House has voted to extend the present excise tax on passenger automobiles and telephone service until December 31, 1969. The 7 percent tax on automobiles was scheduled to drop to 2 percent on April 1, 1968 and to 1 percent on January 1, 1969, while the 10 percent tax on telephone service was to drop to 1 percent as of April 1, 1968 and then be repealed completely on January 1, 1969. Continuing the present rates will result in Treasury revenue of $306 million this year and $2.6 billion in fiscal 1969. Such taxes are an undue burden on consumers and should be repealed as soon as circumstances permit. However, we are faced with a predicted deficit of over $20 billion for both this year and next year. This fact, of course, foreclosed the reduction at this time.

THE CLOSING OF JOB CORPS CENTERS. Last year Congress appropriated the full amount for the Job Corps program, but the Administration has cut $10 million from the $295 million appropriated. As a result sixteen Job Corps Centers are being closed by the Office of Economic Opportunity. These Centers are all for men — our Cleveland Job Corps Center for Women is not affected fortunately.

There is a capital investment of some $24 million in those centers being closed, which means this money will be going down the drain. House Republicans have urged a gradual phasing over of existing Job Corps Centers to regional training facilities to be operated in conjunction with technical institutes and area vocational schools with increased involvement of state, local and private resources, but rather than converting them to a more realistic approach that would serve enrollees more effectively, the Administration has chosen to close 16 Centers. Some of them had just opened. $1,265,210 was expended on the Swiftbird, South Dakota, Center, which never opened at all.

When you add in the capital investments in these Centers to date, you get a clear picture of the price the American taxpayers have paid for mass produced Job Corps Centers without adequate planning and foresight. What we need are responsible studies of the Job Corps program. We need to look at its cost effectiveness more closely and re-direct the program to gain the best advantage for our unemployed youths. Most of all, we need to work toward a utilization of facilities that have already been established without arbitrarily closing them and wasting the $24 million we have already invested.

CLEVELAND URBAN RENEWAL. This week I joined other Members of the Cleveland Congressional delegation in a meeting with Mayor Carl Stokes and Secretary Weaver at the Department of Housing and Urban Development. At that time, Secretary Weaver announced that the freeze which had been placed on Federal funds for Cleveland's Urban Renewal Program about a year ago because of lack of progress, was being lifted. The Secretary announced further that his Department was approving the first part of a major application amendment for the University-Euclid project involving $11,790,192. Also, another Demolition Grant of $251,750 to aid Cleveland's code enforcement and rehabilitation programs was approved.

It is good to know that this program which has been on dead-center for so long is at last on the move. Such a program, existing and proposed, as large as Cleveland's must be planned, effectively programmed, financed in a timely fashion, and efficiently and humanely executed. In this connection the City will file an application shortly to Prepare a Community Renewal Program to enable the community to attack its problems on a priority schedule. Secretary Weaver said the Department will welcome the application and will entertain its funding forthwith. I was glad to be at this meeting and will be watching the developing program, hoping that it will lead to a better community for all concerned.

SPRING TONIC FOR A TIRED HOUSE

THIS WELL-KEPT HOUSE needs no spring clean-up after a hard winter—or a hard-played ball game. The attractive clapboard siding is made of solid vinyl that never needs painting. Gutters are also maintenance-free vinyl, strong enough to weather the toughest of storms.

New York, N.Y. (ED) — Every year about this time, our houses begin to show the ravages of weather. They look somewhat the worse for wear... from ragged roof shingles and peeling paint to cracked gutters and downspouts. Indoors, too, months of wet, muddy boots have taken their toll of floors and carpets. In the past we've fought with the traditional and tedious spring clean-up. This year, add a spring tonic to the "annual avenging." Start replacing old materials with new maintenance-free plastics that can end major spring cleaning chores forever. Repairing old materials? Use up-to-date products straight from modern research laboratories that enable your home to face the elements for years and still look like new.

Go about shape-up time well-organized. First, make a "walk around" inspection of the outside of the house. Just after a heavy spring rain is preferable — trouble spots stick out like sore thumbs. Work from the bottom up. Look for puddles close to the house. Absorbed into the ground around basement walls, they make the cellar damp, even wet. To make the earth next to the foundation slope away from the house, take a shovel or two of earth from a high-level portion of the ground elsewhere on your lawn. Or a cubic yard or two of "fill" from a local contractor will do the job if you discover large hollows to be filled.

Cracked downspouts and gutters are a common cause of damp or wet cellars because water drain-off escapes from its prescribed route to a storm sewer. If gutters are worn remove and replace with maintenance-free solid vinyl gutters. Drain clogging is often caused by tree roots. Trace likely ones and cut trouble-makers short of drain tiles. If all the gutters and downspouts around the house are in bad shape, consider a complete replacement with solid vinyl ones; they're tough enough to battle ice jams and heavy snows in winter, and will need no spring repairs.

Most likely trouble spots on exterior sides of the house are points at which water or ice and snow can collect. In a wood-frame house, test verticle corner boards with a penknife. You can detect signs of rot by the softness of the wood. Seal all cracks with a caulking gun. You should also check window frames and sashes and exposed doorways for possible caulking needs.

Walk-around inspections all too often reveal large areas of peeling paint on a wood-frame house—even though the house may have been painted only a season or two ago. To give longer life to an outside paint job, make sure you use one of the new sturdy vinyl base paints that give tough, long-lasting wear.

But the best way to "repair" wood-siding is simply to cover it or replace it with one of the new vinyl sidings. It can be done at nominal cost, especially when you consider never having to paint the house again. A simple hosing down is all vinyl siding needs to keep ship-shape, and it's good looking to boot.

Check the roof, too. Composition shingles are often damaged by winter winds and can be repaired or replaced easily. For a torn or slightly lifted shingle, spread roofing cement under the rip, press both sides of the rip firmly down into the cement, drive a few roofing nails along the edges of the tear and cover the heads with dabs of the cement. To replace a shingle, lift up the lower edge of the shingle above the damaged one. This will expose the nails holding the damaged shingle down. Pry these nails out with a claw hammer, slip the old shingle out and the new one in. Drive nails in the same positions and press shingles down flat. A dab of roofing cement over each nail head will prevent leakage through nail holes. If the new shingle does not lie flat, simply spread some roofing cement under it.

Inside the home there are a host of ways you can minimize major spring overhauling. New fibers for curtains and upholstery, new flooring materials — even new materials in furniture — can convert your home to virtually a maintenance-free haven.

Even though there has been a return to opulence in home furnishings, lightweight, stain and dirt-resistant and wrinkle-free synthetic "wonder" fabrics popular today are designed with the look of elegance but never require the care once needed for precious materials. Drapery linings are in vogue again, and they're specially processed not to wilt under the sun's steady glare or shrink if caught in a storm. They also protect the decorative face of draperies.

As for end tables, coffee tables, nightstands and dining room tables that keep sprouting water marks, scratches, nicks and burns on which Grandma's old formulas never seem to work, here's a solution: well-designed furniture in rich wood hues have tops made of laminated plastic — a boon to the homemaker. Tables with laminated plastic tops never need a coaster — nor one of Grandma's magic formulas.

If it's time to re-upholster your living room furniture, consider the care the fabrics you choose will need. Here, too, the trend is toward elegance, but easy-care materials, especially fabric-look vinyls, are elegantly designed. Rich brocades, matelasses, damask patterns and Mediterranean styles are among those you can choose from. And when they need cleaning, a mere swish of a sponge does the job.

What lies underfoot, where muddy boots have tracked all winter, can also present cleaning problems. Nowadays, vinyl flooring, designed to enhance all periods and styles of furniture, is accepted in every room of the house, including the living room. An Acrilan acrylic fiber rug in the conversation area of the living room is an ideal complement to vinyl flooring. It has the look of rich wool yet cleans so easily. Acrilan is also good for the children's room where it will have ample opportunity to prove its easy-care and wearable qualities.

Think ahead to future springs as you shake off winter this year. Replacing a few items at a time will mean infinitely less work for you in the future. That's a delightful spring tonic for a tired house, and a tired-of-spring-cleaning you!

NEW MAINTENANCE-FREE MATERIALS are ideal for children's rooms. Pictured is a gay plaid Acrilan acrylic fiber carpet that wears like iron and cleans easily. The hunt table has a laminated plastic top. Crayon and finger markings wipe off with a sponge, and the table top won't rick or chip.

Goodwill's Operation Pick-Up Dates Are Set

Goodwill Industries, Greater Cleveland's workshop for the handicapped, launches its annual drive, "Operation Pick-Up", on April 1st. The drive, aimed at assisting area homemakers during the busy time of spring housecleaning, enables Goodwill clients to remain at their work stations during the summer season when regular donations diminish.

This special effort — gathering clothing, furniture, toys and other household items — is vitally needed to continue training for the physically disabled, emotionally disturbed, mentally retarded and older persons.

"Goodwill is pleased that 552 handicapped clients were served in 1967," said Mr. Rudolph Stefanko, Executive Director of the vocational rehabilitation agency. "Vital services such as vocational counseling, job placement, training and evaluation were provided by our professional staff. They succeeded in placing 69 clients in competitive industry," he said.

In addition to providing wages and employment for the handicapped, "Operation Pick-Up" permits area residents of limited means the opportunity of purchasing serviceable repaired materials in Goodwill's twelve retail stores. The funds received from the sale of restored household articles are returned to Goodwill clients in the form of much-needed paychecks.

A non-profit organization, Goodwill urges that its many area friends support this vital drive by calling 431-8300 for a special truck pick-up. Another method of participating in this project is via the agency's deposit box program. Yellow and blue Goodwill receptacles are located on the premises of many business establishments in Greater Cleveland.

Whichever method is used, Goodwill respectfully reminds area residents that their usable discards — especially furniture pieces — provide the chance for handicapped persons to become self-supporting. This special drive continues through the entire month of April.

Signal Device "Illuminaid"

Persons who have no means of communication may now be helped by a signaling device called the "Illuminaid."

Plans for assembling the unit are being made available — without charge — by the Cleveland Electric Illuminating Company.

The need for a "voice" for the handicapped was brought to the attention of the company during preparation of a radio program about Cleveland's Sunbeam School for Crippled Children. Several children at the school, suffering from cerebral palsy, were unable to express their basic needs to their parents and teachers. Hearing about the children's plight, two Illuminating Company men volunteered to "invent" such a device. They were Dan Kovar, engineer, and Stan Moskal, a senior electrical tester. Incidentally, the unit is not commercially marketable because so few people require one.

The Illuminaid is a self-contained unit with 10 switches and lights, under which may be placed changeable printed legends to indicate the patient's needs. For example, the label may read: "Drink, please," "I am too hot," or "Move my wheel chair, please." If the patient is too young to read, pictures may be substituted. A photograph of the sun means "I am too warm"; a glass of water says "Drink, please." In early experiments with the children, numbers from one to ten were used to teach simple arithmetic problems. Pictures and words were combined to teach word associations and intelligence testing.

As word of the experiments spread, the Illuminating Company received several requests from persons interested in building the device. Hence, the Illuminaid instruction packet.

Copies are available to organizations or to families with handicapped persons. Dial 623-1350, extension 696, or call your nearest Illuminating Company office.
