Nekaj o razstavah

Pred par leti se je vršila v Chicagu velika svetovna razstava, imenovana "stoletje napredka." Leta 1935 se je vršila v San Diegu, California, druga velika razstava, ki je bila tudi do gotove meje mednarodna. Letos se dela veliko razstavo za razstavo v Texasu in za razstavo "Velikih jezer" v Clevelandu, Ohio.

Razstava je prireditve, kjer more posetnik na malem prostoru in teku nekaj ur ali dni videti zanimivosti, katere bi sicer moral iskati v raznih krajih dežele ali celo v raznih delih sveta. S splošno izobraževalnega stališča je razstava za vsakega obiskovalca velike vrednosti. Na lahak in prijeten način se človek tam nauči marsikaj, česar bi se nikoli ne naučil iz knjig in časopisov.

Vse razstave so v prvi vrsti prirejene s trgovskih ozirov. Tam je najti vse, od parfuma, do težkih poljedelskih strojev, od primitivnega indijanskega orodja, do najbolj komplikiranih strojev za dom, tovarno ali urad. Tovarne in trgovine, ki tam razstavljajo, računajo, da bodo s tem dobile mnogo novih odjemalcev, in dostikrat se že naročila oddajajo oziroma sprejemajo na razstavnem prostoru.

Vsaka razstava ima tudi koncerte in najrazličnejše druge zabave, katerih namen je privabiti tiste, katerim bi bila razstava brez tega predolgočasna. Taki obiskovalci pa nimogrede vendar vidijo marsikaj, kar se more prireditelju s trgovskega stališča izplačati. Tudi iskrica novega znanja morda vjamejo tu in tam.

Konvencija J. S. K. Jednote, ki se bo vršila meseca septembra, bo tudi do gotove mere nekaka razstava. Rojaki, katerim je ta organizacija morda le malo znana, bodo videli delegate iz vseh delov Zedinjenih držav, in nehote bodo prišli do prepričanja, da morajo ti delegati zastopati dobro in močno organizacijo. Zapletli se bodo z delegati v pogovore in izvedeli bodo še več o naši organizaciji. Zasledovali bodo morda resne in stvarne razprave in dobili bodo dobro mnenje o organizaciji. Vse to bo dobra reklama, ki bo organizaciji pomagala k napredku.

Tudi za delegate same bo konvencija nekaka razstava, ki jim bo v podrobnostih pokazala finančno moč, sistem in splošno delovanje organizacije. Z živo besedo se da povedati mnogo več kot pismeno, bodisi v glasilu, bodisi potom pisem na društvene uradnike. Delegati bodo to boljše poznanje organizacije ponesti domov in ga deliti z društvom, katerim pripadajo. Tako bo to boljše poznanje organizacije s posredovanjem delegatov doseglo tisoče članov.

Nekakim razstavam sličijo do gotove mere tudi razne obletnice in druge prireditve krajevnih društev. Uradni programi so pri takih prireditvah navadno kratki, ker je večina časa posvečena zabavi. Zabave pa privabijo tudi nečlane. Če je zabava prijetna, je to najboljša reklama za društvo, saj vsak normalni človek ljubi dobro družbo.

Mnogi so načini, s katerimi seznanjamо prospektivne nove člane z našo organizacijo; nekateri načini se obnesejo tukaj, drugi tam, nekateri pa skorov povsod. Vsekakor pa ne bi smeli izpustiti nobene prilike, da nečlane seznanimo z vrlinami naše organizacije. Pri tem ni treba prav nič pretiravati. Samo resnico povejmo in pokažimo. Naša organizacija je tako dobra, zdrava in poštena, da jo sme ves svet videti od vseh strani; čim bolj jo bo poznal, tem bolj jo bo ceni in spoštoval.

Družbeni sistem, v katerem živimo, je tak, da vsako trgovsko podjetje potrebuje reklame. Tudi naša J. S. K. Jednota je neke vrste trgovsko podjetje: prospektivnim članom nameč želimo prodati našo zavarovalnino. In naša organizacija bo tem bolj napredovala, čim več pametne, pošte in odkritosrčne reklame bo deležna od nas vseh. Vsi njeni člani in članice bi morali biti njeni navdušeni apostoli in glasniki. Ako nismo še bili taki glasniki doslej, postanimo v bodoče!

IZ UREDNIŠTVA IN UPRAVNOSTVA

Društveni tajniki so prošeni, da vsak mesec sproti posljajo upravnemu Nove Dobe imena in naslove bivših članov, ki so umrli, bili črtani ali so odstopili. Le na ta način se jim more ustaviti list.

Dopisniki naj izvolijo upoštevati, da v smislu pravil mora biti vsak dopis lastnoročno in s polnim imenom podpisani od dopisnika, sicer ga urednik ne sme priobčiti. Podpis s pisanim strojem ne velja.

Vsa srečanja, žrebanja ali "raflanja" spadajo v vrsto loterij, ki so v Zedinjenih državah prepovedane. List, ki se pošilja po pošti, ne sme priobčati nikakih direktnih ali indirektnih vabil k takim prireditvam. Poštne oblasti so posebno v Clevelandu v takih ozirih zelo stroge. Tudi vabilna na takov zvane "bingo parties" se ne smejo v listu priobčati.

VSAK PO SVOJE

(Nadaljevanje s 1. strani) cija pa je približno tako kot protekcija, katero je Liga narodov dajala Etiopiji.

Urednik nekega velikega ameriškega lista piše, da poleti, posebno v avgustu, so različne neumnosti v največjem razmahu. To je nekako logično. Vsaka stvar mora imeti svoj čas in za neumnosti je morda doba pasjih dni najprimernejša.

Ako kako naziranje obstaja tisoč ali dva tisoč let, s tem se ni dokazano, da je prav. V razne vrste verujejo ljudje že od početka znane človeške zgodovine vse do današnjih dñi, toda vraže so prav tako nesmiselne in bedaste danes, kakor so bile pred tisočletji.

Indijanci so do leta 1890 veljali za izumirajoče pleme, od takrat naprej pa se množijo in sicer zadnje čase dva-krat hitreje kot bele. Ko bomo døelo skrajnosti zavzili, jo bomo lahko spet vrnili Indijancem, da jo spravijo v red.

Ljudje smo v splošnem tako udarjeni, da nas bolj zanimali oddaljenega, kakor tisto, kar nam je takorekoč pred nosom.

Velikojezersko razstavo v Clevelandu, katero obiskujejo velike množice ljudstva od drugod, med njimi tudi mnogi naši rojaki, bo nedvomno zamudil marsikater slovenski Clevelandčan, enostavno zato, ker mu je pred nosom.

Seveda tudi jaz nisem prav nič boljši oziroma sem prav tako udarjen kot drugi, das po drugi plati. Tako na primer že več let iščem lepe pik niške prostore v raznih drž-

Predsednik angleško poslujočega društva št. 228 JSKJ v Cheswicku, Pa., sobrat Stanley Progar, se bo dne 5. septembra poročil z Miss Emma J. Zuzeck. Vsa Progarjeva družina je aktivna v delu za JSKJ, in Stanley ter njegov brat Frank J. Progar pogostokrat prispevata dobre članke za angleško sekocijo Nove Dobe. Naj bi bile srobratu prijatelju Stanleyu poti novega stanu posipane s samim cvetjem brez trnja!

V majski izdaji South Slav Herald, ki izhaja v angleškem jeziku v Beogradu, Jugoslavija, smo opazili ponatis iz Louis Adamičeve knjige "The Native's Return." To je vrlo zanimivo iz vzroka, ker je bila omenjena Adamičeva knjiga v Jugoslaviji prepovedana, zdaj pa ponatiskuje njen vsebino list, ki je po vsej priliki subvencioniran od vlade. Kazalo bi, da so tudi vladni krogovi v Jugoslaviji prišli do prepričanja, da je "The Native's Return" najlepši opis Jugoslavije, kar jih je še dosedaj izšlo v angleškem jeziku.

Založniška tvrdka Harper & Bros. v New Yorku poroča, da bo 17. septembra izšlo najnovije delo pisatelja Louisa Adamiča, namreč povez z imenom "Zibel življenja" (Cradle of Life).

Vodilni karakter te povesti je Rudo Stanka, nezakonski sin mlade avstrijske grofice in prestolonaslednika Rudolfa, sina cesarja Franca Jožefa. Otrok je bil dan v reho nekih seljakin na Hrvatskem, kjer je postal do desetega leta, nakar mu je njegov star oče po materini strani kupil veliko graščino na Hrvatskem in ga je obdal s služabniki in učitelji. Sledijo bajna doživetja, potovanje širom Evrope, prizori lepote in očarljivosti, sile, ki tirajo svet v vojno, in končno rojstvo ideje, ki objava ves človeški rod.

Povest se razvija od leta 1889 do 1914, z ozadjem dežele, katero je Mr. Adamič opisal v knjigi "The Native's Return."

Po izjavah založništa je "Cradle of Life" najboljše in največje Adamičeve delo. Knjiga bo obsegala okrog 500 strani in cena ji bo $2.50.

DRŽAVLJANSKI IZPIT

(Nadaljevanje s 1. strani)

Preostaja torej dokaz o tem, kaj kandidat zna o načelih ameriške vlade. Nedavna nadvoda, izdana naturalizacijskim izpravljateljem, jim naloča, naj jemljejo v obzir starost in fizično stanje prisilca, njegovo zaledje prosvetne priložnosti, ki jih je imel tukaj in v starem kraju. Običajno se stavljajo nanj nekatera enostavna vprašanja o federalni, državni in mestni vladni. Utegnejo vprašati nekatera vprašanja o najvažnejših dogodkih v ameriški zgodovini. To so stvari, ki jih vsak inozemec bi moral znati, tudi brez potrebe naturalizacijskega izpita.

Pretežna večina prisilcev polaga naturalizacijski izpit z dobrim uspehom. Približno le po eden izmed prisilcev se odabiha in mnogi izmed njih bolj zato, ker niso mogli dokazati dober moralen značaj, kot zaradi nesposobnosti pri odgovarjanju na vprašanja glede ameriške vlade. S prav malo učenja in truda si more vsakdo, ki hoče postati ameriški državljan, pribaviti potrebno znanje.—A. J. T.

DRUŠTVENE IN DRUGE SLOVENSKE VESTI

Dalje se je v spremstvu Clevelandčanke Mrs. Martin Račič oglašila v uredništvu Mrs. Anna Račič iz Aurom, Ill. Iz Weirtona, W. Va., sta prišla Mr. in Mrs. Joe Penko. Vsi omenjeni so prišli deloma na obisk svojih sorodnikov in prijateljev, deloma na obisk Velikojezerske razstave v Cleveland ter so se pri tej priliki tudi spomnili uredništva Nove Dobe.

Oni, ki se pripravljajo za državljanstvo, dobijo prav dober pojem o potrebnem znanju za državljanški izpit iz vrste vprašanj in odgovorov, uvrščenih v brošuri "How to Become a Citizen of the United States" katera knjižica vsebuje 64 strani. Brošuro izdaje

CURRENT THOUGHT

Great Lakes Exposition

Each city, let it have a population of five thousand or five hundred thousand, takes pardonable pride in its civic endeavors.

Residents will go to great length to point out to the out-of-town visitors the fine art museum, public libraries, monuments, city hall, court house, public auditorium, etc.

Sometimes, in order to observe fittingly an anniversary, the city will undertake a spectacle in which many citizens take part. It may be a colorful pageant, a parade; and then again it may be an exposition of several months' duration.

Cleveland this year decided to observe its 100th anniversary by staging a Great Lakes Exposition on the city's lake front. The underlying idea of the Expo is to sell Cleveland to people living in other sections of the country.

Like all undertakings of this nature, the Great Lakes Exposition required a sizeable amount of money before it became reality. Concessions and special exhibit space were sold to those interested from a business point of view. Thus, the cost of construction is to be met in part by rentals for the duration of the Exposition.

However, aside from the commercial aspect, the Great Lakes Exposition offers to the visitor sights which are made possible once in a generation. There is the "Streets of the World," a feature attraction that combines the customs, dress and vices as the tourist would find them in the native countries.

Of special interest to the Slovenes is the "Gostilna," which is operated by a group of enterprising Cleveland Slovenes. Here thousands of visitors from all sections of the country see a tavern perhaps for the first time; attendants dressed in who render favorite Slovene numbers.

There are 29 other nationality groups linked by narrow streets on which stand buildings characteristic of each native country.

Of course, the visitor will also find the cheap sideshows, which are more or less a necessary evil to expositions and carnivals. For some reason, the paying public does not seriously object to this type of entertainment, even though the viewer will note a disconsolate look on some individuals as they emerge from one of the side attractions; and if the observer is alert, he may even hear some of them remark: "What a gyp!" But, as they come to the next stand, and listen to the speaker extolling the feats of his performers, in they go, prepared for another "gyp."

There is the "Horticultural Garden," a permanent addition to the city's lake front. "Parade of the Years" which, in magnificence and depth, will leave a lasting impression in the mind of the visitor.

There are other unusual exhibits that attract the visitors.

Little did the delegates and supreme officers in attendance realize that in selecting Cleveland for the 1936 convention they chose a city that would be convention-minded that farthest from the thoughts of the 1932 delegation was the possibility of a Great Lakes Exposition to be held in the same city. As a matter of fact, Cleveland made up its mind to hold the exposition only two years ago.

It all turned out to be a happy coincidence. Cleveland, this year, is especially prepared to entertain delegates holding conventions in the Sixth City, for never in the history of Cleveland have so many conventions been held there in one year.

Sidelights of No. 66 Picnic

Joliet, Ill.—Supreme President Paul Bartel likes baseball making.

John L. Jevitz Jr., member of the National SSCU Athletic Board, certainly displayed his ability to be a willing worker.

Frank Belee, another Waukeganite, who is also the owner of an attractive smile.

Highway policemen are faithful to the old saying, "Better late than never."

Frank Mollie—Not only a good athlete but also a nice man.

Mr. Zupec, an ideal husband, besides being an ideal baseball manager.

Waukegan Comrades, although the ball game was not their victory, they showed an abundance of good sportsmanship.

Pioneer members still show an intense interest in the lodge in general.

Miss Marie Vranichar, judging from her hearty welcome, is a promising orator.

Anne I. Jevitz,
Lucille D. Kosick.

30th Anniversary Dinner-Picnic

BRIEFS

Cardinal Lodge, No. 229, SSCU, softball team of Struthers, O., will travel to Cleveland to play the Betsy Ross, No. 186, SSCU, aggregation in a return match game. The contest will take place Sunday, Aug. 9.

"Cradle of Life," a novel by Louis Adamic, will be published by Harper & Bros. of New York, on Sept. 17. This is the second novel by the well-known writer who first gained popular approval with his "The Native's Return." Adamic's "Cradle of Life" is the first of a series of novels on Yugoslavia, and covers the period from 1889 to 1914. It is the author's longest book: over 175,000 words, which fill nearly 500 pages in print.

Cleveland Hospital Service Association

announces that its free hospitalization plan for employees operates only with the co-operation of employers. Due to the small payment involved (60 cents per month for each employee, which in turn entitles employed persons up to 21 days of free hospitalization in any year) it is possible to accept only groups where remittances are made through payroll deductions in the member plants. The hospitals are anxious to extend this service to all employed persons, but for obvious reasons cannot take individuals. Over 30,000 persons have enrolled since its inception less than two years ago.

Fortunately, Supreme President Paul Bartel of Waukegan, who braved the inclement weather by arriving earlier than others, walked in on us and extended to us the very much needed encouragement.

Because of the presence of our Hon. Mayor George T. Jones always being in such great demand, we thought for a moment that he would fail to come; however, after a brief delay, he was in our midst and apologetically informed us that his delay was due to a loop parade by a recently organized United German Society in which the Joliet City Council was represented by him and city commissioners, and which parade got under way much later than scheduled because of the morning rain.

In view of the numerous mishaps, our dinner was a huge success. The attendants at the dinner consisted of a large number of members of our SS. Peter and Paul Society, representatives of various local branches affiliated with fraternal orders, such as KSKJ, SNPJ, DSD, SWU, and independent branches. Also represented were communities of Chicago, Waukegan and Rockdale, and county, township and city officials.

During the dinner music was furnished by Al Pohler's Arkansas Travelers, and several vocal selections by Miss Anne Jevitz, accompanied by Miss Evelyne Spernoga, pianist. Our supreme trustee, Frank E. Vranichar, very efficiently portrayed his title of toastmaster at all times. After dining, 6-year-old Marie Vranichar presented us with a very enlightening speech in behalf of our juvenile department, welcoming all present. The waiting on tables was very able in charge of the Ladies of SSCU, who were decked out in crisp white aprons for the occasion.

In the afternoon, as in the evening, the number of the picnickers was very thick, particularly the presence of numerous unanticipated out-of-town guests and visitors of other groups and fraternal branches. The turnout of business and professional people of different classes was also very pleasant.

Michael Rajacich returned to Chisholm, Minn., for a six weeks' vacation visit with his parents from Belgrade, Yugoslavia.

Slovene Day on Lake Erie Outing

Cleveland, O.—Several groups of young Slovenes in Cleveland have joined their efforts in sponsoring a "Slovene Day on Lake Erie" outing on Sunday, Aug. 30. Plans are now under way to fill the luxurious Steamer Seeandbee to its capacity for a round-trip excursion to Cedar Point and return. In conjunction with this outing, the committee has arranged a popularity contest to select the most popular Slovene young lady to whom it will award an all-expense round-trip excursion to Washington, D. C., for the presidential inauguration in January, a much-to-be-coveted prize. In addition, the program for the day will include a variety of games, sports, contests, entertainment and amusement—in short, a good time for all, young and old.

Committee in charge extends an invitation to all Slovenes from near and far to join in this event, which will prove to be one of the grandest outings ever held by the Cleveland Slovene colony. Out-of-towners who are planning to visit the Great Lakes Exposition in Cleveland may adjust their plans to also include this outing, and thereby make their visits complete.

Tickets for the round-trip will be $1 for adults and 50 cents for children under 12 years of age, and may be purchased in Cleveland at the following locations: Makovec Confectionery, 6415 St. Clair Ave.; Mlakar's Confectionery, 4611 W. 130th St.; Treck's Confectionery, 15508 Holmes Ave.; Louis Ferfolia's Funeral Parlors, 3515 E. 81st St.; Slovene National Home, 3563 E. 80th St., or from members of the Orels Club or the South End Improvement League. Out-of-towners can communicate with V. H. Karlinger, 1086 Addison Rd., for reservations.

John Jelenic, 10, of Cleveland, O., met with accidental death when on Thursday, July 30, he was run over by a heavy truck as he rode a bicycle in front of his home. His father, Peter Jelenic, an active lodge worker, died of a stroke nine months ago, and three months later his brother, Peter Jr., 17, also had died, of pneumonia. Mrs. Anna Jelenic, 46, mother and widow, saw her son John crushed beneath the wheels of the truck.

New enrollments in our SSCU during the months of May and June numbered 227. During May, Lodge No. 2 of Ely, Minn., led the field when the branch lodges secured a total of 81 adults and 28 juveniles. During June, Lodge No. 132 of Euclid, O., was high with a total of 17 new members, seven in the adult and ten in the juvenile, as the combined efforts indicated 66 new members in the adult department and 52 in the juvenile.

Out-of-town SSCU visitor-members to the Great Lakes Exposition may be found at the Slovene Tavern within the Streets of the World. Last Saturday, Aug. 1, Henry Kosoglov, member of Lodge No. 40, SSCU, of Claridge, Pa., together with two friends, paid his compliments to the Slovene village.

With the Electrons

And Stan Progar

Springdale, Pa.—Much can be said about the fine showing of the juveniles, but a repetition of last month's juvenile page will prove beyond doubt that we have a hustling group of coming senior SSCUers. All indications point to a bigger and better SSCU, under a more interesting Nova Doba. That's what we are all working for, so come on, juveniles, and do your stuff. Remember, the dollar prize will be awarded monthly until further notice. The same rules prevail. Each article must have a lode number and your age.

I Do—Do You?

For the past three months, the Electron members have become well acquainted with the phrase "I do." It was heard that at the next regular monthly meeting these two little words were to be chosen as the password of the Electrons. There is only one thing one can say concerning this, "If you care to get married, enroll with the electrons."

Our latest newlyweds are now settled in their happy home in Cheswick. Charles and Julia are at home to callers at Murray Hill, Cheswick, just above Tony's Cafe.

I do—do you, Joe Yohman? Yes, soon Joe and Mary Jacobosky will be traveling the well-known trail. Say, Mary, is this true? From a authoritative sources I have heard that Joe feared for your health, and so bought you a protective (a blanket) just to make sure you wouldn't get sick for the big day. I asked Joe and he said it must be so. You know, it does get real chilly in the evenings, and my cue to say—Adios.

Stan Progar,
No. 228, SSCU.

"I hear there's a new baby at your house, Johnny," said the teacher. "I don't think it's new, teacher," replied Johnny, feelingly. "The way it cries sounds as if it had lots of 'sperience."

Recuperating

With Little Stan

Ely, Minn.—After watching in the hills, the state Moose celebrate at their annual conclave held in

Ely three days, two weeks ago, Little Stan and the Ely populace in general sit back and recuperate. Those three days were certainly filled with excitement and fun. Drum corps, bands and drill teams from various parts of the state took part in the festivities. The town was decorated with banners and flags, lending a colorful atmosphere to the general appearance. German Bands paraded around the town as the general convention came to a close Saturday. As early as 4 in the morning some of the inebriated Moose were doing a snake dance through the avenues. Yes, heh, heh, Little Stan was up at that early hour watching the proceedings. They say reporters never sleep, but he certainly made up for lost time Sunday.

But now the conclave is over, and the citizens sit back to relax and catch their breath. The Moose convention wound up the many festivities held in this city during the summer, and the committees for all events can now pick up the general routine where they left off.

In another month, delegates to our SSCU convention in Cleveland will be on their way. Little Stan would like to be there to cover the highlights, both informally and formally. And yet, you can't tell. Maybe, and maybe not. We'll have to look in the bank book. But if you are near the convention hall when the opening day arrives, look around, and if you see a tall, lanky, little guy, standing about six feet three or so, why, you can guess—it may be Little Stanley. Especially noticeable will be a "nose for news," and if you see it, it's him. Tsk, tsk! In the meantime, Little Stan will have to look in his bank book!

Robert Bartel, Waukegan, came through with a nice article in which he tells of the 30th anniversary of Lodge No. 66, Joliet. Too bad that us Elyites are located far off in Minnesota's Paul Bunyan hills, or else you would have a nice gang helping to celebrate that anniversary from here. How about competition every week, Bob? It does seem, in fact, it is so much nicer to see the English section of the paper filled with contributing articles from all parts of the country.

By this time juveniles who contributed articles in the last juvenile issue received their souvenirs promised them. Did you like them? Or, are you disappointed? Little Stan still has a large number of souvenirs left, and remember, if you want one, don't forget that article in the next issue of the juvenile page.

Little Stan was certainly a tickled young man the other day when he received the following note. The party didn't say who they were or anything. It was funny, though, read it—

"Deer Leetle Stenley,

I Yam a tough guy from da hills. I get de Nova Doba once a wuk, an' I reed your artikles. One ting, about dem is dat your stuff is goffy. I never saw a guy yet who cuo spred such bolony over all dat spase. I wud like to sea you wen you come to Cleveland. Cuz, baby, am I gonna razz ya! You no, evry time I right any letters, I hafta laf, becuz,—well, I downna brag, but I am dee best spelar

Comrade Commentator

Waukegan, Ill.—There will be an important meeting on Aug. 14, so come on, Comrades, let's be present 100 per cent. Future lodge activities will be discussed and arguments pro and con are sure to be voiced on such items as card parties, dances, etc.

Comrades' ball team lost a game to the Co-Ops on Sunday, July 26, when the Co-Ops held a picnic. Final score was 11 to 6. That's the fourth straight loss, so let's win a few, fellows.

Members of our Comrades Lodge, No. 193, SSCU, are showing more pep in the last month or so than they have during the past five years. A lot of credit should go to Frank Zupec, our president, for his conscientious efforts to place the lodge on a higher pedestal. All members should help him. One effective way is to attend the meetings.

Guide to Fraternal Law

By Attorney Richard J. Zavertnik, Chicago, Ill.

The scope and nature of necessary by-laws relating to discipline

There are two types of offenses committed against the society when treason and disloyalty take on the most malignant form: They are committed at the time when the society increases the rate of the assessment and just before elections of supreme officers.

All sort of false statements about the financial condition of the society, the honesty and integrity of the supreme officers, are circulated by unscrupulous office seekers. Another class of cases calling for disciplinary measures comprises those who by their habits or conduct have not only rendered themselves obnoxious to the members of the local council but have increased the risk of the society, or have attempted to defraud the society by gaining admission by false representation.

The question is asked, "What rules should a society observe in writing necessary by-laws relating to discipline of its members?"

1. The by-laws should always provide for the concurrent and independent jurisdiction of the supreme board or executive committee in entertaining charges and conducting trials.

2. There should be a provision for appeals from the lowest to the highest tribunal within the society in succession, and foreclosing an appeal to the civil courts until all these internal remedies are exhausted.

3. There should be a provision giving the management the right to conduct its hearings anywhere in the territory occupied by the society, for the reason that in many cases it would be better to take the tribunal to the place where the accused resides, than run the risk of having the courts declare that the trial was void because accused was cited to appear too far from home.

4. To have a provision that where some member of the trial board is personally interested in the matter, as for instance, where he has been slandered by the accused, that the interested member may be excused from taking part, or by providing for an appeal from the decision of the trial board or committee to some higher authority or to the convention.

5. A practice act should be provided and should be as brief and simple as possible. The

Ladies of SSCU

Joliet, Ill.—On Tuesday, July 21, the Ladies of SSCU met at the club rooms and held their regular monthly meeting. Following the short business session, a treasure hunt took place which covered the territory from the club rooms to the home of the hostess, Miss Anne Jevitz. The hidden treasure was located by Miss Lucille Kosick.

Before arriving at the hostess' residence, members were attracted by her illuminated front porch, which was a result of lighted tapers placed on quartette tables from where refreshments were served.

Immediately after the serving of refreshments, the group returned to the club rooms and participated in several games, with the Misses Elizabeth Jevitz and Helen Kozlka and Mrs. J. L. Jevitz Jr. being the winners of the various games.

The hostess for the month of August will be Miss Jeannette Kosick, who will entertain on Wednesday, Aug. 26.

Lucille J. Jevitz.

Betsy Ross Activities

Cleveland, O.—On July 26 Betsy Ross indoor team journeyed to Struthers, O., to play a game with the Cardinals as an added attraction for their picnic, and aiding them in celebrating their first anniversary.

The game turned out to be a pitchers' battle between Bojack of Betsy Ross and Boland of the Cardinals. It was an interesting game and although the B. R.'s outfit their opponents, they ended up at the short end of a 4 to 3 score. On Sunday, Aug. 9, Betsy Ross will be host to Cardinals when they come to Cleveland to play a return game with the Betsy Ross team.

We want to take this opportunity to say thanks to the Cardinals for their fine hospitality extended us during our short stay. We shall return the favors next Sunday.

Cleveland SSCU Triumvirate is making arrangements to hold a dance on Saturday, Sept. 12, as part of the featured entertainment during the convention of the SSCU. All the committees are working earnestly in making this a very elaborate evening of entertainment for all guests in attendance.

The committee solicits the assistance of all Cleveland English-speaking members to get behind this dance. A meeting of the committee will take place on Monday evening, Aug. 10, at 7:30 o'clock in the home of Sister Betty Stucin.

Cleveland Interlodge League will hold a dance on Thanksgiving Eve for members and friends of the league. According to reports from the league's chairman, this night will be one of the best ever held by the Interlodge League.

New members admitted into the Betsy Ross Lodge last month are Frank Bojack, Joe Nodock, John Kocjan and Thomas Turk. The first three have earned quite a reputation in the ring, having participated in the Golden Gloves Tournament.

The next meeting of Betsy Ross will take place Thursday, Aug. 13, at the Slovene Workingmen's Home on Waterloo Rd. This meeting is of vital importance to all and will get underway at 7:30 p.m.

I will repeat my new address: 1266 E. 173d St. All members are requested to meet their assessments at the meeting. I shall collect assessments at my home only on the 24th of each month, between the hours of 5 to 8 p.m. Those failing to meet their obligations on time will be dealt with in strict accordance with the by-laws.

good to the society.

By-law for reinstatement should briefly provide: that a member who has been suspended by being late in payment of his dues can be reinstated:

1) At any time within 180 days after his suspension,

2) if living,

3) if in as good health as when suspended,

4) if not engaged in any occupation prohibited by the laws of the society,

5) if not expelled from the society for punishment,

6) upon signing application for reinstatement and certificate of good health.

7) Upon payment of all arrearages of dues and assessments, including the pending assessment.

Pathfinders Win League Trophy

Gowanda, N. Y.—The undefeated Pathfinders, No. 222, SSCU, baseball team won the Lake Shore Minor League trophy on Sunday, July 26, when they defeated Dayton, 9 to 4, for their 12th straight league victory. Tingue, who started for the Pathfinders, was relieved in the sixth inning after Dayton scored two runs by Stitzel, who finished the game. Stitzel allowed but two runs in little less than four innings of hurling.

Pathfinders found their batting eyes in the sixth inning. Until then they were kept from scoring by the fine pitching of Wing, Dayton's star hurler. It was in this inning that the Pathfinders unleashed a hitting barrage, blasting out eight hits to score five runs—enough to win the game. The largest crowd of the season was on hand.

Tuesday evening, July 28, Pathfinders met North Collins at the Gowanda State Hospital grounds in the second game of

Postpone Dance

Walsenburg, Colo.—Young American Boosters, No. 216, SSCU, have postponed their dance from Aug. 8 to Aug. 22. Bigger and better plans are being made for this affair. Tony Just and his orchestra will furnish the music for this gala occasion. All those who planned to attend our Aug. 8 dance are cordially invited to attend our Aug. 22 dance. We assure all guests of a good time. Dance will begin at 9 p.m. at the Walsenburg Pavilion.

Mary Dolenc, Sec'y.

Blood and Battle Field

A World War Chronicle
BY IVAN MATICIC

From the Slovanes by VALENTINE OREHEK

This news is received in a nowise amiable manner and the air scorches with profanity. "At this rate, we're due for the devil sure as hell. The pot-bellied wastrels back there keep walloping away at us with their stupid motto, 'To the last man,' knowing damn well that the last man will never include themselves, the dirty swine. They who out of all these men being slaughtered are alone to blame for this war, get away with all its filth and pain. They know every trick to bring on a fight and every trick to personally stay out of it!"

"Seriously, though, it wouldn't be a bad idea if we could burrow down some hundred meters or so into the earth; less than that you know isn't even safe. We have no desire to submit to the Italians, neither have we any use or relish for the Austrian yoke. So, what's to be done? . . . Damn those Magyars, anyway. Why did they have to give themselves up to the enemy?"

"Why indeed!" mockingly, "those lads had brains. That was the right thing to do!"

"Then let's do the same! There's no other way out. We're between two fires. Austria drives us to

BLAGOSLOV ZEMLJE

(Prevedel Rudolf Kresal)

O, ali nekoga dne je zasačil in jo ostro prijet! Bilo je tedaj, ko mu je hotela ukrasti denar. Pa ne, da bi bil sam tako zelo visel na denarju, temveč zato, ker je bil povsem njegov. Hoho, tedaj bi bila lahko za vse svoje življenje postala kivala! In vendar tistikrat Izak ni bila tako hudo pozabila nase in na Boga; saj je denar hotela poslati Elizeju, ljubemu Eliziju v mestu, ki je spet presil en tolar. Ali naj bi hodil med vsemi tistimi ljudmi tam s praznimi šepi okrog! Kaj ni imela materinskega srca? Od Izaka je zahtevala denar, in ker to ni pomagalo, je sama segla po njem. Pa naj se je zgodilo kakorkoli, če ji Izak ni zaupal, ali če je bil slučaj — dejanje je bilo vsekakor takoj odkrite in v istem trenutku je Izak čutila, kako jo je nekdo prijet za obe rami; čutila je, da jo je najprej dvignil in potem surovo vrgel ob tla. To je bilo nekaj nenavadnega, nekaj, kakor bi se podiral hrib. O, tedaj Izakove roke niso bile izdelane in trudne! Izak je glasno zaječala, glava ji je padla vznak, vztrpelata je in mu pomolila tolar.

Tudi zdaj ni nič več spravil iz sebe, čeprav mu Izak ni jemala besed, prav za prav je le jezno zapuhal: Potreba si šibe, drugače te ni več moči ugnati!

V obraz je bil ves izpremenjen. O, dal je pač duška svoji dolgo zadreževani nejevolj!

Tako je minil en žalosten dan in ena dolga noč in še en dan. Izak je šel iz hiše in je spal zunaj, čeprav je imel na travniku suho seno, ki bi ga bil moral zvotiti domov; Sivert je bil pri njem. Izak je imela Leopoldino in živali okrog sebe, toda čutila se je samo, jokala je ves čas in majala z glavo sama nad seboj: tako močno jo je bilo pretreslo samo enkrat v življenu; morala je misliti na tisto uro, ko je morila svojega novorojenčka.

In kje sta bila Izak in sin? Rok nista držala navzkriž; ukradla sta pač košnji dan in več, toda zgoraj ob gorskem jezeru sta gradača čoln. Vsekakor okoren čoln, brez kakega okrasa, a bil je močan in nepropusten, kakor vse, kar sta napravila; in tako sta imela zdaj čoln in lahko ribarila z mrežo.

Ko sta prišla spet domov, je ležalo seno še prav tako suho. Poslala sta se bila iz neba in sta se zanesla nanje in sta dobila igro, sreča je bila na njuni strani. Nenadoma pa je Sivert z roko pokazal proti travniku in vzkliknil: Mati je pospravila seno! — Oče se je ozrl na travnik in dejal: Tako. — Saj Izak je bil takoj opazil, da je del sena izginil, zdaj je morala biti Izak brž ko ne v hiši pri svojem delu. To je bilo prav posebno dejanje, po tem, ko ji je včeraj grozil z udarci in jo tresel. In bilo je težko, sočno seno, morala je trdo delati in razen tega je morala še vse krave in koze pomolsti. — Pojdi v hišo in je! je Izak dejal Sivertu. — Kaj ti ne boš? — Ne.

Ko je bil Sivert nekaj časa v hiši, je prišla Izak ven; ponino je obstala na pragu in dejala: Kaj si ne moreš toliko privočiti, da bi šel v hišo in dal kaj v usta? — Izak je nato samo zagodnjal in rekel: Hm. Toda videti Izak ponino, je bil v zadnjem času tako redek dogodek, da se je njegova trma malo omajala. — Če moreš nekaj zobjati v moje grable, potem bi lahko še dalje grabil. Obrnila se je s prošnjo na gospodarja, na poglavarja nad vsem, in bila je hvaležna, da ji ni dal zasmehljivega, zanikujočega odgovora. Ti si zdaj že dovolj grabilna in speljala domov, je dejal. — Ne, ni še dovolj. — Zdaj ne utegnem popravljati tvojih grabelj, vidiš, da se pripravlja na dež.

Hotel jo je pač varovati; tistih nekaj minut, ki bi jih bil poprabil za popravljanje grabelj, bi bil pač desetkrat dobil povrnjenih, če bi bila Izak z njim ostala na travniku. Tako pa je prišla Izak na travnik prav tako z grablji kakor on in začela grabiši seno, da je bilo veselje. Sivert je prišel s konjem in s senenim vozom, napelj so vse svoje moči, da jim je znoj lil po licih; in seno je bilo spravljeno. To je bilo mojstrsko delo. In spet se je zatopil Izak in misli na ono višjo silo, ki vodi vse naše korake, od krajevne tovarne do kakor gore velikih kupov suhega sena. Razen tega pa je bil dogotovljen tudi čoln; pol človeškega življena je tuhtal o tem čolnu, zdaj pa je ležal gori na gorskem jezeru.

Cečelovek le malo pomicl, je bil to čudovit večer, pravi preobrat; Izak, ki je dolgo hodila mimo svoje prave poti, povsem vržena s tira, je prišla spet na svoje pravo mesto, le da se je pobrala s tel. Nihče od obeh ni govoril o tistem, kar se je bilo zgodilo. Izak se je pozneje zaradi tistega tovarja, ki vendar ni posmenil mnogo denarja in ki ga je le moral izdati, ker ga je bil sam namenil Elizeju, sramoval. In pa, kaj ni bil tolar prav tako Izak, kakor njegov? Prišel je čas, ko je bila vrsta na Izaku, da je bil ponižen.

Nastopili so različni časi; Izak je svojo naturo spet izpremenila. Da, spet se je izpremenila, opustila je sčasoma gosposko šopiranje in je postala resna in prijazna ženska na naselbini. Da morejo pesti moža opraviti kaj tako velikega! Ali tako je moralo biti, šlo je za močno, pametno žensko, ki jo je dolgo bivanje na pokvarjenem zraku zmedlo — dregala je v moža, ki pa je stal pretrdn na svojih nogah. On ni svojega pa naturi mu danega mesta na zemlji, na svojih lastnih tleh, zapustil niti za trenutek. Njega ni bilo moči izriniti.

Prišli so dobri in hudi časi; naslednjega leta je spet vladala suša in res, zetev se je skrila in je ljudem jemala pogum. Na polju je požigalo žito, krompir pa — ni bil požgan, temveč je cvetel, cvetel. Travniki so sčasoma posveli, krompir pa cvetel. Vse stvari je vodila višja sila, toda travniki so siveli.

Potem pa, nekoga dne se je pojaval Geissler, bivši pristav, nazadnje je le spet prišel. Bilo je res čudno, da ni bil mrtev, temveč se je kar nenadoma prikazal. Čemu neki je prišel?

To pot Geissler vsekakor ni imel nikake velike prtljage in raznih dokumentov o kupnjah s hribi in tako dalje pri sebi, nasprotno, oblečen je bil povsem preprosto, brada in lasje so mu osivelni in njegove oči so bile rdeče obrobljene. Nihče ni prišel ž njim, ki bi mu nosil reči, s seboj ni imel razen aktovke s pisanimi niti potne vreči.

Dober dan! je dejal Geissler.

Dober dan! sta odgovorila Izak in Izak. Kaj spet potujete? Geissler je pokimal.

In jaz se vam zahvaljujem za obisk v Drontheimu! je dodala Izak.

Sharon, Pa.

Meseca maja 1926 sem se priselil v to prijazno naselbino. Takrat je bila naselbina zelo razvita in vse tovarne so obravalo s polno paro. Tu krajši rojaki so se odločili ustanoviti Slovenski dom, ki bi odgovarjal slovenskemu društvenemu življenu. Meni se je naselbina dopadla in namenil sem se ostati tu, dokler bom zmožen težjega dela. Žena me je nadlegovala, da naj preskrbim stanovanje, da se tudi družina preseli semkaj. Začel sem poizvedovati, koliko je tu Slovencev in pronašel sem, da bi bila tu prilika ustanoviti društvo J. S. K. Jednote, h kateri je že spadal vse moja družina. Dne 28. avgusta 1926 sem sklical ustanovno sejno in z devetimi novimi člani in članicami smo ustanovili novo društvo in izvolili potreben odbor. Dne 6. septembra je bila otvoritev Slovenskega doma in na to slavnost sem povabil tudi mojo ženo in starejšo hčerko. Obema se je tu dopadlo in hčerka sploh ni hotela iti več nazaj, torej sem dobil voznika, da je "premuščal" semkaj še ostalo družino. Od tistega časa živimo v tej naselbini.

Kakor sem že omenil, je bilo društvo Sloga, št. 174 JSKJ ustanovljeno 28. avgusta 1926. Od takrat bo ta meseč preteklo že 10 let in v tem času smo imeli pri društvu samo dva smrtna slučaja. To kaže, da smo bili predvidni pri sprejemanju novih članov in menda smo imeli tudi srečo. Društvo je hitro napredovalo, da je v nekaj letih doseglo 74 članov v odraslem in 66 članov v mladinskem oddelku. Tudi blagajna je povoljno rastla. Pa je prišel na krmilo Hoover s svojo znano prosperiteto in društva vseh organizacij so bila prizadeta. Posledje Hooverjeve prosperitete še vedno čutimo in jih bomo čutili še mnogo let.

Letos bi se spodbilo, da bomo pravljali desetletno ustanovitev društva Sloga, toda s piknik, ki so v tem letnem času najbolj primerni, ni v tem kraju nič, kajti lokalne oblasti nam ne dovolijo točiti piva in drugih "trdih" pičja na prostem. Brez tega pa piknik ni zabaven in uspešen. Zato smo se odločili, da opustimo proslavo društvene desetletnice.

Dne 26. julija so se v tukajšnjem Slovenskem domu zbrali zastopniki Zveze JSKJ društva v zapadni Pensylvaniji in zastopniki Federacije JSKJ društev v državi Ohio, ki so razmotrivali razne točke pravil, da se s tem prikrajša delo konvencije. Na sestanku je bil navzoč tudi vrhovni zdravnik dr. Arch. Po seji se je v spodnjih prostorih Doma razvila prijazna domača zabava. Meñe so društveni zastopniki povabili med se in me dobro pogostili z vsemi dobratimi. Nasrečne kuharice so pripravile imenitno kosilo, za hladilo žeje pa tudi ni manjkalo pravih pripomočkov. Hvala vsem skupaj!

Razprave odborov obeh federacij sem z zanimanjem zasledoval, in upam, da bo njihov trud imel dober uspeh. Naj še v prihodnje složno in premisljeno delujejo za korist celokupnega članstva JSKJ. Priporočam tudi, da upoštevajo nasvete našega vrhovnega zdravnika dr. Archa, katerega poznam še iz njegovih otroških let. Premišljeno in harmonično delo delegacije in glavnega odbora mora prinesti samo konsolidacijo vojaške aeroplane. Vičar, ki je spravil na tla tri italijanske aeroplane na francoskem ozemlju, potrjuje to sumnjo. Italijanska vlada odločno zanika, da bi pošljala pomoč španskim rebelom. Nazivlje temu je situacija zelo napeta in lahko se zgodi, da španska civilna vojna zaneti resen konflikt med fašističnimi in protifašističnimi državami.

V španskih vodah se nahaja 37 angleških vojnih ladij, 12 francoskih, 8 italijanskih, 5 nemških, dve portugalski in dve ameriški.
