

MAKE "OPULENT OKIES" GO HOME

President Roosevelt started Washington the other day by announcing at a press conference that it may be necessary to force "parasites" out of the capital in order to make room for war workers. He specifically mentioned "society leaders" who occupy roomy mansions and stage costly "parties."

NOT ALL BAD

It would be a mistake to conclude that all Japanese people are dastardly miscreants, as their militarists are. Some of the Japanese people just do not know what is going on. While they have a high rate of literacy, and could understand, they are not permitted to get a truthful picture.

LOOKING AHEAD

By LEN DE CAUX

When you take your car to a garage, it is usual to pay attention to the recommendations of the mechanic who does the actual work on it.

The War Production Board, is an eye-opener. It indicts inefficiency of management and lack of industry-wide coordination for the failure to achieve total steel production.

Truman Report Stands Up Under Sniping

(From The Progressive)

Despite a great deal of sniping by the daily press, the facts and conclusions of the Truman Committee which investigated the nation's rearmament program stand virtually unchallenged a month after they were submitted to a shocked public.

Louis Adamic Drafted By the Government

In the midst of his two-month lecture tour which he began on February 1, Louis Adamic, author of "Two-Way Passage," was suddenly drafted by the Government to work with King Vidor, M-G-M director, who urgently requested his services in connection with a film dealing with American industry and immigrants.

THE HIGHWAY

The loans to the Central American countries to help complete the Pan-American highway have more than one "angle" to them. Naturally they have their value in building good will, and the highway will stimulate growth of the tourist business, but it will also be an important alternative transportation route for important materials in South America that this country needs, such as tin and rubber.

A Trial In France

With some of the American correspondents barred from the courtroom, the trial of former Premier Leon Blum, former Air Minister Guy la Chambre, Gen. Maurice Gustave Gamelin, and Pierre Jacomet, former administrator of defense industries, got under way.

DER TAG

Congressman Stephen A. Day wrote a book last year. It was entitled "We Must Save the Republic." It was published by the Flanders Hall Company of Scotch Plains, N. J., an outfit that was subsequently revealed to have been subsidized by George Sylvester Viereck, head of the Nazi propaganda bureau in the United States.

DON'T HOARD

Not rationing, but non-rationing is to be feared at this time. We are not likely to suffer serious shortages in any field of vital importance to the population. But the confusion arising out of hysteria, leading to selfish hoarding may put a strain upon facilities of distribution and supplies immediately available in some categories.

New Archbishop of Canterbury

In this country we have separation of church and state, and we like that plan. In England they have a state church. The head of it is the Archbishop of Canterbury. To that position King George has appointed Dr. William Temple, who has been Archbishop of York.

FROM VARIOUS COUNTRIES

Labor Control and Standard of Life in Rumania (IFTU) The Government has issued a decree for the reorganization of labor conditions. All holidays are cancelled. Employers must however pay appropriate wage increases.

THE CALL TO THE COLORS!

IS A CALL FOR DOLLARS Dig deep. Strike hard. Our boys need the planes, ships, and guns which your money will help to buy.

AID THEM NOW

At least 2 1/2 to 3 1/2 million workers will be completely displaced as a result of priorities and plant conversion in the next few months, according to CIO estimates.
