

PLEDGE ALL POWERS OF UAW TO UNIONIZE FORD

All manpower and all resources to unionize the Ford Motor Co.—this was the pledge put forward by the international convention of the United Automobile workers.

Civil Rights

The Bill of Rights, Constitution of the United States in Article 1, states: Congress shall make no law respecting the establishment of religion or prohibiting the free exercise thereof or abridging the freedom of speech or of the press or the right of the people peaceably to assemble and to petition the Government for a redress of grievances.

Our Doings Here and There

By Joseph Drasler. Visitors at our office last week were: Mr. and Mrs. John Artach, No. Chicago; Steve Bozich, Anna Svigel, Agnes Urbanic, and Jennie Oblak, Milwaukee; Stoyan Menton, Detroit, Mich. Stoyan was on his way back home after a trip out west.

SEARCHLIGHT

Branch No. 1, JSF held its regular meeting last Friday night and reviewed the work of the past month and charted duties to perform for the future. We talked about the County situation of the Party, at length. Delegates reported that satisfactory progress in the cleaning process. The condition of the Slovene Labor Center was reported on and talked about and Proletarec's annual Sustaining Fund picnic received due attention.

THE WAGE AND HOUR BILL

By LOUISE B. JURSEY. The wage and hour bill which was put aside by congressmen was partly to be expected. The Southern representative's had stayed away deliberately from sessions when the bill was up, so that it couldn't even be called to vote upon.

LEWIS ON AIR SEPTEMBER 3

John L. Lewis, chairman of the Committee for Industrial Organization, will deliver a radio address Friday, September 3, 1937, from 9:30 to 10 p. m. Eastern Standard Time, over a coast-to-coast network of the Columbia Broadcasting System.

TRAINING BOYS TO KILL

Playing soldier was once a mere childhood pastime but today governments are making it a deadly part of each boy's training with hundreds of thousands of youth of Italy, Germany, Japan and England mobilized to learn the art of soldiering.

THIS AND THAT

By John Matekovich. New developments in the strike at the Dominion Textile Company of Gowanda, New York, are that on August 23rd the strikers and their leaders threw two hives of bees at police who were guarding the Cote-St. Paul mill, a branch of the Dominion Textile Co. The police battled the insects for several hours but finally called out the fire department.

A WARNING!

The National Research Board has issued a report which in substance is a warning that invention will continue to displace labor at a swifter pace in the future than it has moved in the past.

AT THE CONVENTION IN FLINT, MICHIGAN

On August 14, I attended the Convention for the protection of Civil Rights held in the National Army in Flint, Michigan, sponsored by the Michigan Conference for Protection of Civil Rights and the Flint local, No. 156, United Auto Workers of America.

DON'T BE TOO SURE ABOUT THAT!

RAIL BROTHERHOODS VOTE STRIKE DATE

Alexander F. Whitney, president of the Brotherhood of Railroad Trainmen, announced that officers of the "Big Five" railway brotherhoods, meeting in Chicago, had agreed to call their men out on strike.

RIGHT THINKING

The most important part of your job is to think. Nothing but right thinking can achieve the success to which you aspire. You will begin to improve when you begin to think.

Constitutional Parley to Ask For a Few Changes

Political leaders appear agreed on at least one point in connection with New York's 1938 Constitutional Convention—a minimum of proposed changes for consideration of the electorate.

"A Little Work"

By GEORGE DU MAURIER. A little work, a little play To keep us going—and so, good day! A little warmth, a little light Of love's bestowing—in so, good-night!