LINDBERGHOVEGA SINA NASLI MRTVEGA

Hopewell, N. J., 13. maja.—Včeraj popoldne sta voznika William Allen in Orville Wilson peljala s truckom nekaj lesa po cesti, štiri milje oddaljeno od Sourland Hills, kjer ima polkovnik Lindbergh svojo graščino. Ko je šel zamorski voznik Allen na potrebo v bližnji gozd Mount Rose, je pri tem zapazil med listjem in dračjem skrito okostje otroka. To vest je sporočil svojemu tovaršu, nakar sta hitela v Hopewell, da obvestita policijo o tej grozni

Mali Lindbergh, kakor je zgledal takrat, ko so ga položili v posteljo, iz katere so ga odnesli banditi.

najdbi. Neki Lindberghov hišni zdravnik in pestun sta dognala, da je to truplo dne 1. marca ugrabljenega Lindberghovega 20-mesečnega starega sinčka, katerega so že tako dolgo iskali. Otrok je ležal z glavo obrnjeno navzdol; imel je prebito lobanjo in na eni strani za kvoder veliko luknjo. Truplo je bilo že precej nagnito, iz česar se da sklepati, da je bil otrok umoran takoj, ko so ga zverinski lopovi ugrabili, oziroma še prej, ko so dotičniki prejeli $50,000 odkupnine od Lindberghov.

Vest o tragični smrti in grozni najdbi trupelca sinčka, je zelo potrila očeta in mater. Mr. Lindbergh prejema iz vsega sveta brzjavno sožalje.

Danes je bilo trupelce Lindberghovega otroka v nekem krematoriju sežgano in Lindberghovi so vzeli pepel domov.

Na ukaz predsednika Hooverja je vsa zvezna tajna policija na nogah, da išče morilice. Ker so baje njih imena oblastim znana, jih bodo kmalu aretirali. Lindberghova se nameravata stalno preseliti v Francijo.

Ali imate že svojega otroka zavarovanega pri naši Jednoti? Pristopajte h. K. S. K. Jednote!

Brezplačna stanovanja

Philadelphia, Pa.—Poslopja, ki so bila zaprta zaradi prodajanja opojnih piščak, bodo zopet odprta, toda ne za zopetno prodajo piščak.

Sodnik Frank Smith je odobril načrt, da smejo revne družine stanovati v prostorih, ki so bili zaprti zaradi kršenja prohibicijske postave, brezplačno sedanjem vlado, kar se jim pa ni posrečilo.

Lastniki okoli 100 takih prostorov so izjavili, da so zadovoljni s tem načrtom. Tudi drugi sodniki soglašajo s tem.

Zena odpustila možu-morilcu

Milton, Mass.—Nedavno so našli v stanovanju William H. Lewis mrtvega njega in njegovo ženo; Lewis se je zastrupil s plinom, žena je bila pa ubita s kladivom. Policija je mnenja, da je Lewis izvršil umor in da mu je njegova žena pred smrtno odpustila.

Poleg nje so namreč našli listek sledče vsebine: "Moj dragi mož ni vedel, kaj dela, ko me je ubjal. Jaz grem torej rada v smrt in mu to dejanje odpustam Alice."

NOVA MAŠA NASEGA ČLA- NA V FOREST CITY, PA.

V zadnjem izdaji Glasila smo na prvi strani poročali o dveh slovenskih novih mašah, ki se bosta vršili dne 22. maja t. l.; ena bo v Clevelandu, O., druga pa v Milwaukee, Wis.

Sele ob zaključku lista smo prejeli od tajnika društva št. 12 KSKJ. v Forest City, Pa. neprizakovano veselo vest, da se bo ravno isti dan tudi v Forest City vršila slovesna nova maša, katero bo daroval naš sobrat Rev. Spošno glasovanje za odpravo prohibicije odobrava tudi kongresnik Arthur Free, iz San Jose, Cal., ki je osebni prijatelj predsednika Hooverja in njegov domačin. Free ponavlja že obče znano sodbo o prohibiciji, da ameriško ljudstvo ni z njo zadovoljno, torej naj tudi ljudstvo o nji izreče svojo zadnjo besedo potom splošnega glasovanja.

Istega mišljenja je kongresnik Edgar Howard iz Nebraske, države bivšega državnega tajnika in zagovornika suše William Jennings Bryana. Navedenec pravi o prohibiciji sledenca: "Prohibicija, oziroma 18. amendment nikakor ni bil sprejet kot načelo ali platforma kakke politične stranke. Iz dosedanje skušnje lahko sodimo, da prohibicije ameriško ljudstvo več ne mara. Da bo torej ljudstvo povsem ustrezno, naj sedaj ta ali kaka druga politična stranka vzame prohibicijo za svojo platformo in skuša doseči da se to važno točko reši potom referendumu za preklic 18. amendmenta. Vsaka država naj bi potem sama določevala, če hoče ostati suha ali ne."

Berlin, Nemčija.—Med nečasnim zasedanjem državnega zabora je imel kancler H. Brueining važen govor, v katerem je poudarjal, da Nemčija nikakor ne bo mogla plačati svojih vojnih dolgov in reparacij, ker nima denarja. Pri tem je omenil, da naj bi se dandanes dežel in narodov več ne delilo v dolnike in upnike, ali z drugo besed povedano, da naj bi se vse vojne dolgove zbrisalo. Dalje je kritiziral genevsko razočirjeno konferenco, ker stvar vedno zayačuje. Brueningov govor je bil z navdušenjem odobren.

Društvena naznanila

Društvo sv. Jozefa, št. 12,
Forest City, Pa.

S tem naznanjam članstvu našega društva, da je bilo sledče sklenjeno na zadnji seji dne 8. maja t. l.

Da se hrani stroškovni sklad Jednote in veliko dela glavnemu tajniku, smo naredili posebni društveni sklad v svoti $1,000 (en-tisoč) v pomoč onim, ki ne morejo plačevati asesmenta in od katerih se za gotovo zna, da nimajo druge pomoči.

Meni so znani vsi takci člani, in upam, da pridejo sami sebi na pomoč, da ne bo vse naše delo zastonj. Torej čitajte spodnji odstavek tega mojega naznanila in ga hranite za tak čas, ko boste v potrebi, da ne bo kake pomote in da bo to stvar lahko vsakdo pravilno zapobil.

To posojilo je le za take člane, ki so v resnicu potrebeni. Vsak član, ki hoče to posojilo od društva, mora prinesi svoj certifikat seboj in mora podpisati tozadnje izjavo, zadolženico ali pobotnico. To posojilo mora vsak član društva vrniti, kadar mu je mogoče. Ce se prijeti, da tak član umrje prej ko je ta posojila mu svota plačana, so zavezani njegovi dediči tako svoto povrtniti našemu društvu sv. Jožefa, št. 12 v Forest City, Pa. Te listine bodo pri meni doma če le mogoče do 22. maja; torej se ta dan zglašite pri meni.

Zdaj pa prihajam z neko jaka važno in veselo novico za naše društvo in za našo naselbino. Z isto prihajam v Glasilu danes, ker sem prejel pismeno vabilo prepozno za naše zadnje sejo namreč, da bo v nedeljo, dne 22. maja Rev. John Kamin, član našega društva bo ob 10. uri pred cerkvijo, in sicer vse člani in članice z regalijami in z stavami. Naše društvo bo storilo svojo dolžnost, kot je bilo sklenjeno po članih društva, da izkažemo sobratu Rev. Korenu prvo čast novomašništva. Torej naj ne izostane ni eden član ali članica našega društva. Tako tudi prosimo in apeliramo tem na druga podpora društva, da se nam pridružite, kajti čim več nas bo, tem bolj lepa in bolj častna bo ta redka slavnost. — S pozdravom,

John Augustine, predsednik;
Louis Velkovrh, tajnik;
Steve Miller, blagajnik.

Društvo Marije Pomagaj, št. 78, Chicago, Ill.

Vse članice našega društva vlijudno opozarjam na redno mesečno sejo, ki se bo vršila v četrtek, 19. maja, v navadnem prostoru. Ob tej priliki naznam, da je bilo sklenjeno na zadnji seji, da v maju ali juniju plača vsaka članica 25 centov, kot poseben prispevek v društveno blagajno in to mesto veselice.

Posebno pa opozarjam naše članice na letno romanje k Mariji Pomagaj na ameriško Brezje, ki bo letos zadnjo nedeljo v tem mesecu, to je 29. maja. Ker je drugi dan, v pondeljek, ameriški praznik kičanje grobov, bo posebna prilika za to romanje. Katero bo veselilo, bo lahko ostala tam čez noč, za to bo preskrbela naša predsednica, Mrs. Kobal, in pa njen mož, ker ta dva imata sedaj v oskrbi romarsko hišo.

Tudi za okreplila ni potreba nobenemu skrbeti, ker bo vsega dovolj. Vsled tega ste prav prijazno vabljene vse članice društva Marije Pomagaj, kakor tudi vsi člani in članice chikaških in bližnjih društev KSKJ, da pohitite na ta dan v Lemont, Ill. Na ta dan bi naj bila nekaka izredna "konvencija" naše prve slovenske katoliške Jednote. Pod koščatimi hrasti se bomo prijateljsko pogovarjali brez vsakih "predlogov" in "protipredlogov." Pripeljite pa tudi mladino, posebno člane in članice mladinskega oddelka, brez ozira, h kateremu društvo spadajo. Poleg društvene zastave, bomo imeli tudi zastavo mladinskega oddelka (ako bo lepo vreme), in vsak se bo lahko udeležil procesije. Bo vsaj mladina videla, kako se udeležujejo romanja v starem kraju.

Društvo sv. Antona Padovanskega, št. 87, Joliet, Ill.

S tem naznanjam sklep zadnje naše seje z dne 8. maja, da se sedaj naprej vršijo naše mesečne seje vsak drugi četrtek v mesecu namesto v nedeljo, in sicer zvečer ob 7:30 v Slovenia dvorani v spodnjih prostorih. To velja za nedolženec društva izvršile neke sprememb, navajam s tem njih novi sedanji seznam kakor sledi: Mathilda Baša, 34 Maplewood Ave., predsednica; Catherine Bosanac, 11 Cherry Alley, podpredsednica; Marija Janečkovič, 48 Maplewood Ave., tajnica; Barbara Perkovich, 48 Cherry St., blagajnica; Barbara Sudac, 43 Ganster St., West Etna, odbornica bolesti; Johanna Bosiljevac, Kata Kulesić in Roza Borosić, nadzorni odbor.

Dalje je članstvo sklenilo, da bomo imeli piknik dne 14. avgusta. Prostor ali kraj za to pripredite še ni izbran; bo pa pravočasno poročano na tem mestu.

Poročati moram še o neki nujni zadevi, tikajoči se onih članov, ki dolgujejo društvu: Vsi taki naj pridejo do tajnika, in potem bomo že videli, kaj se da narediti, ker društvo ne bo in ne more za nobenega več asesmenta plačevati. Prosim vas, ne dolžite za vse samo tajnika, kajti jaz nisem pri tem nič krv; ravnal se bom pa po sklepku seje, ker se moram; vse veste, da jaz nisem več kot pa kak drug član ali vse smo pri društву enaki z enakimi pravicami. Torej v bodoče ni treba nič več mene vpraševati, da bi čakal z asesmentom; jaz ne bom nikogar več sam od sebe čakal, ker ga ne morem in ne smem. Kar se je na seji zaključilo, tega se bom vestno držal; torej mi ne zamerite, ker jaz nisem in ne bom krv, če bo morda kdor suspendiran.

Dragi mi bratje! Vzel si bom še tri dni mojega prostega časa v tednu, da vam bom pomagal izpolnitvi tiskovine (pole), ker sami istih ne morete; tako je vam vsak naš uradnik pri volji pomagati v tej zadevi. Za to vas prosim, zglašite se pri meni na domu, ker v nasprotnem slučaju si boste sami krivili posledic. Vsi prizadeti naj se prej ko mogoče zglašijo pri meni.

S sobratskim pozdravom,

Loe Adamich, tajnik,
1604 Nicholson St.

Društvo sv. Veronike, št. 115 Kansas City, Kans.

Zahvala

Dalje opominjam tiste, ki so zaostali z asesmentom že čez dva meseca, da to kmalu povrnate. Kateri pa ne more plačevati, naj se pa zglaši pri odboru in dokaze, da ni sam temu krv. Pri društву jih je 250, in do 150 jih plačuje redno, drugi pa ne; to ni pravilno. Pomnite, mi moramo ves asesment vsak mesec poslati na Jednote. Seje se vršijo vsak tretjo soboto v mesecu v cerkveni dvorani popoldne ob 2. uri. Asesment se začne povabljanjem na redovitoj sjednici 8. maja, odbor izabran za piknik i ostali odbor mora da dojde na izvanredno sjednico u srijedu, na večer 18. maja v prostorije Bratske Sloge na 44. ulici, točno u 7. sati.

Osobito opozarjam na plačevanje asesmenta za mladinski oddelki, katerega tako radi znamenjate; komaj polovica istega, okrog $15 se plača na mesec, drugo moramo pa zalagati. Pravite: "Kaj bo teh borih 15 centov?" Toda stokrat neplačanih asesmentov po 1 centu znaša $15. Je nekaj takih članov, ki letos še niso nič mladinskega asesmenta plačali. Če se ne boste držali reda, se bo treba poslužiti suspendinge.

K sklepu prosim še one, ki imate še spovedne listke, da mi jih takoj pošljete ali prinesete; zadnji dan za to je do 22. maja. Vsak član ali članica zna, da mora izvršiti svojo velikonočno versko dolžnost; to zahteva tudi naša Jednotina pravila. Jaz bom poslal imena vseh onih, ki tega ne bodo izvršili gospodu duhovnemu vodji. To naj vam bo v zadnji opomin.

Sobratski pozdrav,

Štefan Pieck, tajnik.

Društvo sv. Mihalja, broj 152, South Chicago, Ill.

Sa ovim se pozivamo članstvo našeg društva, da dode u večem broju na našu redovitu sjednici, koja će se obdržati 5. juna točno u 2. sata posle podne u crkvenoj dvorani na E. 96th St. Jer bo vrlo važnih stvari na ovoj sjednici, vas molim, da dodete u velikom broju ili svi. Znato vama je, da naš odsjet je dužan lepu svetu sv. K. S. K. Jednote; zato smo primorani, da nešto učinimo za taj dug. Čemo li dati na članstvo rasporez, ili da bi napravili jednu malu zabavu. Tako ćete zaključiti što bi bilo bolje za nas.

Društvo sv. Barbare, št. 128, Etna, Pa.

Ker so se zadnji čas pri uradnicah našega društva izvršile neke sprememb, navajam s tem njih novi sedanji seznam kakor sledi: Mathilda Baša, 34 Maplewood Ave., predsednica; Catherine Bosanac, 11 Cherry Alley, podpredsednica; Marija Janečkovič, 48 Maplewood Ave., tajnica; Barbara Perkovich, 48 Cherry St., blagajnica; Barbara Sudac, 43 Ganster St., West Etna, odbornica bolesti; Johanna Bosiljevac, Kata Kulesić in Roza Borosić, nadzorni odbor.

Dalje je članstvo sklenilo, da bomo imeli piknik dne 14. avgusta. Prostor ali kraj za to pripredite še ni izbran; bo pa pravočasno poročano na tem mestu.

Poročati moram še o neki nujni zadevi, tikajoči se onih članov, ki dolgujejo društvu: Vsi taki naj pridejo do tajnika, in potem bomo že videli, kaj se da narediti, ker društvo ne bo in ne more za nobenega več asesmenta plačevati. Prosim vas, ne dolžite za vse samo tajnika, kajti jaz nisem pri tem nič krv; ravnal se bom pa po sklepku seje, ker se moram; vse veste, da jaz nisem več kot pa kak drug član ali vse smo pri društву enaki z enakimi pravicami. Torej v bodoče ni treba nič več mene vpraševati, da bi čakal z asesmentom; jaz ne bom nikogar več sam od sebe čakal, ker ga ne morem in ne smem. Kar se je na seji zaključilo, tega se bom vestno držal; torej mi ne zamerite, ker jaz nisem in ne bom krv, če bo morda kdor suspendiran.

Društvo sv. Jožefa, št. 148, Bridgeport, Conn.

Cenjeni mi sobratje in sestre: V imenu odbora vas vlijudno prosim, da se udeležite v velikem številu prihodne seje dne 21. maja popoldne ob dveh v cerkveni dvorani; naj skuša vsak na to sejo priti, ne pa samo kakih osem ali devet članov, saj nas je okrog 250 društvenikov skupaj. Kako vseleje in ponos je na same začetne seje, da se korporativno udeležimo sv. maše dne 26. maja ob osmih. Ta dan bomo obhajale 17-letnico ustanovitve našega društva. Prošene ste torej, da se kolikor mogoče v velikem številu udeležite sv. maše. Dolžnost nas vseh, še živilih članic je ta dan, da se spomnimo tudi naših umrlih sester v molitvi. Zbirale se bomo v šolski sobi; prinesite reči.

Nadalje se tudi vsem našim članicam zahvalim, ki ste dale svoje otroke v naše društvo v pošte, kar je v roku glavnim uradnikom. Torej se v imenu našega društva prav lepo zahvalim bratu Germu za poslano naročilo.

Na bolniški listi se nahajate sedaj Mrs. Antonija Rajk; muči jo revmatizem in Mrs. Ana Stubler, ki se nahaja vsled operacije v bolnišnici.

Dalje opozarjam nekatere naše članice, da bi bolj točno vpoštevajo sklep zadnje mesečne seje, da se korporativno udeležimo sv. maše dne 26. maja ob osmih. Ta dan bomo obhajale 17-letnico ustanovitve našega društva. Prošene ste torej, da se kolikor mogoče v velikem številu udeležite sv. maše. ZANESLJIVO ZAVAROVANJE

V zadnjem, oziroma majski izdaji mesečnika "Fraternal Monitor" čitamo važen uvodnik, pod naslovom "Bratske organizacije dosegle bilijon dolarjev premoženja". Kaj je bilijon, to gotovo vsi vemo, da znaš isti tisoč milijonov.

Na 18. strani navedenega lista se nahaja 122 imen raznih bratskih organizacij, ki premorejo več kot en milijon dolarjev svojega čistega premoženja po stanju z dne 31. decembra, 1931. Samo te milijonske organizacije premorejo danes $973,886,581.50; aka pa prištejemo k temi še one, ki se ne morejo ponataši z milijonom, dobimo celokupno premoženje $1,016,159,216. Natančno, da so vse te organizacije nad 100% solventne.

V vrsti milijonskih podpornih organizacij se nahaja tudi ime naše Jednote, in sicer med 22, ki premorejo več kot $2,000,000. Imetje svote naše Jednote je označeno $2,767,061.87.

Tukaj navajamo pet najbogatejših ameriških podpornih organizacij: Woodmen of the World $107,500,000, Royal Neighbors of America $50,900,000, Independent Order of Foresters $49,300,000, Macabees $47,500,000 in Knights of Columbus $36,500,000.

Dasiravno je bilo lansko leto tudi za delovanje na polju fraternalizma slabvo sled depresiji, so gornje bratske organizacije napredovali s svojimi blagajnami za $44,000,000, kar je nad vsega priznanja in pohvale vredno. Pri tem je treba vpoštovati tudi dejstvo, da so te bratske organizacije v sedanji dobi potrebe in pomanjkanja svojim članom znatno pomagale, kar članstvo ne bo nikdar pozabilo.

Ko se kdo odloči zavarovati svoje življenje, bo pri tem njegovo poglavito vprašanje, če je dotedna organizacija ali inšurance kompanija varna, zanesljiva ali na trdn finančni podlagi. Kakor znano, se večina inšurance kompanij zadnja leta ne more ponataši s kakim napredovanjem. Vsled deflacijske (znižanja) raznih industrijskih in korporacijskih bondov, so se njih blagajne znižale za milijone; nekaj takih družb je prišlo celo v zagato, da ne morejo več izplačevati obljubljene zavarovalnine in pričakujejo od vlaže posojilo, če bodo isto sploh dobila.

Baš deflacija bondov in raznih vrednostnih papirjev je tudi došlo povzročila sedanjo depresijo. Pomniti je treba, da je od jeseni leta 1929 do sedaj padlo bondov v vrednosti okrog 60 bilijonov dolarjev. Deflacijsko so občutile tudi nekatere bratske podporne organizacije; toda samo v majhnji meri. Zavarovalniški oddelki raznih držav namreč ne dovoljujejo kupovati tem organizacijam dvomljive bonde za nalaganje svojega denarja.

Iz gori navedenih podatkov se da lahko sklepati, da je dandasne zavarovanje pri bratskih organizacijah bolj varno kakor pri inšurance kompanijah.

Kaj naj torej posnemamo mi Jednotarji iz gori navedenih dejstev in podatkov? Naša K. S. K. Jednota je milijonska bratska organizacija, ki stoji na trdn finančni podlagi. Njena solventnost znaša nad 100% (103.29), torej ji je bodočnost zasigurana. Skušajmo tudi v časih te neznosne depresije delovati na to, da bomo pridobilni zanjo nove, mlade moći; ne počivajmo pri agitaciji za mladinski oddelek. Vsi, ki smo njeni člani in članice pa jih ostanimo še v bodočem tako zvesti in naklonjeni!

IZ URADA DUHOVNEGA VODJE.

ZAHVALA SLOVENCEM V KANADI

Ko sem se pred par tedni podal na misijonsko pot med Slovence v Kanado, sem nastopil to pot z nekakim strahom, ker sem se bal, da bo morebiti moja pot popolnoma zastonj in brez vsakega pomena. Slišal sem namreč lansko leto, ko sem bil na obisku na Slovenskem od nekaterih gospodov, ki rešujejo s svojimi nasveti od daleč izseljenško vprašanje Slovencev v tujini, da so Slovenci v Kanadi popolnoma versko izgubljeni in da so Slovenci v Kanadi pozabili na svojo vero in na vse lepe nauke svojih staršev in še veliko drugega, za Slovence v Kanadi nečastnega. Zato ni čuda, da sem šel na pot — s strahom!

Pa kmalu sem se prepričal, da je bil moj strah popolnoma neopravičen in da oni, v starci domovini živeči, takozvani "možje dela in žrtev," niso storili prav, ko so v svoji veliki ljubezni do svojih po svetu razkropljencih bratov, vse kanadske Slovence, brez izjeme, zapisali v svoje "crne bukve." Vsaj moja pot med kanadske Slovence me je prepričala, da tega ne zaslужijo. Zato, kamorkoli sem prisel, sem bil sprejet z največjo prijaznostjo in z največjim spoštovanjem!

Po večini naselbinah so Slovenci prišli v velikem številu k pridigam, ker so želeli slišati besedo božjo v svojem materinem jeziku. S solzami v očeh so prihajali k spovedi in z veseljem v srcu zopet prejemali Gospoda in Izveličarja v Najsvetjejšem zakramantu. In ko sem odhalil, so me prosili, da naj jih kmalu zopet obiščem, kar bom gotovo, če mi Bog dodeli zdravje, drugo leto tudi storil. Trdno sem namreč prepričan, da drugo leto jih bo še več kakor letos opravilo svojo velikonočno dolžnost, ker poskušal bom čas tako urediti, da bo imel vsak še boljšo priložnost iti k svetim zakramentom, kar letos zaradi dela nekateri niso mogli storiti. Slovenci v Kanadi so se mi zares kar k srcu priprastili, ko sem videl, da kljub vsem slabim zgledom v tujini, niso pozabili na lepe krščanske nauke, katere so prejeli v mladih letih od svojih staršev doma v slovenski domovini.

Kaj pa naj redčem o gostoljubnosti kanadskih Slovencev do mene? Besed mi primanjkuje, da bi mogel to natanko opisati. Povabljen na razne obede, ni bila nobena stvar predobra za mene in večkrat so mi naravnost branili jesti navaden klub, češ: "da se to ne spodobi ko je 'kranjska' potica na mizi." Ti obedi in pa prijateljaki pogovori zbranih gostov mi bodo ostali v trajnem spominu.

Zato se gostoljubnost se tem potom zlasti zahvalim: Mr. Charles Leskovic-u in njegovi soprogi v Toronto; Mr. Ludvik Sopčič-u in njegovi soprogi v Noranda; Mr. Ivan Žufek-u in njegovi soprogi v Kirkland Lake; Mr. Marko Vojdetič-u in njegovi soprogi v Timmins-Schumacher, Ont.; Mr. Frank Kavčič-u in njegovi soprogi v Montrealu, in vsem drugim, katerih imena se zaradi kratkega obiska nisem mogel zapomniti. Vsem naj Bog poplača!

Naposlед se moram tudi zahvaliti vsem uradnikom društva K. S. K. Jednote v Toronto, Sudbury, Noranda, Kirkland Lake, Timmins, Schumacher in Montreal, ker so na mojo prošnjo nazznali vsem Slovencem v teh naselbinah o mojem nameravajušem obisku in za njihovo prijaznost in za ves trud in delo, ki so ga imeli z menoj ob času mojega obiska. Njihova prijaznost do mene kot duhovnika, ne bo nikdar pozabljena.

Dobri Bog pa naj blagoslovni kanadske Slovence in Slovenke in naj jih varuje vsega hudega v njih novi domovini!

Rev. John Plevnik, duhovni vodja KSKJ.

A BUMP ON THE NOSE
or
What the Nations Think About the Arms Limitations

By Gee Dee

Six feet underground Yappo, the earthworm, thundered to his household as he made his way up to the surface, "And be sure to have dinner ready for me when I get home. I have an important directors' meeting, but I'll get home first."

Yappo was one of those good earthworms. He never tracked the parlor rugs with muddy feet, he always shaved himself every morning, but he always worried. He couldn't read a newspaper without crinkling it to an accordion shape, and at times was so worried that he chewed his finger nails.

He had squirmed three feet already. "What a life" he thought to himself, "wonder if I'll ever have a million." He kept on toward the surface, but . . . bump . . . he saw a million stars. Again he learned that his nose was softer than a pebble that had clogged the pathway. "Now I'll be late for work," he groused as he began to take another route.

"Here at last," he crabbed to the newspaper boy, when he made his final lunge and eased out on the surface of the earth. Then that mad rush to the office, and finally through the door with a crepe "Good morning." But no response—the place was deserted. He fingered his watch and wondered how he could have been the first at work. He busied himself with left-overs from the previous day, but a rap on the door interrupted him.

"Good morning," said the visitor, "I'm from the Flabloid Times and would like the names of the folks who met their doom this morning."

"Doom?" said Yappo. "what's that?"

This morning, when the office force was going full speed, a big can was parked outside, and something like an octopus with five tentacles reached in and scooped up everybody in this joint. The only clue is one of the workers who was torn in half as the demon made his play. But, that doesn't matter. I've got to get the names."

That night Yappo went home thinking of the good dinner he nearly missed. He rubbed his sore nose a little and thought, "What a good bump that was."

The doctor of a country village had two children, two prettiest little girls in the district. While they were out walking one day they happened to pass two small boys, one of whom was a visitor in the village.

Said the latter to his friend: "Who are those pretty little girls?"

The village boy replied: "They are the doctor's children. He always keeps the best ones for himself."—Safe Work er.

"Folks," said the colored minister, "the subject of my sermon dis evenin' am 'Liars.' How many in de congregation has done read the 69th chapter ob Matthew?"

Nearly every hand in the audience was raised immediately.

"Dat's right," said his reverence. "You is just de folks I want to preach to. Dere is no 69th chapter ob Matthew."

PRESENT MOTHER'S DAY PROGRAM

The Young Ladies' Sodality of St. Roch's Church, La Salle, Ill., celebrated Mother's Day by performing the Coronation of the Blessed Mother.

Immediately after the 7:30 Mass the queen, Miss Mary Furar, dressed as a bride, walked up the aisle, led by six attendants, the Misses Louise Just, Helen Urbanch, Rose Urbanch, Mary Bildhauer, Evelyn Baznik and Marie Grancé. At the statue of the Blessed Mother the Queen placed a crown of blossoms upon her head, and presented her with a bouquet of white roses. After this ceremony the members of the sodality consecrated themselves to the Blessed Mother.

After the services in the church the members of the sodality with their mothers had breakfast in the school hall. This breakfast was served by the Holy Name Juniors of the parish.

In the evening the sodality presented three plays, one Slovenian and two English. The Slovenian play, with all of its comic antics, made a great hit, not to forget the English one, entitled "One Born Every Minute." Dancing to the tune of a good toe-tickler followed the plays. The attendance was one of the best that the hall has seen for a long time.

Frances Jancer,
President.

Too Much Dignity

An eminent musician recently startled a suburban community by trundling his baggage from the railroad station to his dwelling in a wheelbarrow. He had returned from a successful concert tour and the long train ride made him feel that he wanted to stretch his legs. He left his bags with the station master, walked home, changed to working clothes, pushed the empty wheelbarrow to the station, loaded the four bags and wheeled them home.

To an observer who inquired the wherefore of the unusual proceedings, the artist briefly expounded his philosophy. He said that the world was burdened with too much dignity. "Mankind blusters too hard," he said. "It should exercise more and be more childish. Adults do not stir around enough and they go through life with an excess of dignity."

This is a good doctrine. The tax that dignity imposes on our mind, spirit, behavior and pocketbook is oppressive. We dare not be seen carrying our bags from the taxicab to the train. We must not tote our golf clubs or carry a bundle under

TELL 'EM YOU'RE FEELIN' FINE

There ain't no use in kickin', friend, if things don't come your way.

It does no good to holler 'round, an' grumble night and day; The thing to do's to curb your grief, cut out yer little whine; An' when they ask you how you are, jest say, "I'm feelin' fine!"

They ain't no man alive but who is booked to get his slap; They ain't no man that walks, but what from trouble gets his rap;

Go mingle with the bunch, old boy, where all the bright lights shine,

An' when they ask you how you are, jest say, "I'm feelin' fine!"

Yer heart may be just bustin' with some real or fancied woe, But if you smile the other folks ain't very apt to know;

The old world laughs at heartaches, friend, be they your own or mine;

So when they ask you how you are, jest say, "I'm feelin' fine!"

THE "MODERN" ATTITUDE TOWARD REAL TRUTH

Washington, D. C., May 16.

—When analyzed, the "modern" attitude toward real truth is "one-third intellectual snobbery, one-third bluff, and one-third pure unalloyed ignorance," according to the Rt. Rev. Msgr. James Hugh Ryan, rector of the Catholic University of America at Washington, D. C., in a recent speech before the annual Newman Club's dinner at John Jay Hall, Columbia University, in New York City.

"There exists a certain fascination for all of us in the novel; it ministers to our intellectual pride to hold views in advance of the crowd; to look down upon the superstitions of the man in the street. But what all this has to do with the search for truth, I cannot see. Certainly, it is miles removed from the attitude of open-mindedness which the study of modern science is supposed to beget in its devotees."

Talking on the subject, "The Neo-Scholastic Movement in Philosophy," Dr. Ryan continued: "What is the New Scholasticism? It is an effort to reconstruct in the light of modern scientific accomplishments the philosophy of St. Thomas Aquinas, to rethink in modern terms and with knowledge of modern discoveries a system of thought which was the glory of the 13th century and which today is accepted as one of the soundest philosophical constructs which has come to us from the mind of man."

EXPIRES

Rochus Churnovich, 65, of Joliet, Ill., expired May 14, following an extended illness. The deceased was a member of St. Joseph's Lodge No. 2.

Surviving him are three sons and a daughter, one of which is John, chairman of the KSKJ Athletic Board.

A curious little boy was watching a car being loaded at the station, and later inquired: "Why do they call it a shipment when it goes in a car, and a cargo when it goes in a ship?"

our arm. A maid or secretary must answer the telephone.

In business office each little clerk insists that his dignity be protected. This one would be chagrined if he were asked to fill the ink wells; that one would quit if he were told to deliver a crate of lemons. This office insists that everyone work in his coat, and that one has a rule that all must rise when the chairman of the board enters the room. Yet President Eliot of Harvard was often seen carrying a watermelon or a huge market basket.

Miss Marie Suhadolnik, as the mother, and John Hart, as the wayward son, performed the leading parts and were very well received. Other members of the cast, by giving their full co-operation, aided greatly in making a real hit with this performance.

Miss Mary Cepon, as director of the presentation, worked whole-heartedly for the past month to make the event a success, and it is due to her efforts that the play went over so well.

Following the play all the mothers of sodality members were entertained and dined at a special affair.

Dancing to the tunes of Jackie's Trio featured the evening's entertainment.

The proceeds from this performance are to be turned over to the church fund. The Rev. M. J. Butala is well satisfied with the results of the event.

Thomism is a living thought, for the very simple reason that it is the outgrowth and maturation of an unsurpassed synthesis which Aquinas made of the two great currents of Western philosophy—the Aristotelian and the Platonic—currents which still dominate the thinking of mankind because of their fundamental all-embracing vitality and truth. It was the Great Leo XIII who recalled the world of thought of Aquinas; it was Mercier who led the Thomistic renaissance which has become truly international both in scope and accomplishments.

"That the Middle Ages was one of the glorious periods of human history and accomplishment is today an accepted fact. This judgment is based on a knowledge of what was done and thought, and on an appreciation of medieval art, architecture and literature.

"They are so transparently alive that nothing short of intellectual obtuseness could blind us to the living qualities they still possess, to the profound meanings they have for us moderns, to the exquisite pleasure they continue to give us. When, however, we pass from the realm of things to that of thoughts, it is somewhat natural, or to put it better, it is an understandable tendency in moderns to look upon old ideas as dead ideas, to discredit the thinking of the past simply because it is past, very often with little or no knowledge of what it was, and even before having made a study of it. We give lip service to Aristotle and Plato without ever having read a line of either.

"Not only historians but thinkers in all fields know that there have been no gaps in thought as are made to appear by the designations, ancient, medieval, modern; no such thing as discontinuity in history, no such violent breaks in philosophy as Bacon and Descartes are supposed to have initiated. Systems have passed into systems; each has had its period of growth, then of decay.

But truth has ever advanced while systems have gone into discard. The truth of a system and a system of truth are not one and the same thing. Truth is so many-sided that even the falsest system is quite capable of catching and holding one or other aspect of its shining countenance. To damn, therefore, an earlier system of thought for the sole reason that it was not born yesterday is to hamper true intellectual progress. None of us cares to wear a hat that is out of style; we need not be afraid to think thoughts which are out of date, for truth, as St. Augustine said, is eternal, ever ancient, ever new.

"That there exists a great deal of opposition to the New Scholasticism on the part of contemporary thinkers no one denies. Much of this opposition has its origin and support in a number of misconceptions. Insistence, for example, is placed on the intimate relations of the New Scholasticism to dogma. There is such relationship, but only in the sense that the Neo-Scholastic recognizes in dogma the complementary and guiding function which truth possesses, no matter in what field it is said to exist. I cannot quite understand the phobia some people have for dogmas. What are dogmas? They are the scientifically expressed beliefs of religion. Philosophy has nothing to say about them, or at least, should have nothing to say against them, unless they are irrational in se. Religion is quite outside the sphere of philosophy; its methods are not the methods of philosophy, and its conclusions are its own conclusions.

The three acts of rural humor of the days gone by, coupled with the undying love of a mother for her wayward son, were so well presented that the more than 400 spectators were very well pleased. The play served well to bring the program of honoring "mother" to a fitting end. The splendid acting of the cast made the presentation seem as real as a life story and with its final "return of the prodigal son to a long forgotten mother" the play ended as a complete success.

Miss Marie Suhadolnik, as the mother, and John Hart, as the wayward son, performed the leading parts and were very well received. Other members of the cast, by giving their full co-operation, aided greatly in making a real hit with this performance.

Miss Mary Cepon, as director of the presentation, worked whole-heartedly for the past month to make the event a success, and it is due to her efforts that the play went over so well.

Following the play all the mothers of sodality members were entertained and dined at a special affair.

Dancing to the tunes of Jackie's Trio featured the evening's entertainment.

The proceeds from this performance are to be turned over to the church fund. The Rev. M. J. Butala is well satisfied with the results of the event.

JOLIET SODALITY HONORS MOTHERS

For the fourth consecutive year on Mother's Day the members of the Blessed Virgin Mary Sodality, Joliet, Ill., entertained their mothers.

As usual, the mothers and daughters received Holy Communion in a body at the 8 o'clock Mass. The Rev. Fr. Plevnik, spiritual director of the sodality, officiated. Special music during the Mass was furnished by the church choir.

At 3 o'clock a program was presented at Slovenia Hall. The crowning of Mary, Queen of Mothers, was the added surprise feature of the program.

Before the crowning of the Blessed Virgin with flowers, a "wreath of hymns," dedicated to Mary, were sung by the sodalists. A one-act play, "Klic boži," two talks and several vocal selections were included in the program.

The Rev. Fr. Plevnik and the Rev. Fr. Hiti gave short talks.

Mrs. Mary Hiti, mother of Father Hiti, was present as guest of the sodality.

As the mothers and daughters entered the hall, they were given a medal of the Blessed Virgin. The mothers were also tagged with numbers, as a surprise gift was given to the lucky number holder. This year Mrs. Frances Laurich was the winner of an electric table lamp, the surprise gift.

A most delicious luncheon prepared by the sodalists was served at tables arranged in a large M. Pink and white was the color scheme used this year.

Mr. Joseph Sterbentz furnished the music throughout the afternoon. Dancing and the singing of various English and Slovenian songs concluded the program.

A crucifix was given to the mothers and sodalists who were unable to attend the program on account of sickness.

SURPRISED

Frank Papesh of Chicago had the biggest surprise of his life on May 3, when he entered Tomazin's candy store. Mr. Papesh came to Kresge's store that night with the intention of fixing a washing machine, and what a machine he fixed when he found out that it was a surprise party in his honor, a farewell party as you would call it (from a gay bachelorhood life to a quiet married life). Mr. Papesh wishes to thank each and everyone for their donations, for the gift given to him.

Frank sure was lucky to have found for himself such a wonderful girl as Miss Mary Falle to take care of him in years to come.

COOKING SCHOOL

By Frances Jancer

Following the suggestions of a few people, the best thing to offer the so-called cake prize for, is for the best candy. Candy recipes will be published from now on, and the prize will be given for the best candy instead of cake. This change was made because candy is much easier packed and sent to headquarters than cake. I am sure that many of our young Kay Jay girls would like to make good candy.

CHERRY DIVINITY

3 cups sugar
1/4 cup hot water
3/4 cup syrup (white karo)
3 egg whites
1/2 cup chopped maraschino cherries

Mix the sugar, water and syrup together. Cook over a slow fire until the sugar has dissolved and the syrup spins a thread when it is tested in cold water. Beat the egg whites until stiff. Then slowly pour the syrup into the egg whites, beating constantly until all of the syrup is used. Continue beating until mixture begins to thicken, then add maraschino cherries and mix well. Pour into buttered tins and let cool. Either can be sliced or broken into pieces.

CURRENT CRAX

Here we are, all together yet . . . I see that the Eveleth Kay Jays have a watchful eye on the athletic honors for the year. Will they get them? . . . Hope that they will have many activities, like the Waukeganites, and others . . . That was a grand Mother's Day issue; congratulations to all the contributors. I'm sure our mothers appreciated it. How about it, U. S. A? Are you going to better yourself this summer, and give the middle-class people a chance? . . . As usual, the women are the first to wear straw hats. Did you notice it's very seldom that the men start anything like that? . . . Every once in a while you see a certain cinema described as the best, the outstanding, the unsurpassed film of the year. Wonder if they ever reach the apex, or do they go still higher? Well, we ought to be glad that something is improving . . . Are you, girls, and boys, too, trying out any of the recipes given out by the Kay Jay cooking school? Believe me, some of them can't be beat. I know, 'cause I've tried them! . . . Doesn't this beating around the bush of the Senate and the rest of 'em give you a pain in the neck? If I took as much

SET DATES FOR BOOSTER GROUPS

LASALLE CONFAB WILL MEET MAY 29 ON MAY 20

SOUTH CHI WILL MEET MAY 29 ON MAY 20

Booster Meeting, Set for May 22, Is Postponed

La Salle, Ill.—The Kay Jay booster and baseball meeting date has been changed to May 29. This change was necessary because of inconveniences that conflicted with the 22d of May. Nevertheless, the baseball negotiations are already under way and a team ought to be announced soon.

Every KSKJ members in La Salle, and those who are not KSKJ members but are interested in the doings of our lodge members, are requested to be on hand for that day. The committee wants it to be known that each and every Kay Jay member is welcome. The committee is also trying to get in touch with young men in La Salle who have been playing baseball for the past few years in the different leagues in the city. A Kay Jay team would not conflict with the regular city leagues, but would serve as an extra. Members could get practice in their regular leagues, and book other Kay Jay games with their united Kay Jay team.

The purpose of the proposed booster club is not only to sponsor baseball. It is to be a stimulant for other sports activities in La Salle and surrounding territory. Take for example, Oglesby, Ill., has a few Kay Jay members who belong to La Salle lodges. Its further purpose is to increase interest in the KSKJ in general.

Don't forget May 29—place to be mentioned later.

Committee in Charge.

FRATERNITY

Man's noblest toil shall pass away,
His fairest fame last but today.
His world another world will be,
Yet dieth not Fraternity.

For He that placed His children here

Amid these vales of joy and tear,

Well knew this hope was left behind—

The brotherhood of all mankind.

Though home and love be prized by men
As fame and wealth have ever been,

Yet poor is he, revered and good,
That lacks the hand of brotherhood.

Though war's red scar is seldom healed,
Though glory sleeps on battle-field,
Still throbs the heart of God's grand plan—
The brotherhood of brother man!

JUNIORS RALLY IN NINTH

A ninth inning rally brought victory for St. Roch's Holy Name Juniors of La Salle, Ill., over Happy's All Stars, 8 to 7, at Helgeler Park Sunday. It was the Juniors' first victory in two starts this year.

Gergovich, star pitcher of the Juniors, allowed but one hit in three innings and fanned six batters. Urbanch was also a luminary.

Kay Jay Club, Topic; Entertainment Will Follow Conclave

The younger generation of the KSKJ membership in South Chicago is alert and eagerly awaiting the opportunity to participate in the grand Kay Jay conclave to be held this Friday evening, May 20, at St. George's Hall.

Ever since the official announcement was made last week that the St. Florian Booster Club, in conjunction with St. Mary's Athletic girls, would sponsor a general meeting, optimism and enthusiasm has been riding sky-high.

It will mark the first step toward organizing the younger and more active Kay Jay members of both sexes into one big group. The principal motive is to stimulate a better social and fraternal spirit, and coupled with it is the endeavor to uphold the traditions and refinements of our Slovenian nationality.

The important feature of this session will be a round table discussion on the possibilities of forming a suitable Kay Jay club which will serve the entire community.

Members of the six local KSKJ lodges in this territory are invited to join in this confab. An elaborate list of speakers has been prepared to lead a stimulus to the meeting. Another novel feature will be the "Get Acquainted Party" after the meeting, at which time refreshments and dancing will be the general order of business.

Adult members of the following KSKJ lodges are particularly urged to come and participate in the conclave:

Knights of St. Florian No. 44, St. Mary's Lodge No. 80, St. Michael's Lodge No. 152, Sacred Heart Lodge No. 166, St. Agnes' Lodge No. 206 and St. Theresa's Lodge No. 225.

By One Who Knows:

The benefits of education are real.

What the world needs are people who can observe, think and analyze. Few employers have either the time or ability to train the minds of young people. The custom is to assign them to routine jobs that offer little or no opportunity for development. Lacking the mental discipline, which is part of a high school course, the young man and woman are unprepared for advancement.

In addition to material advantages, a complete high school education offers valuable cultural gains. It adds to the appreciation and enjoyment of life by introducing one to good books, and by opening paths of thought in all branches of knowledge which can be explored on one's own initiative.

I strongly urge every boy and girl to whom school is not distasteful and painful to continue in school.

I am grateful that I went through high school and later through college. I do not think I could have succeeded in the work I am now doing without this education. In every sense, the investment was productive.

ST. STEPHENS WIN OPENER

Henry Basco, Jay Twirler, Allows 4 Hits to St. Joes

Chicago, Ill., May 8—The St. Stephen's No. 1 baseball team brought home its first victory by defeating the St. Joseph's College varsity of Hinsdale, Ill., last Sunday at Hinsdale.

The St. Stephen's team, managed by John Terselich Sr., beat the St. Joe boys by a score of 3 to 1. Henry Basco, doing the twirling for the Stephens team, allowed but four hits to the mighty nine of St. Joseph's College. Menges, on the mound for St. Joes, gave 12 hits to the coming KSKJ baseball champs. A. Billig relieved Menges in the eighth inning and struck out the six men that faced him the last two innings.

Manager Anton Bogolin and his team of St. Stephen's took a defeat by taking the short end of a 6 to 5 game. The second team of St. Stephen's Society No. 1 sure has a nice bunch of good and promising ball players. In a few years Chicago will have a second team as strong as the first team. Both St. Stephen's teams are in leagues for the coming season.

Learning Is Dangerous

Just as a little learning is dangerous, so is a little culture.

Rockwell Kent, the American painter, says it is far better that people honestly love a picture that is bad than that they give lip service to something that is good.

People have been talked out of liking colored prints of kittens, puppies, sweet old ladies and pretty babies. These now hang in the kitchen, and in the front room are copies of famous pictures of Greek temples, the Coliseum, Rheims Cathedral and landscapes by Whistler.

"At least before people knew anything about art they did not know what they liked," protests Mr. Kent, "and what is more, they liked a lot. They loved their pictures then."

"And houses then were filled with pictures, for people dared to have and hang upon their walls the things they liked. How bad these doubtless mostly were—but how remembered! What a cherished part of childhood memories are the

By Laws Will Be Presented Joliet Meeting

Social Will Follow Next Booster Confab
May 23

The regular monthly meeting of the Joliet Kay Jay Booster Club will be held next Monday evening, May 23, in the Slovenia Hall at 8 o'clock. The by-laws committee will introduce the various rules of the club for approval of the members. The entertainment committee has planned a social to follow the meeting.

Every member of the booster club should attend the monthly meeting, for at the meeting you have the privilege of expressing your ideas for the welfare and growth of the club.

The Joliet booster baseball team had booked the first game of the season for last Sunday. We are unable to report further that this time, since this item is being maled before the game has been played.

The boosters met last week with the purpose of organizing an indoor ball team. Even judging from this first practice, we believe we can safely say that a lot of folks will be surprised at the ability of some of the young ladies to drive the ball at a home run distance. The booster indoor ball team will no doubt be one of the most interesting activities during the summer months. Don't forget the next booster meeting next Monday night. Remember that a Joliet booster is an active booster!

TOMMY BRINOVEC ROLLS 300 GAME

In a match game against a strong Peoria outfit, Tommy Brinovec of La Salle, Ill., rolled a perfect game. It was Tommy's fourth game that evening, and, believe it or not, the local Post-Tribune says that he bowled 12 perfect strikes, giving him his first 300 game.

Tommy is a born bowler, living at the alleys since he was knee-high to a grasshopper. At present he is manager of the alleys at the La Salle Recreation. He bowled against the Cleveland outfit at the time of the match game in La Salle.

Nothing in America is more pathetically eloquent of such cultural paralysis of simple, natural, native, human feeling than the vogue of period homes and old masters."

Pomp and Splendor Reign at Baragites' Deb Ball

With all the pomp and splendor of a presentation of debas at the famous Buckingham Palace at which the King and Queen of England preside, so also did the Knights and Ladies of Baraga present a like spectacle at their Debutante Ball.

Everyone present looked on eagerly as the debas promenaded down the center of the hall and then up on the stage to be introduced to the crowd. The march, led by Anne Lukisich and Frank Barbarich, last year's king and queen, consisted of candidates representing various neighboring lodges.

Queen Lukisich wore a white transparent velvet gown of the princess style which reached the ankles. Her long regal cape was of a silver metallic fabric with a standup collar. She also wore a jeweled tiara, symbolic of a crown.

The king was attired in royal colors, a purple velvet robe reaching the floor and trimmed with a white ermine collar. He also wore a jeweled crown.

The first couple to be presented was from the Yugoslav Orchestra—Sophie Stopar, who was charmingly dressed in a flowered satin gown with small figured flowers in the background. Frank Kopac was her escort.

The second couple represented the Slovenian Ladies' Union of Bay View—Mildred Tominek and Ervin Peiffer. Miss Tominek wore a green satin gown with fitted lines. Tiny ruffles of green tulle made up the bottom of the gown.

Rose Sapetnik and John Gorishek represented St. John's Lodge. She wore an attractive gown of pink ruffled tulle. The skirt is appliquéd with colored velvet representing a huge basket of flowers.

The Badgers representatives were Erna Stiglitz and Leonard Alpner. Miss Stiglitz was attired in a yellow figured silk organdie gown, which accented her dark beauty.

The Lily Lodge's deb, Mary Vachetz, wore a long gleaming satin gown in a soft green shade, and was accompanied by Frank Vodnik.

The Cardinals, West Allis, had as their representatives Catherine Tomich and Frank Stanzar. Miss Tomich wore a pale blue crepe gown with a transparent blue velvet jacket, which was an excellent contrasting color for her blond hair.

A becoming deb was Rose Stiglitz of St. Ann's Lodge, who wore a ruffled peach gown. Frank Sagadin Jr. was her escort.

The Bratski Dom of North Milwaukee was represented by the vivacious Anne Ramshak, escorted by Frank Lach. She was attractively dressed in a yellow embroidered tulle gown.

The Baragites were especially honored to have among the debas our friends from Waukegan and South Chicago, representing the Kay Jay boosters, none other than Marie Grom and Ed Kompare. Miss Grom was pleasantly surprised on her arrival to Milwaukee to learn that she was to be presented to the king and queen, but nevertheless she made a very petite and charming little deb.

All the debas wore corsage bouquets of sweet peas, roses and baby breath.

After the grand march voting was begun in full swing. At 11:30 the ballot boxes were closed. Great excitement prevailed as the counting went on, and lodge after lodge seemed to be creeping to the top. But it all came to a climax when the announcer officially declared as king and queen Frank Sagadin Jr. and Rose Stiglitz of St. Anne's Lodge, although the Badgers were a very close second and gave the winners quite a chase.

Clothed in the royal purple robes, the newly crowned king and queen marched up to occupy the throne. The king graciously accepted the scepter, the band struck up a tune, and amid balloons, confetti and streamers the royal celebration continued to the music of the Broadway Orioles.

The Baragites wish to thank each and every one present at this ball, also the dance committee for its untiring efforts in making this event a huge success.
