Mi pa smo upali, da je On tisti ...

Oseminštirideset ur je minilo in dva učenca žalostna ugotavljata, da se na Kalvariji niso izpolnila njuna pričakovanja. Tudi onadva sta se osramotila. Nemir preteklih mesecev se je spremenil v veliko razočaranje. Vsa preteklost je eno samo veliko razdejanje. Pred očmi so jima vstajali strašni prizori. Obnavljala sta Jezusove prilike o življenju, a jih nista mogla povezati z njegovo smrtjo.

Ko tudi sami opazujemo svet skozi črna očala, dvomimo nad vsako stvarjo. Postavljamo vprašanja in ne razmišljamo o Jezusovi prisotnosti. Vprašanja pa so običajno napačna. Bližnjice do križa ne bomo našli, tako kot to ni uspelo Janezovim učencem, ki so Jezusa spraševali, kdo je. Naš odgovor naj bo »da« in »amen«; popolnoma odprimo srca Bogu. Božji vstop je pogoj, da lahko sprejmemo krščanstvo.

Tega, kar iščemo, sami ne bomo našli. Celu sposobnejšim to ni uspelo. Jezus Kristus nas preveč presega. Odkriva nam svet, razlaga globine življenja, usmerja nas na pot, po kateri sami ne zmoremo potovati. Za učence je bil križ neuspeh. Tudi nam se zdi velikokrat tak. Ali pa zmaga, ki lahko požlahtni slehernega človeka? Ali je to prava pot? »Mar ni bilo potrebno, da je Kristus pretrpel in šel v božjo slavo?« V prvih stoletjih, pa tudi danes, mnogi kristjani ne vedo natančno, kaj pomeni hoditi za Kristusom. Kdor potuje po njej skozi svet, je prašen, utrujen. Pot je ozka in strma. Že apostoli so povezali trpljenje in Kristusovo vstajenje. Čeprav je pot težka, se nam še kako prilega: vodi v samo središče, kjer odkrijemo Misel, ki je oblikovala vse, kar obstaja.

Zaradi različnih razlogov gledajo nekateri ljudje na vero postrani. Vera je opij, lažna obljuba. Maličili so zgodovino, gradili kulturo, kjer veljajo le »prave« vrednote. Vendar je njihovo delo propadlo. Bog je vsem postal vse, da bi jih vsaj nekaj rešil (prim. Rim 8, 22). Bilo je prav na začetku, ko je Bog oblikoval zemljo. Naredil, vdihnil je življenje najčudovitejši stvari - človeku. Človek je bil veličasten in svoboden. Izkoristil je svobodo in se oddaljil od Boga. Pisal je knjige, gradil babilonske stolpe, hotel je nad vsem zavladati.

Spring Banquet

Last week, we enjoyed our Spring Banquet in conjunction with a fabulous play from Slovenia "MICIKI JE TREBA MOŽA" There were many laughs shared and good time was had by all! It took many hands to prepare our Spring Banquet - from the Kitchen, to the bar, the set-up and the clean-up... to everyone who made the time to help out, we say Thank You! With everyone's participation our events will continue to be a great success! - Heidy N.

Letošnji spomladanski banket smo premaknili na belo nedeljo, ker je ta dan gostovala skupina mladih iz Doma sv. Jožefa iz Celja, pod vodstvom lazarista gospoda Jožeta Planinška. Sodelovali so že pri deseti maši. Fantovski oktet je pod vodstvom njihovega pevovodja in organista, zapel vstopno pesem, Gospod usmili se, Slavo, Psalm in alelujo. Od darovanja naprej je pel naš angleški zbor pod vodstvom Ivana Mertuka. Fantje pa so zopet peli naprej od obhajila. Zelo ubrani glasovi so napolnili našo cerkev in maša je bila tudi zaradi njihove prisotnost zares doživeta. Po maši so zapeli še nekaj pesmi tudi ob sodelovanju deklet.

Po maši smo se v velikem številu preselili v dvorano. Ko so si gostje iskali svoje sedeže pri mizah in se mimogrede okrepcali s kavo, so mladi tudi zaigrali nekaj poskočnih na harmoniko, klarinet, bariton, kasneje, med smim kosilo, pa tudi nekaj pesmi zapeli. Ker so bili v kuhinji kar hitro nared za kosilo, smo zmolili in mladi so postregli na mize. V kuhinji je bila glavna pri loncih Nancy Taylor (Dundek) in še dve pomočnici. Po dobrem kosilu so se igralci pripravili za igro. Že sam naslov da misliti, da je to zanimiva zgodba.

Počasi se je zgodba vse bolj in bolj zapletala, na koncu pa se je le vse srečno izteklo in ne samo, da je Micika dobila moža - četudi sta se morana poslužiti zvižace - je dobil ženo tudi njen oče. Iskrena hvala mladim igralcem, ki so poskrbeli, da so se vsi od srca nasmejali. Mnogi so obujali spomine na mlade čase, ko so v Sloveniji hodili na vaške igre.

Hvala tudi članom župnijskega sveta in vsem, ki ste priskočili na pomoč, da smo v nedeljo zjutraj vse potrebno pripravili v dvorani in v baru. Samo ob sodelovanju vseh je mogoče izpeljati tako lepe dogodke, ki nas povezujejo in tudi obogatijo.

CATHOLIC EDUCATION WEEK APRIL 30 TO MAY 5

Dear brothers and sisters in Christ,

Theme: Walking Forward Together

Walking forward together in Catholic Education means we are on a journey. As individuals, our journey begins with important lessons learned at home with our family that continue at school. With God's grace, we strive to overcome failings, to seek reconciliation, and to grow in the joy of the Gospel. As Canadians, we recognize our nation is on a journey of growth, too, marked by struggle and accomplishment, moments of pride and regret; but a journey forward nonetheless with great hope for the future. As we celebrate the 150th anniversary of Confederation, we recognize that Catholic Education has always been part of that Canadian story. As our nation has walked forward, it has never been without the gift of Catholic schools. Finally, as the People of God, we are a pilgrim people, called, as the Church teaches, "to worship in truth and serve in holiness". (Lumen Gentium, 9) In our praying and learning and serving, we walk together towards our heavenly home.

In this week of celebrating Catholic Education, may we be reminded that we are called to be a people who journey, not content to stay in one place but always moving outward to where we can serve others; we are called to walk together, never needing to feel alone in our mission; and we are called toward a loving and merciful destiny.

May God continue to bless our publicly funded Catholic Schools in Ontario and all those who serve in and with them.

Sincerely in Christ and Mary Immaculate,

+Douglas Crosby, OMI

A LITTLE HISTORY ON THE SLOVENIAN GOLF TOURNAMENT

The first Slovenian Golf Tournament was held in Kirkland Lake where second generation Slovenians gathered together to play some golf and enjoy a social after their day on the course. After several such tournaments, John Stark and a number of his friends decided to create a trophy which would honour their first generation parents who emigrated from Slovenia. The trophy depicts a shovel and pick and commemorates the hard work of their fathers who worked so hard in the Gold Mines.

Many of the second generation pursued post-secondary school studies and because of the lack of work in their profession and job specialities moved to southern Ontario and in particular to the Golden Horseshoe. As a result the trophy lay dormant until our northern friends donated it to the Slovenian Scholarship Foundation for their annual fund raiser Golf Tournament.

The Slovenian Scholarship Foundation was established in 1997 to encourage our young people to pursue post-secondary college and university education and to continue to take pride in their Slovenian heritage. By supporting our young people financially in their studies, when they need it most and to recognize them for their accomplishments, the SCSF Board believes, that in time, they will pick up the torch and be our future leaders.

3RD SUNDAY OF EASTER

Response:

Lord, you will show me the path of life.

First Reading Acts 2:14, 22-33

God raised Jesus to life, and all his disciples are witnesses to that.

Second Reading 1 Peter 1:17-21

It is through Christ that we have faith in God, who raised him from the dead.

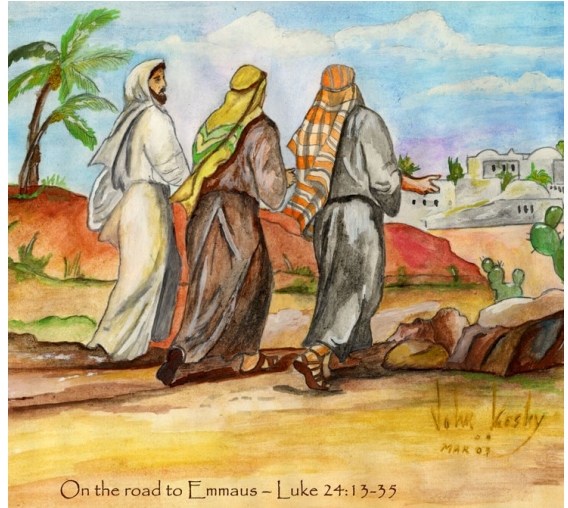

Gospel Luke 24:13-35

The risen Lord walks with his disciples and talks to them on the road.

“So he went in to stay with them.”

Illustration

Perhaps the most well-known poem of the Greek poet C.P. Cavafy is simply entitled “Ithaca”. Ithaca is an island off the west coast of Greece, famous for being the home of the legendary Greek hero Odysseus. Homer’s Odyssey describes the adventures of Odysseus as he makes his very winding way home to Ithaca after the Trojan War. Cavafy’s aim is to advise his readers about their journey through life, and he uses Ithaca as the symbolic end to the journey. We should hope, he says, that the journey is a long one, filled with adventures, filled with discoveries. We will not encounter monsters on our journey if we do not carry them within us. Rather we should hope for many summer mornings when we can put into harbours, new to our eyes, and acquire the finest wares. We should visit Egyptian cities and learn, and go on learning, from their sages. We keep Ithaca always in mind. To arrive there is our destiny, but we should not hurry our trip in any way. It is better that we are old when we finally drop anchor there, rich with all we have got on the way. If we then find Ithaca itself poor, she has not deceived us. She has given us the beautiful journey, and we will “have understood, by then, what these Ithacas mean”.

Gospel Teaching

Jesus always has to reveal himself to his disciples in his risen appearances. They never identify him through their own powers. On most occasions he appears in their midst and offers them peace. Mary Magdalene mistakes him for the gardener, but he only has to say her name for her to recognise him. In today’s story of his encounter with two disciples on the road to Emmaus, there is a much slower process. The story is like a programme of catechesis. The disciples are first asked to give their account of what is preoccupying them, and with their telling of the story there is a sense of disappointment and frustration. Their hopes had been dashed, both in the events of the crucifixion and the puzzling aftermath of the empty tomb.

Jesus picks up their story and reframes it. Where they could only see failure, he now shows them that this is the preordained way that the Christ should suffer and so enter his glory. By this time their hearts are beginning to burn with the experience of the truths he is unfolding to them. But the act of full recognition only comes after they have persuaded him to stay with them. He accepts their invitation and it is in his blessing and breaking of bread that the disciples' eyes are finally opened and they recognise him. The crucial stages in the journey to recognition are, first of all, the travelling with Jesus along the road, then the true explanation of the scriptures in relation to the Christ. This is followed by further staying with him, which results in full recognition through the breaking of the bread.

Application

We can see our own journey of recognising the risen Lord following a similar pattern. It is interesting that no historical village has been identified as Emmaus. Like Ithaca, its importance lies in offering us the journey, the journey through which we will be both enlightened and enriched. Our most regular journey of this nature is our celebration of the Eucharist. We come to Mass with all our preoccupations and concerns, and we begin by handing them over to God with our appeal for God's mercy and forgiveness. We then listen to God's words handed on to us in the scriptures. Hopefully the homily may then help us apply these words to our own lives. In this way the word of God does not remain distant from us but touches us at the deepest level.

In the Eucharist that follows we are confirmed in the presence of Christ in our lives. If the word has been broken for us, now the bread too is broken for us, deepening our recognition of the risen Lord and allowing him to transform our lives. Each stage of the celebration, the offering of the bread and wine, the consecration of the elements and our receiving them in communion, helps our understanding of the mystery of God's presence among us. But it also brings about that same mystery within ourselves. We become the body of Christ whose sacrifice we have both witnessed and made our own.

S ponedeljkom se začne mesec maj in tudi letos bomo vsak dan imeli »šmarnično branje«. Naslov letošnjega branja je: »Naredi me za orodje svojega miru«, napisal jih je p. Janez Šamperl, OFMConv. V uvodni besedi pravi, da se je ideja porodila v Assisiju. »Angelov s šmarnicami v rokah je v Sloveniji upodobljenih zelo malo, zato moramo biti šmarnični angeli mi vsi! Vsak je povabljen, da postaja mirotovore, človek odpuščanja, graditelj mostov, molivec za mir, človek dialoga, sovražnik predsotdkov ... Skupaj s sv. Frančiškom v šmarničnem mesecu stopimo na novo pot, prinesimo novo miselnost ...«
