CURRENT THOUGHT

National SSCU Duckpin Turney

that the tenpin bowlers have packed away their miners for the summer and fall months, undivided attention of members of kegling will be focused on the coming national duckpin tournament, which will take place Sunday, May 10, in Pittsburgh, Pa.

The tournament will be the second gathering of SSCU members. Our Union has appropriated $150 from the sports fund as its contribution toward cash prizes and medals. The two duckpin plaques, one for the ladies' division and the other for the men's division, awarded one year's possession to the last year's champion team of ladies' lodge, No. 221, of Center and Pittsburgh, and to the champion quint (men) of Center Lodge, No. 221, of Center, last year, again will be awarded to the two champion teams decided on May 10. The three times winning the national SSCU team duckpin championship will be awarded permanent possession.

Our Union appropriated $75 from the sports fund for year our Union appropriated $75 from the sports fund for cash prizes and medals. However, since the response to the request of the Western Pennsylvania Federation of Lodges for $150 grant from the sports fund was so good, the word duckpins is literally synonymous with the word bowling. Tenpin bowling is dominant in the minority, just as duckpins is given secondary status in other states. Both the English-speaking and members in the Keystone State derive a great deal of pleasure from this sport. If memory serves the writer correctly, the first SSCU tournament originated with the Slovene-constituted board of the Western Pennsylvania Federation of Lodges again volunteered to handle the details and arrangements for this year's duckpin tournament. All SSCU members interested in entering teams are requested to communicate with Paul Oblock, Box 153, R. D. 1, Turtle Creek, Pa., who will gladly furnish them with entry blanks and necessary information.

Members in good standing at least sixty days prior to April 1, 1936, are eligible to participate, including juveniles between the ages of 16 and 18 years. This special is made for two reasons: First, to give the juveniles an opportunity to take part in a spectacle sponsored by our Union; second, because the juniors are likely to bowl duckpins, the ball is considerably lighter to the one used in tenpins.

Originators of the idea have reason to believe that the national SSCU duckpin tournament will exceed the first in numbers and enthusiasm. Since Pittsburgh and are separated by some 120 miles, members in the city may again participate in the tournament this year.

In order to eliminate all possible rush and confusion, the athletic board in the Keystone State will permit lodges to roll on Saturday, May 9, if they so request on the following day, Sunday, May 10. Last year when members rolled in team, doubles and singles events—

one day—the athletic board had its hands full in executing the schedule. At that, the 1935 tournament was conducted in a manner satisfactory to all, especially when we consider the first attempt.

The entry fee is 50 cents for each event, or $1.50 for the events. Attractive cash prizes, published elsewhere in the paper, await the champions, both ladies and men, in the events.

John Ardisensi, a very good sharpshooter, who was outstanding with his floor work.

John Simonich, outstanding forward, who also placed in the

"We rest," said the distinguished lawyer for the defense. "Aw such is life," added Raggsy Rufus, recounting the circumstances to Plodding Pete. "We rest and get the dog set on us. He rests and gets paid for doin' it."

Personnel of Hawkeyes Basketball Team

Ely, Minn.—Picture of our Hawkeyes Lodge, No. 200, SSCU, basketball team appears elsewhere in this issue of Nova Doba.

Hawkeyes ended their 1936 basketball season victoriously, and out of 27 games played, 19 were won and 8 lost. Hawks participated in three tournaments and placed in the finals in all of them.

In the City League the team won 10 and lost 5 games out of a total of 15, and ended the season in second place. In the finals Hawkeyes nosed out the Rangers by a score of 19 to 18; however, they lost to the Italians by a score of 15 to 11.

During the All-Arrowhead tournament held at Chisholm, our team played three games, entering the finals. Here they scored victories over Hibbing, 29 to 28, and the Chisholm "outlaws," 37 to 22, but again were beaten out in the finals by Gilbert Lopp, 30 to 22.

In the Minnesota state SSCU tournament, held in Ely, Hawkeyes defeated the Gophers, 21 to 20. Score was tied at 19-all at gun time, but during the overtime period our boys came on top. This game was the best of all played in the tournament. However, in the finals Rangers club of Ely Lodge No. 1, SSCU, defeated our team by a score of 30 to 13.

All in all, we had a very successful season. Here is a brief resume of our players.

John Stukel, 6 feet 3 inches tall, selected as the Jaycee all-conference center. Matt Stukel, guard and forward, was the third highest scorer in the City League with a total of 102 points. Carla Golob, one of the best guards, who placed in the all-star Arrowhead and the City League teams, scoring 89 points.

John Ardisensi, a very good sharpshooter, who was outstanding with his floor work. John Simonich, outstanding forward, who also placed in the all-star Arrowhead team. He scored 78 points in the City League. Frank Miklach, star guard and a bear on the design.

"Farewell"

To Brother Ernie Palcic:

It is with great regret we hear you are about to leave us. To the members of our local lodge you have been more than "just a friend," you have been a real brother and no one could ask for a better lodge member. You did everything that was asked of you and, yes, even more, sincerely. With your untiring efforts you have set an excellent example of what a real SSCU member is. We don't think there ever was a member more loyal to the SSCU. We shall miss you greatly, Ernie, but from the bottom of our hearts we wish you success, which, by your hard work, you rightfully deserve. 'Tis with joy for your sake, and with sorrow for ours, that we say "Farewell!"

Mr. and Mrs. T. Sternisha,
No. 222, SSCU.

Duckpin Turney for May 10

Turtle Creek, Pa.—It won't be long now when again we will all meet at the Lawrence Recreation Parlor of Pittsburgh. The occasion? Why, the second national SSCU duckpin tournament scheduled to take place on May 10, 1936.

I have interviewed a number of members from other SSCU lodges, and they all promised to be present. I hope none will disappoint us, as we are trying to make this year's event greater than that of last year. Our Union is appropriating $150 from the sports fund for cash prizes and medals this year. Thus we shall have both first and second prizes.

The defending champions are Center Ramblers Lodge, No. 221, SSCU, of Center and Lodge No. 128, SSCU, of Pittsburgh in the men's and ladies' divisions, respectively.

Additional entry blanks may be secured by writing to L. P. Boberg, 5414 Carnegie Ave., Pittsburgh, Pa. Entries close on April 30, 1936. Send your filled out entry blanks together with entry fees to Paul J. Oblock, Box 153, R. D. 1, Turtle Creek, Pa. Hurry, as time is getting short.

A banquet will be held after the tournament at the Slovenc Hall, 57th and Butler St., Pittsburgh, Pa. Cash prizes and medals will be awarded to the champions.

Let us all plan to meet together on Sunday, May 10, 1936, at Lawrence Recreation Alleys.

Paul J. Oblock, Chairman.

Slovene Aces

Yukon, Pa.—Every Saturday afternoon at 2 o'clock two Slovene boys are heard over Station WWSW. These two, Frank and Joe, members of Lodge No. 183, SSCU, have received the plaudits of many who listen to them over the radio. Anyone interested in these two Slovene aces should communicate with Anthony Brandstetter, Yukon, Pa.

George Washington Team Wins National SSCU Bowling Championship

LADIES' QUINTET OF LODGE NO. 94 HIGH IN WOMEN'S DIVISION

Waukegan and Cleveland teams came through with flying colors during the second national SSCU tenpin tournament held Saturday and Sunday, April 18 and 19, in Waukegan, Ill.

The Cleveland George Washington Lodge, No. 180, rolled 2617 pins to annex the national SSCU team honors for the second year in succession. But not without some stiff opposition, as the entry of Lodge No. 6 from Lorain collected a score of 2539 to place second in the men's division. These two teams from Ohio traveled a distance of some 400 miles each way to take part in the tourney. Waukegan's Comrades' male entry garnered 2442 sticks to place third.

Ladies' team from Waukegan lodge, No. 94, won the national SSCU team title in the women's division with a score of 1424. And like in the men's division, this team was pursued closely by the Ladies of SSCU entry from Joliet, Ill., who amassed an even total of 1400 pins to land in second place.

Past-40 men's team from Joliet added variety to the tournament schedule. Rolling some 2000 odd pins in their three-game series, unquestionably won them the honor of national champions in this division.

F. Ramuta and A. Juricic, doubles entry from Lodge No. 66 of Joliet, came through with 1143 to lead the entries in this division. L. Rode and F. Furlan of Waukegan placed second with 1092; P. Krall and F. Collins of Cleveland third with 1085; F. Tomazic and J. Tomsic of Lorain fourth with 1066.

In the singles M. Zupec was high with 619, F. Zupec second with 590, J. Bluth of Joliet, 583; F. Mivsek, 581, and L. Vidrick of Lorain, 541, who also won the all-events prize with 1707.

Frances "Mish" Strauss of Gowanda (N. Y.) Pathfinders won a lion's share of prizes in the ladies' division. She and Mrs. Mauser of Waukegan rolled 727 to take the doubles championship. In the singles "Mish" was first with 430, and together with her efforts in team competition gave her a combined total of 1256 and the prize for all events. In order to compete for SSCU honors, this champion kegler had to travel through five states, covering a distance of some 1,200 miles for the round trip.

Mrs. F. Vranichar and Lucille Jevitz placed second in the doubles with 618, L. Kosicek and J. Adamich third with 580, and D. Witt and F. Matesh fourth with 455. All of these winners are members of Lodge No. 66 subsidiary club, Ladies of SSCU.

In the singles, ladies' division, Mrs. F. Vranichar won second place with 381 and J. Adamich third with 318.

Next week will be published the scores rolled by teams, doubles and singles entries who placed in the prize money.

Sidelines of SSCU Turney in Waukegan

Bowlers to the second national open tenpin tournament were treated to an informal but delightful supper party at the Waukegan Slovene National Home on Tenth St., Sunday evening, April 19. Supreme President Paul Bartel, acting as toastmaster, introduced a spokesman from each of the out-of-town visiting groups, who were presented in the following order:

Ernest Palcic of Gowanda, N. Y., Pathfinders; John Kardell, president of the Cleveland George Washington Lodge; Frank E. Vranichar, supreme trustee, of Joliet. From Waukegan, Anton Kobal, general chairman, and Larry F. Petrovic, chairman of bowling committee.

Then followed the distribution of prizes, which fell to the lot of Louis Kolar, SSCU athletic commissioner. Each prize winner was called upon to make an informal speech.

On Saturday evening, April 18, the tournament crowd gathered in the upper hall of the Slovene National Home to attend the dance sponsored by St. Rochus Lodge, No. 94. That the crowd enjoyed itself immensely was shown conclusively when the dance was still going strong at 2 a. m.

Waukegan is an ideal spot for out-of-town visiting groups. Not too large to get lost, yet it has all the facilities of a large town, and the added advantage of keeping together the many visitors, as was evidenced last Saturday and Sunday.

Your Friend—SSCU

Springdale, Pa.—This little incident takes us away back when one's only protection was his six-shooter. To the days when the West was the West and the slowest man died. Remember?

Rustlers Creek was a small, lawless town on the Texas border. Honest cowmen were continually being raided by cattle rustlers and horse thieves. One day they decided to join forces and drive out these bad men and bring peace to their little town. Success seemed to be theirs, for the very next day one of the horse thieves was captured. They placed him on three barrels, tied a rope around his neck and threw the rope over a tree limb. Just as they were about to kick the barrels out, the fire whistle blew. They all rushed back to fight the fire, believing the crook was safe till they returned.

Along about this time a friend of the horse thief chanced to pass by. He inquired as to what the horse thief was doing. "Oh," replied the crook, "I'm working for a motion picture company and I have to stay in this position for three hours. I've just remembered I gotta go back to town right away. How about taking my place and I'll pay you ten dollars?"

"Sure," replied his friend, "I'll do anything for a pal."

So they traded places.

About a half hour later the men returned and kicked the barrels from under him. As he fell the rope broke and the friend got up and disappeared in a hurry. About a month later he met the horse thief. "How do you like to work for the movies?" asked the crook. "Oh, h—l on them," replied his friend. "They will fool around and hang somebody one of these days."

Lodge No. 61

Reading, Pa.—At the regular monthly meeting of St. George's Lodge, No. 61, SSCU, it was decided to hold a dance on April 25 at Harmony Hall. This dance will begin promptly at 8 p. m. Proceeds of the dance will go toward the lodge's treasury. Excellent music has been engaged for the occasion. Admission is 25 cents a person; children under 16 years will be admitted free.

All members are cordially invited to attend this dance, and thus help out our treasury. Members of other lodges are also invited; we assure them of our co-operation when they will hold a similar affair.

John Pezdire Sr., Sec'y.

Lodge No. 129

Ely, Minn.—Lodge No. 129, SSCU, will hold a dance on Friday evening, May 1, in the Washington Auditorium. The Shukle Boys from Eveleth will furnish the music. Admission is 40 cents a couple and 15 cents for ladies. All members and friends in this city are cordially invited to attend.

Mary Zgome, Sec'y.

Yugoslav Garden

Cleveland, O.—On April 28 to 30, inclusive, the music loving fans of Cleveland will have the only opportunity of hearing an opera this season. The Cultural Garden League of Cleveland, under whose auspices the Opera Festival will be presented, will be the sole beneficiary of this presentation. The entire proceeds will be used for the improvement and extension of the Cultural Gardens in Rockefeller Park.

Each of the nationality gardens have a duty to perform in the way of selling tickets for this opera. Each garden will benefit in proportion to the number of tickets it disposes of. We are therefore mainly interested in the Yugoslav Garden, and it behoves each and every one who is in any way interested in music to purchase tickets for this opera. The tickets should be purchased from an authorized Yugoslav Garden representative. The San Carlo Opera Co., with its American and European world-renowned artists, together with orchestra and ballet, will present "Aida," "Rigoletto," "La Traviata," "Cavalleria Rusticana" and "Pagliacci" at the Public Auditorium on the dates previously mentioned. Tickets for these operas can be purchased in the book store of Joseph Grdina, 6121 St. Clair Ave. They are on sale now.

Anton Grdina,
President of Yugoslav Garden.

Jutro

Slovene daily publication of Ljubljana, Yugoslavia, reprinted in its April 2, 1936, issue the Slovene editorial appearing in the March 18 issue of Nova Doba. "Naša domovina" (Our Country) is the title of this editorial, which is one of the regular articles prepared weekly by our editor-manager, A. J. Terbovec. The editorial significantly points out the relationship that exists between the Slovene residing in his native country and the Slovene who has adopted the United States as his country.

Our Friends Lodge, No. 227, SSCU, of Greensboro, Pa., will hold a dance on April 25 at Zalar's Hall. Dixie Dandies Orchestra has been secured to provide music for the occasion.

I. L. Banquet

Cleveland, O.—Interlodge League will honor its basketball players with a banquet to take place Friday, April 24, in the Slovene Auditorium annex. Dr. A. L. Garbas will be the toastmaster for the evening. George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, will be represented with its basketball personnel at the banquet, which is scheduled to start at 7 p. m.

Cardinal Highlights

Struthers, O.—After an absence of a few weeks Cardinals once more give you their latest news.

Sports—Our snappy baseball team opened the season last Tuesday and, believe me, we have many a good prospect. Bro. Eddie is sure a heavy slugger, for he broke a bat at the opening game.

It would take too much time and space to describe each and every player, but take it from me, boys, you're swell. With a little practice the boys should be able to challenge any team in the valley.

Sick List—William Pogacnik is in the hospital due to leg burns received from hot steel while at work. Any friends wishing to pay him a visit will be glad to know that he is in the South Side Unit Hospital. We sure hope you a speedy recovery, Pug.

Dance—Are you coming to our big dance and amateur contest, April 25? The amateur contest will last for one hour, and we sure have plenty of talent. Everything from grandpa's fiddle to the good old squeeze box. If you don't come, you'll be missing a treat.

The ever popular Joe Umeck and his orchestra will provide the syncopation. Are you coming, Youngstown, Cleveland, Collinwood, Barberton, Sharon, Warren, Girard, Niles, East Palestine, Springdale, Bessemer and Lowellville? Don't forget the place—Croatian Hall on Lowell Rd., April 25.

Visiting—Many friends from Sharon, and Rose Marie Riechler from the Center Ramblers, visited at the home of Joe Zlolar.

Bro. Eddie, Frank, mother, my big moment, Rudy Cikulin and myself visited relatives in Bridgeville Sunday.

New Members—We added quite a few new members in the past few months: Bozica Marasovich, Anna Zaluski, George De Lost, Steve Babich, Mathew Mistrovich and Frank Vlosich. We wish to thank the hard working members that secured the new members, contributing toward a bigger and better SSCU.

Jennie Glavic,
No. 229, SSCU.

Stiff

Young Wife: It says beat the whites of the eggs till stiff. I think they must be done now.

Hubby: Why, are they stiff?

Young Wife: No, but I am.

Lodge No. 132

Euclid, O.—On Saturday, April 25, all roads lead to the Slovene Lodges' Home on Recher Ave., where our Napredek Lodge, No. 132, SSCU, will hold a dance. Music will be provided by Jankovic's Orchestra; admission will be 25 cents a person, which shall also entitle them to cash awards.

All members are requested to be present at this dance and to bring along their friends and acquaintances. Let us pause in our daily routine long enough to attend this dance for relaxation. All members who have tickets outstanding for this dance are requested to return them by Friday evening.

John Tanko, Sec'y.

An Echo From Lorain

Lorain, O.—Being quite an ardent reader of our Nova Doba and looking forward to hearing a line or two from some of our young members of our lodge, I found that I would have to wait and wait—and still hear nothing from any of them. I just thought I would break into the picture without intruding. I have taken quite a liking to the columns of Little Stan from Ely, Minn., and Ernie Palic from Gowanda, N. Y. I sure would like to meet those two boys some day.

When it is ascertained that there is no real and immediate danger in this locality to warrant our regiment's remainder, we are recalled and Crnogorans established in our place. It is calculated that the theater of action will assume gigantic proportions on the Doberdob plateau. Consequently, we are hustled off to adopt our roles on that vast stage. Through Modraje and St. Lucia we sweep, through towns where alarmed inhabitants stare and wonder as we pass. Their first terrified inference is that we have been routed and that they see us now in fast retreat. Our emphatic denial of this allays their fear not a little. We finally come to rest in Cepovac.

Hunger is our great scourge these days, for cut off from the main body we cannot be reached with supplies. The railroad ties near St. Lucia have been torn up, so that we are completely thrown upon the resources of these good-hearted people who themselves are starving.

After the meeting adjourned I bid the other four representatives from our lodge a goodby and told them to go straight home. After some visiting I dropped into the Slovene Home barroom, had a couple of roast beef sandwiches, and I noticed "Samson" Drobnić observing a peaceful card game. We were mutually pleased to see each other again, and soon our conversation ran to the SSCU bowling tournament which took place last Saturday and Sunday. Since both of us had no previous plans, we decided to attend an endeavor sponsored by a young Slovene.

Lodges Nos. 30 and 150, SSCU, of Chisholm, Minn., will sponsor the presentation of the play, "Oh, That Devilish Widow," on April 26. Proceeds of the play will go to ward aiding the SSCU members who were victims of the recent floods.

Recently the stork visited the home of Mr. and Mrs. R. Champa of Cleveland and presented them with twins, both girls. Mr. Champa is a member of George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU.

Wedding bells will peal for two members of the Cleveland George Washington Lodge on April 25, when Miss Julia Bouha and Mr. Frank Opalek will be married. Both are very popular in the Cleveland colony. Miss Bouha formerly served as secretary of SSCU Lodge No. 180, while Mr. Opalek has been very active with the G. W. bowling and baseball teams, captaining last year's softball aggregation.

Mrs. Arch, mother of Dr. F. J. Arch, supreme medical examiner, SSCU, passed away into the great beyond last Sunday, April 19, in her home at Moon Run, Pa. Funeral services were held Wednesday, April 22.

Frank Jancar Jr. (W8LYX), Rec. Sec'y, No. 6, SSCU.

lodge officer of Pathfinders in several capacities.

Cleveland SSCU Bowling League will hold its after-season party on Saturday, April 25, at Kunic's Hall, located at 15610 Waterloo Rd. All members of the league are invited to attend the festival which will start at 8 p. m.

A World War Chronicle

BY IVAN MATIČIĆ

From the Slovene by VALENTINE OREHEK

to salvage are loaded pell-mell primitive ox-drawn carts. Some of these unfortunate have come from far away, almost unknown villages. They are incoherent with fright and difficulty in conversation.

The wail and whimper of children, the creaking of wagons, the commotion and clamor of beasts, these fill our ears and break of day to its close. We are spared to pity the parents who cast aside their eyes are always wet with tears, the burning roads they must travel through misery and unthinkable hardship until the yellow clouds of dust low them from sight.

Opatje Selo: Here half the population still clings to its hearth, ready to let go and drift with the wind. At night we find our Devetake, and at last onto the sun sinks below the distant Doberdob, where just before the church bells that lie shattered struggle into the first village intact save for the demolished street. Here and there a few houses stand from a cautiously open door.

The trenches we will occupy a quarter-hour's distance below here. Here we relieve the battalions that has held them. This is a silent wind storm sets in, a gentle wind that reveals six men who have been forlorn by a driving rain. With the sound of parapet thrown up by a highway. The dull haze of smoke reveals six men who have been affected by this freak of nature. Fewer acquaintance with Krševci cover that lightning here occurs, striking anywhere in the locality almost daily. During summer nights the rumble of thunder is constantly in our ears and heat scorches the dry-baked roads.

Until now we have not been by the enemy—it is obviously a more detailed account from our connoisseur patrols who have been almost to our very earthworks after this the Italian batteries until it becomes a boom.

Far off on the distant landscape white-gleaming valleys of Sava, miljan, Ronki, Červinjan, etc., are belied by the Italian guns that bristle from them, and when precipitates death and destruction. Far to the left Trščič lies silent. Farther off the Adriatic inundated the low-lying plains shimmers in the glaring sun, densely receding it leaves a morass in its wake.

On the evening of June 1 we receive a wired order bidding for immediate cover, for the plane is scheduled to appear at 8 p. m. And truly toward midnight a monstrosity zooms high over us toward Gorica and returns to Furlan fixed in the course of our sky sweeping searched.

It has been determined that the region does not promise a tactically valuable enough and prolonged bombardment consequently drawn out and away to the western sector, indicated positions, however, by a small contingent of Guards who are judged sufficient to defend.

We soon reach the scene of the future, and where in a week the enemy's fire was a crushing force.

In Gradiska, Zdravščina, Italian troops are slowly moving and on several occasions with mingled feelings of awe and advance and fumbles with fire.

The first offensive begins. Distress follows the lead that sprays and chops the blow of bursting grenades completely fall to pieces. All through these nights we are scraggly heaps down the mountainside by raging downpours whatever remains of our poor concealed before, and I have rarely seen a night darker after.

DOPISI

Cleveland, O.

Mlade smrt strelja, stare kosi, v vojni pa trumoma mori, pravi pregovor. Teden dni pred veliko nočjo je za vedno zatisnil oči rojak in sobrat Jacob Debevc, star komaj 48 let, član društva št. 20 JSKJ v Gilbertu, Minn. Pokojnik je bil rojen v vasici Lipšenje ob Križni gori na Notranjskem, odkoder je lep razgled na Cerkiško jezero in dalec na okoli po hribih in dolinah, zaraščenih z gozdovi. Tam blizu teče sedanja jugoslovansko-laska meja, kjer nam je požrešni tujec ugrabil lep kos Slovenije. Vasica Lipšenje je blizu starodavnega. Loža. Tam blizu je mala romarska cerkvica, kjer romarji z zombi vlečajo za vrv zvonca, kar baje pomaga, da zobje ne bolj ali da ozdravijo.

Pokojni Jacob Debevc je prišel v Ameriko pred 30 leti in je delal v tukajšnjih železničnih rudnikih 17 let. Tu zapušča soprogo, dva sina, hčer in brata, bratranca in sestrično na Evelethu, Minn., v Barbertonu, O., pa enega brata. En brat in ena sestra pa živita v Jugoslaviji. Anton Tratar, tajnik.

Kašne tri tedne pred njegovo smrtnjo sva se še skupaj vozila v avtobusu in videti je bil zdrav in čvrst, da sem ga na tem blagroval. Bohalec pa je na neki želodčni bolezni in se je moral podvreti operaciji, osem dni po operaciji pa je izdihnil. Naj mu bo ohranjen blag spomin, sorodnikom pa budi tem potom izraženo sožalje.

Vsem članom in članicam društva Napredni Slovenci, št. 155 JSKJ, in drugim rojakom tega okrožja naznanjam, da bo naše društvo priredilo veselico na večer 25. aprila. Veselica bo prirejena v proslavo enajstletnice društvenega obstanka in se bo vršila v S. N. Domu. Za dobro godbo bo poskrbel znani Louis Mihačič iz Windsor Heights, W. Va. Vstopnina za moške bo 25, za ženske 15 centov. Začetek ob 7. uri zvečer.

Ako se že ustaviti kak relifni sklad za ostarele člane, bi morali gledati, da v to svrhu prihranimo denar kje drugje. Nas stroškovni sklad je močan in, kakov razumem, je v istem toliko denarja, da ne bo treba takih posebnih naklad za stroške konvencije, kakov je običaj menda pri vseh drugih sličnih organizacijah. Od tu bi se moroda lahko nekaj vzel za relifni sklad. Delegati na konvenciji naj bi si ne določili višjih dnevnih kot $6.00. Skrbelo naj bi se, da bi se konvencija kolikor mogoče skrajšala, kar bi spet pomenilo lep prihranek. Vsako društvo naj bi dalo svojemu delegatu pismena navodila; tudi to bi konvencijo skrajšalo.

Sobrata John Zalar in Jozef Grdin poročata o doseganjem delu konvenčnega pripravljalnega odbora, v kolikor se isto tiče odsek za prireditve. Po daljši debati je bilo zaključeno, da to predkonvenčno pripravljalno delo prav za pravne spade več v področje Federacije, ampak clevelandskim društvom JSKJ, predvsem tistim, ki so se priglasila za sodelovanje v tem pogledu. Izvoljeni so potrebeni odbori in dolžnost vsakega teh odborov je, da po najboljši možnosti izvede predkonvenčne priprave, Finleyville, Pa.

Moram se spet malo oglašati v svet, sicer mi vest ne da miru. Kakor večina drugih dopisnikov, začenjam tudi jaz z delavskimi razmerami. Kar se isti, kaj je bilo treba, zato kašča dolžnost da tudi mi nujno pomagamo, kolikor nam je pač potrebo. Pridite torej vse, ki ste slovensko, "odprite svoja roke, pomagajte našim rojakom, ki jih je zadelo.

John Lamuth, državni uradnik društva št. 30 JSKJ.

Pri tej priliki naj še enkrat omenim, da bo naše društvo sv. Frančiška, št. 148 JSKJ priredilo veselico na večer 25. aprila, dasi je bilo to že naznajeno in ni več novica. Veselica se bo vršila v S. N. Domu v Hackettu, Pa., in se bo pričela ob 7. uri zvečer. Igrala bo dobro znana godba Martina Sero. Za dobro postrežbo bo poskrbel odbor. Vsi člani našega društva, člani sosednjih društev JSKJ in vsi rojaki in rojakinje v tem okrožju so vladljivo vabljeni na poset te naše veselice. Vsi bodo dobrodošli in vsem bomo skušali po najboljši možnosti postreči. Na svidenje torej na večer 25. aprila v S. N. Domu v Hackettu!

Za društvo št. 148 JSKJ:
Frank Pernishek, predsednik.

Verona, Pa.

Svoječasno je bilo poročano, da bo društvo "Gorska Vila," še. 175 JSKJ priredilo veselico na dan 25. aprila. Tem potom sporočam, da se veselica NE bo vršila, to pa zaradi poplavne katastrofe, ki je zadevala našo naselbino. Tako je sklenilo članstvo društva Gorska Vila št. 175 JSKJ.

Anton Tratar, tajnik.

Milwaukee, Wis.

Odločila sem se nekaj napisati glede naših bodočih pravil, ker 15. konvencija JSKJ je z vsakim tednom bližje. Jaz se nikakor ne strinjam s priporočilom, da bi se asesment za bolniški in odškodninski asesment zvišal na 85 centov za tiste, ki so zavarovani za en dolar dnevne bolniške podpore, in na 50 centov za tiste, ki so zavarovani za pol dolarja dnevne podpore. Res je naša bratska dolžnost, da gledamo na naše stare člane in jim po možnosti pomagamo. Toda asesment ne sme dvigniti, če hočemo, da bo naša Jednota napredovala v članstvu. Pomisliti moramo, da bi imeli s takim zvišanjem višje asesmente, kakov jih imajo druge slične organizacije, in to bo neveč časa, ne čutili doliči tega zvišanja, ker smo se že nekako privadili izrednega asesmenta po pet centov v sklad enemoglih, toda misliti moramo na tiste, ki jih želimo pridobiti.

Pričitan je bil zapisnik prejšnje seje in je bil sprejet. Nato je prečitalo pismo od društva št. 108 v Girardu, O., v katerem se navajajo vzroki zakaj je društvo izstopilo iz Federacije; pismo se je vzel na znanje.

Sledi poročila glavnih odbornikov. Sobrat J. N. Rogelj poroča glede prisostvovanja na zborovanju Zveze JSKJ društva v zapadni Pennsylvaniji; sobrat A. J. Terbovec poroča glede oglaševanja naše bodoče konvencije in predkonvenčnih aktivnosti v lokalnih angleških listih. Poroča tudi o poplavni katastrofi, ki je prizadela večje število naših članov v državi Pensylvaniji. (Z ozirom na to je bilo na popoldanski seji sklenjeno, da se iz federacijske blagajne daruje vsota $10.00 v odpomožni fond za poplavne prizadete člane.) Sobrat L. M. Kolar, zastopnik angleško poslujočih društev in športni komisar, poroča o kegljaški tekmi J. S. K. Jednote v Waukeganu, ki je določena za 19. aprila, in vabi člane, da bi se iste po možnosti udeležili. Poročila se vzemajo na znanje.

Sobrat A. Okolish poroča, da se bo pri pravilih udeležil stvarnega razmotrovanja prigotovih točkah. Pri popoldanski seji je svojo obljubo častno izvršil. Zbornica je bila mnenja, da je njegova navzočnost neobhodno potrebna na vseh federacijskih sejah.

Sobrata John Zalar in Jozef Grdin poročata o doseganju delu konvenčnega pripravljalnega odbora, v kolikor se isto tiče odsek za prireditve.

Točka 305 naj bi se spremeni v toliko, da se operacijska podpora ne plača, če član umre pet dni po operaciji. Operacije stanejo velikega denarja in zdravnik zahtevajo plačo takoj po izvršitvi iste, četudi bolnik umre. Znanih mi je več takih slučajev. Ta točka naj se torej popravi, ker vse plačujemo asesmente v odškodninski sklad.

Točka 309 naj doloca, da mora biti društveni uradnik le član, ki ni uradnik društva druge organizacije. Nihče ne more z enako navdušenostjo služiti dveh gospodoma.

V splošnem so naša sedanja pravila dobra in jih po mojem mnenju ne bo treba dosti popravljati. Ako nam bo mogoče ustanoviti relifni sklad za stare člane, bo v veliko pomoč za stare člane, toda nikakor ne bi smeli v to svrhu zvišati asesmenta. Vsako zvišanje asesmentov bo nam zvezalo roke pri pridobivanju novih, mladih članov. Brez pridobivanja novih članov pa bo Jednota začela nazadovati in tega ne smemo dovoliti.

Upam, da se še kateri drugi oglaši in pove svoje mnenje glede tega. V razpravah in debatih se bistrijo pojmi in iz mnogih sugestij bomo mogli izbrati nekaj, kar bo najboljše in najbolj praktično za našo J. S. K. Jednoto.

ZAPISNIK ZBOROVANJA FEDERACIJE JSKJ DRUŠTEV V DRŽAVI OHIO, KI SE JE VRŠILO 5. APRILA V S. N. DOMU V CLEVELANDU.

Predsednik Karl Škulj je otvoril sejo ob pol deseti uri in določilne s primernim nagovorom in pozivom k delovanju za korist in napredek JSKJ. Odborniki Federacije so vsi navzvoči. Po zastopnikih so reprezentirana sledišča društva: 6, 37, 44, 71, 103, 127, 132, 137, 173, 180, 186 in 195. Od glavnih odbornikov so navzvoči I. nadzornik Janko N. Rogelj, Louis M. Kolar, II. podpredsednik, in urednik Nove Dobe Anton J. Terbovec, od glavnih porotnikov pa predsednik glavnega porotnega odbora Anton Okolish iz Barbertona. Sprejet.

Prva priporočana točka je, da naj bi bodo ženske članice deležne bolniške podpore ob času priemembre življenja, z dnem zdravniškega obiska in prijavljanja pri tajniku. Sprejet.

Družba priporočana točka je, da naj bi bili člani mlađinskega čudeža, takoj deležni vseh obveznosti in ugodnosti članov odraslega oddelka. Sprejet.

Trečta točka je podobna nasvetu glavnega tajnika, torej se sprejme, kakor je bila že odobrena po odboru za pravila, s pogojem, priporočenim od društva št. 44, da se pod nikakim pogojem ne sme zvišati asesmenta.

Nato je bilo sklenjeno, da se

prihodnja seja Federacije vrši

1. nedeljo v juniju v S. N. Domu v Clevelandu; začetek ob 9. uri zjutraj. — S tem je bil dnevni red izčrpan in predsednik Karl Škulj je zaključil zborovanje ob 3. uri popoldne.

BLAGOSLOV ZEMLJE

(Prevedel Rudolf Kresal)

(Nadaljevanje)

Pridržala je konja, Izaku vzela otroka, in dejala, naj zabo in šivalni strci pomakne skupaj, potem da bo Leopoldina lahko ležala v zadnjem delu voze. Tam je ne bo prav nič treslo, kakšna nemnost je to! — Izak stori, kakor mu reče, zavije majhno hčerkko v kožo in ji pod glavo polči svoj jopič. Potem vozijo dalje.

Mož in žena gresta peš in se pogovarjata o marsičem. Solnce sije do poznega večera in sapo je topla. Oline — kje pa spi po navadi? vpraša Inger. — V izbi. — Tako, in fanta? — Ta dva spita v svoji lastni postelji in izbi, še prav tako, kakor tedaj, ko si bila odšla. — Neprestano te opazujem, pravi Inger, prav tak si kakor poprej. In koliko bremen so tvoja pleča prenesla skozi puščobō tja gori in niso zato prav nič slabša. — O, ne. Ampak kaj sem mislil reči: Ali si lahko prestala vsa ta leta? — O, Izak je bil ves ginjen, ob tem vprašanju se mu je tresel glas. Inger je odgovorila. Kajpa, da se ne morem pritoževati.

Moralna sta se izpovedati od srca in Izak je vprašal, ali ni trudna in ali bi se raje peljala. — Ne, hvala, je odgovorila Inger. Toda ne vem, kaj mi je, odkar sem prestala morsko bolezen, sem neprenehoma lačna. — Ali bi še kaj jedla? — Da, če preveč ne zadržujem. O, ta Inger, ona sama pač ni bila lačna, ampak Izaka je še privoščila, saj je bil svojo zadnjo južino pretrgal s stebrom rese.

Ker je bil večer topel in jasen in je bila pred njima še dolga pot, sta začela spet jesti.

Inger je vzela iz zaboja manjši zavoj in je dejala: Nekaj stvari imam za mala dva. Pojdova tja-le h grmovju, tam je soleno. — Sedla sta pod grm in Izaker je pokazala reči za otroke: lične naravnice z zaponkami, pisanke z vzglidi za lepo pisanje, za vsakega po en svinčnik, za vsakega žepni nož. Zase je imela izvrstno knjigo. Tu-le poglej, moje ime je zapisano, molitvenik je. Dobila ga je od ravnatelja za spomin. Izak je vse občudoval s tihimi besedami. Pokazala je tudi precej ovratnikov, ki so bili Leopoldinini, in Izak je dala črno ovratno ruto, ki se je svetila kakor žida. — Kaj, to naj dobim jaz? je vprašal. — Da, to je zate. — Izak jo je previdno vzel v roke in jo božal. — Ali ni lepa? — Ah, lepa! S to bi lahko šel po vsem svetu! Toda njegove roke so bile tako raskave, da so na čudoviti židi povsod obvisele, kamor jih je položil.

Zdaj ni imela Inger ničesar več pokazati; ko je vse spet zavila, je sedela tako, da so se videla njena meča v rdeče pisanih nogavicah. — Hm! To so brž ko ne mestne nogavice? je vprašal Izak. — Da, toda vozla — pletla, kakor pravimo mi tam, sem jih sama. Prav dolge nogavice so, čez koleno, glej tu-le... Tuk za tem je slišala sebe šepetati: Ti — ti si še zmerom tisti — kakor si bil!

Kmalu zatem so se napotili dalje. Inger sedi na vozu in vodi konja. Tudi zavoj kave sem prinesla s seboj pravi, toda danes je ne boš mogel pokusiti, ker še ni žgana. — S tem se ti tudi ni treba prav nič ubijati, je odvrnil.

Čez nekaj časa solnce spet zaide. Hladno postaja. Inger stopi z voza in gre peš. Leopoldino zavijeta bolj tesno v kožo in se smehljata, kako da more tako dolgo spati. Potem mož in žena kramljata spotoma. Poslušati Inger, je bilo zdaj res pravo veselje, nihče bi ne mogel govoriti lepše, kakor je zdaj govorila Inger.

Ali nimamo štirih krav? vpraša Inger. — O, ne, zdaj jih imamo več, je ponosno odgovoril, osem jih imamo. — Osem krav! — Da, če stejemo še bik. — Ali ste maslo prodajali? — O, kajpada, in jajca. — Kaj imate tudi kokoši? — Da, kaj misliš. In prašiča, Inger od samega začudenja skoro da ne verjame svojim ušesom in za trenutek ustavi konja: Ptro! A Izak je ponosen in bi jo rad povsem premagal. Geissler, ki dejal, saj veš, Geissler; ta je bil prad kratkim pri-nas. — Res? — Da, in je bakreni hrib kupil od mene. — Aja. Kaj pa je to, bakreni hrib? — Hrib, ki je iz bakra. Leži gori v hribih ob vsej severni strani jezera. — Tako. In to je kaj, za kar si prejel denar? — Kakopak, Geissler ni mož, ki bi jemal zastonj. — Koliko si pa dobil? — Hm. Tega ne boš verjela, ampak dve sto tolarije. — Toliko si pa dobil! je vzkliknila Inger in ji spet za trenutek ustavila konja: Ptro! — Dobil, da. — Ah, ti si velik!

Bilo je res veselje Inger tako-le spravljati v začudenje in ji zbujati zavest, da je bogata ženska; zato je Izak še dodal, da nima dolgov ne pri trgovcu ne kje drugje. In ne samo, da se Geisslerjevih dve sto tolarijev ni dotaknil, ampak jih ima poleg teh še sto šestdeset čez. Torej imata dovolj tehten vzrok, da sta hvaležna Bogu. Govorila sta še dalje o Geisslerju in Izaker je lahko posvedala, kaj je bil vse storil, da so jo izpustili. Tako gladko le ni šlo. S stvarjo se je dolgo ukvarjal in je bil večkrat pri ravnatelju. Geissler je napisal tudi neko pisanje in ga odpolsal samemu državnemu svetu in nekaterim drugim oblastem, ali to je bil storil za ravnateljevim hrbotom, in ko je ravnatelj izvedel, se je razjezik in se čutil užaljenega, sicer pa kaj drugega ni bilo pričakovati. Toda Geissler se ni dal stlačiti v vrečo. Zahteval je, da me iznova zaslisijo in obnove razpravo in splet vse, česar se je bil domisil. In tedaj je kralj moral podpisati.

Predjšnji pristav Geissler je bil za oba ta dva človeka zmerom dober gospod in večkrat sta pomisli, zakaj je bil prav za prav delal vse to; vse je delal zgolj za zahvalo, ni ga bilo moči umeti. Inger je govorila z njim v Drontheimu, vendar pa ga nikakor ni mogla pogrustati. Vsi ostali v občini so mu deveta brig, razen mi, je izjavila Inger. — Kaj, to je dejal? — Da, na občino je ves divji. In da ji bo že pokazal! — je dejal. — Tako. — In da se bodo že še kesali, da so ga izgubili, je dejal.

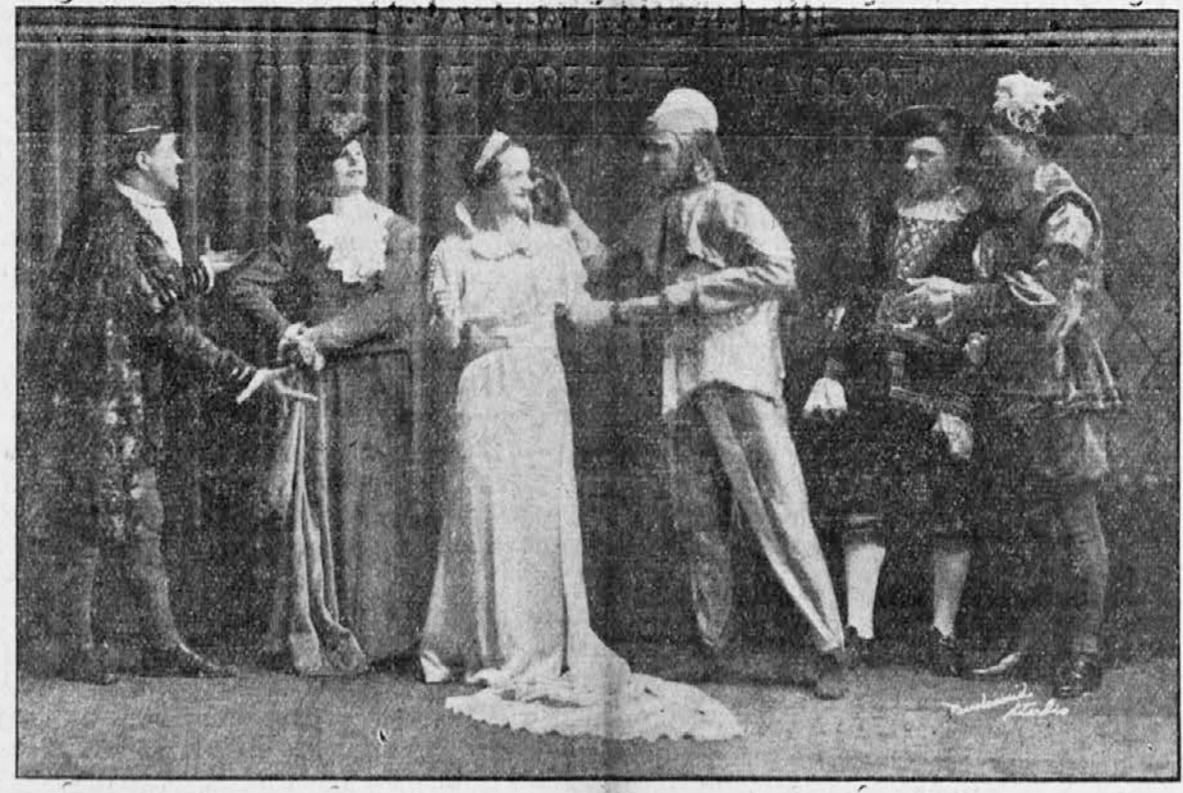

Zdaj so dospeli iz gozda in pred seboj so zagledali Sellanrao. Bilo je več poslopij kakor poprej, hiše so bile lepo popleskane; Inger se ni nič več spoznala in je sunkoma ustavila konja: Meni da vendar ne boš dejal, da je to tam — da je to tam pri nas! je vzkliknila.

Mala Leopoldina se je nazadnje zbudila in se vzpel. Bila je dobro izpočita, vzdignila sta jo zo voza in šla je lahko sama! Ali gremo tja-le? je vprašala. — Da, ali ni lepo.

Gori pred hišo so se premikale majhne postavice. To sta bila Elizej in Sivert, ki sta bila na straži, in sta zdaj pritekla. Inger je bila v trenutku kakor prehlajena, popadla sta jo silen kašelj in nahod. Da, celo v oči ji je stopil prehlad, bile so polne solz. Na brodu se človek tako hitro prehladi, od samega nahoda dobi povsem mokre oči.

PRIZOR IZ OPERETE "MASCOT"

Slika kaže prizor iz krasne operete "Mascot," katero vprizori v nedeljo 26. aprila samostojni pevski zbor "Zarja" v Clevelandu, O. Prireditev se bo vršila v Slovenskem Narodnem Domu na St. Clair Ave. in se bo pričela ob treh popoldne.

ODMEVI IZ RODNIH KRAJEV

zaušnici, da je obležal v nezavesti in da se je moral zateči v bolnišnico. Vzrok smrti je možganska krvavitev. Orožniki so ugotovili, da je neka mladenka na Pobrežju videla počni skozi okno, kako je Draksler neka ženska prisolila zaušnici in pri tem rekla: "Na, tu imaš." Zdaj iščajo orožniki dotično žensko. Pokojni Draksler je bil božasten.

Bogataš je dajal svojim dečetom pasje meso. Novosadski dnevnik "Dan" poroča iz Sente, da je uvedena preiskava proti bogatemu posestniku Štefanu Fleischu, ki je svojim dñinarjem dal napraviti paprikaš iz pasjega mesa. Bogataš je hotel na svoji pristavi kolikor mogoče poceni izvršiti neka nudna dela. Najel je tri cigane, ki so prevzeli delo za samo hrano in zato, da bi jim posestnik prepustil svinjo, ki je poginila. Posestnik je svojemu slugi naročil, naj ubije starega psa in pripravi ciganom paprikaš. Paprikaš je ciganom teknil, samo meso se jim je zdelo pretrdo. Naslednji dan pa sluga, ki je star kakih 17 let, ni mogel krotiti svoje nagnjivosti. Pred delavci je začel bevskači, kakor pes, in ko so ga vprašali, zakaj to dela, jim je povedal, da so jedli pasje meso. Cigani so takoj pustili delo ter prijavili zadevo na občini in orožniki.

Zanimiva stava v splošno konstit. V Petrinji so se do zore zamudili v gostilni gostilničar Batinić, opančar Maglić in trgovec Čačić. Dobre volje so o marsičem razpravljali in, ko je pogovor nanasel na zanemarjenost ulic, je prišlo do zanimive stave. Gostilničar Batinić in opančar Maglić sta trgovcu Čačiću zatrjevala, da bosta do novih gred pometla dober kilometr ulic. Stava je znašala 180 Din. Možakarja, ki nista bila baš trdna na nogah, sta stavo dobila, delala sta dobre tri ure in vsa Petrinja je z velikim veseljem motrila vneta pometaca. 180 Din sta izročila skladu za podpiranje prebivalstva pasivnih krajev. V originalni stavi je bilo dokaj ironije na račun občinske uprave, ki se premalo briga za ulice, a ker je bilo med pometenjem po ulicah dosti hrupa in smeha, sta morala pometaca plačati 200 Din globe.

Strašne posledice bede v veliki hercegovski občini. V začetku meseca so bila oblastva obveščena da je v veliki hercegovski občini Drinovcih, ki šteje okrog 13,000 duš, zavladala strašna beda, ki so jo še povečale nedavne poplave. Občina je dobila za prvo pomoč okrog 8 vagonov koruze, a ta pomoč ni mogoča preprečiti strašnih posledic bede. Zaradi slabih zdravstvenih in socialnih razmer v občini in okolici se pojavljajo tudi epidemije. Deco ugonablja epidemijo ošpic, v vasi Zarogovini pa se je pojavil legar. Med decem in med odraslimi je mnogo smrtnih primerov, ker je glad vzel bolnikom vso odpornost proti epidemijam. V nekaterih vasiljih umrl 15 odstotkov obolelih otrok.

Ves občinski odbor na začetni klopi. Pred sodiščem v Kragujevcu so se znašli vsi člani bivše občinske uprave iz vasi Stanova v okolici Kragujevca. Ko so ga opozorili, da bi za svojo najdbo dolič več dobil, če bi se bil obrnil na saraješki muzej, ga je storjena lahkomiselnost tako potrila, da kaže zdaj znake slaboumnosti. K temu je prispevalo tudi praznoverje, ki napoveduje ljudem nesrečo, če dvigajo zakopan denar. Nesrečni Mujo zavija zdaj preostale novce v junje ter jih prenaša iz kota v kot. Noč in dan pa tudi prekopava svoje zemljišče in je nesposoben za vsako resno delo.
