Trail Blazers Lodge, No. 41. Denver, Colorado. It is realized that those few Trail Blazers who are attending the meetings quite regularly during these exceptionally busy days are doing so at a sacrifice.

Such parents certainly want their children to know these valuable facts. It should be made a part of their education. What insurance is and what it does should be explained to them as soon as they are old enough to understand these fundamental principles.

A total of 371 children have so far in the 35th Anniversary Campaign joined with hundreds of others in our splendid Juvenile Department. It is our job for the well-being of these children and in the interest of the Association to train and keep them interested in the principles of fraternalism.

A Request

Another appeal is hereby being issued that each lodge juvenile supervisor send me a report as to what is being done for the juveniles in his respective lodge. A report of the work and activities of each juvenile branch would be appreciated.

About those Juvenile applications - Keep 'Em Coming In! GEO. J. MIROSLAVICH, Sup. Juv. Supervisor.

SOMEWHERE IN IRAN

Somewhere in Iran, where the sun is like a curse And each day is followed by another slightly worse; Where the brick red dust blows thicker than the shifting desert sands, Where a Yank man dreams and wishes for greener, fairer lands.

Somewhere in Iran, where women are never seen, Where the sky is never cloudy, and the grass is never green, Where the jackal's nightly howl robs a man of blessed sleep, Where there isn't any whiskey, and the beer is never cheap.

Somewhere in Iran, where the mail is always late, Where a Christmas card in April is considered up to date, Where we never have a pay day, and we never have a cent - But we never miss the money, cause we never get it spent.

Somewhere in Iran, where the snakes and lizards play, Where a thousand more flies replace the ones you slay, Oh, take me back to DENVER, and let me hear that mission bell, For this God forsaken outpost is just a substitute for HELL.

(Editor's Note: The above poem was sent in by Frank Arko who is somewhere in Iran. Frank is the son of Mr. and Mrs. John Arko, 4725 Grant, Denver. Three other sons are in the Armed Forces, Edward being recently in Sicily, and the whereabouts of Leo and William was not known at this writing.)

Life Companies' Anti-Inflation Campaign

The "Life Insurance Companies of America," a group representing 80% of policyholders' legal reserves, have inaugurated an advertising campaign to persuade the public voluntarily to do the things which will halt the inflationary trend.

1. Buy and hold war bonds - to lend our country the money it needs to fight the war to victory. 2. Pay willingly your share of taxes - including increased taxes - that our country needs.

3. Provide for your own and your family's future by adequate life insurance and savings. 4. Reduce your debts as much as possible and avoid making needless new ones.

5. Buy only what you need and make what you have last longer. 6. Live faithfully by the rationing rules to conserve goods of which there are shortages.

7. Co-operate with our government's price and wage stabilization program. The movement of the life insurance companies is a real service to the nation and to the policyholders.

8. The initial advertisement in the series was under the title "Why Your Life Insurance Companies Urge You To Join the Campaign to Hold Down Prices." Seven things which the people may do were specified:

9. The one book that always has a sad ending is the check-book. "My poor brother has just reached the end of his rope."

10. "Where are you going - to cheer him up?" "No, to cut him down."

11. A body of men holding themselves accountable to nobody ought not to be trusted by anybody. - Thomas Paine.

12. "When a woman goes on a drastic diet, it's either because she wants to retain either her girlish figure or her boyish husband."

13. Keep the Record Straight Judge: "Are you the defendant in this case?" Rastus: "No, sah, I've got a lawyer to do my defendin'. I've de man what stole de chickens."

14. Boss: You say you can do anything? Can you wheel a barrow full of smoke? Jack: Yes, if you fill it, sir.

15. God will not seek thy race Nor will he ask thy birth; Alone He will demand of thee, What hast thou done on earth? - Persian.

16. "The happiness of your life depends upon the character of your thoughts. - Marcus Aurelius.

NAŠI ČETNIKI NA NANOSU

Pred nedavnim so listi poročali, da so naši četniki napadli laško kolono v bližini Sv. Vida...

Četniki, ki se držijo na nedostopnih vrhovih Nanosa, se spuščajo zvečer v dolino ter prežijo na Lahi ki grejo po rebrniški cesti...

Kasneje so dospela ponovna poročila o močnem delovanju četnikov na Nanosu.

Četniki, ki se držijo na nedostopnih vrhovih Nanosa, se spuščajo zvečer v dolino ter prežijo na Lahi ki grejo po rebrniški cesti...

niške ceste in na ratnini. Maščevali so se Lahi tudi nad Razdrčani in požgali nekaj hiš in gospodarskih poslopij...

Da imajo naši vipavski četniki precejšnjo moč nam dokazuje dejstvo, da so zavzeli vojaške utrbe...

Zelo živahno delujejo tudi pivski četniki na Snežniku. Ti četniki so v reški dolini pred kratkim spet pognali v zrak dva mosta.

Iz teh poročil vidimo, da Lahi celo v naših krajih niso varni in ljudstvo samo čaka prilike, da se jih iznebi.
