THE BROWN DERBY

Leonard Feeney, S. J.

Dear Al: You are still, officially, the Governor of the State of New York, and I should not address you with so much informality. I have a dread of being indecorous, and I generally speak of you as "Governor Smith" even to members of my own family...

which we Catholics may take credit. You have probably forgotten the incident altogether, but the newspaper reporter at your elbow put it down in black and white. They say you do not read many books and are not overfamiliar with the works of great literature...
