

PIERRE L'ERMITE: Zona z zaprtimi očmi

Na slepo srečo je vstopila. Precej ji je prišlo neko deklo naproti in jo prijazno ogovorilo: "Zelite, prosim, gospodična?"

ko kuje podkve za konje... Toda, ali je bilo to le hipen dojem? ... Ti ljudje tu niso bili podobni vrlim delavcem iz vasi; kar bala se je njih izvalnih, hudobnih in upornih pogledov in kretanj.

"Oprostite ... sem zelo nezkušena deželanka pa bi rada izvedela, kaj je treba storiti, da se pride v službo podjetja kot je to-le."

Mimo je prišel branjevec s prekajenim mesom, potiskajoč pred seboj ročni vozček. Rozalina je kupila pri njem malo gnjati in vzela iz svoje torbice kos kruha; sedla je ondi na klopi in začela jesti ob misli, da kosi prvič v svojem življenju kar tako na uličnem pločniku.

"Kako prav so imeli naši očtetje v svojih starih pregovorih! ... Studenec, ne bom je pil, tvoje vode! ..." je vzklila.

Zdaj pa je postal ta studenec njena edina rešitev. ... Nič ne maraj, moja uboga Rozalina! ... Ti si nekdanja motrila življenje s prilično drugačnimi očmi! ... Toda ti nisi prva ... in ne boš zadnja, ki doživlja taka presenečenja ... Nič ne maraj! ... Ne glej življenja v sanjah ... Življenje je kruta stvarnost. Ne daj se vplivati po lahkem diletantstvu tistih, ki bodo, sedeč v ozadju prijetnega salona s nogami v razkošnih copatah in v zavesti svojega imetja na tekočem računu v Franciji ali v inozemstvu, obojajali Rozalino de Cressy, ker je postala sobarica ... Le-ti ne vedo, kaj pomenja, biti lačen. Ti pa si bila pravkar lačna ... in boš zopet lačna, še nočjo ...

ponudbo počem način, da pride do njega. Odbila ga je resko, misleč, da se dobe zanjo tudi drugi prav tako pošteni načini za zaslužek. No, sedaj je pritisnjena ob zid ... Nima ničesar ... ne vidi ničesar.

Proti pol sedmim zvečer stopa znova po stopnicah pri Sv. Francišku Saleškem, da pogleda na slepo srečo, ali je gospod župnik še tamkaj. Če bi bil odšel? ... Strašno!

Na stoletnih drevesih žvrgole in frfotajo ptice. Zanje je življenje enostavno, takšno kot ga je Bog uredil. Tukaj pa je stopila v izumetičnost in zamotanost mesta, kjer mora človek vedno imeti denarico v roki, če hoče se, jesti, leči, si ustanoviti ognjišče, vzgajati otroke.

ime. Rosalina pl. Cressy ne morejo in ne bodo mogli nikoli sprejeti za sobarico. Mladenka se spusti v jok. Duhovnik jo prepusti nekaj hipov njemu upravičeni bolesti. "Izokajate se ... boste petem močnejši ... Le plakajte! Toda — pravim vam zopet — tako so delali že vaši predniki pred revolucijo ... Ko niso imeli več denarja — kar se jim je primerilo dokaj često — so vtaknili svoj grb v žep in odšli, da ga zopet pozlate s delom, celo z ročnim delom, toda pod drugim imenom. Na ta način so se naselili po Indiji in Kanadi ..."

"Kako prav so imeli naši očtetje v svojih starih pregovorih! ... Studenec, ne bom je pil, tvoje vode! ..." je vzklila. "Kako prav so imeli naši očtetje v svojih starih pregovorih! ... Studenec, ne bom je pil, tvoje vode! ..." je vzklila.

Če vam se vam morda deli spočetka pretir, vidite zdaj, da nisem obojen. Zame ste vi uboga slobica, ki mi jo saupa Gospod ... Imam vtis, kot da sta vaš oče in vaša mati tukaj ... vidita me, ališta me, sodita me ... Pred njima vam rečem, Marija Durand: Ne zapustim vas nikdar!"

Če bi bil odšel? ... Strašno! Prav v tistem hipu zapira župnik vrata svoje pisarne in se pripravlja k odhodu. Kakor hitro ugleda mladenko, razume. Usoda! "Ste kaj našli?" "Ne, gospod župnik, ničesar, prav ničesar nisem našla! A hotela sem pokazati dobro voljo in sem šla pogledat okolišč, kjer stanujejo vaši prijatelji ... Grozno! ... Ostudno! — Prebila sem tamkaj samo dve uri, pa sem prisostvovala presunljivim stvarim, ki mi bodo ostale za zmeraj v spominu."

 Program to Honor 15th Anniversary of Society, 20th Juvenile Department Jubilee
WILL BLESS, DEDICATE NEW FLAG
 S. D. Z., S. W. U., Cadets, Drill Teams to Parade With Band; Supreme Officers to Attend

Cleveland, O.—With one of the largest programs ever attempted by a local KSKJ society, the St. Joseph's, No. 169, July 19 will commemorate the 15th anniversary of the founding of the society by the late Rev. Joseph Skur.

Color and pomp is promised when the 12 lodges promising participation in full regalia starts its line of march at 9:30 a. m. from the Slovenian Home, Holmes Ave., to St. Mary's Church, where the Rev. Ludwig Kuznik, spiritual director of the society and acting pastor, will officiate at a Solemn High Mass at 10 o'clock. The Rev. Milan Slaje, pastor of SS. Cyril and Methodius' Parish, Lorain, O., and former spiritual director of the society, will deliver the sermon.

In the array of color will be the lodge's blue and gold band, the Cadet Corps, St. Helen's drill team, the Marie Prinsland drill team of the Slovenian Women's Union, and the Novak Honor Guards of the Slovenian Mutual Benefit Association.

The entrance to the church will be fittingly decorated by Louis Simenc's committee.

Following the blessing of the lodge's new flag, supreme officers and visitors will be served a luncheon in the Slovenian Home, Holmes Ave.

The lodge, largest unit of its kind, will have as its guests supreme officers: Frank Opeka, president; Joseph Zalar, secretary; John Germ, first vice president; Frank Gospodarich, financial secretary; Dr. M. F. Oman, medical examiner; Mrs. Mary Hochevar, auditor; G. Panchur, juror; Ivan Zupan, editor. In addition to the national officers, subsidiary societies will be represented by 18 sets of officials.

The scene of activity will be gradually changed at 1 p. m., when an automobile parade, including the band, cadets and sports teams, starts for Pintar's farm, where a full afternoon and evening program will await local and visiting KSKJ people.

The unfurling of the new flag is scheduled for 2 p. m., and will be followed by short addresses by the national officers. The afternoon program will also feature the lodge's band in a short concert enlivened with Slovenian melodies.

The drill teams, under the direction of John Susnik, will be in the limelight in a series of maneuvers starting at 4 p. m. The St. Joseph's crack indoor baseball team, piloted by Manager Frank Verhotz, who has led his boys to win nine of thirteen games played, will be pitted against a strong local team. The Jays, uniformed in blue and gold, are winning the favor of the local Interlodge fans and should be one of the main attractions on the big day.

Interspersing the program proper will be a set of games, races and the usual picnic entertainment. Kristoff's popular orchestra will be in the dance pavilion and will furnish the music for dance lovers.

The full-day program as outlined by the society and its committee of 25, headed by John Pezdirtz, secretary, is intended as a commemoration of the 20th anniversary of the juvenile department, in addition to the society's jubilee and the occasion of the blessing and dedication of the new flag.

ST. LOUIS LODGE TO PICNIC SUNDAY

St. Louis, Mo.—The Sacred Heart Society, No. 70, will hold a picnic Sunday, July 19, at the St. Joseph's Croatian Church grounds afternoon and evening.

There will be dancing, refreshments and an old-fashioned barbecue. Come out, all of you members, young and old, seniors and juniors, and enjoy yourselves. Let's make it a big success. Don't forget the date, place and time.

CAGE PLAYERS ASKED TO FILE NAMES FOR ROSTER

All members of St. Joseph's, No. 169, wishing to play basketball with the society's team in the Cleveland Interlodge circuit next fall are asked to give their names to Secretary John Pezdirtz, 15408 Holmes Ave., P.O. Box 1618, not later than July 19.

With the six-month membership ruling now adopted by the league, it is urgent that rosters be filed shortly.

Slovenians Put Life in Expo World's Street

Cleveland, O.—Take a group of Slovenian people and add real Slovenian melodies in their midst and you have genuine merriment.

That's what the Progressive Slovenian Merchants' Association is doing in its Slovenska gostilna Ljubljana, one of the liveliest spots in the Streets of the World of the local Great Lakes Exposition.

KSKJ Plays on Circle of Town Square

The attractive young men and women (this comment from visitors) arrayed in Slovenian national costumes add color to the center and at intervals stage folk dances. The group also performs on the circle of the town square and has met with such approval that the expo officials have booked them for three performances per week.

The Germ family of musicians and dancers is well represented. The visitor will find Alphonse, Milan, Rudy, Vera and Mrs. Mary in costume and ready to entertain. The Germs are all members of the KSKJ.

The St. Joseph's KSKJ Band augmented the Slovenian nationality's contribution last Friday when it played in a half-hour concert on the town square. The presentation, under the direction of Louis Opalek and Charles Tercek, included "Slovenian Medley," arranged by the bandmaster, "Mladi vojaki" and "Hej Slovani," "Little Giant" and "Washington Post." Following the concert the boys met in the Slovenska gostilna where they sang and danced until closing time.

BOOSTER TILT ON AMBRIDGE PICNIC BILL

Ambridge Invites All Jays to Annual Picnic

Ambridge, Pa.—Ambridge Kay Jays bid for summer social activity is in the form of a picnic, to be held Sunday, Aug. 2, at Radakovich's Grove at Ambridge.

The Canonsburg Boosters will meet the Ambridge Boosters in the mushball attraction, other games will be amusing as the tug-of-war between various groups.

At the dance pavilion a combination orchestra will render Slovenian and modern tunes throughout the day.

All the KSKJ lodges and booster clubs are cordially invited to attend Ambridge's annual picnic.

"DUTCH" IN FORM BUT JOES LOSE TO FERLIN HAWKS

Three Jays Absent, on Sick List

Cleveland, O.—Quite a crowd saw the exciting game that was played at St. Mary's field Thursday evening between the St. Joseph Sports and the Ferlin Hawks, which ended in the Ferlin Hawks winning 3 to 2. The Hawks made the three runs in the beginning of the game and Dutch's remarkable pitching held them there the rest of the game.

St. Joes were handicapped by having three men on the sick list. Pitcher Steele was sick in bed, Frank Marzlikar was out with a sprained finger and Ed Novinc was nursing a swollen hand.

The Ferlin Hawks played a good game and credit should be given to Pitcher Nosan for his work.

WINS PRIZE

Joliet, Ill.—Mrs. Rose C. Dornic, member of the Joliet KSKJ Booster Club, won first prize in a contest sponsored by the National Cleaners.

TO RECOGNIZE SLAVIC, CZECH CONTRIBUTIONS

Lewisburg, Pa.—The substantial contribution of Slavic and Czech races to the development of the state of Pennsylvania will be duly recognized at the Pennsylvania Folk Festival to be held in the Memorial Stadium at Bucknell University, Lewisburg, Pa., July 30 to Aug. 2.

This festival seeks to do honor to the men and women who have given so much in the form of labor and spiritual support to the transformation of the state from a wilderness to a great empire, and also seeks to perpetuate the truly cultural folklore they brought from the Old Country and that they have further developed here.

St. Josephs to Go to Town and Back Next Sunday

Cleveland, O.—Well, is everybody all set for the 19th of July at Pintar's farm? St. Joes are going to town and back again that day. They have everything anyone could want for a real time. A big parade in the morning, nice, comfortable busses to take you out to the farm all afternoon, the Kristoff boys to play for you, the band to entertain you and a wonderful exhibition of drill work by the Cadets, to say nothing of the ball game scheduled in the evening by the St. Joe's team. Manager Verhotz promises an exciting game.

By the way, did you see the bright colored uniforms those boys have? Blue and orange topped with orange caps, silk if you please. You can see them from afar with those colorful uniforms. Lady Luck was against them Thursday night when the Ferlin Hawks took the game, 3 to 2. We hope those sick boys will be up and at it again in time for the next game. A few of the boys didn't wear their jerseys Thursday evening and when Joe Anzlovic was asked why, he said, "Gee, it's too hot!" Come on, all you baseball fans, get out and root for your team and show Manager Verhotz that we're right back of him and his team.

Just a tip before we end this chat, be sure to attend the meeting Thursday the 16th.

RAIN, COOL WEATHER TO BRING PROSPECTS OUT FROM HIDING

Seven States Show Membership Gain in Letargic Period

Though a blistering heat wave has stopped all but necessary operations while people sought cool spots during last week's heat wave, it didn't completely stop the progress of the current KSKJ Boosters Campaign.

Seven states showed an increase in points for last week's work, according to the report issued by Golden Booster Secretary Zalar. It is a known fact that recruiting new members calls for a lot of contacts and proverbial pavement pounding. With reports from various cities stating that heat buckled pavements and reduced some asphalt stretches to the consistency of bubbling tar, the KSKJ workers went on with their work.

That there was a lull in last week's activity is not necessarily a sign that KSKJ workers halted. Reports show that. Rather it was more a problem of seeking prospects who left their homes in search of cool spots at parks and beaches.

A series of refreshing showers should enliven the campaign materially.
