SCRAMBLINGS

BY JOURNAL JESSIE

Have you heard about the new Slovene Art School, which is being conducted under the supervision of Mr. Gregory Perusek, at the Slovene Home! Well—the first enrollment took place last Saturday and, up-to-date, there have already been 34 students who have reported.

Classes for persons over 14 years of age, will be held on Thursday evenings, beginning at 7:30.

Children's classes will take place on Saturday afternoons, as previously stated.

The whole project is under the sponsorship of the Slovene National Home and donations for the upkeep are welcome!

Members of "Carniola Tent" of the Macabees, are holding a monstrous dance at the Slovene Auditorium on Saturday, Nov. 28.

Vic Svetee and his Silvertone Orchestra will play in the upper hall, and the Zupancic Trio will furnish the music in the lower hall.

Admission to both halls is only 50 cents.

The Pioneers are enthusiastically preparing for their Fourth Anniversary Dance to be held at the Slovene National Auditorium on Dec. 8, 1931.

Al Kane and his orchestra will be on hand to furnish the music!

Well—guess this is our last chance to remind you of the Beacon Dance, which will be held at the Slovene Home on the corner of Prince avenue and East 109 street. Beacon Melody Pilots will play. Be there!

The Spartan girls are giving a big chicken dinner for the boys of their club at Petkovsek's farm this Saturday night. There will be fine music—a great dinner and lots of fun for everybody!

Oh—it's needless to wonder how it'll turn out! We know! It's gonna be a great party!

We see where the Journal Undernourishment Fund is getting along just fine. Let's all pull together and keep going for the remainder of this winter.

Remember to reserve the 8th of December for the Loyalty Dance, which will be held for the benefit of their basketball team at the Slovene Home in Holmes avenue.

We'll be seein' you there!

The Tuesday night socials, which are being held at the St. Clair Neighborhood Center, under the direction of Mr. Heinie Martin, superintendent, are undoubtedly a great thing for this community!

The first of these Socials was held last Tuesday evening and there was quite a crowd present.

The "Ladies Club" is holding a dance at the Slovene Home in Holmes avenue, this Saturday evening!

As usual, there will be refreshments and dancing to accordion music

PIONEERS HOLD FOURTH BIRTHDAY DANCE DEC. 6

Interlodge Baseball Champions Throw Dance at Slovene National Home Next Sunday—Good Music Promised

The Pioneers, CFU lodge and champs of the Interlodge Baseball League are giving a dance at the Slovene National Home in St. Clair avenue, Sunday, Dec. 6.

Plan Good Dance

Sunday night's dance will mark the Pioneer's fourth birthday. To fittingly celebrate this occasion, the committee has been working hard to make this dance the biggest success of their history. Al Kane and his orchestra will play for dancers.

Are Very Active

The Pioneers have held numerous affairs in the past, and every undertaking has been a complete success. They have the reputation of being first-rate "fellows" when it comes to planning a dance or showing someone a good time.

The Pioneers are one of the most active groups in the neighborhood. The trophies which are displayed in the Journal show window at present can certify it. Moreover you may rest assured that they are just as good hosts as ball players.

GRUDGE BATTLE TO HEAD BOXING SHOW

Komar and Mordus' Fifth Encounter Expected to Steal Show on Boosters and Tenth Ward Fight Card, Dec. 4

BY JOE JARC

An evening of good entertainment in the form of a boxing show is promised by the promoters of a Boxing Benefit Show held under the combined auspices of the Royal Purple Booster Club and the Tenth Ward Community Club. The show will be held Friday, Dec. 4, at the K. of P. Ballroom at 1634 E. 55 street. With every bout a headliner the fans will see plenty of action. There will be sluggers to appease the desire of the blood-thirsty fans, clever boxing and fast footwork for those who prefer to see skillful performers and the best of all will be the exciting grudge fight between the two local rivals, Komar and Mordus.

At It Again

For some reason or other Komar and Mordus are always disputing as to who is the better man. To date Komar has the edge over Mordus in four meetings. But the latter promises to turn the tables in this fight. Komar states that he never did have any trouble with Mordus and the fight is "in the bag."

The main bout brings together two boys that have earned themselves a reputation in the war circle, Icky Mesnick, featherweight champ of Cleveland and Teddy Smith a Golden Gloves star. This ought to be a humdinger.

Local Lads to Display Wares

Supporting the main bout are seven naturals. Outstanding among them is the tussle between Joe Spacek, a semi finalist on the Golden Gloves tourney and Johnny Hodak, who is the Community Center champ in the 152 lb. class. This will be a gory fight.

DANCES IN BENEFIT

At a benefit for the unemployed at the Uptown theatre, last Wednesday night, Nov. 25, ten-year old Miss Jennie Zrvoeder performed as a dancer. She gave a "Pony" dance.

Miss Zivoder has taken lessons for some time from Mrs. Leona Hart, and a bright future is augured for her by her teacher, as at this young age she has already been recognized to dance in one of the biggest shows in the city.

Beacons Give Big Dance Tomorrow

SNPJ Lodge Holds Annual Dance at Slovene Labor Home, Prince Ave., With the Beacon Melody Pilots Furnishing the Music

An elaborate dance will be given by the Beacons, SNPJ lodge, tomorrow evening, Nov. 28, at the Slovene Labor Home Auditorium, 10814 Prince avenue.

The Beacon Melody Pilots have been engaged to furnish the music. Dancing will begin at seven p. m. and continue until the crow of the rooster is heard.

The Beacons also promise an added laughing attraction for the evening. They will not disclose what it is, being content to tell all inquirers to come to the dance and find out what it is.

Will be Big Affair

The annual dances of the Beacons, of which this one is the third, have all been put into the records of the biggest successes, and the Beacons promise tomorrow's affair will surpass all the others.

The Beacons want to see many Comrades, Strugglers, Loyalties, Progressives, New Eras and Zippers at their dance. They feel certain they will attend in large groups.

SLOVENE FARMERS SEND THIRD SUPPLY OF FOOD

Slovene Farmers from Geneva and Madison, (Ohio) Send Large Supply of Food to Poor in Cleveland; Rev. B. J. Ponikvar Distributes

The unemployed and poor in Cleveland were again remembered by the Slovene farmers of Madison and Geneva, Ohio, when they sent a large amount of fruit and vegetables to St. Vitus Parish, last week.

They also sent similar shipments to Collinwood and Newburgh.

Pastor Distributes

At St. Vitus the food was distributed by Rev. B. J. Ponikvar, pastor. He systemized the distribution and saw to it that the most needy were taken care of first. He also distributed the food according to the number of children in the family. In this way the food was given out justly to all who needed it most.

Grocers Deliver

After the food was sorted and marked, Slovene grocers came and delivered to the addresses of the poor.

This is the third shipment of food from the farmers, as they sent two others early in the fall.

Staff Busy Making Plans For Journal Unemployed Show

Cleveland Journal Unemployed Benefit Which Will Be Held Jan. 17, Is Taking on Form as Staff Plans Details

ALL ENTHUSED OVER IT

Plans Thus Far Call for Novel and Different Show the Like of Which Has Not Been Seen in Locality Before

BY FRANK A. SODNIKAR

Plans are rapidly being made for the Cleveland Journal Unemployed Benefit which will be held at the Slovene National Home in St. Clair avenue on Sunday, Jan. 17.

The Benefit will be the only affair which will be conducted and sponsored entirely by the younger set of Slovenes. It will be the young people's donation for relief of Unemployed Slovenes.

Program Not Complete

As yet, the program is not complete and not yet ready for publication. Much work and effort is connected with building up a program which will be different than any ever presented in the Slovene metropolis. The talent on the bill will be first rate and in the most has not been seen often in the neighborhood. This is what will make the affair different than any presented before.

Tickets Will Be Low

The complete program will be announced in a few weeks. You may rest assured, however, that it will be a most surprising and rich program.

The tickets for the Benefit will be on sale in the near future and will be priced low, in order to give everyone an opportunity to attend this biggest and best show ever given at the Slovene National Home.

Proceeds for Charity

The Cleveland Journal is sponsoring and promoting this Benefit on Jan. 17. All finances, however, will be handled by the Unemployed Relief Committee and the Community Welfare Club, the two organizations who will receive proceeds from the affair.

To date, many organizations have gone on record as favoring the movement and pledging their full-hearted support.

Congratulate Staff

Individuals have also indorsed the affair whole-heartedly. The office has received numerous letters congratulating the staff for taking a leading part in the community's charity program. We have received congratulations not only from Slovenes but

LUNDER ADAMIC DANCE

The Lunder Adamic Lodge No. 205 S. S. P. Z. will give a dance at the Slovene National Home, lower hall on Saturday, Dec. 5.

They will have an entirely new orchestra for the vent, the Weisenseel's Orchestra, which promises to keep everyone on the floor the entire evening. They auger that there will be not a single dead moment at their dance.

The lodge will also take care of refreshments, serving everyone to his entire satisfaction. They expect all fellow members as well as the general public to attend in large numbers.

MAKES DAYTON TEAM

Received a postcard from "Pozzy" Pozelnik, former football star at Latin and captain of the Orel gym classes. He informs that he made the first freshmen football team with Hoban and Bagdames of Latin. He must work hard, however, as the freshmen scrimmage with the varsity daily.

James Perlin, a Slovene who graduated from mCollinwood, is a freshman at Dayton also.

Library Announces Future Programs

Programs for Next Two Months Announced by St. Clair Branch Library; Many Slovene Programs Included in List

Programs which will be held at the St. Clair Branch Library during December and January have been announced this week. The major part of events are Slovene.

The entertainments are held every Tuesday at 8 p. m. at the auditorium of the Library, St. Clair and East 55 street. They are free to the public, but children are not admitted.

Slovene Concert

A lecture by Gustave K. Janata of the Czechoslovak Consulate will open the events. The lecture is entitled "Through Slovakia With A Camera."

A concert by Mrs. Mitzi Grdina and Miss Josephine Milavec will be given on Dec. 15. Miss Vera Milavec will be the accompanist.

Slovene School

The Slovene School of the National Home will give a one-act play "Baby je bolan," dramatic selections and songs on Jan. 12. Mrs. Antoinette Simcic will direct the affair.

Ivan Zorman will lecture on Slovene literature and music on Jan 19.

"Quaint Quebec," a travelogue will be given by Ralph D. Hartman, president Cleveland Photographic Society on Jan. 26.

DR. J.W. MALLY LECTURES ON TEETH TO CHILDREN

Delivers Lecture on Teeth to Children at St. Vitus School Last Monday Afternoon; 500 Listen to His Explanations

A lecture on teeth was given by Dr. James W. Mally, dentist to the upper classes of St. Vitus School last Monday afternoon. Sixth, seventh and eighth grade pupils were fully represented at the lecture, making some 500 interested listeners.

Impresses Children

Dr. Mally illustrated his talk with special slides and movies. He told in detail how disease spreads thru bad teeth, explained the care of teeth and informed the audience about the proper cure for poor teeth. The children were very much impressed with his lecture, the sisters report.

Lectured in Library

The lecture was similar to the one he gave Tuesday evening at the St. Clair Branch Library, except that it was given to appeal more to children than adults. He gave the lecture in order to give the children an opportunity to learn about teeth, as they were not admitted to the Library lecture.

SOKOLS WILL SEND MAN TO OLYMPIC CONTESTS

Cleveland Sokol Might Send Frank Jereb to Olympic Games in Los Angeles Next Year; Jugoslavia Will Send Man, Also

The Cleveland Sokols are making plans to send one of their best men to the Olympic games which will be held in Los Angeles, Cal., next year.

Frank Jereb Selected

The man who has been selected to go is Frank Jereb, one of the Sokol's stars in their exhibitions and a veteran gymnast.

He will enter the general gymnastic contests at the Olympics. Mr. Jereb is well versed in all the tricks of the parallel and horizontal bars and will very easily place in the events at the Los Angeles games.

Stukelj Will Come

With Jereb's entry into the Olympics, the Slovenes will have two entrants in the Los Angeles event. The other man to come is Leon Stukelj, of Maribor, who will represent Jugoslavia at the games. He was adjudged the world's best gymnast at Paris last July, when he competed with stars from all Europe.

It is planned to have Stukelj stop in Cleveland when he arrives.

COLLINWOOD SLOVENE SCHOOL ESTABLISHED

Directors of Slovene Workmen's Home Plan to Organize Slovene School in their Home for Collinwood Children

Plans were made to organize a Slovene School in Collinwood at a meeting held in the lower hall of the Slovene Workmen's Home in Waterloo road, Tuesday evening, Nov. 24.

Approved by Share Holders

The meeting was called by the directors of the Workmen's Home, who are working to form a Slovene school in their institution. Their action was approved and recommended at the last share holders' meeting.

The gathering Tuesday was held to get the opinion of the general public, to see how the people will feel about the idea and to have them express their ideas in connection with it. It appealed especially to parents of children who plan to enroll in the school.

Need Has Been Felt

The need for such a school has long been felt in the Collinwood area. Many children from there have been coming to the Slovene National Home School in St. Clair avenue every Saturday morning to attend classes. Lately there has been considerable talking to start a school and, to satisfy the parties, the school will be started at Collinwood.

This will not be the first time that a Slovene school will be started in the East Side. There have been several attempts made to start a school and at one time there was class held. But, through some reason, the project had been dropped every time.

STARS AT DAYTON PREP

A Slovene, William Kunchik, is a star fullback on the team at Dayton Prep. He played in every game until he was injured in last week's game. He is a senior.

MORE DEALERS GIVE TO FUND FOR UNDERFERD

Many New Merchants as Well as Some Former Ones Give Large Supplies for Poor and Undernourished Children

STAFF CONTRIBUTES

Miss Frances Gerbec, Editor of "Tower 'o Tattles" Steps into Work and Sees Merchants for Donations

BY FRANK A. SODNIKAR
The Cleveland Journal Undernourishment Fund which takes care of some 78 undernourished and poor children at St. Vitus School received many new donations, as it went into its fifth week.

Donations this week included mostly clothes, although families of the poor children received much food from Slovene farmers in the vicinity of Geneva and Madison, Ohio.

Get Money From Fund

The sisters received money this week from the $25,000 Fund created by Ex-Gov. Harry L. Davis, which is supervised by the diocesan director of schools, Dr. John R. Hagan. The sisters used this money to buy the children things of which they are most in need.

A large group of merchants donated clothes and shoes. Fr. Butala, 6408-10 St. Clair avenue gave a large supply of shoes.

More New Donors

Anton Anzlovar, 6202 St. Clair avenue, gave more clothes this week, although he gave last week also.

Joseph Stamel, 6129 St. Clair avenue, John Gornik, 6217 St. Clair avenue and Benno B. Leustig, 6424 St. Clair avenue also joined the list of contributors this week.

Joe Metlika, grocer, East 55 street donated sugar, jam and bread. He will be a steady contributor.

Staff Member Helps

Miss Rose Kolar, 1021 East 61 street was the private party who gave clothes.

Above all these, Miss Frances T. Gerbec, editor of the Journal section, "Tower 'o Tattles" donated a large supply of jelly and further helped the cause by going to the various merchants and getting them interested in the movement. She plans to see all the merchants and have them donate enough to give the poor children a Christmas party. The Cleveland Journal, as well as the sisters, ask that she be received cordially by every merchant she visits.

Need More Jelly

The sisters further inform that they could use more jelly. Jelly bread is nourishing and they would be glad to receive any amount that people would give.

Give This Week!

The children need all the food or clothes that they can get. The greater majority of the Slovene merchants have already come into line and given their share—gave more generously than for any other enterprise during this time. The rest who have not answered the call should do so this week—the need is great and it is their duty to see to it that the children are cared for. WHO WILL BE NEXT?

A SLOVENE ART SCHOOL

How progressive Cleveland really is in the interest of Slovenes themselves and the progress which they are making in the interest of the Slovene language and other cultural activities may be gaged by the new institution at the National Home, the Slovene Art School. To date all of the fine arts are represented by institutions which exist among the Slovenes. There is the Slovene School for the study of language and literature; the Slovene Concert Orchestra for the furtherance of Slovene music and music in general and now the most daring and the crowning of the fine arts, pictorial representation by means of art. Very recent in its inception it is nevertheless an excellent step in making the Slovene community in Cleveland complete in itself offering those things for the Slovenes which are not commonly offered to members of other nationality groups.

Slovenes of Cleveland are fortunate in being able to get a recognized artist such as Gregory Perusek as the mentor for the school. His recognition by art critics in America makes it sure that he is a real artist of whom the students and the Slovenes may be proud.

Only one month or only one year is too little to foretell what progress will be made by the students. However it is the start and if only one real artist is discovered it will have justified the school and all the effort that has been expended in making it a real institution.

The hopes and the wishes of the Cleveland Journal however does not stop at the initial class but they go further and visualize that the present Slovene Art School may be the beginning of a Slovene art school which will be able to compete with the large art schools of the country. If good encouragement is given both to the students and the heads, that should be realized within the near future. On, Slovene Art School, may you prosper and develop into a grand and influential institution.

UNDERNOURISHMENT FUND

Within the last few weeks the list of donors to the undernourished children of St. Vitus School has been substantially increased by the local merchants and by private persons. Gifts of food, clothing, as well as actual cash, has been reported received by Sister M. Azveda, who is in charge of distributing the goods received to the most noteworthy cases.

Because the Cleveland Journal has started the action of concentrated help for the undernourished children with the Cleveland Journal Undernourishment Fund for St. Vitus children, it feels that it owes thanks to all contributors to the fund or those who have helped in any way to make the children and through them the parents very happy for getting help in cases where otherwise there would not be any help.

However, the need is not over and the foodstuffs and other things will have to be constantly contributed so that the children will be helped steadily. There are others who would no doubt help in the action if they knew about it. We are making special appeal to the readers of the Cleveland Journal to get more and more people interested so that the individual contributions of each could be cut down materially for the individual but the sum total would be the same for the whole of the remaining school.

In connection with the fund we would like to call attention to the merchants and others who are making willing contributions to the cause and have them be specially patronized whenever possible. They deserve the help for patrons of their merchandise. It is the contributors who are making it possible for the Slovenes of Cleveland to get the reputation that they are the only ones who are taxing themselves to help the undernourished whereas other nationalities are waiting for outside help and thereby postponing chances for the children to come back to normal.

THE LETTER OPENER

COMMUNITY WELFARE CLUB EXPRESSES THANKS

Bringing to a close reports of the second annual Charity Ball, held several weeks ago, we find the results so gratifying that we want to "tell the world about it" even at this late time.

We give most sincere thanks to the members of the C. W. C. patrons, merchants, various clubs and fraternal organizations and all who helped and attended, thereby making the Charity Ball a huge success.

Deserving recognition is given to Mrs. Joseph Demshar, chairman of the entertainment committee, for services rendered. The same for all members who so faithfully served on the entertainment committee for the Charity Ball.

We thank Rev. B. J. Ponikvar and his bazaar committee who so graciously postponed the bazaar on Saturday night in favor of the Ball. Thanks also goes to Hon. John M. Sulzmann, county sheriff, who sent ten deputies to assist, thereby eliminating expense for dance hall inspectors.

Through a regrettable error in our programs, the names of two patrons, Mr. and Mrs. Math Braidech, 1191 Norwood road and Mr. and Mrs. Anton Kaussek, 532 East 185 street, were omitted, from the patron list. These gave each $5 to be patrons of the Ball.

Our sincere thanks to the Cleveland Journal and its staff for co-operating with the committee so graciously by publishing all Charity Ball activities weeks in advance.

The Ball in itself was gratifying. Beautiful decorations, gorgeous costumes, enchanting music, happy and congenial patrons and guests, elbowing each other in the crowd—who would not be happy in such a carnival-like atmosphere? Besides, a number of the guests were lucky winners.

Those winning door prizes were: Mrs. August Haffner, first; Miss J. Savrich, second; Miss A. Kmett third; Mrs. Joseph Demshar fourth.

The following were judges for the awarding of prizes for the best costumes: Michael Cerrezin, Yugoslav consul; F. E. Wilson, attorney, associated with Mr. Cerrezin; Hon. Judge Meek and William R. Hopkins, former city manager.

Women's costume prizes were awarded to the following:

Mrs. Edward Smerekar, first; Miss J. Collins, second; Miss Zavyasky, third; Miss Skok, fourth.

Men's prizes went to: R. J. Grdina, first; Joseph Yartz, second; H. Gable, third; Steve Latic, fourth; and Joseph Ferko, fifth.

The great response to this ball has instilled a feeling of public confidence in the Community Welfare Club and its members, which in turn creates a greater desire to carry on the work of the good Samaritan.

—For the Community Welfare Club, Mrs. Frank Mervar, Pres.

There must be a happy home atmosphere—always. It has been found that the gastric juices do not work properly and indigestion is resultant from fear, anxiety or worry.

BENEFIT PLANS

influential people thruout the city.

The artists who have been approached to donate their services for the benefit have also consented immediately. They are more than glad to give their aid.

Watch for the program announcement which will be made soon and don't forget to come to the Benefit, Jan. 17. You will see a program the like of which has not been seen in the National Home before.

APPOINTED TO NATIONAL COLLEGE BOARD

Appointment of Miss Elizabeth Seliskar, of Notre Dame College to the National Advisory Board of Colleges for the Sodality of Our Lady was announced last week. Miss Seliskar will act as intermediary between National Headquarters and the colleges of Cleveland and surrounding territory.

The board was formed last August during the School of Catholic Action held in St. Louis.

TWO SLOVENE CALENDARS OFF THE PRESS

Two Slovene publications, annual calendars, have just been released by the publishers. The first is the "Slovensko-Amerikanski Koledar" published by "Glas Naroda," daily newspaper in New York and the other is the "Družinski Koledar" published by "Proletarec," Slovene weekly.

These are two publications that are edited annually in America. They contain stories and articles by American Slovenes as well as some by European authors.

MACABEES PLAN DANCE FOR SATURDAY

A dance is planned for tomorrow evening, Nov. 28, at the Slovene National Home in St. Clair avenue by the Carniola Hive, No. 1288, Macabees. The dance will be held in both halls with the best of music promised for dancers.

The recently organized Vic Svetee and his orchestra will play in the upper hall.

Good music and the best of refreshments are assured.

A SUGGESTION

Today's suggestion. The reason that we cook some foods is because they taste better that way, and because they may more easily be digested.

Slow cooking, it has been proved is more preferable in preparing proteins. For example, an egg (the white contains protein) may be boiled for 3 minutes; in boiling water. Another egg may be dropped in the boiling water and taken from the fire and allowed to remain for 6 minutes. The second egg will be more tender and delicate and will be more easily digested.

COLLINWOOD SOKOLS WILL DANCE

The Collinwood Sokols will hold a dance at the Slovene Workmen's Home on Saturday night, Dec. 5. With their dances in the past the Sokols have shown that they are not only excellent gymnasts but equally good hosts when it comes to planning an entertaining evening for dancers. Their plans for the Dec. 5 dance call for a most interesting evening for anyone who will come.

WINS PRIZE AT COUNTY FAIR

A Slovene farmer, Jacob J. Stukel won first prize for the best potatoes at the St. Louis County, Minn., Country Fair. He has won the same prize last year. His farm also received prizes for the raising of cattle. Jacob Stukel owns his farm for the past 21 years and for the last 18 years it is reputed to be one of the best in the county. He has won prizes every year.

ACTIVE IN COLLEGE WORK

Among the most active students at St. Cloud state teachers' college are two Slovene students, according to reports published in the college paper. The two Slovenes, Nicholas Ognanovic and Frank Champa have the leading parts in the college play "The Ivory Door" which will be given by the college dramatic club "The Black Friars."

Frank Champa is also the head cheer leader at the school, the paper discloses.

PARTICIPATE IN MERCHANTS' CELEBRATION

When the merchants of Chisholm, Minn., held a big celebration last week, many Slovenes worked in an augmented band that played for the events. Those taking part were: Fred Tramotin, Joe Arko, Victor Debelak, Matt Bartol and Ed Kovach.

ELECTED PRESIDENT OF COLLEGE CLUB

A Slovene, Leonard Lovshin has been elected president of the German Club at the Hibbing Junior College. He is one of many Slovenes who are leaders at the college.

Basketball Rules

INTERFRAT AND INTERLODGE

1. Entry fee is ten dollars. All or part will be returned at the end of the playing season if treasury will not become altogether depleted.
2. Team forfeiting must pay referees expenses before being booked again.
3. Interlodge opening, Thursday December 3, at Bath House.
4. Inter-Frat opening, Wednesday, December 2, at Bath House.
5. Tentative plans. Play two rounds. Two topmost teams to meet in the final series to determine the champion.

The Board shall have the power to divide the League into groups A and B if it deems it necessary, either at the end of the first, or the second round if three rounds shall be played. Group B, if formed shall have its own series—the Board to decide in what manner the titlist is to be determined.

6. Players allowed—Interlodge 8. Inter-Frat 10. No more than three Mury League players shall be permitted on any club.

7. In the event that the Interlodge and Mury League have games scheduled for the same evening thus splitting up a team having players in both Leagues, the Interlodge WILL NOT cancel its games.

8. All players engaging in a game must have contract cards filed with president of the League 24 hours before they take to the floor. This refers to period up to and including Inter-Frat, December 16; Interlodge December 17.

The above dates are the FINAL dates for the signing of players and pasting the entry fee.

9. Managers must prove that each player is a member of the lodge submitting lodge book or roll. This must be done at the time the contract cards are turned in.

GENERAL RULES

A $2.00 deposit is required with each protest which shall be in writing and filed within 48 hours with league head.

Players must return suits or other equipment so agreed upon BEFORE the season begins. Players refusing shall be reported to headquarters. The offending players will be barred from future participation in the Interlodge or Inter-Frat.

Manager who signs player who is not a member of the lodge must file contract card with President immediately. THIRTY DAYS from the date the contract was submitted the player will be eligible providing he or she has joined the lodge.

The same rule applies to transfer members.

Four men at least must be prepared to play at appointed time. Otherwise game will be forfeited.

They say that the Slovene Concert Orchestra, is getting along just dandy!

They certainly have an able and talented director in Mr. Ivan Zorman. It might interest you to know that the orchestra is preparing for an early debut in the very near future. Watch for it!

VERONICA DESENISKA

Frederick, oldest son of Herman, ruler of the Celjski line and great friend of the Austrian emperor, married in 1406, Elizabeth the only daughter of the Croat lord, Stefan Frankopan. This marriage was hailed as a great union, especially by the fathers of the pair, who saw the amalgamation of two great powers in the nuptial tie.

But, it seems that the marriage was contracted only for the monetary part. No love existed between Frederick and Elizabeth. Their life was marked by continual quarrels, jealousies, accusations and unfaithfulness. Frederick openly declared that he loved Veronica Deseniška, from a very low noble rank. With this declaration, conditions between the pair became unbearable and by 1412 they separated.

The religious parents, however, could not endure the blot of a separation and for ten years sought to reconcile the two children. At a banquet, finally, when the subject was pleaded with Frederick, who quickly agreed to once more live with his wife.

But the full meaning of Frederick's quick consent came upon the parents the following morning. They found Elizabeth dead in bed—with a knife in her bosom. Everything pointed to Frederick as the killer, but since he was of noble birth, the affair was silenced.

For two years, Herman was so angered with his son that he would not hear a word of him. He brooded the downfall of his crest and at every mishap blamed and cursed his son for the trouble.

On a summer day in 1424 the servants found him in an especially angry mood.

The valet when asked denied strongly that it was an angry mood. Nothing but madness struck his master. For did he not smash the marble family escutcheon in the hall? Did he not tear his hair? Did he not growl like a wolf?

This was caused, informed the secretary, by a note received from his son, informing that he had married Veronica. It was further reported that Herman vowed to avenge the murder of his son's first wife by killing, Veronica. It was further reported that Herman vowed

The servants' stories were substantiated by late afternoon when Herman ordered his mercenaries be brought to him.

"He will send them after Veronica" word went around.

With anxiety the soldiers appeared before their raging master, who was still in boiling fury and could hardly breathe.

"Go to my son's castle and bring me the siren Veronica who has bewitched my son," he roared. "I want her tomorrow morning."

But hearing of her father-in-law's plot, Veronica left her newly acquired husband and fled into the forests, where she thought she could evade the guards.

The soldiers pursued her zealously, spurred not a little by the continuous fury of Herman and before many suns set, Veronica was before the dean of the Celjski line.

"You are a witch, you bewitched my son," was all she heard from him as they dragged her to prison.

Not a word or visit from anyone for an entire week. She lay in prison, weakened day by day from lack of food and slowly realizing that she was to be starved to death. She had but one hope—had not her husband promised to free her from the clutches of his father?

She was certain that he had succeeded, when late one night, two guards entered and without a word lifted her weakened body and carried it through the halls and into the open.

As in a dream, almost unconscious from lack of food, she sensed the men's every move.

They halted... One asked the other "Should we?" "Yes, the master ordered..." then... a swing... she was being thrown... she felt herself drop into water... and too weak to help herself... she saw now... it was not aid from her husband... she would drown... she heard... from far... the voice of Herman... "Well done"... down for the last time...

PHILOSOPHIC ADVICE

He who knows not, and knows not that he know not; he is a fool; shun him.

He who knows not, and knows that he knows not; he is simple, teach him.

He who knows, and knows not that he knows; he is asleep, wake him.

He who knows, and knows that he knows; he is wise, follow him.

LOYALITES BUSY FOR DANCE

The Loyalties, SNPJ lodge are busy making final arrangements for their dance which will be held at the Slovene Home on Holmes avenue on the evening of Dec. 6.

The dance will offer many new features with a very good orchestra included. A host and hostess will also be present at the affair, in the persons of August Prusnick and Mrs. William Sitter.

K. S. K. J. DEFEAT COMRADES TO RETAIN LEAD

FOUR CLUBS GO INTO A TIE FOR SECOND PLACE AS FLAGMAKERS LOSE SERIES TO G. W.'S WHILE SPARTANS AND SYMC COME THRU VICTORIOUS

The K. S. K. J.'s are still on top of the heap after administering a 3-0 setback to the Comrades. F. Stepic led the winners with a 562 score...

After dropping the first two setts the Betsy Ross five found life in the last stanza and dynamited a sizzling 1056 total that bettered the G. W.'s 1000.

With Peterlin shelling the woods for a 651 series of 225, 223 and 203 games, the Spartans made short work of the Boosters as they took all three

FLAGMAKERS CLOUT HIGH 2639

Gathering games of 924, 846 and 869 for a high 2639 total, the Betsy Ross swamped the Geo. Washington's 2068 score.

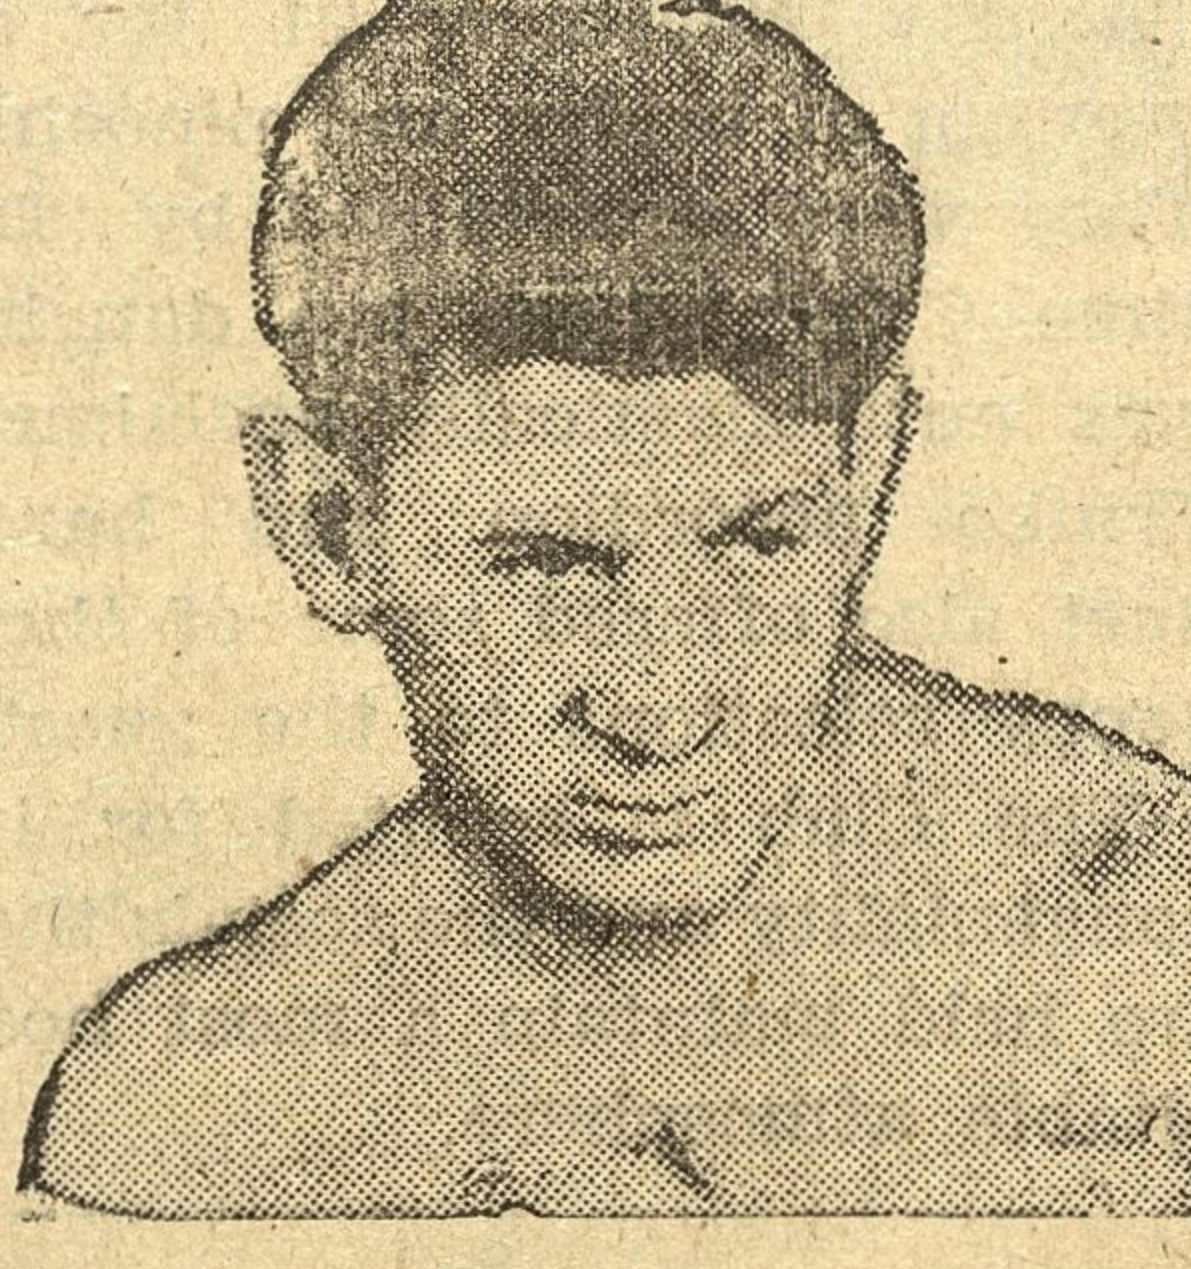

In taking two counters from the Svetek Strugglers, the Clairwoods remained at the top of the standing. Jadrich's 505 score led the S. D. Z. crew to a 2451 to 2367 win.

'IRISH' LOVERS

Of the many admirers of the 'Fighting Irish' or the Notre Dame football team are several of our neighborhood boys. Joe Kubilus, popular referee, his brother Bill, who is well-known in sport activities and 'Pugs' Opalek, a member of the G. W.'s are three of the many followers of the 'Irish' squad.

SIMMS GETS BIG CHANCE

Frankie Simms, local heavyweight gets his chance to break into the big money fights. He will appear in the main bout on the Annual New Christmas Show December 16 and for his opponent he draws none other than Ernie Schaaf, the Boston blond sailor, a protege of Jack Sharkey.

Basketball Schedule

AT ST. CLAIR NEIGHBORHOOD CENTER INTER-FRAT LEAGUE December 2

December 3 Comrades vs Wash - 7:15 Progress vs Clairwoods - 8:15 Loyalties vs Betsy Ross - 9:15

HERE'S KOMAR! - LOOK OUT MORDUS!

In the 135 lb. division, Frankie Blake, who fought on the recent Orel card, will tangle with Harry Gibson a promising prospect in his class.

Billy Sommers (Frank Fajfar) will be staging a return to the ring after a long layoff. Training regularly Sommers is in the pink of condition for he has a tough in Al Neubauer, a Lake wood slugger.

Another neighborhood lad to appear on the card is Frankie Pike, in the 135 lb. class. He will meet Lorenzo Reed, a colored battler, who is a clever boxer, but Pike's slugging abilities are favored to get him the verdict.

In the 112 pound division a battle that is to be evenly matched is that between George Pace, a colored boy, and Al Moore, hauling from the West Side. Two interesting engagements bring together Leo Abraham and Chuck Morrow in the 116 pound class, with the latter having the edge. A battle that should end in a kayo is that between C. Barnes, colored, and A. Korchak. The former was a semi-finalist in the Golde. Gloves while the latter carries the toga of being the Lakewood Champ.

Girls Group Comprises Six Teams With Sokols Defending Title. Silver Masks - Flashes Have Strengthened Lineups

NINE CLUBS A POSSIBILITY IN BOYS LOOP. LOYALITES, PIONEERS, PROGRESSIVES OUT-STANDING TEAMS

The Inter-Frat basketeers circuit will open its third season of play Wednesday evening with six teams ready to swing into action; namely, the champion Sokols, Silver Masks, Flashes, Comrades, Progressives and the George Washingtons. For two seasons the girls have been a great drawing card at the St. Clair Bath House, and now again the girls will put on their weekly battles to appease the desires of all lovers of the indoor sport.

Of the weaker clubs the Comrades loom to be the stronger as they report better lineups than the Progressives or the George Washingtons. The Tree Choppers have yet to win their first league game in two seasons, and they will be doomed as they stand up against the Progressives.

Will the Sokols Repeat?

The question that has been heard throughout the neighborhood for days is 'Will the Sokols again be the champions?' Well, they have the best chance. With a team that has been kept intact for its third season, the Sokols will be hard to beat. It is reported that Molly Knaus, the star center of last year's title games, against the Silver Masks, is lost to the Gymnasts. Molly's loss will be keenly felt, but we feel that the balanced efforts of 'Lefty' Ann Gasparic, Klopec, Fay Slapar, 'Vi' Kushlan and 'Chris' Brezovar will offset that handicap.

Boys Loop to be Exciting Well the girls have a League and the boys, not to be outdone, have also formed one. They will play every Thursday evening, giving the neighborhood fans the opportunity to watch both groups on successive evenings. The entrants in the boys' division are the Loyalties, Pioneers, Spartans, Comrades, Betsy Ross, Clairwoods, George Washingtons and the Progressives. To date the strongest teams in action are the Loyalties, the Pioneers, Progressives and the Clairwoods.

The battle for the evening brings together the two rivals, the champion Sokols and the runnerup Silver Masks. This game should be a 'pippin' and the outcome of this tussle will have much to do in the future games. If the Masks defeat the Sokols then the other clubs will not be so optimistic as to the results of their meeting with the champions.

The Loyalties are remembered by their sensational playing in the S. N. P. J. tourney held at the Bath House last year. They turned in victories over the Comrades and the Progressives and were the Cleveland representatives in the State finals held here. They defeated the Detroit finalists and then journeyed to Kenosha where they lost out in the National Tourney. They boast such stars as the Kuhel brothers, Opalich, Dlugoleski, Kavran and Murphy.

Flashes Stronger

Two clubs that have bolstered their lineups considerably are the Silver Masks and the K. S. K. J. Flashes. The latter club has signed up some of the St. Ann stars; namely, 'Curly' Suhadolnik, Pate and Shenk. This addition to the already strong combination of 'Jo' Laurich, P. Laurich, Rose Malovrh and Steiss makes the Flashes very powerful.

The Progressives have a bunch of hustlers that have teamed together for the last 4 years. A snappy bunch full of trouble. The Pioneers have such stars as Makovic, Barbic, Meehan, Spretnak, Hablan and Anslow to represent them in the circuit. Of the rest of the clubs the writer hasn't much to report on as he has to see them in action, but if you were to hear some the players talk you will know that the boys' group will be plenty exciting.

The Flashes will get off to a flying start in the coming race as they draw the Comrades, against whom they should have no trouble.

Mr. Paul J. Schneller was among the long list of Clevelanders who attended the Notre Dame - Southern California football game at South Bend, last Saturday. He returned to Cleveland by airplane.

Masks Powerful

The Silver Masks had a good team last season and with the report that 'Whitey' Doljak, formerly of the St. Anns has teamed up with them, it makes the Masks doubly strong.

He returned to Cleveland by airplane.

PREPARING FOR BASKETBALL

The Chisholm K. S. K. J. lodges basketball team has begun practice for the opening of the basketball season. The Chisholm team is reputed to be among the best in Minnesota and has already lined up a heavy schedule, composed of the best teams in the state.

ON DEBATING TEAM

The leaders in the newly organized debating team at the Chisholm High School are two Slovenes, Frank Rokovina and Stanley Palcic. The team has drawn up a big list of debates with nearby schools and the success of these debates will depend largely upon the work of the above two lads, according to the school paper.

BASKETBALL TEAM MOSTLY SLOVENE

When the coach at the Chisholm High School made a call for basketball candidates he saw that his success will depend upon the work of Slovenes, who were in the majority of those who answered the call. Among those who will be certain to see action this year are: John Champa, R. Perko, A. Tramonatin, A. Kochevar, A. Klun, Stanley Laurich, Albert Gornik and John Poznar. Among these the first two are lettermen and should be stars this year.

Opera Star

Miss Jeanette Sterle, popular Slovene songstress, is to appear in the Cleveland Opera Guild's latest production, "Boccaccio," for one week beginning Nov. 30, in the B. of L. E. Auditorium.

Miss Sterle will sing the role of a Florentine student and will appear in all acts of the opera. On Saturday matinee she will have the opportunity to appear as Isabella, one of the major roles of the opera. She is also understood to the role of Beatrice.

The plot of "Boccaccio" is built around an episode from one of the stories of Boccaccio, celebrated Italian novelist and poet, in which the author himself is the central figure.

The musical score, considered one of the masterpieces of Comic Opera, is by the great Von Suppe, brilliant exponent of the Viennese school of opera.

Miss Sterle began studying with Carabella Johnson, who is playing the leading role in Boccaccio. For the past three years she has been a pupil of Frances J. Sadler, who is general production director of the Opera Guild. Since the Guild's organization in 1927, Miss Sterle has appeared in "Wizard of the Nile," "Beggar Student," "Bohemian Girl," "Fortune Teller," "Chimes of Normandy," and "The Mikado."

The Cleveland Opera Guild is an organization devoted to the study and production of opera in English—a "work shop" into which qualified singers and dancers are invited to come for practical experience in the various departments of the opera. Under experienced and competent instructors every phase of the opera is studied: musical and dramatic interpretation, ballet, orchestra, stage craft, and promotion. A definite curriculum of operatic training provides for classes in choral instruction, pastiche and stage department, and ballet, climaxing in seasonal productions of standard operas.

The aim and purpose of the Opera Guild has been to build up the available supply of experienced performers of opera, and to stimulate and foster the desire for and appreciation of opera in English, thus hastening the day when Greater Cleveland may have civic opera of its very own.

Miss Sterle appeared with the "Zarja" singers on Nov. 15, at the Slovene National Home and dramatically portrayed the character of Lelja in "Turjaška Rozamunda."

Tickets for "Boccaccio" may be procured at the office of the Cleveland Journal.

MRS. JOHN PERME TO BE HOSTESS

Mrs. John Perme of 944 East 222 street, Euclid, Ohio, will be hostess at a card party to be held at her home, Saturday evening, Nov. 28.

It is to be noted that she has that rare and enviable gift of providing a good time for all her guests.

ATTENTION ART LOVERS

There is an unusual opportunity to study under a recognized master. Progress can be made faster than in any art school in the city.

Mr. Gregory Prusheck is going to conduct his first class on Friday, Nov. 27, at 7:30 p. m. at 6403 St. Clair avenue in the National Home building. He is going to instruct in designing, decoration, modeling, etc. One class will meet on Saturdays from 9:30 to 12:00 and another from 1:30 to 4:00. There are thirty-four pupils enrolled thus far.

Any one interested is cordially invited to attend classes and if interested may enroll at the School or at the office of the Secretary of the National Home.

PAJAMA PARTY

It all started with the Mystery Hunt last Thursday, Nov. 19.

The guests, who are members of the Honor Guard Girls of the S. D. Z., then celebrated in as grand a style as befits one of their rank.

The home of the hostess, Miss Frances Erste, 6205 Whittier avenue was prepared to furnish the group with the merriest time possible, and as the floors were highly waxed, the girls removed their slippers, (a stag advantage). There was dancing, of course, there were innumerable games, and the ladies smoked candy cigarettes all evening.

The climax was reached in the mock wedding. The groom, Miss Anne Gasparic, wore a high silk hat all during the ceremony. To quail the protestations, she enjoined that it was her "opportunity of a lifetime."

Miss Mary Milner was the bride over which even the minister, Miss Josephine Martinic, the organist, Miss Molly Martinic and the two choir singers, Misses Mary Augustine and Mary Jakopic, held so much to do about.

If ever a groom needed assistance, it was then and of course Miss Christine Brezovar came nobly to the rescue and played her role magnificently. There was the maid of honor, Miss Frances Konjar, who also kept consoling the bride during the ceremony.

Yes, there was a bridesmaid too, and also an usher, and they were none other than the Misses Josephine Cotman and Josephine Zele, respectively.

There was a wedding luncheon for the bridal party, of course, all due acknowledgment must be given to the gifted hostess, who prepared such a feast of hilarity for the evening.

A SHORT DISCOURSE ON CONFUCIOUS

Confucius was one of the great intellects of the human race. He was one of the few who have devoted themselves to the moral betterment of their fellow beings. In his code of ethics, he has endeavored to infuse the principles of the most perfect standards of morals in the character of the entire Chinese peoples and was successful in his laudable efforts.

Of Chinese Race

His ancestors were celebrated statesmen. His father was one of the highest officers of the Kingdom of China. He was therefore not a Christian and also not of the Semitic race as is generally believed. In the time of Confucius, China was divided into many petty kingdoms, whose rulers quarreled constantly. Tho he held many public positions, he retired to another part of the country because of the disorders in the kingdom. He followed the life of a teacher, instructing men in simple moral truths by which he governed his own life. After many wanderings, Confucius returned to his home province of Loo, poverty stricken, and spent his remaining years in editing the Sacred books of China and writing additions to them.

Influenced Chinese People

Confucius was born about 551 B. C., and lived contemporaneously with Pythagoras, Cyrus the Great and Parquins of Rome. About this time, the Jews returned from Babylon and Xerxes invaded Greece. His family is considered the oldest in the world except the Jewish nation who may be regarded as a single family descended from Abraham. Confucius has exerted greater influence on the minds of many millions of his countrymen by his writings than any other man who ever lived, excepting the writers of the Jewish and Christian scriptures. The influence of Confucius has maintained in China that great reverence for parents, that ardent family affection, that love of order, that esteem for learning and respect for literary men who lie at the foundations of all the institutions of China. His practical code of morals which is studied by all the learned and which embraces the sum of knowledge and the principle of government has ever since exerted an incalculable influence of the hundreds of millions of human beings in China.

Sayings of Confucius (Kung-fu-tse)

"A gentleman considers what is right; the vulgar considers what will pay.

"A gentleman is high-minded but not proud, the vulgar are proud but not high-minded."

CONVALESCING

Mr. Victor Faletic of 1072 East 72 street is recuperating at the Cleveland Clinic.

The Journal wishes him a most speedy recovery.

JUGOSLAV SLOVENE CLUB HOLDS CARD PARTY

The very charming room of Y. W. C. A. was the scene of a card party held last Thursday, Nov. 19 by the Yugoslav Slovene Club of the International Institute of the Y. W. C. A.

Misses Alice Kmet, Pauline Vidvol, Marie Skoda, Marie Suhadolnik, Johanna Gornik Frances Okorn, Maxine Steinitz and Mesdames Frances Urnkar and Dolores Grdina comprised the committee who were busy all evening accommodating the very many guests who attended.

The prizes were awarded to Misses Agnes Lunder, Frances Drassler, Mesdames Mazer and Jaksic, and Messrs. Martin Sveste, Charles Lausche, Vincent Zupan and Mazer. The door prize was also won by Mr. Mazer.

EAST END SOCIAL CLUB PARTY SUCCESSFUL

Mrs. John Vidensek entertained about sixty members and guests of the East End Social Club at her lovely home at 18436 Lake Shore Boulevard.

A most delicious luncheon was served by the accommodating hostess, and prizes were provided for each table.

The club has been very active in social work since its inception, only a short time ago. The ladies are very enthusiastic and they have received the distinction of being leaders in their community.

Mrs. Philip Mociilnikar will hold the next card party at her new home in Euclid, Ohio. The proceeds from the card parties held by the members are used to enlarge the club's charity purse with which they have already aided a number of impoverished families.

CARD SOCIAL

Members of the St. Clair Neighborhood Center Social Club met at their club rooms, Tuesday, November 24, for an evening of bridge and pinochle. They were entertained by "Big time Crip" whose tap dancing was enthusiastically acclaimed. Trunko accordion and banjo duet also offered some of their peppy selections to the guests.

The Club is reputed for its congeniality and the socials that are held maintain a most hospitable atmosphere.

A Menu Suggestion

Just a suggestion for your next card party—

Nut Bread Sandwiches and Cocoa

Arrange your slices of nut bread in a round, or oval shape (use cookie cutter). Spread the slice with butter, very generously.

If you are artistically inclined, you may garnish the slice with olives. Cut a pimento olive horizontally. The two pieces may represent the eyes on the yellow circle of nut bread. A little piece of the olive will represent the nose, and a longer band of it may be arranged as the mouth.

Serve with cocoa.

IN THE CULINARY DEPARTMENT

Perhaps the home manager knows, better than anyone else, that her home, and especially her own department, the kitchen, is a mirror of herself. If her dishes are always in disorder, you will know that her mind is also in disorder, that everything is not normal there.

Conversely, if her disposition consists of a healthy attitude toward life, her charming look of a home will reflect the beauty of her being in it. And this is very true.

MRS. ROSE M'DONOUGH ENTERTAINS

A delicious dinner was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yakos, East 156th street, on Sunday, Nov. 22, by Mrs. Rose McDonough, honoring the tenth wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Yakos and the confirmation of Miss Josephine Gorjanc.

The guests included Mr. and Mrs. Gorjanc, Mr. and Mrs. Cernigoy, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Yakos, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Yakos, Mr. and Mrs. John Yakos, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McDonough, Mr. and Mrs. Virgil Boyer, Mr. John Gorjanc, Mr. Anthony Fortuna and the Misses Hazel Boyer, Frances Martiniak, Alice and Josephine Pucel and Marie and Anne Rayer.

After dinner, the guests enjoyed themselves dancing to the music by Mr. Gorjanc and Mr. Kozely.

DECEMBER 13 IMPORTANT DATE

Sunday evening, December 13, the Eastern Stars Club No. 51 S. D. Z. will hold a dance which promises to be an event among the Collinwood social circles in December.

The affair will take place at the Slovene National Home in Holmes avenue and the bids are selling for only 35 cents.

Jackie Zorc, the popular drawing card, will furnish his accordion music for the waltzes, fox trots, polkas, and what have you.

The Eastern Stars are all the very popular members of the Collinwood's younger set and according to all the hustling and bustling, the affair will undoubtedly be one grand success. You certainly will be sorry if you don't attend.

ENTERTAINS AT PARTY

Miss Frances Martinak entertained her many friends at the home of Mr. and Mrs. John Liechte, Garfield avenue, on Saturday evening, November 21. A very enjoyable evening was spent by all in playing cards, dancing, etc.

A delicious luncheon was served by the hostess at midnight, after which the guests resumed the games which lasted until the wee hours of the morning.

EAST END COMMUNITY CENTER TO SPONSOR PLAY

The dramatic club of the East End Community Center will sponsor three one-act plays at the Collinwood High Auditorium, Tuesday evening, Dec. 1.

Miss Josephine Zalar of 1384 East 171 street, who is reputed to be histrionically very able, will assume the leading role in "A Wedding." She will be the bride, of course, and a very lovely one, gowned in white satin and a long white veil.

The two other plays to be presented will be, "The Eligible Mr. Bangs" and "A Bed-Time Story."

Tickets have been given only to the members and friends of the club for distinction and only those who present them on admittance will be permitted to enter the Auditorium.

The Grdina Shoppe, Miss Zalar acknowledges, have been kind enough to lend the dramatic club the bridal outfit.

BUSINESS GIRLS' BANQUET

The Business Girls' Club of Y. W. C. A. entertained at a Mother-Daughter banquet, Wednesday evening, Nov. 18 at Y. W. C. A. Prospect avenue and East 16 street.

Miss Olga Peterlin of 9109 Kempton avenue was one of the hostesses who so skillfully arranged the very interesting program and provided such an excellent evening of entertainment for the guests.

The occasion was planned primarily to acquaint the mothers and teachers, and so the preparations made included, besides the usual welcome speech and a respond, the lovely flowers and candles, a delicious menu, and especially an interesting variety of games in which the entire group most heartily co-operated.

The Y. W. C. A. has been offering a class in swimming, limbering and dramatics every Wednesday evening. A few others who are now interested in the membership are the Misses Frances Stanonik, Anne Koscak, Sophie Kaplan, Margaret Bruechnecht and the Hoffman sisters.

COMRADES AND THEIR PRIVATE DANCE

A genial group of guests attended the Comrades' Private Dance last Saturday at the National Home.

Loyalites, Beasons, Spartans, as well as the Akron Zippers were well represented.

It was another pleasant evening spent with Comrades,—everyone whot attended enjoys.

On the Avenue

In millinery, turbans seem to be replacing the earlier models of the season. These may be worn easily and they do not demand such a perfect arrangement of coiffure.

They may be worn very effectively with the more formal afternoon frock.

TROUBLES COME IN BATTALIONS

Of course, troubles do come along "in battalions" but it is up to the woman to decide how strong her family is, how strong her country is, and she can do that only by the strength that is stored in herself. These are times that look black and void of any light, but it seems it is up to the woman, the home manager, to make them appear brighter, and keep forever kindling hope for a better future.

No matter how despondent she may feel over her anxieties, there must always be the clean dishes on the table, there must always be the correctly arranged silver, and, perhaps, a little flower from the garden to grace the meal.

Even though the food is devoid of any delicacy, it must be carefully cooked and artistically arranged.

BRIDGE

Miss Mary Stefanic of East 172 street, entertained at bridge last Sunday afternoon, and at the luncheon, which was served, she most shyly acknowledged that the delicious bridge cookies were really all her own and the pineapple desert was a sample of her proficiency in culinary art.

The guests were Miss Helen Lah, Miss Anne Gerbec and Miss Mary Bencar.

LADIES CLUB HOLDS DINNER AND DANCE

The Ladies Club of the Slovene Home, Holmes avenue will hold a dinner and dance at the auditorium on Saturday evening, Nov. 28. They promise a most delightful evening for everyone attending.

Tony Klun will play for dancing. The admission to the dinner and dance is 50 cents.

RECUPERATING FROM OPERATION

Operated last week, Miss Marie Zamejc, fourth grade teacher at St. Vitus is recovering at her home. During her illness the class is taught by Miss Eleanor Karlinger.
