CURRENT THOUGHT Official Report

Last week's issue of Nova Doba carried the regular September monthly report prepared by the home office. Several columns of figures were published, and because of the solid mass of statistics many of our member-readers may have given it but just a superficial glance without realizing their significance.

It may be of interest to note that the income in the adult department totaled $27,198.96; disbursements $15,393.60. In the juvenile department the income aggregated $1,114.85; disbursements $258.00.

Out of the total disbursements of $15,393.69 in the adult division, $6,255.50 was paid out for sick benefits (including indemnity and accident benefits), $718.36 for disability benefits, and the remainder for death benefits.

Only one juvenile member was listed under the column of "Died," while twelve departed members were listed under the same heading in the senior division.

A summary of new members enrolled during the month of September disclosed a total of 73 in the adult department and 21 in the junior department for a total of 94, which were itemized in a supplementary report, according to the record made by each active lodge.

The list of suspended and reinstated members were also reported and segregated according to each lodge effected, as were the transfers, withdrawals, expulsions and changes of insurance.

Cold figures appearing in print seldom interest the reader and fail to hold his attention long enough to disclose the story behind them.

Many of our members may be under the impression that the monthly reports appearing in our official organ are merely a routine procedure stipulated in our by-laws.

The monthly report is published with a purpose: To inform the members of the current transactions embracing every local branch in the SSCU.

A very important reason for publication of suspended members is to notify such individuals officially of their status, and to avoid possible disputes that may arise through some misunderstanding.

The financial gain made each month as reflected by the income and disbursements should strike a responsive chord among our members who are part of the SSCU.

With the Pathfinders

Gowanda, N. Y.—One of our most pleasant surprises the last weekend was the visit of Frank "Samson" Drobnic, Joe "Patsy" Krall, Frank "Anchor Man" Unetich and Louis "Sheik" Brezeczka, all of Cleveland, who came to Gowanda to attend the Pathfinders Dance sponsored by St. Joseph and Pathfinders Lodges, Nos. 89 and 222, SSCU respectively. The dance was held Saturday, Nov. 2, at the Slovene Hall.

I say, a pleasant surprise, although they did cut me out of my girl friends (as if I had a line like those fellows have, which a most successful dance in which we had a very nice attendance these women haters took home their "dears," I doubt if they came to our house before breakfast.

The following day, Sunday, November 3, we arranged a bowling match for Cleveland against Gowanda. We had three teams and two girls on each team, and of course the Clevelanders scouted the Pathfinder girls to complete their team.

This game certainly was interesting as Cleveland took the first by 84 pins and the Pathfinders took the second by 82. At the end of the second game the Clevelanders were leading in total pins by exactly 100. In the final game the Pathfinders forged ahead to a lead which was tied in the fifth frame. Cleveland was ahead one point going into the tenth frame, but the last game with 29 pins to boot. Thus the Clevelanders took the series by 31-20.

Frank Drobnic, Cleveland anchor man, was high man with a score of 226, while Phillips, Pathfinder's anchor man, came

Center Ramblers' Feather Dance

Center, Pa.—Yes, sir, folks, Center Ramblers Lodge, No. 221, SSCU, will hold a Feather Dance on Saturday, Nov. 23, at Center Slovene Hall.

Everyone around here is wondering just what is a Feather Dance. Why not come to our dance on Nov. 23 and find out about it? We have a big surprise in store for you. I don't think we will use tar and feathers, but it will be a Feather Dance anyhow. Bring your mothers, fathers, sweethearts, etc., along with you. I assure you they all will have a good time. Even the seniors will be able to dance to our music, which will be furnished by the Polish Cadets.

So come on, everybody and have a grand time. You are all welcome to attend our Feather Dance.

Joseph Sobr.

Our Friends Lodge

Greensboro, Pa.—The first dance given by Our Friends Lodge, No. 227, SSCU, Saturday, Oct. 26, proved very successful. We were certainly glad to see the nice crowd, some of which represented various lodges. We hope to see more of them in the near future.

The Dixie Dandies Orchestra was complimented by everyone for providing such excellent music. We wish to thank all our guests in attendance and others who helped in any way to make our evening such a success. Both the seniors and the English-speaking appeared to enjoy each other's company, all having one good time.

John Nickler, Sec'y.

Lodge No. 112

Kitzville, Minn.—All members of St. John's Lodge, No. 112, SSCU, are urged to attend the lodge's meeting scheduled for Sunday, Nov. 17, and beginning at 11 a. m. Important matters will be taken up.

Frank Tichar.

Yes, and an Auto

The bride of three months timidly asked her husband: "Dearest, will you please give me some money for a new dress?"

"Sure," said he generously. "Here is five dollars; get a hat, too."

Clover Hay: Say, dad, we all had a narrow escape from being eaten alive last summer, I tell you.

Timothy Hay: How so, daughter?

Clover: I've just been to the carnival and they had a wild cannibal Igorotte native there on exhibition. And, would you believe it, it was the very same fellow that helped us harvest our corn last fall. My, but we were lucky!

luck next time. After the dance Unetich sat alone in a car looking at the moon, but the next morning we saw that Brezeczka's car had a flat tire. What a man.

The visit of this gang was a real pleasure and we hope they come again soon and bring along some of their friends.

Ernest Palcic Jr., No. 222, SSCU.

BRIEFS

Recent earthquake in Montana caused the death of Edward Murgel, juvenile member of SSCU, who resided in East Helena, Mont. Injuries sustained during the tremor caused the death of this 13-year-old boy.

Yugoslav Little Theatre of Cleveland will present the three-act comedy, "Duley," on Nov. 11 and 12 in Knaus' Hall. Curtain will rise at 8 p. m.

Center Ramblers Lodge, No. 221, SSCU, of Center, Pa., will hold a Feather Dance Saturday, Nov. 23, in the local Slovene Hall.

Mayor Steve Banovetz of Ely, Minn., headed the local officials to the League of Municipalities meeting held in Hibbing, Minn., last week. Mayor Banovetz is a member of the SSCU.

GW, SSCU-Bukevnik's Studio basketball team of Cleveland, O., plays its first game Wednesday evening, Nov. 6, in the St. Clair Bathhouse. G. W. stands for George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, which has entered a team in the Cleveland Interlodge League.

Frank Zgonc, alderman of Ely, Minn., has declared his candidacy for re-election as alderman in the elections to be held Dec. 3.

Independent Singing Society Zarja again scored with a majestic presentation of the opera, "Martha," last Sunday, Nov. 3, in the Cleveland Slovene National Home. A large and receptive audience applauded its appreciation of the fine singing rendered by the Zarja cast. In attendance were guests from Pittsburgh, Pa., and Lorain, O.

Ohio Federation of SSCU Lodges will hold its next meeting on Sunday, Nov. 24, in Girard, O.

Joseph Petrovic, secretary of Lodge No. 94, SSCU, of Waukegan, Ill., became the proud father of a baby boy named Kenneth Jerome. Mother and the baby are doing fine, according to reports, and the new addition already has been enrolled in the SSCU.

A little tardy perhaps, but never too late, is the announcement that Bob Rupert, member of Betsy Ross Lodge, No. 186, SSCU, of Cleveland, O., and Miss Louise Poje, also of Cleveland, were united in marriage on Saturday, Oct. 26.

Where Science Comes In

A professor was delivering an address before a group of business men. At its conclusion a manufacturer joined issue with him.

"Science is of no benefit to me," he insisted.

"What is your business?"

"I manufacture suspenders."

"And where would your business be?" was the next question, "if the law of gravity were suspended?"

Deposits up to $5,000 are now insured by the government in some 600 federal Savings and Loan Associations.

News of Joliet Ladies of SSCU

Joliet, Ill.—Sister Frances Metesh entertained the members of the Ladies of SSCU on Oct. 24 at her home. Following the business meeting the hostess very cleverly arranged a Hallowe'en party. Refreshments were served at small tables. The home decorations of table covers and napkins were carried out in Hallowe'en effects. Appropriate games were played later in the evening.

On Nov. 21 Sister Gertrude Suski will entertain the members at her home on Vine St.

Another interesting event was a theater party held at the Princess Theater Wednesday evening, Oct. 30. We enjoyed a delicious chicken dinner at the Imperial after the show.

Our SS. Peter and Paul Lodge, No. 66, SSCU, held a social after the regular monthly meeting on Sunday afternoon, Oct. 20, to which all members were cordially invited. The main event of the afternoon were piano solos and duets by Professors Anthony Rozman and John Trzynski. The latter is a member of our lodge.

The group gathered around the piano and sang old-time Slovene songs and popular English numbers. Refreshments were served in cafeteria style. A prize of $1 was awarded Peter Metesh.

Elizabeth Jevitz.

What Is Your Certificate Worth?

Every month we pay our assessments methodically without realizing, perhaps, that part of the money resolves itself into a permanent investment, one, which unlike the savings account, is not to be withdrawn one week and deposited two weeks later.

Most of us are aware that the death benefit certificates issued by our SSCU accrue certain reserves represented by a cash or loan value, paid-up insurance and extended insurance. However, when it comes to figures we are at a loss to realize exactly how much a certificate is worth in actual cash, in paid-up insurance and the period of extended insurance.

Beginning with this issue and every one thereafter, providing space permits, there will be published the actual value of the three plans of death benefit certificates carried by our Union, applicable at different ages of entry.

Figures used below have been taken from the "Table of Assessments and Non-Forfeiture Values of Certificates of the SSCU," of which at least one copy is in the possession of each lodge secretary.

Computations below are based on a member who joined our Union at the age of 20 years, taking out a $1,000 death benefit certificate (On $500 and $250 certificates, take one-half and one-quarter, respectively, of the cash or loan value and paid-up insurance. On $1,500 and $2,000 multiply by one and a half and two, respectively, of the cash or loan value, and paid-up insurance. Period of extended insurance [years and days] remains unchanged irrespective of the amount of the certificate):

PLAN "AA"—ORDINARY LIFE
End of Year	Cash or Loan Value	Paid-Up Insurance	Extended Insurance Years	Days
5	$ 13.99	$ 52.00	1		305
10	49.70	168.00	6		201
15	92.87	282.00	12		244
20	144.68	394.00	17		102
PLAN "B"—TWENTY-YEAR PAY LIFE
5	44.17	164.00	6		111
10	126.68	427.00	20		318
15	229.43	698.00	33		47
20	357.58	1,000.00			For Life
PLAN "C"—TWENTY-YEAR ENDOWMENT
2	42.16	81.00	6		50
3	76.59	142.00	12		140
					Cash
5	150.89	261.00	15		$123
10	367.00	536.00	10		483
15	641.94	779.00	5		767
20	1,000.00	1,000.00			Matured

Under Plan "C" we note that after the member has paid two years of assessments his extended insurance is 6 years and 50 days; after 3 years, 12 years and 140 days. But after 5 years, the extended insurance is 15 years plus $123.00 in cash. Which means that should the member cease payment after 5 years of membership he is entitled to 15 additional years of protection for $1,000 and is entitled to $123.00 in cash at the expiration of the extended insurance feature. After 10 years of membership the member is entitled to 10 years of extended insurance for $1,000 plus $483.00 in cash payable ten years after the member has ceased making payments.

Should the member die during the period of extended insurance his beneficiaries would receive the entire $1,000 from our SSCU.

What we must keep in mind in Plan "C" is the twenty-year endowment feature, which means that the member has at his disposal three options at the end of twenty years: 1. Take out $1,000 in cash. 2. Take out $622 in cash and $1,000 paid-up certificate for life. 3. Take out a paid-up certificate of $2,648 for life.

Lodge No. 70 to Show Moving Pictures After Meeting

Chicago, Ill.—Members of Lodge Zvon, No. 70, SSCU, are hereby notified that the next meeting scheduled for next Saturday, Nov. 16, will be held in the usual quarters. Meeting shall commence at 6:30 p. m., in order to allow sufficient time for the social which will follow the order of business. The entertainment will be open to both members of the adult and juvenile departments of our lodge. Moving pictures will be shown after the meeting, followed by entertainment.

All members are urged to be in attendance. Parents who have their children enrolled in the junior division may bring them along. No charge will be made for the children. Other parents who have children and who are not members, may enroll them now and thus entitle them to the entertainment free of charge. Cost of medical examination is reimbursed by our SSCU. Initiation into the lodge is free. Hence, it only costs 15 cents a month for assessments to enroll and maintain the children in the lodge. For further particulars in this matter either consult the secretary or come to my home.

Don't forget to come to our Nov. 16 meeting.

John Gottlieb, Pres.

Undressed

Doris, radiant over a recent addition to the family, rushed out to tell a neighbor.

"Oh, you don't know what we've got upstairs!"

"What is it?" the neighbor asked.

"A new baby brother," said Doris, and she watched very closely the effect of her announcement.

"You don't say so!" the neighbor exclaimed. "Is he going to stay?"

"I think so," said Doris. "He's got his things off."

Cleveland SSCU Bowling League News

Complete Initial Round

Cleveland, O.—Trailing behind the leaders for some time in the third and fourth positions, Happy-Go-Lucky and Indians came to the front last Sunday, Nov. 3, with some excellent games.

The girls came in for more than their share of the spotlight with individual highs. Mary Perdan rolled a 201 game to take the lead in the feminine division; S. Jelercic with a game of 187 placed her in second position, while August Guzik, who led until last Sunday, has been displaced into third position.

Looking over the other girls' individual endeavors we find that Betty Stucin rolled a nice game of 166, Julia Bouha 163, Leona Kolman 122, Eltrude Sahaolnik 106 and Rose Adamic 105. A newcomer to the league is Alice Struna, former president of the Collinwood Boosters.

Not to be outdone, the men bowlers put on their Sunday best. Walter Guzik hit games of 181, 193 and 189 for a total of 563. Al Jelercic with games of 198, 183 and 169 for a total of 550. F. Sluga with games of 193, 158 and 163 for a total of 524. George Kovitch, president of Betsy Ross, polished off the maples for a game of 207, and C. Mandel was close behind with 202. Others who came near the 200 mark are J. Tolar, with 189, and Jerry Krall, 183.

Here are the league's standings at the close of the first round:

Table with columns W, L, Pct. for various bowling teams like Happy-Go-Luckys, Indians, National Stars, etc.

Table titled 'Teams Three and Single High Game' listing Pathfinders, Happy-Go-Luckys, Center Ramblers, and Cardinals.

Table titled 'Men's Three and Single High Game' listing F. Drobnic, A. Laurich, G. Kovitch, W. Guzik, C. Kikel, G. Kovitch.

Table titled 'Ladies' Three and Single High Game' listing S. Jelercic, A. Guzik, M. Perdan, S. Jelercic, A. Guzik.

The foregoing figures were prepared by Frank Jaklich, league's secretary and official tabulator.

Zoo Doctor a Busy Man

Those intrepid hunters who penetrate the thickest jungles and "bring them back alive" to fill our zoos with rare animals, live uncertain lives and the wide acclaim they get for their bravery is well deserved.

a tooth, of course, must be extracted. Elephants often splinter their tusks against iron enclosures and again it is up to the zoo doctor to repair the damage.

In the course of their duties zoo doctors are called on to treat scores of diseases and accidental injuries, and while some of their jobs are done without danger to themselves, others are of such a nature as to make the most courageous bring-em-back-alive man hesitate.

These guardians of the health of our zoo animals must be well versed in everything from tuberculosis to parasites. In captivity monkeys become very susceptible to tuberculosis, and they also frequently suffer from indigestion, pneumonia, and bronchitis.

And, strangest of all, the giraffe, at times, actually has sore throat.—Pathfinder.

Perhaps in the alligator cage there is one ill-tempered old-timer who is taking out his spite on his fellows with damaging results. This pugnacious reptile is promptly hauled out and his teeth sawed off.

Wifey: Darling, I always hit my fingers when I go to drive a nail. Isn't there some way I can prevent this?

Boosting the SSCU

East Palestine, O.—It is just as easy to boost as it is to ridicule. Some people are always tearing down, never do they pass a good word on for anything.

One of these is our own SSCU. It has done so much good, and is still doing so, that it can not be criticized severely without its critics being unfair.

Joe J. Golicie, No. 41, SSCU.

Not Entirely Cured

Visitor in Washington: I want to get some information. Where can I apply? Washingtonian: You should go to the official Bureau of Information.

Mims: What killed Jim Fooley? He always looked very healthy to me.

Mary Jane: I shall never again ask Paul for his advice. Susan: What's the matter? Mary Jane: He never thinks what I have made up my mind to do is right.

Doctor: What seems to be the matter with you? Describe your symptoms.

Patient: I feel as if my stomach was tied up in a bow-knot.

Rufus: I hear there's a bill in Congress to abolish tobacco coupons.

Goofus: That's just my luck—when I only need 11,000,000 more to get a mouth-organ.

Auntie: Tommy, won't you have another piece of this shortcake?

Tommy: No, I thank you. Auntie: You seem to be suffering from loss of appetite.

Tommy: It ain't loss of appetite. What I'm sufferin' from is politeness.

Basketball Season Opens

Soon we will have those lodges interested in basketball entering teams in local leagues and preparing for regular contests with opposing quintets.

Today, when the Nova Doba went into print, the Cleveland Interlodge League opened its 1935-36 season in the St. Clair Bathhouse, the first game starting at 7 p. m.

Eight teams comprise this circuit, which will represent the following Yugoslav fraternals: SSCU, SDZ, KSKJ, SBFU and SSPZ. Our Union will be represented by the George Washington Lodge, No. 180, SSCU, team, which will go under the name of GW, SSCU-Bukovnik's Studios, as the latter is sharing the expense with the lodge in equipping the team.

The Interlodge Basketball League should provide an interesting spectacle every Wednesday evening when all eight teams engage in contests. Games will start at 7 o'clock.

Rules and regulations governing the league will be published in the Nova Doba.

While the Cleveland lodge basketball teams are getting an early start in the 1935-36 campaign, other SSCU lodge quintets are expected to get into shape shortly and prepare for games.

According to reports, SSCU lodges in Ely, Minnesota, again will repeat past performances by entering teams in local competition. Last season four lodges participated: Arrowheads, No. 184; Gophers of Lodge No. 2, Rangers of Lodge No. 1 and Hawkeyes of Lodge No. 200.

In fact, basketball is very popular among our locals situated on the iron range. In Chisholm, Minn., we had Lodge No. 30, and in Gilbert, Minn., Lodge No. 192, together with the four mentioned in the preceding paragraph, engaged in the first Minnesota SSCU basketball tournament held in Ely last season.

Back in 1931 the states of Pennsylvania and Illinois were represented on the court with SSCU teams. National Stars, No. 213, of Conemaugh, Pa., and Pittsburghers, No. 196, of Pittsburgh, Pa., were actively engaged in the Keystone State, while Indians, No. 220, and Illini Stars, No. 211, both of Chicago, and Comrades, No. 193, of Waukegan, filed the SSCU colors in the state of Illinois.

It will be interesting to watch the current season basketball participation, with particular note as to how many SSCU lodges will organize and maintain teams.

Spookin'

With Little Stan

Ely, Minn.—The sky hangs low overcast with heavy black clouds. A cold north wind is blowing, freezing to ice, an afternoon rain, and atop of all that a light snow is falling.

Few pedestrians are seen on the streets. Everything seems quite Dominious, lerie, in plain English, SPOOKY!

Little Stan just through with an oversupply of work is trudging home slowly. A loud crash greets his ears. He dashes behind a lamp post, trembling! He peeks out and sees a group of young fellows dashing away with a policeman following close on their heels.

And things don't go to Little Stan's head. He is so tall that it takes a long, long time for things to go to his head. Tsk!

Basketball suits for the coming season for the Gophers of course were ordered last week. And soon the season will be in full swing. Our next meeting will be held next Thursday and very Gopher, girls and boys, should attend because there is going to be an attendance prize given. A surprise awaits everyone.

The Shelp sisters, Josephine, Mary, and Frances, and Peppy Louis Kotzian were on the air in Slovene programs over station WMFC, located at Hibbing and Virginia, and made a decided hit with radio audiences with their sweet melodies Slovene songs. Very sweet.

And Little Stan, relaxing after a tough week, decides its time to retire, and not forgetting the juveniles he says: toodle-oo.

By the way Little Stan received a nice cegar from Frankie Progar who by this time has settled down to the daily routine of married life. Well being kinda leery if it was loaded, Little Stan took a knife one day and cut it in half. It wasn't loaded folks. So Little Stan purchased another one and after smoking it a while there was a flash as it exploded and Little Stan disappeared. I doubt if you'll find him by next week. But here's hoping.

Restraint

"I hope you don't think I'm conceited," he said, after he had finished telling her all about himself.

"Oh, no," she replied. "But I'm just wondering how you can keep from giving three hearty cheers whenever you look at yourself in the glass."

Young American Boosters

Walsenburg, Colo.—We are here to tell you of the large and happy crowd that attended our Oct. 19 dance. Shuffling feet kept time to the rhythmic strains of Tony Just and his orchestra. The Young American Boosters were pleased over such a large turnout and wish to take this means to thank sincerely all that made this dance a success.

Many of you no doubt remember the enjoyable evening spent at the Boosters' in their past affairs. So to keep up the good times they will hold another dance on Nov. 16. Each succeeding one is better, and each one portends a recognition and prestige that only can be gained through an active lodge. The committee in charge is very careful to improve on past performances and preparations are made to accommodate an enormous crowd.

We feel confident that those who have attended any of the Boosters' dances will join us again this evening of fun and renewed friendship. How many new faces will be seen on Nov. 16? We extend a hearty invitation to lodges from far and near to be with us again.

The writer in the company of her folks spent a week-end in Denver. The trip to Denver was full of something new from the beginning to the end, and pleasures were experienced that will never be forgotten. I had the extreme pleasure of meeting a few Colorado Sunshine Lodge members and renewing old acquaintances. I take this means to thank Mr. and Mrs. Smole and family for their refreshing meals and hospitality and would be very much pleased to have them come to Walsenburg sometime soon.

Sister Alice Just is on the sick list. We all wish you a speedy recovery.

We say farewell until Nov. 16, when all roads lead to Walsenburg, where Tony Just and his orchestra, together with the Young American Boosters, will welcome each and every guest.

Mary R. Dolenc, Sec'y, No. 216, SSCU.

The Last One

Mrs. Jones was leaning against the doorpost of her house when her friend, Mrs. Carr, happened along, bearing in her arms her twelfth child.

"Hello," said Mrs. Jones to her neighbor, "I see you are around again with another little Carr."

"Yes, another little Carr it is. And as far as I'm concerned, I hope he's the caboose."

It happened in New York's East Side.

"How many seasons are there?" asked the teacher. "Just two," answered Rachel. "What are they?" inquired the puzzled instructor. "Slack and busy," replied Rachel.
