GLAVNI STEBRI NAŠE JEDNOTE

Ko je naša Jednota začela s prvim junijem leta 1894 poslovati, je tedaj štela 333 članov, ali za 7 članov manj kakor jih šteje danes društvo sv. Jožefa št. 53 v Waukeganu, Ill. v svojem odraslem oddelku. Od tedaj pa do danes se je skupno število Jednote v članstvu obeh oddelkov za nekaj več kakor stokrat povečalo, kajti koncem lanskega leta smo imeli v odraslem oddelku 24,856 članov, v mladinskem pa 10,322; skupaj 35,178.

Danes hočemo s temi vrsticami zopet predstaviti celokupnemu članstvu glavne stebre naše Jednote, oziroma naša največja krajevna društva. Naj jim bo to v zaslužen priznanje in čast za njih vrlo delovanje pod zastavo naše podporne organizacije.

Prvenstvo vseh društev, tako tudi glede velikosti vseh slovenskih društev v Ameriki nosi gotovo naše vrlo društvo sv. Jožefa št. 169 v Clevelandu, ker šteje skoraj 1300 članov v obeh oddelkih, v odraslem 851, v mladinskem pa 444, torej skupaj 1295.

To število tvori dobro sedmino celokupnega Jednotinega članstva.

NAJVEČJE ŽENSKO DRUŠTVO

Ze leta in leta se ponaša naše vrlo clevelandsko žensko društvo sv. Marije Magdalene št. 162 s tem, da ima največ članic v obeh oddelkih; samo za 52 manj kakor tisoč! To društvo se je dolgo časa ponašalo z Jednotinim Zlatim klavdom, katero so mu pa prevzeli naši Jožefovci v Collinwoodu. Letos dne 7. marca bo poteklo 22 let, odkar je bilo društvo sv. Marije Magdalene ustanovljeno, odkar pa posljuje društvo sv. Jožefa št. 169 bo pa letos 1. julija poteklo 18 let.

Je še nekaj drugih krajevnih društev, ki niso daleč zadržani za gorinavedenimi po številu svojega članstva. Ker bo pa začetkom aprila t. l. otvorjena velika jubilejna kampanja povodom 45 letnice naše Jednote, bodo imela navedena društva lepo priliko doseči zaželjeno število tako, da jih bomo prihodnjic lahko prišli med glavne stebre naše organizacije. Vse podrobnosti glede nameravane kampanje bodo koncem tega meseca priobčene; začnite se že sedaj nanjo dobro pripraviti!

VAŽNE RAZSODBE NAJVIŠJEGA SODIŠČA

Washington, 27. feb. — Danes je najvišje zvezno sodišče izreklo in podalo štiri jako važne razsodbe v zadevi delavskega gibanja in sicer:

Prvič: Sedeže stavke (štrajki) so nepostavni.

Drugič: Državni delavski odbor nima nikake pravice prisiliti kako kompanijo ali delodajalca, da mora zopet zaposliti stavkarje, ki samovoljno stopajo na lastnino kakega delodajalca in povzročajo nasilje.

Tretjič: Delavci, ki kršijo neštrajkarske in druge pogodbe s svojimi delodajalci, izgubijo s tem zaščito delavske postave.

Četrto: Sodnje nimajo nikake pravice pregledovati potek, zapisnike in evidenco v sličnih slučajih, da bi se prepričali, če so določbe odbora upravičene.

Te razsodbe je podal predsednik najvišjega sodišča, C. E. Hughes. Potrjene so bile s 5:2 glasovoma. Nedavno ime-

JUGOSLAVIJA NA RAZSTAVI V NEW YORKU

Poslanstvo kraljevine Jugoslavije v Washingtonu nam sporoča glede jugoslovanske udeležbe na svetovni razstavi v New Yorku sledeče: "Jugoslovanska razstava v New Yorku je namenjena pokazati ljudem v Zed. državah ne samo lepoto naravne vire dežele, pač pa tudi prizadevanje jugoslovanske vlade in naroda, da prispeva Jugoslavija svoj delež glede miru in napredka."

Tako se je izjavil dr. Konstantin Fotić, jugoslovanski poslanik v Zedinjenih državah, ki je bil imenovan za generalnega komisarja jugoslovanskega dela na svetovni razstavi v New Yorku. "Razstavljeni predmeti," je dejal dr. Fotić, "bodo predstavljali splošen vpogled v socialne in ekonomske zavode v Jugoslaviji. Videlo se bo začetke historične organizacije kmetov in prebivalstva v splošnem pa vse do danes, ko se Jugoslavija lahko ponaša s finimi družabnimi odredbami, sporti, javno vzgojo, javnega zdravja in sploh z vsem, kar nudi moderna država."

"Malo ljudem na svetu je n. pr. znano, da obstoji v Jugoslaviji najstarejša lekarna na svetu in sicer v Dubrovniku, kjer se nahaja že iz srednjega stoletja. Model te lekarne bo videti na razstavi. "Jugoslovanska vlada si je dosti prizadevala, da bo njen del na svetovni razstavi v resnici predstavljal Jugoslavijo dostojno in progresivno v vseh ozirih. Kakih 5,000 kubičnih čevljev bo zavzemal prostor, kjer bo jugoslovanski razstavni oddelek."

"Pred vhomod v jugoslovanski oddelek bo ogromen zemljevid Jugoslavije, označene vse njene modre reke, visoke gore, železnice, javna pota in zrakoplovni pristavi. V tem oziru je Jugoslavija zadnje čase silno napredovala."

"Na razstavi se bo lahko dobilo fini bosanski tobak, izvrstna bosanska kava, a tudi razne veznine in enaki umetniški izdelki slovenskih, hrvatskih in srbskih žensk. Videlo se bo lahko v miniaturi narodna jugoslovanska bogastva, nadalje krasne slike, kipi, industrijski napredek in arhitektura."

"Poseben del na jugoslovanskem oddelku razstave bo posvečen milijonu Jugoslovancev, ki prebivajo v Zed. državah. Videlo se bo zlasti izume svetovnega pomena, kot sta jih doprinesla Nikola Tesla in Mihajlo Pupin. Skratka, Jugoslavija bo častno, pa tudi značajno zastopana na newyorški svetovni razstavi."

"Vsi oni, ki bodo letos ali mogoče drugo leto obiskali New York, bodisi, da so namenjeni na obisk v domovino, ali se vračajo iz domovine, ali se mude po opravkih v New Yorku, naj nikar ne zamudijo obiskati razstave, na kateri jih bo gotovo prav zelo zanimal jugoslovanski oddelek. Ves čas razstave bodo na razstavnem prostoru vljudni zastopniki jugoslovanske vlade, ki bodo lahko primerno tolmačili vse potrebno obiskovalcem."

KAKO SE VRŠI VOLITEV PAPEŽA

Ves katoliški svet ima baš sedaj uprte svoje oči proti Vatikanu, kjer se je na današnji dan 1. marca zbralo 62 kardinalov v svrhu izvolitve 262. papeža sv. Cerkve.

Volitev novega papeža se vrši v krasno slikani Sistinski kapeli. Vsak kardinal ima svojo posebno celico in svojega tajnika in strežnika. Tekom "konklava" ali volitve ne more noben kardinal občevati z zunanjim svetom, kajti dvojna vrata njegove celice so vedno zaprta in ključne nosi neki višji uradnik sv. Stolice. Poleg kolegija kardinalov je tudi 5 ceremonijarjev, 1 spovednik, 2 zdravnik, 2 lekarnarja (brata redovnika), 3 bolniški strežaji in 10 drugih strežnikov; kuhinjo ima v oskrbi 11 nun. Hrano dobivajo kardinali skozi posebno vratica. Zasedanje kardinalskega kolegija se prične s sv. mašo, katero je daroval Msgr. Santoro, tajnik tega kolegija.

Volitev se vrši v sistinski kapeli, kjer ima vsak kardinal svoj poseben sedež z baldahinom. Volilni listek je velik 6x8 palcev in je tiskan v latinščini. Pri vrhu na levi je pod pečatom označeno ime kardinala, ki voli, na desno je isto tako ime kandidata, zdolet je pa tajni rek ali geslo, ki je znano samo kardinalu. Volitev se vrši dvakrat dnevno, vedno s primernimi molitvami in klicem sv. Duha. Vsak kardinal mora svoj listek osebno prinesiti in položiti v kelih. Za izvolitev je treba 2 tretinske večine. Volitev se vrši toliko časa, da ne dobi kandidat zahtevane večine. Pri tem je važno, da cerkvena postava ne predpisuje, da mora biti papež le izvoljen kak duhovnik, lahko je tudi lajik in celo oženjen. Papež Celestine V. leta 1294 ni bil duhovnik.

Ko je uspešna volitev končana, se vrže vse volilne listke v peč, iz katere se po posebni cevi dvigne belkast dim, da ljudstvo vidi, da je novi papež izvoljen, ako je volitev neuspešna, se nad sistinsko kapelo dvigne črnkast dim. Izid volitve pričakuje do 100,000 glav broječa množica ljudstva na trgu sv. Petra.

Ko dobi kandidat zahtevano večino glasov, ga vprašajo, ako hoče prevzeti ta važen urad. Zatem se potegne stran vse zavese ali baldahine kardinalov, izzemši kardinala, ki je bil izvoljen. Kardinali se mu poklonijo, potem ga preoblečejo v posebna oblačila in novi papež si nadene na prst ribiški prstan sv. Petra ter izbere ime. Po tej ceremoniji stopi dekan kolegija na balkon in naznani ljudstvu na trgu sv. Petra rekoč: "Z velikim veseljem vam naznanjam, da imamo novega papeža." Nato stopi tudi novi papež na balkon in podeli množici svoj blagoslov. Letos bo zvedel ves svet takoj po dovršeni volitvi ime novega papeža, kar se bo po vatikanski radio postajali naznanilo.

IZPOD PERESA NAŠIH GLAVNIH URADNIKOV

Cenjani mi sobratje in sestre, člani in članice K. S. K. Jednote!

Delegacija minule redne (19.) konvencije je proti koncu svojega zborovanja izrazila željo, da bi se člani in članice glavnega odbora večkrat skozi leto oglasili s svojimi članki v našem Glasilu. Vsled tega stopam tudi jaz danes pred vas kot tretji podpredsednik KSKJ, kateri urad mi je bil ponovno poverjen na minuli konvenciji.

Dragi mi sobratje in sestre! Prav lepo je, da se glavni uradnik ali uradnica večkrat skozi leto oglasijo z dobrimi priporočili ali nasveti; vendar pa to še ni vse; treba je, da članstvo te članke tudi bere in kar je najbolj glavno, da skuša saj mali del tega storiti kar se mu na ta način priporoča. Dolžnost seveda je vsakega uradnika in uradnice, da je vedno na prvem mestu kadar gre za dobrobit naše dične K. S. K. Jednote. Vendar pa, dragi mi sobratje in sestre, brez vas, krajevnih uradnikov in uradnic in vas, posameznih članov in članic ne bi mogel glavni odbor veliko storiti; le skupno, ali z Vašo pomočjo smo zagotovljeni, da bomo imeli vedno in povsod lep uspeh.

Letos obhaja naša podporna mati, Jednota svojo 45. letnico obstoja in v ta namen je glavni odbor določil veliko jubilejno kampanjo. Bratje in sestre! Kaj bomo storili? Bomo li spali spanje pravičnega? Ne, ampak vsi kot eden bomo šli na delo za večjo in močnejšo Jednoto, saj za organizacijo kot je naša Jednota, ni težko agitirati, saj je vendar največja, najstarejša in najsolidnejša slovenska katol. podporna organizacija v Ameriki. Pa bo morda ta ali drugi rekel: Je že res tako, toda kje naj pa dobim še kaj novih članov, ker so že vsi pri družini? Bodi si pri tem, ali onem. — Pa ni tako, prijatelj! Še vedno se lahko dobi kandidate za pristop; po nekaterih naselbinah še celo veliko, take, ki ne spadajo še k nobenemu društvu; treba je samo dobre volje da jih obiščemo, jim raztolmačimo veliko vrednost in važnost zavarovanja pri naši Jednoti, pa jih bomo za gotovo pridobili na našo stran.

Vem seveda, da največkrat se izraža takole: Glavni odbor naj agitira in pa uradniki(ce) krajevnih društev. Pa ni, oziroma ne bi smelo tako biti. Prijatelj, res je sicer tako, kakor sem že gori omenil, da uradnik in uradnica mora biti vedno na prvem mestu; pa tudi ti, dragi mi sobrat in sestra lahko veliko storijo! Saj poznaš svojega sosedo, imaš svoje prijatelje; nagovori jih in skušaj pridobiti za KSKJ.

Kaj pa ti, katoliški oče, in ti, katoliška mati? Vstavi se samo za hip in pomisli, ali ni tvoja dolžnost, da kot katoliški oče, mati skrbeti, da bodo vajini otroci pred vsem zavarovani pri katoliškem društvu in pri katoliški Jednoti, in to je naša KSKJ.

Veliko se govori in piše, kako bi se pridobilo našo mladino in kako isto obdržalo v naših vrstah. V ta namen se ustanovljajo razni športni in "booster" klubi, katere mladina ljubi in ima v tem svojo zabavo, veselje in razvedrilo. To je vse prav, saj poštena razvedrila so vedno na mestu za mladino, ali za starejše. Vendar pa vsaj po mojem skromnem mnenju nekoliko grešimo pri naši mladini, ker mislimo, da jo bomo samo s takimi klubi obdržali, oziroma pridobili. Naša dolžnost je tudi poleg vsega tega, da skušamo naši mladini izkazovati tudi našo naklonjenost in ljubezen; mladina bo potem pristopala v naša društva ne samo zaradi športnih klubov, ampak tudi iz potrebe in ljubezni do naše Jednote. Ko bomo vse to dosegli, potem bomo lahko brez skrbi in z mirnim srcem izročili vodstvo društev in vodstvo Jednote mladim močem. V ta namen je pa treba našo mladino podučiti zato: naj bi se v tem jubilejnom letu prirejal tudi mladinske shode, kjer naj se našim mladim Jednotarjem raztolmačilo, da naj bodo ponosni, ker so sinovi in hčere slovenskih staršev; saj je naš slovenski narod v prvih vrstah kulturnih narodov na svetu. Tako naj se jim tudi omenja, da naj bodo ponosni, ker so sinovi in hčere katoliških staršev, ki že spadajo toliko let k najstarejši, najmočnejši in najbolj moderni katol. podporni organizaciji K. S. K. Jednoti.

Končno tudi jaz apeliram in prosim vse uradnike in uradnice krajevnih društev, tako tudi vse članstvo naše Jednote, da gremo v tem jubilejnom letu vsi na delo za našo dobro mater K. S. K. Jednoto in da ne odnehamo prej, dokler ne dobimo vse, kar je našega (katoliškega) za našo katoliško Jednoto. Pri tem pa posvetimo v prvi vrsti pozornost naši mladini. Jaz upam in pričakujem, da ob zaključku leta se bo naša Jednota lahko ponašala z največjo in najbolj uspešno kampanjo, kar jih ima še v svoji zgodovini zabeleženih.

S sobratskim pozdravom in Bog vas živi!

Joseph Leksan, III. podpredsednik KSKJ.

Vsak naš član (ca) mora biti ponosen na svojo podporno mater, K. S. K. Jednoto, ki je začetnica vseh drugih slovenskih Jednot.

Vsi člani vaše družine bi morali biti zavarovani pri naši Jednoti.

Ali imate že kakega novega kandidata za prihodnjo sejo?

ANALYZES CAGE MEET RESULTS, CITES LEADING PLAYERS, SCORERS

Joliet, Ill.—Milwaukee not only carried away top honors in KSKJ basketball, but also had the outstanding player, John Remitz. Were it not for Remitz, Chicago today would be our champions. When it seemed that Chicago was in with a 15-to-5 lead at the half, Remitz himself was responsible for the greater share of the victory drive points made by his teammates. In fact, his total shows him to have made 25 baskets and 4 free throws for 54 points in all.

Blazine of St. Stephens set the pace for his group. He made 21 baskets for a total of 42 points, which made him the second highest scorer of the tourney. Had Blazine kept up the pace of the first half in the heavyweight finals, St. Stephens would have won easily.

Ed Matesevac of the St. Georges of Joliet came in third with 13 baskets and 9 free throws, totaling 35 points. Musich of the same team followed with 14 baskets or 28 points. Horvath and R. Matesevac of the same team followed with 26 points each. Rabetz of St. Stephens, Fitzgerald, a teammate, Heraver of St. Josephs of Waukegan and Cech of St. Stephens followed in close order.

R. Mutz of St. Joes, Joliet, led the lightweights with 14 baskets and 3 free throws for 31 points. Benkovich of the St. Florian champs, with 13 baskets and 1 free throw, came next. Then Azman, Malesich and Muran of the St. Francis, Joliet, came next with 23, 19 and 16 points, respectively.

In the girls' division all scoring honors went to Ann Kovacek. Her 19 baskets and 2 free throws put her far ahead of her next competitor, Tercek of the same team, St. Annes of Waukegan, and Krzywans of St. Stephens, who had 9 points apiece. Wanagaitis of St. Genevieves of Joliet and Hladnik of St. Marys, Waukegan, with 7 and 5 points each, respectively, took fourth and fifth places. Ann Kovacek's scoring spree was outstanding in this that of all the players who took part in the tourney but two exceeded her total of 40 points, and they were Remitz of Milwaukee and the St. Stephens' Blazine, both heavyweights in the men's division, who had 54 and 42 points, respectively, and of these two, Remitz played in three games, Blazine in four, while Ann Kovacek's total was made in two games.

In our last article we overlooked the fact that Joe "Cozy" Miholic is also to be given credit for the development of his champs, the St. Anne's team, and may therefore be justly proud, together with "Red" Grom, of Ann Kovacek's basketball ability.

The three high score honor awards were won by St. Annes, with a score of 35, the St. Florian lights scoring 46, and the St. George heavyweights of Joliet with 73 points.

Sportsmanship trophies were awarded to the St. Genevieves of Joliet, girls; St. Francis of Joliet, lights, and the Indianapolis heavyweights.

In our unofficial team ratings, South Chicago added 10 more points by their lightweight victory. Joliet, in second place to date, boosted its total 5 points with the second place of the St. Francis lights. Waukegan added 10 points by virtue of St. Anne's girls' championship. New point winners for the first time were the Milwaukee Baragites with 10 points as a result of their heavyweight honors, and Chicago likewise 10 points due to the second places won by the St. Stephen's heavies and the girls.

The present standings therefore:

PARKVIEWS LEAD TIGHT RACE; TOMAZINS, PERKOS TIED FOR SECOND

Chicago, Ill.—Tomazin Tavern's three-game count over Perko's Inn put them into a tie for second place with the Inn team and also put them one game closer to the lead in the Stephen's pin league. After being in the cellar in the early part of the season, the Tavern team bowled its way to only five games behind the leaders. High scores for the winners were Arbanas' 540 and "Butch" Kremesec's 521, while A. Terselich's 492 and Strohen's 487 were the best scores for the losers.

Parkview Laundry, in the No. 1 spot, took two games from the Monarch Beers. Anton Kremesec, with 568, and Bicek, with 559, led the Laundry team to its two-game win. The Beer team had good scores, with J. Terselich Jr. getting 550, C. Zulich 524, Darovic 522 and Pruh 511.

The team of Hank Basco and "Red" Grill took two games from the Jerin Butchers. "Red" was "on" and got 222, 224 and 179 for a total of 625, while Hank hit the wood for 537. The Zefran boys led the Butchers,

BARAGAS ELATED OVER SHOWING OF CAGE TEAM

Milwaukee, Wis.—Knights and Ladies of Baraga Society members are proud of the splendid showing the Knights made at the midwest basketball tournament at South Chicago. Much credit is due to Coach "Red" Frangesch for his expert care and attention toward the players that weekend, together with the clever playing experience and co-operation of the players.

For many New York has been the port of entry to these United States. A trip to the Fair this year will enable you to see again the sights which first greeted your eyes as you approached these shores. Fair Lady Liberty still stands majestically with torch held high in the harbor. The skyline is more awe-inspiring than ever. The Following this broadcast the 21 guild members visited Links Townhouse, where a grand finale was staged to the colorful and gay musical setting with George Hessberger and his Tyrolean music. The group enjoyed dancing, particularly as it had that familiar Slovenian swing to it, and joined in the community singing led by the jovial Hessberger. At 11:30 the party enjoyed a further broadcast of Hessberger music via the WCFL station.

Arrangements for this radio studio tour were made by Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Zorc.

QUOTES FOR QUADRAGESIMA

"In very many ways the Christian and the Communist movements and indeed the imperial Roman idea and system could be compared. Shall we say that the Communist works by means of violence and hate; the Roman Caesar-god, by means of violence and scorn; the Christian, by peaceful methods and with love."—Rev. C. C. Martindale, S.J., in "Great Catholics."

"We must be in communion with that Christian Church which is 'Catholic,' which, too, is called the 'Catholic' not only by its own members but by its enemies, too. For whether they like it or not, heretics and schismatics—when talking with strangers, though not when talking among themselves—mean by the 'Catholic' nothing but the Catholic Church; for they would be misunderstood if they failed to use a term which the whole world applies to her alone."—St. Augustine.

"It was as a young monk in Rome that Hildebrand had his first taste of the state of things which all his principle, all his strength, was before long to be arrayed. Pope Gregory the Sixth, John Gratian, had appointed him his chaplain, and between master and servant in this respect there was real affection. A prelate of upright life, the pontiff had none the less to confess before a synod held at Sutri that his acquisition of the papacy had been by methods laying him open to the charge of simony. Humbly and submissively he stripped himself of his pontifical robes and went into exile in Germany. Hildebrand faithfully followed him. The unfortunate Pope did not long survive his deposition: within two years he died."—G. Eliot Anstruther in "Great Catholics."

"Anthony of Padua is a Saint, who, unlike the poets, was made, not born. One of the wrong notions which hold back many of us from essaying the path of sanctity is the notion that a Saint can't help being one and that his sainthood is congenital, like his tallness or shortness, his black hair or brown. It is true that some natures have a stronger bent than others toward religious reverence; but, as it is a bent which brings its peculiar and strong temptations, it spells no advantage. A Sinner becomes a Saint not through being Heaven's pampered darling but through bearing his cross daily and through wholly merging his own will in the will of God."—Ernest Oldmeadow in "Great Catholics."

"The drawn-out story of the attempts to entrap him (St. Thomas More), and the lamentable farce of his trial make poor reading for English justice. Indeed More had more than once to put the Chancellor who presided over the court right in matters of procedure; and finally when the ill-advised Chancellor interrupted him with the unfortunate question, 'What, you wish to be considered wiser and of better conscience than all the bishops and nobles of the realm?' More had ready the crushing answer which will serve its turn yet in many cases: 'My Lord, for one bishop of your opinion, I have

THE SUFFICIENCY OF NOTHING

Naturally
To know how we rate, we must begin by considering ourselves as nothing. In the order of nature, as to our being and its innate activity, not many years ago, we were nonentities. To be and to act comes from God. From nothingness, He called us into existence and endowed us with the powers of action. Relative to our intellectual and volitional life with all that these entail, we have these from Him Who made heaven and earth and all that is in them. Moreover, our continuance in being and our protracted ability to use the faculties which originate in being come from the providence of God Who preserves us from day to day. We have indeed that mysterious power known as free will, but this, too, comes from the divine Giver and Preserver. God concurs in the exercise of free will: benignly, in its use the way God intended; ominously, when we misuse that will, to cause God to exercise His consequent will since He will not withdraw the freedom which He gave. Anent this—"What hast thou that thou hast not received" (I Cor. vi, 7)?

Supernaturally
In the order of grace, we can do nothing without God's help. To count in the spiritual order of things, we need sanctifying grace. Not to be in God's friendship, through mortal sin, rates as nothing. As St. Paul puts it: "If I should have prophecy and should know all mysteries, and all knowledge, and if I should have faith, so that I could remove mountains, and have not charity, I am nothing. And if I should distribute all my goods to feed the poor, and if I should deliver my body to be burned, and have not charity, it profiteth me

POPULAR KLB MEMBERS UNITED IN MARRIAGE

Milwaukee, Wis.—Joseph Matzelle and Catherine Horvath were married on Feb. 14, St. Valentine's Day. The scene of this wedding was the St. Mary Help of Christians Church, West Allis, at 9 a. m. Father Francis read the nuptial Mass.

The bride was given in marriage by her father. Catherine was attended by her sister Pauline as maid of honor, and Mary Matzelle, sister of the groom, as bridesmaid, as well as Esther Schultz. Joanne Zupan, niece of the groom, was the flower girl and who was the surprise attendant.

George Matzelle, brother of the groom, was best man. Joseph Horvath and Davis Dobs were ushers.

Josephine Imperl played the organ, Mary Bojantz and Bertha Windishman sang at the nuptial Mass. The three young ladies are girlhood friends of the bride.

A reception followed at the home of the bride.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Matzelle are at home at 1134 S. 61st St., West Allis.

Mr. Matzelle is a charter member and the first president of the Knights and Ladies of Baraga. He and his bride have been very active in many promotions of the Baragas, too numerous to mention.

a hundred Saints of mine; and for one Parliament of yours, I have all the General Councils for a thousand years; and for one kingdom, I have France and all the kingdoms of Christendom."—Lawrence W. Meynell in "Great Catholics."

nothing" (I Cor. xiii, 2, 3). To win merit, we need sanctifying or habitual grace. To be capable of doing good, we need actual grace. There is nothing we can do for eternal life without this help of God. Christ says: "Without Me you can do nothing" (John xv, 5). To effect a beginning in good we must have grace. To prosper in good, we need continued grace. Every instant of our lives we need this divine assistance of grace if we would amount to something in the spiritual order. The helps will be given in abundance if we co-operate with God and this is brought about by the plentiful means Christ has placed at our disposal.

Abundantly
The great Apostle who wrote so much about the limitations of our nothingness also wrote beautifully about the ways to overcome this handicap. He tells us how we can amount to something and that our ability to rate has limitless possibilities. Well does he express his own rating when he pens the words: "By the grace of God, I am what I am; and His grace in me hath not been void" (I Cor. xv, 10). Of himself, he was nothing in the way of nature and in the supernatural order, too, just as any mortal. However, by the grace of God, he always rose to the occasion of using it well. Thus he reached the heights of his colossal saintly stature. He met obstacles, but he overcame these with such constancy that he could say with assurance: "I can do all things in Him Who strengthened me" (Phil. iv, 13). Thus with the help of God nothing is impossible. The secret of nothing amounting to something is the use of God's grace. It comes in sufficiency and abundance to those who will use the means of obtaining it, chiefly the Sacraments and prayer. "God is able to make all grace abound in you; that ye always, having all sufficiency in all things, may abound to every good work" (II Cor. ix, 8).

PUBLIC MORALITY IN CATHOLIC KEEPING

Our Cardinals and Bishops Realize This
Our democracy is endangered, religion threatened, false philosophies are subtly disseminated or brazenly advocated in papers and periodicals that find ready access to our homes. We Catholics must stand fast and uphold the divine principles that alone can save the country. There is no other way in which we can do this except through our Catholic papers. His Eminence Cardinal O'Connell of Boston charges our press with this duty: "Staunchly defending the rights of all men to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness, insisting that fidelity to the laws of God is the best safeguard against anarchy and tyranny, the Catholic press in the United States must steadily enlarge its service for God and country."

The dangerous situation today is that most people in our modern society get their conception of faith and morality, their views and values of life from daily reading the secular press. Unless this slow poison is counteracted, irretrievable harm is done, a general harm for which pulpit and school can offer very little remedy. His Eminence Cardinal Dougherty of Philadelphia says: "Nowadays people are more readers of newspapers than of books; hence the need of a Catholic press to defend Catholic truth and spread the Faith."

Our leading dignitaries are all agreed on this. Following are expressions which were obtained from them in the last few weeks:

Bishop Jeanmard of Lafayette: "No one will deny the evil influence that secular papers and magazines exercise with their scarcely concealed contempt for revealed religion, their sensationalism, especially in featuring sex aberrations, and their obscene illustrations. Unless we can oppose to them the strong antidote which only a virile and enlightened Catholic press offers, the evil will have a free field and will continue to grow unchecked."

Bishop Boyle of Pittsburgh: "The Catholic Press catches up and makes permanent the voice and message of those who fill the teaching office of the Church."

Bishop Lucey of Amarillo: "Our religion and our freedom are precious to us; they are also inseparable. Unless the spirit of religion survives, our democracy cannot endure. To teach these truths always and everywhere is today's challenge to the Catholic press."

Bishop Gilmore of Helena: "The Catholic press is needed to present in their true light the problems affecting the Universal Church, to defend the interests of religion, to expose the errors of pernicious propagandists, to apply Catholic teaching in an authoritative manner to current world problems, and to develop among Catholics generally a sense of unity and loyalty."

MEETING NOTICE
Brooklyn, N. Y.—Members of St. Joseph's Society, No. 57, are reminded that the next regular meeting will be held Saturday evening, March 4. Books will be audited at the end of March and it will be appreciated if members will bring their assessment up to date.

WHY BUILD CHURCHES AND SCHOOLS?

The answer to the query was given almost twenty-five years ago. His Holiness, Pope Pius X, pointed out the futility of devoting ourselves to one essential of religious work and neglecting another. Why waste time, sacrifices and finances in erecting beautiful churches and maintaining magnificent schools if we let the benefits of preaching and education get lost for most of the people by exerting only a half-hearted interest in the spread of the Gospel through the press?

Pius X unmistakably decried this fallacy: "Ah, the press! Its importance is not yet understood. Neither the faithful nor the clergy give it the attention that they should. The old sometimes say that it is a new work and that in the past souls were saved without troubling oneself about newspapers. In the past! In the past! But these short-sighted people do not consider that in the past the poison of the bad press was not spread everywhere and that in consequence the antidote of good newspapers was not equally necessary. The question is not about the past. We are not living in the past; we are living today. Very well, then. It is a fact today the Christian people is deceived, poisoned and corrupted by impious newspapers. In vain will you build churches, preach missions, found schools: All your good works, all your efforts will be destroyed, if you cannot at the same time wield the defensive and offensive weapons of a press that is Catholic, loyal and sincere."

Pope Benedict XV stated: "The work of the Catholic papers has been most praiseworthy. They have been an effective auxiliary to the pulpit in spreading the Faith."

Our present Holy Father has declared: "Anything which you will do for the good press, I will consider as having been done for me personally. The good press is very close to my heart and I expect much, very much from it."

In addressing a group of Catholic journalists, Pope Pius XI said: "You are my voice; I do not say that you make my voice heard, but that you are really my voice itself; for few indeed would be the number of the children of the common Father who could learn my wishes and thoughts without the aid of the Catholic press."

Why does the Catholic press fill such an eminent and dire need? Because our Catholic pulpit and school cannot bring truth where this is most violated, cannot instill morality where this is most neglected. The Catholic press is our only means whereby the faith can be strengthened or regained among those who have weakened and are away from the Church; it also is the only way whereby the principles of morality can be propounded to those who have been denied a correct conception of morality.

His Excellency, Archbishop Cicognani, Apostolic Delegate to the United States, recently expressed this service of the Catholic press pointedly: "Good journalism in all its forms has been deservedly called the 'arma veritatis,' the weapon of truth." Providential and necessary is the Catholic press, not because it gives news items of public interest, but chiefly because it confronts squarely three problems that the press may not neglect: Truth, Morality and Religion.

"The relations that exist between morality and publicity are self-evident; nevertheless they are frequently neglected, with great harm to society. The Catholic press can boast of always being guided by the principles of the eternal and natural laws of the Gospel teaching. Nor has it betrayed this just boast by printing even a word in applause of vice or in derision of virtue."
