RAZMOTRIVANJE V PRILOG 19. KONVENCIJE

IZ GLAVNEGA URADA K. S. K. JEDNOTE PRIPOROČILO GLAVNEGA TAJNIKA DELEGATOM 19. KONVENCIJE

Iz tega sklada se plačuje mesečne prispevke in asesment nad 70 let starih članov in članic.

Ravno tako se iz tega sklada pomaga članom (icam), ki so prešli že vso bolniško podporo in ki so vsled bolezni ali poškodbe v takem stanju, da se ne morejo preživljati ali skrbeti zase in za svojo družino.

Mesečni asesment v ta namen znaša 4c na vsakega člana in članico.

Pravilo, ki določuje, da postanejo 70 in več let stari člani prosti asesmenta je stopilo v veljavo 1. jan. 1931.

Od 1. jan. 1931 do 31. marca 1938 se je za take člane in članice plačalo $84,832.08

V istem času se je izplačalo v izrednih podporah 10,440.15

Skupaj se je v tem času plačalo $95,272.23

Od članstva se je prejelo potom asesmenta 88,461.88

Razlika $ 6,810.35

Navedene številke kažejo, da se je od 1. jan. 1931 do 31. marca 1938 izplačalo $6,810.35 več, kakor pa se je potom asesmenta od članstva prejelo.

To pomeni, da sedanji asesment 4c na člana mesečno že sedaj ne zadostuje, toliko manj pa bo zadostoval v bodočnosti, ko bo več in več članov dopolnilo starost 70 let.

Ko sem pri konvenciji leta 1930 priporočil, da se oprosti nad 70 let stare plačevanja asesmenta, sem pri tem vpošteval samo redni mesečni asesment, brez bolniškega asesmenta.

Dokler se je na ta način nad 70 let starih članom pomagalo, je 4c mesečni asesment popolnoma zadostoval in je koncem vsakega leta ostal v skladu izrednih podpor še precejšen preostanek.

Pozneje se je to pridruživlo. Društva so zahtevala, da se za take člane plača tudi bolniški asesment in druge društvene stroške.

Kakor hitro je to stopilo v veljavo, je pričel sklad pešati. Razpisati je bilo treba posebno doklado, toda vskljub vsemu temu je ob zaključku meseca marca t. l. znašal primanjkljaj nad $6,800.00.

Kako se je izplačevalo izredne podpore in kako je od leta do leta naraščalo število nad 70 let starih, kakor tudi koliko je članstvo v sklad izrednih podpor plačalo, naj služi v dokaz naslednja tabelica:

Table with 5 columns: Leto, št. čl., Izplačalo, št. čl., Izplačalo, Asesment. Rows for years 1931-1938 and totals.

Zgoraj označene številke kažejo, da se je od 1. januarja 1931 do 31. marca 1938 iz sklada izrednih podpor izplačalo skupaj $95,272.23 starih članov? Po mojem mnenju asesment 4c ne bo zadostoval, ker že sedaj ne zadostuje, ko je samo 470 članov in članic nad 70 let starih.

Kaj torej storiti? Zvišati asesment? Moje priporočilo je sledeče: Povišanja asesmenta v tem oziru nikakor ne priporočam.

Članstvo že sedaj s težavo plačuje mesečne asesmente in prispevke. Priporočam pa, da bi se odobrili prvotni sklep, ki je bil odobren pri konvenciji leta 1930, kar pomeni, da bi se iz sklada izrednih podpor plačevalo članom (icam) nad 70 let starih samo Jednotin redni mesečni asesment, brez bolniškega asesmenta in brez plačevanja društvenega stroškovnega asesmenta.

Z drugo besedo: član, ki hoče biti zavarovan proti bolezni, bi moral bolniški asesment sam plačevati. Ravno tako bi moral član sam plačevati društvene mesečne prispevke.

Na ta način, bi po mojem mnenju sedanji asesment 4c mesečno zadostoval, drugače pa nikakor ne vidim, kako bi se moglo s sedanjim asesmentom izhajati.

Ker je to zelo važna zadeva, zato priporočam, da članstvo o tem pazno in premišljeno razpravlja. Josip Zalar, glavni tajnik.

Trdi podzglavniki. — V hotelih na Portugalskem nimajo mehkih pernatih podzglavnikov na posteljah, ampak so isti napolnjeni z neke vrste ptičjega semena. Pravijo, da so taki podzglavniki jako prikladni in hladni v vročih poletnih večerih.

NAZNANILO IN ZAHVALA

S pettrnim srcem naznanjamo sorodnikom, prijateljem in znancom tužno vest, da je dne 2. maja za boleznijo pljučnice preminul naš ljubljani soprog, oziroma oče, oziroma brat.

Mr. Joe Klun

Pokojni je prišel smrti pred 30. leti in je bil zaposlen v Zaicov (zdaj Mr. Joe Kerzavci) trgovini, kjer je bil zmožen in vreden pomočnik. Rojen je bil pred 46 leti v vasi Rapjevo, fara Struge pri Ribnici.

Joseph Jakosh

Pokojni je bil rojen dne 13. marca 1864 v vasi Erd. fara Dol pri Litiji. V Ameriki je bival od leta 1892. Njegov pogreb se je vršil pod cerkvenem obodu iz hiše ža'ost v cerkev sv. Jozefa in potem na pokopališče sv. Jozefa.

Želim se zahvaliti na tem mestu vsem tistim, ki ste darovali za sv. maše za pokojnika in pa za krasne sveče vence, kakor tudi onim, ki ste čuli pri mrtvaškem odru ter se udeležili pogrebne spovede ter dali pri tem avtomobile na raspolago.

Tebi, dragi soprog in oče, pa želimo večni mir in pokoj, spavaj v Bogu dokler se ne snidemo tam gori nad zvezdani, kakor nam sv. križ govori.

ANNA JAKOSH, soproga; VICTOR in PAULINE hčerke. Aurora, Illinois, 27. maja 1938.

NAZNANILO IN ZAHVALA

Z globoko potrtim in neutuljivo žalostnim srcem naznanjamo sorodnikom, prijateljem in znancom tužno vest, da je po kratki boleznij vsemožni Gospodar življenja in smrti nepričakovano poklica k Sebi v večnost dne 23. aprila, 1938 našo ljubljeno soprogo, mlado mater, in nepozabno hčer in sestro

Angelo Gorsich

ROJENO TERLEP

Pokojna Angela je bila rojena v Jolietu, Ill., dne 9. maja, 1911. Ob času smrti je bila stara komaj 26 let. En dober teden pred smrtjo so jo pripeljali v bolnišnico sv. Jozefa, Joliet, Ill., kjer se je podvržala težki operaciji. Od začetka je vse lepo šlo naprej, in vsi smo bili prepričani, da se je operacija poročila in da to vse srečno izpadlo.

Ranjka je bila zelo tihega in mirnega značaja. Svoje trpljenje je prenašala sama, tiho in udano, in nikoli se ni vtikala v svoje bližnje ljudi. Bila je delavna in zmožna, prava dama roka svojemu spopreju pri vodstvu trgovine, in skrbna in dobra mati svoji družini.

Pogreb se je vršil dne 27. aprila s slovesno sv. mašo zadušnico, katero je opravil naš novi župnik Rev. M. J. Butala, ob asistenci Rev. John Plaznika in Rev. George Kusma.

Dožniti nas veže, da se zahvalimo častitlim gospodom duhovnikom na njih pomoči in tolažbo ob tej bridki uri. Zahvalimo se vsem sorodnikom, prijateljem in znancom, ki so obiskali pokojno v bolnišnici. Zahvalimo se družinam in posameznikom, kateri so darovali za svete maše, in vence; vsem, ki so oprili molče na domu, in vsem, ki so se udeležili pogreba. Prav lepa žaloba vsem, kateri so nam bili v katero koli pomoč ob tem času.

Ti pa, draga Angela, ki si tako mlada dokončala delo katere ti je Bog odločil za ta svet, spomni se na nas, ki smo še ostali v tej žalostni dolini solz. In ko boš gledala Boga iz oblačja v oltarje, prosil za nas, da bi tudi mi enkrat pršli v tisti srečni kraj, kjer ni smrti in kjer ni več bole.

Oj usoda, ti življenje nam prehitro zagreniš, tužno biva nam srce; radost v srčno nam trpljenje smrt pobrala ker najdražjo vsem nenaskrat sprmenila. Solza pada še nešeta, tužno biva nam srce; radost v srčno nam trpljenje smrt pobrala ker najdražjo vsem nenaskrat sprmenila. — Tebi, je.

V grobu tihem, tam počivaš truplo Tvoje še tihom; sonce pomadi na grob Ti si je, v duhu pa vedno med nami tivia.

Joliet, Illinois, dne 20. maja 1938.

FOR GOD, HOME AND COUNTRY

By FATHER KAPISTRAN

One of the Dukes de Guise once requested his painter: "Represent me in my portrait with a book in my hand and reading aloud. Paint my servant, however, in the same picture but in a corner. Paint him where he cannot be seen but in such manner that he may hear me when I call him."

This story of the "gall of the Guises" comes to mind as we read "Britain's Black Ghosts" in the Saturday Evening Post for May 28, by Eric Knight.

John Bull sits for his portrait. The first colors are the red of Reformation martyrs and the last shades are the soot of Britain's 18th, 19th and 20th century factory stacks, watered with the sweat of millions of English slaves.

John Bull sits for his portrait. He wants himself represented as talking aloud. "Paint my industrial slaves, my sweat-shop poor, in a corner where they cannot be seen, but in such a manner that they may hear me when I need them."

Mr. Knight spends eight pages telling of England's jobless millions. And it is all so true. But I wish he had spent more than one line on the cause of it all.

His one line: "Once they were fair, those valleys of Britain and the order of life in them seemed unchangeable... the church was the cultural center..."

That's the last mention of the church or of any religious factor behind the black benighted ghosts of Britain.

But we know that England's notorious proportion of poor per population—scored by Hawthorne an age ago—was spawned by greed. The "church" which was once the "center" and the very life blood of Pre-Reformation England, was the Catholic Church. A new temple of gold was built in its place. A temple for a few to enjoy; so exclusive that it was said by its own members: "Even God can't get in here." Call it Protestantism; Free-Masonry; greed; call it what you will. But don't blame depressions in the original three Protestant and industrial nations (England, Germany and United States) upon nature.

How true the words of Mr. Knight: "Capital is mobile; labor is not." After a town and its people have been sweated and milked of their life-blood, the factory is abandoned. The people abandoned without jobs. The Duke of Greed moves on to another locality. No sympathy. No charity. No mite of human consideration.

The difference between Merrie England and the Great Britain of Black Ghosts is not the difference between farms and factories. It is the difference between Catholicism and a nation that gave it up.

MIDWEST PIN ASSOCIATION CARDS CONFAB

Chicago, Ill.—The annual meeting of the Midwest KSKJ Bowling Association will be held Sunday, June 5, at 2 p. m. (Daylight Saving Time) at 2116 W. Cermak Rd.

UNION HITS NEW HIGH IN ADULT MEMBERSHIP 24,947 ENROLLED IN SENIOR RANKS

The KSKJ has reached a new high in the membership of the Adult Department, according to the official report issued by Secretary Joseph Zalar in this issue of the Glasilo.

The total adult membership is 24,947, and the Juvenile Department enrollment is 10,711, a total of 35,658.

Four years ago, prior to the last convention, the adult membership total was 21,994, or 2,953 less than the current list on the eve of the forthcoming convention. This increase in membership during the past four-year period will result in an increase in the number of delegates at the convention, for representation is based on the adult membership.

In 1894 the Union numbered 500 members, and four years later increased the total to 1,926. In the following ten years the figure was boosted to 9,851, and in the 30 years that followed to the present time, the Union almost tripled its membership.

FAVORS RECIPES

Butte, Mont.—In behalf of the English-speaking members of St. Anne's Society, No. 208, especially the young women who receive this KSKJ paper and read Our Page, I wish to compliment Frances Jancer for the lovely recipes which are published weekly.

It is certainly grand to be able each week to pick up this paper and read what other societies are doing in other states, especially when we don't know one another personally, but still are friends, sisters and brothers of the one and only G. C. S. C. U. Mary E. Orlich, Sec'y.

BARBERTON BILLS PICNIC

Barberton, O.—An invitation is extended to all KSKJ members from all neighboring towns to a picnic to be held by the St. Mary's Society, No. 111, at Hopcan Gardens June 5. We would be very pleased to see the Girard, Cleveland and Lorain people here.

Music by Louis Trebar and his orchestra from Cleveland. A great time is assured to all. Please come, one and all.

Our St. Mary's Cadets drill team is making great headway. All girls are very interested in the drills and are planning a great celebration in the near future.

CONVENTION REMINISCENCES

Pueblo, Colo.—As I let my mind wander back through the pages that write the history of the KSKJ and turn back the pages that represent the successive years my minds leaps forward as I turn the one page that stands out most in my memory. My mind goes back to the one year that stands out to me more than any of the others. As I look back I can see, as can many of my brothers and sisters, a day in August, 1934. I can clearly recall a picture of a beautiful day in Indianapolis, Ind. Perhaps every day in Indianapolis is beautiful, but I feel certain that the delegates to the 18th national convention of the KSKJ will recall with me that that particular day in August was exceptional. It was exceptional not only that climatic conditions were perfect, but that it was the opening of the KSKJ convention. I feel confident that each and every delegate to that convention can recall with pleasure that opening day. I feel sure that every delegate, especially those delegates that represented St. Joseph's Society, No. 7, can remember something that stands out in their memory.

Remember, you delegates, the opening prayer? The parade, the meetings, the sessions where the rules to govern the organization were born? Remember the speeches and then the final prayer? I hope that I have helped to bring back to some of you some of the highlights of the past convention, because today we are on the threshold of what St. Joseph's Society thinks to be an even greater and better convention. In just two weeks, on June 5, St. Joseph's Society will once again select delegates to the 19th national convention. This time St. Joseph's will send not six delegates but seven men to represent the organization. Once again St. Joseph's Society will go forward to the convention, and this time there will be another man to help with the work of the convention. I feel sure that each and every man selected, be he who he may, will do his part.

I believe that this is the correct time to express a vote of thanks to our brother member, Mr. Germ, for the effort that he expended in the past drive. It was through his untiring efforts that St. Joseph's Society was able to secure so many new members. Not only did Bro. Germ work with zeal, but he inspired the entire organization to a new pitch. The noteworthy efforts of Bro. Mikaticch are not to be omitted from the page wherein there is written a word of enthusiasm. We feel certain that now that the organization has once again become St. Joseph's Society-conscious that we have nothing to fear for the future. I trust that the inspiring work of Brothers Germ and Mikaticch will continue to build up the enthusiasm of the lodge. I also hope that all the present officers continue to help in the future as they have in the past.

Trusting that the next convention will be as successful as those in the past and that the same spirit exists throughout every lodge as that in St. Joseph's, No. 7.

Albert Godec, Pres.

ST. VITUS BILLS ANNUAL PICNIC

Cleveland, O.—Sunday, June 5, will be a big day for the St. Vitus Society, No. 25, for this is the day of its big annual picnic to be held at Pintar's farm. Jackie Zorc, a member of the society, will play his liveliest tunes for the event.

Tickets sent to the members will be redeemable for refreshment checks at the grounds, for which you will receive delicious sandwiches or drinks as you desire.

To get to Pintar's farm, drive on St. Clair Ave. to E. 260th St. and turn left; or take a St. Clair-Nottingham car to the end of the line, where Sedmak's truck will be waiting to take you to the grounds. So be sure to come and bring your friends along.

OFFICIAL NOTICE

From the Office of the Supreme Secretary KSKJ

The Nineteenth Regular Convention of the KSKJ will be held in August of this year at Eveleth, Minn.

Subordinate lodges shall elect their delegate (delegates) between June 1 and July 31, 1938.

Delegates may be elected either at the regular or special meeting of the Society.

If the election for delegate is to be held at a special meeting, the members must be notified that such special meeting is being called for the purpose of electing a delegate (delegates).

All delegates shall be elected by public nomination and secret ballot. A separate vote must be taken for each delegate; in other words, the name of only one candidate should appear on one ballot.

Each candidate must receive an absolute majority of the votes cast, to be elected. For example: If there are three or more candidates nominated for delegate and if the votes cast total 100, the candidate received 51 or more votes would be elected. If no one candidate receives a majority, then the two nominees receiving the highest number of votes shall be again balloted upon and the one receiving the highest number of votes shall be elected.

Subordinate societies entitled to two or more delegates, shall first elect the first delegate; then the second, etc. After the election of the delegates, alternates shall be elected in the same way.

Each candidate for delegate must be a member of the Union, in good standing, who has been such a member for at least one year and of his subordinate society for at least three months. To be eligible for a delegateship the candidate must also have attended at least four meetings of his subordinate lodge during the year preceding the Convention, which means that a candidate must attend at least four meetings of his subordinate society from Aug. 14, 1937, up to the date of election of delegates.

Each society having a membership of 75 to 100 members as of May 1 of this year is entitled to one delegate and for each additional 100 members an additional delegate.

Subordinate societies who had a membership of less than 75 as of May 1 of this year were united with other societies for the purpose of electing a delegate.

In determining the number of members in each society only the members in the Adult Department who are in good standing are to be considered.

For each delegate two Certificates of Election (credentials) will be mailed to the society. The name and the address of the delegate as well as the alternate should be shown on the Certificate of Election.

One copy of the credentials should be returned to the Home Office not later than five days following the election of delegates. The other copy is to be retained by the delegate and presented at the Convention.

Both copies of the Certificate of Election (credentials) are to be properly executed and signed by the officers of the society and must bear the official seal of the lodge. In addition to this, each of the credentials must bear the signature of the pastor to show that the delegate is a practical Catholic.

For the Supreme Office of the KSKJ:

Joseph Zalar, Supreme Secretary.

Joliet, Ill., May 27, 1938.
