

Juvenile Honor Roll

By Little Stan
Ely, Minn. — Gather closely my dear juvenile friends, and let King Jitterbug tell you about the new juvenile honor roll to appear in every monthly issue of Nova Doba.

ests. To those fortunate juveniles who reach Ely, I am sure they will agree with me on the beauties of Ely. I am also submitting a poem which I titled as "Lincoln."

We gave a dance at the Morley YMCA and had a very good orchestra play for us. Everybody had a good time at the dance.

began to cry, scream, and everything imaginable. After three hours or more of this wretched life, a woodsman came to our rescue. The moment this happened we were happy again.

številu kvot je bilo drastično znižano z zakonom od leta 1924, ki je še v veljavi. Podlaga tega zakona je, da naj bo iz vsake dežele pripuščenih vsako leto kvečjemu le toliko priseljencev, kolikor odgovarja dvem odstotkom vsake narodnostne skupine, ki se je nahajala v tej deželi po ljudskem štetju od l. 1890.

Contributions From Junior Members

NEW YORK, N. Y.
I have been reading the interesting letters in the English section. I have not written before and this is my first letter to the Nova Doba. This is the name of my story, "The Poor Girl."

CHISHOLM, MINN.
DEAR EDITOR AND READERS:
I am writing this letter to thank you for the dollar award. My mother and I were overjoyed when I received the dollar. I read the letters written by other children. I think they are very interesting, and I hope you think so, too.

BARBERTON, OHIO
DEAR EDITOR:
I wish to thank you for the dollar check that I received for my last letter which appeared in the Nova Doba.

TOWER, MINNESOTA
DEAR JUVENILES AND FRIENDS:
This is my first letter to the Nova Doba and I believe that I am the first one to write to the Nova Doba from Tower-Soudan. I finally decided to take up "Little Stan's" suggestion or maybe challenge of two years ago, when he suggested a person from Tower-Soudan write.

OAK CREEK, COLO.
DEAR EDITOR:
Another new writing juvenile is rolling in. This is my first letter that I am contributing to the Nova Doba juvenile section. I have read the many friendly letters written by other juveniles, a factor that urged me to write a few words also. I am thirteen years old. I take a special interest in athletics.

BUTTE, MONTANA
DEAR EDITOR:
A surprise awaited me when I returned from high school one day last week. It was a telegram which I received from the SSCU notifying me that I was elected delegate to the third juvenile convention.

ODMEVI IZ RODNIH KRAJEV

sli niso mogli ostati v njegovi službi, ker je mož strašno skopar pri hrani in plači. Hlapec Josip Briek pa je dolgo potrpežljivo služil skopemu gospodarju, čeprav so bile vse prošnje po zboljšanju hrane in plače zaman. Skopuh je bil s svojim pridnim hlapcem zelo zadovoljen. Vse njegove prošnje pa je odbijal z izgovorom, da mu ne more ustreči, ko tudi sam sebi ne more kaj boljšega privoščiti. Hlapec je premlajševal, kako bi se dalo izpreobrtniti starega skopuha, in naposled ga je okradel. Odnese mu je kakih 100 litrov vina in lepo zalogo mesa in klobas. Svoj plen je spravil pri nekem prijatelju in priredil malo pojedino, na katero je povabil tudi okradenega gospodarja. Stari skopuh si je jedadče in pijače temeljito privoščil. Tako se je napil, da so ga morali odnesti domov. Pozneje pa je nekdo hlapca obdolžil tatvine in, ko je prišla stvar pred sodišče, je skopi gospodar v lepem spominu na prijetno gostijo svojem hlapcu tatvino odpuстил in od sodnije stá se vrnila domov kot najboljša prijatelj.

ELY, MINN.

DEAR EDITOR:
This is my first letter to the Nova Doba. I am twelve years of age and am in the seventh grade. I enjoy reading the juvenile section of this paper very much, but it never occurred to me until recently to write myself. With some encouragement (which I needed) I finally buckled down and decided to write a few lines.

MORLEY, COLORADO

DEAR EDITOR:
This is my first letter that I ever wrote to the Nova Doba. I am in the eighth grade and my teacher's name is Mr. Miller, the principal of the Morley Grade School. We are very proud of him, because he is very humorous.

SALIDA, COLO.

DEAR EDITOR:
This is my second letter to the Nova Doba. I am twelve years old and in the seventh grade. I am a member of Lodge No. 78, SSCU.

ASPEN, COLORADO

DEAR EDITOR:
First of all I desire to thank you for the prize I won the last time I wrote to the Nova Doba.

CORAOPOLIS, PA.

DEAR EDITOR:
As I didn't see any letters from our town, I decided to write to the Nova Doba. The weather these last few days is discouraging. One night there was a very bad wind, and the next morning old shacks and trees were lying on the ground.

CONEMAUGH, PA.

DEAR EDITOR:
Recently we had some very stormy weather out here in Conemaugh. The month of March certainly lives up to the old saying, "March comes in like a lion, and goes out like a lamb."

BREZ VINA NE GRE

V vasi Jalžabetu v varaždinskem okraju so neznani vlomilci vdrlj v klet posestnika Skvorca ter mu odnesli okrog 600 litrov vina, v izpraznjen sod pa nalili vode. Kmet je to vino pripravil za ženitev svojega sina. Dan pred poroko se je podal v klet in našel vodo namesto vina. Poroko so odpovedali in bo odložena toliko časa, dokler kmet ne nabavi novega vina.
