

Dawson, 7/1 1924

Mici,

You are the first girl dear to my heart because of your mild heart and your humility, that's why I can't give you any other name but my dearest flower.

I came to Dawson last night and today I already started working, but my thoughts remained at Yankee and it seems to me like it has been a long time since I was last there and I already think about coming back.

I received your sweet letter yesterday and I was very curious about what you wrote in it. It really made me happy and I am beyond thankful for it, and it convinced me that you are of a more advanced character than what seemed at first.

Micka, I still haven't expressed my love for you. When we meet again I'll open my heart to you. I am ready to sacrifice everything I can for you.

As I told you when I was leaving, ask your parents for their opinion and write that to me and also write what you think.

I also asked you to come to Dawson on Sunday. Come if possible and we can talk in person. I told Novak to drive you and I will pay for any costs that incur. So ask you parents if you can come, your sister can come with you, too.

Your parents shouldn't be worried about you. I only wish you would come here so you could see Dawson and cheer up. There are only good and honest people where I live. So I am asking your father and mother to allow you to come. I can also come to Yankee to talk to your father.

I will finish now and I'm sending you thousands of sincere greetings.

I won't change my mind.

John Bizyak

Best regards to parents and whole family.

Please reply fast.

Goodbye and come here, I'm waiting for you.

If maybe there's someone talking about that in Yankee don't trust them for good or bad. I didn't tell them anything, if they're speaking it came from their head.
