Constitution

1. The first principle of the Constitution is that of Liberty.

2. Liberty is the right of every individual to do as he pleases, provided he does not infringe upon the rights of others.

3. The second principle is that of Equality. All men are created equal, and are entitled to the same rights and privileges.

4. The third principle is that of Justice. The laws should be just, and should be applied equally to all.

5. The fourth principle is that of Moderation. The government should be moderate in its demands, and should not oppress the people.

6. The fifth principle is that of Fraternity. All men are brothers, and should be treated as such.

7. The sixth principle is that of Responsibility. The government is responsible to the people, and should be held accountable for its actions.

8. The seventh principle is that of Unity. The people should be united, and should stand together in support of their rights.

9. The eighth principle is that of Progress. The government should promote the progress and well-being of the people.

10. The ninth principle is that of Peace. The government should maintain peace, and should not engage in unnecessary wars.

11. The tenth principle is that of Prosperity. The government should promote the prosperity and happiness of the people.
