Mici!

I just received your letter, thank you so much for it. It makes me happy when you tell me you had a good time in Yankee. Here things are as usual. Last night, Pintar's girlfriend was here at the camp and I actually spoke to her for a while and she said that we have to invite her to the wedding.

Except my affectionate greetings. Say hello to your parents and everyone else.

I would write more but it is already late. Next time.

May God be with you.
