ESTABLISHMENT OF AN ADVISORY COMMISSION FOR ANTIQUES, FINE ARTS AND LANDSCAPES

WHEREAS it is deemed advisable to establish an Advisory Commission for Antiques, Fine Arts and Landscapes, in that part of the Free Territory of Trieste administered by the British-United States Forces ;

NOW, THEREFORE, I, SIR JOHN WINTERTON, KCMG, CB, CBE, Major General, Zone Commander,

O R D E R :

ARTICLE I

An Advisory Commission for Antiques, Fine Arts and Landscapes (hereinafter referred to as the „Commission“) is hereby established at the Education Office, Allied Military Government.

ARTICLE II

The Commission shall be composed of seven members, to be appointed by the Chief, Education Office, one for archaeology, palaeontology and ethnography ; two for mediaeval and modern art ; two for monumental buildings, town-planning („urbanistica“) and natural beauties ; two for contemporary figurative arts.

ARTICLE III

The Chairman of the Commission shall be appointed by the Chief, Education Office, from amongst the Commission members.

ARTICLE IV

The Commission shall be convened whenever the Chief, Education Office, intends to submit for examination general or particular matters concerning antiques, fine arts and landscapes or measures of a technical nature, for which the opinion of the appropriate section of the Superior Council for Antiques and Fine Arts is prescribed.

ARTICLE V

At least five Commission members must be present to validate any decision of the Commission.

ARTICLE VI

The Commission members shall hold office for two years and may be re-appointed only for the subsequent two-year period. Members leaving office during the two-year period shall be replaced, for the remaining part of such period, by other members appointed in the manner outlined in Article II, above.

ARTICLE VII

Those members who are directly or indirectly interested in the matters submitted to the Commission for opinion shall abstain from taking part in the Commission's work until the impediment ceases. They shall be temporarily replaced by deputy members appointed by the Chief, Education Office, for the duration of such impediment.

ARTICLE VIII

The Chief, Education Office may, upon hearing the Commission, attach to same, for certain matters, one or more external members. Attached members shall not be entitled to vote. Furthermore, the opinion of the Superintendent of Monuments, Galleries and Antiques may be requested for information.

ARTICLE IX

The burdens relative to the functioning of the Commission shall be charged to an appropriate fund to be inserted in the budget of the Superintendence of Monuments, Galleries and Antiques of Trieste.

ARTICLE X

This Order shall become effective on the date of its publication in the Official Gazette.

Dated at TRIESTE, this 12th day of February 1953.
