nesreče, je z največjim trudom rešila poleg hiše stoječa poslopja. Pogorelec je bil zavarovan le za malenkostno vsoto.

Streliška ubila ženo. Po dolgi suši se kar ni moglo spraviiti na dež. Toda 18. julija je proti večeru naenkrat močno začelo in vtila se je ploha. Tedaj pa so švigale strele, ki so zahtele tudi svojo žrtev v osebi Ane Stefanici iz Rosalnic, katero je ubila v veži. Tudi njene sina, ki je bil poleg, je precej ožgala, a ni mu škodovala.

Dva slovenska vojaka utonila. Dne 5. julija se je v dopoldanskih urah kopalca v Šabcu četa vojakov v Savi. Kljub ostrim naredbam sta se vojaka Jože Mrak in Jernej Meze predaleč oddaljila od drugih vojakov in tako postala žrtvi Save. Prvi je iz Kranjske gore, drugi iz Logatca. Pomoč je bila izključena. Zašla sta v globok jarek, kjer jih je silen tok vode v trenutku zagrnil. Vse nadaljnje iskanje je bilo isti dan brezuspešno. Vzrok temu je bila kalna voda. Takoj drugi dan je našla straža truplo Jožeta Mraka v bližini kraja, kjer se je ponesrečil, dne 7. julija pa truplo Jernej Meze.

OPOZORILO

Vse one, ki potujejo v Evropo ali imajo tam trgovske zveze, opozarjamo, da imamo v Parizu slovensko pisarno Agence Commerciale Franco Yougoslave No. 130 Rue Ordener, Paris, XVIII. Tel. Maracadet 06-39, katero vodi g. France Mikolič, sin uglednega trgovca in sestnika Franceta Mikoliča iz Sodražice na Dolenjskem. Ta naša prva in edina slovenska ustanova na Francoskem je velike važnosti in bo vsem našim rojakom v neprecenljivo korist.

Omenjena pisarna je popolnoma uvedena na pariškem trgu in pozna mesto in deželo v vseh podobnostih. Oni, ki potujejo domov v Jugoslavijo, vedo, kako težko je v velikem mestu, če nimaš nikogar, na kogar bi se lahko obrnil. Ves svoj čas izgube z iskanjem vsakdanjih malenkosti, kot so stanovanje, hrana in poleg tega še potrebuje mnogo denarja. Potom pisarne se izognete vsem neprijetnostim; ona vam poskrbi stanovanje, hrano, vam da na razpolago svojo pisarno, vam poišče tolmača in vodnika, tako da imate od svojega še tako kratkega bivanja res največjo korist. Končno opravi za vas vse potrebno za potovanje v Jugoslavijo, in vam da o vsem najtočnejša pojasnila.

Obrnete se lahko nanjo v vseh trgovskih zadevah, pri nakupu blaga, prav tako dobiti v najkrajšem času odgovor na vsa vprašanja, ki zadevajo trgovske okoliščine ali gospodarske zadeve v Franciji ali Jugoslaviji. Lastništvo pisarne.

Potni list za celo Evropo. Mednarodni turistični kongres na Dunaju je sprejel sklep, da se pošlje vladam vseh evropskih držav poziv, naj se uvede "evropski potni list," s katerim bi se moglo brez vseh nadaljnjih formalnosti potovati po celi Evropi. S tem bi se evropski turizem silno pospešil.

Ob tej priliki se zahvaljujemo vsem, ki so nas obiskali, tolažili in izkazali nam sočutje, ter tako v obilni meri okrasili truplo našega ranjkega s svežimi cveticami ter ga spremili k večnemu počitku. Tebi pa, naš nepoznan sin kličemo: Počivaj v miru božjem in naj Ti sveti večna luč!

Sladko, mirno te počivaj, v grobu spavaj zdaj sladko. Angel božji dušo Tvojo v večno pelje naj nebo.

če v Clevelandu.

Zalarjev oče stanujejo že sedmo leto pri svoji omoženi hčeri Mrs. Susman v Clevelandu. Do lanskega leta so bili še popolnoma in srečno družino, si štujemo v čast, da prinašamo o njih primeren opis.

V Collinwoodu in Nottinghamu bo to silko marsikdo kmalu spoznal, ker predstavlja nekaj članov občeznane družine Josipa Zalar st., očeta sobratne glavnega tajnika K. S. K. Jednote. Spredaj sedijo sivo-lasli Zalarjev oče, stari 83 let in pet mesecev; poleg njih stoji njihov sin Anton, star 52 let; na desni stoji njegova hči Mrs. Mary Pauline Belcjan, stara 25 let (vnučinja Zalarjevga očeta), spredaj pa sedi njen 4-letni sinček, Frank Belcjan, pravnuk Zalarjevga očeta. To so torej člani štirih generacij Zalarjeve družine, ki reprezentirajo skupno starost 164 let. Trije izmed teh (razun Zalarjevga očeta) spadajo k naši K. S. K. Jednoti.

Zelo zanimiv je rodopis in življenjepis goriznočene družine.

Josip Zalar starejši je bil rojen dne 19. marca, 1844 v Duhah, fara Borovnica na Kranjskem, v hiši po domače "Pri Zgonarjevih," torej je živel dobra štiri leta še prej, ko je bivši avstrijski cesar Franc Jožef nastopil vladati.

Celih 23 let je opravil službo sluge in čuvaja na kolodvoru v Borovnici. Poročil se je dne 5. februarja, 1866 s svojo domačinko Marijo Podboj v borovniški farni cerkvi.

Temu zakonskemu paru se je narodilo enajst otrok. Dva sta umrla že v zgodnji mladosti, ostalih devet se je pa sčasoma z materjo vred preselilo za očetom v Ameriko.

Leta 1891 je prišel Josip Zalar starejši v našo novo domovino. Nekaj mesecev je delal v Chicagu, zatem se je pa podal proti zapadu v državo Montano, kjer je delal nekaj časa v rudniku; nato se je pa za stalno naselil v znani premogarski naselbini Forest City, Pa., kjer je kopal premog celih 25 let. To delo je opravljal še kot starček, oziroma za časa njegove zlato poroke 5. februarja, 1916 vršeče se v označenem mestu v krogu svojih otrok in številnih vnukov. Vseh Zalarjevih sorodnikov je bilo na tej družinski slavnosti navzočih 73.

Ze nekaj let pred tem in za tem se je pa oglašala kruta smrt v tej družini kakor sledi: Leta 1902 je umrla hči Marija, omožena Drašler, leta 1910 hči Zofija Zalar, leta 1911 sin John in hči Ivana, omožena Telban; leta 1918 sin Karol, navedenec je preminul za časa epidemije španske influence; Zalarjeva mati so umrli leta 1919. Dva sina in hčede so še pri življenju, in sicer Anton, živeč v Clevelandu, O.; Josip, živeč v Jolietu, Ill.; Mrs. Fannie Susman in Mrs. Ursula White, žive-

TOČA V BELI KRAJINI. V ponedeljek 18. julija zvečer je toča pobila v občinah ki so spodaj našteje, vinograde in uničila kmetovalcem vse nade na sicer lepo obetajočo jesensko trgatve. Poslanec Nemanic, ki se mudi na zasedanju oblastne skupščine v Ljubljani in poslanec Jarc sta skupno s tovariški na prvi plenarni seji stavela predlog za nujno pomoč težko prizadetim krajem. Predlog se glasi:
"Dne 17. julija kakor tudi 18. julija, 1927 je zadela velika nesreča občine Božakovo, Drašiče, Semič, Kot in druge, ko je grozna toča uničila od 60 do 70 odstotkov najlepših vinogradov kakor tudi polja. Ker je ondotno prebivalstvo že itak v zelo težkem gospodarskem položaju in ker je tudi suša zelo veliko že prej prizadela poljskim pridelkom, je ljudstvo že popolnoma pričelo obupavati. Ob-lastna skupščina se naproša, da takoj odredi, da se prizadetim čimpreje nudi večja državna podpora, kakor tudi posreduje odpis zemljiškega davka.

Neurja in požari. V ponedeljek 18. julija je prihrumela ob 8. uri zvečer nad St. Vid pri Stični in okolico silna nevihta. Toča, ki je padala med silnim nalivom, je napravila največ škode v Artiži vasi in v Velikih Pecah. Strela je udarila v hišo Jožefa Hauptmana iz St. Vida. Gospodinj, ki se je mudila v veži, je strela tako omamila, da so jo s težavo rešili iz goreče hiše. Domača požarna bramba, ki je bila prav hitro na kraju Bolj redki so slučaj i v življenju, da bi se zamogli člani ene in iste družine štirih generacij skupaj slikati. Ker imamo pa baš tukaj v Clevelandu tako ponomno in srečno družino, si štujemo v čast, da prinašamo o njih primeren opis.

MANNERS.

Manners impress as they indicate real power. A man who is sure of his point carries a broad and contended expression...

So deep are the sources of this surface-action that even the size of your companion seems to vary with his freedom of thought...

TIME.

"The most valuable of all possessions is time; life itself is measured by it." The man who loses no time doubles his life.

Some squander time, some invest it, some kill it. That precious half-hour a day which many of us throw away, rightly would save us from the ignorance which mortifies us...

THE PRACTICAL JOKER.

The practical joker rarely entertains any one other than himself. He is the fellow who is always playing tricks on other persons, imagining that he is being funny.

Every boy and girl should enjoy a good lean joke. Fun makes life worth living. But there's a difference between fun that supplies enjoyment for every one and fun that is had at the expense of some other person's feelings.

DEFINES FRATERNITY

Few readers of this publication, but, what have heard of Mooseheart, the "School that trains for life" maintained by the Loyal Order of Moose.

"If I should be called upon to name the present age in recognition of its most striking characteristic I would unhesitatingly call it the age of Fraternity.

"In a general way, fraternity is the handmaid of civilization. It is the exemplar of man.

It is that transcendent power and irresistible force which alone can make possible the peace of the world. Under the principles taught by the leading fraternities of today, the spirit of anarchy cannot live.

Their basic principles are enmity to all that is lawless and are in the interests of peace, order and good government. They develop the best and the noblest that is in man.

ties between the North and the South and have restored peace, amity and good will. They have welded the American people together in bonds of gold as pure as the dew that falls upon this valley and as eternal as the Rock of Ages.

"The record that is being made by these great societies is as bright as the spotless moon upon the midnight sea and as invigorating and refreshing as the breezes from the Pacific Ocean.

"The moral force which is being exerted is a power for good that can only be gauged by the Divine Arbiter who weighs and holds the destiny of nations in his hands. Its influence for a higher and better civilization; for a truer and a nobler manhood; for a grander and purer womanhood will roll on and on through all the ages and cease only when its great mission is fulfilled."

If Mel can talk as well as he can write, he should be easy to listen to and some day we hope to meet up with him.

MANAGERS

Again we are forced to appeal to you for cooperation in regards to the manner in which the reports are sent in. Of late we have been receiving reports that are not complete. Since we believe anything worth doing, is worth doing right, we have decided not to publish scores that are not complete.

We also ask of you to supply a summary of the game in story form, emphasizing date, where played, attendance, features, etc. This we ask, as we think our readers should be given the COMPLETE information, while the score is the important item, there is something missing if it is not accompanied by a short story of the game. A few lines will do.

Kindly cooperate with us and comply with the above request. Our Page is your page; we want it to look right and please all. Thank you.

WANTED: A FIELD

Bridgeport Asks Cooperation Bridgeport, O., August 1. — In reading your editorial in the last issue of Our Page, regarding the various teams fighting for the "shining" cup, I must say that we are endeavoring to book a game with the St. Joseph Sports some time in the near future, to be played on a neutral field. Our boys would very much like to meet Collinwood in Pittsburgh on Labor Day to settle the unrest as to the trip west.

If the Pittsburgh manager would be kind to arrange a field for that day, we assure him that it would be very much appreciated. He may also rest assured that if Collinwood and Bridgeport meet in the lively city of Pittsburgh, there will be a real game.

Perhaps, some other city, centrally located, may be interested in furnishing us with a baseball field. Cannonsburg has some fine baseball fields. Would it be possible for them to welcome a few visitors to their beautiful location? Let us hear from them; make replies promptly as time is short to make proper arrangements for the trip.

Trusting to hear in the near future from some interested party in the baseball sport, and wishing success to all, I am Fraternally yours Anton Hochevar, R. F. D. 2, Box 31.

Is It Sinful for a Catholic Girl to Read the Serial Stories in Our Daily Papers?

Whether it is sinful or not, we do not think that ever a young female reader has become, by reading them, either a better Catholic or a better girl. True, they sometimes convey a lesson, by showing how bad men and women can be, or how bad they can become unless they control themselves and are on their guard. But we think this lesson is generally very dearly bought. These stories represent the relation of the sexes as something merely worldly, as something that is merely a matter of taste or of passion or of whim. Certainly the habitual reading of them will dull in any reader, girls included, the sense of the severe duties with which these relations are surrounded. Stories of this kind are one of the most disastrous causes of divorce among Protestants and Catholics.

I WILL NOT LAPSE MY LIFE INSURANCE BECAUSE

It might mean that next month or next year or even tomorrow I would be like a thief taking that much money from my wife and children.

I consider a life insurance policy not a commercial document, but a family treasure which belongs to all.

I cannot bear to imagine my widow as one of the thousands who are forced to forego the comfort of life and take up the drudgery of that kind of work which is open to untrained workers.

Even with the comparatively large amount of insurance which is involved, it means only a little bit to my family on the basis of income, and I must keep up this saving to provide even this small, sure income in case of the emergency which always is likely to occur.

If I drop this policy I can never get another one at as low a premium as I paid for this one and because it might be possible that I could not get any more at all.

This method of saving is the best and surest way that I can accomplish the things which I most desire to do.

FOR YOUR BENEFIT

For the benefit of Bypus, the Critic and those implicated in the discussions:

You will note that I have secured through books of renowned writers, material for writing and the purpose of doing so:

Conveying Thought.

From the first association of man it was necessary for him to find ways of conveying thought. The beasts of the field may have aided his voice in simplifying his adopted code and the final result is our spoken language. Today the power of speech is our most effective means of conveying thought.

The art of making books has so developed our written language, that the printed word has become an essential to the progress of mankind. But while we admit the great value of the written language, we know it will never become of first importance. Writing cannot supply the many variations of the human voice which adds richness to the thought and gives the real meaning to what is being said. It is not so much what we say, but how we say the words that bring forth our real meaning. The modulation of the human voice convey meanings impossible to express on the printed page.

The "how we say things" comes from our attitude of mind and body. It is the psychological attitude of the whole being, expressing itself by means of the voice. Speech, then is something more than the correct pronunciation and enunciation of words. It is used to express the whole attitude of the speaker's being, as related to the thought. Hence if your speech is to be effective, your whole body, mind and soul must be set free to enter into the expression of your thoughts.

Opening up Subjects.

Mostly people inexperienced in effective talking encounter much difficulty in determining topics to talk upon, especially of a general subject; here is a easy method of discovering topics. Kipling wrote:

I keep six honest serving men, (They taught me all I know) Their names are What and Why and When, And How and Where and Who.

Now, add one more to these conclusion. The seven keys to unlock topics.

Some of these keys will fit the locks of any subject. All of them will unlock some subjects. Perhaps the order in which you use them should vary according to the subject considered. Without attempting any proper order at this time. Let us apply these keys to the subject "Speedy Thinking."

- 1. What is speedy thinking? 2. Why is speedy thinking desirable? 3. When is speedy thinking demanded? 4. How does speedy thinking aid one? 5. Where (in life's activities) does a person most need speedy thinking? 6. Who should be expert in speedy thinking? 7. What is your conclusion from the answers?

So after reading the above, credit the writers of "Our Page for their purpose of trying to convey thought to you dear reader in a non-essential sense. Truly yours. J. J. K.

BABBLES

More dirt. Strain your optics on the following:

This nonsense between Bypus and Critic sure is a "one-two" affair. What is the idea? Are they shelled out already? Why don't they keep it up? Is it not possible to expose these two persons? I have inclinations that the heavy-pen writer Bypus is a daring sheik, while the Critic is some sophisticated damsel. Am I right?

Personally I enjoyed the "line" as dished out by these two persons and hope they will again come to life.

Yours eventually Battle-axe Susan, Pittsburgh, Pa.

Well, old kid Sussie, I shall communicate with these two persons and see if I can't arrange to publish their pictures. The only way to make a complete settlement would be to publish both pictures in the same issue, but we are leary about the idea as we think they would indulge in a hair pulling contest right on the paper.

In these days of professionalism, science, and bootlegging, one must cope with keen competition.

The barbers in Collinwood were not doing rushing business for the past few weeks, especially Mr. Rakar's Shop. The "Dog Days" or rather "Brush" days are due to Mr. J. Somrak and Mr. J. Omerza, chairman and baseball manager of the St. Joseph Sports respectively. These boys, who, as it seems, are tired of living, have taken it on themselves to raise mustaches. They demand a shave for half price since the barber does not have to shave their upper lips.

We hear that both boys are working overtime on a plan by which they will device a patent-leather guard to be placed over the mustache, while sipping soup. They claim the invention will be a boon to mankind as it will keep the needless from entangling around the "J. Gilbert." I hope the boys succeed; I place my order in now.

A company had opened a new swimming bath in the place and as a compliment sent a free ticket to the mayor.

That worthy man was very pleased. But he began to wonder when another ticket arrived.

Sitting down, he wrote to the bath proprietors as follows:

"Gentlemen: Your first ticket I received as a compliment. Your second strikes me as being rather suggestive. If you send me a third I will take it as a personal insult."

The late Dr. B— of Bristol, who died very rich, coming into the bedroom of a patient a very few minutes after he had expired, perceived something through the clenched fingers of one hand; he gently opened the patient's hand, seized the guinea, and put it into his pocket, observing:

"This was certainly intended for me."

You can sometimes judge a man's ability by the number of relatives he has to keep.

People of strong character make many enemies, but that doesn't necessarily imply that a man who has many enemies possesses a strong character.

SPORTS ON WAY TO CUP

Pittsburgh, Pa., August 7. The St. Joseph Sports of Collinwood defeated the No. 50, K. S. K. J. team of this city in a six-inning game played on the Middle Road diamond.

Although playing between periodic showers, both teams played good ball disregarding the condition of the field. Klisurich featured with consistent hitting, while Antlogar performed well for the home town boys.

The defeat of the Pittsburgh team places the Cleveland boys one step nearer the title play, which will be played off probably the latter part of next month in the environs of Chicago.

SAYS FIRST HOLY MASS The Slovenian people of Steelton, Pa., can now feel proud as they now have another laborer in the Vineyard of Our Lord. It is the first time that an American Slovenian young man of Steelton entered the priesthood.

The novice, Rev. Anthony G. Bratina is a member of St. Aloysius' lodge No. 42 K. S. K. J. of Steelton, Pa.

Rev. Bratina completed his theological studies at the St. Vincent Seminary of Beatty, Pa. He was ordained August 6th, by the Rt. Rev. Bishop McDevitt at Harrisburgh, Pa., and said his first Holy Mass in his home city the next day. The ceremony was solemnized at St. Peter's church.

Rev. Bratina can be remembered as being a consistent contributor to the Little Angel, the English page, which, up to January, 1927 appeared monthly in the Glaslo and was published for the benefit of the members of the Juvenile Department.

We extend to Rev. Bratina our congratulations and wishes, and hope his labors will bear fruit.

The pay envelope is labor's best trade mark.
