Vsi sveti in spomin vernih rajnih

Praznik vseh svetih je praznik, ki vlije vsako leto veliko tolažbe in poguma vsem, ki so podali na pot Kristusovih blagrov, da morejo s potrpežljivostjo in ljubeznijo zmagovati nad svojimi notranjimi in prav tako zunanji bradkostmi in težavami (prim C 8). To je slovesni godovni dan naših dragih, v Kristusu starejših bratov in sester, ki so dober boj izbojevali, tek dokončali, vero ohranili (prim. 2 Tim 4,7).

Zdaj se radujejo v neizrekljivem in veličastnem veselju (prim. 1 Pt 1,8), s svojim zgledom svetijo tudi nam, kažejo kako priti do zmage ter nas podpirajo s svojo priprošnjo, ki je v zelo veliko oporo naši slabosti.

Bogoslužje potujoče Cerkve se na ta praznik pridružuje nebeški Cerkvi in z njo vred povečuje Gospoda, ki je vir svetosti in slava izvoljenih. To izraža tudi praznični hvalospev: »Danes v duhu gledamo tvoje sveto mesto, nebeški Jeruzalem, ki je naša domovina. Tam te obdajajo množice naših srečnih bratov in sester in te vse veke slavijo. Radujemo se povečanja vseh svetih članov Cerkve in ob njihovem zgledu in priprošnji v veri potujemo obljubljeni sreči naproti.«

Te dni obiskujemo grobove naših rajnih, zanje molimo in jih priporočamo božjemu umsiljenju in božji ljubezni. Naj nas tudi zunanja znamenja vodijo k pravemu viru milosti, ki je Jezus Kristus.

SCHOLARHIP BANQUET

V soboto, 26. oktobra 2013 se je dorana društva Lipa Park dodobra napolnila z udeleženci banketa. Letos je bilo kar 14 dobitnikov. Ob 6:00 p.m. se je začela slovesna večerja, med katero je igral ansambel Brajda. Slavnostna govornica je bila Jayne Evans, ki deluje v katoliškem šolskem svetu za Niagarski del. Nova članica fundacije, Sandy Allen, je dobitnikom izročila štipendije. Nato je z glasbo nadaljeval DJ Perri.

Že vrsto let je v baziliki maša, pri kateri slodeluje več etničnih skupin, Vsakdo pripravi del programa pri maši, nekaj je skupnega. Leto je sodeloval tudi naš zbor s pesmijo pri obhajilu, Jožica pa je prebrala prvo berilo. Po maši je bil še kratek program v dvorani katedrale.

31st Sunday in Ordinary Time

Response: I will bless your name for ever, my King and may God.

First Reading Wisdom 11:22 – 12:2

The Lord delights in all his creation. Because of this joyous love his compassion towards us is infinite.

Second Reading 2 Thess. 1:11 – 2:2

As the Christians of Thessalonica live in hope and expectation of the Lord's coming, Paul urges them to be at peace, and allow the Lord to bring to completion his goodness in them.

Gospel Luke 19:1-10

Crowded in by so many people, Zacchaeus finds a space so that he can see Jesus; and Jesus sees him, and Zacchaeus' whole life is turned around.

“He was anxious to see what kind of man Jesus was, but he was too short and could not see him for the crowd.”

Illustration

In the Carmelite convent the sisters always took a short mid-morning break from work. They would have fifteen minutes for a coffee in the refectory, and then return to their jobs. A number of the younger sisters felt this was not a good use of their time; breaking their pattern of work in the morning seemed inefficient. Why not just get a coffee and take it back to your workplace? The prioress listened, and saw they had a point; and so the practice was changed, and each sister worked through, drinking her coffee at the same time.

That is, until one day the prioress, spending the morning answering correspondence, found herself snatching sips of an increasingly lukewarm coffee, and trying to think about how to answer an especially tricky email. Suddenly she stopped. “What exactly am I doing here, Lord? Am I having a coffee? Or am I attending to this person’s message?” In that moment she realised that the important, simple discipline of the Carmel -- with its focus on being present to the task or conversation before you -- was being undermined by this apparently harmless change in arrangements for a coffee break. The convent went back to its original pattern, newly aware of how precious it is to let each thing in life have its own proper space.

Gospel Teaching

Most of us, of course, do not -- and cannot -- live a pattern of life like those in an enclosed Carmelite monastery. But this insight from such a community speaks to us all in the hectic, multi-tasking busyness of our lives. Like Zacchaeus in the Gospel story, many of us allow our lives to be consumed by furthering ourselves in the world -- making more money, moving up the job ladder. For others, the busyness of life is produced by the constant round of domestic cares, or just keeping going in difficult circumstances. All of us, like the Thessalonians, have a tendency to fill the spaces of our lives with some kind of anxiety or excitement about the future -- what’s coming next? And all the time the present moment is before us, and we become lost in the crowd.

Zacchaeus’ great gift is not that he has led a disciplined life of prayer and goodness; he has become thoroughly sucked in to a life of wealth and position, even at the cost of marginalising himself from his own people. His great gift is simply the desire he has to see Jesus. Not only does he want to see Jesus, but he is prepared to do whatever it takes to see him -- to find a space above the crowd, whatever the indignity of his action.

FOLKLORNA SKUPINA VENEC

Three years ago an idea was formed to bring together past members of all folklore groups in southern Ontario from Toronto to Niagara. The name VENEC was given to this group of energetic individuals who exemplify that by working together we can unify all our communities towards a common goal - to preserve and cherish our Slovenian roots. Our motto has always been folklore, friends, and fun.

This year VENEC is looking to continue this tradition and is inviting all interested new members to join the circle regardless of previous affiliation and talent. Come out and experience what VENEC is about. First practice is Sunday, November 17th at 2:00 pm, at St. Gregory's Hall, Hamilton. For more information, please contact Dave Antolin: 905.664.5980, fsvenec@gmail.com or visit us at 'Folklorna skupina VENEC' on Facebook.com

SOČA - CHILDREN'S FOLKLORE GROUP

The children's folklore group SOCA will begin practices for this upcoming season on Saturday, November 2nd @ 12:30. We would like to invite all youth in our community and surrounding areas to join this fun-filled group. All youth are welcome from the ages of 8+ and above. Help continue this group's tradition of over 40 years of keeping Slovenian traditions alive here in Hamilton, while encouraging lasting friendships and fun. For more information, please contact Dave Antolin, 905.664.5980.
