— PREGLED NAJVAŽNEJSIH DOGODKOV —

Edward Lee Howard, pobegli agent CIA, sedaj v ZSSR — Izdal več ameriških agentov v Sovjetski zvezi — Prvi tak primer za CIA

MOSKVA, ZSSR — Včeraj je Sovjetska zveza uradno potrdila, da je dala politični azil 34-letnemu bivšemu agentu CIA Edwardu Lee Howardu, ki je izginil brez sledu septembra lani. Howard naj bi bil prodal sovjetskim agentom l. 1984 zaupne podatke o CIA aktivnostih v Moskvi. Med drugim naj bi bil izdal nekaj ameriških agentov, med njimi nekoga A.G. Tolkačova, letalskega in električnega inženirja, ki so ga Sovjeti potem usmrtili. Baje je izdal tudi druge agente in s tem omogočil sovjetski protiobveščevalni službi, da je zlomila CIA mrežo v Moskvi.

Howard je delal za CIA od januarja 1981 do junija 1983, ko je bil odpuščen zaradi suma, da je užival mamila in tudi kradel. Howard naj bi bil takó ogorčen nad izgubo službe, da je sam navezal stike s sovjetskimi agenti in jim prodal podatke. Da je Howard delal za ZSSR je bilo ugotovljeno šele na podlagi izjav pobeglega sovjetskega agenta Vitalija Jurčenka, ki je govoril o nekem »Robertu«. Preiskava je vodila do Howarda, ki pa je pravočasno pobegnil. Od svojega doma v državi New Mexico je šel v Mexico City, od tam z letalom v Helsinki, Finsko, potem pa na še nepojasnjen način prišel v ZSSR. Vitalij Jurčenko se je tudi premislil in se prostovoljno vrnil v ZSSR.

Dva člana Moskovskega cirkusa zaprosila za politično zatočišče v ZDA

MIAMI, Fla. — Včeraj sta imela tiskovno konferenco Nikolaj Nikolski in njegova žena Bertalina Kazakova, ki sta zaprosila za politični azil v ZDA in ga bosta po vsej verjetnosti tudi dobila. Zakonca sta vrhovodca po poklicu in sta bila zvezdnika slovitega Moskovskega cirkusa, ki trenutno gostuje v Argentini. V Buenos Airesu se jima je uspelo pobegniti v ameriško poslaništvo, kjer sta zaprosila za azil v ZDA. Argentinske oblasti niso delale težav glede odhoda zakoncev iz dežele.

Nikolski in Kazakova sta dejala, da ste hotela priti v ZDA, ker želita živeti v svobodi in da jima življenje v ZSSR ni bilo več všeč. Rekla sta, da bi rada našla zaposlitev pri kakšnem ameriškem cirkusu. V Argentini sta zapustila nekaj članov družine, ker jih je več sodelovalo v vrhovodnih nastopih. Pretekli torek so ameriški diplomati v Buenos Airesu omogočili srečanje med zakoncema in predstavniki sovjetskega poslaništva, vendar sta Nikolski in Kazakova vztrajala pri odločitvi. Čeprav sta bila člana Moskovskega cirkusa polnih 12 let, je bilo gostovanje v Argentini prvič, da sta lahko potovala s cirkusom v tujino. Zato sta se odločila, da bosta priliko izkoristila.

Črnc Terence A. Todman, veleposlanik ZDA na Danskem, noče postati veleposlanik v J. Afriki — Kritičen do Reaganove politike

KOPENHAGEN, Dan. — Že nekaj časa išče Reaganova administracija nekega črnca, ki bi ga lahko imenovala za novega veleposlanika ZDA v Južno Afriko. V zadnjih dneh je bilo slišati, da na to mesto imenovan 60 let stari poklicni diplomat Terence A. Todman, ki je sedaj veleposlanik ZDA v Danskem, bil pa je že veleposlanik v Španiji, Čadu, Gvineji in Costi Rici. Včeraj pa je imel Todman tiskovno konferenco, v kateri je trdil, da bi predsednik Reagan ne smel imenovati novega veleposlanika v Južno Afriko, dokler ne izoblikuje pametnejšo politiko zoper sistem apartheida. Šele ko bodo ZDA imele verodostojno politiko do Južne Afrike, česar sedaj nimajo, bo lahko misliti na novega veleposlanika. Tako daleč pa ZDA še niso prišle, je dejal Todman.

Reakcija v Beli hiši je bila, da je s svojo izjavo Todman onemogočil, da bi postal veleposlanik v Južni Afriki. Zadrega Reaganove administracije glede politike do Južne Afrike se bo torej še nadaljevala, pravijo opazovalci političnih razmer v glavnem mestu. Pritisk na predsednika Reagana za temeljito spremembo svojega gledanja na Južno Afriko se veča iz dneva v dan, Reagan pa se temu pritisku upira.

— Kratke vesti —

Washington, D.C. — Ta ponedeljek bodo predsednik Reagan, njegova žena Nancy, podpredsednik George Bush in do 78 članov Reaganove pisarne v Beli hiši sodelovali v pregledu, katerega namen je ugotoviti, ako uživajo mamila. Udeležba je sicer prostovoljna. Ta teden se je Reagan pridružil kampanji proti uživanju mamil.

Rabat, Mar. — Danes je imel tiskovno konferenco maroški kralj Hassan. Branil je svojo odločitev, da se je osebno srečal z izraelskim predsednikom Šimonom Peresom pred dvema tednoma. Kritiziral je Sirijo zaradi ostre sirijske reakcije. Palestince je pa pozval, naj navezujejo stike z Izraelci.

London, V. Br. — Zahodni opazovalci Irana menijo, da bo Iran v naslednjih tednih odprla silovito ofenzivo zoper Irak. Trdijo tudi, da je Iran v zadnjem letu bistveno izboljšal kvaliteto svoje vojske tako v vežbanju in taktiki kot orožju. Mnenja so, da so Iranci sedaj v dovolj močnem položaju, da lahko celo premagajo iraške sile. Tudi iranski politični sistem je presenetljivo stabilen, po njegovi smrti bo sedaj 86-letnega ajatola Homeinija nasledil ajatola Montazeri.

Washington, D.C. — Mnogi republikanci podpirajo gibanje, katerega namen je razveljaviti dopolnilo ameriški ustavi, ki prepreči, da je ena oseba več kot dvakrat izvoljena za predsednika ZDA. Zaradi tega dopolnila ustavi namreč ne sme predsednik Reagan ponovno kandidirati l. 1988. Reagan sam podpira to gibanje, vendar trdi, da ne v njegovem osebnem primeru. Zanimivo je, da so sami republikanci odgovorni za to dopolnilo in sicer v reakciji zoper demokratskega predsednika Franklina D. Roosevelta, ki je bil izvoljen kar štirikrat zaporedno.

Washington, D.C. — Irske oblasti so menda aretirale 49-letnega ameriškega državljana, telekomunikacijskega inženirja Jona Pattisa in ga obtožile vohunjenja za ZDA. V State Departmentu pravijo, da Iranci niso objavili nobenih dokazov o Pattisovem vohunjenju in so zavrnile poskuse švicarskih diplomatov, da bi se srečali s Pattisom. Ker ZDA in Iran nimajo diplomatskih odnosov, predstavljajo ameriške interese v Iranu švicarski diplomati.

Louisville, Ky. — V bolnišnici Humana so sporočili, da je umrl 54-letni William Schroeder, ki je živel z umetnim srcem 620 dni. Zdravniki pri tej bolnišnici trdijo, da bodo z vsaditvijo umetnih src nadaljevali.

Južna Afrika

Oči vsega političnega in gospodarskega sveta so že dolgo obrnjene naravnost na Južno Afriko, moderno državo, ki se zviija v krčih velike politične krize. Časopisi obširno poročajo in televizijske postaje primerno ali neprimerno komentirajo nevzdržno stanje, kateremu ni videti na vse strani zadovoljive rešitve. Ker je to vprašanje tako zelo aktualno, bo prav in primerno, da se tudi v našem listu izreče kaka beseda. Izreči jo pametno, je pa težka zadeva. Ta pisec o teh rečeh skrbno zasleduje analize in ocene položaja v Južni Afriki v vodilnem časopisju in tudi poslušá komentarje na televiziji, da bi dobil pravo sliko razmer; končno se pa vendarle najbolj zanese na svojo zdravo pamet in na mnogoletne lastne življenjske skušnje, ki segajo iz domačih doživetij v zamotana mednarodna dogajanja: Tako si je iz razmer v Južni Afriki ustvaril neko lastno sliko, o kateri nikamor ne more jamčiti, da je povsem pravilna, vendar misli, da je zadel v jedro sedanje svetovne politične krize, iz katere išče kolikor toliko zadovoljivega izhoda.

Južno-afriška unija, katero so v prvem desetletju sedanjega stoletja ustanovili beli priseljenci iz Evrope (največ iz Nizozemske), ki so se tod naselili že mnogo preje in se imenovali »Afrikaaner«, je moderno urejena in zelo bogata dežela z ogromnimi naravnimi bogastvi raznih dragocenih rednin, tudi zlate rude. Avtohtono prebivalstvo pa je vse zamorskega rodu črne barve, primitivno in zaostalo kot je celotna svoječasno kolonialna Afrika. Posledica velike politične in gospodarske moči Afrikaanerjev se je posebno izrazilo začela kazati v ločevanju črnih domačinov od gospodujočih belcev, kar so začeli nazivati apartheid. Črnici nimajo istih državljanjskih človeških pravic kot beli, in sedanja gonja za izenačenje človečanskih pravic črnih plemen na afriškem kontinentu je pognala južnoafriška plemena v odprt boj z belo oblastjo, kakor smo mu priče v naših dneh.

Da je načelo enakih človekovih pravic na vse rase na svetu izven debate, ne more biti prigovora. Vprašanje pa, kako do njih priti je druga zadeva, odvisna od mnogih, premnogih činiteljev. Zlasti pa še v tako minuciozno izdelanem socialno-političnem sistemu, kakor ga najdemo v Južni Afriki. Dolžno spoštovanje dostojanstva slehernega človeka z božjo iskro v njegovi osebnosti in socialno-politična izgradnja človeške družbe na tej premisi, je temeljna zapoved krščanstva kakor tudi človeštva sploh. Politika apartheida jo zametuje, ločujoč bele državljane, ki jim pripisuje vse državljanske in človeške pravice, od črnih domačinov, ki jim le-te zanika.

Izključno belo vlado, sestavljeno iz potomcev nekdanjih priseljencev danes vodi predsednik države P.W. Botha, ki je pod vplivom svoje skrajno nacionalistične skupine trmoglav in nepopustljiv, čeravno čuti, da je nekaj treba napraviti okrog apartheida, ne da bi ga podrli. Razpadajoče moralno in socialno tkivo v državi na razne načine »flikajo«, vendar zaplate slabo držijo. A vladajoča ekipa se z vso veliko močjo dobro zgrajenega državnega varnostnega aparata

Mimogrede iz Milwaukeeja

MILWAUKEE, Wis. - V avgustu so naši predniki pasjim dnevom pripisovali neko demosko moč. Slovensko reklo je: »V avgustu pij vino in pusti ženske pri miru.« V mnogih krajih še danes velja prepričanje, da je v hudi vročini žejen pes zelo nevaren, ker se ga lahko poloti nevarna steklina.

Od vseh mesecev ima avgust v starih bukvah zabeleženih najmanj narodnih imen. Razen velikega srpana, so samo še prašnjek, mešnja, mlatnik, osemnik in poznoleten.

Za ta mesec vremenski pregovori pravijo takole: Če se avgusta po gorah kadi, kupi si kožuh za zimske noči. — Sonce srpana grozdje meči, z medom navdana ajda diši. — Če se megla zjutraj vzdiguje, slabo vreme napoveduje, če pa meglo zemlja posrka, lepo vreme na vrata trka. To je nekaj splošnih vremenskih pregovorov za avgust, več pa jih imajo še Lovrenc, ki ima god 10. avgusta in je poln modrosti glede vremena in letine, veliki šmarren je 15. avgusta, god Jerneja pa je 24. avgusta:

Lovrenc in Jernej lep, še dolgo v jeseni bo tako vreme. — Kakor Jernej in zadnji srpan vremení, se vsa jesen drži. — Lovrenc in Jernej v lepem vremenu pravita: Tako bo tudi jeseni. — Če Jernej že zrelo grozdje najde, bodo blagoslovljene polne brajde. — Zrel grozd Jerneja dobiti, dosti bo sladkega vinca piti.

V tem mesecu se poletje prelomi, sončni žarki so medlejši, dan se rano utruja, šum polelja in razkošja je vedno tanjši in tšji.

Kakor za julij, priporoča stoletni koledar tudi za avgust zmernost v vsem. Celo zrelo sadje naj bi jedli šele takrat, ko ga opere avgustovski dež.

brani odpraviti apartheid, kar črnska dominantna večina vedno glasneje in nasilneje zahteva. Že dolgo teče kri. Svet tragedijo gleda in bi rad pomagal. Lokacija južno-afriške Unije, kakor tudi njena politična in ekonomska moč je vse preveč važna za ta planet, da bi se dopustilo, da bi se zrušil v svoji lastni krvi, ali da ga zadene kakšna druga velika nesreča.

In so pogruntali, da bi bilo najbolj prav, pritisniti na Botha in njegovo vlado s kako kaznovalno akcijo ter ga prisiliti k razgovoru in pogajanjem s črnsko opozicijo. Najbolj pripravno, najmanj nevarno in riskantno orožje so gospodarske sankcije. Pa so zavpili: sankcije, sankcije! Kaznujmo Botha in njegovo nepopustljivo vlado in jo prisilimo na kolena! Cel svet je danes po časopisju in televiziji poln kritike o sankcijah. Toda nekateri vodilni državniki in politiki se sankcij branijo, med njimi ameriški predsednik Reagan, angleška premierka Thatcher, nemški kancler Kohl in drugi voditelji evropske skupnosti. Imajo veliko pomisleke, da-li je to orožje učinkovito in sploh pravilno. Močno jih podpira resnica, da v naši dobi še nobena akcija z uporabo sankcij ni bila uspešna. Vsaka država, ki se jih poslužuje, ravna po svoje, jih izpolnjuje ali zabušava, kontrola je skoraj nemogoča.

Osebnó sem prepričan, da s sankcijami ne bodo nikamor prišli. Spominjam se na široko razširjene akcije proti Italiji, ko je ta napadla Abesinijo in smo v Sloveniji zaradi njih veliko trpeli, pa so popolnoma propadle. Velike države so jih kratkomalo izigrale, zasledujoč z njimi svoje lastne koristi. Kje je v sedanjem še bolj ohlapnem mednarodnem sodelovanju kakršna koli garancija, da bodo danes pa uspele? Slišati je tudi svarila, da bi vsaka občutna ohromitev s sankcijami južno-afriškega ekonomskega procesa prizadela zamorske delavske interese mnogo bolj trdo kot škodovala vladnim krogom, ki si bodo še znali pomagati v vsakem primeru. S sankcijami kot kaznijo se odtujeje pripravljenost bliža se katastrofa — ločitev v družini — prepír, zamera, huda bolezen.

— Plaz opazovati: svarilo pred nesrečo — nesoglasje — ne veš ne kod ne kam. Poplavo doživeti: nadležni ljudje — upniki na obzoru — ni vse tako slabo. Pomlad: neizpolnjeno hrepenenje — hudi bodočnosti nasproti — lepa prihodnost.

— Sončna pokrajina: izpolnitev vseh želja — razkošne ure — varljiva sreča.

Dragi bralci in bralke! Na splošno je očitno bolje, da ne sanjate o vremenskih pojavih!

Triglavski kotiček

Čeprav sem citiral reklo »v juliju in avgustu pij vino, pa ženske pusti pri miru«, sta se kljub vročini poročila Triglavana! V soboto, 12. julija, sta se v cerkvi sv. Marije Pomočnice kristjanov na West Allisu poročila sin delavnega Triglavana Stanleyja in Joan Yaklič Thomas z ljubeznivo Deann Doberstein. Poročno mašo s pridigo je opravil župnik rev. Frederick Smith. Poročno slavlje se je vršilo v prostorih Knights of Columbus na S. 103. cesti. Novoporočencema iskrene čestitke!

V soboto, 26. julija, je izvrstni pevec, član Triglava Darko Berginc pred oltarjem v cerkvi sv. Marije Pomočnice kristjanov pri poročnem obredu izročil svojo in svoje žene Ann nasmejano hčer Ann Ma-

Lep obisk sosedov

CLEVELAND, O. — Kakor je že bilo poročano, je Balincarski krožek Slovenske pristave povabil naše dobre sosedice iz Chicage in Milwaukeeja na tekmovanje v balinanju.

V soboto, 19. julija, so začeli prihajati, najprvo iz Chicage, ker so bližji, potem je prišel cel avtobus iz Milwaukeeja. Kar zašumelo je po Pristavi: »So že tu!« Veseli smo jih po enem letu zopet pozdravili.

Od dolge vožnje utrujeni, še posebno v silni vročini tistega dne se je senca pod košatimi smrekami kar prilegala; okrepčila pri bari za »dušo privezato« so bila na razpolago. Oči vseh pa so bila obrnjenja k balincarskim prostorom, kjer se bo odločilo, kdo bo boljši.

Igre so se vršile tisto soboto in nedeljo popoldne, po maši, ki jo je daroval župnik pri Sv. Feliciti, g. Bober. Krogle so se vrtele in sreča se je nagibala Pristavčanom. Trofeje so za letos ostale doma, komu bo pa drugo leto sreča naklonjena, to bomo pa videli. Srečanja te ali druge vrste so potrebna za vse, da se med nami krepi zavest, da smo vsi ena velika slovenska družina v daljni Ameriki.

Pred odhodom gostov je še zadonela naša vedno lepa slovenska pesem. Kar prehitro je prišel čas za slovo.

Hvala Vam, dragi sosedje, za prijeten obisk! Drugo leto, če Bog da, se pa zopet vidimo! Bog Vas živi!

694. Vrsta novomašnikov iz Ugande se bo pomnožila v »National Seminary GGaba« v Kampala. Dolgo pričakovano pismo rektorja bogoslovja je ravnokar dospelo in je datirano s 7. julijem. Ker je polno razveseljevalih novic, ga kar v celoti objavljamo in sproti dodajamo v oklepajih potrebne pripombe za MZA dobrotnike, ki so mnoge imenovanih že leta vzdrževali.

Ker smo vsako leto poslali v čeku vrsto vzdrževalnin, smo se oddahnili, ko rektor zagotavlja: »Vsa finančna pomoč, ki ste jo nam poslali, nas je dosegla, kot razvidimo iz najnovejšega finančnega sporočila od Verona Fathers v Keniji. Prosim, oprostite našo zamudo pri potrditvi prejema. Vem, da vas to spravlja v težak položaj v zvezi z dobrotniki, ki bogoslovce vzdržujejo. Mi smo trenutno v dolgih poletnih počitnicah in ko se bodo bogoslovci vrnili, vam bomo preložili nekaj novih kandidatov, da blagohotno sprejmete njihovo vzdrževanje. Z iskrenimi in hvaležnimi željami vedno in hvaležni željami vedno vdano vaš v Kristusu, Paul K. Bakyenga, rektor.«

Takole pismo začenja: »Upravičeno se pritožujete nad našim skoraj popolnim pomanjkanjem odgovoriti na vse vaše napore, ko ste nam ponovno pisali in prevzeli vzdrževanje nekaterih naših bogoslovcev. Zaradi vseh težav, ki smo jih prestali, so nekatera naša finančna sporočila bila izredno počasna predno so nas dosegla.

Poizkusil bi rad podati vam sliko, kako stvari trenutno izgledajo, kar zadeva bogoslovce, ki ste jih v vzdrževanje sprejeli.

Ko gledam na fotokopijo

vašega pisma z dne 24. novembra 1984, zadeve takole izgledajo:

John Ssemwanga, podpiran od MZA Cleveland, Ohio, bo posvečen v duhovnika 27. julija 1986.

Paul Ssentuuya, ki ga podpira gdč. Mary Novak, uslužbenka St. Michael's bolnišnice v Torontu, doma iz Scarborough, Ontario, bo ordiniran v diakona 27. julija 1986.

Peter Ssenkaayi, vzdrževan v bogoslovju od gdč. Mary Kacijan iz Clevelanda, bo tudi prejel mašniško posvečenje 27. julija tega leta.

Aloysius Lugolobi, vsa leta teologije vzdrževan od Fr. Philipa Feryana, O.F.M., bo v mašnika posvečen 23. avgusta tega leta.«

Ko srečni ugotavljamo ta vesela dejstva v rasti domačinske Cerkve v Ugandi, molimo istočasno za pokoj duše rajnega o. Philipa Feryana, ki je lani v avgustu odšel v boljše življenje in mora biti sedaj zelo vesel svoje žrtve za njegovega kandidata — novomašnika.

Prav tako naj Bog podeli bolni gdč. Mary Kacijan, ki jo je zadel nedavno mrtvoud na eni strani telesa, veliko olajšavo bolečin in potrpežljivost v prenašanju križa, ki ga s Kristusom nosi v zavodu za ostarele — bolne v Clevelandu na Lake Shore Blvd.

»Obenem s tem pismom

vam prilagam pisma vseh štirih, ki bodo v juliju in avgustu ordinirani, in okrogno pismo, ki vsebuje važne informacije, razposlane večini dobrotnikov našega semenišča koncem lanskega leta 1985.

Med žalostnimi vestmi je smrt Josepha Okumu iz škofije Gulu, ki je umrl začetku tega leta. Naj njegova duša počiva v miru! Bil je že duhovnik.«

Rajnega Josepha Okumu je vzdrževala ga. Restituta Palleschi iz naše fare Brezmadežnega Srca Marijinega v Scarborough, Ontario. Prav gotovo v nebesih Boga hvali za svoj mašniški poklic in moli za svojo dobrotnico, njeno družino, našo faro in celotno MZA.

Crispin Obico iz škofije Soroti je bil tudi že posvečen. Vzdrževan je bil od g. Franca Medveda od MZA Minneapolis—St. Paul, Minnesota.

Prav tako je bil že v mašnika posvečen Jerome Ntirubarira iz škofije Kabale, ki sta ga vzdrževala Neimenovana zakonca iz Connecticuta, Z.D.

Fr. Jože Snój iz Kalifornije je vzdrževal Emmanuela Akumu iz škofije Gulu, ki je tudi že v duhovnika posvečen.

Ga. Mary Kebe iz Ottawe, Ontario, je podpirala študije John Baptist Masayi iz škofije Tororo. On je tudi že mašnik postal.

Vsi navedeni so zelo srečni in služijo v različnih položajih in duhovniškem apostolatu, vsak v svoji lastni škofiji.

»Z velikim veseljem

se vam oglašamo po kar zelo dolgem času. Brez dvoma ste zasledovali dogodke, ki so prizadeli našo državo Ugando zadnje leto, posebej zadnje mesece tega leta.

Kot lahko pričakujete, je bilo naše semenišče, ki leži v Kampali, glavnem mestu Ugande, čutilo vetrove dogodkov, prizadevajoče Ugando zadnja leta, posebno lansko.

„Če Gospod ne zida hiše, se zastonj trudijo zidarji, ki jo zidajo. Če Gospod ne čuje nad mestom, čuvar zastonj ostaja buden.“

Zares smo hvaležni, da je Gospod bdel nad našim semeniščem in to zadnje leto je bil poseben blagoslov.

Poseben blagoslov za naše bogoslovno semenišče v lanskem študijskem letu je bilo imenovanje rektorja teologije v Ggabi, Kampala, za pomožnega škofa Emmanuelu kardinalu Nsubuga. Sveti oče je izbral za to mesto Matthiasa Ssekamanya in kardinal nam je to novico osebno sporočil 30. marca 1985, ob zbrani semeniški družini. Čakali smo potem do 2. junija, da smo lahko prisostvovali škofovskiemu posvečenju.

Bogata žetev duhovniških posvečenj je poseben blagoslov zadnjih let. Lahko rečemo: „Zahvaljen, Gospod, da uslišuješ prošnje svojega ljudstva, ko izbiraš izmed njih one, ki bodo služili v Tvojem vinogradu.“

Ni samo število ordiniranih veliko večje, ampak tudi splošni standard semeniščnikov je bil zelo izboljšan. Med onimi, ki so končali bogoslovsko formacijo v našem bogoslovju v maju 1985, jih je 25 napravilo izpite za Teološki baccalaureat v Rimu na Propagandni univerzi. Večina je izpite opravila z zelo dobrim uspehom. Priložena lista uspehov sama o tem govori. (Žal je nismo dobili. Op. pisca).

Resnost in globina izpitov v našem semenišču tukaj omogočuje našim bodočim duhovnikom sprejem v nadaljnjo ni važno, kdo je zmagal, važno je, da smo imeli z njimi prijateljske razgovore in »good time«. Tudi to je nekaj vredno!

Odlično uspeli
Misijonski piknik!

V nedeljo, 27. julija, se je v lepem Triglavskem parku vršil 16. misijonski piknik, katerega je z mladimi in starimi triglavskimi člani in članicami odlično pripravila in vodila delavna predsednica ga. Marija Coffeltova. Ker je bilo lepo sončno vreme, se je piknika udeležilo veliko število naših ljudi, prijateljev in znancev.

Še pred sv. mašo je stopil v kapelico sv. Cirila in Metoda pred mikrofonom — mesto, na katerem je vedno govoril bivši tajnik misijonskega krožka, danes že pokojni Frank Rožina — sedanji odbornik Jože Ornik in pristrčno pozdravil vse navzoče. Takoj nato je misijonsko mašo z lepo pridigo daroval slovenski misijonar iz Kanade, p. Tomaž Maurič. Pri maši je sodeloval in pel mešani pevski zbor. Ob koncu mašnega obreda je spregovorila glavna tajnica MZA iz Kanade, rojakinja Sonja Ferjan, ki je med drugimi omenila, v kakih velikih težavah živijo in delujejo naši misijonarji in misijonarke, daleč okrog po svetu. Zato je želja in tudi prošnja, da jih podpiramo moralno, pa ne samo moralno, tudi finančno.

Takoj po cerkvenem obredu so pridne kuharice s pomočjo ravnako pridnih možakarjev pripravile izvrstno kosilo, pečeno piško s krompirjevo in zeleno solato, kavu in domačim pecivom. Mlajši ljudje pa so marljivo stregli in točili vročo in hladno pijačo. V kuhinji je pridno pomagala tudi nunska sestra, ki je na obisku pri svojih starših Ralph in Marije Coffelt.

Vso pohvalo zaslužijo članice in člani pri prodaji misijonskih vstopnic. Razne igre za dobitke in srečolov je spretno kot vedno vodila rojakinja Marička Kadunc. Za zabavo in ples so igrali »Veseli Slovenci« iz Sheboygana.

vlade za sodelovanje z demokratičnim svetom, ki svetuje pogajanja z domačini in s tem se kriza podaljšuje in zaostrojuje.

Meni se tudi zdi, ko prebiram poročila z vseh strani, da je krik po sankcijah že začel razdvajati demokratični svet. Razdor utegne več škodovati svobodnim narodom kot predsedniku Bothu v Afriki. Primer imamo pred domačim pragom. Naš kongres hoče izsiliti močne sankcije, Bela hiša se jih brani. Drugi primer je v Londonu: šušlja se, da ima krona pomisleke glede protisankcijske politike gospe Thatcher. Kaj podobnega se v Angliji skoraj nikoli ne zgodi. To so signali, ki dajo slutiti, da južno-afriška kriza začenja zajemati vso zemeljsko oblo, in da so v ozadju mogočne sile, ki bi jim razdvojeni svobodni del človeštva ne mogel biti kos, ko bi si prilastile Južno Afriko.

JOLIET, Ill. - O čikaškem zboru Slovenska Pesem smo že slišali, da so njeni člani podjetni in si nenehno pridobivajo zasluge na odru in v javnosti.

Tokrat so hoteli nuditi nekaj ugodja jolietškemu občinstvu in vsaj ugasiti žejo našim številnim rojakom. Niso povsem upali, da se jim to posreči, vendar je že sam namen hvale vreden. Brez petja je šlo, po nemem urniku.

Hudo vroča nedelja je izbrana za ta poskus, že po prvih popoldanskih urah, pri Sv. Jožefu, na dan 13. julija. Datum ni obetal sreče in smo se za uspeh resno ukanili. Žeje nismo odpravili; gostje nam pa niso tega zamerili. Ljudstvo se je zgledno žrtvovalo, pritožb ni bilo. »Še kikeljco prodala bom, za sladko vince dala bom« — je bilo slišati. In res ni bilo videti kikeljca naokrog. Zamenjale so jih minimalke. Toda žeja je vztrajala.

Z obema rokama sem prispeval k tej dobrodelni akciji. Točil sem pivo — pravzaprav le peno, in to me je togotilo. Res, le pena je uhajala iz pipe, a ljudje, še preudarni, so jeli godrnjati, češ, da jim ni do belih brkov. Zaman sem sukal kozarec, da bi izvil pravi curek. Poučili so me, kako mi je ravnati, vendar je kar prekipelo naprej in so se pivci jeli redčiti. Videč, da več škodujem, kot koristim, sem se že ob prvi rotaciji prekvalificiral v pomožnega pomočnika na pomožni blagajni.

Tukaj je bilo lepo. Ostajalo je celo časa za pomenek. In imel sem srečo: podkovanega g. Markuša st.! Radovednost me je gnala na različne teme in pretresla sva domala ves mikavnejši svet obširne jolietške fare. Po g. Trpinu sem najprej povprašal, seve, dasi je očtino, da le-ta ne bo krive vere označil z »nove« prižnice Sv. Štefana. In ker so si — nedaleč od naju — gasili žejo še mnogi drugi, imenitnejši možje, sem prisluhnil vsaki besedi. Ko bi le pomnil vse, kar sem zvedel mimogrede!

Za hip se je g. Markun odmaknil. Kako tudi ne? Lepo deklo ga je potrepljalo po roki. Ni besedičilo veliko, toda efektno. Segel je v žep in ji stisnil v pest sveženj ključev. Minuto pozneje se je njegov avtomobil zgubil s parka. »Moramo razumeti mladino,« se je opravičeval, »saj znajo biti hvaležni. To je bila moja vnučka, ena izmed štiriindvajsetih.« Ničesar nisem pripomnil. Pomislil sem le, da mu ostalih 23 utegne očitati, češ, da mu (po logični pravičnosti) primanjkuje še vsaj toliko vozil.

Primaknil se je tudi p. Vendelin, seveda s tiste strani, kjer so godci razveseljevali stare in mlade. Niso ga oni menda razočarali, saj on čišla solidne mojstre. Očividno ga tudi ni žejalo in ga moja preobilna pena ni užalila, saj ga sploh ni mikalo priti kozarcu do dna. S takšnimi »pijančki« je lahko opraviti, ko pijejo zgolj iz vljudnosti.

Ko se je pater pomešal z drugimi, sem slišal rahlo tožbo: bojazen, da se bo cerkveni zbor Sv. Štefana krčil, ko bo (oz. — če bo) sedanje pevce, se pravi vsaj posameznike, vleklo na Lemont. Osupnil sem ob taki prerokbah, vendar me je potolažilo upanje, da ne bo prišlo do večjega odtoka. Saj bi zibel čikaškega slovenstva bila s tem preveč prizadeta.

Sodčki so se hitro praznili. Zbali smo se, da jih ne bo dovolj. Resnici na ljubo nas takšen pripetljaj ne bi spravil ob dobro voljo, saj smo se bili dobro preskrbeli. Ljudje so se že majali in smehljaje »repetirali« naročila. Med drugim sem slišal, da imamo naročena dva policaja, vendar nista bila v napotje. Bržkone sta zaupala množici, ki ni grozila z zmedo.

Prav tako je cvetela ostala trgovina, s pecivom, sendviči in zapeljivimi pijačami. Brez dvoma so tudi malčki prišli na svoj račun: Pri puškah, ob magičnem »kolesu sreče«, na toboganu in ob kemičnih pijačah. Zavržene steklenice in pločevinaste doze so pričale o tem. Gostoljubni Joliet jih ne pozabi.

Še preden je sonce leglo k počitku, je prišlo do novega priliva. Mlajši rod, ki oživi ob prižiganju zvezd, z veselimi obrazi, je pristopil na obeh straneh pultov. Nekateri so precej zahvihali rokave in osvežili postrežbo. Le Branko Magajne ni odstopil pipe. Predobro jo je obračal, že od prvih ur; k njemu smo se zatekali, kadar so naši viri začasno pošli. Ni se čemeril, molče je ustregel vsaki pijavki z leve in z desne. Dvomi, da bi se njegovi kozarci lahko prešteli... Tudi Janezu Vidmarju ni zmanjkalo moči. Desno roko, še včeraj nalomljeno, je menda preklopil na solarno energijo.

Ko je zazvonila »Hora legalis«, se ljudstvo ni zmenilo. Ne vem, kdaj in kako se je jelo razhajati, kajti tistih dveh policajev zaenkrat ni bilo videti. Dejal bi, da so votli sodčki dovolj zgovorno opomnili še vedno žejne prijatelje, da je konec rajanja. Četudi bo nekatere še skelelo po grlu...

Naša akcija torej ni dosegla svojega namena: Ni potolažila niti žejnih, niti požrtvovalnih. Moralni neuspeh, vsekakor, za Slovensko Pesem.

Ali res?

O tem povprašamo svojo blagajničarko, gdč. Elizabeto Martinčič, ki ji ni ušla nobena otipljiva podrobnost.

Delinquent accounts

Effective immediately, anyone who does not renew their subscription by the expiration date, will have their paper stopped until it is paid.

In the past the American Home has kept readers on the mailing list for months even though their subscription was past due. Some paid. Some quit, sticking us with the bills.

Due to the enormous cost of postage (which has almost doubled this year alone) and the cost of newsprint and ink, we simply cannot afford to keep sending the paper if the subscription is not paid up. Thank you to all for your understanding. Most of our subscribers pay for the paper upon receipt of the first bill. We truly appreciate this.

8 On the road with Eleanor

by Eleanor Cerne Pavey

We are now driving through old China town area. Only a few Chinese remain today as there are few ships coming to this area and lack of trade has forced the Chinese to move to Picadilly where they are located today.

English people have been celebrating New Year's Day only for the last 12 years. Also, there is no celebration of Thanksgiving Day—they don't have it. About 70 percent of population is cremated; it costs about $600 for the cheapest burial; a regular burial averages about $1,350. Burials are permitted one on top of the other; however, if within 30 years of the last burial someone in the family is not placed on top of the previous family member's casket, the family loses its burial grounds and it reverts back to the state.

Kent is the "Garden of England". We are driving between the orchards and hop fields of Kent. OANT Houses are used to grind hops. The main trees are apple—kept trimmed at a certain level so people could easily pick fruit without using a lot of labor.

We are passing what used to be a TB Hospital, but TB has almost been eradicated so the building is being used for a mental hospital.

Animals have to undergo a six month quarantine because of worry about rabies. Recently, a pet rat was destroyed that had been brought in illegally—owner was fined $1,500.

We are now crossing the largest river in Kent. Bertie calls our attention to a pub named, "Three Crutches" (a corruption of "three crosses." The town of Rochester is on our left as we cross the river Medway. We are crossing a range of hills known as the North Downs. We stop to give a lift to a group of people whose bus has broken down. Our guide was concerned because the volunteers on board were escorting a group of retarded children. They already had missed one ferry crossing, and our driver asks us if we would mind giving them a lift to the ferry. They were very grateful.

Farmers produce a lot of mustard seed because US stopped shipments of soy bean oil to England. The Common Market has a glut of surplus potatoes and has ordered that crops be destroyed!

Originally this area was a forest to the open sea. Lots of iron in the area. Some of the old tombstones are made of iron. We are passing the remains of a windmill with the top gone. Kaise, a weed from Scotland, is flourishing alongside the road.

We are now approaching Dover which is only 73 miles from London. You can look across the channel and on a clear day can see France since it is only 20 miles away. About 10,000 years ago, the ice cap melted resulting in the creation of the channel. Dover has always been England's chief link with France and the Continent and Richard II decreed that it should be the sole port through which pilgrims and official visitors might enter England. Per Bertie: "The English refer to it as the English Channel and the French probably refer to it as the French Channel."

Soil is not rocky, mostly sandy and very little stone. Area probably has been covered with tumbleweed. We are beginning to smell the salt in the air as we are now in Dover. Lots of radar around the coast here.

High on top of the White Cliffs of Dover is the Castle which was built soon after the Norman Conquest. The Roman Lighthouse in its courtyard is one of the earliest remaining Roman works in Britain. The walls of the immense Castle are 24 feet thick. Under the cliffs are miles of tunnels used during the war when the Channel was the busiest waterway in the world.

Dover is stretching out before us. Dover, chief of the ancient Clinque Ports (meaning "five" and pronounced "sink") is the busiest passenger terminal in Europe handling the second largest number of passengers after Heathrow. It's five ports were responsible for defending the Channel.

We are now walking on the Promenade to the end of the pier and observe the Hovercraft which we will be taking later to France. We are retracing our walk on the Promenade with the beach on one side and two large hotels (all white and circular architecture which follows curve of the road) on the other side. Next to the hotels is an apartment today where a hotel had been bombed during the war. We hardly see another soul—it is too chilly. We are told that 2,222 shells were fired into Dover. Because the Cliffs of Dover are sandy, the bombs were diffused. To stop progress of German tanks up the hills, turrets of stone were placed on possible hill approaches.

Back to our bus now to continue our journey to Canterbury which was settled by the Romans around 43 AD. Most of the relics of the Roman city are buried beneath present day buildings, six to twelve feet below the modern ground level. The city walls built on the foundation of those constructed by the Romans remains an impressive sight. On top of the ancient mound is an obelisk which can be seen miles around. During the war, one-third of the city was destroyed as part of Hitler's "Cultural Attack". Two-thirds of the city wall is still intact because it is made from flint stone.

We are walking down Mercery Lane, one of the medieval streets of the city with old houses and a view of Christchurch Gate, the main entrance to the Cathedral. The tobacco shop on the corner of High Street and Mercery Lane was once a famous hostelry which in its time housed thousands of pilgrims who came to the tomb of Archbishop Thomas Becket, who was murdered in the church in 1170. King Henry VIII in his anger against Becket raged from the council room, "Not one will deliver me from this low-born priest." Four knights, who thought themselves to be carrying out the king's wishes to get rid of a traitor, murdered Becket in the Norman cathedral. For an Archbishop to be murdered in his own Cathedral so horrified the Christian community, that he was immediately regarded as a saint (even though his character was at fault); however, in those days those who were martyred for their faith were at once numbered among the "saints". Today a stone commemorates this event and there is an altar of the Sword Point which marks the spot of the murder.

The Canterbury Cathedral is absolutely magnificent. It is a treasure house of different styles of architectural skills from Norman times on and contains a magnificent collection of stained glass windows of the 12th and 13th centuries. Its fan-vaulted ceiling, the impressive nave, and Sanctuary, the High Altar, the Cloisters, the numerous beautiful Chapels, the effigies of Edward, the Black Prince, and Henry IV on their tombs, the tomb of Henry Chichele who became Archbishop of Canterbury in 1414 who had his tomb constructed depicting himself in his splendid vestments on top, his naked corpse in see-through tomb below. Carvings on columns surrounding tombs are magnificent—it is next to impossible to record all we are seeing in the time allotted.

During the fateful first week of June, 1942, fifteen high-explosive bombs were rained on it as were also hundreds of incendiary bombs. On July 11, 1946, King George VI and his Queen, with their elder daughter, now Her Majesty Queen Elizabeth II, attended a solemn service of thanksgiving to God for his goodness in bringing the Cathedral almost unscathed from the most savage dangers that war had brought to it.

We have a little time to explore and then we all meet at a delightful inn for tea and crumpets. According to Bertie: "The proper way to eat scones is to first butter them, then add jam, then add the most essential ingredient—gobs of whipped cream—and by all means raise your little "pinkie."

We board our bus for our return to London to allow time for freshening up for those who have elected to purchase tickets for the evening tour of "The Beefeater" with dinner, a six-course Medieval feast, and entertainment.

The rest of us go to our rooms and find an important announcement under our door from TNT, our travel agent, about our plans for Sunday's departure from London. It seems we will have to vacate our rooms Sunday morning before 7 o'clock. Our hotel is part of the running field for the Mars London Marathon. On Sunday, April 20, 1986, London will come to a virtual standstill except for 23,000 people (several thousand more runners than the New York Marathon) pounding the streets from Greenwich and Blackheath to Westminster Bridge in the world's greatest marathon. London turns out to cheer the top international athletes, the amateurs, and, most of all, the many disabled men and women who tackle the 26-mile course. For the last two days the hotel has become a mecca of journalists, TV cameras, conferences—the whole works connected with the covering of this event. We must vacate the hotel before the police close the roads and the hotel is asking for cooperation and apologizing for the inconvenience. To make amends, the hotel has arranged a new and different itinerary that our whole day will not be wasted. We are to be taken by bus to Victoria Coach Station in the center of London and then taken non-stop to the International hoverport at Dover which is for the exclusive use of Hoverspeed passengers. Originally we were to take the ferry (about 2.5 hour trip). We are delighted at the prospect of skimming across the Channel on the largest hovercraft in the world for a 35 minute flight to Calais hoverport in France.

ROY G. SANKOVIC, DIRECTOR

Fifty years for John and Mary Petric

A surprise party for John and Mary Petric on their golden wedding anniversary was no real surprise. The happy couple celebrated their anniversary with a Mass at St. Mary Church in Collinwood on June 15th. Originally the couple had been married by the late Rt. Rev. Msgr. B.J. Ponikvar, pastor of St. Vitus Church on June 6th, 1936.

The concelebrated mass was attended by the Revs. Victor Tomc, pastor of St. Mary's, Victor Cimperman of Akron, Paul Krajnik of Lorain, Francis Paik, Anthony Rebol, John Wittreich, and Louis Tomtz. Servers at Mass were John A. Petric, Jr., Steven C. Petric, Edward J. Kuzma, Jr., and John Paul Kuzma.

First reading was read by Ms. Wendy M. Buchanan, the second reading by Brenda L. Buchanan. Presentation of the gifts was made by John and Mary Petric, Natalie M. Petric, and Mary Elizabeth Kuzma. Church organist and director of the choir was Mr. Rudi Knez.

After the holy sacrifice of the Mass, some 200 guests went to the Slovenian National Home on Holmes Ave. Following the dinner, numerous citations were read. There were two apostolic blessings from Pope John Paul II and one from Bishop F. Kramberger and the Auxiliary Bishop Jožef Smej, both of Maribor, Slovenia. There were greetings from Representative Ronald Suster, of the Ohio Legislature, Cleveland Mayor George V. Voinovich, and Senator Frank J. Lausche.

The Petrics are parents of three sons and three daughters: John, Mary Joyce, Barbara, Timothy, Veronica, and Rudolph. There are also nine grandchildren: Joan, John, Steve, Wendy, Brenda, Ed, John, Mary Elizabeth, and Natalie. The eldest son, Major John Petric was killed in Viet Nam in 1969, following his second tour of military duty.

Mr. Petric was long employed by the Addressograph-Multigraph Corporation of Euclid. For many years he also operated his own barbershop on E. 185th St. He is still doing part-time barbering at the old establishment. He also provides haircuts and shaves for the male residents of the Slovenian Home for the Aged on Neff Rd.

Mr. Petric additionally has

been very active in many Slovenian Catholic and cultural activities, including Catholic lodges. Since 1927 he has been a member of AMLA lodge No. 1 Slovenec. He was Chief Ranger for 20 years in the Catholic Order of Foresters as well as a member of St. Mary's branch of the St. Vincent de Paul Society.

Mrs. Mary Petric has likewise been very active in Slovenian Catholic and lodge circles. For 25 years she was treasurer of KSKJ lodge St. Helen No. 193. At present she is a trustee of the same KSKJ lodge. She has also been active with the St. Mary PTU and the St. Mary Altar Society.

All the testimonials and all the love and devotion shown by the Petric families, relatives, and friends testified to the high regard and love held by our Slovenian community for these two wonderful people. May they continue to enjoy the fruits of their labors and sufferings with joy and gladness into the autumn of their years.

The Ameriška Domovina joins in the celebration with a toast and a shout: "To many, many more years!"

Euclid Beach Memorabilia at Cleveland's Harbor Expo '86

Harbor Expo '86, a celebration of the start of Cleveland's harbor project, will provide visitors with unique activities to make the weekend of August 8 - 10 a special treat for the entire family. The United States Coast Guard Cutter "Mackinaw," on a Great Lakes tour, is stopping in Cleveland to be part of this special lake front event.

And for thousands of Clevelanders who remember good times at Euclid Beach Park, there will be special amusements and displays from the Beach to enhance a lakeside boardwalk of old-fashioned fun and games.

If anyone ever stood in front of the Fun House at Euclid Beach, transfixed by Laughing Sal, or watched themselves elongate and expand crazily in trick mirrors, they will be able to relive such happy times when some of Euclid Beach comes to Harbor Expo '86.

Ed Chukayne, who has an enormous collection of Euclid Beach memorabilia, will bring some of the old objects — like Laughing Sal, pieces of the old flying scooters ride, the witch from Laugh-in-the-Dark — as well as old posters, signs, and music tracks from the skating rink.

Ethnic Heritage Day at Ohio Fair

Governor and Dagmar Celeste are pleased to announce the first Ethnic Heritage Day at the Ohio State Fair, Columbus, Ohio. It will be Sunday, August 10 from noon to 6 p.m. at the TV Channel 6 Pavilion.

There will be live entertainment plus a special guest performance by Trachtenkapelle Illerzell, a 37 piece brass band from Bavaria with soloist Heinrich Weber, "The Bavarian Pavarotti."

Even authentic Euclid Beach popcorn balls and candy kisses will be sold to make the nostalgia strong and the family day a pleasant lakeside delight on a real boardwalk at Harbor Expo '86.

Rostenkowski gets ethnic award

In a salute to ethnic leadership, the Democratic National Committee's Council on Ethnic Americans recently honored Congressman Dan Rostenkowski (D-Ill.) with its highest award. The award presentation was the highlight of a dinner to encourage ethnic involvement in the Democratic Party.

Rostenkowski, chairman of the powerful House Ways and Means Committee and a second generation Polish American, was recognized at the June 18 dinner at the Mayflower Hotel in Washington, D.C. Rostenkowski received the 1986 Ethnic Heritage Award for Leadership as one who exemplifies the traditional values and dedication to the cause of freedom held by ethnic Americans.

In his remarks, Rostenkowski reiterated his firm support for the Ethnic Council and its program of representing ethnic Americans. Stressing the importance of ethnicity to America, Rostenkowski drew on his own experiences in the Polish neighborhood on the north side of Chicago where he grew up. He lauded the Ethnic Council as the first step in winning back ethnics to the Democratic party. "Our roots lie with working families all across the country," Rostenkowski said, "and ethnic Democrats are the cornerstone of our Party."

American Slovene Club Enjoy Lolly the Trolley

On July 16 the American Slovene Club members enjoyed Lolly the Trolley tour of Cleveland. They were impressed with all of the new developments in the city. The tour included the bustling, sensational new downtown area, the popular "in" gathering spots in the flats, University Circle's multi-cultural institutions, and the growth areas in between.

Following the tour many of the members dined at the Burgess Grand Cafe downtown.

Backaches

It is estimated that some 20 million visits to doctors each year in this country are prompted by back pain. Nearly everyone at one point in their lives complains of backaches and related problems. Often these problems are resolved with conservative treatment, but they can become recurrent.

The back is part of the support structure of the human body, and is made up of 33 bones. The spinal cord and nerves pass between the vertebrae; all but the last nine are separated by collagen disks. Pain can occur along any part of the spine, especially if a disk ruptures and presses on spinal nerves.

The lower back is a complex of muscle and ligaments which stretch to the abdomen. A strong set of supporting muscle has been shown to be protective against back stress and pain. You can begin the process of strengthening those back muscles by paying attention to your posture while standing and sitting.

One of the easiest ways to protect your back is to sit correctly, especially if your work requires long stretches of sitting. The normal posture of the lower back is a slight forward curve, and the curved area often is referred to as the small of the back. You should sit in a chair so the small of your back can be pressed against the back of the chair. Your feet should be flat on the floor and your knees at hip height. Any office chair that hugs the small of your back is both comfortable and an aid to good posture.

When standing for long periods, it helps to keep the pelvis tilted back to avoid a swayback, or lordosis, which exaggerates the natural curve in the lower back. High-heeled shoes and a protruding abdomen tend to promote lordosis. You can support the lower spine and avoid an aching back when standing by placing one foot on a stool or other object about four to six inches off the floor.

Waking from a night's sleep can be a painful experience if your mattress does not provide sufficient back support. Sleeping on your side is far better than on your stomach, a position that places stress on your back.

Treatment of back pain should be considered only after a careful evaluation by a medical doctor. Diagnosing the problem, and its cause, can avoid unnecessary, and often expensive, procedures and care. Back pain is often a result of soft-tissue injuries, especially in younger adults. X-rays will not reveal the injured muscle or ligaments. Treatment for this and other acute back pain includes complete bed rest, aspirin, and heat applied to the painful area. Your physician may prescribe muscle relaxants and pain-killers on a short-term basis for patients with severe, restricting pain.

Surgery for chronic symptoms may be suggested, but only after all other available therapies have been exhausted.

Some patients find that techniques such as biofeedback and muscle relaxation exercises are effective. It is important to learn how to do these exercises properly to gain maximum benefit. Adding strength and flexibility to muscles in the back and abdomen can help to prevent the occurrence, and re-occurrence, of back problems.

Pharmacist Kuhar talks about abortion

Freemont, OH—The pro-life pharmacist is faced with the growing shift from surgical abortion to chemical abortion, and must shape a whole new approach to combatting this evil.

It is speculated that with the use of an oral abortifacient, the woman undergoing the killing of the growing new person within her uterus will not experience the guilt attendant upon the majority of surgical abortions. This is true insofar as she will "not be sure" if she has conceived, at what gestational age the baby was, nor exactly when she aborts the baby.

In a May, 1984 article in Contraception, Kovacs et al. speculate on perfecting "a nonsurgical procedure suitable for self-administration (as) an attractive alternative to vacuum aspiration for termination (sic) of very early pregnancy..."

Self-administration, at home, of prostaglandin analogs has been shown to be a realistic alternative" (1). There is no doubt that, given the impetus of Upjohn's charting of the bloody waters of chemical abortions, firms like Roussel-Uclaf, the maker of RU-486, are encouraged to research for drugs of death. RU-486 is an abortifacient chemical drug.

It would be wise to first explain to the reader the nature and effects of chemicals like RU-486 and then to comment on where such research is heading.

RU-486 (generic name: mifepristone) is the first anti-progesterone to be used clinically (2). It inhibits progesterone action at the "receptor" level in target tissues, most notably in the uterus. When fertilization (conception) occurs, human chorionic gonadotropin (hCG) from the developing baby stimulates progesterone production and secretion from the corpus luteum. This prevents shedding of the endometrium during early pregnancy. If progesterone production is reduced or even halted, the newly conceived baby will lose his or her nourishing endometrium, thus withering away and sloughing off, just as if the woman were having a period. RU-486, an experimental abortifacient, acts to create this type of scenario and causes a chemical abortion.

RU-486 seems to have its greatest potential in being used up to the 10th week of pregnancy. It lacks the severe and life-threatening side effects of the prostaglandins, so far, which gives it appeal to the public and to its developers, both as a convenient dosage form (tablet) and as a possible once-a-month "post-coital contraceptive" agent. Several researchers used the euphemism "contragestive" to denote a chemical agent which is "contra-" (against) and "gestive" (pregnancy) i.e., an abortifacient.

Funding for much of the research for an abortion pill has come from the World Health Organization (an arm of the United Nations), the Population Council (of New York), and material donations of RU-486 by Roussel-Uclaf, a French pharmaceutical firm. Roussel-Uclaf is a subsidiary of the West German firm, Hoescht-AG, which is also the parent firm of an American drug firm. Hoescht-Roussel of Summerville, NJ. The American firm denies that any research of RU-486 is being done in the US and refers all questions about the chemical to its sister firm in France.

It is speculated by at least one liberal writer for New Republic that "if RU-486 becomes the preferred method of abortion here, abortion clinics would become a thing of the past, replaced by 24 hour clinics to treat potential complication."

This observation, and others, reveals an approach to an abortion pill with a "hands off" attitude, until there is certitude of safety and effectiveness, after the fiascos of previous "safe birth control" such as the IUD, oral "contraceptives," and surgical abortion.

The abortion-contraception-feminist crowd has insufficient experience in the area of an abortion pill, and it seems that crowd will enter the area more cautiously, after much experimentation and deaths of unborn babies in Europe.

Since success rates vary from 26 to 95 percent and there are inconvenient side effects, the population-control juggernaut will use the intervening period to publicize the abortion pill as a "contraceptive," since they sense that the public more easily accepts the latter as "nicer."

The pro-life movement should expose the misleading public relations campaign being unleashed by the forces of death. All health professionals—pharmacists, nurses, doctors—must assert their educational role at this opportune time to teach the public what a death pill like RU-486 bodes for a society which callously kills its unborn. And that self-destruction of the very fabric of society is hastened by acceptance of prepackaged, instant abortion in the form of a pill.

11 New Subscribers Bring Total to 141

Eleven new subscriptions to the American Home newspaper were recorded during the month of July.

3 — 2x a week — U.S.
1 — 2x a week — Canada
7 — Friday only

The 11 added to the six month total of 130 brings the grand total for new subscribers this year to 141. Thanks to all for contributing to the success of this venture.

Welcome to the new readers and please send in your news and newsworthy photos wherever you are.

The campaign for new subscribers to the American Home newspaper continues to the end of this year. There are special discount rates for the new readers which can be obtained by filling out the coupon printed periodically in the English and Slovenian sections of this paper. Please help continue the written word of your Slovenian heritage by encouraging your friends to become subscribers. We have gone out on a limb to purchase quality printing equipment so your newspaper will be the best of not only nationality papers, but of any black and white paper printed in the world. We need more writers, photographers and readers to make this venture a success. The Slovenians are one of the most literate peoples in the world. We are here to offer to continue the culture. Please help.

Donates $25.00

Thanks to Margaret Kastelic of Wickliffe, Ohio who donated $25.00 to the new American Home printing press in memory of Matthew Kastelic.

Our postage has increased $450 a month since June. We need more advertising and subscribers to offset this cost.

These are the facts of life. No amount of complaining by the readers about too much English or where the Slovenian pages go will pay for the newsprint, ink or the Post Office. Some of us had to forego two weeks pay this summer in order for the postage increase to be met. We are willing to work and in fact this year work for nothing for a couple of weeks, but other outside agencies must be paid in money. Money is what determines the success of a business, not complaining or gouging us financially for services.

Thanks to each one who has helped in any way to keep the presses rolling. If there are features you would like to see or do not like, please let us know. We will try with the best of our ability to give you a good newspaper. We appreciate logical comments.

Cleveland Harbor to celebrate on weekend

Cleveland's harbor project is one of the most significant civic developments underway in the city, and there will be a gala lakeside celebration—to inaugurate the start of Phase I in style.

From Friday, August 8 through Sunday, August 10, Greater Clevelanders will come together in the elegant Donald Gray Gardens and on the grounds of the Port Authority to enjoy an old-fashioned weekend of fun on the lakefront. This major event, which also celebrates Cleveland's 150th anniversary and the Golden Anniversary of the 1936 Great Lakes Exposition, is being sponsored by the North Coast Development Corporation (NCDC) and Cleveland-area corporations.

A Party-in-the-Park will kick off the waterfront celebration on Friday, and entertainment will continue throughout the three days of '86. The weekend will be filled with unusual lakeside events, including:

Clevelanders building their own dream castles in a giant community sandbox; an old-fashioned ice cream social; amphibious airplane demonstrations; a sailing regatta; the Browns' preseason game, featuring a concert by the Michael Stanley Band and Air Supply, plus fireworks; and wild celebrity races.

There will also be a nostalgic lakeside boardwalk featuring games and special attractions.

One of the primary features of Harbor Expo '86 is a 50th anniversary exhibit that looks back to the splendid 1936 Great Lakes Exposition. Donald Gray Gardens, the exhibit site which is behind the Stadium, is the last existing remnant of the colossal regional fair.

Harbor Expo '86 kicks off this $8.5 million state funded project. A 7.6 acre inlet lake promenade, and festival park are to be completed by spring of 1988. Landside development will follow and include a world-class aquarium, a glass-enclosed wintergarden, a maritime center, and a festive retail marketplace.

HARBOR EXPO '86 will be open to the public on Friday, August 8 from 5:00 to 11:00, Saturday, August 9 from 11:00 to 11:00, and Sunday, August 10 from 11 to 6.
