PRVA KNJIGA

(Nadaljevanje)

Saj bi Samilj rad počakal — radoveden je kot vsakdo — in videl, ali jo bo pobil do smrti ali ne, toda vest mu ne pusti kaj takega. Saj vendar ni ba-

Kdor bi od daleč gledal na Stepana, bi si mislil — ta človeč pleše kozočka. Tako je me-ni tudi Grigorij, ki je skozi ok-na, v zgornjici videl, kako so-se poskakuje. Ali ko je zagle-dal, kaj je, je planil iz hiše. Do-plota je tekkel po prstih, trdo stiskajoč k prsim ojeklenele pe-sti; sletil mu je Petro s težkim korakom svojih okovanih škorn-jev.

Grigorij je preskočil visoki plot kot ptič in v zaletu treščil zaposlenega Stepana od zadaj. Ta se je zamajal, se obrnil in skočil na Grigorija kot medved.

Brata Melehova sta se divje borila. Matila sta Stepana, da je padel kot pobito živinče. Ne-kajkrat se je zgrudil tudi Griš-ka, zadet od Stepanove svinče-ne pesti. Bil je slaboten sprčo-zajetnega Stepana. Nizki, okret-ni Petro se je sicer pripogibal pod udarci kot trs v vetru, toda na nogah je le trno stal.

Stepan, mežikajoč z enim oče-son (drugo mu je bilo zateklo kot zrela sliva), se je umikal proti hiši.

Ločil jih je Hristonja, ki je prišel Petro za hrbet.

— Nehajte! — je mahal s vaškimi rokami. — Nehajte; in k atamanu!

Petro je previdno izpljunil na dlan kri in polovico zoba ter re-gel hripavo:

— Pojdiva, Griško. Ga bova že še dobila v roke ...

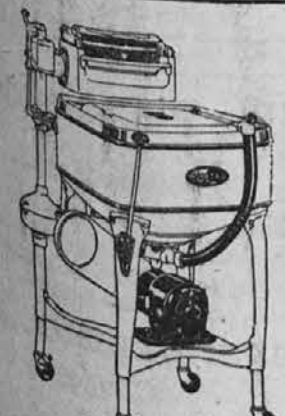

— Da ne bom jaz dobil tebe!

— Je na vratih grozil Stepan, posmen in zabuhel na mnogih mestih.

— Prav, prav!

— Tudi brez tvojega "prav" bom dušo z drobnim vred po-tegul iz tebe!

— Misliš resno ali za šalo?

vozu, vrtela z glavo, okroglo kot kamen v potoku, se smeja-la in kazala v odprti čeljusti čr-ne, vegaste zobe.

— Ti, Vasenka, glej, da se tam ne boš režala, — jo je po-učil Pantelej Prokofjevič. — Nam lahko vse pokvariš s tisto tvojo šobo ... Zobje so ti ka-kor pijanci nasajeni v čeljust: eden se krivi na to stran, drugi pa spet docela drugam ...

— Ej, kume, saj ne gremo zame na ogleda. Nisem jaz že-nin.

— Da, to je že res, pa vendar se ne reži. Zobe imaš črne in gnusne, da se Bog usmili ...

Vasilica se je užaljeno na-mrdnila, v tem pa je Petro že odprl dver. Grigorij je uredil zapletene vajeti in skočil na ko-zla. Pantelej Prokofjevič in Il-jinično sta sedela zadaj na vo-zu, svečano kot novoporočena.

— Z bičem ju daj! — je za-vpil Petro in spustil iz rok po-vođce.

— Naprej, hudič! — Grigorij je stisnil ustnice in udaril ko-nja, ki je strigel z ušesi.

Konja sta napela zaprežnice in se ognjevito zapodila v tek.

— Poglej! Zadeli boste! ... — je zavpila Darja, toda voz se je le ostro nagnil, zaplesal po kupih ob potu, nato pa od-drđal vzdolž po cesti.

AMBASSADOR KOSANOVIC'S CRITICISM OF U. S. NUERNBERG JUDGMENT IGNORED BY PRESS

Washington, February 27, 1948.

The following statement criticizing the recent judgment of an American military tribunal in Nuernberg was issued on Feb. 20 by Ambassador Sava N. Kosanovic of Yugoslavia. With almost no exceptions, the press ignored it.

Mr. Kosanovic's statement:

Monstrous is the only word I can find to describe sections of the judgment of the American military tribunal which yesterday passed sentence on Field Marshal Wilhelm List and seven other Nazi generals in Nuernberg. I do not wonder that these parts were omitted from today's news reports in the New York Times and New York Herald Tribune. The full text of the judgment read by Judge Charles F. Wennerstrum of Iowa would surely shock large sections of the American public as profoundly as it shocked me.

The defendants were charged with murdering hostages in Albania, Greece and Yugoslavia—100 Serbs or Greeks for each Nazi soldier killed by Partisans, and at least 50 for each Nazi soldier wounded, according to the Associated Press dispatch of Feb. 19. This dispatch quoted the judgment:

"German soldiers were victims of surprise attacks by an enemy which they could not engage in open combat.

"Certain units of bands in Yugoslavia and Greece complied with the requirements of international law, but the greater portion of partisan bands failed to comply with the rules of war entitling them to be accorded the rights of a lawful belligerent.

"Captured members of these unlawful groups were not entitled to be treated as prisoners of war. No crime can be charged properly against the defendants for killing such captured members of resistance forces."

Can narrow legalistic thinking achieve a more grotesque distortion of history and justice?

In what manner were men to fight who saw their wives and sisters, and sometimes mothers, raped before their eyes? Who saw the sick and aged tortured

ENGLISH SECTION

MARCH 5, 1948

FORMAL OPENING ANNOUNCED

Tomorrow, March 6th will mark the date of the formal opening of John's Dining Room, an addition to John's Soda Bar at 6301 St. Clair Avenue. Chicken dinners will be served from 6 p. m. on. Mr. Birek, proprietor, and well known announcer on the Croatian Radio Program, wishes to express his thanks to the public for their past patronage, and extends a warm welcome to all to visit his restaurant, where the best in food and refreshments is served.

NOTES FROM ADRIA

Joviality reigned last Saturday at Adria's first dance of the year. An overflowing crowd of dancers packed the Reher Avenue Hall where Vadnal's Orchestra made merry with tuneful melodies.

Featuring the dance program was a Cake Walk, a variety contest that found Theresa Travarica and Jim Pugel winners. The event attracted many from both the St. Clair and the Waterloo districts. The social was billed as a Leap Year Dance and the girls did not hesitate to ask the boys to twirl.

The dance attracted comely Jean Greenslade of Newfoundland. Jean was impressed with the friendliness of the people out Reher way, and to put it mildly she thinks one of the finest things in Euclid is the Slovenian music. Here in Cleveland for a two-week vacation, she is the guest of Anne Mavko, 1225 East 169 Street.

VACATIONING

Greetings from Mexico City arrived recently from Mr. and Mrs. Anton Ogrinc, Mr. and Mrs. Joe Telich, Mr. and Mrs. A. Paulin and Mr. and Mrs. J. Baraga, who are visiting there.

CONVALESCING

Under doctor's care at his home is Mr. Joseph Lausin of 1058 East 74. Street, where friends may visit him.

LODGE No. 2 SDZ INVITES YOUNG MEMBERS TO MEETING

On Thursday, March 11th, Lodge No. 2 SDZ (Svobodnodelna Slovenke) will hold its regular monthly meeting in the Slovene National Home on St. Clair Avenue. Something new has been planned for this meeting, and therefore all young members of the lodge are requested to attend. The meeting will be conducted in English, so as to interest the younger members who do not attend regular meetings because they are held in the Slovene language. The older members are striving very hard to unite the younger members, so let's have a nice turnout at this coming meeting.

Plans will be made for an active young membership, and I'm sure with the cooperation of all concerned this will soon be realized. Plan to attend—Thursday—March 11th. A social will follow the meeting. May we see you there?
L. J. I.

CONGRATS!

On February 10th, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Jelenic of 19413 Kewanee Avenue celebrated their 25th wedding anniversary. February 18th marked the 17th birthday of their son William. Mrs. Jelenic celebrated her 48th birthday on February 29th.

ENGAGED

The engagement of Miss Rose Planisek to Mr. John Arko, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. John Arko, 645 Voelker Avenue was announced recently. Miss Planisek is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Planisek of 445 East 158 Street.

IN HOSPITAL

The well known Joe Pograjc is still convalescing in Lakeside Hospital. Friends may visit him.

DRAMATIC CLUB TO MEET

On Sunday, March 7th, the dramatic club "Naša Zvezda" will hold a meeting at the Slovene Society Home on Reher Avenue. The meeting will commence promptly at 2 p. m. A new board of officers will be elected. A social will follow the meeting.
