Boljši sporazum med Francijo in Ameriko na razoroževalni konferenci

London, 23. jan. Francoska delegacija je prišla na razoroževalno konferenco v London v mnenju, da ne bo imela dosti besede, ker je bila baže že vnaprej sklenjena pogodba med Ameriko in Anglijo glede načina razorožitve. In ta pogodba, tako je mislila francoska delegacija, je na perjenja proti Franciji. In na enak način je dospela ameriška delegacija v London v mnenju, da namerava francoska delegacija razbiti razoroževalno konferenco že takoj v prvih urah zborovanja. To je sledili konferenci in so jo prepričali Francoze, da so jim naklonjeni, da se zanimajo za njih ideje in zahteve na konferenci, in na drugi strani zoper, so Francozi dali vedeti, da bodo z največjo pozornostjo sledili konferenci in so jo oddaljeni od vsake ideje, ki naj bi preprečila uspešno delovanje konference. Goto-vo je, da ima francoska delegacija popolnoma druge ideje glede razorožitve kot na primer angleška ali ameriška delegacija, toda Francozi so pripravljeni popustiti, kot je pripravljen za isto angleška in ameriška delegacija. V tem duhu zboruje sedaj razoroževalna konferenca, in prvi dnevi so pokazali, da bo uspešna, ako se kaj izvanrednega vmes ne pripeti.

Enkrat je bila policija na mestu

Chicago, 22. jan. Policija v Chicagu se je enkrat izkazala, da je na mestu, in Mrs. Tiller je raditega jako vesela. Slednji so štirje moški na cesti potegnili denarnico in se hitro odpeljali v avtomobilu. Mrs. Tiller je skočila na voz ulične železnice in se peljala na policijo. "Moja denarnica —" je začela ihteti. "Je že dobro, odvrne saržent, "tu je vaša denarnica, in tu so štirje lopovi, ki so jo vam ukradli!" Policija je omenjene štiri lopove prišla na ulici kot sumljive osebe in dobila pri njih ukradeno denarnico.

Sola pogorela, škoda znaša $250,000

Cadiz, Ohio, 22. jan. Ljudska sola v tem mestu je danes kup razvalin, potem, ko je ogenj divjal več ur in upepelil poslopje. Povzročena škoda znaša $250,000. To je edina ljudska sola v mestu, katero je obiskovalo 400 otrok, ki so sedaj brez vsakih šolskih prostorov. Ogenj je nastal v sredini drugega nadstropja, in se je razširil tako hitro po vsem poslopiju, da slednjega ni bilo mogoče rešiti.

Resna nevarnost proti farmarjem v Illinoisu in Indiani radi povodnji

Chicago, 23. jan. Wabash reka, ki teče mimo Palestine, Illinois in Covington, Ind. je tako silno narasla, in poleg tega ponekod zamrznila, da je prebivalstvo dotičnih okrajev poslalo poseben apel na predsednika Hooverja in na vojnega tajnika, da pride zvezna vlada na pomoč. V okoli mesta Palestine je bilo nad 1000 farmarjev pregnanih iz svojih domov, ker je reka preplavila njih domačije. Iz Covington, Indiana, se pa sporoča, da je moralo pred povodnjo bežati 2500 družin. Reka Wabash je narasla za 6 čevljev nad normalnim stanjem. Zrakoplovci, ki so preiskovali položaj v omenjenih okrajih, so dognali, da se mora nahajati mnogo mrtvih trupel pod ledom v Decker vasi, blizu Vincennes, Ind. V vasi pogrešajo najmanj 85 oseb. Vojaske zrakoplov, ki je pljul včeraj eno uro nad mestom Griffin, Ind. je dočkal, da ni opazil nobenega znaka življenja v dotičnem mestu, kjer biva 800 ljudi. Predsednik Hoover je odpisal na lice mesta več vojnih zrakoplovov, ki naj nemudoma preštudirajo položaj in sporočajo, kje in kako bi mogla vlada nemudoma pomagati.

Cleveland dobi kmalu novo pošto poslopje

V Clevelandu so dospeli po-vebni nadzorniki poštnega oddelka zvezne vlade, ki bodo izbrali primeren prostor, kjer bi se nahajalo bodoče glavno pošto poslopje, ker je sedanja zgradba pretesna za vse številne urade. Tekom 60 dni se bo odločilo, kje bo stara bodoča glavna pošta. Kakor hitro bo izbran prostor, se bodo naredili načrti za poslopje, nakar se prične z delom. Smatra se, da se bo začelo z gradnjo že lahko v jeseni. Novo poslopje bo veljalo $5.000.000.

Boljševiki so pognali v zrak starodavni samostan

Moskva, 23. jan. Starodavni Simanov samostan, katerega je ustanovil sv. Sergij pred 600 leti, je bil danes z dinamitom spuščen v zrak, da se naredi prostor za boljševiški klub. Na licu mesta se je zbrala velika množica ljudi, ki je radovedno gledala, ko so delavci podložili dinamit pod poslopje, in ko je zletela znamenita zgradba v zrak. Več kot dvajset drugih cerkev so ali bodo podrli v Moskvi in Petrogradu. Neko cerkev v Tiflisu so spremenili v cirkus, dočim so v drugo postavili menažerijo.

Bivši kaiser se namerava vrniti v Nemčijo

Berlin, 24. jan. Monarhisti Nemčije pričakujejo, da ni več daleč čas, ko bo dovoljeno bivšemu kaiserju se vrniti v Berlin. Da, da, vsakdo rad, tudi kongres, gleda za mladimi dekleti

Coolidge, ki je suh, bo moral na vsak način voliti za mokre kandidata

Washington, 23. jan. Calvin Coolidge, bivši predsednik Zedinjenih držav, bo moral voliti pri prihodnjih pri-marnih volitvah v svojem okraju, v Northampton, Mass. za mokrega kandidata za kongres, ali pa sploh ne bo mogel voliti. Coolidge se nahaja te dni v Floridi. Prihodnji tork se vršijo volitve, in pričakuje se, da se bivši predsednik vrne v ponedeljek na svoj dom. Na volivnem listku v okraju, kjer voli Mr. Coolidge, se nahajata dva republikanska kandidata, ki sta se oba obvezala, da bosta v slučaju izvolitve glasovala mokro in da se prohibicija za- vrže. In ako želi Mr. Coolidge voliti demokratično, ima tri kandidate, ki so vsi mokri, tako da mora Coolidge voliti za mokre kandidate za kongres ali pa voliti ne bo.

Štirinajst novih slovenskih državljanov v Cleve-landu v enem tednu

Vse m novim ameriškim državljanom gre- do naše iskrene čestitke!

Protestanti sodelujejo za nabiranje fonda za kato-liško Carroll univerzo

V Clevelandu se te dni vrši ogromna kampanja, da se na- bere fond v svoti $2.500.000, da se poveča sedanja katoli- ška univerza v Clevelandu, ki je znana pod imenom John Carroll University. $2.500. 000 se potrebuje, da se posta- vi univerzitetno poslopje. Zemljišče je že izbrano in pla- čano. John Carroll univerza je ena najbolj poznanih v Ze- dinjenih državah. Na univer- zo pohajajo ne samo katoliški dijaki, pač pa tudi protestanti in dijaki drugih verskih pre- pričanj. Univerza sprejme vsakogar. Zato se je tudi med protestanti razvilo nena- vadno zanimanje v svrhu do- sege cilja, da se zbere dovolj velika svota. Do petka zju- traj je bilo že nabranega sko- ro $900.000. Potrebuj se to- rej še približno $1.600.000, kar se mora zbrati tekom šestih dni. Mnogo slovenskih sinov pohaja v to univerzo, in dobijo smjo v Clevelandu že odlične mo- že iz te univerze, ki delujejo danes med na- rodnom. Vozniki busov

Med vozniki busov in med Great Lakes Stages Co. v Clevelandu ni moglo priti do sporazuma, zato so vozniki sklenili, da gredo na štrajk. Pozvali so tudi telegrafično svoje sodelavce v New Yorku, Buffalu in Philadelphiji, da se jim pridružijo k štrajku. Štrajk je nastal, ker je družba znižala plačo.

V četrtek, 30. jan., bo zo- pet graduiralo več Slo-vencev iz višjih šol

Naša slovenska mladina v Clevelandu se vedno bolj iz- obrazuje. Očetje so prihaja- li sem kot priprosti delavci, služili so trdo svoj vsakdanji kruh in se borili za življenje, toda stoterim se je posrečilo, da so poslali svoje sinove in hčerke v višje šole, da si po- zneje lahko zaslužijo boljši kos kruha, kot sta ga pa ime- la oče in mati, ko sta dospela v Ameriko. V četrtek 30. jan. se vrši po raznih šolah gradu- iranje višješolcev, med kate- rimi je več Slovencev. Iz Col- linwood High šole bodo gradu- irali sledeči Slovenci: Jos. Infalvi, Vrida Bartel, Evelyn Krizman, Louis T. Pirc, H. Primoš, John Ruic, Mary Rupnik, Carrie Satkovič, Robert T. Satkovič, Jennie Sesam, Fred Skerlj, Louis J. Zupancič, John Glavič. Tu- di Mr. Trinastie, novo izvolje- ni councilman, ostane kot po- možni ravnatelj na svojem mestu.

Stanoval je na 6418 Metta Ave. Zapušča že- no Mary in hčerko. Pogreb se vrši v ponedeljek jutraj pod vodstvom A. Grdina & Sons. Naj mu bo ohranjen blag spomin!

Policija in sodnik

Sodnik Corlett je hotel "parkati" svoj avtomobil v prostorih glavne policijske postaje, kjer se sicer nahaja samo policijski avtomobili. Toda načelnik Graul je sodni- ku to prepovedal, nakar je sodnik vseeno zavozil z avto- mobilom v policijsko garažo. Graul pa, ne bodi len, je dal odpeljati avto sodnika na ce- sto.

Vohun ubit

Preteklo sredo je bil v svo- jem stanovanju na 1875 E. 79th St. ustreljen Charles O'neil. Delavska vlada Mehike je odpoklicala svojega po- slanika iz Rusije

Mexico City, 24. jan. De- lavska vlada Mehike je danes odpoklicala svojega poslani- ka in ves svoj štab iz Moskve kot protest proti komunisti- čnim demonstracijam, ki so jih zadnje čase uprizorili boljševiki v Washingtonu, Bue- nos Ayres, Argentini in v Braziliji. Mehikanska vlada se je izjavila, da je boljševiška vlada v Moskvi odgovorna za te demonstracije. Zaeno se je mehikanska vlada izjavila, da nikakor ne dela odgovor- nih onih vlad, kjer so se pri- petile demonstracije. Odgo- vorna je edino sovjetska vla- da v Rusiji. Zunanji minister Mehike je izjavil, da je repu- blica Mehika skušala živeti v prijateljskih razmerah z Ru- sijo, toda slednja ni uposte- vala tega. Nadalje izjavlja mehikanski zunanji minister, da je Rusija neprestano huj- skala komuniste v Mehiki, da so prirejali krviprelitja in ne- zaslišane demonstracije. Vla- da republike Mehiko je bila prisiljena zadnje čase depor- tirati stotine ruskih komuni- stov, ki so povzročali neore- stane poboje v raznih mestih.

Dvojna kazen proti ame-riškim vojakom

Washington, 21. jan. Voj- ni tajnik Hurley je danes na- znanil poveljstvu ameriške armade, da v bodoče častniki in vojniki, ki so obdolženi kr- šenja prohibicije, ne bodo sa- mo kaznovani na civilni sod- niji, pač pa pridejo tudi pred vojaško sodnijo. Vojna upra- va je spremenila tozadevne vojaške regulacije, ker želi javnosti pokazati, da je vladi skrajno-resno, da izvede kar najbolj strogo vse prohibicijs- ke določbe. Kongres je sicer že pred 30. leti naredil postavo, ki prepoveduje prodajo opojne pijače v vojaških kan- tinah. Pijani vojniki so bili do- selj vedno sojeni od civilnih sodnikov, odslej bodo pa ka- znovani še od vojaške sodni- je.

Po odhodu Hopkinsa.

Pretekli terek je prišel Hopkins v mestno zbornico in odgovoril na obtožnico in očitania. Njegov govor je potom razbura poslušalo tisoče ljudi, dočim je bila dvorana mestne zbornice natlačeno polna.

In Hopkins je govoril tako in svoje tožnike tako silno osramotil, da niso zinili niti niso mogli ziniti ene same besedice v odgovor. Nobena žrtev lažna politična organizacija ni bila še kdaj tako moralno tepena in vržena v blato, kot je bila Maschke organizacija v Clevelandu z govorom Hopkinsa.

Mr. Hopkins je s svojim govorom zapisal v politično zgodovino mesta Cleveland poglavje, ki naj ostane kot večno svarilo vsem bodočim voditeljem posameznih političnih strank, ki bi se mogoče drznile enako kot se je drznil republikanec Maschke, ki je skušal narediti iz mestne vlade navadnega sužnja pohlepnosti političnega voditelja ene stranke.

Sicer ni bil Hopkinsov zagovor — zagovor v pomenu besede, pač pa strahovit napad in obtožnica mestne zbornice in njihov priganjača, ki je napotil councilmane k sramotnemu koraku. Videti je bilo skozi grobno tišino, ki je vladala v zbornici, ko je Hopkins govoril, da je Hopkins tožnik, a councilmani pa obsojeni zločinci.

S svečanostjo in duševnim mirom je Hopkins javno ponovil očitania, ki so bila njemu vržena v obraz, spisana od podreptikov Maschketov s pomočjo otroškega Walza in izdajniškega McGintya. Obtožnico je pokazal Hopkins v vsej njeni nagoti, in od prve do zadnje besede označil vse skupaj za falzifikat, za nestvor, in je vsako svojo trditev podprl z neovrgljivimi dokazi.

Hopkins je živo orisal, kako ga je republikanska politična mašina v Clevelandu v treh kampanjah podpirala, v letu 1923, 1925 in 1927, da je councilmane instruirala, da delujejo za Hopkinsa. Leta 1929 je pa Maschke napovedal vojno Hopkinsu in začel pritiskati na councilmane, da ga preženejo iz urada.

In kaj se je zgodilo med leti 1927 in 1929? Kaj je napravil Maschket, da je naenkrat spremenil svojo fronto napram Hopkinsu? Kakšen zločin je zakrivil Hopkins napram republikanski organizaciji, da je sklenila se ga iznebiti? Hopkins je v svojem odgovoru navedel en sam "zločin," in ta je:

Vprašanje cen naravnega plina v Clevelandu. Kot je že mnogim znano, je Maschketova večina v mestni zbornici Clevelanda v aprilu mesecu, leta 1928, bila pripravljena, da dovoli družbi, ki oddaja naravni plin Clevelandčanom, višje cene za plin. Pa je stopil Hopkins vmes in prekrizal vse račune Maschketovim oporodam. Vprašanje cen naravnega plina je prišlo na sodnijo, kjer se še danes nahaja.

In če bi Hopkins tedaj sledil mestni zbornici, ki veljalo Clevelandčan, ki rabijo naravni plin, od leta 1928 pa do danes že šest milijonov dolarjev, ki bi šli iz žepov priprostitih državljanov in odjemalcev plina sploh, v blagajno plinov družbe, ki je podružnica Standard Oil kompanije. Teh šest milijonov dolarjev je Hopkins z eno samo besedo prihranil Clevelandčanom.

In pravi Hopkins v svojem odgovoru: "Odkar sem to naredil, nisem imel drugega kot 'trubel' z mestnimi councilmani." In to pove vse. Dokler se Hopkins ni postavil po robu councilmanom, je bilo vse dobro, ko je pa povedal, da ne dopusti izkoriščanja naroda, tedaj so ga začeli preganjati.

V obeh ogromne večine clevelandskih državljanov danes Hopkins ni več obtoženec, pač pa vzor državljan, bорец za ljudske pravice, čist in značajan mož. In v obeh ogromne večine državljanov in Clevelandu stoji danes na sramotnem stebru 14 councilmanov, ki so glasovali za odstranitev Hopkinsa iz urada.

Hopkins je maschevan, osramočen je Maschke in njegova ganga. Končni obračun pa naredijo volivci pri prihodnjih volitvah.

D O P I S I

Cleveland, O. — Zadnje dni enkrat se je neki newburški "marjašar" izpodtaknil, oziroma obregnil obme v "Prosveto." Jaz bi o tem ne vedela ničesar, ker nisem naročnica na Prosveto, da mi je ni pokazal zadnji terek neki prijatelj. "Marjašar" se je obregnil ob moj dopis v Ameriški Domovini z dne 31. decembra, za kar ga je moralo vzeti očitno precej časa, da je moj dopis dobro preštudiral, predno je odgovoril nanj. "Marjašarju" samo toliko povem, da me on lahko v Prosveti povišuje do neba, ali pa pahne na dno pekla, jaz o tem ne bom vedela ničesar, ker ta list sploh ne prihaja v našo hišo. Imam pa vsak dan v rokah priljubljeni list Ameriško Domovino. Torej, ako vam leži kaka želja na srcu, ali če vam kaj na meni ne doпада, pišite na Ameriško Domovino. Ker pa sumim, da stanujete v moji bližini, vam dovolim, da me osebno obiščete in mi poveste, kaj vas teži, pa vam ne bo treba pisati svojih čenč v Prosveto. Moj omenjeni dopis se vas sploh nič tika, zato je odveč praskati se, kjer človeka popolnoma nič ne srbí.

In če ste tako korajžen mo-

žakar, čemu se potem skrivate pod krinko "marjašar"? Le na dan s polnim vašim imenom, da bomo vsaj vedeli, s kom imamo opraviti. Pravite, da ste videli sliko v A. D., ko se naši slovenski lovci tako postavijo z ustreljenimi srnjaki. Gotovo vam je bilo hudo pri srcu, da niste bili vi na sliki. Kadar boste vi živo lisico za rep držali, dajte se slikat in pošljite sliko na vaš priljubljeni list, da bomo videli, kakšen fejest lovec ste.

Koliko so stali srnjaki Euclid Rifle & Hunting klub, me ne zanima in se ne vrtim v taka vprašanja, kot se vi. Ako pa ste vi kaj prispevali zraven, pa se zglasite pri omenjenem klubu za povrnitev stroškov.

Dalje. Ne spodtikajte se nad tem, da vedno doma sedim "pod marelo." Morda se to večkrat zgodi pri vas, nego pri meni. Pri nas ne poznamo družinskih preprirov in ni treba nikomur stati "pod ploho." Kako zelo je res lepo od vas, da tako skrbite za ubogo žensko bitje. Celo to vas ježi, da ne hodim od sosedu do sosedu in ne stikam, kaj se cvre v tujih piskrih. Da, jaz raje sedim doma in delam, kar se mi zljubi, kaj počenjate drugi, me pa ne briga.

Kar se tiče mojega razvedrila, si pa le nikar ne belite glave. Ako želim iti kam v družbo ali ven v prosto naravo, me že moj soprog pelja na prostore, o katerih vem, da so zame primerni, pa naj bo to med St. Clairčani ali pa med Ljubljanačani. Kajne, to vas tudi malo ježi? Vaše povabilo pa prav hvaležno odklanjam. Kam zahajate vi, me prav malo zanima.

O priliki, ko se boste mastili z lisičjim repom, vam vsem skupaj želim dober tek, pa naj bo že rep napravljen v omaki, živ ali kosmat. Z enim ali drugim nam gotovo ne boste napravili nobenih skomin. Kadar boste se kaj pisali, bodite mož in podpišite se s polnim imenom. Toda na dopise v drugih listih, razven v Ameriški Domovini, se pa ne bom ozirala v prihodnje, ker upam, da bo to zadostovalo.

Helen Tomažič.

Cleveland, O. — Kakor se vidi, je moralo biti zelo prijetno na srnjakovi večerji ono nedeljo. Zelo mi je žal, da nisem mogla biti poleg. Nekdo je bil tako prevzet od dobre zabave, da je obsedel do jutra in posledice so bile — prenučane hlače.

Drugi dan sem slišala dva rojaka, ki sta bila večer prej na srnjakovi večerji in se jima je posledica te večerje še vedno poznala, kako sta se pogovarjala. Eden je rekel: "Arđigata, smo se vrteli sinoči. Lušno je bilo pa že tak, ko, da se še danes nisem uletel. Še vedno mi zveni po ušesih Rudy Koželova harmonika."

Drugi pa reče: "Meni se je pa Jaka zameril. Poprej je pripovedoval, da bomo dobili takšne knedeljce, kot je boben pri domžalski godbi. Zato sem se ves teden prej pripravil in sem jemal vsak večer eno žlico praška, da mi je sčistil želodec, da bom lažje spravil vase tisti veliki kne-delj. Upal sem tudi, da jih bom dobil najmanj pet, pa se mi je uneslo, ker sem dobil samo dva, pa še tista dva sta bila prav ta male sorte. Čakaj, da dobim Jakata v roke. To se ne bo razšlo kar tako!" J. VESTI IZ DOMOVINE

Nesreča pri streljanju z moznarji. Na Silvestrovo je pripeljal ljubljanski rešilni avtomobil v ljubljansko splošno bolnico tri fante iz Skočijana pri Moravčah, brata Valentina in Jožeta Capudra ter Antona Merkužiča. Fantje so streljali z moznarji. Nenadoma je eden moznarjev eksplodiral in vse tri hudo ranil.

Smrt zaradi stekline. V osi-ješki bolnici je v strašnih mukah umrl desetletni deček Ilija Vuksanović iz slavonskega Šamca. Pred devetimi tedni ga je ogrižel neki pes, sedaj pa so se pojavili znaki stekline. Rodbina ga je pripeljala v osiješko bolnico, a bilo je prepozno.

Američan v Zagrebu okraden. Kmet Peter Petranović iz Podolja v Liki je bil pred nedavnim v Zagrebu okraden za ves prihranek, ki ga je prinesel iz Amerike. Prišel je po božiču v Zagreb, da zamenja zadnji bankovec za 1000 dolarjev in si nabavi neke stvari za svoj dom. Za bankovec je prejel 55,000 dinarjev, ki pa so mu bili v gneči na kolodvoru ukradeni. Izsledovanje tatu je ostalo doslej brez uspeha.

Zet ustrelil tasta. Marke Hanužek iz okolice Karlovca je dal svojo hčer Franu Matejiču za ženo, nikakor pa ji ni hotel dovoliti, da bi se preselila na njegov dom. Med tantom in zetom je radi tega nastalo sovražno razmerje. Vkljub temu je hči zapustila očeta in šla k svojemu možu, zaradi česar ji je oče odrekel doto. Ob priliki nekega prepira je zet ustrelil svojega tasta. Sodišče je razsodilo, da je zet prekorajčil nujno obrambo ter ga je obsodilo na osem mesecev ječe.

V pljuški bolnici je umrl g. Franc Lužar, kaplan pri Sv. Trojici v Halozah. Pogreb je bil iz bolnice k Sv. Urbanu. Naj v miru počiva!

POTOPLJENO IN ZOPET DVIGNJENO MESTO

Iz New Yorka poročajo, da so trije torpedni rušilci, poslani od ameriškega mornariškega poveljstva, odkrili v bližini otoka Providence, ki pripada skupini Bahamskih otokov, nov otok, ki se je pojavil po nekem morskem potresu. Na otoku, ki ni zaznamovan na nobenem zemljevidu, so našli razvaline nekega starega mesta, ki je moralo imeti precejšnje število prebivalcev. Zelo verjetno, da je to mesto obstojalo še pred odkritjem Amerike. Pripravljena se znanstvena ekspedicija, ki bo te razvaline raziskala in dognala kaj važnejšega o prebivalcih tega mesta.

A MAN IS only as big as his thoughts.

Ray J. Grdina Says

Toward the end of our senior year at school, the university authorities decided that since we were soon going out into the world that some wise tips in the form of silent lectures would be amiss.

As a result, there appeared on the campus, in the dorms, class building, cafeteria and even on the stairways, large posters illustrating some good principles and a very short explanation of them. And no matter where you turned there was "Keep Your Chin Up" or "A Man Is Never Beat Until He Admits It" or "Don't Count Success In Money" staring you in the face. Each week found some new adage brought forth in large and colorful type, and whether you wished it or not, your attention was drawn to them and they left an impression on your mind.

Spike Idle Gossip

However, as is always the case, one struck me more forcibly than did the others. "Spike Idle Gossip" was the caption of this one and the illustration showed two women indulging in their favorite outdoor sport of chinning over the back fence, while a partly laden clothes line served as the background. Neither the caption nor the illustration caught my fancy. It was the little formula offered to spike gossip. Simple, easy to remember it is a 100-1 shot to accomplish the desired results. Here it is: "When anyone says, 'They say' ask, 'Who?'"

"They Say"

"They say" is undoubtedly the most deadly combination of words in the English language. That little phrase has started runs on banks, ruined reputations, blackened characters, caused suicide and sorrow, started family feuds, created wars, disrupted kingdoms, ignited the fires of hatred and jealousy and has wrought havoc in general.

And what does it amount to? Nothing more than an excuse for idle gossip. Foundationless stories depend upon "they say" for their authority. The scandal monger, the home wrecker and the tale-bearer invariably begin their monologue with "they say."

Passing The Buck

Just who "they" represent in real flesh and blood is never brought to light. Fortunately too, just think of all "they" are responsible for! Just like the unknown river source, they are the unseen, unknown founts of scandal and dirt. From their dark and hidden abodes emanates all the sly stories that gather proportion and vehemence with each repetition over the back fence, cup of tea and bridge hand. All attempts to trace the originator of the tale finally result in the intangible "they." When the real perpetrator and author of the story is confronted with the accusation of such, he or she merely poses as nothing more than one repeating the story and gathers protection behind the all-embracing folds of "they."

Ask "Who?"

Undoubtedly "they" are more sinners against than sinned. But being inanimate and existing only in the minds of some individuals "they" suffer no harm. On the other hand, however, think of the hurt caused by the stories attributed to them as originators to those involved. And it is your duty to protect this latter class, by spiking the tongues of the gossipers. So whenever your companion says, "They say," ask, "Who?"

SURPRISE PARTY FOR WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Joseph Cankar Sr., and his wife Amelia, 13329 Crossburn Ave. were married twenty-five years Saturday. To celebrate the occasion their son Joseph Jr. and daughter Mary, planned a surprise party.

The event was a merry one. Mr. and Mrs. Cankar were indeed surprised as the relatives and friends poured in to offer their congratulations and rejoice with them.

Mr. and Mrs. Cankar are well known to the community of West Park as well as Cleveland since they are active in all lodge and club activities. They received a number of gifts but perhaps the most unusual was that of the West Park friends. They presented them with two large figures of two and five, which, upon close examination revealed that they were made of one hundred shiny new 25 cents pieces.

WEDDING ANNIVERSARY

Mr. and Mrs. Rudolph Ottoncar, 1166 E. 68th St. celebrated their twentieth wedding anniversary Saturday without any choice in the matter. A surprise was arranged for them by Mrs. Pauline Lunder and Mrs. Ursula Zobeck.

The affair was attended by 100 guests from whom Mr. and Mrs. Ottoncar received a three-piece tape mohair living room suite.

The Brancelj brothers with their accordion and banjo played.

The entire American Home Junior staff: Editor, Enquiring Reporter, like Enpoint, Noah Fentz and Cindrella Jane turned out at the WJAY broadcasting station for the Slovenian program last Sunday afternoon.

JACKIE GAGNON IS GIVEN DRAW BY MATT BROCK IS POOR DECISION

Crowd Boos Referee's Decision; Frankie Simms Winning Seven Of Ten Rounds

Frankie Simms, our socking heavy and William R. Hopkins are in the same class—both of them have been chiseled. The later out of the city manager's job and Frankie out of a decision in this fight Monday night with Jack Gagnon.

Matt Brock, the gallery idol, make another big hit with local boxing enthusiasts when he raised the hands of both contestants at the end of their ten-round grueling battle. In fact the local referee almost got hit.

Undoubtedly, the Fifth City puncher should have had the verdict over the tough Bostonian, for according to the rounds, Frankie was away out in front with a 7 to 3 count. But howl as much we want, the bout will go down in the big book as a draw.

The scrap itself was a rip snortin' bloody affair, with both participants contributing their share of the gore. Frankie, in Gagnon, met his toughest foe to date and his showing was very creditable. Both boys, heavy hitters, stood toe to toe and let them fly, much to the satisfaction of the capacity crowd.

Simms showed the fans that he not only can dish out punishment, but that he can also take it without batting an eye. Grogan, a reputed puncher scored heavily on several occasions but Frankie only shook his head and bored in for more.

SOKOLS, FLASHES, ST. ANN'S WIN

Girl Teams in Inter-Frat League Show Improvement

In direct contrast to the close played games in the first matches of the Girls' Inter-Frat Basketball League, last week's tilts saw the teams piling up lopsided scores.

In Wednesday night's fracas the St. Ann quintet ran wild in chalking up their first win, scoring a 22 to 3 win over the George Washington aggregation. Shenk, Bukovec and Erste were responsible for all of the SDZ points, while the stellar guarding of Rose Udovich held the Washington offense to a single basket by Jaklich.

Displaying remarkable team play, the Sokol girls ran rough shod over the Spartans cagers, 19 to 2, in Thursday's opener. The Spartans never had a look in, what with the Sokols passing the ball around a la Rosenberg style. Had the Sokol lassies any luck in their shooting, there is no telling how high the score would have run.

The nightcap tilt between the Comrades and the KSKJ Flashes saw both teams playing a strictly defensive game. The Flashes, showing the best defense of any team in the league, held the Comrades to a single foul, while they eked out nine points to cop the verdict. The KSKJ entry's defense was so tight that during the entire game, the Comrades got but three shots at their basket.

Wohlgemuth Rolls 662 for Spartans

Bowling Quintet Sets New Three-High Record

Lead by Wohlgemuth, the Spartan pin topplers went wild last week and spilled records all over Del Young's Alleys. The Loyalties were the unfortunate ones to hook up with the Spartans on their big day and three defeats put them in fifth place.

The Spartan aggregation started off with a 936 game which gave them third place in the high single game standings. They then rolled 803 and 926 to give them a new three-high game total of 2765. Wohlgemuth, their hard hitting anchor man, rolled 245, 191 and 227 to set a new individual three-high of 662. This is the first time this year that any individual has hit the 600 mark in three games.

However, their three wins failed to move them up any closer to the top of the heap as both the Clairwoods and Collinwood Boosters, though not rolling such good scores, took three straight from their opponents, the leading Clairwoods taking over the Betsy Ross Flagnakers, while the Boosters were giving the George Washington quintet a shellacking.

In the other match of the day the Comrades' fourth place maple spillers took two out of three from the Progressives. The Progressives' victory in the first game was their third win of the season.

The many friends of "Rudy" Vidmar will be sorry to hear that the popular young man is now in the 79th Street Hospital, following an operation. It is hoped that many will take time out to drop in and see the lad. Visiting hours are from 2 to 4 and 7 to 9.

BOXING SHOW IS PLANNED

Eddie Simms On Card

Slovenian National Home to Be Turned Into Arena Feb. 5th

The Slovenian National Home, the scene of many a social and theatrical affair, will take on a new aspect, Wednesday night, Feb. 5, when it will be turned into a boxing arena, for the amateur card to be staged there by John Gornik Jr. for the benefit of the Slovenian Young Men's Club. Special arrangements have been made so that the auditorium will have a seating capacity of 1,300.

The card, which is being arranged by Charley O'Connell, is not yet complete and will be announced in toto at a later date. However, it is certain that Eddie Simms will meet some heavy in the main go, and that other Slovenian "simon pures" will be in the lineup. There will be eight, three-round bouts in all. Frankie Simms will handle the refereeing end of the game.

This is the first time that any such thing has ever been attempted in the community and will prove a success only if undivided support is given the project. Tickets for the fight can be secured at Gornik's Hab or from any of the club members.

Bits About Them

WOE UNTO ME!

Alas and alack and a couple of more lasses and three more Alecks! The fates are dealing the cards against your humble scribe, and this week comes the saddest blow of all. The Enpoint is laid up! Don't break down and weep, dear readers, but if it true. That noble master of the canvas and brush will be among the missing for a while. Too many dates and too much zero weather have laid him on his back, and now we will have to struggle along without his services, as best we can, until he returns from the repair factory. And until then, this column will be devoid of all illustrations.

SLIDE, KELLY, SLIDE!

But of man Winter despite his cold sleet, alcohol, skid chains etc. does bring in an occasional laugh. And fortunately your correspondent was right on the job when the following bit took place. Mr. Novak, the big candy and ice cream man of St. Clair was crossing the street at E. 62nd going over to the North American Trust Co. to make a deposit. The gentleman in question always takes in a great number of pennies during the day and he was carrying these over to the bank in a paper sack.

Halfway across, his feet did a Leon Errol and parked him on the pavement. The paper sack flew from his grasp, hit the street, split open, scattering coppers all over the avenue. Vistibly embarrassed, Mr. Novak, was of a mind to run into the store away from the laughing spectators. However his business sense prevailed and he spent the next fifteen minutes dodging in and out between passing automobiles, picking up stray pennies.

HOW ABOUT THE RING?

Stories galore have been written, comic movies have spent reels showing the plight of the young groom arriving at the scene of execution sans the necessary ring. But nobody yet has gone to any great lengths concerning the predicament of the young hopeful who while getting dressed for the ceremony discovered that he didn't have a collar button! And it absolutely is a breach of etiquette to appear at the ceremony without a collar and tie. But to cut a short story shorter, that's the mess Ray Breskvar found himself in Wednesday night, when he had the life time handcuffs clamped on. Fortunately for Ray, he had a father who had an extra or else—(We do wonder what he would have done had he been unable to get hold of one. What do you think???)

A HELP OR HANDICAP?

Whether or not the KSKJ Flashes have the best team in the Girls' Inter-Frat League or not has yet to be decided. But one thing is absolutely certain. The lassies undoubtedly have the largest staff. First there's Coach "Chauncey" Dehler and his assistant Ray Jay; the manager, Stanley P. Zupan, and "Snitz" Schneider, for whom no title has been decided upon. "Snitz" insists he's trainer for the quintet, but we have it from reliable sources that he hasn't performed any of the duties that fall in the category of a trainer so the team members have decided that he should be called assistant manager. But as neither name seems to be appropriate may this column suggest, "promoter"?

DO YOU KNOW THAT—

Frances Zulich aside from being a basketball player is a culinary expert? She makes the most delicious Slovenian "flanzate" with no one else's assistance. (Hint.)

Johnny Gornik is going to promote a boxing show? (News and Advt.)

Marica Telic is spending a two-week vacation in Lorain? (News.)

It is nice and warm in Hawaii? (Goat getter.)

The Inquiring Reporter positively is not P. M. Jakic? (???)

Banquet is Huge Success

Mihelich Honored

Former City Manager Hopkins Is Given Great Ovation by Large Crowd

When the idea of a testimonial dinner and dance in honor of Councilman John L. Mihelich was conceived, none figured that the turnout would be so large that it would be necessary to refuse admittance to many.

Yet that actually was the case at the Slovenian National Home Wednesday night, when the many friends of the Slovenian councilman gathered to show their appreciation of his fine work during his terms in office. Arrangements had been made by the committee to handle 300 and long before the time of the banquet all reservations were sold.

The banquet was a decided success and a fitting tribute to its guest of honor. City Treasurer Adam J. Damm served as toast master, and in this capacity called upon the many prominent city officials present for a few words. Former City Manager William R. Hopkins was given a two minute ovation following his short address in which he commended Mihelich for his political integrity and honesty. Other speakers were Judge Sawicki, Councilman Sulzmann, John Gornik, John Tomazic, Assistant Prosecuting Attorney Hertz, Mayor Marshall, Mayor Guenther of Lyndhurst, Judge Eastman and Judge Ewing.

BACKWARD PARTY

Jugoslav-Slovene Club Entertains Magyar Girls

Everything was backward but as prophesied nobody was backward at the Yugoslav Backward party for the Magyar Girls at the International Institute, Monday evening.

Upon arrival all the girls were asked to put their dresses on backward. The result was laugh provoking.

Then followed a series of backward dances, word spelldowns and get acquainted games. Miss Frances Zulich won in a backward word spelldown. But for all her arduous labor she only received an artificial mouse that frightened her and a number of other young ladies.

Miss Honey Mandel's playing on the accordion was irresistible and before long everybody was stepping to the tune of the "poka schottische" and Slovenian polka melodies. The Magyar girls showed themselves apt pupils and from all appearances seemed to be enjoying the novel dances.

The several vocal selections in English and Slovenian sung by Miss Genevieve Sterle offered a pleasant entertainment. Miss Sterle is a member of the Opera Guild.

The luncheon which appropriately climaxed the affair was a la Slovenian and a real treat. Especially delicious were the home-made "potica" and "krofi."

BILL VIDMAR WATCHES GAMES; CAR DISAPPEARS

If anyone sees a perfectly good, stray car looking for an owner, just get in touch with Bill Vidmar care of this paper.

Bill is very busy right now looking for a car, one in particular—his own. Mr. Vidmar parked his pavement gondola in front of the St. Clair Bath House Thursday night, while he went in to give the Girls' Inter-Frat games the double O. Following the games, the hero came out and had his jubilant spirits dampened when he found that some practical joker had removed his car. At least, Bill is hoping that it was a prank player who did the work, for he then has a chance of getting it back. And if wasn't a practical joker, well—that's one for the police then.

FOUR NO TRUMP

Miss Mary Janecic entertained with a bridge party at her home, 18619 Pawnee Ave., Thursday evening. In addition to the card playing there was dancing, singing and an interesting exchange of ideas as well as news, supplemented by a delicious lunch.

The guests were the Misses Sophia Posch, Frances Laurin, Rose Metic, Ann Tekovec, Josephine Prince, Pauline Zak and Cindrella Jane.

AN INVITATION

Everyone is invited to attend the Fall In Dance being given by the Lake Shore Post, American Legion and Ladies Auxiliary, at Mervar's Hall this evening.

According to the tickets its going to be, "good music, good time all for 50 cents." And we guess they're right.

Making The Rounds

HERE COMES THE BILLS

Father Vukonic read the nuptial mass Saturday at St. Christine Church at which Miss Josephine Skerl and Joseph Gerson were united in marriage.

Miss Skerl, 19101 Cherokee Ave. Mr. Gerson lives at 18350 Underwood Ave. The wedding reception was given at the Slovenian National Home, Euclid Village.

OUT IN OPEN NOW

Following a "sub rosa" existence, the H. H. H. Club of Euclid has decided to come out into the open. However, the real name of the organization, its aims and purposes will still be kept a secret.

At a recent meeting the club voted in the following officers for 1930: Miss Albina Gabrenya, president; Miss Edith Grdina, secretary, and Miss Frances Sokatch, treasurer. The officers announce that the club will soon hold a party.

IT'S A BEAR STORY!

Some forty privileged characters have been invited to attend the "Bear Dinner" being given by Mr. Gasper Korce, demon hunter, this evening.

The guest of honor, or the victim, is the bear that Mr. Korce and his companion, "Dutch" Prince, bagged in Pennsylvania last month. Those in charge inform us that for the benefit of those who do not care for bear meat, there will be other culinary delicacies and also an overflow of refreshments.

TWENTY-FOUR AND SINGLE

One of the most successful surprise parties of the year was staged last Sunday, in honor of the twenty-fourth birthday of Anthony Milavec Jr., at his home, 6311 St. Clair Ave. The guest of honor's family and friends were responsible for the party, which was attended by some seventy guests.

Following a full, three course dinner, the party took to dancing until early in the morning. And according to all reports, every one present had the best time of their lives.

A radio from the family, a ring and several gold pieces, were outstanding amongst the many gifts that Mr. Milavec received.

ARCADIANS DANCE

The Arcadian Club is expecting to be hosts to one of the largest crowds that ever attended a dance at the Slovenian National Home. The occasion for the large turnout will be the Club's Novelty Dance to be held Thursday night.

And the club promises that this is going to be a "Novelty Dance" in more ways than one, and that a series of surprises are in store for their large following.

As per custom, the club's own orchestra, the Arcadian Melody Pilots will furnish the music.

WANT GAMES

The Slovenian-American Lodge of Lorain, a branch of S. D. Z., have organized a basketball team. The squad is composed of Balant, Marks, Radman, Stojic, E. Stojinicki and W. Stojinicki. All are strong Class A players, some of whom were members of the county championship team of last year.

Any Slovenian or independent team wishing a game, write Louis Balant, 1808 E. 32nd St., Lorain, O.

REST IN PEACE

Collinwood lost one of its most popular member of the younger set, and the Strugglers SNPJ, and Blejsko Jezero SDZ an active member, when Josephine Ogrinc, 19, passed away at her home, 440 E. 158th St., Wednesday morning.

Burial took place this morning at St. Paul's cemetery following the funeral services at St. Mary's Church. The American Home Junior extends its heartfelt sympathies to the surviving members of the family.

GIRL BOWLERS START TOURNEY AT DEL YOUNG'S TOMORROW AFTERNOON

Some Thirty Girls Expected to Participate in Inter-Lodge Tournament

The teams in the Inter-Lodge Bowling League won't have all the limelight at Del Young's Alleys tomorrow afternoon. In fact, they'll be lucky if they have any of the glory at all, for the first girls' bowling tournament will swing into action immediately after the league games, and they seem a sure bet to attract a lot of attention.

With the entry date closing tonight, it is expected that almost thirty girls will be rolling them down the polished hardwoods in quest of the girls' bowling crown. The tournament is on the elimination basis and the contestants will bowl every Sunday afternoon beginning at 3:30 until the championship is won. Contestants will be paired according to averages so that every girl will be given a fair chance at the title.

This is the first attempt at any such organized bowling on the part of Slovenian girls and should prove successful if the enthusiastic response to the call for candidates can be taken as an indication. The tournament is being sponsored by the Inter-Lodge Bowling League and is open to any girl in the community. There is no entrance fee, the only cost being that of the games rolled.

"ORELS" START SPORT PROGRAM

Have Two Basketball Teams Ready For Action

Following the adoption of a sport program, the Orels come forth with the announcement of two basketball teams, as their first step. The Orels intend to have representative teams in all the various sports, in the future.

The senior team, "Orel Flyers," has been practicing for the last month, and boast several collegiate and high school luminaries in their lineup. The team is coached and captained by Joe Nemanich, former court star of St. John's College of Minnesota.

Emerich Dusic, former member of the Pennsylvania state champions, Unlontown, and now John Carroll student will also be in the Flyer lineup. Joe Sterk, Tony Pozolnik, Freddie Marinko, Tony Baraga, Joe Lusin and Tony Orazem complete the roster.

The other team gives the young ladies of the organization an opportunity to display their wares. Though they do not intend to startle the basketball world they figure on giving a good account of themselves in the many games they have scheduled. Miss "Angle" Maver is directing the team play. The girls who have turned out for the quintet are Angie Chartalich, Jennie and Marie Zakrajsek, Vera, Anna and Alice Mismas, Jean Glavich, Frances Kasunic, Anna Zivoder, Julia Lusin, Nellie Leksan, Anna Berkopec and Caroline Maver.

Prusnik, Martincic Have Best Red Hair

Win Red-Head Contest At Klever Kids' Dance

John "Red" Prusnik, 664 E. 160th St. and "Redhead" Rose Martincic, E. 60th St. captured the prizes for the most beautiful red hair at the Klever Kids' Redhead dance at the Slovenian Workingmen's Home, Collinwood, Saturday evening.

Rose's hair is naturally wavy and John's is both naturally wavy and curly. Both have brown eyes. And both are quite even tempered in spite of universal statement so often attributed to Titian heads. Each one received a $2.50 gold piece.

Judges for the contest were Ray J. Grdina, editor of American Home Junior, Frank Suhadolnik, editor of the Cleveland Journal and Stanley P. Zupan, editor of the K. S. K. J. Our Page.

The dance went over with a boom that is still resounding. It seems that the Klever Kids can stage a dance at any time and draw a crowd in spite of the most inclement weather and pending competition.

By Noah Fentz

Now that the racket at City Hall has died down and we can once more carry on a conversation without being interrupted by Dr. Walz broadcasting, it is interesting to take note of certain facts brought out by the upheaval. One of them is that the loser in an unfair fight actually may be the winner. We refer to Mr. Hopkins, whose manner of taking a beating at the hands of a coterie of shameless political shysters exhibited him to the public as a man and a gentleman. Even Maschke and his heelers probably have their decent moments now and then; they may be wondering now if they had gone about the job more like men and less like the hoodlums who prey on lone wayfarers at night with blackjacks.

It seems that a representative form of government is necessarily political in its nature and so long as we have politics we will have politicians, from the president down to the last member of a village council. Nothing is specially wrong with that, since there is no reason why a politician should not be a good one, as well as an honest man and a square shooter, except that it appears to be difficult. It is the character of the men who go in for politics, especially local politics, rather than the system itself, that has caused the term "politician" to take on an unflattering significance. All the more deserving of honor, then, is the straightforward, honest and capable politician who never forgets the fact that the public interest comes first and acts accordingly. It gives us pleasure to recognize Mr. Damm of that type in Mr. Adam J. Damm, that gentle, kindly, silver-haired gentleman who has guarded the interests of this locality for so many years. There are plenty of "regular fellows" everywhere; few, however, who possess Mr. Damm's shrewd sagacity in affairs political. When Mr. Hopkins so eloquently brought out that, of the millions of public money which has passed through Damm's hands during his years of service as City Treasurer, "not a cent stuck to his fingers," he merely stated that Mr. Damm may safely be trusted to handle other people's money. So much could easily have been taken for granted. We know of no one who needed to be reassured on that score. We admire Mr. Damm more for the way he has avoided the less obvious trickeries of the game which so many less able politicians seem to think are quite legitimate as long as the law does not interfere, and the same time has managed to keep control of his district. The fact that he may lose his position as city treasurer, though he could have kept it by not coming to the defense of Mr. Hopkins, only adds lustre to his many years of service in the affairs of the city.

Those men who now hold city offices as representatives of this locality, mainly by reason of Mr. Damm's sponsorship, may consider themselves fortunate in having an honest man and able politician for their friend and leader. They will do well to continue to let him do most of their thinking for them.
