SREČANJE Z VSTALIM JEZUSOM SPREMENI VSE

Besedila današnjega bogoslužja razovedajo, da nam vstali Kristus prinaša mir, veselje, ljubezen. Ko se Jezus prikaže učencem, zbranim v dvorani zadnje večerje pri zaprtih vratih zaradi strahu pred Judi, je njegova prva beseda: »Mir vam bodi!« Vstali Jezus prestrašenim učencem prinaša mir.

Mir je Jezus pridobil s svojo zmago nad smrtno. Ta zmaga, ki se razoveda v vstajenju, rojeva mir in spravo. Vstali Jezus pa ne prinaša samo miru, ampak tudi veselje: »Učenci so se razveselili, ko so videli Gospoda.«

Prvi kristjani so »uživali hrano z veselim in preprostim srcem«, pravi Luka v Apostolskih delih in Peter pa v drugem berilu dodaja: »Bodite veseli ... veselite se v neizrekljivem in poveličanem veselju.«

Jezusovo vstajenje je tudi vir bratskega občestva in ljubezni. Prvi kristjani so »vztrajali v nauku apostolov in bratski skupnosti«. Ta skupnost se je kazala v najpopolnejši delitvi dobrin: »Vsi verniki so se družili med seboj in imeli vse skupno: prodajali so premoženje in imetje ter od tega delili vsem, kolikor je kdo potreboval.« Kristusovo vstajenje osvobodi srca vseh sebičnih teženj, ko vanje položi velikodušno ljubezen, ki je vir miru in veselja.

Jezusovo vstajenje nam prinaša vero v njegovo zmago, vero v njegovo slavo. V evangeliju vidimo, da vera za apostole ni nekaj samoumevnega in spontanega. Zlasti Tomaž, ki ni bil z drugimi apostoli, ko je vstali Jezus prišel prvič v dvorano zadnje večerje, noče verovati. Za vero postavlja pogoje, ki se mu zdijo nemogoči. Pravi namreč: »Če ne vidim na njegovih rokah rane od žebljev in ne vtaknem prsta v rane od žebljev in ne položim roke v njegovo stran, nikakor ne bom veroval.«

Tomaž zahteva, da bi Gospoda mogel spoznati po znamenjih trpljenja. V tem je naravnost navdihnen: vstalega Jezusa je moč prepoznati prav iz znamenj njegovega trpljenja. Vstajenje namreč ni odpravilo trpljenja. Vstajenje ni poveličanje, ki bi odpravilo vse, kar je Jezus prej trpel. Nasprotno, vstajenje osvetli trpljenje, ko pokaže vso njegovo učinkovitost in vrednost. Da nam razumeti, da je tisto, ker je bilo videti kot poraz, v resnici čudovita zmaga velikodusne ljubezni. Jezus se je za nas z brezmejno ljubeznijo izročil v smrt in tako dosegel zmago vstajenja.

Jezus je premagal smrt in spremenil njen pomen. Namesto da bi bila dogodek preloma, je dogodek zaveze. Pri zadnji večerji je dejal: »To je moja kri zaveze« (Mt 26,28). Njegova smrt je torej zmaga nad smrtjo, zmaga nad vsemi silami, ki delijo, njegovo vstajenje pa razovede prav ta vidik zmage.

Vstali Jezus gre naproti Tomaževim zahtevam. Osem dni pozneje se vrne v dvorano zadnje večerje, stopi med učence in jim že v tretje reče: »Mir vam bodi!« Potem reče Tomažu: »Položi svoj prst sem in poglej moje roke! Daj svojo roko in jo položi v mojo stran in ne bodi neveren, ampak veren!« V tem trenutku Tomaž sprejme v svoje srce v resnici celotno, popolno vero in reče Jezusu: »Moj Gospod in moj Bog!« V celotnem evangeliju ni izraza vere, ki bi bil močnejši od tega. Tomaž ne prizna Jezusa le za svojega Gospoda, ampak tudi za svojega Boga. Peter je spoznal Jezusa kot Sina živega Boga; Tomaž spozna, da Jezusovo sinovsko dostojanstvo pomeni njegovo pravo božanstvo.

Jezus zato doda: »Ker si me videl, veruješ? Blagotistim, ki niso videli, pa so verovali!« Evangelij je bil napisan - pravi Janez - »da bi verovali, da je Jezus Kristus, Božji Sin, in da bi po veri vanj imeli življenje v njegovem imenu.«

Peter ima v drugem berilu pravi, da »nas je po vstajenju Jezusa Kristusa od mrtvih prerodil za živo upanje, za nepropadljivo, neomadeževano in nevenečo dedičino, ki je v nebesih shranjena za vas, katere božja moč po veri varuje, da boste dosegli odrešitev.«

Vera v Kristusa je vir miru, veselja, ljubezni in novega življenja. Pravzaprav vir tega je sama oseba Jezusa Kristusa. Vse gmotne dobrine so nič, če jih primerjamo z veliko vrednoto vere.

Peter pojasnjuje, da mora biti vera poglobljena s preizkušnjami, ki so potrebne. Te so gotovo boleče, vendar gre za trpljenje, ki nikakor ni razdiralno, ampak je do skrajnosti pozitivno. Preizkušnje očiščujejo in poglabljajo vero, ta pa se bo spremenila v našo »hvalo, slavo in čast, ko se bo razodel Jezus Kristus.«

Na današnjo nedeljo odločno potrdimo svojo vero, priznajmo njeno veliko vrednost. Ona je izvir miru, veselja in ljubezni.

2ND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Response: Give thanks to the Lord for he is good; his steadfast love endures forever.

First Reading Acts of the Apostles 2:42-47

The whole community remained faithful to the teaching of the apostles.

Second Reading 1 Peter 1:3-9

God the Father, in his great mercy, has given us a new birth as his sons and daughters, by raising Jesus Christ from the dead.

Gospel John 20:19-31

Jesus said to the disciples, "Peace be with you," and showed them his hands and his side.

"Peace be with you. As the Father sent me, so am I sending you."

Illustration

"The quality of mercy is not strained. / It droppeth as the gentle rain from heaven / upon the place beneath." Thus begins the famous speech by Portia in Shakespeare's Merchant of Venice. She continues: "It is twice blessed: / it blesseth him that gives and him that takes." In these few words Portia sums up the far-reaching power of mercy, which, as she will later say, is "an attribute to God himself". Just as repentance and forgiveness run through our Christian belief and practice, so they are dependent for their effectiveness upon the God who is merciful to all.

It takes a long time for feelings to mellow after human feuds or disagreements, whether we are talking about personal differences or wars between nations. There are perhaps fewer examples of us getting it right than getting it wrong. An example of getting it right would be the way in which South Africa transformed itself from an apartheid country into a democratic one. The way this was achieved was through the divergent groups getting together beforehand to discuss how they might move forward. To begin with, these meetings were unofficial, but then the State became involved. At an early stage they had to find a scenario that would allow them to raise difficult issues without immediately polarising into prejudice. They came up with four light-hearted descriptions. The "Ostrich" involved the present government putting its head in the sand; the "Lame Duck" meant the new government would be severely limited in its freedom to act by the constitutional settlement; "Icarus" would see a new government instituting radical economic reforms, which ultimately would bring the government down through doing too much too quickly; and finally the "Flamingo", which no one originally liked because flamingos take off very slowly, but was eventually chosen as the only viable way forward because flamingos may take off slowly but they take off together.

Gospel Teaching

In the scriptural accounts of the risen Lord appearing to his disciples, the disciples do not at first recognise him. It is only when he calls them by their name, as with Mary Magdalene, or breaks the bread, as with his disciples on the road to Emmaus, that the penny drops and they realise who is speaking to them. Most commonly he appears among them and offers them his peace, using words that would become part of every Mass: "Peace be with you." In today's Gospel, Jesus repeats these words, as though he needs to hammer home the foundation of our belief. If we do not receive his peace and share it among us, we cannot even begin our Christian journey.

With that peace alive within us, we are sent out to forgive and retain sins, for Jesus also gives us the gift of the Holy Spirit. This is John's version of the Pentecost story. If in Luke's account, in the Acts of the Apostles, the disciples then go out and speak in tongues in a way that everyone listening to them understands, in John's account the emphasis is on forgiveness and reconciliation. How do we heal and restore what is broken and lost? The story of Thomas' doubt helps us with this. Thomas is absent from the first resurrection appearance of Jesus among his disciples, and demands evidence if he is to cast off his doubt. Jesus himself provides that evidence, while noting that such visual proof is not going to be available to many. The Gospel stories are precisely what is offered to stimulate our belief and so have life through his name.

Application

The majority of the risen appearances of Jesus occur when his disciples are gathered together. Even before he appears, they find a sense of safety in their companionship; and after the Lord ascends to his Father, as today's first reading relates, they even go so far as to live together and own all things in common. Their two practices of going to the Temple for prayer and then meeting in their own homes for the breaking of bread would become fused in time into what we now do in the Mass together. The Liturgy of the Word is followed by the Liturgy of the Eucharist, but they are both acts we share together, and it is out of that sharing – just as with the evolution of the "flamingo" – that we are empowered to bring the peace and mercy of Christ into our troubled world.

Don Bosco's Ways to Help Us

Grow in Holiness

By Fr. Steve Ryan, SDB

We've all heard it said again and again that holiness is our baptismal call. We know it, but let's be honest – we fade out on it. It seems too tall of an order. Yet, St. John Bosco believed that holiness is attainable and that we can stick with God's call for our destiny, to be holy in this world and saints in the next. It's not too hard! What advice can he give us?

From Don Bosco:

1) Don't procrastinate your conversion from a sinful habit or a recurring vice. Go to confession and make a firm commitment to stop doing the sin that you've fallen into.

Don Bosco was honest with young people – give sin an inch and it takes a yard. You've got to get away from it. When greed, pride, anger, lust and unforgiveness gives you a dull conscience and a hardened heart – KNOCK IT OFF. Sin is ugly and you become ugly. In contrast, living in God's grace and growing in virtue is beautiful and you become more beautiful. Make the change. Go to confession. Stay away from sin.

2) Hang out with good friends and get involved with good activities that keep you busy doing the right thing.

St. Paul says in 1 Corinthians 15:33, "Do not be deceived: Bad company corrupts good morals."

Don Bosco knew this well. He often encouraged the boys at the oratory to make sure they found a group of solid friends. He told them to play lots of sports, get involved in an activity that they enjoyed and become good at it. Young people today who spend an excessive amount of time alone perusing social media could benefit from this advice.

3) Serve others – Get yourself an apostolate.

Don Bosco made it known that everyone should get involved in the building up of God's Kingdom through the practice of works of mercy. Each one of us could have one particular ministry that we do on a regular basis in order to serve others intentionally. It's our responsibility to do something for evangelization and the building up of others.

4) Stay close to the Eucharist – Go to mass, receive communion and spend time with the Blessed Sacrament.

St. John Bosco knew and believed in the power of Jesus in the Holy Eucharist. He placed the chapel in an area where the kids had to pass it when walking around the oratory. They could go into the chapel and make a quick visit to say hello to Jesus. Mass was available every day. Adoration with benediction were frequent.

What a gift we have in Christ's presence in the Eucharist! We should not take it for granted but rely on the power and healing of His person in the Eucharist. Being in the presence of God and receiving Him in Holy Communion gives us grace beyond our imagination.

) Mary is your Mother and Helper - stay close to her.

Don Bosco had a great devotion to the Blessed Mother under the title: Mary, Help of Christians. He said in his life that "she did it all". Truth be told, she's still doing it. Marian devotion is a key to holiness. Draw close to Mary and she will draw you to Jesus. It really is that simple.

St. John Bosco never overcomplicated holiness. His approach was simple, direct and for everyone, especially the young. He lived this and he fostered it in everyone he met.

St. John Bosco, pray for us!

Veliko soboto smo začeli z blagoslovom Velikonočnih jedi pri slovenski skupnosti v Londonu. Zbrali smo se v cerkvi ob 10h dopoldne.

V župniji smo nadaljevali z blagoslovi popoldne ob običajnih urah. Največ se nas je zbralo ob 3h, skoraj polna cerkev; veliko tudi mladih. Malo manj pa potem ob 4h in ob 5h popoldne. Lepo je, da se nadaljuje ta lepa navada tudi pri mladih.

Praznovanje Velike sobote smo nadaljevali zvečer z Velikonočno Vigilijo ob 8h zvezčer. Zunaj sta Alojz in Joe pripravila ogenj. Po blagoslovu smo prižgali velikonočno svečo in jo ponesli v cerkev. Vsi so si od velikonočne sveče prižgali svoje svečke in prisluhili hvalnici na to božji besedi. Tri berila iz Stare zaveze, eno iz nove. Potem imamo navado, da se po velikonočni aleluji podamo v kratko procesijo po cerkvi in nato nadaljujemo s sveto mašo. Hvala vsem sodelavcem pri bogoslužju in Olgi Glavač za lepo okrasitev.

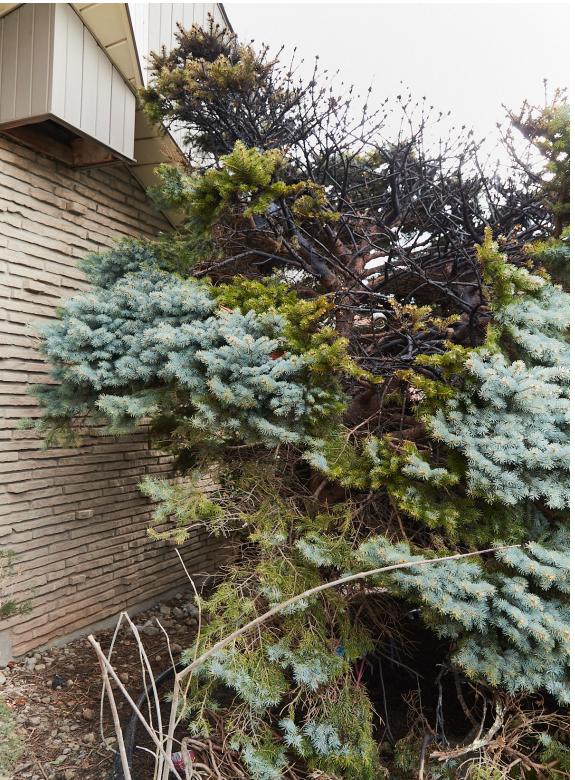

Na samo Veliko noč smo začeli prvo - slovensko - mašo z vstajenjsko alelujo in procesijo po cerkvi in nato nadaljevali s sveto mašo. Pri vseh mašah je bila zelo lepa udeležba že pri Vigiliji, prav tako pa tudi pri jutranji in pozneje pri angleški maši. Pri slovenski maši smo prepevali ljudsko, pri enajsti pa je pel angleški zbor pod vodstvom Ivana Mertuka.

Morda ste opazili, da je pred našo cerkvijo precej bolj svetlo. Po 40. tih letih som odstranili okrasne grme, ki so se precej razrasli, nekateri na pol posušili. Eden od razlogov je bil tudi, da se je v zadnjem času povečalo število brezdomcev, ki so se skrivali za grmovjem, kadili - in zadnjič zažgali tudi smreko ob cerkvi. Zato smo se odločili da vse pospravimo, uredimo čisto okolico in zasadimo gredico cvetja pred samo cerkvijo, tako, da se nihče ne more skrivat.

Delo so opravili Novak Landscaping.
