Sovjetska zveza zopet kaže zanimanje za sestanek na vrhu med Gorbačovom in Reaganom — Srečanje šele po volitvah MOSKVA, ZSSR — Sovjeti predstavniki zopet izražajo zanimanje za srečanje med Mihailom Gorbačovom in predsednikom Reagonom. Sovjeti so privolili v sestanek med svojim zunanjim ministrom Edvardom Ševarnadzjem in Georgeom Shultzem septembra letos, na katerem bi se dogovorila o času in kraju srečanja Gorbačov-Reagan. Sovjeti so bili zadržani do takega srečanja zadnjih mesecev zaradi Reaganskega stališča glede tkim strateško obrambnega načrta oz. »Vojne zvezd« in pa radi ameriškega letalskega napada na Libijo. Med obiskom na Poljskem te dni, ko se je udeležil kongresa poljske komunistične partije, je imel Gorbačov več govorov, v katerih je izrazil željo za oživitev diplomatskih stikov z ZDA.

Vrhovno sodišče ZDA podprl načrte, katerih namen je odpraviti posledice diskriminacije v zaposlovanju — Sporna odločitev

WASHINGTON, D.C. — Včeraj se je Vrhovno sodišče ZDA z dvema odločitvama opredelilo za ustavnost raznih načrtov, ki skušajo odpraviti posledice rasne in drugačnih oblik diskriminacije. Takšna diskriminacija je v preteklosti prizadela predvsem ženske in pripadnike raznih rasnih in tudi verskih skupin. Spornost omenjenih načrtov je v tem, da sedaj dajejo določeno prednost v zaposlovanju ravno skupinam, ki so v preteklosti trpele diskriminacijo. Taki načrti pa zapostavljajo druge skupine ljudi, trdijo nasprotniki.

Sodniki vrhovnega sodišča so odločili o načrtu, ki ga je bila podpisala mestna uprava Clevelandu z organizacijo gasilcev, ki predstavlja črnske in špansko govoreče gasilce v mestni službi. Po tem načrtu se je mestna uprava obvezala, da bo napredovala črnske in špansko govoreče gasilce hitreje od gasilcev belega polta, četudi so slednji na podlagi opravljenih strokovnih izpitov višje kvalificirani. Unija, ki predstavlja clevelandske gasilce, se je obrnila na sodišče in zahtevala razveljavitev podpisanega načrta. Zadeva je končno prišla pred Vrhovno sodišče, včeraj pa je bila z večino 6:3 ustavnost načrta končno potrjena. Včeraj je Vrhovno sodišče tudi zahtevalo od neke unije v New Yorku in New Jerseyu, da poveča odstotek članov, ki so nebelškega polta, na 29,3. Glasovanje je bilo 5:4.

MANAGUA, Nik. — Nasprotniki sandinističnega režima v Nikaragvi, ki so še na prostosti, zahtevajo nove in predvsem svobodne volitve. Med drugim zahtevajo od režima, naj dovoli ponovnega izhajanja edinega še obstoječega opozicijskega glasila La Prensa, ki ga je pretekli teden zaplenila sandinistična vlada. Dalje zahteva dokaj združena opozicija, da prenehajo sandinisti z gospodarskim delovanjem katoliške Cerkve in njene duhovnikov.

Sandinistični režim je podvzel nove nedemokratичne ukrepe takoj po glasovanju v spodnjem domu ameriškega Kongresa preteklo sredo, ko so poslanci končno odobrili 100 milijonov dolarjev podpore protisandinističnim gverilcem oz. »Contras«. Nikaragveški predsednik, marksist — če že ne komunist — Daniel Ortega, je ogorčeno dejal za ameriško televizijo, da pomeni kongresna odločitev, da bodo slej ko prej začeli padati v Hondurasu in drugih državah, ki sodelujejo »zoper« Nikaragvo, tudi ameriški vojaki oz. vojaški svedovalci. Ponavljaj je ustaljena sandinistična trditev, da pripravlja Reaganova administracija neposreden vojaški poseg v Nikaragvo.

Izredno stanje v Južni Afriki še vedno v veljavi — Več tisoč aretiranih

JOHANNESBURG, J. Af. — Od proglašitve izrednega stanja v Južni Afriki 12. junija, so oblasti priprle okoli 3.000 nasprotnikov sistema apartheida. Ker vlada ne objavlja podatkov o številu aretiranih, niti ne njihovih imen, novinarji pa itak ne smejo objaviti imena aretiranih v svojih dopisih, je precej nejasnosti glede dejanskega stanja v deželi. Kot kaže, namerava južnoafriška vladava nadaljevati s svojo politiko kljub ostremu nasprotovanju, na katerega je naletela v tujini.

Ogorčenje v ZDA, predvsem v zveznem kongresu, zaradi najnovejše južnoafriške politike je prišlo tako daleč, da je bil prisljen predsednik Reagan in tudi državni sekretar George Shultz, ponovno pretehati ustreznost ameriške politike do Južne Afrike. Bela hiša je že ostro obsodila proglasitev izrednega stanja v Južni Afriki in množične aretacije, ki so sledile. Razmere v Južni Afriki se razvijajo v smer, ki bo od Reagana zahtevala spremembo svojega stališča, menijo politični analitiki.

— Kratke vesti —

NEW YORK, N.Y. — Nocoj se bodo začele uradne slovesnosti v zvezi s praznovanjem stoletnice Kipa svobode, ki je bil za to obletnico temeljito obnovljen. Navzoč bosta predsednik Reagan in francoski predsednik Francois Mitterand. Slovesnosti bodo televizirane.

BOGOTA, Ko. — V to deželo je prispel na obisk papež Janez Pavel II. V šestdnevnom bivanju v deželi bo obiskal številna mesta ter verska svetišča. V svojem prvem govoru je Janez Pavel II. pozval oborožene gverilce, naj opustijo vojskovanje in se pripravijo demokratičnemu političnemu procesu za doseg svojih ciljev.

HUNTSVILLE, Ala. — Strokovnjaki NASA zatrjujejo, da bodo kmalu objavili načrt za odpravo napake, ki je vodila do nesreče vesoljskega plovila Challengerja januarja letos. Kljub temu, menijo opazovalci NASA, ni pričakovati novih poletov teh plovil vsaj do leta 1988.

WASHINGTON, D.C. — ZDA in Evropska gospodarska skupnost so dosegli premirje v hitro rastoči trgovinski vojni. ZDA so bile začele povisjevati carino na razne proizvode EGS, Evropeji pa so začeli ukrepati zoper prodajo ameriških žitaric, koruze in drugih kmetijskih izdelkov. Premirje bo trajalo šest mesecev, torej do 1. januarja, v tem času bosta obe strani skušali preko diplomatskih pogajanj zadevo končno rešiti.

MOSKVA, ZSSR — V javnosti se je prvič v zadnjih 20 letih pojavil nekdanji ožji sodelovec Josipa Stalina in udeleženec boljševiške revolucije, Vjačeslav Molotov. Sedaj star 96 let, Molotov je dal intervju za list Moskovske vesti, ki izhaja v več jezikih in ga pošiljajo predvsem v tujino. Molotov se je izrazil pohvalno o novem sovjetskem voditelju Mihailu Gorbačovu. Iz javnega življenja je bil izključen 1. 1957, ko je sodeloval v zaroti zoper Nikita Hruščova.

OB ŠTIRISTOLETNICI SMRTI PRIMOŽA TRUBARJA

New York, 28. junija 1986. — Osebnosti, ki so se zavestno iztrgale iz ožine domače stvarnosti, se vzdrali v svetovne kulturne tokove, se vedno znova vračajo domov, oplajale in bogatile svojo domovino, a se pri vsem tem niso zgubile v tujini, so pri malih narodih maloštevilne, a prav zato zanje reprezentativnejše.

Takih osebnosti med Slovenci ni bilo dosti. Za čas do Prešerna poznamo pravzaprav le dve: Primož Trubarja in Jerneja Kopitarja. Ob sta s svojim delovanjem v tujini vstopila v kulturne tokove svojega časa, jih napeljevala domov na Slovensko in usmerjala še dalje na Balkan: Trubar protestantsko zavzetost za nove književnosti, Kopitar znanstveno jezikoslovno romantiko. In če je šlo vplivno poslanstvo Trubarja samo v eno smer, od zahoda proti vzhodu, je Kopitar na Dunaju bil več kot četrstot leta pravi transformator med Vzhodom in Zahodom, dve mački póloma tedanje Evrope, ki sta si bila takrat še dokaj tuja. Oba velikana simbolično posebljata poslanstvo, ki ga s širšega kulturološkega gledanja prevzema slovenski narod poldrugega milijona ljudi med Vzhodom in Zahodom.

Danes, ob štiristoti obleti Trubarjeve smrti — Primož Trubar je umrl v Derendingenu pri Tübingenu 28. junija 1586 — mislimo predvsem na Trubarjevo življenje in delovanje v tujini. Tujina ga je oblikovala: najprej na Reki, nato v Salzburgu, v Trstu, na Dunaju, potem spet v Trstu; tujina ga je navdihovala, ga ohranjala in ostrila njegovo zavest verskega in kulturnega poslanstva. Od 1548. pa do smrti — skoraj štirideset let — je iz Nürnberg, Rothenburga, Kemptena, Uracha, Tübingena, Derendingena pošiljal svojemu »ubogemu, preprostemu, dobrosrčnemu slovenskemu ljudstvu« knjigo za knjigo, vsega skupaj 26 slovenskih in 25 hrvatskih knjig. Ti prvi naši tiski, skupaj z vsemi Trubarjevimi pismi sodelavcem, poslancami rojakom in posvetili podpornikom in pokroviteljem, predstavljajo prvi slovenski »code« in »message,« jezik in sporočilo rojakom in svetu, da smo in da imamo svoj kulturni program.

Tiho nam uhaja pregešna misel: Morda bi vsega tega nikoli ne bilo, da Trubarjevo delo ni rastlo v svetu, odrezenem od domačije in njenih »lubit Slovenia.«

»Črne bukve«zopet na razpolago

CLEVELAND, O. - Slovenska pisarna sporoča: Sedaj imamo na razpolago izredno zanimivo in dokumentarno knjigo, zname »Črne bukve«, ki je bila tiskana med vojno in revolucijo v Ljubljani leta 1944. Dali smo jo ponatisiti oziroma prekopirati, zato je natančen ponatis z vsemi slikami po originalni knjigi. Ker je boljši par, je knjiga še bolj čitljiva. Ima 247 strani. To je dokumentarna knjiga, katere original hrani le še redki posamezniki. Stane $20.-, po pošti plus $2.- za poštnino.

CHICAGO:Župnik sv. Štefana odhaja v Lemont za Gvardijana*Junij mesec slovesa

Po odhodu glavnega predstojnika slovenskih frančiškanov iz Amerike v Ljubljano, smo farani sv. Štefana slutili, da bomo izgubili svojega župnika p. Vendelina. Nekako smo vsi onemeli. »Če sem predlagan, bom storil svojo dolžnost!« Kot pevovodja zborna »Slovenska pesem« je p. Vendelin začel pripravljati znani koncert v cerkvi sv. Pavla, o katerem je Ameriška Domovina priobčila dva strokovna članka. Mnenje na splošnem takrat je bilo, da bi bil ta koncert lahko izvajan v najbolj zahtevni koncertni dvorani kjer koli. Farani smo ga smatrali kot slovo p. Vendelina iz Chicaga. Koncert je bil sicer 10. maja.

Za končno slovo so slovensko in angleško govoreči farani določili nedeljo, 8. junija, in pripravili slovesno kosilo z akademijo mladih. Izredno okusno pripravljena dvorana, polno zasedena, čuteče pripravljena šolska mladina, petje cerkvenega zborna, govor zastopnikov vseh društev — vse je izražalo hvaležnost in slovo. V potrdilo izrečenega se je vsa dvorana dvignila in dolgotrajno ploskala.

Slovenska radio oddaja s Corinne Leskovar na čelu je dva dni prej posvetila vso uro p. Vendelinu kot župniku in kot direktorju cerkvenih oddaj. Tehtne in globoke govore (Jože Rus, p. Kristjan, Gizela Hozian) so prepletale njegove skladbe in izbrane cerkvene melodije. Vsako slovo je težko. »Le kakšno je srce p. Vendelin v svoji velikosti, ki je osvojilo srca vseh faranov pri Sv. Štefanu?« je bilo vpra-»Črne bukve« so nadaljevanje od prve tovrstne knjige »Vznamenju Osvobodilne Fronce«, ki je bila tiskana v Ljubljani leta 1943. Tudi od te imamo natančen ponatis in je še bolj redka kot so »Črne bukve«. Stane $8.- in ima 183 strani. Po pošti dodajte $1.50 za poštnino in odpravnino. Obe knjigi sta natisnjeni v zelo omejenem številu izvodov. Kdo se zanima, naj čimprej naroči. Obe knjigi sta neobhodna osnova za vsakega, ki se zanima za zgodovino situacije v Sloveniji med zadnjo vojno in revolucijo.

Prejeli smo tudi še nekaj izvodov »Stalinistična revolucija v Sloveniji«. Stane $12.- »Bela knjiga«, poimenični seznam pomorjenih v Sloveniji v času komunistične revolucije, pa stane $10.-, plus $2.- za naročila po pošti.

Poravnajte čimprej naročino za knjige Mohorjeve družbe v Celovcu za leto 1987; stane $23.-, in oz. ali za knjige Goriške Mohorjeve družbe, ki stanejo $18.

Naročila sprejema: Slovenska pisarna, 6304 St. Clair Ave., Cleveland, OH 44103 — tel. (216) 881-9617.

Zivljenjska pot p. Vendelina

Rojen je bil v družini Antonia in Ivane Špendov na Dobrovci pri Kropi na Gorenjskem in krščen na ime Frančišek. Oče Anton je bil v tem kraju celih 70 let za organista in sin Francelj je po njem podedoval veliko glasbeno nadarjenost. Pri vstopu k frančiškanom v Ljubljani je prejel ime Vendelin.

Bogoslovje je študiral v Rimu na papeški univerzi Antonianum in bil tam v mašnika posvečen leta 1947. Nekaj let pozneje (1950) je prišel v Lemontsko semenišče in bil po štirih letih dodeljen v Chicago k slovenski fari sv. Štefana kot organist in duhovni pomočnik.

Kot sin organista in sam nadarjen za glasbo, se je vpisal na višjo glasbeno šolo na De-paul univerzo v Chicagu in dosegel naslov M.A. iz glasbe (kompozicija in orgle). Želja po čim večji glasbeni izobrazbi ga je gnala iz Chicaga. Tako ga v letih 1968—1974 najdemo zaradi študija zopet v Rimu, kjer je dosegel z delom »Slovenska orgelska glasba« naslov doktor. Deloma je živel tudi v Ljubljani, kjer je vodil kot ravnatelj kor pri frančiškanih. Vrnil se je nazaj v Ameriko po veliki želji v njej živečih Slovencih.

Duhovnik in kulturni delavec

Vse leta se je p. Vendelin udejstvoval na vseh mestih dušnega pastirstva kot organist, pevovodja in skladatelj. Najprej je bil duhovnik, zvest svojemu poklicu in dolžnostim. Kot frančiškan je bil najprej dodeljen Lemontu, fari

sv. Jurija v Južnem Chicagu, najdalj pa fari sv. Štefana v Chicagu.

Svojemu najljubšemu opravilu — skladbam cerkvenih in narodnih pesmi se je posvečal samo v prostih urah. Vsakoletnim koncertom je rad dodajal svoje skladbe, s kora smo slišali njegove stvaritve, a mnogi smo ostromeli nad seznamom njegovih del.

Vrsta cerkvenih skladb je izšla v tisku (Ljubljana), mnogo jih ima pater v rokopisu. Glasbeni strokovnjaki bodo še pravilno ocenili njegovo veliko delo in ga prišeli k odličnim frančiškanskim skladateljem (Sattner, Ačko).

Nekdanjim odrskim prireditvam Slovenske šole v Chicagu je priredil skladbe za otroški zbor; nepozabne bodo ostale operete »Babica prioveduje«, »Snegulčica«, »V kraljestvu zelenega malika«; vse tri na besedilo Milene Šoukalove.

Slovensko mladino je leta in leta glasbeno vzgajal posamično in v zborih. Z njimi je prirejal koncerty, z zbori nastopal na TV in na radijskih oddajah, v velikem Chicagu na mednarodnih prireditvah.

Župnik v Chicagu

V teh letih v Chicagu je kulturno delo na vseh področjih udejstvovanja Slovencev doseglo svoj višek. To dobo bi lahko raztegnili na 30 let. P. Vendelin s svojimi talenti in kot predstavnik slovenske narodne fare v sklopu neštetih etničnih skupin v velemestu je dobil v gotovih krogih mesta Chicaga velik ugled.

Z mirnim in vlijudnim obnašanjem je pritegnil pri Sv. Štefanu v svoj delokrog mnoge slovenske može in žene, da so svoje talente, poštenost, vernost, pozrtvovalnost darovali slovenski mladini in ohranjevali (dalje na str. 3).

Misijonska srečanja in pomenki

690. Pomožni nadškof dr. imenovan v maju od sv. očeta s pravico nasledstva, ko bo odšel kardinal Emmett Carter v pokoj, je bil 25. junija v torontski katedrali Sv. Michaela uradno umeščen s koncelebrirano sv. mašo, na katero so prihiteli škofje iz cele Kanade in vsa duhovščina torntske nadškofije je bila povabljena na to slovesnost. Kar je prostora preostalo, so zasedli verniki nadškofije.

V A.D. in po drugih časopisih so bili o novem imenovanju naši rojaki že informirani.

Tudi MZA, ki povezuje številne misijonsko zavedne rojake v ZD in Kanadi, iskreno nadškofu ob imenovanju čestita. Molimo, da bi sv. Duh, ki je prvim apostolom pomagal na tako čudovit način doseči toliko božjega ljudstva, vodil novega nadškofa do vedno globlje ljubezni do tolikih duš, ki jih torontska nadškofija z nad 200 župnijami povezuje v ljubezni do Jezusa in Marije.

Nadškofovo dolgoletno delo v nadškofiji, znanje veliko jezikov, globoko poznanje sodobne družbe, univerzalnost njegove ljubezni do priseljencev iz vsemogočih koncev sveta, uspešnost pri iskanju vedno novih duhovnikov za narodne fare, zasidranost v sv. pismu in mnogo drugega bo nadškofu v pomoč, ko bo postal v celoti odgovoren za toliko vernih in manj vernih katoličanov.

Nadškofa vključujmo v naše molitve, ko mu želimo:

Alojzij Ambrožič,

V Scarborough pride na obisk v juliju s Floride g. Jože Ferkulj. Ostal bo nekaj časa tudi pri Kastelčevih v Torontu. G. Jože Vovk je odšel v Ely, kjer bo pomagal župniku Janezu Šuštaršču.

V New Yorku je umrl mladi Ludvik Burgar, ki je v tamkajšnji MZA bil leta zvest sodelavec. Naj v miru počiva. Vsem Burgarjevim naše iskreno sožalje!

Laična misjonarka Branka Kladnik je sporočila v zaledje, da bo pomagala v dispanzerju v Gbagbamu, kjer že deluje medicinska sestra Bernardeta Jurkovič. »S. Hermina Novšak, ki je z menoj prišla sem kaj 5. marca iz Slovenije, se bo pridružila dvem sestram, ki se posvečajo katehezi. Vročina me zaenkrat ne zdeluje. Učim se domačega jezika, ki mi bo potreben.

Prvi veliki praznik, ki sem ga tu doživel, je bila Velika noč. Ljudje so s pesmijo, plesom in procesijo oznanili, da je Kristus vstal. Bil je to praznik veselja. Po slovesnosti se niso mogli raziti in so še kar naprej prepevali. Kako drugače je pri nas v domovini, ko se ljudje po maši čimprej razgubijo na svoje domove, kot da bi jih kdo preganjal iz cerkve, ki je vendar naš skupni dom. Tako me afriški človek z marščem bogati in mi odpira oči tudi za bližnjega ob sebi.«

Rev. Karel Wolbang CM 45 let v službi Gospodovi!

V teh dneh, ko se tukaj in po svetu veselimo sicer že precej redkih mašniških posvečenj, se z iskreno hvaležnostjo zahvaljujemo Bogu za mnoge duhovniške poklice med nami.

Na praznik sv. Petra in Pavla 29. junija letos je praznoval č.g. Karel A. Wolbang 45 let plodonosnega in bogatega dela v Vinogradu Gospodovem. Zadnjih 10 let uspešno vodi veliko faro Marijinega Brezmadežnega Spočetja v Scarborough, Kanada. Kljub velikemu delu v fari, še vedno neumorno nadaljuje delo za VSE slovenske misijonarje.

Misijonska Znamkarska Akcija oz. MZA-CMA se je rodila po njegovi zamisli, po urah premisljevanja, molitev in žrtv, da je do tega uresničenja prišlo. Nad 20 lepih in uspešnih leti pomoči VSEM slovenskim misijonarjem pod njegovim nesobičnim vodstvom in s sodelovanjem mnogih priateljev v MZA odsekih povezuje danes zaledje s ternenom misijonske ljubezni in udejstvovanja. Poleg ogromnega dela piše tudi članke v petkovo AD »Misijonska srečanja in pomenki« imajo zdaj že številko 690. Koliko ur prostega časa gre tudi v to delo, vele on in dobro Bog, ki ne ostane nikomur nič dolžan.

Drag g. Karel! Za ta prelepi jubilej Vašega 45. mašniškega posvečenja se vsa naša velika misijonska družina v MZA-CMA raztresena po vsem kontinentu združuje v eno gorečo prošnjo k ljubemu Bogu, da Vas tudi v naprej On sam podpira v zdravju in Vam daje moči, da boste svoje poslanstvo zvesto nadaljeval na veliki Njivi božjega Kraljestva na zemlji.

Bog Vas živi in ohranjam!

zali na streho, hodili po žgoči pločevini kot po preprogi (seveda so bili bosi!), trgali kose pločevine in gasili ogenj od zgoraj, z vrha. Poseg je bil učinkovit. Sicer bi cerkev polnoma zgorela.

Škoda je bila velika. Četrtno strehe je bilo treba obnoviti, vso notranjost prepleskati, zlomljene klopi, okna in vrata popraviti. Razdelili smo si delo in cerkev skupaj popravili.

Ko nas je obiskal škof, je takole modroval: „Ta nezgoda je pokazala veliko solidarnost župljanov, ogenj jih je strnil okrog božjega hrama, in to je pozitivno.“

Dvakrat sem srečal tudi pigmejece. Beseda „pigmejec“ izhaja iz grščine — „pygmäos“ pomeni „visok za en laket“; to se pravi zelo majhen človek. Lov je njihovo glavno opravilo. Pigmejci živijo danes kot narod na obeh straneh vzdolž ekvatorja v Kamerunu, Gabonu, Kongu, C.A.R., Zairu in v Ugandi. Ne živijo na enem kraju, marveč hodijo na lov in se premikajo po potrebi in porazgubljujo v pragozdu.«

Ravnateljica s. Angelina Martelanc

je praznovala 24. aprila stoletnico »Schmidt's Girls College« v Jeruzalemu, Izrael. Veliko let že tam deluje in mnogo, posebno arabskih deklev iz ubogih družin, je graduiralo v tej priznani šoli za dekleta.

Kanosijanka s. Anica Miklavčič ima možnost poslati večkrat nabožne predmete na Kitajsko iz Hong Konga. Še vedno upa, da še bo mogoče na celino tja vrniti. Občudujmo njen optimizem!

Sestra Elizabeth Pogorelc iz Južne Afrike pošilja pozdrave vsem rojakom za Veliko noč. Zahvaljuje se posebej dobrudiš, ki ji plačuje petkovo AD z MSIP. AD se ji zdi letos bolj zanimiva.

V misijonu so imele lani 62 prvoobhajancev in 45 birmancev, mimo 10 porok. Pred zakramentom sv. zakona imajo posebne tečaje. V šoli je sedaj 340 otrok z 12 učitelji. Ljudstvo je ubožno. Zaslužek v tovarni je nizek in nedelje delavci nič nimajo.

Položaj v Južni Afriki postaja vedno bolj zapleten. Ravnateljica je vedno bolj nevarna in na obeh straneh, med belimi domačini in med črnici, je veliko žrtv. Na strani borbe črncev je vedno bolj vpliven škof Tutu, ki je bil nedavno tudi v Kanadi, kjer se je zavzemal za gospodarski bojkot Južne Afrike.

Lazarist Puhan

z Madagaskarja je zadnjic svoje pismo takole končal: »Še marsikaj bi se dalo zapisati, pa ne bi bil rad dolgovezen. Počasi bom skušal odgovarjati bolj osebno na vaša pisma. Mnogi me sprašujete, kako je z mojim zdravjem. Hvala za pozornost! Tisto uho, ki bi naj bilo mrtvo, mi še dela težave. Včasih moram krotiti otroke, da naj ne pojeno pri maši iz vsega grla, ker me potem „mrtvo“ uho boli. Pa se mi smejejo in si dajo še bolj duška. Hvala Bogu, da je še eno dobro. Če se spomnim na tisto jutro, ko sem se zbudil na obe ušesi gluhi in tako ostal nekaj ur, in da se je potem eno odprlo, ko smo pri maši brali berilo, mi prihaja v spomin Jezusov opomin: „Kdor ima usesa za poslušanje, naj posluša.“« vanju slovenstva. Vseh teh dragih ljudi imenovati — to je nemogoče: vseh poklicev so, vseh starosti. Posledica tega delovanja pa je jasna: Slovenska skupina je dosegla na mednarodnih razstavah prvo место; slovensko petje, narodne noše, vljudno obnašanje (tudi mladine) — to je pritegnilo tujce.

Odkar je p. Vendelin župnik pri Sv. Štefanu je vodstvo cerkvenega petja dal v roke mlajšim močem (Janezu Arku, ki je prof. na višji šoli oz. »High School«), sam pa vodi zbor »Slovenska pesem«, s katerim prireja koncerte in gostovanja. S tem zborom petdesetih glasov predstavlja slovensko pesem in kulturo rojakom in tujerodcem. V Milwaukeeju je p. Vendelin novembra 1985 prejel za svoje ustvarjalno delo priznanje in plaketo »The Award of Merit« iz rok univ. prof. Leona Muškatevca pri koncertu treh zborov. Gotovo ni zadnje!

Ob slovesu faranov 8. junija je v dvorani vsak obiskovalec prejel sliko Marije Pomagaj pritrjeno na karton. Na zadnji strani smo brali besedilo v slovenščini in angleščini. Naj ponovimo slovensko besedilo tu:

»Čas slovesa. Od faranov sv. Štefana se poslavljajo župnik dr. p. Vendelin Špendov. Imenovan je bil za gvardijana v Lemontu; to imenovanje je farane težko prizadelo, ker bomo izgubili dobrega duhovnika z velikim srcem in širokim znanjem. Člani vseh društav ga bomo pogrešali, ker je vsakemu posvečal pozornost in skrb. Kot glasbeni strokovnjak je dvignil cerkveno in zborovsko petje na izredno višino. P. Vendelinu se toplo zahvalimo za mnoge njegove odlične koncerte in za ustanovitev slovenskega mladinskega orkestra. Njegov rojstni kraj je v bližini Marije Pomagaj na Brezjah, sedaj pa odhaja na Ameriško Brezje. Naj ga Ona sprejme v svoje posebno varstvo!«

'Pinky' in 'Ball Hall'

American Home
Staff Special

Victor, "Pinky" Prebil, a St. Clair businessman, was inducted into the "Greater Cleveland Slow-Pitch Hall of Fame" at a dinner at the Sheraton Cleveland Hotel on Tuesday, June 10.

Pinky, who has roots in our St. Clair neighborhood, was honored for his 38 years of baseball umpiring. Prior to that he played hardball with Class A teams such as Factory Furniture, Fisher Foods, and others. He first was a shortstop but when the regular catcher was hurt, he volunteered to catch and consequently he became a top-flight backstop in a short time. He was a good hitter with power.

Prebil was born around E. 55 St. and went to Cathedral Latin on an athletic scholarship. However, due to the economic depression, Pinky quit school after a year and went to work to help support the family. During those years, he had two brothers and three sisters in his family.

When Pinky received his award at the banquet, he tried to read it without his glasses. His wife, Kaye, said, "Put on your glasses," to which Pinky quickly retorted, "Don't worry, I go by the sound now." Needless to say that brought the house down as the audience roared with laughter.

Prebil says he got his nickname, Pinky, when as a boy, a "friend" threw a snowball in his face and exclaimed, "Look, his nose is not red, it's pink." That nickname stuck throughout his entire life.

On the road with Eleanor

by Eleanor Cerne Pavay

From here we proceed to the Armory. Originally it was built as a brew-house for the making of ale and as a washhouse. Later it became a library known as the Shakespeare Library, and eventually it became the Armory. Some of the items on display are: the Italian jousting armor (1570); Guy of Warwick's Sword (5 feet 5.25 inches in length and 13 lbs. 1 oz. in weight); Oliver Cromwell's helmet; Grenadier's pouch (1710); a very rare and very heavy late 16th century English armor, the kind an ordinary soldier wore consisting of iron plates stitched inside a coarse linen doublet; English crossbows, longbows, pistols, and fine armor by Italians. Caesar's Tower was built in the 14th century and the lowest chamber of the Tower is the dungeon reached by a flight of twenty-four narrow steps from the Courtyard. One small window gives both ventilation and light. This dungeon has a "dungeon within a dungeon" where unfortunate prisoners had just enough room to lie in complete darkness.

We do not have time to visit the rest of Caesar's Tower, Guy's Tower, or the Conservatory.

We leave the Castle at four o'clock and are on our way to Banbury and Anne Hathaway's Cottage.

Anne Hathaway's Cottage, the home of Shakespeare's wife before her marriage, is situated in the village of Shottery. It is probably the most visited of England's buildings and one of the most photographed house in all of Britain. Shakespeare was only 18 years old at the time of his marriage to Anne who was eight years older. Her marriage took place in 1582, and she outlived the poet by seven years.

The picturesque timber-framed building, with its irregular walls, high-pitched thatched roof and tin-latticed window was originally a 12-room farmhouse owned by Anne's forebears. The principal rooms on the ground floor comprise the living-room, or the "hall" as it was called in Shakespeare's day, with much of the original furnishings including an old wooden settee known as the "courting settee" because Anne and William sat there when courting; the kitchen with its bake-oven still intact; the dairy or the "buttery" as it was known which was used as a dairy and a storage place for farm produce.

Upstairs there are six rooms, all formerly used as bedrooms or storerooms, running the whole length of the building. One of the rooms is furnished with pieces of the period of Anne Hathaway or earlier. The principal bedroom contains the Hathaway bedstead, a finely carved late Elizabethan joined bed with mattress of rush supported on cords and on the bed an old needle-work sheet, a family heirloom. Next door is Anne's bedroom containing a four-poster bed. The form of timber construction here shown is known as crucks.

The kitchen probably is the most interesting of all the rooms. Its low-raftered ceiling, stone-flagged floor, and small latticed windows all contribute to the atmosphere. Focus of attention is the fireplace, originally equipped with a spit, drip pan and other cooking utensils. The oven used for bread baking is still intact, complete with its wooden "stop" to prevent accidental dropping of bread as it was being taken out of oven with long-handled shovel.

Vying for interest is the old English garden restored as close to the original as possible with its variety of trees, shrubs, flowers, and herbs. It is with regret that we leave this charming cottage and its surroundings.

This morning we are on our way to Stonehenge and Bath. Our guide, Susie Ashworth, is repeating much of what Bertie previously told us since we are traveling the same road for at least part of the distance. But then, there are always tourists who have not been on all the tours. Again forecast for weather is showers with bright intervals—in other words, "It could be anything."

We are going under Waterloo Bridge built by women during the war and one of our men called out, "Let's get out from under it!" The Duke of York statue we are passing is said to be up so high so that he can escape his creditors; lions at the foot are made out of captured French guns. City of London police have to be six feet tall. Victoria and Albert Museum, which we are passing houses large special exhibitions of paintings and has an interesting variety of things which really show how people lived. Natural History Museum is nearby. Because of the availability of North Sea oil, gas has become cheapest method of heating. Cherry blossoms are beginning to come out, also yellow bushes in bloom. In about two weeks everything should be blossoming. In cemeteries four people are buried—one on top of the other. Large houses are being torn down and builders are replacing them by smaller apartment style housing. Property is selling at a premium in London. Tax is paid at the end of April every year. Average price of house in London is $45,000. You need a car to live in the suburbs because buses run infrequently. Office worker starts work at 9 or 9:30 am.

Out of the average worker's wage of $210, one fourth to one-third is paid back at source for medical care. Doctors earn about $51,000 a year. They go to America for money reasons. Plumbers earn about 30 million pounds a years (jokingly said) but it kind of hits home, doesn't it? Teachers start at $12,000 and go to $21,000. Principals received about $24,000. Workers with about three years of training get about $9,000. No water for use comes from the Thames River—it comes from outside sources and is filtered five times.

When they built first highway to Scotland, they made a lot of mistakes—straight and boring road and didn't allow for enough drainage. They have spent billions repairing roads. New roads now are built with gentle curves and trees are planted. "Gorse" is the yellow flower we see alongside the road on the embankments.

Address given on the Feastday of Our Lady of Brezje

The participation of the Slovenes in the 41st International Eucharistic Congress in Philadelphia, ten years ago, actually had its beginnings in Washington. In Maria's and Cyril's home, we joined our hands and said: We are going to Philadelphia! It was a Sunday, it was after a Mass celebrated in this very chapel. The following day, Monday, was the last day for the registration of the participants. Thus, the seed of the promise made at the Congress, too, began to sprout in this city. Let us pray to God that the Slovenian resolution adopted in the City of Brotherly Love, in America's cradle, may remain the bond linking Slovenian believers throughout the world, throughout the generations, and throughout all times. Let us thank Our Lady of Brezje, Queen of Peace and of folded hands, whom we have woven into our national embroidery as a symbol of all Slovenian Marys and who stood by all who forged and adopted the words of the promise.

Once, there was the custom in all great wars that arms were laid down on Christmas eve. Let us prayerfully fold our hands this evening, this night and this day, wherever we are. Let us at least make the sign of the cross and thank God for having given us a beautiful land, a beautiful language, beautiful songs, diligent hands, and beautiful thoughts. Let that which is eternal within us bind us together.

This evening and this night Slovenian lights are being lit and extinguished around the world. We won't deny that there is a good measure of emotion in all this; for, that is the way we are.

Last evening, after the litany in the church of St. Cyril in New York, I lit five candles before my five Marys. Before the first one, from Bethlehem and the year 1715, all arrayed in silk and gold. Before the second one, from the Renaissance, brought by my grandfather from Italy over a hundred years ago. Before the third one, Gorše's Mary taken into heaven, parting from this world under the pull of the heavenly magnet. Before the fourth one, a poor Mary, without arms, whittled from real wood, and with huge eyes, that came from God knows which crossroads shrine, perhaps some thousand years old. Before the fifth one, sculpted in stone by Tone Kralj, at which funeral processions in Ljubljana used to stop before the war. I placed my grandmother's pink bow around Her head. Her white face was astral, not a bit earthly, as if it were of yore and for all times to come.

Is it true that this evening and this night we are all on a pilgrimage to Brezje, that the wreath of our lights has twinkled across every continent of the world? This was not only an illusion this is how it was and this is as it should remain.

The Slovenian settlement that is nearest Washington is Steelton, Pennsylvania. The Steelton Slovenes came mostly from Bela Krajina and built a beautiful church of St. Peter's, which is still the parish church of many of them. On Sunday, May 25, St. Peter's was the scene of a moving ceremony in honor of Our Lady, when during the Mass the entire congregation approached the image of Our Lady of Brezje and, one by one, attached a red or white carnation to a wreath surrounding it. St. Peter's pastor, an Englishman from Great Britain, felt deeply the spirit of his parishioners, the spirit which has formed and rises from the Slovenian Christian heritage. This flower ceremony was, without doubt, the high point of the Steelton celebration. It—like the enthusiastic singing of the litany and many other songs in honor of Mary during the Mass and a brief cultural program after it—was a clear and strong testimony to the feeling of our Steelton Slovenes—Slovenes of the first, second and even third generation—that the thought of our Lady of Brezje is for them something evoked by their Christian heritage and Slovenian national consciousness.

Since Philadelphia is a city in the eastern United States, it is understandable that Slovenian Americans who live in the East were able to take part in the Eucharistic Congress in rather large numbers. The Slovenian promise made in Philadelphia has, therefore, been better known and has engendered more interest among us in the East, although perhaps not the most. Ave Maria, in midwestern Lemont, in almost every issue of this year drew its readers' attention to Our Lady's feastday, May 24; a stimulus or two also came from us in Washington. The greatest and strongest initiative, however, came from the Archbishop of Ljubljana and Metropolitan of Slovenia, Alojzij Šuštar.

Archbishop Šuštar, inspired by the Philadelphia resolution, named the eve of the feastday of our Lady of Brezje "The eve of the Slovenian Christian past." He expressed the wish that the Slovenes everywhere would gather together in their thoughts and in celebration of the Slovenian past. For this intention, he celebrated a Mass in the Franciscan church of the Annunciation in Ljubljana, and presided at the candlelight procession which was followed by the midnight Mass. The news of this celebration gave a special emphasis to the feastday and engendered a feeling of contentment as we truly became aware that "at that time, lights are being lit in honor of Mary of Brezje everywhere where Slovenians live and care for their Slovenian Christian heritage."

What is this Slovenian Christian heritage? It is, briefly, the twelve hundred years of Christianity in Slovenia, and everything that these twelve hundred years have brought with them: our conception of life, conception of a nation, and of culture, the establishing and molding of our customs and outward characteristics a string of traditions that are intertwined in our life and our literature.

MY AMERICAN DREAM

by AUGUST PUST

(On May 16, 1986 Cleveland Slovene American artist August B. Pust was presented the "Outstanding Service Award" for 1986 by the Nationalities Services Center, an organization in which August has been active for many years and which he served for a term as its president. The Center marked its 70th anniversary this year and the annual awards banquet centered on the theme of the 100th anniversary of the Statue of Liberty, an event being celebrated nationally this weekend.

"Gus" ("Božo" to his Slovenian friends) spoke of his own emotions upon arriving in the United States for the first time in his address to those present at the Nationalities Services Center banquet, and also expressed his feelings toward this country as one who had the opportunity to become an American by choice rather than by birth.

August Pust currently is an Executive Assistant to Cleveland Mayor George V. Voinovich and works in the Mayor's offices in City Hall. He is also active in many, many Slovenian organizations, especially the Slovenian National Art Guild and the Slovenian American Heritage Foundation.

During this July 4 holiday weekend and in conjunction with the Statue of Liberty celebration, August's words are especially appropriate. (r.m.s.)

My dear friends and fellow Americans!

Let me tell you how sweet it sounds and feels when I say the words "fellow Americans". The feeling I have this evening, as I stand before you and receive this award, is the kind of tremendous feeling only an immigrant can truly understand.

For those of you who were lucky enough to have been born in the U.S.A., let me explain this feeling by example: It's like winning a million dollar lottery, getting married, having your first child, winning an election, or even like the Cleveland Indians winning the World Series.

It is the ultimate in the American dream — to be among people of other nationalities, races and religions and to be equal to all. And so, for being allowed to reach that dream, I thank all of you, from the bottom of my ethnic and yet now all American heart!

My "American dream" started long ago, back in Slovenia, when I was just a young student, full of strange and impossible notions, reaching for unreachable goals. One day in the spring of 1957, I went to see one of the local authorities to tell him: "I would like to go to America!" At the time my father was probably thinking: Poor kid, he has finally gone totally crazy!

What I did not know when I left, but what I have since come to cherish, is the realization that I exercised a fundamental and universal human right — the right, the freedom of choice. I chose America!

Just before Christmas of that year, 1957, on the front deck of the ocean liner SS Vulcana, as it entered New York harbor, I experienced the same feeling as had overcome my grandfather in the 1920s. There she was — the lady of my dreams. The evening sun had just touched her torch, the glow of the flame had come alive, the silhouettes of the purple-black skyscrapers around her were tipped with gold, the waves, lapping at her feet, shimmered a rhapsody in blue and satin-bronze.

I stood still, my heart pounding, like millions before me, and realized: there I was standing on the threshold of America. And my love affair with the lady of liberty had begun.

This was no more just a dream... It was a dream come true. I made it happen — but I could not have done it alone. So my sincere thanks must first go to this agency, to the director and staff who made it possible for me to stay here and become a citizen. And to the lady who personifies liberty for me, my dear, dear Lucretia.* When I was tired, homeless and poor, when I needed help — you were there. You offered your hand to a total stranger. God bless you!

A special thanks to the members of the Board, and to all of you volunteers, who became my friends and gave me the opportunity to repay my debt to the Agency and to society. What an honor it is to know you and to work with you. Your vision, your dedication to serve, keeps the American dream alive for so many of us. Your efforts are so important; you are investing in the most valuable commodities available today — in new citizens and new potential for America.

This evening I want to turn also to you — our newest arrivals, who are now being helped by the NSC, and relate my wish that your dreams will be fulfilled as mine were. I was where you are today not so long ago. I walked your path. I know your struggle for survival. In you I see myself years ago — a stranger in a strange land.

To you goes my sincerest wish tonight: Don't give up! Hang on! Keep going! Yes, today's reality may not be easy for you, but nothing worthwhile comes easy. Because of your efforts today, your tomorrow will be better.

Just remember that at long last you are finally here; now is the time to make your dreams come true. This country is the final hope for all of us. And you are a living part of this land. You can mold it, change it, and you can make it yours.

You can choose to build your churches and temples here, your nationality halls, your schools, playgrounds and homes. You can publish your newspapers, broadcast in your own language, and elect your delegates. You can start at the very bottom and yet work your way to the top through hard effort and desire. And your children will dance your joy and happiness.

Your contribution will be your own precious stone, that gleaming gem, that will add to the rich mosaic that is America!

And just remember that in making this country yours, you can still retain your heritage as well. When I left my homeland behind, I didn't become any less a Slovene. On the contrary, I feel that I added new experiences to the old, new love to the existing love.

It is much like getting married — coming to a new country. You find a new love, a new family, a new home, yet you never lose the memory of where you came from, the family that raised you, the mother who cared for you. Even as you love your new bride — America — you still have your first home, which will be with you always.

Finally, to those who are

by August B. Pust

not here today, to those who are still waiting to come to America, my heart goes out to you. To the huddled masses yearning to breathe free, to those whose dreams are still just dreams, to you who are the victims of torture, oppression, persecution, for you who are strangers in your own lands, displaced persons, refugees, still in camps around the world, living in captive nations, or separated from your families by walls and curtains...

To your dreams I add my dreams: That one day we will be together, as brothers and sisters, joining hands in a celebration of freedom and liberty; that your dream will become a reality as did mine; that someday you too will stand here and proclaim:

God bless America!
God bless America!
God bless America!

Thank you one and all
and good evening!
