NEMŠKI "BLITZ" SE JE V RUSIJI ŽE SPET IZBLISKAL

Na centralni fronti izvajajo Nemci samo še napade lokalnega značaja. — Na jugu so bolj uspešni.

NEMCI HOČEJO PRODRETI V KAVKAZ

Armed generala Grigorija Žukova na centralni fronti so včeraj nazaj dvoje velikih nemških ofenziv pri Tuli, kjer se ruski vojakom pridružili tudi ruski delavci, zapošleni pri teh na utrdbah.

Muskusi zahteve napram Angliji
Inozemski diplomatični poslanički načelniki so slišali, da sili Rusija Veliko Britanijo, da naj slednja napove vojno Finski, Rumunski in Madžarski. Rečeno je, da se je pričel angleški kabinet posvetovati o tem ruskom predlogu.

Včeraj je preteklo mesec dni, ko je pričel Hitler svojo ofenzivo proti Moskvi, katera očitno je zdaj silno izgubila na večji moči, dočim je napredovala skoraj na jugu še vedno skoraj nezadržano.

Kratko sovjetsko poročilo

Današnje poročilo sovjetskega informacijskega urada se glasi:

"Tekom 31. oktobra so se naše čete borile s sovražnikom na vseh frontah. Dne 30. oktobra je bilo uničenih 37 nemških letal, dočim smo jih mi izgubili 18."

TOVARNA V BENDIXU JE PRIČELA ABRATOVATI POD NADZORSTVOM VOJAŠTVA

Ob vhodih v tovarno stoji vojaštvo z golimi bajoneti in strojnici. — Od 750 delavcev jih je na delu že 600. — Nevarnost stavke v Carnegie-Illinois jeklarni v Pittsburghu.

BENDIX, N. J., 31. oktobra, ni mogel izkazati z unijsko kartoto. V jeklarni je zaposlenih nad 4,200 delavcev, od katerih jih je 3,300 organiziranih, kakor trdi C. I. O. organizacija.

PREISKAVA PRI AMERIŠKEM FAŠISTU

CHICAGO, 31. oktobra. — Vladni detektivi so včeraj vdrli v apartmet Homer Hermanna Maertza, bivšega člena nemško-ameriške zveze, kjer so zaplenili mnogo fašistične in antižidovske literature. Dalje so našli med listinami tega nemškega fašista pismo župnika Charlesa Couglina, v katerem se slednji zahvaljuje Maertzu za nekatere poizvedbe ter ga obvešča, da so mu na razpolago njegovi (Coughlinovi) govorji. Pri Maertzu so našli dalje tudi mnogo italijanskih, japonskih in nemških knjig.

Policist obsojen

Edward Larkin, 26 let stari višji specialni policist v Gordon parku, ki je pred tedni posilil poleg stražnice v parku neko 18 let staro mlačenko, dočim se je nahajjal njen spremljevalec na stražnici, je bil od potrebe spoznan za krivega, nakar je bil obsojen v zapor od dveh do dvajset let. — O tej zadevi smo svoječasno že poročali v našem listu. Policist je dobil delikto in njenega spremjevalca v njunem parkanem avtomobilu, nakar jima je ukazal, naj mu sledita na stražnico. Prišedšča je mladenčnega spremjevalca, nekega 26 let starega poročnega moža, na stražnici zaprl, nato pa odšel ven k mlačenki, ki je ostala na avtomobilu, da bi čim preje okreval in se zdrav povrnil v krog svoje družine!

Piketiranje v Pittsburghu

C. I. O. Steel Workers organizačija je nocoj zagrozil, da bo nadaljevalo s piketiranjem nove Irvin jeklarni, ki je Carnegie-Illinois Steel korporacije, dokler ne bo delavstvo preoblikovano.

Ta velika jeklarna, čije izdelava je bila 70 milijonov dol. leta 1940, je tekom 24 ur dvakrat zbruhala z obratom, ker so pričeli, da so stali pred vhodi, zavrnali vstop vdelavca, kateri se je storil silo.

REŠITEV 44 POMORŠČAKOV S POGREZNJENEGA RUŠILCA

O usodi nadaljnih 70 mornarjev in sedmih častnikov ni mornariškemu departmantu še ničesar znanega.

RAZBURJENJE V KONGRESU IN SENATU

WASHINGTONU, 31. oktober. — Mornariški department podmornic. Sicer pa vlada upa, da bodo prišla kmalu po rešenju, da je bilo rešenih 44 mož s torpediranega v pogreznjenega ameriškega rušilca Reuben Jamesa, dočim ne omenja department ničesar o usodi ostalih 70 mornarjev in sedmih častnikih, ki so bili na rušilcu. Mornariški department sam je še vedno brez vsakih nadaljnih informacij.

Razburjenje v Washingtonu

V senatu in kongresu je nastalo veliko razburjenje radi pogreznjenega rušilca, katero razburjenje pa ima za podlagu mešane občutke. Nekaferi zakonodajci zagovarjajo predsednika Roosevelta in njegovo zunanjopolitičko, dočim drugi pravijo, da je bilo to pričakovati. Senator Robert Taft, republikanec iz državljanskogorjanja konvojev, toda bo vselej najbrž zato ničesar ne Rooseveltov nasprotnik, je izjasnil, da s tem ne obvestijo vil: "To je neizbežen zaključek o svojem položaju sovražnih vojne."

KAJ VSE SE ČLOVEKU PRIMERI

Republikanski dnevnik "The News" poroča: Nekega dne teden je imel Lauscheta govor pred nekim klubom v mestu. Ker je bil že nekoliko pozen, je kandidat Lauscheta pred poslopjem, kjer je bil klub, naglo skočil iz taksija, povedal voznišku svoje ime in mu rekel, naj počaka, ker bo kmalu zopet zunaj. Lauscheta pa se je zamudil v klubu nad eno uro. Ko je prišel zopet ven, se je ogledal za vozniško taksi, katerega pa ni bilo nikjer. Zato je vprašal nekega v bližini stojecega človeka, če je videl kakega taksi-šoferja.

"Da," je odgovoril vprašani. "Videl sem enega, ki je tekal nositi in ven iz tega poslopnega, da išče nekoga, ki se mu je izmaznil, ne da bi plačal vozno pristojbino, poleg tega ga je pa še naplahtal, da je županski kandidat."

LAUSCHE-KOVACIC MASS MEETING

The tradition that all political campaigns close in the 23rd Ward on the eve of election day still lives. On Monday, November 3rd, 1941, 8:00 p. m. at the Slovene National Home, 6417 St. Clair Avenue, the Standard Bearer of the Democratic Party, Frank J. Lausche, will close his successful campaign for the Mayorship of the City of Cleveland.

Thousands upon thousands of words have already been written about our illustrious neighbor and son of the 23rd Ward, Frank J. Lausche, so much so, that whatever I may add would be repetitious. However, I cannot urge you too strongly to be sure to go to the polls on election day and cast your vote for him.

The enthusiasm displayed for our mayoralty candidate has completely overshadowed the campaign of a most important office, namely, that of Councilman. Everyone knows that Judge Lausche will be able to completely carry out his program as mayor, only with a council that fully subscribes to that program. In Edward J. Kovacic, we have such a Councilman. He is a candidate for re-election and merits your support because during his tenure in office, he has courageously, honestly and TRULY represented the people in the 23rd Ward.

You will have an opportunity to see and hear both Lausche and Kovacic as well as other excellent speakers at the Mass Meeting Monday night. Be sure to be there and give these two candidates the rousing reception that they so fully deserve. A program of entertainment is being arranged. YOUR PRESENCE WILL INSTILL IN THE HEARTS OF LAUSCHE AND KOVACIC, THE CONFIDENCE OF AN OVERWHELMING VICTORY, WHICH EVERY CANDIDATE NEEDS ON ELECTION DAY.

*John H. Gornik, Jr.,
Ward Leader, 23rd Ward*

Why Are We for Frank J. Lausche for Our Next Mayor?

By Ivan Jontez

Not so long ago the Cleveland newspapers reported about a meeting of a Cleveland civic group at which voices were heard warning against the danger of drawing nationality lines in politics, i. e., of supporting certain candidates for public offices solely because they happen to belong to a certain nationality group.

But there are other factors involved, Lausche is the official candidate of the Democratic Party. The "Slovene" wards have been always strongly Democratic—so much so that, as far as the "Slovene" vote was concerned, no Democratic candidate had ever had reason to worry about it, even if he be a very weak candidate.

At first it was hard, but gradually they increased and now at the 35th anniversary of lodge "V Boj," it numbers an adult membership of 538. Its members established two new lodges, "Strugglers," 614 SNPJ, and "Svoboda," 748 SNPJ.

Sunday, Nov. 9 will find lodge "V boj" celebrating its 35th anniversary at the Slovene Workmen's Home on Waterloo Rd. with the following program:

1. Greetings from the lodge president and presentation of four charter members including Joseph Kuncic, founder of the lodge.
2. Tableau presented by Vincent Colf, with accompaniment of a chorus of 20.
3. Speech by Mett Petrovich of the Cleveland Federation SNPJ.
4. Vocal duet by singing society "Zarja."
5. Piano solo by Amelia Slezko (Juvenile Circle).
6. Vocal duet by Ann Zarnick and Antoinette Gacnik.
7. Accordion solo by Daniel Shrok (Juvenile Circle).
8. Talk by Supreme Secretary SNPJ, Fred A. Vider.

9. Slovene folk dances—Lillian and Albert Ule accompanied by Frank Barbic Jr.
10. Soprano solo by Antoinette Simcic, accompanied by Amelia Plut on piano.
11. Violin and piano duet—Frank and Vera Slezko.
12. Accordion solo by James Kozel (Juvenile Circle).
13. Vadnai orchestra with singing.

The only Democrat I have ever voted for before was Franklin D. Roosevelt. Frank J. Lausche is the second Democrat I decided to support and vote for. Not because he happened to be of Slovene ancestry, as myself. In my ward, we have a councilman who is also of Slovene parentage—Anton Vehovec. Yet, I never supported him, never voted for him, and never will, because I doubted from the beginning that he had the necessary qualifications for such leadership as we need—doubts which proved to be well founded indeed. As to Lausche, I sincerely believe that he has such qualifications, that he is the better of the two men running for the office of Mayor of the City of Cleveland, and that Cleveland will find in him a good, courageous, efficient liberal leader and administrator. That's why I won my support, my vote. I believe that the majority of voters of Slovene ancestry feel the same way about him and his candidacy. We're all glad that he is of our stock, because of his excellent record, but we are for him not because of the first, but because of the latter fact—because we believe he will prove himself one of the best mayors our city has ever had. And this is the only issue in this campaign—who of the two men is best qualified for this position. We believe Lausche is the man.

In conclusion, I invite all friends and supporters of Frank J. Lausche to attend the Pre-Election Dance tomorrow night at the Slovene Workmen's Home on Waterloo Rd. The dance is sponsored by the Collinwood Citizens' Committee. Naturally, there will be good music, refreshments, etc.

—Frank Barbic, Sr.

We invite especially members of the "Strugglers" and "Svoboda" and all other members of the SNPJ to attend and have a good time.

SNPJ Lodge to Celebrate 35th Anniversary

Here, There & Everywhere

It was on November 11, 1906 (St. Martin's Sunday) that some 13 Slovene immigrants workers here in Collinwood came together after a discussion to form a new lodge. This lodge would be formed on the principles of the then newly organized Slovenska Narodna Podpora Jednota. And on that day a new "baby" was born in Collinwood and given the name "Boj" No. 53 SNPJ, which freely translated means "Strugglers."

The Slovenes or "Kranjei" in Joliet, Ill., and even the "Austrians" already had two societies. Both societies were established on a religious basis.

The 13 members who formed the new lodge were not satisfied with the religious ceremonies and wanted to belong to an organization which was run on a free-thinking basis, i. e. one which would not promote religion and politics at their meetings but rather leave it up to each member to do that outside the lodge meetings. That was why they joined the SNPJ.

At first it was hard, but gradually they increased and now at the 35th anniversary of lodge "V Boj," it numbers an adult membership of 538. Its members established two new lodges, "Strugglers," 614 SNPJ, and "Svoboda," 748 SNPJ.

Slovene School Classes Conducted Every Friday in SND

Students Urged to Enroll

Knowing and preserving the fundamentals of our mother tongue will prove to be a great asset in our own future environment and welfare. For the more languages you know, the better your outlook on life in general and the better you will know your associates.

Preserving your "mother" tongue is a primary reason why the Slovene National Home on East 65th and St. Clair is continuing to sponsor weekly classes in Slovene every Friday night in room — from 7 until 9 a. m. Mrs. Antoinette Kennick is the instructor.

Weekly lessons are given in correct pronunciation, enunciation, reading, and writing. You are given the opportunity to learn intelligently and easily all the fundamentals of the language at a very small fee.

Enroll now. Attend the next session Friday night at 7 p. m. —SJP.

Another English page will be published Mon., Nov. 3.

Invitation!

Do cards have a fatal fascination for you? Here's your chance to appease that attraction by coming to the SNPJ "Concordian Srs. 120" card party, Nov. 17 at the Annex—SNH on St. Clair.

We would like to get acquainted with some of our new brothers and sisters of the SNPJ, as we were formerly SSPZ. Along with the evening's diversion of pinochle, poker, 66, etc., will be free refreshments, a door prize to a lucky person, prizes for high scores, and additional prizes given away. The admission is only 25c.

Also, for those "especially" thirsty people, drinks will be on sale. Be sure to come, all of you, we'll be waiting for you at 8:00 o'clock. It's a date!
