

Carica Katarina

Zgodovinski roman

— Pred Orenburgom pa leži može več kot deset dni, oni v Petrogradu na nas najbrž ne gledajo s prekrizanimi rokami!

— Z vsakim dnem se veča naša nevarnost!

— Mar ni res, oče? — Potrdite tudi vi moje mnenje! — Mirovič, Voroncov, vidva se razumeata na vojskovanje bolje kar jaz! — Ni-l res, da će noćemo, da nas nekega lepega dne iznenadi za našim hrbotom Katarina vojska, ne smemo več tukaj brezposelno ležati in trošiti naša moči s pijačevanjem in veselačenjem!

— Tako je! — zakliče Mirovič. Stari Voroncov pa si pogledi brado in reče:

— Vsaka caričina beseda je resnična; Veličanstvo, dnevi ki jih izgubljamo pred Orenburgom, bodo postali za nas usodni.

— Zakaj pa izgubljamo dragoceni čas? — vpraša Mirovič.

— Ker se naš car ne more odločiti, da bi v sivo silo navalili na trdnjava. — Ce bi poslušali mene, bi bilo samo treba zatrotbiti k naskoku, moji ljudje bi morali splezati na trdnjavsko obzidje in vreči goreče boklej v trdnjava; vsakogar, ki bi se jim skušal upreti bi morali ustreliti in videli bi, car, kako hitro bi postal gospodar Orenburga!

Pugačev mu da znamenje najmolkne.

— Morda imate prav, — reče namišljeni car, — toda naj bom napram vam popolnoma iskren! Priznavam Vam, da do sedaj nisem imel poguma, da bi navalil na trdnjava.

— Narod se je zbiral doslej okrog mene, ker sem ga vodil od zmage do zmage. Toda gorjeno, če samo enkrat ne zmagamo! — Ce izgubimo samo eno bitko, boste videli, kako hitro nas bodo vsi zapustili!

— Oni pa, ki ne bodo pobegnili, bodo dvignili orožje proti meni! —

— Naj se le drznejo! — zagrimi Čika. — Okrog sebe imas prijatelje, ki te bodo znali braniti! —

Pugačev sede na svoj pozlačen naslanjač in nasloni glavo na blazine. Zapre oči, kakor da bi bil truden od "napornega dnevnega dela".

Potem zopet pogleda in pokliče Livijo. Njegova žena prihiti k njemu in položi svojo glavo na njegovo koleno. Pugačev je nežno gladil Livijine lase, toda namišljeni car, kakor da bi hotel nekaj priznati:

— Sedem noči že pričakujem Božje znamenje, da bi potem navajal na trdnjava! — Toda znamenja ni. Bog noče, da bi natali! —

V tem trenetu se zasliši stransko vpitje.

— Mirovič, poglejte, kaj se je zgodilo! — mu zapove namišljeni car.

Mirovič stopi pred šotor in se že čez nekaj minut vrne.

— Veličanstvo! — reče general — njegov glas je zvenel vedno malo porogljivo, kadar je izgovarjal to besedo — pred vašim šotorom stoji neki človek. Zdi se, da je pobegnil iz trdnjave.

— Ubijte ga! — reče Pugačev — Nočem beguncev. — saj je že itak dovolj lažnih volkov okoli nas! —

Toda oprostite mi, Veličanstvo, če ne bom vaše zapovedi takoj izvršil, — mirno reče Mirovič, — zdi se mi namreč, da nosi ta človek na hrbitu veliko vrečo s seboj. — Begunc nemre trdi — in to je vrok, da nad takoj vpije in se veseli — da se nahaja v vreči naša zmaga! —

— Ta človek nas hoče gotovo prevariti, — zakliče namišljeni

da je neka žival. Daj, da jo vidim! —

— Da, gospodar, žival je, — hladnotrino odvrne Kola. — Neka podla, strahopetna in održiva žival. Moramo jo uničiti!

— Kola, — zakliče Olga in stopi k svojemu prijatelju. — Kola, ti govorji, kakor da bi bil pamet! Ne zakrivaj in ne oklevaj več dalje! Govori odkrito! Tvoje zagonetne besede skrivajo neko misel! Povej nam, kaj nameravaš!

— Da bi govoril bolj jasno? — vzklikne Kola. — Poslušaj te, car, prinašam ti orenburškega poveljnika, ki ima na svojih prshih majhen ključek, ki odpre stranski vhod v trdnjava!

Kola zgrabi vrečo in strese njeno vsebino na tla.

Zvezano telo se zvali carju pred noge.

O divjaštu Abesincev in kulturi Europejcev.

(Dalje iz 1. str.)

Pod Italijani Debra Libanos ne bo ostal zapuščen samostan v hribih, ki živi od malega številja kopalev, ki prihajajo zdraviti se z njegovo vodo in cigar menihi s prekrizanimi rokami čakajo na bolnike, ki verujejo v Judeže. Postal bo vir velikih dohodkov, središče turizma in verska metropola italijanskega afrikskega carstva.

Izkoriščanje praznoverja se bo postavilo na sodobno komercialno podlagu. Ta vrsta napredka se bo brez dvoma občutila tudi pri drugih ostankih nekulture Abesincev, čim jih bodo začeli Evropci civilizirati.

Odpravili bodo srednjeveške ječe na jezerih, kjer se kak rasa v verigah pokori, ker ni bil poslušen negru in kjer marsikdo do smrti ostane (kar se v civiliziranih državah ne dogaja, kakor veste). Te osamele ječe bodo nadomestile velike zgradbe ali koncentracijska taborišča, ki bodo mogle sprejeti na tisoče ljudi, ki se bodo zamerili okupatorskemu režimu.

Odpravljena bodo sodiča starelega tipa, ki jim predseduje cesar. Ustanovila se bodo fašistska sodišča, ki bodo sodila brez navzočnosti predstavnikov politične oblasti.

Izginile bodo predpravice raznih odličnikov, izginile bodo razlike med gospodarji in sužnji, končana bo nadvlada kulturnejših Amharcev nad manj kulturnimi Danakilci. Zavladala bo enakost — enakost za vse črnce, ker vsi morajo postati eno: kolonialni sužnji.

GAY WAY...

June's around the corner— furniture men in the neighborhood report a booming business—and high school lads and lassies are feeling important preparing to step into a world that won't take in a four-hour study course, but stiff competition for a ten-hour workday—a visitor in Cleveland for the past week is Ivan Tercek, long-time editor of the New York Slovene daily "Glas Naroda"— he is here on vacation and business— Marian Mihaljevic, conductor of the Yugoslav Radio Hour reports that over 20 Slovene and Croatian girls have entered his contest for the most popular girl which will be decided May 31 at the remote-control broadcast concert at the St. Clair National Home—

Louis Vidmar, Garfield Heights senior at Notre Dame College, was an assistant chairman at the annual student elections held recently— Frank J. Mramor, Carroll graduate, has opened a grocery store at 6710 St. Clair avenue, the spot formerly held by Frank Mikar and previous to that by Mramor, Sr.— birth recorded this week, a boy to Mr. and Mrs. Rudolf Tekauzic, 1114 East 66 street. The mother's maiden name was Frances Zobec— still anxious to broadcast the news of a neighborhood couple honeymooning on the Zeppelin Hindenburg, well— inform you that Gus Kollander, steamship agent in the St. Clair Nat'l Home, says the fare one way is only $40—

Ran into someone on the Way late Saturday— reported he was to a party—it was "gay" he said and told of the laugh he had when someone insisted that the hostess sing— she couldn't sing, but she compromised by reciting—here it is:

Here's to life!
And ain't it grand!
I just got a divorce from my old man,
And I laughed and laughed at the court's decision,
'Cause they gave him the children and they weren't even his'n.

August Kollander, steamship agent in the St. Clair Nat'l Home will have an excellent view of the "Queen Mary" super-liner of the Cunard-White Star line when it arrives in New York June 1— he has reserved rooms on the 20th floor of the Taft Hotel, a few blocks from the docks, so he'll be able to observe the reception—he's driving to New York Thursday and expects to stay there a week—an inspection trip thru the ship is also on his schedule— Al Slogar, 1017 East 63 street, won $250 at the Yale Theatre bank nite last week—

Was Eddie Cantor thrilled last Sunday at Euclid Beach Park when a mutual friend introduced him to "Joker" Arko of Addison Rd.— or was it the other way around, I forgot how it was told—the same "Joker" went traveling Sunday, for besides making the acquaintance of Eddie Cantor, he went to the Indians game with one of the few all-time passes issued by the League—Stusek Farm,

Bill's Clothiers Hit

The Bill's Clothiers' bats were ringing as they blasted 17 hits at Gordon park last Sunday to defeat the Tieber Restaurants 13 to 4. Mel Riebe, Al Jalen, Ken Lucha and Jake Strong were credited with 3 hits apiece. Ken Lucha was the batting star of the game, driving out two triples and a home run.

To whom this may concern: Last Saturday there were a few lines in this section to the effect that the Bill's Clothiers have no pitchers.

You should have seen the excellent performance Bob "Lefty" Blaney made last Sunday. He allowed only 6 hits, walked only one batter and struck out 13. We expect him to pitch many just as good and better games. — The Team.

TO WHEELS

Oh, wheels!

In you I see

The strapped energy of a thousand men,

The stifled groans of a mighty horde,

The cruel lash of a heavy whip.

For you are small wheels, giant wheels,

Intricate wheels, impatient, unmerciful wheels.

You turn and roar and clash and grind.

You are a gang boss without a soul;

You are a hundred men heaving and striking in unison;

You are a babe waiting to be led,

Moving not a single arm without command.

You are a master and a tyrant.

You are a slave at the foot of man.

For slaves have turned about and become masters,

Striking and heaving all for one and one for all

In unison, even as you,

Oh, wheels!

Then let it be

That your mighty master, Man,

Learns to turn about face

And welcome you for the blessing you are

Instead of the curse he made of you.
