

Carica Katarina

Zgodovinski roman

Ti tega najbrž ne boš razumel, ker si videl in slišal, da je carica obispala s častmi in bogastvom, kar bi vsakega človeka osrečilo. Oh, kar je že storila zame, da ji storil nesesar ni več ostalo.

Toda vendar že vidim, da bo spokoj dan, ko ji bom vse, kar si je poklonila, vrgel pred nos!

Betalesi, tebi lahko govorim, čakam samo primerne prilike, ki bo gotovo kmalu prišla!

A kaj bo storil? — ga zadrževalnik.

Kaj? — vpraša Potemkin, da se mu zavetijo. — Toda bo zame začelo novo življenje — takrat bom skušal izbrisati svojo obljubo.

Ne kaj bitje, ki sem ga onečas govoril o neki dečku, ki sem jo nekoč ljubil, da bo umrl. — Ne vem, da je sploh živa, toda jaz jo po celem svetu, — ali jo objel in ji vrnil mir in srečo, ali pa bom našel njen Na njenem grobu pa bom tudi sam umr!

Umrl? — Ti, dragi moj Almanzor, — ne, ne boš umrl! Betalesi in objame kratko!

Zivel boš, — moram! Verjam mi, — ne smetja mi pravi, da je ta živa, — da je bližu, da je morda bližje, kakor bi sanjali?

Če bi tudi bilo tako, — reče Almanzor, — ali me ne bo zaniknil, ko se jih bom pripravil? — Ali me ne bo zaniknil, ker sem jo zapustil, ker je ji iznevral?

Se boš resnično kesal, te vednostno sprejela. — objektivo, kakor to jaz delam, — Betalesi.

Objame in skrije svoj na Potemkinovem vratu, da bi videl Potemkina solze.

Če je posiljalo svoje zla v sobo, obsevalo je privetrič, — vijolice so razširjale svoj sladki vonj.

Oba je prevzelo blagodejno čuvstvo, prijetno je bilo v tihu samoti, z odprtimi očmi sta uživala krasno naravo.

137. POGLAVJE.

Srce, ki govorí

Betalesi si podpre glavo z roko, zamisli se nekoliko minut, nato pa spregovori:

Ali še več, Aleksander, kje sva nehala, Krista je izgubila Almanzorja.

Izgubila ga je po kratkih ljubezenskih sanjah in takoj je začela sumiti, da ga ji je ugrabila vila v jezeru.

Nesrečni mladenič je mislil, da bo umrl, ko so se strnili nad njim valovi in ga je neka skrivnostna sila vlekla vedno globlje.

Almanzor je bil izvrsten plavec, hotel je plavati, toda ni mogel ganiti iz mesta.

no temo. Niti ena luč ni razsvetljevala temne, deževne noči, ki je povzročala še večjo neravnost. Na vseh ustnicah je bilo videti vprašanje: "Kaj bodo storili z nami Mavri? Ali nas bodo vse poklali?"

Fašistične čete so sinoči po silno krvavih bojih zavzale madrsko radijsko postajo v Campamentu in letališče Cuatro Vientos, štiri milje od osrednjega Madrida.

Predsednik Azana, ki se nahaja v Barceloni, je odredil, da morajo vsi prebivalci, tudi ženske, sodelovati pri obrambi mesta. Med tem se nadaljuje silovit dvojboj med vladno in fašistično artilerijo. Včeraj ni bilo obiskov rebelnih letalcev in nad mestom je krožilo deset vladnih bojnih letal. Vladne čete, ki se nahajajo južno od Madrida, so začele s protinapadom, da prisilijo rebelne čete pred Madridom k umiku.

LONDON. — Angleška vlada je vladno, a osto protestirala proti rebelnim zračnim napadom na Madrid. Baldinovina vlada je povedala fašistom, naj omoge svoje bombne napade na vojaške objekte. Ta protest je prišel zato, ker se nahaja v Madridu okrog 200 angleških državljanov, ki se ne morejo ganiti iz mesta.

on GAY WAY

- The Political Holdovers
- A Pioneer Record
- His Last Practical Joke

IT IS THAT piece of cake for breakfast or too many cigarettes but the Gay Way is rather grouchy about the elections—not all because of the results, but over some of the unimportant incidents pulled off in the neighborhood that could go unnoticed but which may tend to wear off the feeling—the democratic machine announced the appearance at its mass meeting of a candidate, whom they were out to beat, because he was the biggest drawing card, of course he didn't appear—a candidate, short of workers, appealed to the public for volunteers to campaign for a popular man and for him—Martin L. Sweeney, Coughlinite and blasting against Roosevelt, in a last minute move passed out handbills, with no mention of his name but telling people they should vote the straight ticket for Roosevelt and Davey—of course his name did not appear on the circular—the neighborhood Republicans using bad judgment in passing out sample judicial ballots marked for a candidate other than Judge Lausche—and, by the way, this was the first campaign in many, in which William J. Kennick was absent—

SSCU Has New Juveniles

Mr. and Mrs. Edward Zele, East 160 St., are happy with their stork gift, a girl—the only time the Pioneers Inter-Lodge baseball champs had to replace their pitcher Fumic was in an exhibition game in Pittsburgh—Pioneer girls meet every Thursday evening at the secretary's home for sewing—John "Bub" Kardel, proxy of the SSCU George Washingtons is a daddy getting used to a first-born girl—and John Lunka, secretary of the SSCU Betsy Ross, is also a daddy to a girl—Mr. and Mrs. Henry Blumel, 16011 Waterloo road, are parents of a baby boy—the mother is the former Ogle Turek—Joseph F. Terbizan has been appointed SNPJ organizer for Cleveland—

Frank Truden is convalescing at his home after an automobile accident—

A Joker To The End

A man who died recently in Serbia was noted as a practical joker during his lifetime and therefore had a large turnout at his funeral. The mourners may have been attracted by the announcement of the deceased that a cask of wine had been previously interred in his vault and was not to be touched until the coffin was lowered into the grave. Then it was to be distributed to all the mourners who had followed the hearse to the graveyard. It was three miles from his home to the cemetery. The people searched once the coffin was lowered but no barrel was found and the man had his last joke—

Patron Tickets For Free I-L Dance Nov. 25 Available; Supply Limited

Patron tickets for the Free Inter-Lodge League dance which will be held Thanksgiving Eve., Wednesday, November 25th in both halls of the St. Clair National Home, were distributed this week to lodge secretaries of English-conducted lodges, at the basketball games and to prominent merchants.

This is the preliminary preparation for the dance which will be given by the league as a treat to the hundreds of League boosters who regularly throng Gordon's for baseball games, the Bath House for basketball games and the National Home of the annual Sports Review Dance held every January.

Both halls will be used for the dance. Johnny Pecon's orchestra and Frankie Yankovich's band will play. Admission to the dance will be free to all Inter-Lodge boosters who have booster tags. Tags will go on sale at 4 p.m. at the National Home box office the day of the dance. Patron tickets distributed free should be presented to get the booster tags.

Details of the dance, which will be up to Inter-Lodge standards, are being prepared now and will be announced soon.

Get your Patron tickets before the limited supply is exhausted. They may be procured from your lodge secretary, at the Inter-Lodge basketball games Wednesday at the St. Clair Bath House, at Makovec's in the Slovene National Home Bldg., at Birk's, 6220 St. Clair Avenue, next to the Bath House, and at Blatnik's, 6304 St. Clair avenue.

Yugoslav Historic Opera, Presented By Zarja Tomorrow, To Fill Nat'l Home

A hall packed with people will greet the Zarja opera "Nikola Subic Zrinski" tomorrow afternoon at the St. Clair National Home, if the rapid sale of tickets the last week is an indication.

Tomorrow's opera is one of the most important cultural undertakings in American-Yugoslav history. The opera relates the incident in Croatian history when the Croatian lord Zrinski in trying to beat back the invasion of infidel Turks was slaughtered together with his family and troops.

The opera has a dramatic finish, when Zrinski's wife, concluding that everything is lost, throws a blazing torch into the gunpowder storage. A terrific explosion follows and spells death to Zrinski's small but valiant army, which preferred an honorable death to a prisoned life with the Turks.

The cast has John Nosan, Frank Bradach, Laddie Kolar, Frank Plut, Josie Milavec, Mary Ivanusch, Louis Belle, Mike Ivanlic, Anton Smith,

'V Boj' Lodge Marks 30th Anniversary

Lodge "V Boj" 53 SNPJ will celebrate its 30th anniversary at the Slovene Home, Waterloo Road tomorrow. It will start with a program in the afternoon, and carry on with dancing in the evening in both upper and lower halls.

It will be 30 years on Nov. 11, that Joseph Kuncich, owner of Kuncich's Hall, near E. 156 St. in Waterloo road, organized lodge "V Boj." This was a few months after brother Kuncich had moved to Cleveland and began agitating for a progressive lodge among his fellow workers at New York Central.

The program in the afternoon will feature such singing societies as: Socialist Zarja's quartet, Jadran's quartet, and presentations of Vadal's quartet, Frank Slepko, Vincent Coff, and a top notch speech by Frank Zajc of Chicago.

Dancing in the evening will be to Frank Barbic's orchestra in the upper hall for the young people, and to the Slovene "Godba Bleb" in the lower hall for the older people.

Slovene Laborer Caused Clean-Up Of Racketeers and Police Grafters

August Korach, Slovene laborer, 1016 East 64 street, is directly or indirectly responsible for all the major cleanups of racketeering and police graft in the city. This was revealed in a story of the man written in the Press by reporter Clayton Fritchey. Fritchey most probably wrote the story in gratitude to Korach who furnished him with most of the major "scops" of the year.

Korach's civic cleaning started when he invested his hard-earned savings, frozen in a savings and loan company, in the cemetery lot racket. When the doubled return on his money was not forthcoming as promised, he went to the Press, and personally rounded up other

Socas Put On Great Fight To Whip Buckeyes; Spartans, Clairwoods Win

*Spartans 13 — Geo. Wash. 11
Socas 25 — Buckeyes 24
St. Josephs 16 — Serbiens 15
Clairwoods 19 — Pioneers 14*

Two games decided by one point, one by two points and the other by five, indicates the kind of basketball Inter-Lodge fans will be served every Wednesday at the St. Clair Bath House. The league opened its season Wednesday, being the first loop in the city to start.

An enthusiastic crowd witnessed the opener in which the Serbians, champs of two years ago and runners-up last year, bowed to their old rivals, the St. Josephs, 16 to 15. Lorain Buckeyes lost to the Socas 25 to 24. Spartans, defending champs, had it rough sledding with the George Washingtons, finally emerging victors 13 to 11. The Pioneers, last minute entrants, played the Clairwoods and lost 19 to 14.

Kubilus Is Back

Trailing 5 to 7 at the half the Serbs put a scare into the St. Joes in the second half, thanks to the three buckets made by Vito Kubilus who is back with the team this year and expects to cause plenty of trouble for his opponents. Boogey Dolenc, the color of the league, was almost up to mettle, having two personals registered against him.

The Socas proved their contention that they'll win the title by showing more spunk and fight than any other team. Surprised by the Lorain Buckeyes, who last year were weak sisters despite the fact that they had good men on their team, the Socas played dead and found themselves hopelessly behind, 17 to 6 at the half. They came back, Magyar dumped in six baskets, Koss two and two fouls, while the Lorains could get only seven points and lost 24 to 25.

Zak Makes Trys

A close game in which the teams attempted few shots spelled victory for the Spartans, 13 to 11. The Spartans grabbed an early lead 5 to 1 in the first quarter and never gave it up. Frank Zakrajsek of the Spartans was the only man who took pegs at the basket, making two out of nine attempts.

Pioneers led the Clairwoods 14 to 8 at the half but that's as far as they traveled. The Clairwoods defense bottled them up completely after that so they scored nary a point, being satisfied with three unsuccessful tosses at the hoop. Clairwoods meanwhile went ahead and had each man except Novak score a bucket. The final score was 19 to 14.

No games will be played Wednesday, November 11. The day is a legal holiday, Armistice Day, and the Bath House will be closed. Games will be resumed Wednesday evening, November 18.

The Inter-Lodge games this year again will be refereed by Joe Kubilus. Greek Vidmar is timekeeper; Vidy Vidmar, no relation to Greek, scorekeeper; Chuck Koman, popular Spartanite, ticket-taker and Tony Bolka, cashier.

The Man With No Enemies

Frank J. Lausche is the most popular Cleveland Slovene. When he ran for judge of Common Pleas Court at Tuesday's elections he accomplished something that never happened before—he united all factions among the Slovenes into one solid unit pulling for his election. No one opposed him, and if there were a handful of dissenters, they dared not express their opposition in the face of the strong sentiment for the judge.

On the avenue, this is as important as the fact that Judge Lausche overwhelmed his Bar-backed opponent, Judge Pearson with a plurality of some 80,000 votes.

In Case Frat

Albert A. Spehek, Arcade avenue, football luminary at Case School of Applied Science in Cleveland has been pledged to the Phi Kappa Psi fraternity.

Incidentally, the indictment of the police officers was made possible through the testimony of a score of Slovenes who babbled in the precincts policed by the indicted.

Open House

Goodrich Settlement House, East 31 street will have open house Friday evening, November 13. All departments of the settlement will be represented.

In Electrical Club

The Electrical Club of East Tech admitted among others Edward Prijatelj, Andrew Kalan and Gene Trhlin.

Pioneers Bowling

CFU Pioneers will open a four-team bowling league tomorrow at 2 p.m. at the St. Clair-Eddy Alleys.

THE FUND SHINES THROUGH

The Cleveland Community Fund campaign will be held from November 16 to 24. The goal is set at $3,300,000.

Credit Adamic

Louis Adamic, writer whose latest novel "Cradle of Life" has recently been published, thru his writings created an important position for the foreign voter. This was demonstrated very much in the just past national political campaign which more attention was paid to the intelligence of the foreign voter than in any other election. National committee not only appointed nationality committees for the campaign but also devoted attention to them. This was evident from the strong nationality organization built around Roosevelt's campaign, which Alf Landon's campaign to counteract by a special "talk for the citizens of foreign extraction"—

Club-O-Pal Celebrates

On Saturday, October 27, Halloween eve, the Club-O-Pal members and their friends had a party at the Sutherland Inn in Mentor. "Spinning the bottle," an old game with a modern version was enjoyed immensely. A treasure hunt for the makers provided much fun likewise the dedication of the Vogue room. The party included Joe and Mary Ferlin, Mac Sternberg, Nettie Sveti, Bill Ferlin, Dorothy Logar, John Pierce, Henry Obalnar, Lou Opalek, Charlie Sizlovar, Chuck Tercek, Charles Susa, Ann Benda, Red Gruber, Albino and George Horner, Florence Andrews, Frank Gilligan, Genevieve Zullick, Ed Kovacev, Frances and Joe Opolka, and their friends Chester, Sam and Lou, and Mary.

Resumes Operations

Reopening of the International Savings and Loan Co., 6235 St. Clair avenue, was announced this week by the board of directors. Permit for reopening was received from the State Department of Banking this week. The bank will resume operations as soon as its new insurance will be passed in Washington. All deposits up to $5,000 will be insured with the government.
